THE PAINTER FAMILY WITH NOTES ON THE LAMBERTON FAMILY

By Donald Lines Jacobus, M.A., of New Haven, Conn.

1. Thomas[1] Painter lived at Hingham, Charlestown, and Rowley, Mass., between 1637 and 1644. In 1655 he was made freeman of Newport, R. I., and spent the remainder of his life there and at Westerly, R. I., where his name appears, together with that of his son Shubael, on the list of freemen. He married first Katharine ———, who died in 1641; and secondly ———. Winthrop tells us in his History (vol. 2, p. 174), under date of 1644: "A poor man of Hingham, one Painter, who had lived at New Haven and at Rowley and Charlestown, and been scandalous and burdensome by his idle and troublesome behaviour to them all, was now on the sudden turned anabaptist, and having a child born, he would not suffer his wife to bring it to the ordinance of baptism, for she was a member of the church, though himself were not. Being presented for this, and enjoined to suffer the child to be baptized, he still refusing, and disturbing the church, he was again brought to the court not only for his former contempt, but also for saying that our baptism was antichristian; and in the open court he affirmed the same." For this he was whipped, and "endured his punishment with much obstinacy, and when he was loosed, he said boastingly, that God had marvellously assisted him."

Children by first wife:

i. Elizabeth,[2] d. in Boston 24 Apr. 1640.
ii. William, d. in Boston 30 Sept. 1639.
2. iii. Shubael.
iv. Thomas, b. 4 May 1639; d. in Boston 30 Sept. 1639.
v. Thomas, bapt. in Boston 13 Sept. 1640; probably the man of this name who was drowned 25 Mar. 1705.

2. Shubael[2] Painter (Thomas[1]) resided at Westerly and Newport, R. I.* He married Mercy Lamberton, who was baptized 17 Jan. 1640/1 and died evidently before 1677, daughter of Capt. George and Margaret (Lewen) of New Haven.

He was deputy, 1670–1672. On 12 May 1679 he was tried for contempt of authority, owned himself guilty, and was fined and bound to peace and good behavior. On 10 May 1680 "An Indictment by the Atorny Genll agnst Shuball panter of Newport for Indeavoring Contrary to law to publish Marriage in two publick meetings about the month of March last in the Yeare 1679 : 80 unto Hannah the wife of Thomas Martin, and for keeping Company with said Hannah after being forbiden & forwarned by Authorety he being bound to this Court and in Court Called, Appeared pleads not guilty and Refers himselfe for Tryall to God and the Cuntry The Jurry Verdict Guilty: By the court Comitted to the Genll serjts Custody till called for. The Sentence of the Court is That Shubal painter either be sett in the stockes for a six howers time or pay twenty shillings to the Genl Treasury in mony betwixt this & Next Thursday twelve of the clock and that his bond be continued while next court and alsoe pay officers fees." (R. I. Court of Trials, vol. A, p. 51.) He was indicted, 27 Mar. 1683, for living with Hannah, the wife of Thom. Martin, contrary to law, was found guilty, and was sentenced to forfeit bonds and pay fee. As Shubael's wife Mercy was then dead and as he "published marriage" with Mrs. Martin, it seems probable that her husband had deserted or divorced her, and that only some legal quibble stood in the way of her remarriage. On 27 Mar. 1683 he was also prosecuted by John Williams for "takeing Sheep ffeloniously"; and he immediately commenced action against said John for "Sclaunder and Defamation." He was acquitted on the sheep charge, and was awarded £3 damages and costs of court on his counter suit. The case was referred to the next Assembly because Shubael was absent, being employed about the country's service. In 1688 he was appointed constable.

In 1677 he sold to his brother-in-law, William Trowbridge, the share of the Lamberton estate to which his wife Mercy was heir; but in 1685 the sale was declared void, and the lands were resold to Samuel Smith. Probably it was held that this sale did not include undivided lands, for Shubael's son Thomas and daughter Margaret both disposed of land inherited from George Lamberton. His daughter Mercy seems never to have possessed any of this property; at least she did not assign her right in any deed on record at New Haven. An abstract of the Lamberton deeds is given in the Notes on the Lamberton Family, infra, pp. 284, 285.

Of their twelve children four settled in West Haven, Conn., viz., John, b. 19 Nov. 1715, d. after 1790, m. 29 Aug. 1744 his first cousin once removed, Margaret[4] Painter (3, ix); Mary, b. 3 Feb. 1718/19, m. 7 May 1746 Jonathan Smith, whose mother was Rebecca[4] Painter (3, i); Elizabeth, b. 31 Mar. 1726, m. Thomas Mallory of West Haven and Woodbury, Conn.; and Esther, b. 24 May 1733, m. Capt. Ebenezer Trowbridge of West Haven. 7. Hannah, b. 12 Feb. 1698/9; d. after 1772; m. 25 Aug. 1735 John Stebbins, b. abt. 1685, d. 7 Sept. 1760. 8. Consider, b. 8 May 1701; d. 26 May 1701. 9. Samuel, b. 6 Apr. 1702; killed by Indians 25 Aug. 1746; m. 3 Nov. 1727 Hannah Hawks, b. 7 July 1703, d. 8 Mar. 1771. Of their twelve children the tenth was named Lamberton.

ii. MARGARET, b. abt. 1667; probably married first ——— MORRIS, perhaps a son of Capt. Richard of Newport; married secondly, as his third wife, LAWRENCE CLINTON; and thirdly JEREMIAH MOTT, who was admitted an inhabitant of Westerly in 1699. With her third husband she removed, prior to 1742, to Wallingford, Conn. On 11 Aug. 1742, Richard Morriss of Milford gave bond of £500 to the selectmen of Wallingford to be paid before June 1747, "the condition being that if he indemnifee and save harmless the said town of Wallingford upon the account of Margrett Mott of Wallingford, wife of Jeremiah Mott of Wallingford, then sd obligation to be void." (Wallingford Deeds, vol. 11, p. 501.) On 29 Sept. 1743 Jeremiah Mott and Margaret Mott of Wallingford conveyed to George Clinton of New Haven one fourth of one sixth of the lands of George Lamberton, deceased. (New Haven Deeds, vol. 12, p. 184.) Margaret Mott could not have been in possession of this portion of the Lamberton farm, unless Mercy Lamberton were her mother, as a careful study of the deeds will show (vide infra, pp. 284, 285); and for this reason she is given here as a daughter of Shubael Painter. There is a mass of circumstantial evidence to prove that she was mother, by her first husband, of Richard Morris; and, by her second husband, of George Clinton and his brothers. Child by first husband:* 1. Richard, d. at Milford, Conn., in the spring of 1759; m. (1) 22 Dec. 1717 (registers of Trinity Church, Newport, R. I.) Elizabeth Auxeny; m. (2) 24 May 1721 (ib.) Jean Eddy, who d. at Milford in 1767, probably dau. of John (who d. 1726) and Elizabeth. He lived at Newport, R. I., and at Milford, Conn. In 1725 Jacob Mott et al., Proprietors, sold to Richard Morris of Newport, weaver, lot 56 at Easton's Point, and the latter sold it the following year. In a deed dated 15 Aug. 1726 Richard Morris disposed of land in which his wife Jane relinquished her right of dower. (Newport Deeds, vol. 2, p. 159, vol. 7, pp. 122, 144.) His children were: John, m. at Woodbridge, Conn., 12 Nov. 1750, Sybil Newton; Susanna, m. Samuel Bassett; Mercy, d. 25 Mar. 1778; and probably also: Thomas, d. at Cheshire, Conn., 21 Apr. 1777; Joseph, d. at Milford 3 Jan. 1778; George, d. at Milford 10 Mar. 1776, aged 45, m. Eunice Plumb.

3. iii. THOMAS, b. abt. 1670.

3. ENSIGN THOMAS[3] PAINTER (Shubael,[2] Thomas[1]), born about 1670, removed about 1694 to West Haven, Conn., where he died in 1747. He married REBECCA CANDEE, born 22 Dec. 1671, died 1 June 1739, daughter of Zaccheus and Rebecca (Bristol).

In 1743 Ensign Thomas Painter of West parish conveyed to his sons Thomas, Shubael, and Deliverance all right to land in right of his mother, "who was one of the daughters of Mr. George Lamberton, formerly of New Haven decd." (New Haven Deeds, vol. 12, p. 85.) He purchased land in Wallingford, Conn., where his sister Margaret lived, but he never resided there. In his will, dated 9 Dec. 1746 and proved 1 June 1747, he mentioned his sons Shubael, Thomas, Jr., and Deliverance; grandchildren, the children of Rebecca Smith, deceased; and daughters Mary Stevens, Mercy Stevens, Rachel Smith (wife of Nathan), Elizabeth Painter, and Margaret Catlin. He gave equal shares to his children, "excepting my Daughter Elizabeth to whom I have given by Deed Something Extraordinary for her Extraordinary Care & trouble of me under my Difficulties by reason of a Cancer." (New Haven Probate Records, vol. 7, p. 117.) Capt. Samuel Candee and Jonathan Smith, the testator's son-in-law, were appointed executors.

* The children of her second marriage will be given in an article on the Clinton family, to be published in a future number of the REGISTER.

Children:

i. Rebecca,[4] b. 28 June 1695; d. 10 Sept. 1740; m. Jonathan Smith, b. 27 Oct. 1692, d. 30 Dec. 1759.

4. Capt. Thomas[4] Painter (Thomas,[3] Shubael,[2] Thomas[1]), born 31 Aug. 1696, died at West Haven, Conn., in 1760. He married first Esther Mix, born 14 Apr. 1718, daughter of John and Esther (Morris); and secondly, after 1752, Mrs. Desire (Smith) Stevens, born 30 Sept. 1712, daughter of Samuel and Mary (Cooper) and widow of Thomas. She married thirdly ——— Law of Wallingford, Conn.

In 1746 Thomas and Esther Painter conveyed their rights to the estate of their father, John Mix, Jr., deceased. (New Haven Deeds, vol. 13, p. 40.) In 1758 Thomas Painter conveyed land to his son-in-law, John Chandler of Woodstock, and his wife, "my only daughter Esther." (Ib., vol. 21, p. 71.) On 30 June 1760 administration on the estate of Thomas Painter was granted to John Chandler in right of his wife Esther, daughter of the deceased, the widow desiring the same. (New Haven Probate Records, vol. 9, p. 371.)

Children by first wife:

i. Esther,[5] b. 20 May 1738; m. John Chandler of Woodstock, Conn.
ii. Thomas, b. 10 Dec. 1740; d. 18 Feb. 1747/8 (gravestone at West Haven).
iii. Elkanah, b. abt. 1742; d. 14 Feb. 1747/8 (gravestone at West Haven).

5. Shubael[4] Painter (Thomas,[3] Shubael,[2] Thomas[1]), born 23 Apr. 1698, died at West Haven, Conn., in 1785. He married first, 12 Mar. 1730/1, Elizabeth Dunbar, born 27 Mar. 1701, died before 1758, daughter of John and Elizabeth (Beecher); and secondly Abiah ———. (New Haven Deeds, vol. 28, p. 180.)

In his will, dated 19 Mar. 1782 and proved 17 Nov. 1785, he mentioned the three children of his eldest son Joseph, deceased (Anna Clinton, and Thomas and Shubael Painter); his son Gamaliel, "my son now surviving;" and his daughters Rebecca, wife of William Trowbridge, Jr., Lidia, wife of Gamaliel Benham, and Sarah, wife of Joatham Williams. (New Haven Probate Records, vol. 14, p. 429.)

Children by first wife:

7. i. Joseph,[5] b. 26 Apr. 1731.
   ii. Rebecca, b. 19 May 1734; d. before 1808; m. William Trowbridge, b. 13 June 1725, d. 6 Dec. 1793.
   iii. Elisha, b. 29 July 1736; d. s.p. 1781 or 1782; m. Hannah ———. He was one of the grantees of Middlebury, Vt., 2 Nov. 1761 (Swift's Hist. of Middlebury, pp. 143, 145, 156). In his will, dated 12 Jan. 1781 and proved 7 Nov. 1791, he mentions wife Hannah, brother Gamaliel, and sisters Rebeccah Trowbridge, Lydia Benham, and Sarah Williams (New Haven Probate Records, vol. 16, p. 621).
   iv. Lydia, b. 1 June 1739; d. 18 Nov. 1814; m. Gamaliel Benham, b. abt. 1738, d. 8 Mar. 1811.
   v. Sarah, b. 4 Oct. 1742; m. Jotham Williams.
8. vi. Gamaliel, b. 22 May 1743.

6. Deliverance[4] Painter (Thomas,[3] Shubael,[2] Thomas[1]), born 31 May 1701, was drowned near Stratford Point, Conn., 1 Sept. 1781. He married, 23 June 1725, Mary Smith, born 7 Mar. 1706/7, died at the home of her son in Roxbury, Conn., 29 May 1786, daughter of Samuel and Mary (Cooper) and granddaughter of Samuel and Obedience (Lamberton).

The aged deacon met a tragic end near the close of the Revolutionary War. On the night of 1 Sept. 1781 three British vessels landed one hundred and fifty men at West Haven, Conn., who, having secured the eleven sentinels, collected cattle and other plunder. They returned to their vessels without discovery, taking with them their booty, two of the sentinels, and Deliverance Painter and his brother-in-law, Capt. John Catlin. The boat carrying the four patriots capsized near Stratford Point, and Painter and the two sentinels were drowned, Catlin alone escaping. The Painter home, now known as the James Reynolds house, had been ransacked, and the son, Lamberton Painter, evaded capture only by hiding under tobacco leaves in the garret. Five of Deliverance's children died young, and their epitaph in the West Haven cemetery reminds one of Wordsworth's "We are Seven."

> Three underneath the clods they be > & two their lyes beyond the Seas.
> Their Names now which you may behold > though they are in the Ambicses cold.

In his will, dated 11 Aug. 1774 and proved in Dec. 1781, he names his wife Mary, his son Lamberton, and his daughters Mary Mallary of Woodbury and Rebeccah Sherman of New Haven (New Haven Probate Records, vol. 13, p. 102).

Children:

i. SAMUEL,[6] b. 7 Mar. 1725/6; d. at sea Dec. 1748.

ii. MARY, b. 14 Jan. 1727/8; m. DANIEL MALLORY of Woodbury, Conn., b. 4 Feb. 1719/20. Children: 1. Abigail, b. 18 Jan. 1747/8. 2. Mary, b. 17 Oct. 1749. 3. Freelove Amy, b. 21 Apr. 1752; d. 27 Oct. 1794; m. 30 June 1777 Jared Osborn of Oxford, Conn. 4. Edmund, b. 17 June 1754; m. 15 Feb. 1781 Mabel Johnson. 5. Lois, b. 21 Mar. 1756; m. 5 Aug. 1778 Eli Chatfield of Oxford. 6. Azariah, b. 3 Apr. 1758; d. 10 Sept. 1759. 7. Daniel, b. 27 Apr. 1760. 8. Adah, b. 8 May 1762. 9. Rebecca, b. 5 Feb. 1764. 10. Mabel, b. 17 Nov. 1766. 11. Rene, b. 9 Sept. 1767.

7. CAPT. JOSEPH[5] PAINTER (Shubael,[4] Thomas,[3] Shubael,[2] Thomas[1]), born 26 Apr. 1731, died at sea, near St. Christopher's, in 1766. He was commander of a vessel, and was lost at sea in a hurricane. He married, 25 Dec. 1755, AMY STEVENS, born 30 Sept. 1737, died about 1774, daughter of Thomas and Desire (Smith).

Administration on his estate was granted, Nov. 1768, to his widow Ama (New Haven Probate Records, vol. 10, p. 562). Administration on the estate of Ama Painter was granted, Feb. 1775, to Jesse Stevens (ib., vol. 12, p. 23).

Children:

i. AMY,[6] b. abt. 1757; d. abt. 1832; m. (1) DAVID CLINTON,* b. abt. 1755, d. on a prison ship abt. 1781; m. (2) THOMAS BENHAM of Amenia, N. Y.

8. JUDGE GAMALIEL[5] PAINTER (Shubael,[4] Thomas,[3] Shubael,[2] Thomas[1]), born at New Haven, Conn., 22 May 1743, died at Middlebury, Vt., 21 May 1819. He married first ABIGAIL CHIPMAN, who died 21 Apr. 1790, aged 40, daughter of John; secondly VICTORIA BALL of Salisbury, Conn., who died 9 June 1806, aged 46; and thirdly MRS. URSULA BULL of Litchfield, Conn., who survived him, dying 28 Feb. 1824, aged 77.

On 15 Sept. 1764 Gamaliel Painter of Salisbury, Litchfield Co., Conn., conveyed land which had belonged to Mr. John Dunber (New Haven Deeds, vol. 27, p. 6). In 1773 he and his brother-in-law, John Chipman, were among the first settlers of Middlebury, Vt., although they are not on the list of the original grantees of that town, when its charter was obtained from Gov. Benning Wentworth of New Hampshire on 2 Nov. 1761, for in 1761 Gamaliel Painter was only 18 years old. On 23 Sept. 1773 200 acres of land in Middlebury were laid out for Gamaliel Painter, who was already living in his house on that land. The settlers of Middlebury, Vt., came chiefly from Salisbury, Conn., and the name of the Connecticut town was given to the Vermont town which lies next south of Middlebury and which was chartered 3 Nov. 1761. In 1777 Gamaliel Painter was a member of the convention that framed the constitution of Vermont, and he served as a captain in the Revolutionary War. When Burgoyne marched southward in 1777, Gamaliel Painter was obliged to withdraw with his family from Middlebury, but in 1784 he returned with his family to that town. In 1784 the bounds of Salisbury, Vt., were moved northward so that 170 acres of Gamaliel Painter's land, including the site of his house, became a part of Salisbury; and on 20 Aug. 1787, calling himself of Salisbury, Addison Co., Vt., he conveyed all land given to him by the last will of his father, the witnesses being Joseph and Abigail Painter (ib., vol. 43, p. 116). He acquired much more land in Middlebury, removed in the fall of 1787 to Middlebury village, and became one of the most prominent citizens of the town. He encouraged the coming of new settlers by selling to them land in Middlebury; he served for thirteen years in the Vermont Legislature; he was a member of the Council; and was sheriff and a judge of the County Court. He was one of the original trustees of Middlebury College, incorporated in 1800, and in his will, his children being dead, he left all his estate, except an annuity for his widow, to that institution. From this bequest the College realized about $13,000; and one of its buildings, erected in 1814 and originally called West College, received in remembrance of this benefaction and still bears the name of Painter Hall. It is the oldest college building now standing in Vermont. A portrait of Gamaliel Painter may be found in Swift's History of Middlebury, from which most of this account of his life has been taken.*

Children by first wife:

i. JOSEPH,[6] d. 10 Oct. 1804, aged 34.
ii. SAMUEL, drowned 28 June 1797, aged 25.

Child by second wife:

* On the square base of the monument to Judge Painter at Middlebury, Vt., are the following inscriptions, which have been obtained for the REGISTER through the courtesy of President John M. Thomas and Professor Charles B. Wright of Middlebury College:

[Front] "Hon. GAMALIEL PAINTER, was born at New Haven Con. May 22, 1743; He removed to Middlebury, 1773; & died May 21, 1819; Æt. 76. He was a patriot of the Revolution; — faithful in civil office, & amiable in private life; — distinguished for decision, enterprise, & public spirit."

[Back] "The PRESIDENT & FELLOWS of Middlebury College erect this Monument to the memory of a distinguished Benefactor of the Institution."

9. LAMBERTON[5] PAINTER (Deliverance,[4] Thomas,[3] Shubael,[2] Thomas[1]), born about 1740, removed in 1783 to Roxbury, Conn., and died suddenly at West Haven, Conn., 22 Dec. 1795. He married his first cousin, MABEL SMITH, born about 1738, died 26 Apr. 1808 (gravestone at Roxbury), daughter of Andrew and Mercy (Painter).

In his will, dated 20 Dec. 1795 and proved 21 Jan. 1796 (Woodbury Probate Records, vol. 9, p. 227), he devised to wife Mabel; to sons Thomas and Liman real estate; to two sons Samuel and Azadiak(?) £20, to be paid by sons Thomas and Liman; "I have given to my son Deliverance Lamberton the farm I purchased of my brother John Sherman;" to daughters Freelove, Mabel, and Sarah (an error for Hannah) £90 between them, to be paid by their brothers Thomas and Limon; "daughters Abigal, Polly and Zillah have already recd at their time of there Marridg more than there Portion." The will is so poorly written that it is almost illegible in places.

10. CAPT. THOMAS[6] PAINTER (Joseph,[5] Shubael,[4] Thomas,[3] Shubael,[2] Thomas[1]), born 24 Jan. 1760, resided at West Haven, Conn., and died 28 Oct. 1847. He married first, in 1783, HANNAH CANDEE, born 1761, died 19 Nov. 1830, daughter of Samuel and Lydia (Sherman); and secondly, Dec. 1831, MRS. ELIZABETH W. BUDDINGTON of Hartford, Conn., who died 11 July 1849, aged 76. In his old age he wrote an interesting autobiography, which was published in 1910 by Mrs. Lewis Clephane. He served for six months in the Revolution in the New York campaign of 1776, and later served at sea on the privateer sloop Polly. Taken captive, he was imprisoned on the prison ship Good Hope in New York Harbor. From this he escaped by swimming, and after much privation reached the Jersey shore in safety. He continued to serve at sea through the greater part of the war, until he was again captured and immured in the prison ship Old Jersey. He was paroled, and the close of the war made his release permanent. In 1784 he was placed in command of the sloop Nancy, and for several years thereafter followed the sea. He afterwards engaged in the grocery and dry goods business, and was able in 1829 to retire from active pursuits.

14. Samuel[7] Painter (Thomas,[6] Joseph,[5] Shubael,[4] Thomas,[3] Shubael,[2] Thomas[1]), born at West Haven, Conn., 7 Apr. 1797, lived in New York City, and died 27 Jan. 1845. He married Hannah Maria White.

Child:

i. Mary,[8] m. Charles May.

UNPLACED LINES

The first Thomas Painter may have had other sons besides those given on p. 273; and it is believed that the two following unplaced lines belong to this family:

(1) William Painter* married in Boston, 28 May 1691, Mary Messenger.

Child:

i. Grace, b. 18 Dec. 1691.

(2) John Painter was of Wallingford, Conn., in 1738, removed about 1755 to Waterbury, Conn., and died 27 July 1796. He married, 27 Mar. 1738, Deborah Welcher, who died 26 Mar. 1794.

Children, the first five born at Wallingford, the sixth at Middletown, Conn., and the rest at Waterbury:

i. Johannah, b. 31 Jan. 1738/9.

ii. Sarah, b. 2 Apr. 1741; m. 8 Apr. 1762 Benjamin Williams.

iii. John, b. 29 May 1743; d. young.

iv. Edward, b. 5 Oct. 1745.

v. Susanna, b. 12 Aug. 1748; m. 25 Sept. 1771 Abel Ford.

vi. Eunice, b. 16 Mar. 1752; m. Nathan Woodward.

* Another William Painter, a sea captain of Charlestown, Mass., died 28 Aug. 1666, leaving a wife Elizabeth.

x. JOHN, of Watertown, Conn., b. 25 Dec. 1763; m. 13 Aug. 1786 SALLY WATROUS. Children: 1. Betsey, b. 19 Sept. 1787. 2. Roesy, b. 11 Feb. 1789. Probably others.

NOTES ON THE LAMBERTON FAMILY

CAPT. GEORGE[1] LAMBERTON, one of the merchant gentlemen who founded the Colony of New Haven, came from London. He is called of the parish of St. Mary's Whitechapel when, on 6 Jan. 1628/9, he married MARGARET LEWEN (REGISTER, vol. 61, p. 189). Some account of him and of his family is given in The Converse Family, 1905, vol. 2, pp. 681 et seq. He was lost in 1646 on board the "great ship" he commanded, whose fate is the theme of Longfellow's poem, "The Phantom Ship." In the following year his widow, Margaret, married Deputy-Governor Stephen Goodyear.

Erroneous statements have been made concerning his family, one being that Mary, first wife of Lieut.-Gov. James Bishop, was his daughter. This error is based on a passage from the trial of Mrs. Godman for witchcraft in 1653, which states that Mrs. Godman "hath much inquired upon the time of M^ris^ Bishops delivery of her children, and would speake of it so M^ris^ Goodyeare and her daughters marveled how she could know, and Hannah Lamberton one time told her mother that M^ris^ Godman kept her sisters count." It is evident that the Mrs. Bishop of the record was sister either of Hannah Lamberton or of her mother, Margaret (Lewen) (Lamberton) Goodyear, but she may have been Patience, wife of Henry Bishop (brother of James), instead of Mary, wife of James. At all events, it is certain that Mary Bishop was not a daughter of George Lamberton, as she left surviving issue who did not share in the Lamberton estate.

On 20 Oct. 1658 "M^rs^ Goodyeare & her children by Mr. Lamberton p^r^senting themselves before the court, she desired that y^e^ portions w^ch^ remaine vnpaid dew to the children, might be set out by y^e^ Court, vpon which p'position it was demanded of Willm Trowbridge, y^e^ husband to Elizabeth Lamberton, what he had received of M^r^ Goodyeare. . . . Hannah & Hope Lamberton, being at age, were appointed to receive their portions, w^ch^ they desired might be delivered to their mother. . . . Deliverance, who is to have a double portion, & Mercy, Desire, and Obedience, chose their mother for their guardian."

Children:

i. ELIZABETH,[2] b. abt. 1632; d. 1716; m. (1) 17 Oct. 1654 DANIEL SELLIVANT; m. (2) 9 Mar. 1656/7 WILLIAM TROWBRIDGE of West Haven, bapt. at Exeter, Devonshire, Eng., 3 Sept. 1633, d. Nov. 1688. (For descendants, vide The Trowbridge Genealogy.)

ii. HANNAH, b. abt. 1634; m. (1) SAMUEL WELLS of Wethersfield, Conn., who d. 15 July 1675; m. (2) CAPT. JOHN ALLYN of Hartford, Conn.

iii. HOPE, b. abt. 1636; d. between 1698 and 1704; m. (1) ——— HERBERT; m. (2) WILLIAM CHENEY of Middletown, Conn., who d. in 1705. In his will of 17 Sept. 1704 William Cheeny named "my son-in-law John Williams and my daughter-in-law Abigail, his wife;" "John Clark, decd., my son-in-law;" and Cheeny, Ambrose, and Eunice, the three children of said John Clark. Child by first husband: 1. Abigail, m. (1) abt. 1688 John Clark of West Haven and Middletown, b. 23 Jan. 1664/5, d. 1702; m. (2)

John Williams of Middletown, who d. 6 May 1735. Abigail had issue by her first husband: 1. Anna, b. 5 Nov. 1690; d. before 1704. 2. John, b. 12 Apr. 1693; d. before 1704. 3. Ambrose, b. 25 Mar. 1696; d. 1764; had issue. 4. Cheney, b. 8 Oct. 1698; d. 4 Dec. 1764; had issue. 5. Eunice, b. 27 Aug. 1700; d. 1743; m. (1) 3 May 1722 Samuel Roberts, who d. 17 Dec. 1724; m. iv. DELIVERANCE, the only son, b. abt. 1638; d. s.p.; apparently of age in 1659 (New Haven Proprietors' Records, vol. 2, p. 288); last appeared in 1662, when he presented in court the inventory of Edward Daniel (New Haven Probate Records, vol. 1, p. 109).

v. MERCY, bapt. at New Haven 17 Jan. 1640/1; d. before 1677; m. SHUBAEL[2] PAINTER of Newport, R. I. (Vide supra, 2.)

vi. DESIRE, bapt. 14 Mar. 1642/3; m. Aug. 1669 LIEUT. THOMAS COOPER, JR., of Springfield, Mass., b. 3 July 1646, d. 1722. At a court held in Springfield in 1679, after the death of Desire's father-in-law, Lieut. Thomas Cooper, her husband, as the only surviving son, presented a petition for the distribution of his father's estate; and it appeared by a letter of his father to Mrs. Goodyear before his son's marriage with her daughter that he did signify to encourage her, he did not question but that he should make his portion worth about £100.

vii. OBEDIENCE, bapt. 9 Feb. 1644/5; d. 29 Mar. 1734 (gravestone at West Haven); m. 13 Jan. 1675/6 LIEUT. SAMUEL SMITH, b. 4 Dec. 1651, d. 18 Sept. 1726.

THE DESCENT OF THE LAMBERTON FARM

The correctness of the account given above of George Lamberton's family is proved by a series of deeds which dispose of the several portions of the Lamberton farm. This large estate of over 260 acres was, after Mrs. Goodyear's death, divided between the six Lamberton girls. As there are some complexities, abstracts of these deeds are given, most of which are self-explanatory, and all of which are from the New Haven Land Records:

[Vol. 1, p. 52] "I Shuball Painter of Newport in Rhode Island have sold unto my Brother in law William Trowbridge of New Haven all my rights title and interest which I have in a farm at New Haven on which the said William Trowbridge now liveth." Dated 4 May 1677.

[Vol. 1, p. 281] "I William Trowbridge have received this bill of my Brother in law Shuball Painter which said Shuball I own to be my act and deed upon consideration that we the above written, cannot agree about the price and pay I the said William do declare this bill of sale to be invaluable . . . and what record hath been made upon this bill or any other shall be revoked." Dated 8 June 1685; recorded 20 July 1685 at the desire of Samuel Smith.

[Vol. 1, p. 281] Shuball Painter of Newport, R. I., conveys to Samuel Smith of New Haven "all my right, interest and title, that I now stand possessed of, or hereafter may lawfully accrue or descend to me . . . in the lands of Captain George Lamberton deceased." Dated 9 July 1685.

[Vol. 1, p. 293] Thomas Cooper and Desyer his wife of Springfield, Mass., convey to Samuell Smith of New Haven "a full sixth part from the estate of George Lamberton deceased." Dated 30 Oct. 1685.

[Vol. 1, p. 349] "Mr. George Lamberton's farm situate on the west side of New Haven harbor . . . is divided unto Captain John Alling, Mr. William Trowbridge, Samuell Smith and Mrs. Hope Harbett . . . by virtue of their mutual desire and agreement." Dated 22 Mar. 1685/6.

[Vol. 1, p. 367] John and Hannah Allyn of Hartford convey to Thomas Trowbridge, son of William Trowbridge of New Haven, "the full sixth part of Mr. George Lambertons land that does descend to the said Hannah Allen as her portion in Mr. George Lamberton's lands. . . laid out or not laid out." Dated 15 Dec. 1687.

[Vol. 1, p. 760] William Cheney of Middletown, with the consent of Hope "my present" wife, conveys to Thomas Painter of New Haven about 40 acres, "formerly Mr. Lambertons." Dated 26 May 1698.

[Vol. 1, p. 816] John Clark of Middletown and Abigaill Clark, his wife, enter their caution against any further record of the lands belonging to their mother, Hope Cheny, formerly Hope Lamberton, which did formerly belong unto Mr. George Lamberton, lying within the precincts of New Haven, they being the proper heirs of said land. Dated 23 May 1700.

[Vol. 10, p. 398] John Williams and Abigail his wife, Ambros Clark, Cheny Clark, Edward Jackson and Eunice his wife, all of Middletown, convey to Samuel Smith of West Haven all right to Mr. George Lamberton's third division lot in New Haven, descending to them from the estate of Mr. George Lamberton, excepting the farm at West Haven sold to Thomas Painter. Dated 27 Feb. 1728/9.

[Vol. 4, p. 290] Elizabeth Trowbridge, widow, daughter of George Lamberton, deceased, conveys to grandson Caleb Mallary ⅛ of the land laid out to Mrs. Goodyear, widow to Mr. George Lamberton, deceased. Dated 19 May 1714.

[Vol. 12, p. 184] Jeremiah Mott and Margaret Mott of Wallingford, for £100, convey to George Clinton of New Haven "all our Right Title and Intrest in the Estate of George Lamberton of New Haven aforesd decd: being one fourth part of sixth part of all sd Lambertons Lands in sd New Haven whether divided or not yet divided." Dated 29 Sept. 1743.

From the Proprietors' Records (vol. 4, p. 137) we learn that the following claims to "half division" land were recorded 3 Apr. 1704: "Thom^{s} Trowbridge at ye West side ⅛ of M^{r} Lambertons 1st purchase Right. Thom^{s} panter ⅛ of M^{r} Lambertons 1st purchase Right. L^{t} Sam^{ll} Smith ⅛ of M^{r} Lambertons 1 purchase Right." It is difficult to understand how, after Shubael Painter had sold all his rights to Samuel Smith, his son Thomas Painter could have inherited Lamberton land; but it is certain that he did, both from the record given above and from the fact that he later sold land which he inherited from his mother. Also the Margaret Mott who appears in the deed quoted above must have inherited her share of the Lamberton lands from the Painters, as all the other branches of the family are thoroughly accounted for. We have presented the facts, and must be content to leave this and other perplexities in abeyance.

PALMER, KENT AND PRESCOTT.—Goodwin in his work states that Elizabeth [Palmer], the second wife of Joseph Kent, of Suffield (born Feb. 26, 1709–10), was born 8 August, 1718. The Town Record, however, reads .... "Timothy Palmer 2d and Abigail Allen were joyned in marriage April ye 8th 1703" .... and, after naming other children, ... "Elizabeth was born August ye 14th 1713." The Town Record gives also the following birth-dates of her children:

Abigail 2 Nov. 1751.
Elizabeth 20 Feb. 1752–3.
Lydia 26 Feb. 1757.

Timothy[3] Palmer, 2d, was the son of Timothy[2] Palmer, who was the son of Thomas[1] of Rowley, 1639.

In the Prescott Genealogy, p. 248 (Part II.), No. 153, 7, an error occurs, the researches of the Rev. William Churchill Reade of Candia having proved that John Prescott, born Sept. 14, 1746, married Patience Palmer (born about 1755, died "12 Dec. 1819, aged 64 years") and had by her Josiah, born about 1776 (whose body was exhumed), who died 28 Sept. 1820.

Priscilla, born 1781, died single 2 Aug. 1850.
James, born 1789, died 22 Nov. 1866.

Patience was the daughter of Dea. Stephen[4] Palmer (by Priscilla his wife), he being the son of Timothy,[3] the son of Thomas,[2] the son of Thomas[1] of Rowley, 1639.

From Dea. Stephen the Hon. Albert Palmer, mayor of Boston 1883, is descended —the line running Stephen,[4] Joseph,[5] Joseph,[6] Albert.[7]

Norwich, Ct. FRANK PALMER.

JOHN PARISH OF GROTON, MASS., AND SOME OF HIS DESCENDANTS.

By Roswell Parish, Jr., of Brookline, Mass.

1. John[1] Parish of Groton, Mass., and earlier of Braintree and Mendon, was probably the first of the line in New England. The difference in the way of spelling the name of Paris and Parish, some using frequently two r's, has led to confusion, but there were apparently two distinct families, one bearing the name Paris, the other Parish. Of the Paris family were the Rev. Samuel Paris of witchcraft fame, his uncle John Paris a planter of Barbados, and Thomas Paris who appears on Long Island in 1683. Of the Parish name the earliest seem to have been Thomas Parish of Cambridge, who came over in the Increase in 1635, and John Parish of Groton. Savage has called this John "perhaps a son of Thomas or a brother as seems more likely," but as there is no Thomas among John's six sons mentioned in his will, it is probable that neither of these suppositions is correct. Nor does there seem to be any evidence from wills or other sources of information to connect him with the Paris family.

John Parish first appears at Braintree, Mass., where he married first, 30 June 1664, Hannah Jewell, born 12 Dec. 1643, a daughter of Thomas of the same place. They had a daughter Hannah born in Braintree 3 July 1665, and soon afterwards must have moved to Mendon, Mass., where John Parish took an original proprietor's lot of twenty acres. The "Annals of Mendon" mentions his name in several records, the earliest being 1 Dec. 1669, when he signed an agreement concerning the coming of a pastor to the church. Either during King Philip's War, or just after it, he went to Groton, for in the Concord records is found an agreement of the inhabitants of Groton, assembled at Concord 10 Dec. 1677, "that those present would go up in the spring following, and begin to repair our habitations again," which agreement he signed. At Groton he was a member of the council of safety which met 9 May 1689, just after Gov. Andros was deposed, and the same day he was elected a representative to the General Court. On 29 Dec. 1685 he married, secondly, Mary Wattell, the daughter of John of Chelmsford, Mass. During King William's War, and on 17 Mar. 1691–2, in an agreement for the security of the town, "Ensign John Lakin and John Parish," with others, were to compose one of the garrisons. Having suffered one Indian attack while at Mendon, John Parish removed to Chebacco Parish, Ipswich, Mass. There four more children were born to him. From Ipswich he went to Connecticut, where, on 15 Nov. 1704, John Parish and Mary his wife were admitted to the first church of Preston by letter from the Ipswich church. Here he died in 1715.

xiv. Ephraim, "not of age" in 1715. His father in his will suggests the possibility of his being "put to a trade."

2. Samuel[2] Parish (John[1]), probably born in Mendon, Mass., apparently followed closely in the footsteps of his father, for in 1698–9 and 1700 his name appears in the church records at Essex, Mass., then Chebacco Parish, and later, after his father went to Stonington, Conn., he was admitted an inhabitant of Norwich, Conn., in 1716. On 18 Apr. 1719, and again on 28 Apr. 1719, he bought land there, situated on the west side of the Quinnebaug River, and made it the homestead. In a quitclaim deed after his death, his children Joel, Solomon, Nathaniel, and Mary Parish relinquished this same tract to "our Brother Samuel Parish," 9 June 1735, the others, Nehemiah and Rececca, not being of age at that date. He died in May 1735, but the date of his marriage to Mary ——— is not known. Children:

6. i. Samuel,[3] b. in Chebacco Parish, Ipswich, Mass., 12 Oct. 1700.

ii. Joel, m. 27 June 1732, Rebecca Green, "both of Canterbury," Conn.

8. v. Nathaniel, b. 12 Jan. 1712–13.
vi. Nehemiah, b. in Norwich 1715; m. 1737, Ruth Green, who d. 26 Dec. 1754.
vii. Rebecca, b. in Norwich 1718.
viii. John(?).

3. Benjamin[2] Parish (John[1]), probably born in Mendon, Mass., lived in Preston, Conn., as is evidenced by a deed and the distribution of the estate of Jonathan Tracy who, on the 29 Nov. 1711, conveyed "unto my son and daughter Benjamin parish and mary his wife" about "thurty and fiue Acres" of land "Situate and being in preston where sd Beniamin parishes Dwelling house now stands." He married, 18 Apr. 1705, Mary Tracy of Preston, born 7 Sept. 1682, daughter of the above-mentioned Jonathan and Mary (Griswold).

Children:

i. Benjamin,[3] b. 10 May 1706; m. 29 Jan. 1735–6, Mary Rude of Canterbury, Conn.
ii. Joseph, b. 18 Jan. 1708; m. 3 July 1735, Mary Jones.

vi. Tamson, b. 20 Aug. 1715.
vii. Deborah, b. 7 June 1718.
viii. Danielle, b. 28 May 1720.
ix. Jerusha, b. 30 June 1722.
x. Abigall, b. 31 July 1725.

4. William[2] Parish (John[1]), born in Ipswich, Mass., 11 Feb. 1694, died in Windham, Conn., 21 Oct. 1763, aged 68. He married first, in Windham, 8 Nov. 1716, Jerusha Smith, who died 23 Mar. 1727; secondly, in Windham, 23 May 1738, Bethia Brewster, born 5 Apr. 1702, died 8 Feb. 1741, daughter of Capt. Daniel and Hannah (Gager) of Preston, Conn.; and thirdly, 13 Apr. 1742, Jerusha Ayer, who died in 1777. After selling his share of the land in Stonington, Conn., inherited from his father, he removed to Windham, and settled there, buying considerable property.

Children by first wife, all born in Windham:

i. William,[3] b. 11 Aug. 1717; d. in Windham 15 Nov. 1724.

SETH[5] PAYN OF LEBANON, CONN., AND PAINES HOLLOW, N. Y., AND SOME OF HIS DESCENDANTS

Contributed by Philip William Towne and Roderick Bissell Jones, B.A., B.Sc., M.Sc., Ph.D., LL.B.

The present investigation of the life of Seth[5] Paine of Lebanon, Conn., and Paines Hollow, N. Y., has disclosed many facts regarding him which were unknown to any one now living. This new material consisted of the ancestral line of Seth Payne, his record as a soldier in the response to the Lexington Alarm, and proof that his mother was Mary Brewster, a descendant of William[1] Brewster of the Mayflower, that Seth and his family were born in Lebanon, the names of his sixteen children, the correct parentage of his many grandchildren, the fact that his children married into families of Windham County and Tolland County, Conn., that Seth was descended from Moses[1] Paine of Braintree, Mass., although many of the Paine families in central and western New York State descended from Stephen[1] Paine of Rehoboth, Mass., and that Seth, at the age of 13, was one of the "heirs of Benjamin", his deceased father.

1. Seth[5] Payn * (Benjamin,[4] John,[3] Stephen,[2] Moses[1]), born at Lebanon, Conn., 1 Sept. 1742 [1, 2, 3, 12],† died at Paines Hollow, German Flatts Township, Herkimer Co., N. Y., 13 Feb. 1813 and is

* Seth Payn's mother was Mary[5] Brewster (Benjamin,[4] Benjamin,[3] Jonathan,[2] Elder William[1] of the Mayflower) [2].

† The numbers in brackets refer to authorities, a list of which is printed at the end of this article.

buried in the Paine Family Cemetery on his own farm at Paines Hollow. His tombstone says that he was in his 71st year. He married a MISS SWIFT [5], whose tombstone, next to his, calls her Jerusha * and gives her age as 73 years 7 months, when she died 17 Dec. 1822.

"Jerusha, wife of Seth Payn", was admitted to full communion in the First Ecclesiastical Society of Lebanon in 1771 [6].

Seth Payn was in the Lexington Alarm List from Lebanon along with his brothers, Benjamin, Jr., Daniel, and Stephen. He is also listed in an independent company in Lebanon in the 12th Regiment [26]. He was declared by his great-grandson, Charles Alden Payn (No. 1, viii, 1, (1)) q.v., to have come with Benedict Arnold to the relief of Fort Stannix, N. Y., and been impressed by the water power in Fulmer Creek, Herkimer Co., to which he later returned to build the first mill. His sons and grandsons still later built the first steam power mill in that part of the State.

Seth Payn is listed in the 1790 Federal Census as having a household at Lebanon, Windham Co., Conn., consisting of 2 free white males over 16, 4 free white males under 16 and 6 free white females [8]. Herkimer County histories simply state that he came from Windham County, Conn. Lebanon at that time was in Windham County. The census lists only two other men named Seth Payn in Windham County, Seth, Sr., and Seth, Jr., in Brooklyne. Seth,[5] Sr. (Seth,[4] Samuel,[3] Stephen,[2] Stephen[1] of Rehoboth, Mass. [9]) was of another Payn line altogether.

On 17 Feb. 1797 Seth Payn left Windham County, Conn., with wife, sister, five sons and six daughters, cattle, etc., and arrived 13 days later—the first settler in what is now Paines Hollow, N. Y. [10, 11]. Seth, Jr., was married in Lebanon the month before they started and was killed within a year by a falling tree on the new homestead in New York.

The will of Seth Payn, dated 23 Dec. 1811, in 1939 was in the possession of Mrs. Thomas Clark Swift of Herkimer County, a descendant of Jerusha[6] (Payn) Swift. It mentions his wife Jerusha, his daughters Jerusha Swift, Lydia Johnson, Esther Payn, Betsy Payn, Clarissa Payn, Zerviah Payn, children of his deceased daughter Hannah Smith, and four sons, Thomas, John, James, and Chester, and no others. Sons Thomas and John were executors.

PAYNE (ante, Vol. 53, page 358).—Regarding the ancestors of Stephen Payne and Anna Bushnell, his wife, I think the name Anna Bushnell should be Rebeckah Bushnell, for I find in the church records of marriages in Lebanon, Conn., that "Stephen Payne married, Sept. 23, 1756, Rebeckah Bushnell." In the marriage records of Coventry, Conn., it says: "Stephen Payne married Sept. 23, 1756, Rebeckah Bushnell, daughter of Nathan Bushnell of Lebanon." Their children were: "Sarah, born May 20, 1758; Rebeckah, born May 20, 1760; Ebenezer, born Sept. 27, 1762; Allin, born Mar. 31, 1765; Tilla, born Nov. 1, 1767."

If the foregoing records are of the Stephen Payne named by the querist, his line of descent was: Moses,[1] Stephen,[2] John,[3] Benjamin,[4] Stephen.[5] This family is set forth in Thayer's "Family Memorial," page 115.

Preston, Conn., church records state that James Paine married Sarah Armstrong, Jan. 15, 1734. Windham County Probate Records show that James Payne's estate was, by his will, distributed, in Feb., 1755, to his "widow Sarah, to Deborah wife of John Morgan, and to the heirs of Benjamin and Seth Payn." Deborah, Benjamin and Seth were undoubtedly the twin sister and two brothers of James, the testator; and all were children of John[3] and Deborah (Neal) Paine, given on page 117 of the "Memorial." This is substantiated by the age of Benjamin as stated in the record of his death.

Benjamin[4] Paine married, Oct. 19, 1726, Mary, dau. of Benjamin and Mary Brewster; and he "died Jan. 14, 1755, aged 55 years the 8th of March next." Their children were: Benjamin,[5] b. Mar. 4, 1728; Mary, b. Jan. 20, 1730; Lydia, b. Nov. 6, 1731; Stephen, b. June 26, 1735, m. Rebeckah Bushnell; Dan, b. Apr. 10, 1737; Hannah, b. June 25, 1739; Seth, b. Sept. 1, 1742; and Sarah, b. Mar. 22, 1745.

THE PEASE FAMILY.

[By Frederick S. Pease of Albany, N. Y., member of the N. E. Hist. Geneal. Soc.]

The ancient arms of Pease are here represented, having been preserved in the branch of which Joseph Robinson Pease is a member, and used as a family seal for one hundred and fifty years, viz:

Per fesse Argent and Gules, an Eagle displayed counterchanged.

Crest — An Eagle's head erased, the beak holding a stalk of Pea-haulm, all proper. Said to signify that the person to whom it was granted had been a commander, but not in chief.*

ORIGIN OF THE NAME.†

So subtle are the clues which guide us in tracing out the origin of family names that in many cases it seems impossible to arrive at any positive conclusion. But in the present case it seems highly probable, that while the name was variously rendered into English, in some instances it retained its Celtic appellation; and the transformation of Pea into Peas, as the name was often found in early records, and Pease being so very easy and natural, that for the want of a better derivation, we ought not to hesitate to adopt this as the most probable one.‡

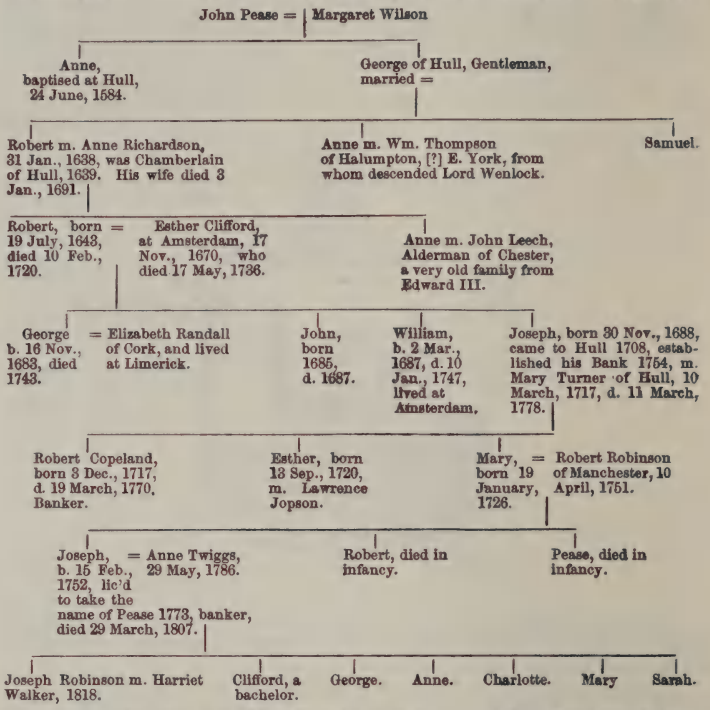
The name has always been common in England; but as there were no

* Arms often give a very certain clue to the origin of the name of the bearer, especially if they be ancient. May not the name of this family be derived from the plant so conspicuous in its most ancient arms? If the individual who introduced that valuable esculent into England, or from being the first to cultivate it successfully, took its name, he is more to be honored than a thousand Napoleons. — Ed.

† The author having the same account from the College of Arms upon the origin of the name Pease as that we have printed for Peabody, (in our last volume, p. 153, &c.,) it becomes necessary only to refer to that curious paper. — Ed.

‡ That is, the one derived from the paper referred to in the last note. — Ed.

parish registers kept prior to 1570, no particulars can be learned previous to that date. The earliest record that can be found is, that John Pease married Margaret Wilson, at the Holy Trinity Church, Hull, June 9th, 1583.



It appears that about 1660, Mr. Robert Pease emigrated to Amsterdam, and died there. His son William lived with him and died without issue. George Pease settled at Limerick, married and died without issue. Joseph, the youngest son, came to Hull, (where the family had resided for some generations,) in 1708. His descendants, Joseph Robinson Pease and family, still reside in that neighbourhood.

Joseph Robinson Pease is successor in the bank that was established in Hull by Joseph Pease, his great-grandfather, in 1754. His residence is Hesslewood, near Hull. His late father's connections are among the large landed proprietors in Staffordshire, and his mother's among those in Derbyshire. His own are amongst some of the most highly respected landed proprietors in East Yorkshire. His youngest brother, a clergyman, and two of Sir Robert Peel's brothers, married sisters.

There are several families, respectable yeomanry, in the neighbourhood of Doncaster and Pontefract.* There is another highly respectable branch residing in the county of Durham.

John Pease of Darlington, who is a preacher of the society of Friends, states that the branch of which he is a member has been located in Darlington for five generations, and the first of the name who settled there came from the West Riding of the county of York. A village between the towns of Pontefract and Barnsly, named Scarcroft, was once pointed out to him as the abode of his ancestors. His brother Joseph, also a member of that society, has been several times returned to Parliament for the southern division of the county of Durham. Also, Edward Pease of Darlington, a member of the society of Friends, who has the credit of designing and establishing the Stockton and Darlington Railway, the first one in England.*

No connection as yet can be established between the ancestors of the family in this country and the name in England, although there is no doubt of the fact of such connection.

The following arms have been borne by different branches of the family:

Pease (Hull, county of York.) Vert. a Chevron between three Bucks trippant Or, in the middle Chief point a Bezant on a Chief per fesse Gu. and Ar. an Eagle displayed counter changed.

Crest, an Eagle's head erased, holding in the beak a slip of Pea-haulm ppr.

Crest, a Leopard's head guardant couped at the neck holding in the mouth a sword barways ppr. collared Az.

Pease (London, granted to Robert Pease, Gent., 1763.) Per pale Gu. and Vert. a Fesse indented, Erminois between three Lambs pass. Ar.

Crest, on a Mount Vert. a Dove rising, Ar. holding in the beak Gu. a Pea-stalk, the blossoms and pods ppr., legs as the beak. — Burke's Ency. of Heraldry.

Pease (Sir George Pease, 1642.) Az. a Chevron between three Lozenges Or.

Crest, a Leopard's head erased ppr. languid Gu.

Those of the name who came first to this country were John and Robert Pease; and their arrival has been variously accounted for by history and tradition as follows, viz:

One traditionary account is, that in the fall of 1632, or a year or two later, a vessel bound from England to South Virginia, fell in with the south shoal of Nantucket, came up through the Vineyard sound and anchored off Cape Poge, on account of a distemper which, like a plague, raged among the passengers and crew, twenty-five of whom died. Or, according to another account, scarcity of provisions was the occasion. Four men with their families, requested to be put on shore, preferring rather to take their chance with the natives, than to pursue the voyage under such distressing circumstances. They landed at the spot since called (Pease's Point,) Edgartown. Their names were John Pease, Thomas Vincent, —— Trapp, and —— Browning or Norton.[1] A red coat, presented on landing, by Pease to the Chief or Sachem, secured at once the good offices of the tribe; and they were treated with hospitality.

In order to shelter themselves from the approaching winter, Pease and his company made excavations in the side of a hill near the water, whence they could command a full view of the harbor and adjacent bay. Some vestiges of these caves still remain. They remained here through the cold season, and were joined by others at different times until, in 1642, the whole number of families amounted to twenty-four.

* Vol. II. page 313.

Another tradition that has obtained credit, and justly, because history has at length come to its support, is, that two brothers came over and landed at Boston.

John Pease aged 27, and Robert Pease aged 27, are proved by the custom-house books to have embarked in the Francis, John Cutting master, in the end of April, 1634, from Ipswich. This ship arrived at Boston without the loss of a single passenger.

Neither of them appear to have had wives with them, but John had with him Robert, aged three years, and a Miss Clark, aged 15, daughter of a fellow passenger, and a Miss Greene, aged 15, perhaps a servant.

The names of John and Robert Pease are found next among the inhabitants of Salem, in 1637. The following is according to the records of the first church of that town:

Widow Pease joined the church 1639, Robert Pease joined it 1643. Both dead in 1660. (Robert died in 1644.) Nathaniel, Sarah, and Mary, children of Robert Pease, baptized 15th day of 8th month, 1643. John, Robert, Mary, and Abraham, children of John Pease, baptized 3d day of 5th month, 1667. John Pease, admitted to the church, 4th day of 5th month, 1667. James, son of John Pease, baptized November, 1670. Isaac, son of John Pease, baptized September, 1672. On sacrament day John Pease and his wife had a letter of recommendation granted to the church at Springfield, (now Enfield, Ct.,) Oct. 6, 1681. Ann Pease was admitted to the church from Ipswich in 1672.

Who widow Pease was there is no present means of ascertaining certainly; but there can hardly be a doubt that John Pease, whose children were baptized at different times from 1667 to 1672, who joined the church in 1667, and who, with his wife, was dismissed and recommended to the church at Springfield, (Enfield) was the son of widow Pease.

It seems most natural to suppose that John and Robert Pease, whose names are found at Salem in 1637, were the same who came over in the Francis. But there is a tradition relative to the subject, which may pass for what it is worth: Capt. Valentine Pease of Edgartown, who is upwards of 80 years of age, has heard his father and grandfather say that the two eldest sons of John Pease, who, according to tradition, landed at Martha's Vineyard, removed from there to Salem, and that their names were James and John.

Among a large number of persons of Salem, owning estates there "before 1661," are the names of Nathaniel and Isaac Pease.

Miss Caulkins, in her History of Norwich, Ct., states, that a person named John Pease was there among the first settlers in 1660. This may admit of a rational doubt; for in Vol. I. p. 315 of the New England Hist. and Geneal. Register, there is a list of the first settlers of Norwich, which has no John Pease, but John Pearce, and agreeing with the authoress above cited in all the other names. It is hardly credible that there should have been three men named John Pease in the colonies of about the same age, at that early period; but admitting it to have been so, the one in Norwich in 1660, could hardly have been the same person who was in Salem, and was enrolled a member of the artillery company in 1661; for it is most probable that he was a resident of Salem from his first arrival there until his removal to Enfield, Ct.

The following notices are to be found in the Annals of Salem:

1643. Lucy Peas of Salem is arraigned before the Gen^{l}. Court chard. with having embraced the opinions of Samuel Gorton. — On renouncing them she is dismissed.

1682. Capt. John Peas, Sen. æ. 52, had moved lately from Salem to Enfield. He had been a deputy to the general court.

1689. Capt. Samuel Peas is sent after Pirates in the Sloop Mary of Boston. He came up with & fought one in "Martin Vineyard Sound." Capt. Pease is killed, but the pirate is taken by his crew.*

1692. Sarah Pease is prosecuted for witchcraft at Salem, & imprisoned.

* In Vol. II. page 393, is given from the original depositions of Capt. Pease's crew a circumstantial account of the action in which the captain lost his life. As a further elucidation of this affair, we add from Mr. FELT's Annals of Salem, as follows:

"The Council having been informed, that Thomas Hawkins and others were acting as pirates order the sloop Restitution with 40 men, Joseph Thaxter master to go after them. These pirates took the Ketch Mary. Capt. Hellen Chard, of Salem the 9th [August, 1689,] 3 leagues from Half Way Rock. They captured the brig Merrimack of Newburyport, Capt. John Kent, on the 22d, in 'Martin Vineyard Sound.' [Then as above in the text.] They killed him, and wounded some of his crew; but were taken by his Lieut. Benjamin Gallop, and in October brought to Boston, where four of them belonged. They were condemned to die, but reprieved."

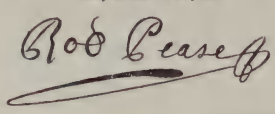
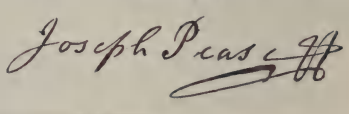
The sign manual of Robert Pease, dated 1711, in his 69th year.

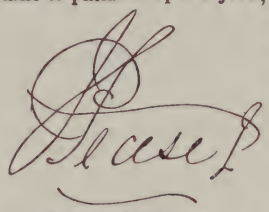


The sign manual of Joseph Pease, dated 1738, in his 51st year.



The sign manual of Edward Pease of Darlington, at about the age of 70, whose mind first practically grasped the question of improved communication by means of a public railway; and by whose influence and means it was carried into successful operation—he having been chairman of the Board of Directors.

The Stockton and Darlington Railway was opened in 1825 (See Vol. II, page 313). From it rose George Stephenson, the first English railway engineer, who was selected by Mr. Pease, when an obscure engine-wright at Killingworth Colliery; to which, and his own native genius, he owed his subsequent celebrity. Mr. P. is now in his 83d year, and unusually vigorous; devoting his time to philanthropic objects, and the service of the Society of Friends.



The sign manual of Joseph Pease junior, son of Edward Pease of Darlington. (He had an uncle Joseph.) He was chosen the representative of the south division of the county of Durham, about the close of the year 1832. The Reform bill had just passed, and the electors were determined to select a man in place of the sons of the nobility, for their future representative, and succeeded beyond all expectation; the votes standing for Pease 2273, the next highest 2218, and the lowest 1841. This was considered a great triumph by the liberal party; for the other two not only professed in some degree the same political sentiments, but were of the aristocracy, and supported by that class.

The election of a "Friend," or, as he was sometimes called, "the Quaker member," was quite an event; and some urged that the simple declaration or affirmation would not be accepted, and that he could not take his seat. He was, however, admitted into the house without the formality of an oath (which he had declared he would not take) by acclamation. At that time, also, being previous to the penny postage, every member could receive a certain number of letters, and forward a certain number free of postage; but to prevent fraud, they were required to write the date and direction in full, in their own hand. Here another objection arose: some declaring that the Friends' plain way of superscribing would not frank a letter. Here again the liberal spirit of the day triumphed, and a Friend as member, and a Friend's frank, ceased to be a curiosity. He continued to be returned for each successive parliament after this, being a very good and industrious member, until he declined on account of the pressure of duties at home.

THE PEASE FAMILY.

ELIZABETH PEASE.

From the above instrument may be learned the method of disposing of estates in those days, namely: the real estate was divided among the heirs according to established laws, if no will by the husband, without any will of the widow, and independently of it, as she had no control over real estate belonging to her husband, to dispose of it, except by his will. But she was at liberty to make such disposstion of all the personal and movable property as she pleased.

* To what particular family the following persons belonged, we are unable yet to state; but that they were of this branch of the family is beyond question.

There lived in Somers, previous to 1783, Lot and Sarah Pease, who had four sons and two daughters, namely, Samuel, Caleb, Enoch, Lot, Jemima, and Elizabeth. Jemima went to the Society in Hancock, Ms., and died there a year or two since. Enoch was a preacher at Enfield, but left the Society some eighteen years ago. Samuel, the eldest son, was b. 19 Sept., 1766. He removed to Watervliet, May, 1788, at the time of the organization there, where he d. 8 Oct., 1831, highly respected. (34) V. Isaac, [50—1.] had a son:

133—1.—Rufus. (76)

(35) V. Abner, [51—2.] was twice married. His first wife was Elizabeth Farrington, by whom he had five sons and two daughters. His second wife was Lovicy Allen, by whom he had no children that lived.

He was a member of the religious society commonly called Shakers. He, with his second wife, Lovicy, united with that society in 1780, the first year of its opening in America. His family and others who had embraced the Shaker faith, remained at their usual places of residence until 1787, when they began to sell their possessions, and come together. He died at his residence in Stephentown, N. Y., in 1784, of small pox, aged 45, and his wife Lovicy died at the establishment in New Lebanon, N. Y., (near Stephentown,) in 1788, aged 37.

Abner came to his death by the following singular circumstance: One of his sons, who was living at home, was extremely opposed to the Shakers; so much so that he brought the small pox into the family, by which the whole family were taken ill, which resulted fatally in the death of the father.

Previously to his joining the Shakers, during the Revolutionary War, in 1777, he held the office of deputy sheriff in what was then the county of Albany. At that time, he, with two others, Sheldon and White, having been to Albany, were on their way home, and while stopping at a tavern kept by Nicholas Mickle, about four miles east of Albany, several tories came in and began to abuse them, making considerable disturbance. White, being a justice, ordered Pease to apprehend them. They surrendered, requesting that they might go up stairs after their knapsacks, and presently came down armed with muskets and cutlasses. They fired at them and wounded Pease in the thigh; at the same moment he received a horrible gash on his head from a cutlass, the scar of which he carried until his death. Unable to resist, the villains robbed them of their money and horses, and took them pinioned into the woods.

They had not gone far, when he became faint from loss of blood, and fell. They were on the point of killing him, when one of the gang, a young man named John Sloss, had compassion on him and tore a strip from his own shirt and bound up his head and left him senseless. He remained there several hours, until he was discovered by a Dutch farmer who was after his cows, who took him to his house and kept him until he was able to ride, and then lent him his horse to return to his home. These tories, with the exception of Sloss, who was liberated on condition of his becoming a witness against his comrades, were afterwards hung in Albany. One of them was named Robert Sloss. The judges before whom they were tried, were Richard Morris, Robert Yates, and John Sloss Hobart.

He was captain of a volunteer military company that was formed in the county at the time of the destruction of the tea in Boston harbor, under apprehensions that the affair would arouse the British to some severer measures.

The children by his first wife were:

134—1.—Abner. (77)
135—2.—James. (78)
136—3.—Daniel, who died in infancy.
137—4.—John. (79)

(56) VI. (Judge) CALVIN, [95—11] was born Sept. 9, 1776, and died at Warren, Ohio, Sept. 17, 1840. The following obituary notice of him appeared in The Western Reserve Chronicle, published at Warren, O.

"It becomes our painful duty to announce the death of our respected fellow-citizen, the Hon. Calvin Pease. He died at his residence in this village, (Warren, Ohio,) on Tuesday, (17 Sept., 1840,) after an illness of several weeks, during the most of which his pain and sufferings were intense.

"In the early part of his sickness, he became impressed with the belief that he should not recover; but he saw and met the approach of death, the "termination of man's earthly hopes and prospects," with firmness and resignation. For several hours before he expired, he was apparently free from pain, and perfectly composed and tranquil, and his spirit escaped from its frail tenement without a struggle or a groan.

"Judge Pease was born in Suffield, Hartford county, Connecticut, on the 9th day of September, A. D. 1776, and on arriving at manhood, made choice of the legal profession, of which he afterward became so distinguished an ornament. He read law in the office of the Hon. Gideon Granger, late Postmaster-General; and after being admitted to the bar, and practising a short time in his native state, he emigrated to this county in the year 1800, where he has ever since resided. He was, of course, compelled, in common with his associates, to endure the hardships and privations incident to a pioneer in a new country, and it may with truth be said that no individual ever bore them with more manly fortitude.

"He was extensively known throughout the state, and possessed in an eminent degree the confidence and respect of his friends and acquaintances. He has filled various offices for the last forty years of his life, the duties of which he always discharged with great ability, and to the satisfaction of the public.

"He was appointed Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas and Quarter Sessions for this county, under the Territorial Government in the year 1800, which office he held for two or three years; and on the admission of the state of Ohio into the Union in 1803, he was appointed President Judge of this Circuit, at that time embracing in its territorial limits a large section of the eastern portion of the state.

"In 1810, he resigned this office, and continued in the practice of the law till after the year 1816. During this interval, in the fall of 1812, he was elected a Senator to the State Legislature. In 1816 he was elected Judge of the Supreme Court, and having been reëlected in 1823, continued in this office till 1830, being a period of fourteen years, during a part of which time he was Chief-Judge of the Supreme Court.

"After leaving the bench, he resumed the practice of the law; and at the bar was distinguished for the same unbending integrity, and vigor and energy of intellect, that marked his career on the bench.

"In 1831 he was elected a representative to the legislature from the county of Trumbull. This was the last office which he was called upon to fill by his fellow-citizens; and for a few of the last years of his life, he felt admonished, by the increasing infirmities of age, to retire from active business to the enjoyment of private life, always so grateful to those who have spent many years in the laborious duties of the legal profession.

"From this brief and imperfect sketch, it will be seen that his life has been one of unusual labor and activity. He possessed a powerful and well disciplined mind, a memory remarkably tenacious, and great facility in the transaction of business.

"To his professional brethren of the bench and the bar, who cherished for him the highest respect and regard, he has left an unsullied reputation, of which they may justly be proud; and an example which all may be ambitious to follow. At the bar he was an honorable practitioner; on the bench an able and upright judge; a useful citizen, a kind and affectionate husband, father, and friend, and an honest man. But he has now gone from us forever, and his death has shed a deep gloom over this community, of which he was so long a member. His memory, however, will be held in grateful recollection by his friends, who loved and respected him, and to whom his death will be a severe bereavement; and to his afflicted family, to whom his life was eminently precious, his death will be an irreparable loss."

On the 2d June, 1804, Mr. Pease married, at Washington, D. C., Laura Grant Risley, daughter of Benjamin and Eunice Risley, who was born at Rutland, Vt., Nov. 30, 1786. Children, Calvin, b. June 4, 1805, now residing at Warren, Ohio; Laura Maria, b. Feb. 28, 1807, m. George W. Tallmadge, youngest son of Col. Benjamin Tallmadge of Litchfield, Ct., Sept. 13, 1824; Benjamin R., b. Feb. 22, 1809, d. Aug. 3, 1815; Charles, b. Feb. 7, 1811, m. in Boardman, Ohio, to Mary E. Kirtland, dau. of Jared P. Kirtland, July 24, 1832, and resides in Warren, Ohio; Lawrence, b. May 15, 1814, d. July 19, 1815; Nancy, b. June 29, 1816, m. in Warren, June 29, 1836, John Erwin, son of Capt. Samuel Erwin of Painted Post, Steuben Co., N. Y.; Cornelia G., b. May 11, 1820, m. Frederick Kinsman of Kinsman, Ohio, March 25, 1840.

(57) VI. Levi, [97—2.] was born in 1739. He was familiarly known as Captain Levi Pease. Whether he held the office in the Revolutionary Army, in which he served for a time, or was a captain of militia after the war, is unknown. At the commencement of the war he lived in Blandford, Ms. He, with his wife Hannah, removed from Somers, Ct., to Shrewsbury, Ms., about 1794. Having outlived all his children, he died, Jan. 28, 1824, aged 84. His widow died June 14, 1832, aged 93. He was by trade a blacksmith. He was extensively engaged in running stages; and established a line between Shrewsbury and Boston, which was the first in Massachusetts, and probably in America. He procured the first charter for a turnpike road that was granted in Massachusetts. He had a faithful negro, who, when his health declined, took charge of his stage affairs to good advantage.

He was actively and efficiently employed in the war in various ways. Wadsworth of Hartford, who was commissary-general, employed him to purchase beeves and horses for the army. General Thomas, who was then on the frontier, entrusted him to be bearer of despatches. On account of the hazardous nature of this employment, he was obliged to use extreme caution, in order to preserve his papers and his life. Having frequent occasion to travel on the lakes, he lay concealed in secluded places in the daytime, and pursued his journey in the night. When the moon shone bright, he would pull far out into the lake, and, lying nearly flat on his back, with his feet towards the bow of his boat, propelled it by using his hands as paddles, thus concealing himself from the view of the shore. He foraged for the French army in its march to Yorktown. It is related of him that he had a fine span of horses, which he desired to sell to General Washington, at the time when he had the command near Boston, and that the General made an appointment to meet him at a certain time and place; but Pease being a few minutes too late, lost the opportunity of seeing him at that time, for the General had been there and gone. He was a gainer, however, by the hint which he took relative to punctuality.

Some of the foregoing facts are recorded in Ward's History of Shrewsbury. His children are,

Hannah, who married Thomas Henry Kemble of Boston, in 1796; Levi, who married Mary Gill, and settled in Northborough, where he died, June 20, 1808, aged 40; Lemuel, who died in Shrewsbury, Sept. 3, 1816, aged 45; Lorey, or Loring, who married Rebecca Bruce of Northborough, March 18, 1798, and died in Shrewsbury, 1811, aged 37; Mary, who married Perry Chapin of Worcester, in 1807, and died there.

Additional.

Elam, was born in Enfield, 1771, married Jemima Bush, 1791, by whom he had two sons and eight daughters. The eldest son, Augustus Elam, was born 1805, and died 1820; the second, Henry Granville, was born 1815, and died 1823. Three of the daughters have died, and three are unmarried, and live at home. He has one son living, aged 13, by a second marriage. He removed to Charlton, Saratoga Co., N. Y., 1798, thence to Lee, Oneida Co., in 1800, thence to Denmark, Lewis Co., in 1822, thence to Copenhagen, Lewis Co., in 1834–5, where he now resides.

Ephraim, was born in Enfield. In 1804, he removed to Lee, Oneida Co., N. Y., where he resided until his death, in 1844. He had six children, the two eldest of whom were daughters, who died young. The four remaining were sons, two only of whom are living.

Wyllys, d. in February, 1848; Arvin B., resides in Lee, Oneida Co.; Orrin, lives in Wisconsin.

In Dugdale's History of Old St. Paul's Cathedral, London, there is mentioned the name of John Pease, LL.D., Prebendary of Coddington Manor, collated Aug. 15, 1471.

In "Fuller's Worthies," or landed gentry of England, in the County of Derby, is John Peese, about 1520.

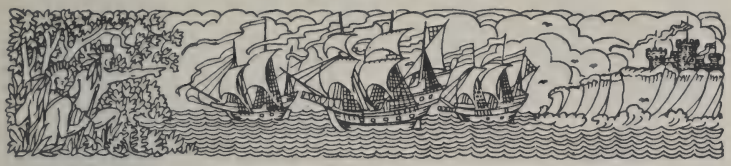
James and Jabez Pease, who were probably great-grandsons of Ebenezer, born 1698, — who married Mindwell Sexton, and had a son Ebenezer, who died in 1784, who had a son James, who married Lucy Meacham, and had children, Jabez, James, Erastus, Lucy, Nancy, and Aurelia, — appear to have been residents of Albany, in 1813 and 1814, and dealers in leather, at 61 Lion Street.

In 1814, Benjamin F. Pease, whose parentage cannot be traced, appears to have lived at 56 South Market Street, Albany.

Mr. Richard L. Pease, of Edgartown, is preparing a History of Martha's Vineyard, which is designed to embrace a genealogy of the Pease families which have originated on that island, Any facts relative to the subject will be thankfully received, and ably disposed of by him.

To those who may fail to find their names within the scope of this publication, the compiler would most respectfully state, that to some of his letters no responses have been made.

Some interesting facts for the extension of this memoir, which could not practicably be carried beyond its present limit, will be in due time deposited in the archives of the Genealogical Society, for the use of a future compiler.



PEASE ANCESTRY.

In volume iii. page 30, N. E. Hist. and Gen. Reg., there is mention of* John Pease, aged 27, and Robert Pease, aged 27, who came from Ipswich, England, to Boston, on board the ship Francis, in April, 1634, and removed to Salem, where they were known to have been in 1637.

It was assumed that John was ancestor of the families embraced in the account which was published in that volume, and his name was accordingly placed at the head. But further research and more reflection have served to transfer this honor to Robert.

Mr. Somerby, to whom much is due for his researches in England, writes under date of June 6, 1854, that while making some genealogical investigations in Essex, he met with the will of Robert Pease, of Great Baddow, and considering it worth the trouble, he visited that place and made extracts from the parish register.

Robert Pease of Great Baddow, Co. Essex, Locksmith. Will dated May 10, 1623. Mentions his wife Margaret, sons Robert and John, daughter Elizabeth, son-in-law Abraham Page, and brother-in-law Francis King. Will proved June 12, 1623.

From a long list of baptisms, marriages and burials, dating from 1540 to 1623, the following have been selected :—

John, son of Robert Pease, baptized May 24, 1593.

John, infant son of Robert Pease, buried January 10, 1599.

John, son of Robert Pease, baptized Nov. 20, 1608.

There is no record of the baptism of Robert, the other son mentioned in the will, and Mr. Somerby thinks he must have been baptized in some other parish.

It would be imprudent to assert positively that the John and Robert whose names are in the will, are the same who came in the Francis ; but it seems not improbable that Great Baddow is the locality, and the family of Robert Pease that to which the ancestry of the family may be traced.

Great Baddow is in what is called the Hundred of Chelmsford, about thirty miles north-east from London, on the thoroughfare to Ipswich, the most convenient place of embarkation from that neighborhood, and old Norfolk and Essex here were settled chiefly by people from counties of the same name in England.

THE HENRY PECK FAMILY OF NEW HAVEN, CONN. IN THE LINE OF ELEAZER,[2] ELEAZER,[3] CHARLES[4]

By Donald Lines Jacobus, M.A., of New Haven, Conn.

The old Peck genealogy published in 1868 by Ira B. Peck gives a poor account of the families of Henry,[1] Eleazer[2] and Eleazer[3] and fails to identify Dr. Charles[4] Peck of Danbury, Conn., or to give his issue. Over thirty years ago I was employed by the late Mrs. Horatio Ford to do some research on this line. She died some years ago without having published the Peck data. I feel sure she would be pleased to have it published with this acknowledgment. Although based largely on this research the present account has been revised and expanded.

1. Henry Peck, together with Dea. William Peck and Joseph Peck, was an early settler in New Haven, Conn. The three men were probably related, though no direct record proof that they were brothers has been seen. William Peck was an original proprietor and is the only one of the three whose name appears in the list of planters and estates which was clearly drawn up as early as 1640-1, though copied into the records in 1643 (New Haven Colony Records, vol. 1, p. 92). Henry Peck was an early but not original subscriber to the Fundamental Agreement at New Haven, signing by mark (H); and he and Joseph Peck took the oath of fidelity 1 July 1644 (ibid., vol. 1, p. 18, 138-9). Before his early death there are a few mentions of Henry Peck in New Haven Colony Records (vol. 1, p. 168, 274, 397, 415, 453, 478, 486). They are of slight importance except that on 7 Oct. 1646 Henry and Joseph Peck joined with another man in asking permission to cut wood on the commons, and that on 1 Aug. 1648 Henry and Joseph Peck were complained of for coming late to the meeting house with their arms but were excused because they had watched the night before and had had no rest. Since Joseph did not marry until 1650, it seems likely that he was a member of Henry's household and very probably was his brother.

The will of Henry Peck, dated 30 Oct. 1651, was presented at the New Haven Town Court 2 May 1654. It was not signed or sealed but was witnessed by William Pecke, John Moss and Sam: Whithead and approved; it was also presented at a Colony Court held 29 May 1654 (New Haven Town Records, vol. 1, p. 209; New Haven Colony Records, vol. 2, p. 91). The will reads as follows (New Haven Probate Records, vol. 1, pt. 1, p. 51):

"The Last Will and Testam[t]. of Henry Pecke: The 30[th] 8[th] moneth 1651 Henry Peck being weake and near his Change, yet haueing the vse of his Understanding, desires in The first place, To resigne vp his soule to God; And for that Portion of outward Blessings God hath giuen him, To dispose them thus. That after debts discharged, I doe giue to my wife, my house and home Lott, and halfe the householde stuff, The other halfe to be devided Amonge the Children. Alsoe I doe giue To my wife my bigest Cow; and the rest of y[e] Cattell and Land to be devided Amonge the Children; vz this pvisall that if ther be one part That appears to be better then the other, or more Convenient, That better part or most Convenient, I doe dispose to my Elder sonn Joseph; And That these Cattell and Land bee deuided, soone after my decease, and the improument of them be put into Trusty hands for the good of them all:/

Witnes William Pecke
John Moss
Samuell Whithead"

Beneath this was recorded the inventory, taken 30 Nov. 1651 by Samuell Whitehead and Rogger Allen. The net estate came to £56.02.08. In a list of debts owed by the estate, the largest amount was £1.15.0 owing to William Pecke.

On 8 Aug. 1655 "Vpon the desire of Widdow Pecke . . . . she was abated forty shillings w[ch] she is in debt to y[e] Towne Treasury" (New Haven Town Records, vol. 1, p. 255). In the seating of the meeting house, 11 Feb. 1655/6, the Goodwife Low who is named was doubtless the first wife of Andrew Low (ibid., vol. 1, p. 273), for on 23 April 1660 "Sister Peck, the widdow, was appointed to sweep the Meetinghouse" (ibid., vol. 1, p. 449), so the widow of Henry Peck had not yet remarried. But she may have been the "Sister Low" who sat in "the long Seate next the wall" in the seating of the meeting house on 10 Feb. 1661/2 (ibid., vol. 1, p. 513), for she certainly married Andrew Low before 3 Nov. 1663. On that date the Court considered the estate belonging to "goodwife Low, sometime Wife to Henry Pecke deceased" and ordered it should be appraised, as near as possible, at its value "when Andrew Low married her;" and on 16 Nov. 1663 further action was taken and the children were named as "Joseph, Eliazar, Benjamin, & Elizabeth Pecke;" and on 1 December following "Goodwife Low appeared with her children about Guardians for theyr Estate" and Joseph and Eliazar chose Ensign (Thomas) Munson, and Benjamin and Elizabeth chose Roger Alling (ibid., vol. 2, p. 60, 61, 64).

The will of Andrew Low of New Haven (New Haven Probate Records, vol. 1, pt. 1, p. 146), dated 12 April 1670, was signed by mark. The inventory was taken in June 1670 and amounted to £53.07.00. The will gave to his wife the house and home lot, but "if she die before my son Andrew come or send about it, shee must dispose of it among her children" [if the son come or send before her death or demand it, he shall have it after her death, but if she be dead and the said house and home lot be disposed of, then they that have it shall pay to the said Andrew Low £5.]. "I give to her sons 20s. apiece and land . . . and to Elizabeth Pecke a two year old heifer . . . I doe give to goodman Blakelye . . . . I give to Richard Sperry my leather sute, & to Joseph Pecke a payre of penniston breeches. Wife and Joseph Pecke named executors. To Edward Preston's son, 20s. To Joseph, Benjamin & Eleazer Pecke. Witnesses: Abram Dickerman, Samuell Miles.

Of the six children of Peck settlers whose baptisms were entered in the records of the First Church of New Haven, the names of the fathers of four (not stated in the record but supplied by Henry White in THE REGISTER, vol. 9, p. 362, October 1855) are incorrect, as pointed out by the astute Savage (Genealogical Dictionary, vol. 3, p. 380-1, 384). Joseph and Benjamin, baptized 5 Sept. 1647, were the children of Henry Peck, not of Joseph as stated, and they were not necessarily twins as Savage supposed. Eleazer (1643) and Elizabeth (1650) are entered as children of William Peck. Henry's daughter Elizabeth is his only child whose birth was recorded, and since the birth occurred just eight days before the baptismal date, the record must apply to her. The baptism of Eleaser, 12 March 1643 (i.e., 1642/3), poses a problem. Savage makes him son of Henry, but since Henry's will calls Joseph his elder son, kills him off young and inserts a second Eleazer (without birth or baptismal record) between Joseph and Benjamin (1647) and Elizabeth (1650). However, it is by no means certain that Henry Peck was in New Haven as early as 1643, and Dexter in his Historical Catalogue of the First Church, New Haven, supposes that Joan, wife of Henry Peck, joined the church in 1646, which would be the year before Joseph and Benjamin were baptized. Joseph Peck was not married and probably not in New Haven in 1643; William Peck had no known or surviving son Eleazer, and the baptism conflicts with that of a known daughter of William. Perhaps the most likely explanation is that the date for Eleazer is a misreading or misprint and that his baptism occurred 12 March 1648 (i.e., 1648/9); and that Henry had no older son of the name who died young.

Children of Henry and Joan (———) Peck:

i. JOSEPH,[2] bapt. 5 Sept. 1647; d. in New Haven 15 April 1720; m. there, 28 Nov. 1672, Sarah Alling, bapt. there 12 Oct. 1649, d. there in 1743, daughter of Roger and Mary (Nash) Alling.

ii. BENJAMIN, bapt. 5 Sept. 1647; d. in New Haven in March 1730; m. there, 29 March 1670, MARY SPERRY, b. there 14 March 1650, daughter of Richard and Dennis Sperry.

2. iii. ELEAZER, perhaps bapt. 12 March 1648/9.

iv. ELIZABETH, b. 16 March 1649/50, bapt. 24 March 1649/50; d. before 1723; m. in New Haven, 4 March 1672, JOHN HOTCHKISS, d. there in 1689, son of Samuel and Elizabeth (Cleverly) Hotchkiss.

2. ELEAZER PECK, perhaps baptized in New Haven 12 March 1648/9, died in Wallingford, Conn., in 1736.

He married first, in New Haven, 31 Oct. 1671, MARY BUNNELL, born there 4 May 1650, died in Wallingford 20 July 1724, daughter of William and Ann (Wilmot) Bunnell.

He married secondly, in Wallingford, 31 Oct. 1726, ELIZABETH (FORD) CULVER, daughter of Timothy Ford of New Haven and widow of Joshua Culver of Wallingford (she married Culver 23 Dec. 1672 and he died 23 April 1713).

Eleazer Peck signed the covenant of the first planters of Wallingford in 1670 (Charles H. S. Davis, History of Wallingford (1870), p. 77-8). At a town meeting, 4 June 1677, the Town desired Eliazur Peck "to looke to y^e^ Boyes on y^e^ sabbath that they keep good order at meeting" (ibid., p. 102, 120). A swamp south of the Middletown highway was called "Dog's Misery," and on 16 Sept. 1707 "The towne chose Eliezer peeck, Joshua culver, David Hall, a commetie to see that [dogs] missry hiway may not be pinsht of the twenty rods" etc. (ibid., p. 131).

The above are quoted records but the "historian" Davis made a laughable blunder when he let his imagination conjure up scenes which never were enacted. He states (p. 91): "The first death in Wallingford, was Samuel, son of Eleazer Peck, who died March 12, 1673. A death in that small community was a great event. The magistrate, the minister, and the fathers of the town, came to the bed of the dying to witness his testament and gather up his last words." It is true that Eleazer Peck lost his eldest child on the date specified, but since the child was only nine days old, he must have been extraordinarily precocious if we accept Davis's account of his death.

The will of Eleazer Peck, dated 22 May 1734, proved 9 Feb. 1735/6, gave to his son Stephen Peck all right in undivided lands in Wallingford and "in Mines" and "y^e^ place where ye Corn Mill & Saw Mill Stands" etc.; to son Nathaniell Peck, "in addition to what I formerly Gave him . . . all Land in Pine Swamp;" to son Eliazer Peck, "I haveing given him Considerably already . . . he shall have Ten shillings"; to son Samuell Peck, in addition to what he has received, 10s.; to my daughter Allen, to my daughter Mary Ebenetha, and to my daughter Elizabeth, wife of William Hough, to each 10s. in addition to what she has received; son Stephen to be executor. Witnesses: Benjamin Holt, Moses Merriman, Jehyell Merryman. Stephen Peck accepted the trust of executor 5 May 1736 (New Haven Probate Records, vol. 6, p. 178, 183).

Children of Eleazer and Mary (Bunnell) Peck, the first six recorded in Wallingford, the births of the last four not found:

i. SAMUEL,[8] b. 3 March 1672/3; died 12 March 1672/3.

ii. ABIGAIL, b. 6 March 1673/4; m. JAMES ALLING, b. in New Haven 29 July 1673, d. in Wallingford 17 March 1752, son of Samuel and Elizabeth (Winston) Alling.

iii. Mary, b. 14 July 1677; d. in Wallingford 1 Jan. 1757; m. William Abernathy, b. in Wallingford 23 July 1675, d. there in February 1728, son of William and Sarah (Doolittle) Abernathy.

iv. Martha, b. 2 July 1679; apparently d. young.

v. Stephen, b. 4 Aug. 1681; m. (1), in Wallingford, 10 April 1706, Susanna Collyer, b. about 1684, daughter of Joseph and Elizabeth (Sanford) Collyer of Hartford; m. (2), in Wallingford, 8 May 1727, Margery (Hitchcock) Munson, b. there 9 Sept. 1681, daughter of John and Abigail (Merriman) Hitchcock and widow of Joseph Munson.

vi. Eleazer, b. 19 Feb. 1683/4; d. in June 1685.

vii. Nathaniel, b. at a guess about 1686; m. in Wallingford, 10 Jan. 1712/13, Sarah (Hopkins) Cole, bapt. in Hartford 21 Aug. 1687, d. in Wallingford 14 Feb. 1780 aet. 93, daughter of Stephen and Sarah (Judd) Hopkins and widow of Ichabod Cole of Middletown.

3. viii. Eleazer, b. at a guess about 1688.

ix. Samuel.

x. Elizabeth, b. at a guess about 1692 (as her youngest Hough child was born in 1738); d. in Wallingford 8 June 1740; m. (1), there, 21 Nov. 1711, Samuel Abernathy, b. there 10 Jan. 1683/4, d. there 14 March 1725, son of William and Sarah (Doolittle) Abernathy; m. (2), in Wallingford, 14 Dec. 1726, William Hough, b. in Norwich, Conn., 22 Aug. 1680, d. (not verified) 9 Oct. 1765, son of Samuel and Susanna (Wrotham) Hough.

3. Eleazer Peck, born at a guess about 1688, date of death not found.

He married first (see evidence below), Ann Foster, born in Wethersfield, Conn., 9 July 1694, daughter of Bartholomew and Mary Foster.

He married secondly, as Eleazer Peck of Southington, in Meriden Parish in Wallingford, 29 Nov. 1737, widow Ann Camp of Meriden. She was Ann (Andrews) Camp, baptized at the Second Church, Hartford, 13 June 1697, daughter of Joseph and Rebecca (Whaples ?) Andrews and widow of Amos Camp of Durham, Conn. (who was born 12 Feb. 1691/2, died in Wallingford in 1735).

Eleazer Peck, described as of Southington, married thirdly, at the First Church, Hartford, 25 April 1745, Sarah King of Hartford. She is probably the widow Sarah Peck whose death on 18 June 1770 is entered in the Southington Church records.

Eleazer's first four children were recorded in Wallingford (1717-1724) as of Eleazer and Ann, showing the first name of his first wife. After 1724 the family moved to Southington, then a parish in Farmington. In Farmington the births of the last three children were recorded (1727-1733), but only as of Eleazer, his wife being a silent partner. The birth of Gideon (doubtless in 1725) missed recording, as the family moved from Wallingford to Southington about that time. The first six children, Hannah, Mehitabel, Eliakim, Benajah, Gideon and Charles, were baptized together in the Southington church, 9 Feb. 1728/9. The last two children, Eleazer and Zebulon, were baptized there individually not long after their birth dates. Since no more children were entered, either as born in Farmington or baptized at the Southington church, it is probable that Zebulon in 1733 was the last child; and Ann, the mother of these children, died probably in or shortly after 1735, certainly before 1737 when Eleazer remarried.

Because a marriage is recorded in Wallingford in 1726 of an Eleazer Peck to Elizabeth Culver, some accounts have erroneously made her a second wife of this Eleazer and mother of the younger children; but that marriage record designated that Eleazer as "Sr." Moreover, Elizabeth Culver was an elderly widow, so without doubt this was, as given above, a second marriage of Eleazer.[2]

Bartholomew Foster from Gloucester, Mass., settled in Wethersfield, Conn., and moved to Meriden parish in Wallingford. His will, made 26 May 1735 and proved 28 Nov. 1740 (New Haven Probate Records, vol. 6, p. 178), implies that he did not hold his son-in-law Peck in very high regard. One clause reads: "To my Daughter Anna Peck I Give five shillings Money to be paid by my s^{d} Two Sons and in Case my s^{d} Daughter Anna shall out Live her present Husband Ebenezer [sic] Peck my Will then is y^{t} my Two Sons afors^{d} Timothy & Thomas shall each of them pay ten pounds to my s^{d} Daughter Anna and in Case my s^{d} Daughter Anna Dye before her present Husband Peck then my Two Sons afors^{d} Timothy & Thomas shall pay each of them Ten pounds to y^{e} two eldest Daughters of y^{e} s^{d} Anna Peck when y^{e} s^{d} Daughters Shall Come of Age . . . ."

The object was evidently to keep the money out of the hands of Anna's husband. The recorded copy of the will calls him Ebenezer Peck. The names Eleazer and Ebenezer can be written so that they look much alike, and the probate clerk in New Haven was probably not acquainted with this Wallingford family and copied the name as it looked to him. Years ago I collated the records of all the Peck families of New Haven County and found no Ebenezer who could possibly have married Ann or Anna Foster. We know that Eleazer's first wife was named Ann. Their first two children were daughters, and they were aged 18 and 16 when Foster made his will. The other six children were boys, the oldest not yet 14 when the will was made. If Ann survived her husband, she was to get the money herself; but if she died before him, Foster clearly wanted the family to get something without Eleazer getting his hands on it. The boys were not old enough, so if Ann died her two daughters, the oldest of the children, were to receive the money. It may be asked why Foster specified Ann's "two eldest Daughters" when she had no other children of that sex. But Ann was not quite 40 when the will was made, hence could have had more children, possibly girls, so the phraseology made the bequest specific regardless of what happened. The fact that Eleazer's first two children were girls, and girls of a fairly mature age, thus accords with and explains the terms of Foster's will, and strengthens the case for concluding that Eleazer, not Ebenezer, was meant.

The last deeds of Eleazer found in Farmington (Land Records, vol. 11, p. 413, 544) are a conveyance, 7 Aug. 1755, for love, to his son Eleazer, and a conveyance, 17 Feb. 1756, given by Eleazer Peck, Sr., and Eleazer Peck, Jr., together. Eleazer's date of death has not been found, nor the probate of his estate.

Children of Eleazer and Ann (Foster) Peck, the first four recorded in Wallingford, the last three in Farmington:

i. HANNAH,[4] b. 20 Jan. 1717; m. in Southington, 26 April 1737, JAMES BRONSON, b. in Farmington 29 Nov. 1713, d. in 1775, son of John and Mary (Peck) (Chatterton) Bronson.

ii. MEHITABEL, b. 19 July 1719.

iii. ELIAKIM, b. 24 Oct. 1721; d. in Southington 7 May 1801 aet. 79 (church record); m. (1), there, 10 Nov. 1748, ABIGAIL WOODRUFF, presumably the "wife" who d. there 9 March 1768; m. (2), ———, since he left a widow who d. there 28 Sept. 1809 aet. 80. We suppose one of his children, Eliakim, bapt. in November 1759, to be the man of that name who settled in Danbury, Conn.

iv. BENAJAH, b. 8 or 22 Feb. 1724 (duplicate records which differ); d. 11 Jan. 1777 (Plymouth, Conn., Church record); m. LYDIA FENN, b. in Wallingford 11 July 1733, daughter of Thomas and Lydia (Hackley) Fenn. They had a nameless child bapt. in Roxbury, Conn., 5 Oct. 1760, and a son Samuel bapt. 26 June 1763; and in 1777 guardians were appointed for three of their children, Eleazer, Esther and Lydia (Woodbury Probate Records).

v. GIDEON, b. about 1725; d. in Harwinton, Conn., 14 June 1781; m. (1), in Southington, 5 Nov. 1744, MARY BRONSON, b. in Farmington 20 Jan. 1711/12, d. in Southington 1 Jan. 1751, daughter of John and Mary (Peck) (Chatterton) Bronson; had four children bapt. in Southington; m. (2), there, 12 Aug. 1752, ESTHER ———, by whom he had eight children born in Waterbury, Conn.

4. vi. CHARLES, b. 8 Nov. 1727.

vii. ELEAZER, b. 2 July 1730; m. in Southington, 6 Dec. 1755, ELIZABETH WOODRUFF and had a family.

viii. ZEBULON, b. 9 Dec. 1733; listed in the 1790 Census in one of the twelve towns combined without distinction under Litchfield, Conn.

4. CHARLES PECK, born in Farmington, Conn., 8 Nov. 1727, died in New Marlborough, Mass., slightly before 15 Sept. 1812, aged 84 (death and age reported in The Hartford Courant, 15 Sept. 1812, and The Connecticut Mirror, 21 Sept. 1812.

He married before 1752 DEBORAH WILDMAN, born about 1732, died 21 Sept. 1814, aged 82 (gravestone, Congregational Cemetery, Bethel, Conn.), daughter of Thomas and Grace Wildman of Danbury, Conn.

The newspaper death notices call Charles Peck a doctor, and he is given that title in some public records. As there were no medical colleges when he was young, he probably studied under a physician in the Southington section of Farmington where he was raised, or else went when very young to Danbury to study under a doctor there. His wife was a Danbury girl, born about 1732 by her age at death, and we know that their daughter Ruth was born in 1752. It must be concluded that he settled in Danbury by or shortly after 1750. The burning of the land records of Danbury during the Revolution has deprived us of that source of information.

The Registry of Berkshire County Deeds in Pittsfield, Mass., show that Charles was active in real estate transactions there. Grants made by the proprietors of New Marlborough have not been examined, nor have the deeds in Springfield where prior to 1761 purchases made by Charles would have been recorded. However, the Pittsfield Registry shows that on 7 Aug. 1770 Charles Peck of Danbury sold land in New Marlborough to Thomas Wildman, Jr.; and on 10 June 1776 Charles Peck of Danbury "for the consideration of that natural love and affection which I have and do bear towards my dutiful son, Eleazer Peck, of New Marlborough," gave him 45 acres to be reckoned as £40 portion in Charles's estate (Berkshire County Deeds, vol. 8, p. 181; vol. 12, p. 402). The latter deed was acknowledged by "Dr." Charles Peck. On 27 Nov. 1780 Charles Peck and Deborah his wife, "late" of New Marlborough, conveyed for £18 to Eleazer Peck of New Marlborough, land in that town (ibid., vol. 14, p. 242). Yet Charles still called himself of New Marlborough 10 March 1783 when he conveyed land there to William Bradshire of New Milford, Conn. (ibid., vol. 11, p. 134).

The grantee in the last deed was really William Bradshaw, who on 14 June 1769 had married Mindwell Wildman, a first cousin of Charles Peck's wife. The New Milford, Conn., deeds show the following (New Milford deeds, vol. 16, p. 310, 306, 307; vol. 17, p. 235): On 4 Dec. 1779 William Bradshaw of New Milford conveyed to Dr. Charles Peck and Deborah his wife of New Marlborough, Mass., land at Still River Neck; Charles and Deborah Peck of New Milford sold this same land back to William Bradshaw and Mindwell his wife on 23 Jan. 1786, and a month later gave another conveyance to William Bradshaw of New Marlborough. It thus appears that Dr. Peck exchanged land with Bradshaw, who went to New Marlborough and a few years later bought back his New Milford land from Peck. This land was at the north end of Newbury Parish (established in 1754 from outlying sections of Danbury, New Milford and Newtown), which later became the town of Brookfield. That the Pecks lived there at that period is also shown by the pension record of Peck's daughter Ruth, which shows that she married her Benedict husband in New Milford in 1781, the marriage being performed by Mr. Brooks. He was the minister of Newbury parish, later named for him as the town of Brookfield.

To return to the Berkshire County deeds (vol. 32, p. 93; vol. 36, p. 400): On 11 May 1796 Caleb Hyde of Lenox, Mass., Physician, to satisfy a judgment against Charles Peck of Lenox, levied against his property for $62.25 damages and $4.94 costs. Shortly after they got together to dispose of the land in Lenox, for on 30 March 1797 Caleb Hyde of Lenox and Charles Peck of Richmond, Berkshire County, for $25.00 (paid to Caleb) and $17.00 (paid to Charles) conveyed it to Dr. Thaddeus Thompson of Lenox.

It thus appears that Charles in later life moved about considerably, though he returned to New Marlborough and died there. Most of the property in that town came to him and his wife from her father, but with a string tied to it. The will of Thomas Wildman, Jr., of Danbury (Danbury Probate, vol. 3, p. 490), besides providing for his wife Grace and other children, contained this clause: "I give and bequeath to my Daughter Deborah the wife of Charles Peck the use and improvement of all my lands lying in the township of New Marlborough and also one quarter part of my land adjoining to the Mill Plain pond so called in Danbury . . . . Further: my will is and I do give and bequeath to the children of my said daughter Deborah that she now hath or hereafter may have been born of her body, all the aforesaid land . . . each of the Males to have double to one of the females; which I give to them and their Heirs and Assigns forever at the decease of my said daughter Deborah." Dated 17 Aug. 1771, proved 15 Dec. 1777.

The genealogical beauty of this bequest is that the land could not be sold by Deborah and her husband unless their children were all of age and joined in a deed which, in the absence of probate, would reveal the identity of all the surviving children. There is such a deed, dated 13 Dec. 1796 (Danbury Deeds, vol. 38, p. 663); but because it was not recorded until 18 May 1850, more than half a century later, it went long undiscovered. The grantors were Charles Peck and Deborah his wife, William Benedict and Ruth his wife, Nathan Peck (Nathaniel in signature), Eleazer Peck, Benjamin Peck and Patience his wife, Hurd Price and Grace his wife, all of New Marlborough, Berkshire Co., Mass., Moses Benedict and Lucy his wife of New Lebanon, N. Y., Seth and Sarah Crofut, John Benedict and Lydia his wife, the last two of Danbury, Thomas Peck of Redding, and Philip Howe and Dorcas his wife of Canaan, Conn.; for $133.33 they sold to Thomas Wildman of Danbury a piece of land set off to Deborah wife to the abovesaid Charles Peck and to her heirs out of the estate of Thomas Wildman, deceased.

Oddly enough, before this late-recorded deed was discovered, I found a draft of such a deed among Wildman documents which had been acquired by my friend, the late Judge Norman H. Hurlbut of Roxbury, Conn. The draft, undated and unsigned, sets £40 as the purchase price. It correctly calls one of the sons Nathaniel, not Nathan, and no wife is included for Benjamin, who is twice entered as Benjamin S. Peck.

No direct proof has been found that Dr. Charles Peck of Danbury was identical with the son of Eleazer, yet the identification seems certain on the following grounds:

1st: No other Charles Peck of the right age has been found who could have been the Danbury doctor.

2nd: The age of Dr. Charles as stated in the newspaper obituaries agrees with the birth date of Eleazer's son.

3rd: Dr. Charles named a son, undoubtedly his eldest, Eleazer.

4th: Eliakim Peck, elder brother of Charles of Southington, had children born there who included Eliakim (baptized in November 1759) and Thomas (baptized 15 Oct. 1752). It seems almost certain that it was the younger Eliakim who settled in Danbury and had children born there from 1787 to 1800, his eldest son being named Charles. In short, a nephew appears to have followed Charles to Danbury and to have named a son for him. Thomas, the son of Eliakim, may well be the Thomas Peck who married Dr. Charles Peck's daughter Ruth in New Marlborough in 1773; in that case, a marriage of first cousins.

All this, considered together, is very strong circumstantial evidence.

Children of Dr. Charles and Deborah (Wildman) Peck:

i. RUTH,[5] b. 3 Nov. 1752 (pension file); d. in Alexander, N. Y., 1 Oct. 1846 (gravestone); m. (1), in New Marlborough, Mass., 11 Feb. 1773, THOMAS PECK, possibly her cousin as suggested above; m. (2), in New Milford, Conn., 7 Feb. 1781 (pension file), WILLIAM BENEDICT, b. in Danbury 16 Nov. 1757 (ibid.), d. in Alexander 4 Feb. 1836 aet. 78 (gravestone). The Benedict children were: Noah, Thomas, Israel, Betsey, m. John Gibson, Benajah, Rebecca, m. Sherman King. In Ruths' pension file is a letter apparently written to her son Benajah with whom she lived, dated 28 Nov. 1844 (Bethel, Conn.), from his cousin, John Benedict, which says: "I have seen Uncle Benjamin and Aunt Sary since I received your letter and they are Smart for Old People."

ii. ELEAZER, b. about 1754 (of age by 1776 when his father gave him a deed); residence (1796), New Marlborough.

iii. NATHANIEL, b. at a guess about 1756; residence (1796), New Marlborough.

iv. LUCY, b. at a guess about 1758; d. in Jamestown, N. Y.; m. MOSES

v. SARAH, b. at a guess about 1760; m. in Danbury, 14 Oct. 1778, SETH CROFUT.

vi. LYDIA, b. 30 July 1763; d. 2 Nov. 1841; m. in Danbury, 18 Sept. 1786, JOHN BENEDICT, b. 30 April 1763, d. 28 Feb. 1835. See, for this family, Henry Marvin Benedict, The Genealogy of the Benedicts in America (1870).

vii. DORCAS, b. about 1765; d. in Farmersville, Cattaraugus Co., N. Y., in 1848; m. PHILIP HOWE, b. in Canaan, Conn., 20 Feb. 1759, son of Samuel and Martha Howe. Children: Eliakim, m. (1), Chloe Bucks, m. (2), Hannah Bucks; Ira of Lockport, N. Y.; Zeruah, m. Ebenezer Pettibone; Polly, d. young; Lydia, b. in Danbury 4 Nov. 1793, m. Jacob Spencer; Lucy, m. Thomas Brown; Elsie; Wildman. For information on this family I am indebted to Mrs. C. H. Hageman (Georgia C.), of Norwich, N. Y., 1943, great-granddaughter of the above Lydia; she had a great-aunt who used to visit her uncle Ira in Lockport and saw the cap with plumes that belonged to Dr. Charles Peck.

viii. GRACE, b. at a guess about 1768; m. HURD PRICE; residence (1796), New Marlborough.

ix. BENJAMIN S., b. at a guess about 1770; m. PATIENCE ———; residence (1796), New Marlborough. Because Patience joined him in the deed cited above, it might be thought that Patience was one of the heirs and daughter of Dr. Charles and that she married Benjamin S. Peck. However, his wife was not entered in the draft of the deed; she may have been included in the recorded deed in accordance with the Massachusetts usage.

x. THOMAS, b. about 1772; d. 2 Nov. 1809 in 38th yr. (gravestone, Redding, Conn.); a physician; m. (1), in Redding, 27 March 1796, MARY SANFORD, b. 18 May 1776, d. 29 May 1798; m. (2), SUSANNA HERON, b. about 1771, d. in Westport, Conn., 20 Jan. 1853 aet. 82 (gravestone, Redding).

THE WIVES OF SAMUEL PENFIELD:—In published references to the family of Samuel Penfield, the earliest American Penfield from whom descendants have been traced, we find considerable confusion, not to say discrepancy, in the number and identity of his wives. The following discussion is offered as an attempt to dispel the confusion.

Samuel Penfield, according to the vital records of Lynn, Mass., married Mary Lewis the "last of November," 1675. Thus far all accounts agree. In the older accounts, such as those given by Alonzo Lewis in his history of Lynn and by Savage and others, she is the only wife mentioned. More recently, however, the theory has arisen and has been repeated in published accounts that Samuel Penfield was married more than once. According to one version he had two wives, the name of the second wife being given as Anne. (New York Genealogical and Biographical Record, vol. 42, p. 332) There is also the theory that he was married three times, the wives being, respectively, Mary Lewis, Anne ——— and Mary ———. (Families of Ancient New Haven-New Haven Genealogical Magazine, vol. 6, p. 1417.)

This theory of the multiple wives of Samuel Penfield appearently arose from certain items in the vital records of Bristol, R. I., where he lived for a time and where a number of his children were born. After listing the births of several of them as children of Samuel and Mary, the record lists two, Rebecca and Abigail, twins, born October 23, 1692, as children of Samuel and Anne. Arnold's published edition of the vital records of Rhode Island gives, for the town of Bristol under the surname Penfield (vol. 6, p. 99) — "Rebecca of Samuel and Anne, 2d w Oct. 23, 1692."

Observe the notation, "2d w." This reference to a second wife in the published record is important, for it is undoubtedly the item which gives chief support to the theory that Samuel Penfield was married more than once, and, on its face, seems to render that theory virtually incontrovertible. Remembering that one of the common types of error in records of various sorts relates to Christian names, especially the names of women, we might, at the sudden appearance of a new name of a wife, after repeated occurrences of a different name, suspect an error of this type. When, however, the new name is accompanied by a notation to the effect that this woman was a second wife, no such suspicion is reasonably possible — provided the notation was made at the time of the record. The printed edition gives such a notation in the case of the Penfield twins; but the question arises as to when this notation was made — a point on which the printed copy gives no evidence. It therefore becomes important to go to the original record.

The oldest existing vital records of Bristol were made in a small book which the ravages of time have put into poor condition. Some years ago a transcript was made into a larger book in a neat and legible modern hand. This transcript, said to have been carefully checked against the original, is now used as reference in the Town Clerk's office.

Neither in the original record nor in the transcript is anything said about a second wife. The original record reads:

"Rebecca & Abigail — Twinns daughters of Samuel Penfield and Anne his wife was born the 23 of Octob 1692".

The "2d w." of the printed edition is obviously an interpolation of comparatively recent date. Possibly it may have been added by the editor for the purpose of identifying Samuel, for his oldest son, also named Samuel, had children recorded in Bristol at somewhat later dates. At any rate, the "2d w." is not a part of the original record; and the incontestability of the theory of a second wife for Samuel Penfield seems to receive a jolt.

The original record, however, as well as its transcript agrees with the printed copy in naming Anne as the mother of the twins, so that even without specifically stating that Anne was a second wife we still seem to have, on the face of the record, ample evidence that such must have been the case. Nevertheless, in searching for confirming evidence as well as for clues to the identity of Anne, two or three rather significant facts present themselves for consideration. In the first place, we can find no record of the marriage of Samuel to any Anne, nor any clue to her identity — which, of course, proves nothing. Neither can we find any record of the death of Mary; but on the other hand we do find, a few years later, record of a living Mary, when on April 26, 1696, another child was born to Samuel Penfield named Benjamin, recorded as the son of Samuel and Mary — bringing us back again to Mary. (But here again the "3d w." of the printed edition does not exist in the original record.)

Ordinarily we might accept this record with the explanation that Anne probably died soon after the birth of the twins and that Samuel took a third wife whose given name happened to be the same as that of his first wife, Mary, being a very common name. In spite of such an explanation, however, the suspicion of a possible error in the record still lingers. This suspicion is strenthened by a citation made by D. L. Jacobus (in his Families of Old Fairfield, vol. 2, p. 750, footnote) who in quoting the late Mrs. Cornelia Penfield Lathrop pointed out that the clerk who made the record was subject to errors of this kind, and that this same clerk had previously, in Rehoboth, recorded the birth of Samuel Penfield's daughter Sarah as the daughter of "Thomas and Mary." The error was afterward corrected in the town records, but found its way uncorrected into the records of Plymouth Colony and thus introduced to genealogy the mythical "Thomas Penfield of Rehoboth."

These facts thus far, though proving nothing, at least justify the suspicion of an error in the records. Three possible theories present themselves for consideration:

(1) That the records are correct as they stand and that Samuel Penfield was married three times.

(2) That the record of the birth of Benjamin was erroneous in giving the name of the mother as Mary, which should have been Anne, and that Samuel Penfield had but two wives — Mary Lewis and Anne ———.

(3) That the record of the birth of the twins was erroneous in giving the name of the mother as Anne which should have been Mary, and that Samuel Penfield had but one wife, Mary Lewis.

The second theory — that Samuel Penfield had two wives — can, I think, be quickly disposed of. Not only is this theory pure conjecture with no supporting evidence, but we have positive evidence against it. If Anne had been the last wife, then we would hardly have a Mary buried at a later date. But we have. Here again we must give credit to Mr. Jacobus for quoting Mrs. Lathrop in revealing the existence of the gravestone of Mrs. Mary Penfield, located in the cemetery lot of Samuel Penfield's son John, buried at a date many years after the appearance of Anne on the record.

We are probably safe in boiling our theories down to two — either that Samuel Penfield had three wives, or else only one. The selection between these two theories is, I think, definitely settled by the church records — which heretofore seem to have been neglected. Samuel Penfield, being a good churchman, had his children baptized. Fortunately, these records have been preserved. (See The Register, vol, 34, p. 132.) These children were baptized as children of Samuel and Mary. No Anne appears in the church records. The twins who were recorded in the town records as daughters of Samuel and Anne, are recorded in the baptismal records as daughters of Samuel and Mary, thus flatly contradicting the town record. We need not repudiate the town record — the church record does that — we need only choose between these two conflicting records. Under the circumstances there is little doubt that the church record is correct and that the town record is in error in respect to the given name of the mother of the twins, which should have been Mary — not Anne.

Furthermore, at least indirect confirmation of this conclusion is furnished by the vital records of Guilford, Conn., where Samuel Penfield spent his last days, dying there Nov. 30, 1711. His daughter Rebecca, one of the twins, died there Oct. 3, 1714, when she was recorded as the daughter of "Widdow" Penfield. (Vital records of Guilford in the American Genealogist, Jan. 1940). But widow Penfield must have been Mary, the mother of Samuel's last child, as given in both town and church records. Therefore, the mother of Rebecca must have been Mary — not Anne. The Guilford town records, therefore, as well as the church records of Bristol, seem to discredit that item in the Bristol town records which names Anne as the mother of the twins.

Finally we have that gravestone, which is significant in more ways than one. In the first place, the name is inscribed Mary Penfield — not Anne. Second, the age of the woman buried there as given on the gravestone checks reasonably closely the age of the original Mary Lewis. Third, the inscription gives unusual emphasis to the Penfield name — she was buried as a Penfield in spite of the fact that at the time of her death she was the widow of a second husband. Fourth, she is surrounded by Penfields. The position of her footstone is occupied by the headstone of John Penfield, son of Samuel and the original Mary, born long before any Anne appeared on the record. On her left lies her grandson, John's oldest son Stephen. On her right lies the wife of another grandson. There seems every indication that she was the beloved mother, not the stepmother, of John — in other words, that the final Mary was identical with the original Mary, leaving no room for any Anne.

In the light of all these facts — the interpolation in the published records; the recurrence of Mary in the record after the appearance of Anne; the known propensity of the clerk to make errors of this kind; the absence of confirming evidence of the existence of Anne; the testimony of the gravestone of Mary Penfield; and above all the direct testimony of the church record and its seeming confirmation by the vital records of Guilford — in the light of these facts the obvious truth is that Anne was an error and never had any real existence.

The story of the wives of Samuel Penfield is therefore like the story of Brown's cows, which, it will be remembered, were never scattered over the pasture like other farmers' cows but were always together in one spot. Brown had only one cow.

Samuel Penfield had only one wife. This was Mary Lewis whom he married in Lynn. She was the mother of all his ten children and outlived him by some thirty years. She was born in Malden, Mass., in January, 1652, the daughter of John Lewis by his second wife, Mary Brown — not the daughter of Edmund Lewis of Lynn as has sometimes been supposed. For her has been claimed royal descent. Proof that it was this Mary Lewis who married Samuel Penfield is found, according to Lewisiana, in a deed dated August, 1695, in Cambridge, which in listing the children and heirs of "the late John Lewis, late of Malden" mentions Mary who married Samuel Penfield. (Lewisiana, vol. 16, p. 233.)

Some years after the death of her husband who, as stated, died in 1711, she evidently married the widower, William Stone of Guilford, Conn., whose wife had died in 1712. She apparently outlived her second husband and is buried in what is now Portland, Conn., in the Penfield lot, in Center cemetery, as mentioned, where her gravestone bears the following unique inscription:

"Here Lies the Body of Mrs Mary Penfield and Widow of Wil:m Stone who Dyed January ye 30th 1741 about 90 Years of Age"

Mount Vernon, N. Y. J. W. Emerson.

THE PENFIELD FAMILY OF OLD CHATHAM, CONN.

By Joseph Wilson Emerson, of Mount Vernon, N. Y.

The name Chatham as here used refers not exclusively to the old Connecticut town of that name but rather to the district in south central Connecticut in which Middletown, Portland, and East Hampton are now the largest centers of population. This district marked the ancestral habitat of a branch of the Penfield family, a branch distinct in ancestry from the New Britain-Wallingford branch of the family, and also from the Fairfield branch. Concerning the genealogy of the early Chatham Penfields, some confusion seems to exist, and some garbled items have found their way into print. This confusion may perhaps be due largely to a tradition, prevalent in some quarters, that the Chatham Penfields, or many of them, were descended from the William Penfield mentioned by Hinman as of Middletown in 1663 and again referred to by Savage. As a matter of fact, however, the early Chatham Penfields, with few if any exceptions, can be traced to John, son of Samuel of Lynn, Mass.; and again, as a matter of fact, authentic cases of proved descendants of this mysterious William are conspicuous by their absence. Apparently William Penfield left no descendant in New England — unless, indeed, Samuel of Lynn was his son; but to support such an assumption no contemporary documentary evidence has been found.

Let us therefore begin the genealogy of the Chatham Penfields with John as the progenitor.

John[2] Penfield (Samuel[1]), born in Rehoboth, Mass., 30 May 1683, the second son of Samuel and Mary (Lewis) Penfield, died in Chatham (Middletown), Conn., "May ye 3rd, 1750, in ye 67th year of his age."* At about the time of his birth his parents removed from Rehoboth, Mass., to Bristol, R. I., where, under date of 1 Sept. 1681, in the list of the founders and first inhabitants of Bristol, the name of Samuel Penfield appears.† John Penfield was spoken of as a native of Bristol, Rhode Island,‡ though according to the record he was born in Rehoboth.

John Penfield, like his father, possessed the pioneering spirit which took him to several different localities. Until about 1720 he was living in Groton, Conn., where three of his children were born. He then removed to Lebanon, Conn., where two more of his children were born, and finally, about the year 1724, settled permanently in Chatham on the east side of the Connecticut River, which was then a part of Middletown, where two more of his children were born.

John Penfield married ANN CORNWALL, daughter of Thomas and Sarah (Clarke) Cornwall. The date of this marriage as given in the Middletown vital records, 9 April 1724, is evidently erroneous; in fact it is proved erroneous by court records. This date may refer to the date of the record in Middletown and not to the date of actual marriage. It was not uncommon for a family on entering a new community to have their marriage recorded there, even though it had been performed and recorded elsewhere, especially in cases where the family owned property and questions of inheritances might arise. John and Ann Penfield settled in Chatham (then a part of Middletown) about 1724, the date given for the marriage. Some accounts, such as that given by Cutter, give the date of this marriage as 9 April 1714, — perhaps on the assumption that 1724 indicated a misreading of the original figures. It seems more probable, however, that it represents a recorder's error and refers to the year of the record. The day and month, 9 April, may be correct. At any rate we may reasonably assume that the marriage was regular. Both families were people of means and social standing, living in Puritan communities; and to assume that this marriage was for many years a "common-law affair" would be quite preposterous. It should be observed that their first child was born in January 1713–14. If on the basis of available data we were asked to make a guess of the date of this marriage we might say, 9 April 1713.

Thomas Cornwall, the father of Ann, was first of Hartford, but afterward settled in Middletown where he had a large family. It is interesting to note that the names of three of the brothers of Ann Cornwall (Stephen, Jonathan, and David) and of one sister (Silence) as well as her own name (Ann) were duplicated in the names of children of John Penfield. Ann's identity, however, is proved conclusively by probate records of Middlesex County. As Ann Penfield she inherited property not only from her father, Thomas Cornwall (before 1724, by the way), but also from two of her brothers, Jonathan and David. John Penfield himself was administrator of the estate of David Cornwall. After the death of her husband, John Penfield, Ann married Lieut. George Hubbard of Middletown and died as his widow 21 Jan. 1779, age 91.

Children:

2. i. STEPHEN,[3] b. in Groton 28 Jan. 1713–14.
3. ii. SIMEON, b. in Groton 2 Aug. 1715.
4. iii. JONATHAN, b. in Groton 25 March 1719.
   iv. DAVID, b. in Lebanon 14 June 1722; d. (unm. ?) 1 Feb. 1795.
   v. SILENCE, b. in Lebanon 3 March 1724; d. 28 Jan. 1792, ae. 68; m. after June 1756, as his second wife, JOHN SHEPARD, b. 19 Jan.

1722, oldest son of John and Sarah (Clarke) Shepard. The parents of Silence moved to Chatham, then a part of Middletown, soon after her birth.

Children (surname Shepard):

1. John, b. in 1757.
2. Amos, b. in 1759.
3. Anna, b. in 1761.
4. George, b. in 1763.
5. Noah, b. in 1765.
6. David.

vi. Ann, b. in Chatham (Middletown) 26 Oct. 1728; d. 19 May 1797; m. in Chatham, 27 Sept. 1744, Joseph Pelton, b. in Lyme, Conn., 15 April 1722, d. 31 Dec. 1804, son of John Pelton.

Children (surname Pelton), according to Pelton genealogy:

1. Elizabeth, b. 19 Nov. 1745; d. in 1749.
2. Sarah, b. 15 Jan. 1748; d. s.p.; m. Jonathan Brown.
3. Jonathan, b. 23 March 1750; d. young.

9. Elizabeth, b. 13 June 1762; m. Moses Stocking.
10. Azubah, b. 24 July 1764; m. Amos Nathaniel Roberts.
11. Asahel, b. 17 June 1768; m. Nabby Ranney.
12. Reuel, b. 30 May 1770; m. Lucy Barnes.
13. Hatsiel, b. 23 Oct. 1772; m. Hannah Stiles.

5. vii. (Col.) John, b. in Middletown 14 May 1731.

2. Stephen[3] Penfield (John,[2] Samuel[1]), born in Groton, Conn., 28 Jan. 1713–14, died in Chatham (Middletown) 12 Sept. 1749. He married in Bristol, R. I., 13 June 1738, the Rev. Barnabus Taylor officiating, Jerusha Brewer of Bristol. Inventory of his estate, taken 16 Nov. 1749, showed £377–06–00; administration was granted to Jerusha Penfield, widow; five children are named. These children also inherited property from their grandfather, John Penfield. The widow, Jerusha, married 10 Dec. 1756, Nathaniel Root of Hebron, Conn.

Children:

i. Samuel,[4] b. 4 April 1739.
ii. Jeremiah, b. 12 June 1742.
iii. Benjamin, b. 2 Sept. 1744; perhaps m. 24 Dec. 1767 Joanna Cook.
iv. Jerusha, b. 14 Oct. 1746; d. 18 March 1772, age 26; m. 28 Feb. 1771 Sylvanus Parker.
v. John, b. 4 April 1749.

3. Simeon[3] Penfield (John,[2] Samuel[1]), born in Groton, Conn., 2 Aug. 1715, died in Chatham 25 Aug. 1794. He married, 6 Dec. 1749, Mary Bowers of Killingly, Conn.

Children, recorded in Middletown:

i. Stephen,[4] b. 14 May 1750; m. 3 Jan. 1783 Lydia Knowles.
ii. Mary, b. 5 March 1751–2; perhaps m. 16 Jan. 1772 Ezra Purple.
iii. Simeon, b. 16 April 1754; d. 7 Oct. 1844; m. (1) 10 Aug. 1775 Penelope Eddy, b. 4 Nov. 1751, d. 22 March 1811, daughter of Thomas and Bethia (Fox) Eddy; m. (2) Azubah (———) Thomas, widow of Ebenezer Thomas. Simeon Penfield served in the Revolutionary War, for which service he received a pension. In the pension list of 1840 his age was given as 85.

Children, by first wife:

1. Asahel.[5]
2. Ansel, b. 1783; d. 24 Feb. 1809; perhaps m. Sally ——— and had a son, Nelson.
3. Asenath, m. in 1812 Seymour Hurlbut, Jr., of Middle Haddam, and had 9 children. (See Hurlbut genealogy.)

iv. Amos, b. 22 Sept. 1756; m. 4 Oct. 1775 ——— Buller.
v. Esther, b. 29 Nov. 1758.
vi. Abishai, b. 15 May 1761; probably m. 8 Sept. 1785 Elizabeth Andrews, daughter of Charles and Elizabeth (Strickland) Andrews of Glastonbury. This is probably the "Abisha" Penfield who served in the Revolutionary War in 1777.
vii. Hephzibah, b. 20 March 1764; m. 10 Nov. 1785 Hosea Goodrich.

4. Jonathan[3] Penfield (John,[2] Samuel[1]), born in Groton, Conn., 25 March 1719, died in Chatham 23 July 1794. He married first, Elizabeth ———, died 13 Dec. 1740, in the 21st year of her age; and secondly, in Chatham, 20 Dec. 1750, Elizabeth Shephard, born 23 July 1729, died 6 Nov. 1803, daughter of John and Sarah (Clarke) Shephard.

"Squire" Jonathan Penfield was a prominent man in his community and held various public offices. He was Justice of the Peace in Chatham, and Town Clerk from 7 Dec. 1767 till his death in 1794.

Children by second wife, born in Chatham:

i. Elizabeth,[4] b. 26 May 1752; d. 28 Jan. 1815; m. in September 1772 George Lewis, ship builder, b. 29 Nov. 1748, d. in Chatham 29 March 1826, son of George and Bathsheba (Swift) Lewis of Falmouth, Mass.

Children (surname Lewis):

1. Abel, b. 5 Jan. 1773.
2. Charles, b. 3 Nov. 1775; d. young.
3. Elizabeth, b. 8 March 1785.
4. Bartlett, b. 3 May 1787.
5. Hannah, b. 27 March 1789.
6. George, b. 23 March 1794; d. young.
7. Anna, mentioned in will.

ii. Prudence, b. 18 June 1754; m. 20 Feb. 1771 Abiel Cheney, b. 6 Jan. 1754, son of Abiel and Esther (Andrews) Cheney.

Children (surname Cheney):

1. Abiel, b. 11 Feb. 1777.
2. Lucy, b. 17 April 1780.
3. Charlotte, b. 26 Dec. 1781.
4. Charles, b. 15 Jan. 1784.
5. Prudence, b. 29 May 1786.
6. Asahel, b. 6 Jan. 1792.

iii. Anne, b. 10 Aug. 1755; m. 27 Dec. 1786 Richard Brown.

Children (surname Brown):

1. Sally, b. 15 Sept. 1787.
2. George, b. 15 Sept. 1788.
3. Frederick Augustus, b. 24 Sept. 1789.
4. Anne, b. 12 Nov. 1790.

5. Leonard, b. 24 March 1792.
6. Maria, b. 18 May 1793.
7. Elizabeth, b. 12 June 1795.
8. Richard, b. 18 Oct. 1796.
9. Ebenezer, b. 14 June 1800.

iv. SARAH, b. 6 Nov. 1756; m. 15 Aug. 1775 JOHN BIDWELL.

Children (surname Bidwell):

1. Daniel, b. 2 Aug. 1776.
2. Sarah, b. 15 Sept. 1777.
3. Anne, b. 25 Dec. 1778; d. young.
4. John, b. 2 Oct. 1780; d. 6 Nov. 1795.
5. David, b. 21 Sept. 1782.
6. Alexander, b. 11 June 1784.
7. Halsey, b. 10 May 1786.
8. Anne, b. 7 June 1788.
9. Benjamin, b. 7 May 1790.
10. Horace (twin), b. 21 March 1793.
11. Hoel (twin), b. 21 March 1793.
12. John, b. 15 May 1796.

v. ABEL, b. 11 Feb. 1758; d. 27 March 1852, age 94; m. in Chatham, 9 Dec. 1784, ELIZABETH PAYNE, d. 28 May 1837, aged 77. Abel Penfield served in the Revolutionary War, apparently with his younger brother, Zebulon, in the transportation of supplies.

Children:

1. Horace,[5] b. 25 Aug. 1785; m. 19 March 1808 Clarissa Savage. Two children.
2. Harriet, b. 18 Oct. 1787.

vi. JONATHAN, b. 10 Feb. 1760; d. 19 July 1770.

vii. SAMUEL, b. 27 June 1761; d. 4 July 1761.

viii. LUCIA (LUCY), b. 30 March 1763; d. 20 June 1770.

ix. ZEBULON, b. 16 April 1765; d. 4 July 1860, aged 95; m. 14 May 1791 PRUDENCE DIXON, b. 20 Dec. 1769, d. 12 Jan. 1854. Though young, he served in the Revolutionary War, apparently with his older brother, Abel. Zebulon Penfield was Town Clerk of Chatham from 1802 to 1836.

Children:

1. Vienna,[5] b. 26 Aug. 1792; m. 26 June 1813 Philip Sage, b. 26 Sept. 1786, son of Enoch and Sybil Sage. Six children.
2. Jonathan, b. 5 April 1794; d. 5 June 1795.
3. William Walter, of Olean, N. Y., b. 19 March 1796; m. 10 April 1817 Pauline Russell.
4. Oliver, b. 7 April 1798; d. unm. in 1826.
5. Daniel, b. 28 Feb. 1800; d. 7 Feb. 1881; m. 1 Feb. 1835 Sophia Young, b. 7 May 1814, d. 2 Sept. 1887, daughter of Ezra and Rachel (Ackley) Young of Chatham. Five children, including Frederic Cortland Penfield, noted journalist, diplomat, and millionaire.
6. Ruth Maria, b. 7 Feb. 1802; d. unm. in 1887.
7. Prudence Augusta, b. 10 May 1804; m. 27 March 1822 Ebenezer Brown Pelton.
8. Edward Augustus, b. 26 June 1806; d. young.
9. Elizabeth Ann, b. 1 May 1808; d. 20 Oct. 1896; m. 3 June 1832 Hezekiah Pelton. Six children.
10. Edward Augustus, b. 15 July 1810; m. 22 March 1835 Belinda Norton, daughter of Capt. Jabez and Sally (Pelton) Norton of Middle Haddam. Five children.

x. HANNAH, b. 15 April 1767; d. 2 April 1784.

xi. VIANE (VIENNA), b. 4 Dec. 1769; d. 23 Jan. 1799; m. 8 Dec. 1792 JOHN AMES.

Children (surname Ames):

1. Abigail, b. 13 Nov. 1793.
2. John Robinson, b. 19 May 1796.
3. Eliza, b. 11 March 1798.

xii. JONATHAN, b. 30 July 1772; d. 1 Oct. 1776.

5 (COL.) JOHN[3] PENFIELD (John,[2] Samuel[1]), born in Chatham (Middletown), Conn., 14 May 1731, died 22 Feb. 1797. He married RUTH STOCKING, daughter of Samuel and Abiah (Boardman) Stocking of Chatham. John Penfield was a prominent citizen and served for many years as Representative to the General Court. He served in the Revolutionary War, reaching the rank of Lieutenant Colonel in the Twenty-Third Regiment, Connecticut, under Matthew Talcott and Comfort Sage of Middletown. He was promoted from Captain to Major in 1775, and to Lieutenant Colonel in 1776.

Children, born in Chatham:

i. JESSE,[4] b. 2 April 1755; m. (1) 17 May 1781 SARAH HALL, d. 11 Sept. 1794, in her 35th year; m. (2) DORINDA ———. Jesse Penfield served in the Revolutionary War as Sergeant in the Eighth Company, Joseph Churchill, Captain, under Col. Comfort Sage of Middletown. He should not be confused with another Jesse Penfield who served in the Revolutionary War, enlisting from the Waterbury district.

Child by first wife:

1. Fanny,[5] d. 7 Oct. 1787, aged. 4.

Child by second wife:

2. Lucinda Norton, b. 7 July 1798.

ii. RACHEL, b. 14 Nov. 1756; d. in 1843; m. 17 Feb. 1780 JOHNSON PELTON, JR., b. 3 Dec. 1754, d. 7 Feb. 1839.

Children (surname Pelton):

1. Lucy, b. 7 Dec. 1780; d. unm. in 1857.
2. Chauncey, b. 30 Jan. 1783; d. at sea in 1808.
3. Polly, b. 3 May 1785; m. Daniel Shepard.
4. Ruth, b. 17 Nov. 1787; m. David Ames.
5. Julia, b. 17 Feb. 1790; d. unm. in 1813.
6. Fanny, b. in 1792; d. unm.
7. Sanford, b. 1 July 1794; m. Phoebe Hurlbut.

iii. RUTH, b. 30 Oct. 1758; m. 30 Nov. 1780 JOHN WILLCOX.

Child (surname Willcox):

1. Lucy, b. 31 Aug. 1781; d. 8 Jan. 1802.

iv. PHOEBE, b. 5 Dec. 1760; m. (1) 23 Sept. 1784 JESSE PELTON, b. 8 Feb. 1761, d. in 1795; m. (2) 10 Sept. 1818 JAMES BILL.

Child by first husband (surname Pelton):

1. Frances, b. about 1786.

THE PENNINGTON FAMILY OF CONNECTICUT AND NEW-JERSEY.

[Communicated by A. C. M. Pennington, U.S.A.]

As a prelude to the genealogy of the branch of the Pennington family herein recorded, it may not be regarded as inappropriate to record some facts concerning the family in England, from which this has undoubtedly descended. Upon an examination of Fuller's Worthies of England it is found that the name of Pennington does not occur in any of the counties, except those of Cumberland, Westmoreland and Lancaster, and the families of the name there residing are all branches of the same family, to wit:—that of Muncaster Castle, in Cumberland, where Jamel de Penitone, a person of noté and affluence, to whom the family traces its lineage, resided long antecedent to the conquest. The lineal descendant of Jamel, Sir John de Pennington, Knight, was steadily attached to King Henry VI., and gave him a secret reception at Muncaster Castle in 1456 in his flight from his enemies. In return the King gave him a curiously wrought glass cup with the blessing to the family, that they should ever prosper and never want a male heir so long as they should preserve it unbroken, which, the superstition of those times imagined, carried good fortune and called it the "Luck of Muncaster." Of this cup the family are still possessed. This Sir John de Pennington commanded the left wing of the English army in an expedition to Scotland. His grandson Sir John de Pennington had a command at Flodden Field, May, 1513. Sir William Pennington, lineally descended from the above, was created a baronet in 1676. The family still reside at Muncaster Castle, in Cumberland. The present Baronet is Gamel-Augustus Pennington (1870). From Moule's History of Essex County, England, we have the following:—'A large brick house in the village of Chigwell, Essex County, was the family mansion of the Penningtons previous to 1620. John Pennington died here in 1702, and Sarah his wife, daughter of Sir Robert Abdy, of Albias, died in 1690, &c."

We have also from "Moule's English Counties," the following concerning the town of Pennington, two (2) miles west from Ulverston. "It contains fifty houses and two hundred and eighty-four inhabitants. Westward of St. Michael's Church is Castle hill, the site of an ancient residence of the Pennington family who removed hence to Muncaster in 1242 (this seems to conflict with the statement concerning Jamel de Penitone being at Muncaster Castle prior to the conquest in 1066). It commands an extensive view of the sea coast and beacons, &c. &c." Also, from the same authority, we have concerning Ulverston as follows:—"Two miles south of Ulverston in Lancashire is Cornishead, priory of Austin or Black Canon founded in reign of Henry II. (1154 to 1189) by Gabriel Pennington, under auspices of William de Lancaster, First Baron of Keasal." From Fuller's Worthies of England we obtain the following list of sheriffs:—

Time of Henry VI., 1422 to 1461.

5th Sheriff of Darwentwater Jo: Pennington. Mil.
9th " " " Joh: " Mil.
13th " " " Joh: " "

Time of Henry VIII., 1509 to 1547.

2d Joh: Pennington, Sheriff of Westmoreland. Mil.
20th Wm. Pennington " " " "

Time of Edward VI., 1547 to 1553.

6th William Pennington, Sheriff of Dalston.

Time of Philip and Mary, 1554 to 1588.

5th and 6th William Pennington, Sheriff of Dalston.

Time of Elizabeth, 1558 to 1603.

7th William Pennington, Sheriff of Dalston.
40th Joseph Pennington, " " "

Jac. Reign, 1603 to 1625.

8th Joseph Pennington, Sheriff of Dalston.

Time of Charles I.

14th Isaac Pennington, Sheriff (Lord Mayor in 1643) of London.

From Chalmer's Biographical Dictionary we have an account of Isaac Pennington, a writer of much eminence among the Quakers in England, who was born 1617. He was a son of Isaac Pennington, an alderman of London in time of Cromwell, and Lord Mayor of London in 1643. Isaac Pennington, Senior, was one of the King's judges, and upon the restoration he was tried and condemned, but respited, and died in the Tower. His son, Isaac Pennington, became a Quaker in 1658; he married Mary Springett, a widow, whose daughter by her former husband became the wife of William Penn. He resided on his estate, called "The Grange," at Chalfont St. Giles, Buckinghamshire. He was greatly persecuted for his religious opinions. He died at Goodnestone Court in Sussex, 1679.

From Neale's History of the Puritans, we have an account of Isaac Pennington, the Quaker, also, which is too long to be inserted here. One fact is there stated, however, and it might be an important one in tracing the family whose genealogy is hereafter recorded, and that is that Isaac Pennington was the eldest son of Isaac Pennington, the Lord Mayor, which goes to show that the latter had more sons than one.

In the Encyclopædia Britannica, in an account of William Penn's burial place, it is stated that he was buried in the "Friend's or Jourdan's Burial Ground," which is situated on the road from Beaconsfield to the neighboring village of Chalfont St. Giles in Bucks, and that two of Milton's friends, Thomas Elwood, who read to the poet in his blindness, and Isaac Pennington, were buried in the same sequestered grave yard.

The earliest ancestor to whom the Pennington family of New-Jersey can be directly traced is Ephraim Pennington, who, according to Savage's Genealogical Dictionary, swore allegiance to the New-Haven colony in 1644. His signature is to be found among the "Proprietors' Records," at New Haven, under date of 1643—"to have six acres within the two mile in three parts." His home lot was on George street, south side of one of the original nine squares, which square is now (1867) subdivided by Orange street. At a General Court in New-Haven, in 1648, he was admitted a member and received the freeman's charge. In 1651 "a little island in the east river was granted him." He died about March, 1661, leaving a widow, Mary, and two children, Ephraim and Mary; both of these were baptized October 22, 1648, in New-Haven. On the 5th of March, 1660–1, O. S., widow Pennington and her children came into Court—no will. Ephraim to have two thirds of the property and Mary one third. They nominate their mother guardian.

1. Ephraim[1] Pennington. It is not known from what part of England he came, or when he reached this country, but as he first appears in New-Haven in 1643, the inference is that he left England about that time. Might he not have been one of the sons of Isaac Pennington, the Lord Mayor of London in 1643? He died 1660–1, O. S., in New-Haven. He m. Mary ——, and had:—

   2. i. Ephraim, b. 1645; bapt. Oct. 22, 1648; d. about 1694–5, O. S.
   3. ii. Mary, b. 1646; bapt. Oct. 22, 1648.

2. Ephraim[2] (Ephraim[1]), m. Mary Brockett of Wallingford, dau. of John Brockett, a signer of the first covenant in New-Haven, and of Wallingford in 1690. They were m. by Mr. John Clarke in Milford, Oct. 25, 1667. Mary Brockett was bapt. in New-Haven, Sept. 28, 1646. In 1667 they removed to Newark, New-Jersey, and settled. In 1673, when the Dutch exacted from the inhabitants the oath of allegiance, Ephraim Pennington and ten others were reported absent from "New-Worke." They had:—

   4. i. Ephraim.
   5. ii. Judah, d. prior to 1738.

3. Mary[2] (Ephraim[1]), m. Jonathan Tompkins in New-Haven, April 12, 1666, the ceremony being performed by Mr. William Jones. Jonathan Tompkins was baptized Dec. 17, 1643, in Milford. They removed to Newark, New-Jersey, 1667, and settled. Their descendants are numerous.

4. Ephraim[3] (Ephraim,[2] Ephraim[1]), removed to Mendham, co. Morris, New-Jersey, it is supposed from the fact that there was a Timothy Pennington (Penitone), in Mendham, co. Morris, in 1749, who named in his will, Elijah, Jonathan and Ephraim. Elijah was in court in 1758, Ephraim in 1741. Jonathan was in Morris township in 1772, and had in his family five persons. He had one dwelling house, and a family consisting of two males between 16 and 50 years of age, one male between 50 and 80, one married and one unmarried, one female between 16 and 20, and one female under 16. Nothing further is known concerning the descendants of this Ephraim.

5. JUDAH[3] (Ephraim,[2] Ephraim[1]), m. Anne ——, who died Oct. 8, 1749, aged 57. They had:—

i. EXPERIENCE, b. 1724; d. Sept. 18, 1741.
6. ii. SAMUEL, b. 1725; d. Aug. 6, 1791, aged 66.

6. SAMUEL[4] (Judah,[3] Ephraim,[2] Ephraim[1]), m. Mary Sanford, granddau. of Major William Sanford, of Barbadoes Neck, New-Jersey, who declined a Councillor's appointment tendered him in 1669; but in 1682 he served in the Council of Deputy Governor Rudyard, and as Major Sanford in the Council of Deputy Governor Lawrie. He died in 1692, letters of administration being granted Sept. 1. It appears he was married to Sarah Whartman, on March 27th, 1667, "on board the 'Pink Susannah,' in the river of Surinam." He "desires his body to be buried, if it may be, in his own plantation, without mourning, pomp or expensive ceremony, and desires his honored friends Col. And. Hamilton, James Emmett, Gabriel Meenville and William Nicholls of New-York, to assist and favor the concerns of a widow and five innocent children, with their best advice, help and council, to preserve them from those vultures and harpies which prey on the carcasses of widows and fatten with the blood of orphans." "Sanford Flats," at the junction of the Hackensack and Passaic rivers, in New-Jersey, derives the name from the purchase in 1668 of the meadows and upland lying south of a line drawn from one river to the other seven miles north from their intersection, granted to Capt. William Sanford for £20 sterling forever in lieu of the half-penny per acre. Nathaniel Kingsland became interested in the grant, and from him the tract derived the name of "New Barbadoes," he being of the island of Barbadoes.

Samuel Pennington by this marriage had:—

i. JUDAH, b. 1749; d. May 20, 1785, aged 36.
ii. RACHEL, b. 1752; d. July 2, 1753.

10. SAMUEL[5] (Samuel,[4] Judah,[3] Ephraim[2]), was a farmer more or less during his life. He was editor, with Stephen Gould, of the "Newwark Centinel of Freedom," in 1799, after the death of his brother Aaron, who was, prior to his death, the editor of the paper. He continued in the printing and book business for some years. He was a representative in the legislature of New-Jersey for many years successively, and probably for a greater length of time than any other person from his county, and perhaps in the State. He was once or twice speaker of the House of Assembly in New Jersey. He served one term in the Council (now Senate) of his State. In early life he took a prominent part in the affairs of his town, and held many offices of trust, having the respect and confidence of his townsmen in an eminent degree. He m. Sarah Baldwin, who d. Dec. 26, 1796, aged 30 yrs. 5 mos. 4 days, leaving one child who died young.

11. NATHAN[5] (Samuel,[4] Judah,[3] Ephraim[2]), m. Margaret Wescott Leonard (dau. of Col. Richard Wescott and his wife Margaret Bearzure), widow of Joseph Leonard. Nathan Pennington was born at Dutch Farms, near Newark, New-Jersey. At the age of 19 he volunteered his services in the revolutionary war. He also served against the whiskey insurrection. During the revolution he was taken prisoner, and sent to Quebec, where he nearly died of starvation. He finally escaped with some others, one of the number mounting to the top of the wall by standing on the shoulders of the others, the others being pulled up by means of their bed clothing, which was tied together, and were then lowered to the opposite side. He was a ship-builder. He was at Chestnut Neck, N. J., in charge of captured property, when he married Margaret Wescott (Leonard). PENNOYER AND LOUNSBURY NOTES

By Winifred Lovering Holman, S.B., F.A.S.G., of Lexington, Mass.

As genealogist for Harvard, insofar as research in connection with their scholarships based upon ancestral requirements is concerned, I had much of the Pennoyer and Lounsbury material at hand. The additional data were secured in 1949, for Mrs. John Mitchell Morrison, of Towanda, Pa., and Miami, Fla., and is presented here with her permission and with due acknowledgment of her generosity.

These brief notes must be considered but a basis for more exhaustive research as few original sources have been consulted.

Pennoyer

There were three Pennoyer brothers in England, in whom we are interested. It seems odd that no one, to my knowledge, has ever secured and published any information as to their parentage and ancestry. The College of Arms in London has a partial pedigree, to which I have added data, but it contains nothing at all about the antecedants. As we shall see later, there may have been a fourth brother.

In 1901, the late Henry F. Waters published, in two volumes, his "Genealogical Gleanings in England", and in volume I, pages 503–506, presents the wills of William and Samuel Pennoyer, brothers, and their two widows. We are particularly interested in the will of William, whose legacy founded the Pennoyer Aid at Harvard.

Samuel, a merchant of London, had married Rose Hobson, and drew his will, 29 June 1652, proved 12 May 1654, mentioning his brother, William, and the latter's wife, Martha. Rose married, secondly, as his second wife, Samuel Disbrow and died in Elsworth, Cambridgeshire, 10 Dec. 1690, aged seventy-five, while Disbrow died there, 4 March 1698, aged eighty-two.*

William had married Martha, daughter of John Josselyn, of Hide Hall, Sawbridgeworth, Herts., by his wife, Elizabeth Wiseman.† As citizen and clothmaker of London, William Pennoyer made his will, 25 May 1670, proved 13 Feb. 1670–71.

In this instrument, he left £800 "to be sent over to the Corporation for the Propagation of the Gospel in New England", to the intent and purpose that its value in goods and commodities of that country "may upon sale thereof be delivered to Robert Pennoyer of Stamford of New England for the equal use and benefit of himself and each of his children; further to the intent and purpose that what shall be made thereof above the said eight hundred pounds value in the commodities of that country shall be and remain to his sister Elianor Reading and her husband Thomas Reading and all their children equally and indifferently".

He owned land and tenements in co. Norfolk, out of which £10 per annum was given to the Corporation for Propagation of the Gospel in New England and £34 per annum with which "two Fellows and two scholars forever shall be educated, maintained and brought up in the college called Cambridge College in New England, of which I desire one of them, so often as occasion shall present, may be of the line or posterity of the said Robert Pennoyer, if they be capable of it, and the other of the colony now or late called Newhaven Colony, if conveniently may be".

Harvard sold this Norfolk property only recently. The third brother, Robert Pennoyer, is the founder of the American branch; brief notes concerning him follow.

Robert Pennoyer, brother of William (the testator of 1670 and benefactor of Harvard College), a turner by trade, born perhaps in 1614, was alive in January 1677, then of Mamaroneck, Westchester Co., N. Y., and resided in Gravesend, Long Island, N. Y., Stamford, Conn., and Rye and Mamaroneck. He married, first, about 1652, an unknown wife, who became the mother of his children, and who died by 6 March 1671; and, secondly, after 1666, and before 6 March 1671, Elizabeth (———) Scofield, widow of Richard Scofield of Stamford.

It has been thought that this Robert is identical with a Robert Pennaird, aged 21, who with a Thomas Pennaird, aged 10 (possibly a younger brother), came over on the Hopewell, of London, Thomas Babb, Master. She sailed about the middle of September and arrived in Boston, Mass., the latter part of November 1635. (Banks: "Planters of the Commonwealth", 1930.) He was certainly the Robert Pennoyer, of Gravesend, Long Island, in 164–, and again in 1645. (Record, 16:99, 102.) 23 Aug. 1656 we learn that the lands of Robert Pennoyer, et als., at Gravesend were surveyed, from the Calendar of Dutch Ms., 189. (Ibid., 65:242.) 1 Aug. 1670 his daughter, Elizabeth "Penrye", was married to Richard Lownesbury, from Court of Assizes, 2:572. (O'Callaghan: "New York Marriages", 1860, 239.) 24 Dec. 1670 John Richbell, of Mamaroneck, with his wife, Ann, sold to Robert "Penoire", homelots, numbers 2 and 3, there, see Liber 1677–1683 [in Albany?]. (Record, 58:250.)

6 March 1671, the inventory was made of the estate of Richard Scofield, late of Stamford, deceased, filed 16 March 1671, which mentions the widow, now the wife of Robert "Penoyer". (Mead: Ms. "Fairfield Probate", 1:22.) The next record appears in Boston 18 Oct. 1671:

"I Robert Penoyer Late of Stamford doe . . . Ordayne my . . . freind Jonathan Sellick to bee my . . . Attourney to demand & receave for mee my full Legacy Left mee by my Brother mr William Penoyer Late of London . . . as witnes my hand & seale in Rye this 18th of October 1671 . . . Robert Penoire". Wit: John Richman, Miles Okely, and the mark of Nicolas Webster; attested 19 Oct. 1672 by Richman and Webster; recd. 20 April 1672. (Suffolk Deeds, 6:280.)

Further deeds are of interest in proving the names of his children:

8 Jan. 1671–72, Robert "Penoyer", of Mamaroneck conveyed property, purchased of Richbell, to his dearly beloved children: William and Thomas Penoyer;

the cattle and household goods to be divded between said sons and daughter, Martha Penoyer; Robert was to have full management of all the property during his natural lifetime. Westchester Deeds, B:100. (Record, 58:351.) Another abstract of this deed gives the date as 18 Jan. 1671–72, calls the grantor "Penoyre", recites that he gave to children, William and Thomas, all rights to his estate, real and personal; to eldest son, William, two thirds of the land purchased of said Richbell, and for want of issue to son Thomas; daughter, Martha, also named. Westchester Deeds, B:100. (Ibid., 54:394.)

1 Jan. 1677, a statement that William Penoyer did bequeath to Walter Butler, of Greenwich, Conn., son of Evan Butler, of Cursonn, in the county of Hereford, the sum of four score pounds. Westchester Deeds, at Albany, 4:26. (Ibid., 58:349.)

Recorded for Mr. George Heathcott, 7 Jan. 1677. "Whereas William Penoyer, Esq., citizen and clothworker of London, did make his last will in writing bearing date the five & twentieth day of May . . . 1670*; and among other things ordered that £800 be laid out in merchandise fit for New England & sent over to the Corporation for the Propagation of the Gospel in New England; delivered to Robert Penoyer of Stratford [Stamford] for the benefit of himself & children & did appoint Richard Leton Esq., & Michael Davison, Esq., Executors; . . . the residue to Ellena Reading & her children. The sd Michael Davison has since died. Now there is no such corporation in New England to which sd goods may be consigned & sold and proceeds divided amongst respective persons; neither can security be taken for children. Robert Penoyer is removed to Mamaroneck in New York State and hath only 4 living children, viz., Elizabeth Pennoyer, aged 24, William Pennoyer, aged 22, Thomas Pennoyer, aged 17, and Martha Pennoyer, aged 11, under age, January 1677. Signed

Robert Pennoyer
Elizabeth Pennoyer, now Lounsbury
Wm. Will Penoyer"

Wit: William Dyre, George Kniffon, John Royse, William Hall, and Anthony Buckholm. Westchester Deeds, at Albany, 4:9. (Ibid., 58:349.)

29 Jan. 1677, Robert Penoyer, of Mamaroneck, Turner, William Penoyer, of the same place, son of the said Robert, with Richard Lounsbury, of Rye, Conn., and Elizabeth Lounsbury, his wife, oldest daughter of the said Robert, conveyed to Richard Leton, of London, England, and to George Heathcott, of Middlesex Co., England, mariner, by bond. Westchester Deeds, at Albany, 4:23. (Ibid., 58:349.)†

There is mention in a deed, dated 2 April 1694, of land formerly in the possession of Robert Pennoyer and now in the possession of his son (not named). Westchester Deeds, B: 177. (Ibid., 54:394.) It would seem therefore that Robert was surely dead by April 1694.

Children by first wife, born in Stamford:

i. ELIZABETH,[2] b. about 1652; m., RICHARD LOUNSBURY. See Lounsbury Notes.

ii. WILLIAM, b. about 1654; m. MARY ———. In 1698, a William "Peneor", was of Mamaroneck, and, in New Rochelle, a Robert "Peniore" (a footnote explains that Robert probably belonged to the Mamaroneck List); also another 1698 list, for New Rochelle, Mamaroneck, and Morisanna, gives a Robert "penneor", aged 17. 22 May 1702, William "Penior", of Mamaroneck, freeholder, for love, gives to his son and heir, Robert "Penoir", one half his land there; 2 March 1703, William Penoir, of same, for love, deeds all his estate to his wife Mary, for her natural life; wit: Fred. and

RICHARD[1] LOUNSBURY*, of Rye, Westchester Co., N. Y., in 1672, died by 8 Dec. 1694, testate. He married, by License, and as "Lownesbury", 1 Aug. 1670, ELIZABETH "PENRYE", who, aged twenty-four, 8 Jan. 1677, was living in 1694, daughter of Robert Pennoyer, and niece of a benefactor of Harvard, William Pennoyer.

Nothing is known of the antecedants of Richard Lounsbury, whose male descendants, by his wife, Elizabeth Pennoyer, are entitled to the Pennoyer Aid at Harvard.

Mead's Ms. "Fairfield Probate", mentions, page 18, that Philip Galpin, of Rye, conveyed property there to Simon Roberts, of Boston, Mass., 20 Feb. 1672, as witnessed by Joseph Horton and Richard Lounsberry. According to Baird's "Rye", (1871), pages 421–422, Richard was a proprietor there of Penungs Neck in 1672, and also held property in White Plains, Westchester Co., where he removed between 1673 and 1682, selling part of his Rye land. However, he kept his land in Rye at Budds Neck, which by his will of 2 Jan. 1690 [?], he left to his wife, Elizabeth, and to his elder sons.

His will, proved 7, or 8, Dec. 1694, mentioned wife, Elizabeth, and daughter, Mary; gave to son John, a bed, etc.; and to sons Thomas and Michael, all his rights at White Plains; to his son, Henry, his rights in "Raccone Ridge", and Lame Wills Purchase; required his son Richard's £10 note, "when time is out according to bargain". The widow Elizabeth was administratrix. (Selleck-Jacobus: "Miner Ancestry", 1928.)

Westchester Deeds, C:320, deals with the estate of this Richard Lounsbury, and also refers to the Westchester Wills. Lounsbury had left his lands in White Plains to his sons, Thomas and Michael; the latter sold out his portion. The will, 1690–1694, recorded in the Deeds†, mentions daughter, Mary, but she was omitted from the Will. (Record, 49:300; also see 54:397).‡

Although son Henry Lounsbury's birth is recorded in Stamford, it is exceedingly doubtful if Richard ever resided there. No doubt Henry, himself, had it recorded in the Stamford Town Book.

*Some descendants spell the name as "Lounsberry".

†Westchester Deeds, B:188.

‡There was a William res. n. of Dr. Graham, who occupied his land many years. John and wife, Ann, of Rye, gave to brother-in-law, Israel Rogers and wife Mary, in 1703–04. Westchester Deeds C:320. (Appended to Record, 54:397, cited above.)

Children, probably all born in Rye:.

i. Mary,[2] m. by 11 Aug. 1701 Israel Rogers.

ii. John, m. about 1701 Abigail (Thomas)Preston, b. 21 Nov. 1674, dau. of John and Lydia (Parker) Thomas and widow of Samuel Preston. Her two sons are known from the conveyance of Thomas property inherited from her. 11 Aug. 1701, John conveyed part of his homelot, in Rye, to his brother-in-law, Israel Rogers, and Mary, his wife. John was a wit. at Rye, 1706–1723. (Record 17:280; 54:395; Jacobus, "New Haven Families", 5:1107; 7:1790; Sharpe's "Bethany", 1908, 129; 132.)

Children:

1. Richard,[3] of Kingstown, N. Y., in 1733.
2. Josiah, of New Haven, Conn.; m. there, 7 May 1734, Ruth Lines; the ancestors of the Lounsburys of Bethany, Conn.

iii. Thomas, held rights in White Plains, Westchester Co., from his father.

iv. Michael, b. about 1680; d. 20 Jan. 1730–31; Stamford, Conn., test.; m. there, 19 June 1707, Sarah Lockwood, who d. there 7 June 1749, dau. of John Lockwood.

The will of Michael Lounsbury of Stamford, dated 18 Jan. 1730, proved 16 April 1731, names children: "Murmoth" [Monmouth], Joshua, Nehemiah, Jonathan, Sarah, Jemima, and Abigail, brother Henry Lounsbury; wife Sarah; no executor cited; wit: Samuel Weed, Daniel Hait and Thomas June; inventory, by said Weed and Samuel Hait, 17 June, filed 24 June 1731; 1 Sept. 1747, distribution according to will. (Mead: Ms. "Stamford Probate", 1:23.) See Stamford V.R. (Barbour), 129; "Stamford Registration", 1874, 71; Selleck-Jacobus "Miner Ancestry", 1928, 63–64; Mead: Ms. "Stamford Probate", 1:19, 50; "Lockwood Genealogy", 1889, 35; Baird: "Rye", 1871, 421. I have further data.

2. v. Henry, b. 15 Aug. 1684, recd. in Stamford; m. Mercy Scofield.

vi. Richard, m. Elizabeth du Bois. A Richard, carman, of New York, d. intest., admin. granted his widow, Abigail, 28 Feb. 1715–16. ("New York Wills", 2:165, pub. in Coll. N. Y. Hist. Soc.) However, see Record, 17:280.

2. Henry[2] Lounsbury (Richard[1]), born probably in Rye, Westchester Co., N. Y., birth recorded in Stamford, Conn., 15 Aug. 1684, died in Stamford between 8 Oct. 1749 and 2 April 1751, intestate. He married there, about 1709, Mercy Scofield, born there 30 Oct. 1690, died between 8 Oct. 1749 and 2 April 1751, daughter of John and Hannah (Mead) Scofield.*

By the terms of his father's will, which was proved in December 1694, Henry received land and first appears in the deeds of Stamford in 1706:

11 March 1705–06, Samuel Seeley, of Stamford, sold to Henry Lownsbery, of same, land there; wit: Samuel Hait and John Crissy; ack. 1708 and recd. 1717. (Stamford Deeds, B:287.)†

Brief notes on the rest of his land transactions follow:

23 June 1709, Abraham Finch, of Stamford, sold land with a house and orchard there, at a farm called Taunton, in all 13 acres, to Henry

*See W. L. Holman: Ms. "Mead Notes", and Ms. "Scofield Notes", at N.E.H.G. Society, Boston, both compiled for Mrs. Morrison.

(Ibid., B:156, 18, 278.)

9 March 1710 [?–11], Edmund Lockwood, of Stamford, "to prevent any controversy grant unto Henry Lounsbury all my title to land west of Mill River & north of Boundary line between him and myself which land was formerly in partnership between Abraham & Isaac Finch"; wit: Jno Holly and mark of Joanna Baker; no ack.; recd. 1740. (Ibid., D: 192.)

5 July 1717, Land laid out to Henry Lownsbery 4 acres "being part of ye right of Thomas Waterbery in ye Double measure of Long Lotts on west side of Mill River", "below ye town", signed by Stephen Bishop, Daniel Scofield, and John Holly. (Ibid., B: 279.)

27 Feb. 1720–21, land laid out to Henry Lounsbery on Flatt Ridge and Bell's Ridge, "on Thomas Larances Right, in ye long Lotts & descended from him unto Eliezer Slason & from sd Slason to Samuel Seeley and from sd Selley unto him sd Henry"; signed by Benjamin Green, Samuel Webb, and John Knapp; recd. 1721. (Ibid., B:390.)

6 Jan. 1734–35, "Henery Lounsberry", of Stamford released "my brother Michall Lounsbery's estate from all that he gave me by will"; wit: Nathaniel Webb and Daniel Hait; the same day, Sarah Bates ack. receipt of all her portion of her "Uncle Henery Lounsbery's" rights that her father gave him by will, etc. (Ibid., C:150,210.)

21 Dec. 1738, Abraham Ambler, of Bedford, N. Y., for £100, sold Henry Lounsbery, of Stamford, land there which did accrue to said Ambler, from his uncle, John Ambler, etc.; wit: Samuel Weed and Joseph Ferris; ack. 1738 and recd. 1739. (Ibid., D:137.)*

15 May 1739, land laid out unto Henry Lounsbery, at Stamford, by Capt. John Knap and Richard Scofield, 10 acres in Long Lotts on Huckleberry Ridge; recd. 1739. (Ibid., D:134.)

1 Feb. 1742–43, Henry Lounsbery, of Stamford, gave to son Epinetus Lounsbery, of same, land at Taunton Farm there, reserving use of one half the meadow and barn for life; wit: Joseph Bishop and mark of Hannah Bishop; ack. and recd. same day. (Ibid., D:359.)

*Also see the Record, 64:177.

22 March 1742–43, Henry Lounsbery, of Stamford, gave to son Gideon Lounsbery, of same, 3 lots west side of Mill River, some 3 acres, reserving for himself a piece of same "for life and my present wife"; wit: Jonathan Bell and Joseph Biship; ack. and recd. same day. (Ibid., D:369.)

4 April 1743, Henry Lounsbery, of Stamford, conveyed to son Epinetus Lounsbery, of same, a house and homestead of 11 acres there, reserving one third of same "for my life time and my present wife"; wit: Samuel Hait and John Finch; ack. and recd. same day. (Ibid., D:373.)

8 April 1743, Henry Lounsbery, of Stamford, conveyed land there to his son, Nathaniel Lounsbery, of same; wit: Samuel Hait and Nathaniel Heusted; ack. and recd. same day. (Ibid., D:374.)

8 May 1743, Henry Lounsbery, of Stamford, conveyed land there to his son, Nathan Lounsbery, of same; wit: Joshua and Monmouth Lounsbery; ack. same day and recd. 21 Jan. 1744–45. (Ibid., D:481.)*

The records of the Stamford Church are extant only from 31 Dec. 1746. At this time the Lounsbury members included Abigail, Epinetus, Gideon, Hannah, wife of Joshua, Joshua, Mary, Nathan, and Rachel, wife of Jonathan Scofield. Gideon later became an Episcopalian and Joshua left town. Mercy, wife of Henry Lounsbury, was admitted a member 8 Oct. 1749, which would prove that both were then living. (Mead: Ms. "Stamford Church Recds".)

In view of the above deeds of gift, we are not surprised to learn that Henry died intestate, nor is there any record of an estate for his wife or widow. Evidently both were deceased when their heirs passed these conveyances:

23 April 1751, Nathaniel, Epinetus, and Gideon Lounsbery; Samuel Scofield and Hannah Scofield alias Lounsbery, his wife; Jonathan Scofield and Rachel Scofield, alias Lounsbery, his wife; Charles Buxton and Mercy Buxton, alias Lounsbery, his wife; Nathaniel Newman and Mary Newman, alias Lounsbery, his wife, all of Stamford, convey to Nathan Lounsbery, of same, land there; Hannah, Rachel, Mercy, and Mary sign by mark; wit: Charles Smith and John Holly; ack. 23 and 25 April 1751; recd. 25 April 1752. (Stamford Deeds, E:448.)

23 April 1751, Epinetus, Gideon, and Nathan Lounsbery, Samuel Scofield, Jr., and Hannah, his wife; Jonathan Scofield, and Rachel, his wife; Charles Buxton, and Mercy, his wife; Nathaniel Newman, and Mary, his wife; all of Stamford, convey land there on west side of Mill River to Nathaniel Lounsbery, of same; Rachel, Mercy, and Mary sign by mark, as does Jonathan Scofield; wit: John Holly and Charles Smith; ack. 23 and 25 April 1751; recd. 2 March 1757. (Ibid., F:226.)

Henry's first six children are recorded in the Stamford Town Records, as see The American Genealogist, 11:164,224. His own birth also appears therein, ibid., 10:182.

Children, born in Stamford:

i. Henry,[3] b. 17 Dec. 1709; aged 7, 17 Dec. 1716; prob. d. young.

ii. Mercy, b. 12 March 1710–11. See below.

iii. Hannah, b. 2 Sept. 1713; aged 3, 2 Sept. 1716; m. in Stamford, 3 May 1739, Samuel Scofield, Jr., both were living there 1751; see the American Genealogist, 11:196 for her account.

iv. Nathaniel, b. 4 Feb. 1714–15; aged 2, 4 Feb. 1716–17; m. in Stamford, 14 Jan. 1749, Eunice Brown, living in 1751. His will of 1792, proved 1796, names dau. Mercy Reynolds. (Mead: Ms. "Stamford Probate", 262–263.)

*This deed is dated and ack. 1743–44, an obvious error.

v. EPENETUS, b. 14 Feb. 1716–17; m. in Stamford, 25 June 1749–50, ELIZABETH FINCH, living in 1751. They had son Henry, bapt. in Stamford, 18 June 1758, and others. No estate there of record.

vi. RACHEL, b. 15 Jan. 1718–19; m. JONATHAN SCOFIELD; both living in 1751.

vii. GIDEON, b. about 1720; m. in Stamford, 14 Jan. 1747–48, DEBORAH BUXTON. He drew his will in 1792. (Ibid.)

viii. NATHAN, b. about 1723; m. in Stamford, 27 March 1751, ELIZABETH (SEELEY) TALMADGE. Their son, Enos, had a son Nathan, who was the father of Gov. George, and of Gov. Phineas Lounsbury, b. in 1738 and 1741, respectively. Nathan made his will in 1792. (Ibid.)

MERCY[3] LOUNSBURY (Henry,[2] Richard[1]), born in Stamford, Conn., 12 March 1710–11, aged six on 12 March 1716–17, living there 23 April 1751. She married there, by a Justice of the Peace, 6 May 1742, CHARLES[4] BUXTON, born there 29 Aug. 1714, living there, 5 July 1772, son of Clement Buxton III, by his wife, Elizabeth Ferry.*

Charles Buxton bought out the rights in his father's Stamford holdings, of his siblings, in 1750, and then sold land there, subject to his mother's life interest, to Daniel Lockwood, who had bought other land of Clement Buxton in 1741. In 1753, Charles' mother, Elizabeth Buxton, then of Bedford, N. Y., quit to Charles her rights in the Stamford property. His first deed, after his marriage, follows:

23 Nov. 1744, Anthony DeMill, of Stamford, sold to Charles Buxton, of same, land there on the west side of Mill River, next to that of Moses Buxton; wit: Jonathan Glason and Joseph Heusted; ack. same day; recd. 1744. (Stamford Deeds, D:472.)

Mercy, wife of Charles Buxton, is included in a list of the members of the First Church of Stamford, 31 Dec. 1746, and their five children were all baptised therein. (Mead: Ms. "Stamford Church Records", 6, 41, 42, 43.) The rest of Charles' conveyances, filed at Stamford, are noted below. He perhaps had others recorded elsewhere, — very possibly at White Plains, N. Y.

1 Nov. 1745, Charles Buxton, of Stamford, sold land on west side of Mill River there to Ebenezer Scofield; wit: Samuel Squier, Jr., and Jonathan Maltbie; ack. same; recd. 21 Jan. 1746–47. 5 Jan. 1745–46, Charles Buxton, of same, sold land there, next to Moses Buxton, to James Scofield; wit: Richard Scofield and Anthony Demill; ack. same; recd. 2 Nov. 1747. (Stamford Deeds, E:85,130.)

11 April 1746, Charles Buxton, of Stamford, sold land there at Rocky Neck to Benjamin Weed, Jr.; wit: mark of Martha Whiting and Ebenezer Dibble; ack. and recd. same. 19 July 1746, Samuel Pennoyer, of same, sold Charles Buxton, of same, 2 acres meadow there; wit: James Bell and Robert Arnold; ack. and recd. same. Charles had sold, 2 July 1746, 35 acres there to Edmund Lockwood of same; ack. and recd. 19 July 1746; the same day, 2 July, Lockwood conveyed the same property back to Buxton; ack. and recd. 19 July 1746; same wits. both deeds: Reuben Penoyer and Robert Arnold. (Ibid., E:49,50.)

3 Feb. 1746–47, Charles Buxton, of Stamford, sold land there to Nathaniel Lounsbury, of same; wit: Jonathan and David Maltbie; ack.

*The Ferre-Ferry Notes were published in The American Genealogist for January, 1954.

same; recd. 24 Feb. 1746–47. 3 March 1746–47, Charles sold Epenetus Lounsbury of same; wit: Jonathan Maltbie and Ebenezer Dibble; ack. and recd. same. (Ibid., E:95, 101.)

10 Nov. 1747, Charles Buxton, of Stamford, sold to Samuel Hait 3d, of same, one 3d part of right to land called Quester [The Sequestered Land] which "was of my hond grandfather Buxston and one third of the right in Sequest land which was Samuel Handyes and one third right which was francis Davis"; wit: Jonathan and Sarah Maltbie; ack. same; recd. 13 Nov. 1747. (Ibid., E:132.)

2 March 1747–48, Charles Buxton, of Stamford, sold land there on Upper Weed Ridge to Monmouth Lounsbury; wit: Nathaniel and Gideon Lounsbury; ack. same; recd. 21 March 1747–48. 24 April 1749, Charles Buxton, of same, sold land there to Nathaniel Lounsbury, of same; wit: Jonathan Maltbie and Jonathan Church [?]; ack. same; recd. 28 April 1749. (Ibid., E:157,228.)

The two deeds, drawn in 1751, in which Mercy, as wife of Charles Buxton, appears in connection with the settlement of the real estate of her father, Henry Lounsbury, are noted above. As a Charles Buxton, Jr., appears in the Stamford Church Records in 1767 and 1772, it may be assumed that our Charles was then living; also that this record applies to the last named:

3 May 1768, Charles Buxton gave a bond as the guardian of Clement Lloyd, son of David Lloyd, late of Bedford, Westchester Co., N. Y., decd., a minor. From Miscl. Papers not copied. (Mead: Ms. "Stamford Probate", 328.)

In 1790, the only Buxtons listed in Connecticut were at Norwalk: Mary, a widow, also James, John, Peter, and Samuel; at Greenwich: Dorras [Dorcas?].

Children (surname Buxton), born in Stamford, Conn.:

i. CHARLES, b. 12 March 1742–43; m. DORCAS ———. 14 Oct. 1767, Dorcas, an adult and wife of Charles Buxton, Jr., bapt. at St. John's Episcopal Church, Stamford.

Child:

1. Enoch, bapt. 5 July 1772, St. John's, son of Charles Buxton, Jr.; an estate of an Enoch Buxton, 1800, Westchester Co., N. Y. (N. Y. Wills, 15.)

ii. MERCY, b. 21 Oct. 1744; d. 9 Aug. 1822, aged 78, bur. Hornbrook, Bradford Co., Pa.; m. (1) prob. in New York State, about 1763, JONAS SMITH, b. about 1740, d. after 1800, Ulster, then Luzerne Co., Pa.; m. (2), between August 1802 and 1 April 1806, WILLIAM COOLBAUGH. For further particulars, fully documented see W. L. Holman: Ms. "Smith Notes", 1942–1943, typed and bound at the N. E. H. G. Society, compiled for Mrs. Morrison.

Children by first husband (surname Smith):

1. Nathan (Rev.), b. about 1764; living in Wellington, Ohio, in 1826.
2. Jesse, b. 25 Nov. 1766; d. in Bradford County, 23 Dec. 1843, on his farm on line between Wysox and Sheshequin; m. Jane, Miller.*
3. Lydia, b. about 1768, bapt. as an adult, in Wysox, Pa., 4 Oct. 1791.
4. Enos, b. about 1771. Nathan Lounsbury also named a son Enos.

*Mrs. Morrison's first husband, Edward Luther Smith, decd., was the grandson of Jesse Smith, Jr., son of Jesse and Jane (Miller) Smith.

5. John, b. about 1775, bapt. in Wysox 17 June 1892; d. in Bradford County after 16 May 1817; m. Phebe Horton.
6. Sally, b. 25 Feb. 1777, bapt. in Wysox 17 June 1792; d. in Sheshequin 10 May 1841, aged 62–2–15; m. Isaac Horton.
7. Joseph B[uxton], b. about 1780; living in Bradford County 8 Dec. 1824.
8. *Charles, b. about 1782; living in Dutchess County, N. Y., 27 Nov. 1826.

iii. LYDIA, b. 6 Aug. 1746, bapt. in Stamford 25 Jan. 1747; d. there 25 March 1747.

iv. LYDIA, b. 12 Feb. 1747–48, "Called after ye name of their daughter yt dyed", bapt. in Stamford 27 March 1748; prob. m. DAVID LLOYD of Bedford, Westchester Co., N. Y.
Child (surname Lloyd):
1. Clement, b. by 1768.

v. JOHN, bapt. in Stamford 20 May 1750; m. in Salem, Westchester Co., N. Y., 28 June 1769, RACHEL LOUNSBURY. (Record, 31:88.)

*Charles was evidently named for the Buxtons and Nathan, Lydia and Enos, for the Lounsburys.

PERKINS FAMILY OF CONNECTICUT.

[By Fred. B. Perkins, of Hartford, Conn.]

This article is of course very imperfect. It does not attempt to proceed further than the fourth generation, except in a few cases; and doubtless contains errors among the few facts actually given. Such is peculiarly the peril of genealogical labors. It is nothing but a beginning; and will accomplish quite as much as it deserves, if it assists the writer in gathering information as to all descendants, whether of the name or blood, and indeed of any of the kin or ancestry, of John Perkins, senior, of Ipswich, grandfather of Joseph and Jabez, the first settlers of the name in Connecticut. Any such information will be thankfully received by the writer.

This article does not include the lineage of the Ashford family, whose first Connecticut ancestor seems to have descended from a later emigrant; nor of Thomas, the first of the name in Enfield, who came thither about 1683, from Topsfield, Mass.

1. Dea. Joseph[1] Perkins, b. at Ipswich, Mass., 21 (or 22) June, 1674; d. at Norwich, Conn., 4 (or 6) Sept. 1726. He and his brothers, Jabez (No. 2, below) and Matthew, coming from Ipswich, Mass., bought of John Fitch, (deed dated 28 Sept. 1695), 1200 acres of land, (another account says 800 acres, for £70), lying in the forks of the Quinebaug and Shetucket rivers, in the town of Norwich. This was in that part of Norwich afterwards the town of Lisbon, in the southern portion of it, known as Newent Society, (supposed named from Newent, Gloucestershire, England, from the neighborhood of which their grandfather, John, senior, apparently came), and in the locality afterwards known as "Perkins's Crotch," from its situation and owners. This property remained in the family until the period from 1804 to 1820, during which it was alienated. Matthew Perkins soon returned to Ipswich, and remained there. Joseph and Jabez were for a long time influential men and leading church members in that portion of the town.

Joseph[1] Perkins, m. 22 May, 1700, Martha Morgan of Preston, Conn.; b. 1680, d. 30 (or 23) Oct. 1754. THE PERKINS FAMILY OF CONNECTICUT.

[Communicated by WILLIAM E. WARREN, Esq., of New York.]

In an article under this caption published in the Register, April, 1860 (page 113), it is stated that Joseph and Jabez Perkins (grand-[1] sons of John Perkins senior of Ipswich, Mass.), who settled at Norwich in 1695, were the first settlers of the name in Connecticut. This is a mistake as you will see from the following extracts from memoranda in my possession relating to my maternal ancestors of the name of Perkins:

1. EDWARD[1] PERKINS of New Haven, m. Elizabeth Butcher, March 20, 1649. Ch.: (2) John,[2] [+] b. Aug. 18, 1651. (3) Mehitabel,[2] b. Sept. 21, 1652. (4) Jonathan,[2] b. Nov. 12, 1653; m. Mary Elliot June 14, 1682. (5) David,[2] b. Oct. 3, 1656; m. Sarah ——, June 8, 1682.

"Edward[1] Perkins took the oath of fidelity Oct. 18, 1648, and I think that you will not find his name at an earlier date. In 1688, he gave deeds of land to his three sons, and thus settled his estate in some measure. He does not appear in the Probate Records, and his death is not recorded." S. JUDD.

2. JOHN[2] PERKINS of New Haven, b. Aug. 18, 1651; m. ——, May 16, 1677. Ch.: (6) John,[3] b. June 3, 1678; m. Sarai Warner. (7) Stephen,[3] b. April 7, 1680; m. Elizabeth Ford, Aug. 25, 1700. (8) Peter,[3] [+] b. May 18, 1682; m. Mary Thomas. (9) James,[3] b. Aug. 23, 1684. (10) Mary,[3] b. Oct. 9, 1689. (11) Nathan,[3] m. Abigail Hill, May 13, 1718. (12) Aaron,[3] m. 1st Silence Humaston, 2d Mary Alling.

John[2] Perkins m. his second wife, Rebecca, widow of Daniel Thomas.

8. PETER[3] PERKINS* of New Haven, b. May 18, 1682; d. Feb. 14,

* Peter[3] Perkins gives a deed to Willet Bishop, of a piece of land "It being part of a home lot that I bought of my brother-in-law, John Thomas." March 10, 1720–1.

John Thomas gives a deed to his brother-in-law Peter Perkins, Jan. 24, 1715–6; but John Thomas' wife was Mary Ford, and hence, Peter Perkins in order to be brother-in-law to J. T., must have married his sister. John Thomas had sisters Sarah, Abigail, Hannah and Rebecca, older than P. Perkins and Mary who was five years younger. I think she was P. P.'s wife.

Peter Perkins will dated June 17, 1729; probated April 6, 1739. He makes his mark in the signatures of his deeds.

John Thomas gives P. P. a deed on condition of a release from the estate of Samuel Ford "granted to me and my heirs begotten of ye body of my late wife Mary, daughter of Sam'l Ford" about 1716.

Qu.—Did Peter Perkins marry a Ford—sister of John Thomas' wife.

Edward[5] Perkins moved to Bethany, to a place called Whitehall; kept tavern some time; will dated March 1, 1787.

Rosanna Perkins, wid. of Edward Perkins, m. her 2d husband, James Brown of Burlington, Conn., and by him had Eunice, Irving and Appellina. She d. Nov. 9, 1821.

24. Israel[6] Perkins of Bethany, b. Dec. 30, 1767; d. Sept. 8, 1846; m. Millie Judd, dau. of Isaac Judd of Naugatuck. (30) Celista,[7] died June 8, 1810. (31) Leonora,[7] b. Nov. 14, 1791; m. Isaac Warren.

Israel[6] Perkins designed to pursue professional life and had expected to commence a course of study the year that his father died. Being left by this event at the head of the family, he was compelled to forego this purpose and remain at home on the farm. He lived in the house which his father built, on the turnpike from Litchfield, near the school-house. From 1793 to 1795, he lived at Hamden Plain. When he was 28 he became quite deaf, and continued so through life. He was well known in that part of the country, as selectman of the town, settler of estates, guardian of children, &c., &c.; and was so skilled in the law that he was familiarly called "the old lawyer."

The monument erected to his memory in the Carrington burying ground, Bethany, bears the following, inscription: Israel Perkins | died Sept. 8, 1846 | aged 79 | An esteemed citizen | A good man.

He left no property.

THE THOMAS PERKINS FAMILY OF TOPSFIELD, MASS., AND NORWICH, CONN.

By Luella (Schaumburg) Hoover, of Hyattsville, Md.

It has long been known that Thomas[4] Perkins (Thomas,[3] Thomas,[2] John[1]) of Topsfield, Mass., married 21 Nov. 1715 Elizabeth French, daughter of John and Elizabeth French of Topsfield. Both French and Perkins genealogists have assumed Elizabeth Perkins, after having sons Robert, born 19 Nov. 1717, and Thomas, born 17 April 1720, died in Topsfield. Her death record (6 Feb. 1729/30) (Vital Records of Topsfield, comp. by George Francis Dow (1903), p. 239) calls her a widow. Although no one hitherto has found a death record for Thomas,[4] it has been assumed that he predeceased her.[1]

From various records we know John and Elizabeth French sold their homestead in Topsfield in 1718, and were dismissed "to ye Church in Norwich," Conn. From the vital records of Norwich the story unfolds:

John, son of Thomas and Elizabeth Perkins, his wife, born 23 Sept. 1727
Mrs. Elizabeth French, wife of John, died 6 April 1730
John French died 20 April 1730
Sarah, daughter of Thomas Perkins and his wife Sarah, born April 20, 1730 [!]
Sarah, daughter of Thomas and Sarah Perkins, baptised April 25, 1731
Elizabeth, wife of Thomas Perkins, died 24 April 1730
Thomas Perkins and Sarah Jewett married 29 June 1730
Thomas Perkins died Feb. 24, 1730/31

The will of John French of Norwich, dated 26 Feb. 1728/9, proven 28 April 1730, is in the New London Probate District file #2106. Although the will mentions his daughter, Elizabeth (as well as her sisters Jemima and Koziah) various receipts among the estate papers prove that Thomas and Elizabeth Perkins of Norwich were formerly in Topsfield. Among these are the following: (1) Sarah Perkins, guardian to Robert Perkins, dated 18 July 1735 [date partially erased]; (2) Sarah Perkins, receipts in discharge, Abner French, 6 Sept. 1744; (3) "May 28, 1734, Thomas Perkins, son of Thomas Perkins, late of Norwich, deceased, personally appeared and declared that he made choice of his mother [i.e. step-mother], Sarah Perkins, to be his guardian." (4) On 8 June 1732, Sarah Perkins signed a receipt for money received from Abner French, administrator of the will of John French, for the use of "Robert Perkins, an orphan son of Thomas and Elizabeth Perkins, late of Norwich," a portion of the legacy of "Elizabeth Perkins who was his daughter." One receipt was for money received for digging the French graves with, however, "ye diging Bety Perkins grave excepted of."

No will was found for Thomas Perkins but distribution of property is recorded in Book D, page 502, New London, Conn. This, signed 2 May 1740, shows that Robert Perkins had already had his share of the estate (he was of age, having been born in 1717), while the shares of Thomas, John and Sarah were still held by their guardians. One-third was given to Sarah Perkins "widow and relict of ye said deceased" (Sarah, widow of Thomas Perkins, died in Norwich 12 June 1748 (Norwich Vital Records)).

Following one son of the family further, we find in the Norwich vital records that Thomas Perkins married 1 Nov. 1743 Elizabeth Loomer. After their first child was born, this couple moved to the Hebron-Lebanon area, where they had more children. In the old Andover (Conn.) Cemetery we find their gravestones:

Elizabeth died 5 Feb. 1805, ae 85
Thomas died Sept. 11, 1817, ae 97

Hence Thomas's age at death tallies with the record of his birth in Topsfield in 1720.

The will of this Thomas (surely Thomas[5]) was proved in Tolland County, Conn., 7 Oct. 1817. From it and various vital records we know he had Phebe (died young), Thomas, Samuel (married Mary Cook), Asa (married (1), Olive Manley; (2), Loice Loomis), Elizabeth (married ——— Wright), Phebe (married ——— Cook) and Anna (married Sylvester Manley, brother of Olive).

Although these records speak for themselves, two points must be discussed. First, obviously the record of the death of Elizabeth Perkins "widow" in Topsfield, Mass., 6 Feb. 1729/30, cannot pertain to Elizabeth French, wife of Thomas[4] Perkins, and must be that of some other member of the Perkins family; and Mr. George A. Perkins erred in assuming that the deceased was his widow as the Norwich records and the papers in the estate of John French prove.

Secondly, the date of the birth of Sarah, daughter of Thomas and Sarah Perkins, must also be an error. The Norwich records specifically call her the daughter of Thomas and Sarah, but they state that she was born 20 April 1730, 4 days before the recorded death of her father's first wife! Since she received a share of her father's estate but none of John French's she must have been, as the record states, Sarah's (the second wife's) daughter and born posthumously two months after the death of her father in 1731, and was baptised when she was five days old, 25 April 1731. Perhaps the town clerk made an error in recording her birth, or the record has been misread.

THOMAS PETER OF SAYBROOK AND MYLOR.

By Mrs. Eleanor Bradley Peters.

Thomas Peter, the older brother of the celebrated Hugh, was the second child and first son of Thomas Dirkwood and Martha Treffrey, and was baptized in Fowey, Cornwall, in 1597.† He matriculated from Brasenose College, Oxford, 1610; graduated B.A. June 30, 1614; and took his degree of M.A. April 6, 1625.‡ For many years he was vicar of Mylor in his native county. He left England probably in 1643, being driven out of Cornwall by the troops of Sir Ralph Hopton, and reached America in 1644. In the summer of 1645 he was at Saybrook, Connecticut, and afterward was with the younger Winthrop at the Pequot Plantation. When this became the permanent settlement of New London, he was appointed in May, 1646, its first minister, and as he "intended to inhabite in the said plantation," was associated by the Court at Boston with Winthrop in its management.

He was, however, soon taken ill, and receiving an invitation from his old parish in Cornwall to return there, he sailed from Boston in December, 1646. He continued at Mylor until his death in 1654, in the 57th year of his age. A gravestone in the churchyard records his memory.§ Several letters of his are published in the Massachusetts Historical Collections, and he gives the impression of being a somewhat eccentric character.

The following is a copy of his will, which was given to my brother, Mr. William Richmond Peters of New York, by Thurston C. Peter, Esquire, of Trewirgie, Redruth, Cornwall, England.

Will of Thomas Peters.

Edward Penros

Proved in the Prerogative Court of Canterbury the 19th of January 1654

Thomas Peter's father was "a merchant, his ancestors driven from Antwerp for religion—I mean the reformed; his mother, of the same town of a very ancient family; the name Treffrey of Place, or the place in that town of which I would not boast."‖ (Last Legacy—Hugh Peter.) The name was changed from Dirkwood to Peter between 1599 and 1619, no one knows why.

It appears to me that Thomas wrote his name Peter—not Peters.

* "Beloved" in the original copy, but evidently a mistake for "blood."

† "There appears to be something missing here." (Signed) T. C. P.

‡ I am informed by a good authority that Thomas Peter's wife was sister to the wife of the elder Winthrop, which accounts for the Dictionary of National Biography speaking of her as the "sister of Winthrop."

§ He was High Sheriff of the County in 1652.

‖ Place is still standing and still in the possession of the Treffreys.

THE PIERPONTS OF NORTH HAVEN, CONN.

By Donald Lines Jacobus, M. A., of Mount Carmel, Conn.

Rev. James[2] Pierpont, A. B. (Harvard, 1681), A. M. (ib.), son of John[1] and Thankful (Stow), was born at Roxbury, Mass., 4 Jan. 1659/60, and died at New Haven, Conn., 22 Nov. 1714. He married first, 27 Oct. 1691, Abigail Davenport, who died s.p. 3 Feb. 1691/2, daughter of Rev. John and Abigail (Pierson); secondly, 30 May 1694, Sarah Haynes, who died 7 Oct. 1696, daughter of Rev. Joseph and Sarah (Lord) of Hartford;* and thirdly, 26 July 1698, Mary Hooker, who died 1 Nov. 1740, daughter of Rev. Samuel and Mary (Willet) of Farmington.

He served as pastor of the First Congregational Society of New Haven from 1685 until his death, and was one of the founders of Yale College.

"The Descendants of Rev. Thomas Hooker," by Edward Hooker (Rochester, N. Y., 1909), and "Pierrepont Genealogies," by R. Burnham Moffat (privately printed, 1913), contain accounts of the family of Rev. James[2] Pierpont, and adequately set forth his descendants through James,[3] his eldest, and Hezekiah,[3] his youngest, surviving son. These publications, however, give little more than the children and, incompletely, the grandchildren of Joseph,[3] third son of Rev. James Pierpont. A slightly more extensive account, though incomplete and partially inaccurate, of the line of this Joseph may be found in "The Descendants of William and Elizabeth Tuttle," by George F. Tuttle (Rutland, Vt., 1883), pages 697 and 29.* It is the aim of the present article to supply an account of this almost unknown branch of a distinguished family, by setting forth four generations of the descendants of Joseph,[3] son of Rev. James[2] Pierpont.

1. JOSEPH[3] PIERPONT (James,[2] John[1]), of North Haven (then a village in the town of New Haven), born at New Haven 21 Oct. 1704, died 24 Nov. 1748, aged 45 (gravestone at North Haven). He married, about 1725, HANNAH RUSSELL, born at Middletown 23 Feb. 1705/6, died at North Haven 5 June 1791, daughter of Rev. Noadiah and Mary (Hamlin). She married secondly, 5 Aug. 1752, Samuel Sackett.

Joseph Pierpont was commissioned a lieutenant of the Fifth Company in New Haven in May 1744.

Children:

i. JAMES, b. in 1726; d. in 1727.
2. ii. SAMUEL, b. 16 Apr. 1729.
3. iii. JOSEPH, b. 13 Sept. 1730.
4. iv. JAMES, b. 2 Oct. 1732.
v. DOROTHY,* d. in infancy.
5. vi. BENJAMIN, b. 7 Jan. 1734/5.
vii. HANNAH, b. 12 Nov. 1736; d. 16 Apr. 1816; m. 24 July 1755 ABEL BROCKETT, b. 11 Aug. 1725, d. 4 Aug. 1815.
viii. MARY, b. 20 Oct. 1738; d. 21 June 1773; m. 31 Mar. 1756 RICHARD BROCKETT, b. 11 Sept. 1727, d. 22 Feb. 1813.
6. ix. GILES, b. 4 June 1741.
x. ABIGAIL, b. 6 June 1743; d. 13 Feb. 1815; m. 23 Dec. 1762 NOAH IVES, b. 4 Dec. 1730, d. 15 Oct. 1800.
7. xi. HEZEKIAH, b. 27 Sept. 1745.
xii. SARAH, b. 31 July 1747; d. 21 Jan. 1801; m. CAPT. PETER EASTMAN, b. at Ashford 25 July 1746, d. at North Haven 12 June 1829.

2. SAMUEL[4] PIERPONT (Joseph[3], James[2], John[1]), of North Haven, born 16 Apr. 1729, died 22 Dec. 1820, aged 92 (gravestone at North Haven). He married, 5 Nov. 1751, ELIZABETH FROST, born 3 Mar. 1727/8, died 20 Sept. 1804, daughter of Ebenezer and Mary (Tuttle).

He was a senior warden of St. John's Church (Protestant Episcopal), North Haven.

*The first and fifth children are so given, perhaps from family records, in the Hooker Genealogy (p. 43). Their names do not appear in the public records.

Children:*

i. Elizabeth,[5] b. 3 July 1752; d. 18 Dec. 1811; m. Jonah Blakeslee, b. 8 Sept. 1750.
ii. Hannah, b. 16 June 1754; m. ——— Collins.
iii. Samuel, b. 16 May 1756; m. 12 Jan. 1777 Sarah Wolcott, dau. of Ebenezer and Rhoda (Todd). He was a Loyalist, and his estate was confiscated in 1781.
iv. Theodosia,† b. 22 Feb. 1758; d. at New Haven 15 July 1806; m. 17 Nov. 1777 William Walter, b. 6 Mar. 1752, d. 19 Apr. 1824.

He studied law at Columbus, Ohio, and at the Yale Law School, was a tutor at Yale College for the academic year 1840–41, began the practice of law at Columbus, and in 1845 moved to New York, where he became prominent in his profession. From 1857 to 1860 he was a judge of the old Superior Court in New York City, in 1867 he was chosen a member of the New York constitutional convention, and in 1869 was appointed by President Grant U.S. attorney for the southern district of New York. This position he resigned in 1870, and served as a member of the Committee of Seventy, which accomplished the overthrow of the Tweed Ring. In 1873 he declined an appointment as minister to Russia. In April 1875 he was appointed attorney general by President Grant, and in the following year he was made minister plenipotentiary to the Court of St. James, a post which he occupied for two years. He then returned to the practice of law in New York City. Chil-

*Hannah (Clinton) Pierpont, in her will dated 10 Sept. 1857, named her granddaughter Mary Elizabeth and her daughter Lewey, wife of John Todd. Joel Pierpont's sister, Lucinda Pierpont (6, i) named in her will her nephew Lewis Pierpont and "my brother Joel Pierpont's daughters." Joel's father, Giles Pierpont (6), after providing in his will for his three surviving children (Lucinda, Esther, and Giles), bequeathed land "to be equally divided between Lewy Todd, Lucy Pierpont & the heirs of Lewis Pierpont . . . said Lewis to have the use & improvement of the middle share during his natural life."

†His son Lewis married 7 Oct. 1838 Rosetta E. Jacobs. Another child was undoubtedly Mary Elizabeth (named in her grandmother's will), who was living unmarried in North Haven in 1845, when she conveyed property to Lewis Pierpont.

‡In 1833, aged 19, she chose a guardian.

§A more detailed account of his career will be found in "Pierrepont Genealogies," p. 75, and "The Munson Record," by Myron A. Munson (New Haven, 1895), pp. 389 et seq. Mr. Munson, usually impeccable, states that Eunice Munson was second wife of Giles Pierpont, whereas she was his first wife. He gives correctly the birth of Giles in 1783, but in the next sentence but one says that in 1786 Giles was the wealthiest man in North Haven. On the next page he writes of Edwards Pierrepont that while he "once contributed $10,000 to the Republican campaign-fund, his father's grave is unmarked by a stone." But the gravestone of Giles, Jr., is still standing in the modern graveyard, and that of Giles, Sr., in the old graveyard, at North Haven.

Stephen Pierson, of Derby, Conn.—There has been for some time a tendency to regard this Stephen Pierson, who appeared at Derby as early as 1679, as one of the sons of the Rev. Abraham Pierson of Newark and Branford. There is, however, no support for such a supposition, except that a Stephen Pierson of Derby, whose name came within the memory of an aged member of the family now dead, was a son of an Abraham Pierson, and that all the Parsons of Derby, as they were afterwards called, were descended from Stephen Pierson. Common belief has united these two traditions in referring them to the same person and making him the first settler. Family pride has then been flattered by calling him son of Rev. Abraham Pierson, and therefore brother of Rector Pierson. Now, as there were more than one or even two Stephen Piersons of Derby, and at least two of these were sons of Abraham Piersons, one would be led, after the manner of traditions in general, to refer this traditional Stephen to a later generation, and we shall find it easy to identify him with Stephen Pierson, son of Abraham Pierson and grandson of Stephen, Sen., as one more likely to come within the limits of remembrance of the present or immediate past. The tradition that all Piersons of Derby were descended from Stephen is probably true if applied to Stephen, Sen. But it is strange that such a definite idea of descent should be retained for so many generations where, in fact, more than usual confusion instead of distinctness is revealed in attempting to trace out the several branches, and in particular the last family of Parsons that remained in Derby are with some difficulty and not with entire satisfaction thus traced to the common ancestor. I am of the opinion that in both instances the person referred to was Stephen Pierson, 3d, who was, in fact, son of an Abraham Pierson, and that the second part of the tradition is true in its own proper significance only of the particular branch to which the narrator, his niece, belonged.

The inference drawn by Savage from the occurrence of the name Abraham in Derby loses the little weight it has, when, on investigation, we find that it could just as well be credited to the Tomlinson family, into which Stephen, Sen., married, and from which source other Pierson names were borrowed. And, if we consult family records in general, we find that the mother's family often furnishes names for future generations to repeat. The desirableness of tracing the name Abraham to the Rev. Abraham Pierson is in itself an argument against the reasonableness of it, and even a succeeding generation would forget the true source in their desire to claim kinship with a prominent character. So true is this and so strong the impulse, that successive Abrahams might have been christened and lived in the belief that they were named after Rector Pierson as an ancestor. Then, too, the prominence of this person without any relationship might have given the name to one of the Derby Piersons in its first occurrence.

No mention of Stephen Pierson previous to the record at Derby seems to have been found or at least fully noticed, but such mention is to be found both in the Colonial and Probate Records of New Haven. A Stephen Pierson and Robert Deny were servants of Thomas Mulliner of Branford, and appear as witnesses in a case of witchcraft, June 30, 1657. This Stephen Pierson also appears in a complaint against his master for not fulfilling an agreement to teach him the carpenter's trade. The date is Oct. 1658. He had been bound out in England by his mother for seven years under this condition, and had already served "four or more years." This Stephen then could not be a son of Rev. Abraham Pierson, and, it is to be presumed, his mother was a widow. Here is a Stephen Pierson prior to the one at Derby, and as there is no difficulty about the dates, but rather agreement, why should we not be inclined toward regarding them as one and the same person? Can any one furnish any further data?

ELTWEED POMEROY OF DORCHESTER, MASS., AND WINDSOR, CONN., AND FOUR GENERATIONS OF HIS DESCENDANTS.

Compiled by WILLIAM WOODBRIDGE RODMAN,* A.M., M.D., of New Haven, Conn., and communicated by Mrs. HENRY THORP BULKLEY, of Southport, Conn.

1. ELTWEED[1] POMEROY is believed to have come to America in 1630, in the ship "Mary and John." He took the oath of freeman, in the Colony of Massachusetts, March 4, 1632. (Mass. Colony Records, Vol. I., p. 367.) He was one of the first settlers and proprietors in the town of Dorchester, and first selectman in 1633. (Hist. of Dorchester, 1859, pp. 33, 35.)

No knowledge of his English home and ancestry has been obtained, though much effort has been made to verify various traditions. Researches are now in progress, and it is hoped they will not be entirely fruitless.

The spelling of the surname has varied from that of his own signature of Pumery to the present Pomeroy. The Christian name is variously spelled, Elty, Eltwed, Eltwud, Eltwood, and Eltweed; and there are suggestions that the crabbed MS. may mean Eldad, or even Edward. But as ELTWEED POMEROY the sturdy armorer and gunsmith is now known to a large circle of descendants, and this spelling will be followed.

In 1636–7, Mr. Pomeroy emigrated with Mr. John Warham's congregation to Windsor, Conn. (Hist. of Dorchester, p. 75.) References to him may be found in Stiles's "Ancient Windsor," Vol. I., p. 164 et seq. His place in the meeting house was on the "long seats"; land was granted him in 1638; he had a house and lot in the Palisado, which he sold to Thomas Nowell in 1641; and he made gifts of houses and land to his son Caleb, and his youngest son Joseph.

Of his first wife, the mother of his eight children, we know only that she was named Mary, and died in Windsor, July 5, 1655. On Nov. 30, 1661, he married second, Lydia (Brown), widow of Thomas Parsons. In 1665 he made generous provision for his "dear and loving wife Lydia."

In 1671 he removed to Northampton, Mass., to live with his son Medad. Tradition says that he became blind. He died at his son's house in March, 1673, being probably about seventy-eight years old.

Children by first wife:

i. ELDED,[2] freeman in Conn., in 1638; d. in Northampton, May 22, 1662. He was betrothed to Susanna, only child of Henry[1] Cunliffe, and left her part of his property.

ii. MARY, d. at Windsor, Dec. 19, 1640.

iii. JOHN, d. at Windsor, 1647.

2. iv. MEDAD, bapt. at Windsor, Aug. 19, 1638; m. (1) Experience Woodward; m. (2) Mrs. Abigail (Strong) Chauncey; m. (3) Mrs. Hannah (Warriner) Noble; d. at Northampton, Dec. 30, 1716.

3. v. CALEB, bapt. at Windsor, Mar. 6, 1641; m. Hephzibah Baker; d. Nov. 18, 1691.

* Dr. Rodman was chairman of the Pomeroy Family Association, founded in 1891, its object being "to study, and to develop by organized effort the history and genealogy of the Pomeroys in America; including their British ancestry and connections; and all that may be pertinent and tributary thereto." He collected a great amount of material which, after his death, March 29, 1909, came into the hands of the contributor, who was assistant secretary of the association, and who has prepared this partial and preliminary record in the hope that family attention may be aroused, and that errors and omissions may be communicated to her.

vi. Mary, bapt. at Windsor, Apr. 21, 1644; died 1657.

4. vii. Joshua, bapt. Nov. 22, 1646; m. (1) Elizabeth Lyman; m. (2) Abigail Cooke; d. 1683.

2. Medad[2] Pomeroy (Eltweed[1]), born at Windsor, Aug. 19, 1638, removed in 1659 to Northampton, Mass., where he was welcomed by the authorities on account of his skill, and granted a chest of tools and some land. He followed the trade of blacksmith, like his father. He was deacon of the church at Northampton; town clerk from 1692 to 1712; town treasurer from 1693 to 1710; selectman many years; several years deputy to the General Court; Associate Justice of the County of Hampshire; one of the Committee for re-settling Deerfield in 1680; Clerk of the Proprietors of Deerfield and Northampton; and commissioner to the United Colonies. He was engaged in the fight at Turners' Falls, May 19, 1676. (Trumbull's History of Northfield, p. 574.) He married first, Nov. 21, 1661, Experience, daughter of Henry Woodward of Dorchester and Northampton, who died June 8, 1686; married second, Sept. 8, 1686, Abigail, daughter of Elder John Strong, and widow of Rev. Nathaniel Chauncey of Hatfield, who died April 15, 1704; and married third, Jan. 24, 1705, Hannah, born Aug. 17, 1643, daughter of William and Joanna Warriner of Springfield, and widow of Thomas Noble of Westfield. (Temple's Hist. of Northfield, p. 517.) Medad Pomeroy died Dec. 30, 1716.

4. Joshua[2] Pomeroy (Eltweed[1]), baptized Nov. 22, 1646, married first, Aug. 20, 1672, Elizabeth, daughter of Richard Lyman, who died March 22, 1676; and he married second, Jan. 9, 1677, Abigail, born in 1660, daughter of Nathaniel Cooke of Windsor, Conn. He settled in Deerfield, Mass. March 30, 1682, there was made to him a grant of "seven cow commons," and a four acre house lot in Green River. He built thereon, in 1686, the first house in Greenfield. He was on the first board of selectmen, and prominent in the affairs of the settlement. He died in Deerfield, Oct. 16, 1689. His widow, Abigail, married second, about 1691, David Hoyt of Deerfield. Both were captured by Indians, Feb. 29, 1704. Hoyt died of starvation. His wife was redeemed, and married third, Nathaniel Rice of Wallingford, Conn.

Children by first wife:

14. GENERAL SETH[4] POMEROY (Ebenezer,[3] Medad,[2] Eltweed[1]), born in Northampton, May 20, 1706, married, Dec. 14, 1732, Mary, born Nov. 14, 1705, died Sept. 11, 1777, daughter of Jonathan and Mary (Williams) Hunt.

His boybood and youth were largely spent in learning the trade of his fathers, and he became so excellent a gunsmith that the Indians of the Five Nations and the Canadas sent annual deputations to Northampton to exchange furs for his guns. He, himself, was unexcelled as a shot. He continued the manufacture of guns for many years, employing many workmen. After his marriage, in 1732, he was frequently engaged in the public service. In 1745 he joined the expedition against Louisbourg, with a major's commission. During the next ten years he held many offices of trust and importance in his country's service. In 1755 he joined the expedition against Crown Point, under Sir William Johnson, first as lieutenant-colonel, and, after the death of Col. Ephraim Williams at Lake George, on Sept. 8th, as colonel of the Massachusetts troops. He was prominent in the congresses of the province, and was present at Cambridge all the spring of 1775, organizing the hosts that gathered around Boston. He was present at the battle of Bunker Hill, where, like Warren, he was offered the command, and declined it; but fought all day, doubtless with one of his own muskets.

Two years afterward, Gen. Pomeroy raised and led a regiment to join Washington's army on the Hudson. In this service he died, at Peekskill, Feb. 19, 1777, only a month after leaving his home. A monument to his memory has been erected at Peekskill by the Sons of the Revolution. His wife died less than seven months later. (See an article in the Whig Review, 1848, by Hon. N. S. Dodge; and one in the Springfield Republican, Nov., 1875.)

PORTER FAMILY.

The Rev. Dr. Ebenezer Porter, late of Andover, was descended from another branch of the Porter family in Farmington, noted for the great number of deacons embraced in it; the last of whom, the venerable Elijah Porter, deceased in 1845. The only other clergyman was the late Isaac Porter of Granby, Ct.

Thomas Porter settled in Hartford, and removed early to Farmington. I think he was a deacon; he died in 1697. His wife was Sarah, daughter of Deac. Stephen Hart, married in 1644. His two sons, Thomas and Samuel, were both deacons. Thomas was born in 1648, and died 1711, leaving but one son, Deac. Timothy, born Nov. 2, 1672, and died Jan. 6, 1743. Timothy married Susanna, daughter of Deac. Thomas Bull, April 22, 1697; she died 1743. Both of Deac. Samuel Porter's sons were deacons—Samuel in Farmington, and Joseph in Kensington.

Among the sons of Timothy, were Timothy, born Sept. 14, 1702; graduated at Yale College; was deacon of the church in Farmington, and died childless, July 16, 1780; and Ebenezer, baptized June 13, 1708, who married Anna Porter, Dec. 12, 1728, and died April 16, 1750, aged 47. Thomas, the son of Ebenezer, father of Rev. Dr. Ebenezer, was born Feb. 15, 1733–4, was one of the settlers of Cornwall, Conn., and the leading man, both in church and state, in that town. He afterwards removed to Tinmouth, Vt., where, I suppose, he died, at upwards of 90 years of age.

New Haven, Jan. 21, 1852. W. S. P.

Post Family Bibles. Contributed by Mrs. Nettie Leitch Major, Bethesda, Maryland.

The following genealogical data is based upon Family Bibles that have descended from Roswell[6] Post, Jr., to his son Truman[7] Post, to Charles Rollin[8] Post to his son Charles William[9] Post, to Marjorie Merriweather[10] Post. They are the property of the Merriweather Post Hillwood Museum, Washington, D. C. Charles William Post was the inventor and manufacturer of Post Toasties of Battle Creek, Michigan, now General Foods Corporation. Some information from these Bibles have appeared in a genealogical supplement to C. W. Post, The Hour & The Man (1963), by Nettie Leitch Major. See the Post genealogical supplement for data and proof on the generations prior to Roswell[6] Post.

THE NEW HAVEN (CONN.) POTTERS, 1639.

By JAMES SHEPARD, of New Britain, Conn.

1. HANNAH [Potter] BEECHER was the mother of the New Haven Potters, who appeared early in New Haven as a widow with sons: i. John, ii. William and iii. Isaac Beecher, the ancestor of Rev. Henry Ward Beecher. Her first husband, Potter, died in England, where she married a Mr. Beecher.

It is generally supposed that her husband was John Beecher, one of the seven whom Eaton sent to New Haven in advance of the colony and who died before the colony arrived. She has been considered to be the mother of Isaac Beecher, for she calls him her son in her will and gave him one-third of her property; but recent investigations, it is claimed, show conclusively that Isaac was only a step-son, the son of her second husband by a former wife.

There was in New Haven, says G. F. Tuttle, as early as 1641, a widow Hannah Potter, known as widow Potter the midwife. In 1643 she had two persons in the family, thirty pounds estate and twenty and one quarter acres of land. She is called "sister Potter the midwife," in seating the meeting house in 1646. She is supposed to have been akin to the other Potters, but there is no record to show it. She has often been confounded with the widow Hannah Beecher, but the records clearly show that they were two different persons.

The will of Hannah Beecher was proved April 5, 1659, and is recorded in first part, vol. i., p. 80, of New Haven Probate Records, as follows:

"I Hannah Beecher of New Haven, expecting my great change do make this my last will and testament, I bequeath my soul unto the hands of my Lord Jesus Christ by whose meritt I hope to be saved and my body to be burried at the discretion of my Son William Potter my Executor. And for my worldly goods I give unto John Potter my Grand child twenty shillings and to Hannah Blackly, my Grand child, wife to Samuel Blackly, twenty shillings, And to Samuel Potter my Grand child twenty shillings to be paid to them within three months after my decease. And for the rest of my estate I give one third part to my son Isaac Beecher and two thirds to my eldest son William Potter, making him my Executor, desiring him to be as a father to his younger brother and his children. And in dividing my goods my will is that my son William should have my feather bed with that belongeth to it, unto his part and that the rest be divided at the discretion of my Overseers with the assistance of Sister Wakeman and sister Rutherford and I desire my loving freinds Mr. Mathew Gilbert and John Wakeman to be overseers of this my last will whereunto I have set my hand this 13th day of June, Anno 1657.

Witnesses. the mark of Mathew Gilbert, HANNAH BECHER.
John Wakeman,
Sarah Rutherford."

Her children were: John Potter, died 1643. William Potter, born about 1608; died 1662.

2. JOHN[2] POTTER (Hannah[1] Beecher,) was a freeman in New Haven in 1639, not admitted when the planters' covenant was first signed but expressed his consent to it and soon after subscribed to the agreement made in general town meeting, 1639, "thatt church members onely shall be free burgesses and they onely shall chuse among themselves magistrates and officers."

In 1643 he had four persons in the family, estate valued at twenty-five pounds, and had twenty-eight and three-quarter's acres of land. Tuttle says that he died in 1643. The name of John Potter's widow was Elizabeth. In June, 1646, one Mrs. Brewster was before the court for slandering many persons one of whom was William Preston. She also slandered widow Potter (of John), and Edward Parker. For some reason, not stated, the elders, &c., did not approve of Edward Parker and requested Mrs. Potter not to receive his attentions. The result was that Mrs. Potter was excommunicated and Mrs. Brewster said that "Mrs. Potter would not join the church because she would not give up Edward Parker." She married Edward Parker about this time, for in July, 1646, "Edward Parker and his wife presented their desires to the Court to invest John Potter's two sons in the right of their father's land and house and declared themselves willing to bestow a heifer of a year old on Hannah and deliver it presently for her use and so to be improved as stock for her * * * per a particular writing in the hand of the secrettarie, made and signed by both of them before the governor, deputy governor and magistrates."

In the same year "It was ordered with the consent of Edward Parker and his wife, that Jn°. Potter should be put an apprentice for 8 years from the first of Aug. last unto Roger Allen for to learne his trade."

In November, 1649, Edward Parker appeared in Court and "desired that he might be freed from his engagement concerning the house and lott which was John Potter's and is securitie for the children's portions, for he is willing to leave it to the court to dispose of otherwise."

In 1650 William Potter was called before the court to account for a heifer he had of his kinswoman Hannah Potter. He said he would give twenty shillings a year for her until his kinswoman was of age to receive her.

After Edward Parker's death in 1662, his widow, Elizabeth, married Robert Rose of Branford, who died in 1665. Rose and his first wife were ancestors of the writer, and by this marriage he can say that he descended from both wives of Robert Rose.

Widow Rose was probably a business woman, for her son John Potter, in his will, 1706, gives to his son Samuel "ye still that was my mother's." He also gives to the same son the bedstead and little chair "that was his grandmother's," (widow Hannah Beecher's). Widow Elizabeth Rose made her will July 23, 1677, and died before signing it. The children agreed to abide by the will and later the court admitted the will to probate. Nothing is known against widow Elizabeth Rose, alias Parker, alias Potter, except her romantic attachment for Edward Parker, and nothing is known against Parker except that the elders for some unknown reason did not approve of him. The fact that her heirs agreed to stand by a void will is conclusive proof that she was a woman of merit and had the respect of her children, who were willing, even in property affairs, to abide by her wishes. She died July 28, 1677. Her will, recorded in vol. i., part first, p. 176, New Haven Probate Records, is as follows:

"The last will of Elizabeth Rose widdow N. Haven deceased.

Know all whom it may concern that I Elizabeth Rose of New Haven widdow being weak in body yet of competent sound understanding and memory doe make and ordain this my last will and testament in manner and form following; committing my soule into ye hands of Jesus Christ my redemer and my body to a descent buriall according to ye discretion of my executors hereafter to be named; I dispose of my outward estate as followeth. Imps. I doe give and bequeath unto my two sons John Potter and Samll. Potter twenty shillings a piece. Item. To my son John Parker my house he lives in with all my land and meadow and all the rights & priveledges thereunto belonging. Item. to my daughter Brooks twenty shillings. Item. to my daughter Hall my small bible, and to my daughter cooke my best sute of apparrell. Item. to all my grandchildren twelve pence a piece. Item. After all my debts & legacyes be paid and other necessary expenses discharged my will is that ye remainder of my estate be equally divided between my three daughters Mary, Hope, & Lydia. And I doe desire and appoint my two sons John Potter and John Parker joint Executors of this my last will and testament and I doe allow them to have out of my estate ten shillings a piece for their care and paynes therein. And I doe hereby revoke all former wills and declare and publish this to bee my last will and testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto sett my hand and seal this three and twentyeth day of July one thousand six hundred and seventy seven, 1677, signed and sealed in ye presence of ——— but dyed before signing and sealing."

The inventory of her estate amounted to £49. 11s. 09d.

The children of John and Elizabeth Potter, were:

i. John, b. about 1636. His will, dated 1706, calls him about seventy, m. 1st, Hannah Cooper, who d. June 15, 1675; m. 2d, Mary Russell, Dec. 29, 1679. He d. Dec. 24, 1706.

ii. Hannah, m. 1st, Samuel Blakesley, Dec. 3, 1650; she m. 2d, Henry Brooks, Dec. 21, 1676. Widow Hannah Brooks d. Nov. 7, 1723. Brunson in his history of Waterbury says, that Samuel Blakesley's wife Hannah was dau. of William Potter, but the will of Elizabeth Rose (who was formerly John Potter's wife), made July 23, 1677, about six months after widow Hannah Blakesley m. Henry Brooks, names her "daughter Brooks," which conclusively proves that she was the dau. of John and Elizabeth Potter.

iii. Samuel, m. Annah, dau. of William Russell, Nov. 21, 1670.

Elizabeth Potter's Parker children were:

iv. Mary Parker, bapt. Aug. 27, 1648; m. John Hall of Wallingford, Conn., Dec. 6, 1666.

v. John Parker, bapt. Oct. 8, 1648; m. Hannah Bassett, Nov. 8, 1670.

vi. Hope Parker, b. April 26, bapt. May 26, 1650; m. Samuel Cook of Wallingford, Conn., May 2, 1667.

vii. Lydia Parker, b. April 14, 1652; m. John Thomas, Jan. 12, 1671.

3. William[2] Potter (Hannah[1] Beecher), Savage says of Watertown, Mass., probably came in the Abigal from London, in 1635, aged 27, with wife Frances, aged 26, and child Joseph, aged twenty weeks. He removed to New Haven and with his brother John signed the agreement in general town meeting, 1639. "In 1643 brother Potter was fined one shilling for coming late last trayning day," and again was fined for defective arms. He took the oath of allegiance with others in 1644.

In 1645 Brother Potter (William) made an offer, "to carry every man's grist from their howes to the mill & bring it back againe to their howes for 2d pr. bushell."

His name appears in the seating of the meeting house in 1646, and in 1647 he was one of the Fence viewers for the farms this side of East River.

In Oct. 5, 1647, it is recorded, that Mr. Evance hath sold to Wm. Potter 27 and a half acres of meadow as it cometh to him in the towne books, and lyeth in the east meadows between Mr. Crayne and Bro. Punderson and 32 acres of upland. He was one of the appraisers on the estate of Richard Mansfield in 1656. His home lott was on the west side of the Quinipiac River, near the present Cedar Hill railroad station.

His will was made May 19, 1662, and is as follows:

"William Potter disposes of his estate of outward things as followeth. After all Debts discharged my will is that my wife should have her living out of the farms till my Sonne Nathanll, come to ye age of 21 years, then ye sd. Nathaniell is to possess ye sd. farms and all yt is upon it, if my wife continue a widdow my will is yt my Sonne Nathanll allow her a comfortable Living out of the same and if shee see cause to Dwell elsewhere my will is yt my sonne Nathaniell allow her 12th a yeare.

it; my will is yt my sonne Joseph should have 30th. payd him within yt term of six years after ye date hereof.

it; my will is yt my daughter Hope and my daughter Rebeckah shall have 20th. apiece payd ym when their mother sees good to pay it them. My will is that those Legasyes be payd out of the farms before it come into my sonnes Nathanll's hands.

19. 3. 62.

Witnesses. William Peck. Richard Miles."

Inventory filed Aug. 1. 1662. Amt. £190. 04. 00.

Children:

i. Joseph, b. in England, in 1635; m. Phebe ———.

ii. Mary, bapt. in New Haven, Aug. 22, 1641; m. about 1657, Joseph Mansfield.

iii. Sarah, bapt. Aug. 22, 1641, but was not a twin with Mary. She m. 1st, Lieut. Robert Foote of Branford, Conn.; 2d, Aaron Blakesley.

iv. Hope, bapt. Oct. 3, 1641; m. Feb. 3, 1663, Daniel Robinson. Removed to New Jersey.

v. Rebecca, bapt. 1643; m. Nov. 27, 1667, Thomas Adams. Removed to Crosswicks, N. J.

vi. Nathaniel, bapt. Dec. 12, 1644; m. April 1, 1675, Elizabeth Howes.

Of these children, Mary and Sarah are not named in their father's will, but Sarah was living Aug. 23, 1706, when "Sarah Blakesley, alias Foote, alias Potter, daughter of William Potter," acknowledges on p. 130, vol. v., New Haven Land Records, the receipt of her full share in her father's estate.

The following is the Potter record from vol. i., in the Registrar's Office, New Haven, Conn.:

THE PRUDDEN–BURR CONNECTION

By George Clarke Bryant, B.A., LL.B., of Ansonia, Conn.*

Letters written by Rev. John[2] Prudden of Newark, N. J., son of Rev. Peter[1] Prudden of Milford, Conn., together with collateral evidence, prove conclusively that the second wife of Jehu Burr, Jr., of Fairfield, Conn., and the mother of Hon. Peter Burr was Elizabeth, daughter of Rev. Peter Prudden.

This conclusion conflicts with everything that has appeared in print in regard to the second wife of Jehu Burr, Jr. In "A General History of the Burr Family in America," by Charles Burr Todd, it is stated that he married first Mary Ward, daughter of Andrew Ward, and secondly Esther, widow of Joseph Boosey. Mrs. Schenck, in the "History of Fairfield" (vol. 1, p. 360), gives an abstract of the will of Jehu Burr, Jr., and states that "he mentions wife Esther, for whom he amply provides." Misled by this apparently authoritative statement, The New York Genealogical and Biographical Record, in its Department of Registration of Pedigrees (vol. 54, p. 182), assigns the Widow Esther Boosey as second wife of Jehu Burr, Jr., and mother of Peter Burr.

Several instances have been noted in the genealogies compiled by Mrs. Schenck in which, while ostensibly quoting from records, she has introduced matter which she believed to be true but which is not to be found in the records themselves. This she did in quoting the will of Jehu Burr, Jr., for, although it is true that he provided for his wife, he did not call her Esther or by any other name. No record has been found which does state her name, and this needs to be emphasized, in order to make it clear that, despite the numerous statements which have appeared in print, there need be no a priori presumption against identifying her with Elizabeth Prudden.

Joseph Boosey, son of James and Alice Boosey of Wethersfield, Conn., settled in Westchester, N. Y., where he died in 1655, in early manhood, leaving his entire estate to his wife Esther. Her identity has not been established. In 1684 a legal controversy* arose with regard to the ownership of land in Wethersfield, Conn., originally owned by the Boosey family; and the testimony shows that Joseph's widow, Esther, had married Jehu Burr, who had given a conveyance of the land to Enoch Buck and Michael Griswold.

It does not fall within the purpose of the present paper to discuss the earlier marriages of Jehu Burr, Jr., except to point out that the Widow Esther Boosey was not his last wife or the mother of his younger children. A conveyance from John Brundish of Rye, N. Y., bearing date 24 May 1667 and recorded at Fairfield, Conn., was witnessed by Jehu Burr and Elizabeth Burr, the latter making her mark.† No other Burr in Fairfield had at that date a wife named Elizabeth, nor is any Elizabeth Burr known, unless the signer was the wife of Jehu. The date was about nine or ten months before the birth of Jehu's son Peter; and it will be proved in the succeeding paragraphs that this Elizabeth was the wife of Jehu, the mother of Peter Burr, and a daughter of Rev. Peter Prudden.

The Prudden letters which are quoted below remained in the possession of the family for a considerable period, but eventually they came into the possession of a Baldwin family. Their history has been ascertained, and they are indubitably authentic. The contributor is indebted to Mrs. Andrew D. Baldwin of New Haven, Conn., the present owner, for permission to have photostatic copies made. Before presenting these letters, it will aid the reader in understanding them if the relationships of the early Pruddens are briefly stated.

Rev. Peter[1] Prudden, the first pastor of the church at Milford, Conn., died there in July 1656. His wife Joanna was the daughter of Rev. John and Joanna Boyse of Halifax, co. York, England, and under the will (1619) of her father received an annuity from the rental of certain lands in England.‡ She was admitted to the Milford church 2 Dec. 1639, and readmitted from the church at Rehoboth on 5 Oct. 1674 as Mrs. Joanna Willett Prudden. She had married secondly, 19 Sept. 1671,§ "Capt. Willet of Plymouth." This was the noted Thomas Willett, first mayor of New York City, who died 4 Aug 1674, in his 64th year (gravestone, at East Providence, R. I.). For a third husband she married Rev. John Bishop of Stamford, Conn. Her son, John Prudden, in a deed of 16 May 1686,|| being then of Jamaica, Long Island, sold land which had been given to him by the will of his "late mother M^{r} Joanna Bishop sometime Willet firstly y^{e} wife of Mr. Peter Prudden my honoured father," and which had been laid out by his brothers (i. e., brothers-in-law), Silvanus Baldwin and Gideon Allen.

The inventory of the estate of "M^rs Joanna Bishop formerly Prudden of Milford" was taken 22 Mar. 1682/3. It showed property in Milford and "Stanford" and mentioned land in England.* Her will is printed in full in the Prudden genealogy,† and an abstract here will suffice. She called herself Mrs. Joanna Bishop, sometime Prudden, late of Milford, now of Stamford, and disposed of her American estate to her eldest son Samuel, her second son John, her five daughters, and the two children of her late daughter Mary Walker; and "concerning the revenue that I shall dye possessed of in Yorkshire in housing and lands in old England comonly called by the name of Edgton Kerbye Moreside & Southfields . . . my share and proportion of which revenue and annuity is ten pounds by the yeare . . . my two sons Samuell and John Prudden shall each of them have forty shillings apiece, and to my five daughtes viz. Joanna, Mary's two children, Elizabeth, Abigail, Sarah and Mildred," twenty shillings each. She gave her silver tankard to her husband, Mr. John Bishop.

The children of Rev. Peter[1] and Joanna (Boyse) Prudden were:

i. Joanna,[2] bapt. 30 Aug. 1640; m. Thomas Chittenden of Guilford, Conn.‡
ii. Mary, bapt. 4 Dec. 1641; m. Rev. Zechariah Walker of Stratford and Woodbury, Conn.
iii. Elizabeth, bapt. 11 Mar. 1642/3; m. Jehu Burr, Jr., of Fairfield, Conn.
iv. Samuel, bapt. 18 Feb. 1643/4; d. in 1685; m. 30 Dec. 1669 Grace Judson of Stratford, Conn., who m. (2) Thomas Clark of Milford, Conn.
v. Rev. John, A. B. (Harvard, 1668), bapt. in Nov. 1645; d. at Newark, N. J., 11 Dec. 1725.
vi. Abigail, bapt. 13 Feb. 1647/8; m. (1) 14 Nov. 1667 Joseph Walker of Stratford, Conn.; m. (2) Sergt. Richard Hubbell of Stratfield, Conn.
vii. Sarah, b. 9 May 1650 and bapt. 12 May 1650; m. Gideon Allen of Milford.
viii. Peter, bapt. 30 May 1652; d. 10 June 1652.
ix. Mildred, bapt. 14 May 1653; d. 6 Jan. 1711/12; m. 20 Sept. 1671 Lieut. Sylvanus Baldwin of Milford, Conn.

The Prudden genealogy, already mentioned, contains a few inaccuracies of date, and in regard to the daughter Elizabeth states merely "Married, name unknown."

The earlier of the two Prudden letters was written by Rev. John Prudden of Newark, N. J., to Mrs. Grace (Judson) (Prudden) Clark, widow of his brother Samuel. It bears the superscription: "These for M^r. Grace Clarke Liveing at Milforde In the Collony of Connecticot," and it is dated "from Newyorke July 25:1707."

‡The "Chittenden Family" gives the wife of Thomas Chittenden as Joanna Jordan, but no evidence that she was a Jordan has been found. John Jordan in 1684 sued Mrs. Joanna Chittenden, as administratrix of her husband's estate, but records of the suit fail to specify any relationship. It is believed that the Jordan statement was originally a mere guess, which repetition has petrified into dogma.

Respective sallutations to your self & all our Relations with you premised
These may inform you y[t] I Recievd yours Dated June 12: 1707, wherin you seem to hint as if I concieved my Cousen Samuel to be only concerned and so I doe: as to the doubl share which belonged to his ffather neither can my mother[s] will be otherwise construed or fulfilled. and I could have been glad if my Cousen Sam[l] had come himself or had sent the money when you sent the Letter though I could not then tell exactly what the charges were or would be before they could be sent from Newyorke. for want thereof I was necessitated to datract from his share of the goods his part of the charges according to the proportion of york money. you are pleased to Remember me of a small matter I had more than my share in the Last goods: I have forgotten what it was exactly, but I believe it was not much. And you may also Remember that I charged nothing for money paid several times to the posthous nor for my time troubl & expence at Yorke In and about the joint-concern of him and myself which I doubt not but might rationally Ballance that matter. I informed you already of the quantity and quality of the goods which came last: viz: 44[£] one Tenth part of which is 4[£]–8[s] which is the whole share of each sister: And I have accordingly sent for my sister Joanna Chittenden (if she be Living 4[£]–8[s]–0: with abatement of four shillings for charges accruing since their transportation from England for entry, Custom portrage storage recovery[?] from further Damage, one tenth part of which charges accruing after transportation from England each party is as much obliged to bare as I my self am. I have sent in like manner for Abigail, Sarah & Mildred (and Sister Mary[s] two children when they or their order shal make demand each one allowing their due proportion of abatement which is four shillings Starling: and my Cousen Samuels share is seven pound and eight shillings which with abatement for his proportion of charges which belong to him will be eight pound & sixteen shillings, I have Left the goods this day with justus Bush according to your desir[e] and you may expect them next trip he makes to milford: if I had known him sooner or had known his intimacy & corrospondency with you it would have been advantageous both for you and me and have saved some expence which was unavoidable.
I have not sent any share to Peter Burr: being fully perswaded that he understands the Letter of his Grand-mothers Will better then to think that his mother had any Right in this Revennue to Convey to another after her decease: But if he can Lay any just claime or Legal Demand, he knows where I Live: And if I gain another visit from him he shall find me neither unjust or unkind—whatsoever is or may be Requisite for the punctuall fulfilling of my mothers Will, I shall Readily attend at all times While I am and shall be concernd therein. I have sent you inclosed herein Justus Bosh[s] his Receipt, bill of Lading and a particular account of the goods according to invoice from England the sum—amounting to 28[£]–15–01—to be divided as above mentioned. and what is wanting to my Cousen Sam[l] share I will be accountabl to him next time:
I write to you, you are abl to advize my Cousen & will not fail to acquaint him with this; perhaps I may have opportunity to write to him, or you, or both, before this come to hand
In mean Time I remain your affectionate brother

give my service to your husb: m^r^ Clarke and to all our Relations as you have opportunity.

The second letter, although having no direct bearing on the Burr relationship, is given because of its genealogical importance. It was written by Rev. John Prudden to his nephew Samuel Prudden, son of the Mrs. Clarke to whom the first letter was addressed. The superscription reads: "These ffor his Loving Cousin Samuel Prudden at Milforde In New England," and the letter reads as follows:

Newarke ffebr: 17^th^ Anno Dom: 1711/12

Loving Cousin

Respective sallutations premised These may inform you that your Relations here are all (through Gods goodnes) In reasonabl good health as we hope you and the rest of our relations with you are, to whom we give our Love and hearty Respects particularly wishing we might be favoured with a visit from any of them. I sent you a Letter before winter set in by one of the Stirges who lives at ffairfield, which I hope he did not fail of conveying to your hand. I sent inclosed in that Letter, A Letter which I then newly recieved from our Correspond^a^ M^r^ John Love and Metcalfe In London Merch^ts^ by the contents of which Letter you may understand what they have done in answer to our Request with Reference to our affaire; And wherfore he answered not our expectation in full, for I wrote In your Name as well as in my own it being our joint concern to look after that Revenue at Edstone. M^r^ Love^s^ order was to Demand & Recieve for our use the wholl sum that was then due to us, But our Agent Joseph Dickinson who Receives our Rents yearly, refused or at least delayed and detained one half of what was then due pretending he could not do otherwise untill he heard further from you or at Least from me. I know no ground or occasion for M^r^ Dickinson to make such a plea or Demur in the matter, unles you have given him some particular advice and have not acquainted me with it, which if you have done I doubt it will prove a disadvantage to our common intrest. however I desire to hear from you by the first opportunity without faile that I may know the better what to write when an opportunity shall present. That half which is shipt by our order and for our use and may be expected (if Divine providence favour us) you know that you and I and all the rest concerned are obliged to Run the Risque and hazard of the seas The ship viz: Cap^t^ Jeffers is not yet Arrived though expected nor have we any certain intelligence where he is or wherefore his Arival is delayd the goods consigned & coming (if not Lost) will be pewter and Brass: and if you desire any other sort of merchandize you may please to intimate in your Letter, there will be an opportunity to hear from you in a short time by some of our Town who are now coming to Milford and to Newhaven upon their respective concerns. Israel Canfield Sammuel ffarrin &c: This is all at present only to give my service to Sister Clarke your mother and her husband; to your wife and to Cousen John and his wife, to Brother Baldwin and his wife: to Cousin George Allin and his wife and Cousin Hanna, to cousen Joanna your sister ffen and her husband, not forgetting to Recomend us to any other of our Relations as you have opportunity In mean time I Rest

Your affectionat Uncle

John Prudden

I desired and expected my cousin Hanna Allin^a^ good company to abide with me for a season if she pleased to accpt of an invitation Cousin I would gladly have an opertunity to discourse with you if your occasions will permit you to favour me with a visit and bring your wife with you,

I doubt not but you will ingeniously own that you are owing to me more then one single visit.

One further piece of evidence may be mentioned. The Prudden genealogy* quotes an extract from an almanac published in 1680, once belonging to Rev. John Prudden, which in 1901 was kept at Washington's Headquarters in Morristown, N. J. The extract shows the amount of the English revenue for the four years from 1687 to 1690 paid "by John and Grace Prudden executoris of their mother's will to each of their sisters Joanna, Mary, Abigail, Elizabeth, Sarah, Mildred." Then follow the names of the payees and the amounts paid to each. The names are thus printed: Joanna Chittenden, Zachery Walker, Pastor Beve ("name uncertain"), Abigaul Hubbell, Sarah Allen, Mildred.

It will be seen that the payee whose name was not certainly read represented Elizabeth, as the other five are accounted for. In view of the claim by Peter Burr, which is discussed at length in the first of the Prudden letters, there can be no doubt (though the writer has not had the opportunity to inspect the almanac entry personally) that the uncertain name should be read "Peter Burr." This name in the letter previously quoted is very clear and distinct.

It may well be asked why, in view of John Prudden's attitude as expressed in his letter of 1707 relative to the right of Peter Burr to receive his deceased mother's share, a payment had previously been made to him. As the date of Elizabeth's death has not been ascertained, two explanations are possible. If she was living on 24 June 1692, the date of the deferred distribution covering a four-year period (1687–1690), her share may have been paid to Peter Burr as her agent. If not living, she had at any rate survived the year 1690, and hence her heirs were entitled to the deferred payment of her accrued share.

The terms of the Prudden letter admit of but one interpretation. Peter Burr's grandmother was Mrs. Joanna Prudden, and after his mother's death he claimed the right to inherit the share of the annuity from English lands which his mother had received until her death. It is difficult to see why he was not justified in his claim, for there was nothing in the terms of Mrs. Prudden's will which prohibited her daughters from assigning or bequeathing their shares. We have not learned the outcome of the controversy, which was probably settled or compromised privately.

The last wife of Jehu Burr, Jr., and the mother of Peter Burr was therefore Elizabeth Prudden, the only Prudden heiress not otherwise disposed of. By earlier wives Jehu had three children (named in his will), Daniel, Esther, and Mary. Who were his children by Elizabeth Prudden?

Peter Burr was born in Mar. 1667/8, according to his age at death as given on his gravestone. He was, therefore, of age when his father made his will, 11 Jan. 1689 [1689/90].† The terms of the will show that the son Samuel was under twenty-one, and that the daughters, Elizabeth, Sarah, Joanna, and Abigail (named in that order) were under eighteen years. All of these children were younger than Peter; hence Elizabeth Prudden was their mother.

It will be noted that Elizabeth (Prudden) Burr named her eldest son after her father, Rev. Peter Prudden; her second son after her eldest brother, Samuel; her eldest daughter, Elizabeth, after herself; the next daughter, Sarah, after her sister; the next, Joanna, after her mother; and the youngest, Abigail, after another sister. Every one of her children received a Prudden name.*

Jehu Burr, in his will, referred to his wife in the following terms: "J Giue to my Loueing Wife y^{t} Estate J had with her which was tenn pounds in Mony: she reserueing y^{e} rest of her Estate to her owne Vse & desposall Allso J Giue to my said wife ten pounds in prouision to be paid her within one year after my decease." It will be seen that her name was not mentioned. The ten pounds which her husband "had with her" was probably her portion from her father's estate. The "rest of her Estate," of which she had retained the use and disposal, doubtless refers to her inheritance under her mother's will, which included not only the annuity from English rents but also £5 and her share of her mother's "plate and moveable estate."†

The early Fairfield records are very defective. There are very few vital entries before 1700, and extant records of the church do not begin until 1694. Knowledge of early generations depends almost entirely on probate and land records. This explains why so much confusion has prevailed regarding the marriages of Jehu Burr, Jr., and why erroneous statements have been printed, which might never have been disproved except for the discovery of the Prudden letters.

*Discoveries in Fairfield records made by Mr. Jacobus subsequently to the writing of this article indicate that Jehu Burr, Jr., had but one earlier wife, the Widow Esther Boosey, and that she was mother of only two of the Burr children, Daniel and Esther. The daughter Mary, born about 1666, was almost certainly the first child by Elizabeth Prudden. No evidence whatever has been found to substantiate the usual statement that Mary Ward was a wife of Jehu Burr, Jr., while, on the contrary, considerable evidence has been found to indicate that she was the first wife of his brother, John Burr.

†Mr. Clarence A. Torrey of Dorchester (Boston), Mass., has reached a different conclusion in regard to the wife named in Jehu's will, and he suggests to the writer that the terms of the will indicate that she was a later wife than Elizabeth Prudden and was not the mother of any of the children. Although that would be the usual inference from the terms of the will, Elizabeth (or her heirs) received the accrued English income for the year 1690, while Jehu's will was dated 11 Jan. 1689 [1689/90]; hence it would seem that Elizabeth must have been living at the date of the will.

WILLIAM PUNCHARD OF NEW HAVEN, CONN., AND HIS FAMILY

By Donald Lines Jacobus, M. A., of Mount Carmel, Conn.

1. William[1] Punchard, of untraced antecedents, settled in New Haven,* where he died 16 Dec. 1748. He married first, 21 Apr. 1703, Hannah[3] Brown, daughter of Eleazer[2] (Francis[1]) and Sarah (Bulkley); and secondly, 23 May 1717, Mehitabel[3] Perkins, born 29 Oct. 1692, died in 1751, daughter of David[2] (Edward[1]) and Deliverance.

Children by first wife:

ii. WILLIAM, bapt. at New Haven in May 1752 (records of St. James's Church, Derby); d. between 1783 and 1787; m. PHEBE THOMPSON, who d. 6 Apr. 1837, aged 84 (gravestone at New Haven). She m. (2) 21 May 1787 Charles Prindle. In June 1780 she joined the Second Congregational Church, New Haven, where her four children were baptized; with her second husband she was a member of Trinity Church, New Haven. Administration on the estate of William Punchard, Jr., was granted in 1794 to Charles Prindle, with Abraham Bradley as surety. No distribution of the estate is recorded. Children: 1. Mary,[4] bapt. 30 July 1780.† 2. Phebe, bapt. 30 July 1780; "P——— Punchard daughter of ——— Punchard now Mrs. Prindle" was buried 28 Jan. 1791, aged 10 (records of Trinity Church). 3. Betsey, bapt. 18 Aug. 1782. 4. William, bapt. 13 Apr. 1783; "William Punchard son of Phebe wife of Charles Prindle" d. 16 June 1793, aged 10 years, 3 months (records of Trinity Church).

*The identity of Mary Punchard's first husband is not positively established, but the following records of Trinity Church are believed to refer to him and his family: William, son of William and "Molly" Sherman, was baptized 13 Aug. 1775, William Punchard being one of the sponsors; William Sherman (probably this child) was buried 11 Oct. 1788, aged 17. No further reference to this William Sherman appears in the town, church, land, or probate records of New Haven. The inscription on Mary's gravestone calls her "Mary Punchard wife of Abraham Bradley."

†New Haven deeds show that she was living unmarried in 1801, and indicate, without proving positively, that in 1805 she was the wife of Ralph Hervey of New Haven.

THE QUINTARD FAMILY IN AMERICA

Contributed by Frederic Quintard Boyer, of Winter Park, Fla., and Herbert Armstrong Poole, of Milton, Mass.

1. Isaac[1] Quintard, born in Lusignan, Province of Poitou, France, prior to 1670, died in Stamford, Conn., between 6 Nov. 1714 and 15 Jan. 1715, the dates of his will and of its probate, son of Isaac and Marie (————) Quintard of Lusignan. He married in Bristol, England, in the Chapel of the Gaunt, 26 Nov. 1693, Jeanne Fumé, daughter of Daniel and Esther (Herault) Fumé, who had emigrated to Bristol from Mescheres in Saintonge, France, in 1688.

Isaac Quintard's father was a manufacturer of serge cloth, who emigrated to Bristol in 1693 with his son, soon after the revocation of the Edict of Nantes. In 1697 Isaac came to New York City, where he joined the French Church on Wall Street; and on 1 Oct. 1708, then a merchant in New York City, he bought land in Stamford from Robert Embree. His will was proved in Fairfield, Conn., and his estate was appraised at £1742.

The name Quintard in the Norman-French rolls is also spelt variously as Quiennart, Quienart, Quynart, Quinart, Quintar, Quinhard, and Quintart.

Children:

i. Marie Anne,[3] b. in Bristol 5 Jan. 1694/5; m. Capt. Samuel Morin, b. 19 Jan. 1691/2, d. in Stamford 19 June 1739, son of Jean and Elizabeth (Viconte) Morin. He left to his wife an estate of £1500, after whose death it was to go to his nephew, John Morin of New York.

Child (surname Morin):

1. Jean, b. 23 Nov. 1716; d. 8 Dec. 1717.

2. ii. Isaac, b. in Bristol 12 Dec. 1696.

iii. Abraham, bapt. in New York City 25 Sept. 1698; d. young.

3. iv. Pierre, b. in New York City 14 Jan. 1699/1700.

2. Isaac[2] Quintard (Isaac[1]), born in Bristol, England, 12 Dec. 1696, died in Stamford, Conn., 28 Feb. 1738/9. He married in Stamford, 16 July 1716, Hannah Knapp, born there 10 or 15 March 1699/1700, died in 1790, daughter of John and Hannah (Ferris) Knapp.

Rev. E. B. Huntington in "The History of Stamford" says: "No record shows how early Isaac came to Stamford, but it is probable that the pioneer, then a young man of twenty years, had found his way out of New York and been ensnared by one of the Knapp maidens". His early death left his wife with minor children. He inherited the major part of the Stamford estate from his father, his brother, Pierre, receiving the New York property. On 12 April 1750, when his estate was distributed, his widow had become Hannah Jessup, but no record of this marriage has been found. His estate was inventoried at £2700.

Children:

i. A son (twin),[3] b. 3 April 1721; d. young.

ii. A son (twin), b. 3 April 1721; d. young.

iii. Mary, b. 21 Oct. 1722; m. 18 May 1742 Nathaniel Hubbard, of Stamford, b. in 1702, d. in 1772. Rev. E. B. Huntington says he was the fourth doctor recorded in Stamford, a man of unusual skill and energy.

Children (surname Hubbard):

1. Elizabeth, b. 18 May 1743; d. 2 Oct. 1776; m. 26 April 1760 Platt Townsend, physician in New York, b. in 1733, son of Micajah and Elizabeth (Platt) Townsend. Children (surname Townsend): (1) Elizabeth, b. in Stamford 25 April 1763; d. 14 July 1798; m. 3 Sept. 1780 William Van Wagenen Vredenburgh, b. in New York City 18 April 1760, d. 9 May 1813, son of John William and Maria (Van Wagenen) Vredenburgh.* Children (surname Vredenburgh): (a) Maria Hubbard, b. in New York City 3 Sept. 1785; d. 24 April 1876; m. in Skaneateles, N. Y., 29 Sept. 1803, Charles John Burnett, b. in London, England, in 1774, d. in Skaneateles in 1856, son of John and Elizabeth (Kinch) Burnett of Oxfordshire, England. (b) Eliza, b. in 1790; m. Hon. James Porter. (c) Cornelia, b. in 1793; m. Walter Weed. (d) Evalina, b. in 1795; m. 14 July 1814 Gov. Enos Thompson Throop, b. in Johnstown, Montgomery Co., N. Y., 21 Aug. 1784, d. in Auburn, N. Y., 1 Nov. 1874, son of George Bliss and Abiah (Thompson) Throop. Three children, all of whom d. young. (e) A son, d. in infancy. (f) A son, d. in infancy. (2) William. (3) Isaac. (4) A daughter.

2. Nathaniel, b. 29 April 1745; d. 25 March 1818. He was a United Empire Loyalist, and in 1783 he went to St. John, N. B., and settled in Burton Parish, Sunbury, where he was a magistrate. His Connecticut estate was confiscated by the patriots in 1779.
3. Isaac, b. 1 July 1747; d. in 1834. He was a Loyalist, and settled in Burton Parish, N. B.
4. William, b. 17 Sept. 1749; d. in 1813; m. Benjamina (Clark) Woodstock, b. in 1770, d. in 1856, daughter of Dr. Joseph Clark of Maugerville, with whom she came to St. John in 1783. William was a Loyalist, and settled in Sunbury County, N. B., where he was Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas.
5. Mary, b. 23 Nov. 1751; probably d. young.
6. Margaret, b. 29 May 1754; m. D. Webber.
7. Ann, b. 1 Nov. 1761; probably d. young.

iv. HANNAH, b. in Stamford 28 June 1724; d. in St. John, N. B.; m. JONATHAN KETCHUM, b. in Norwalk, Conn., d. in St. John, son of Joseph and Elizabeth (Raymond) Ketchum of Norwalk. Some of the family claim Jonathan was the son of Joseph and Deborah (Clucksstone-Clugston-Cluxon) Ketchum of Norwalk. Jonathan was a United Empire Loyalist, and in 1783 went by ship from Huntington, L. I., N. Y., to New Brunswick and settled on a farm at Lower Norton, King's Co., known as Yankee Shore, where he died at an advanced age. While he lived in Norwalk he was a tavern keeper, postmaster, and town gauger.

Children (surname Ketchum):

1. Samuel.
2. Isaac, bapt. in Stamford 19 Oct. 1751; probably d. young.
3. Isaac, bapt. in Stamford 6 Nov. 1757; d. in St. John in 1820; m. in Stamford, 4 April 1783, Mary Williams, b. in 1767, d. in 1821 ("Loyalists of the American Revolution", by Lorenzo Sabine, 1864). After their marriage they lived in Huntington, L. I., N. Y., but later probably went to New Brunswick with their son. Child: (1) Isaac, bapt. in Stamford 10 April 1784; m. ————. Child: (a) Edwin, b. in 1806; d. in September 1851; m. Margaret A. Leavitt, d. in March 1881. Seven children.
4. Thomas.

Two children. (c) Emily Myers, m. William Dickson Forster. (d) William Quintard, b. 3 Dec. 1858; m. Ann Laetitia Smith, daughter of Bernard Smith. Four children. (e) Thomas Carleton Lee, one time mayor of Woodstock, N. B., b. in St. Andrews 31 May 1861; m. in Woodstock Margaret Doughty Cadman, daughter of James and Margaret (Doughty) Cadman. Five children.

8. Deborah, b. in Norwalk; m. there, as his second wife, Thomas Fairweather, b. there in 1748, d. in Norton, N. B., 23 June 1825, son of Benjamin Fairweather (N. Y. Gen. & Biog. Record, vol. 36, p. 186). Thomas and Deborah left Norwalk in 1787, moved to Long Island with the United Empire Loyalists, then went to New Brunswick and settled in Norton, Yankee Shore, where he was a farmer. Children (surname Fairweather): (1) Thomas, b. in Norwalk in 1781; m. Lydia Dixon. Nine children. He was a farmer in New Brunswick. (2) Henry. (3) Hannah. (4) Sarah. (5) Samuel. His will was probated in Hampton, King's Co., N. B., between 1826 and 1830. (6) Fannie. (7) Deborah. (8) Charles. (9) James.

9. A daughter, m. Capt. Isaac Ketchum, b. in 1748, d. in Sussex Parish, N. B., 15 Feb. 1835.

4. v. Isaac, b. 29 Dec. 1727.

5. vi. Peter, b. 29 Oct. 1730.

3. Pierre[2] Quintard (Isaac[1]), born in New York City 14 Jan. 1699/1700, died in Norwalk, Conn., 10 Nov. 1762. He married, first, in 1723, Jeanne Baillereau, born in New York City 3 July 1708, died in Norwalk 2 Sept. 1757, daughter of Jacques and Jeanne (Odart) Baillereau of Rye, N. Y.; and, secondly, Deborah (Knapp) King, born 25 Jan. 1705, daughter of John and Hannah (Ferris) Knapp and widow of William King.

Pierre Quintard lived at Old Well, Norwalk, was a silversmith, and also a ship owner, tavern keeper, and was probably interested in the Norwalk potteries. He was early apprenticed to the leading silversmith in New York, Charles Le Roux. In 1722 Pierre owned land on Maiden Lane, New York, where he remained until 1737. He then moved to Norwalk.

Children by first wife:

i. JACQUES (JAMES),[3] b. 6 Feb. 1723/4; d. young.
ii. MARIE (MARY), b. 23 May 1726; m. Evert Evertson of New York.

RAYMOND.—In the July number of the REGISTER (p. 331) an inquiry is made as to the parentage of Thomas Raymond, of Norwalk, Conn., who was married to Sarah Andrews, Nov. 15, 1702. Perhaps the following may throw some light on the subject.—In the Norwalk Records of transfers of Real Estate, there is, in the year 1699, a deed from John, Samuel, Thomas and Hannah Raymond to William Haynes, of certain lands in the town of Norwalk. In Hall's "Ancient Records of Norwalk," it is stated that John Raymond (son of Richard Raymond, of Salem) had by his wife Mary, daughter of Thomas Betts, of Norwalk, John, Jr., b. Sept. 9, 1665; Samuel, b. July 7, 1673, and perhaps others. I think there can be little doubt that the Thomas and Hannah mentioned in the above deed were the other children, and probably joined in giving deed of property left them by their father, John Raymond. Perhaps a reference to the Records of Wills, I think kept at Fairfield, Ct., might determine the point. JAMES L. RAYMOND.

READ-HOLLOWAY.—John Read of Norwich, Conn. (undoubtedly a brother of Josiah Read, of the same place, who married Grace, daughter of William Holloway of Marshfield, Nov. 1666), had a wife, Hannah, who is supposed by Miss Caulkins to have been a sister of Josiah's wife. (Caulkins's Hist. of Norwich, Conn., p. 197.) The following abstracts, from original deeds in the Elisha Clarke Leonard papers, are of interest, proving Miss Caulkins's supposition.

DR. PHILIP READE AND HIS EARLIER DESCENDANTS

By George E. McCracken, Ph.D., F.A.S.G.
Drake University, Des Moines, Iowa

Manuscript records in public archives in the Boston area were examined for the present study in the summer of 1953. The most probable source was, of course, the records of the Middlesex County court at East Cambridge, but these were found in such a condition as to make searching difficult. The papers are in bundles kept on the balcony in the clerk's office and there is a card index available in which a few items pertaining to Dr. Reade were found listed. In the nineteenth century an inventory was made of these records by a careful genealogist, T. B. Wyman, and a copy of this inventory is preserved at the New England Historic Genealogical Society. Such items in this inventory as pertain to Dr. Reade, fifty-one in number, dating from 27 Aug. 1669 to 20 April 1674, had been transcribed for me by Miss Ruth E. Thomas, and I had this transcription with me at East Cambridge, but even so, it was not possible to find most of the items inventoried by Mr. Wyman. Not more than a fraction of what Mr. Wyman saw can have been available in 1953. Fortunately, however, Mr. Wyman provided some idea of the nature of each item he listed, and from these we may derive a reasonably accurate story of the events narrated, though often it must remain sketchy.

Grateful acknowledgement is made to Mr. Norman W. Ingham of Granby, Mass., who generously made available the contents of the genealogical papers of his kinswoman, the late Miss Ellen Reed, of New Haven, Conn. Papers of the late George S. Stewart, formerly genealogist of the Reade Family Association, were examined at the New England Historic Genealogical Society, but did not contain many new items of information on this family. This association formerly published The Reade Record, which may be examined with some profit, as follows: 3:3, 4:4, 5:10, 7:14, 17:9-12, and 21:3 f. Dr. Reade is discussed on p. 272 of Jacob Whittemore Reed's "History of the Reed Family in Europe and America" (Boston, 1861), but this work is far from reliable.

At the time of her death, in 1935, Miss Reed appears to have been engaged in an attempt to locate Dr. Reade's English ancestry and had employed the services of a professional genealogist, the late G. A. Taylor. In a letter to Miss Reed he said: "A court document has been found wherein the party subscribing to said document says he knew Dr. Philip in England", but nothing further is to be found on this clue in the papers. If the document was found in the Middlesex County records, it could not be found by me, and no success has been had in attempting to locate Mr. Taylor's papers, if extant anywhere.

Miss Reed's papers, however, also contain a note which may have been the result of further search by Mr. Taylor: Dr. Philip Reade is stated to have been born in London in 1623, son of Jacob Reade and Jane Audye (a French lady), who were married by license dated 15 Nov. 1621 at St. Pancras' Church, Soper Lane, London. The records of this church have been printed and the marriage appears in them (2:448), exactly as stated above, except that the first name of the bride is given as Ann and the detail that she was French is not found. No baptism of any child of the couple appears. Other Reade items in the same registers are as follows:

Baptisms

1:151	19 June 1629	Rhoda, d. James Read; witnesses: Thomas Smyth, Rhoda Wilkinson, Margaret Neane.
1:152	20 May 1631	Elizabeth Read, d. James Read: godfather: John Baker, godmothers: Marie Colmer, deputy for Elizabeth Large and Susan Edwards.
1:153	19 July 1633	Jane, d. James Reade; witnesses: Mr. John Seed, Mrs. Ashe, Mrs. Jane Chapman.
1:154	18 April 1634	Anna, d. James Reade.

Burials

1:299	23 March 1628/9	William, s. James Read, in the Church.
1:300	11 Oct. 1634	Jhon Hunnt, sarvant to James Reade, Sc^{r} in the north ile vnder the dores of the 13 & 14 peues.
1:300	May 1635	Joane, d. James Read, in the Church.
1:310	4 Oct. 1683	James Read Stranger.

2:455	19 Sept. 1651	Thomas Maddock & Anne Reade, d. James Reade, scrivener, by license.

None of these items shows any affinity with the American family and I conclude that James Reade, scrivener, was not the father of Philip Reade. Nor do I think that the Jacob Reade who had married Ann Audye in 1621 could be identical with the scrivener. Had the register been kept in Latin, as registers sometimes were, "Jacobus" could be translated indifferently as either "Jacob" or "James", but this register is in English, and the marriage has "Jacob" and the other entries are "James", quite clearly. Moreover, the only reason for believing that Jacob Reade and Ann Audye could have been the parents of the American settler is the fact that he had a son Jacob and many other descendants of the same name.

Having thought that it was at least possible that Dr. Reade was son of the tailor, Esdras Reade, I carried on an investigation of the tailor's antecedents which was published in The American Genealogist, 28:149-153. Some of his children had been baptized in the Church of St. Mary Overie, now St. Saviour's, Southwark Cathedral, and the genealogist who examined these registers for me reported that, besides the Esdras Reade entries on which he reported, he had seen the baptism of a Philip Reade, son of James. In an effort to make certain that in this entry we do not have the baptism of the physician, I lately asked another genealogist to check the entry. The report is that Philip Reade, son of James Reade, waterman, was baptized on 2 April 1621. Except for the Esdras Reade entries already published, this is the only Reade entry in the proper period. If the physician was son of Jacob Reade, as seems probable, the baptism of the waterman's son antedates Jacob's marriage by some months. In any case, the physician cannot have been son of the tailor.

On two different occasions Dr. Philip Reade made depositions and his age was recorded: first, medical testimony before the Essex County Court in November 1669 when he was about 45 (Records and Files, 4:207), and, secondly, before the Middlesex County Court on 18 Dec. 1672 when the age is given as 49 years. These ages are in harmony with each other and would put the birth late in 1623 or in 1624.

Russell Leigh Jackson, "The Physicians of Essex County", p. 101 (printed also in Historical Collections of the Essex Institute 94:281), says that the doctor practiced at Cambridge, Sudbury, and Watertown, none of which are, of course, in Essex County, but so far as I have been able to search, no trace of the physician can be found in any of these places. The only reference to him in Essex Deeds refers to his appointment as trustee for John Procter of Salem on 26 Jan. 1688/9. The Reade Record, 3:3, says he was also of Weymouth but of the two Philip Reades, contemporary with him at Weymouth, neither was the man in question.

Our physician has been identified with the Philip Reade who took the freeman's oath in Massachusetts on 30 May 1660. This may be correct, but, if so, we are faced with the problem of explaining where he was from that date until he is next found about 1669 in Massachusetts. The answer is that, at least in 1667, he was a practicing physician in Norwalk, Conn. "The Records of the Town of Brookhaven up to 1800" (Patchogue, 1880), p. 39, show under date of 6 8ber 1667, a report of arbitrators in a suit for debt due to Phillip Reade of Norwake, Phissission. This is undoubtedly our Philip and in a characteristic situation, but in Norwalk itself, thus far, we find no record of him. Edwin Hall, "The Ancient Historical Records of Norwalk, Connecticut" (Norwalk, 1847), says naught of our man, and the only Reade in Norwalk according to Jacob W. Reed's unsatisfactory genealogy cited above was a John Reade, born in Cornwall in 1633, a subaltern in Cromwell's army, yet he did not arrive at Norwalk until 1684 and died there in October 1730, aged 97 (p. 445).

Soon after the 1667 suit Dr. Reade must have decided to pull up stakes and settle elsewhere. What led him to choose the place where he lived the rest of his life, is not clear, but in view of his exceedingly quarrelsome disposition which will shortly be made apparent, certainly his decision to settle in a town with the peaceful name of Concord is highly ironic. There, about 1669, he must have married Abigail Rice, but the marriage is not recorded, nor is her birth. She was the daughter of Richard Rice by his first wife Elizabeth. Her father was twice surety for his new son-in-law, namely, on 31 March and 2 June 1670 in court business to be mentioned later. Abigail herself petitioned the same court on 4 Oct. 1670 in her husband's behalf. Moreover, we shall meet her mother Elizabeth in another and dramatic connection. Abigail was still living when her father made his will on 27 Dec. 1708 but died in Concord 16 April 1709, while the old man was still living. It may have been she who signed by mark as witness the will of Hester Sears of Woburn on 2 March 1679/80 (Records and Files of the Essex Court, 8:3). On another memorable occasion Abigail's illness was, as we shall see, the cause for her husband's getting into his most serious scrape.

On 27 Aug. 1669 Dr. Philip Reade is first recorded at Concord when he made complaint against one Robert Williams whose surety was Edmund Wigby alias Wigley, gent., and Williams ran away. Various witnesses deposed in this case in August and October of that year, most of them Concord men, among them Richard Rice, aged 58. There was a writ on 23 Sept. 1669 against Martha, wife of Ralph Hill, in the suit of Dr. Read for slander concerning Goodwife Blood, midwife for Sara Wyman. On 5 Oct. 1669 John Wyman, aged 47, deposed concerning the slander of his daughter by Dr. Read, and on the same date Hannah Wilson, aged 37, deposed as to alleged words of "the New Doctor Read". This would indicate that the doctor had not been long in the peaceful village of Concord before he began to have trouble.

In November 1669, also, there were some remarks by Dr. Reade derogatory to the minister in Concord, Edward Bulkely, uttered at Mr. Easterbrook's house. Testimony was given on 9 Nov. 1669 by James Hosmer, Jonathan Presert, Tho Wheeler, Fran Dudley, Eph Roper, Jno Haywood Senr, Jno Haywood Junr [cousins of each other, aged 39 and 29, respectively], Lyman Willard, and others. One Joseph Wheeler made accusation against the doctor in the same matter on 29 March 1670, and Dr. Reade made a motion to the court on 21 June 1670, and was bonded with Richard Rice of Concord in that year, probably at the same session. On 2 June 1670 Richard Rice and Nathaniel Billing were sureties for Dr. Reade, and the court found for the plaintiff in J. Hayward vs Read on 21 June 1670. The next day, however, Dr. Reid made answer concerning the charges. On 4 Oct. 1670 Abigail Reid petitioned the court, as stated above. Her husband had been fined in April 1670, but the sureties did not pay the fine, and there was another motion by the doctor on 4 April 1671. The bill of Thos Wheeler, constable, for charges concerning Dr. Read and John Heaward is dated 19 Dec. 1671, and this appears to end that matter, whatever it was.

Other papers in Wyman's inventory appear not to concern the same subject. Dr. Read was summoned in December 1672 when John Wyman's Negro was summoned for assaulting two Indians. Philip Read, Physician, aged 49, deposed on 18 Dec. 1672. In 1673 there was a case in court apparently involving medical expenses for treatment of Samuel Parker, son of Joseph, in which Elizabeth Stevens, aged 60, deposed that "her brother Joseph Parker his son Samuel staid with Dr. R 8 months charge of £8" (16 June 1673). Others also testified in this case and a verdict was found for the plaintiff Read on 17 June 1673. On that date Ralph Reade [of Woburn], aged 40, deposed that before Dr. Reade was committed to prison in Boston, Joseph Parker, son of Andrew, fetched away his son from Read's house. On the imprisonment of the doctor in Boston we shall touch in a moment, but this was quite a different case. On 20 April 1674 Dr. Philip Read presented a bill against Joseph Parker for medicine for Thos fors and Sam Page "& c Cr by a Cow 350 lbs at 2½ d sc whole bill £14.15." On 2 Feb. 1673/4 one Andrew Edmonds appears to have brought suit against the doctor for debt.

The foregoing is a sufficient summary of the information which can be deduced from the Wyman inventory. That the physician was in great need of ready cash to pay for all this litigation is obvious, and it was probably to provide the necessary funds that Philip Reade, of Concord, Phisitian, conveyed to Charles Buckner, of Boston, on 9 Sept. 1670, his house and land in Concord (Middlesex Deeds, 4:20; witnesses: William Read [of Woburn?], and Augustin Lindon). On 14 July 1671, the deed was proved by testimony of the two witnesses and acknowledged by its maker. It contains the provision that if the grantor should pay to the grantee the sum of £7/10 before 1 May 1671, that the deed would be void. A mortgage is obviously involved and was surely foreclosed, or the deed would never have been recorded. This is the only deed in Middlesex County in which Dr. Reade appears as either grantor or grantee. Nothing is known as to how he acquired the property in the first place, or how he got it back, if he did, or at least got back another house and lot in Concord, for he died seized of property which will presently be mentioned.

Allusion has already been made to Dr. Reade's imprisonment in Boston. Fortunately, in this case we have rather full information as to what happened, and it is quite clear that the matter was entirely separate and distinct from the proceedings in Middlesex Court. Just why the Suffolk County Court had jurisdiction does not, however, appear. In any case, it is certain that in the presence of several persons, one of whom was the doctor's mother-in-law, Richard Rice's wife Elizabeth, he uttered words which were taken by some, if not all, of the witnesses to be blasphemous, and the matter was a little later reported to the authorities. The record of the proceedings appears in the Suffolk County Court Records ("Publications of the Colonial Society of Massachusetts", vols. 29-30). A warrant was issued on 5 July 1671 for Philip Reade and the wife of Richard Rice [she merely as a witness, of course] (pp. 114 f.). On the next day, Reade admitted "that the name of Christ was mentioned", but denied that blasphemy was committed. Elizabeth Rice would say nothing. This was at a court held in Cambridge, and Reade was committed that day to prison, but on 12 July 1671 was transferred by warrant to Boston jail.

The indictment was as follows: "Philip Read of Concord Chirurgeon or practitioner in Phisick: for not having the feare of God before his eyes & being Instigated by the divill did sometime in May last Blaspheme the holy name of Christ & also on a motion then & there made to pray to God for his wife then sick blasphemously Cursed bidding the Divill take yo^{w} & yo^{r} praye^{rs}, etc. Boston. 5 7^{ber} 1671".

The testimony was given at the trial as follows: Susanna Gleison, aged ca. 55, was present and heard the words and Goody Rice, his mother-in-law, replyed to the wife of David Fish that he blasphemed: that Philip Reade blamed his mother-in-law ("the Devill take her for shee had brought him to [illegible]"). The source cited in the printed record is "S. F. 1052. 7", obviously files of the Supreme Judicial Court of Massachusetts, now preserved on the 14th floor of the new Courthouse in Boston, but Susanna Gleison's testimony could not be found in 1953. Denial of it was made by the defendant, and by William Gleason, Elizabeth Rice, and Benjamin Russell, declaring they had not heard the words, and these depositions were found in the file. On 30 April 1672 "Philip Reade of Concord presented for Swearing and cursing, the presentment not being fully proved though not without Strong Suspicion of his being guilty", he was admonished and directed to pay the fees. That appears to have ended the matter.

Dr. Reade could hardly have claimed that he had gotten into the habit of using strong language while in military service, for he had not as yet served, as he was to serve later as a surgeon in King Philip's War between 23 Aug. and 25 Jan. 1675/6, for which he was paid £9/7/4 (The Register, 38:219 f.).

In the years 1679 and 1680 Dr. Philip Reade was deeply involved in a feud with one John Gifford of Lynn. What caused the quarrel is not certain, but, meeting each other on the highway, they engaged in sword play, all of which got them into court. The papers describing this feud were seen by me in the files of the Supreme Judicial Court in 1953, and they are transcribed, though not in toto, in The Reade Record, 17:9-12. Dr. Reade also accused Gifford's wife, Margaret, of witchcraft and she was summoned to appear before the Essex Court, but she did not appear, and was then not sent for or tried! See Records and Files, 7:405, 30 March 1680; 8:23, 8 May 1680.

The "Vital Records of Concord" as printed show that Dr. Philip Reade died in Concord 10 May 1696, and this date has been repeated many times. There is some reason, however, to doubt its accuracy. Middlesex Deeds, 10:359, record the conveyance of Abigail Read, widow of Philip, Jacob Read and Philip Read, sons of Philip, all of Concord, grantors, to Samuel Hartwell, grantee, the date being 4 Jan. 1693, i.e. 4 Jan. 1693/4, recorded 19 March 1694, i.e. 1694/5. I have myself verified the dates on the original. The discrepancy between the death date in Concord and the evidence of this deed has not been satisfactorily explained. There can be no possibility that the death recorded was of Philip[2] Reade, also a physician, since he did not marry until 1699.

Supreme Judicial Court, file 3371, contains reference to the suit of Sarah Cowell to recover £5/4 and £3/13/3 costs, from the sureties of Philip Reade who owed her a debt. The date of the original is the last Tuesday in April, VII William III, and the date of the paper found is 6 March, VIII William III (1694/5). The same records (file 162349), contain a document dated in 1695 concerning some Reade of Concord, but the paper is torn where the name is mentioned and nothing can be learned of the purpose of the paper.

8. Mary, b. Simsbury, 30 Jan. 1722/3; m. Joshua Dickinson.

v. ELIZABETH, b. ca. 1690, birth not recorded there but so indicated in her marriage record which fails, however, to name her parents; d. 17 May 1764, aged 74, Simsbury, then called wife of Samuel Adams the elder. m. in Simsbury, 2 July 1713, SAMUEL ADAMS (son of Daniel and Mary Pinney), d. 1 April 1772, leaving a will dated Simsbury, 11 April 1760, probated 3 April 1772, recorded in Book I, p. 28; he mentions wife Elizabeth; only surviving son Samuel; daughter Elizabeth, now wife of Thomas Barber; executors: son Samuel and daughter Elizabeth; witnesses: John Owen, John Hoskins iur., Elisha Phelps; and Samuel Adams signed by mark. Inventory of £235, all in real estate, was made 9 July 1772 by John Slater and Brewster Higley, Jr. In his old age Samuel Adams was cared for in the home of Thomas Barber who rendered an account as follows:

29 weeks from 1 Oct. 1764 to 1 May 1765 at 6s	£	8	14 0
104 weeks from 15 Sept. 1766 to 15 Sept. 1768 at 6s		31	4 0
184 weeks from 15 Sept. 1768 to 1 April 1772 at 10s		92	0 0

He was paid by deed of Samuel Adams, the son, and receipted 10 July 1772. John Brown made affidavit that he thought the care was worth 5s. for the first three years, after that, 11s. (1 June 1772); Daniel Case's opinion was that the rate should be 5/6 before Adams was bedridden, after that, 11s. This Elizabeth Read must be distinguished from her sister-in-law, Elizabeth (Law) Read, who had recently married William Moses. Note the characteristic Read names among her children, Jacob and Abigail.

Children (surname Adams), b. in Simsbury:

1. Elizabeth, b. 5 Sept. 1715; d. in 1810; m. in Simsbury, 8 Dec. 1737, Thomas[4] Barber (Samuel,[3] Thomas,[2] Thomas[1]), b. in 1716, d. in 1792. For their eleven children, see White and Wilson, "Barber Genealogy", p. 53, no. 79.
2. Jacob, b. 20 Jan. 1717/18; d. in Simsbury 6 March 1737/8.
3. Samuel, b. 13 July 1720; executor of his father, 1772.
4. Abigail, b. 15 July 1727; not living in 1760.

1. Dr. Philip[2] Reade, eldest child of Dr. Philip[1] Reade by his wife Abigail Rice, was born in Concord, Mass., 13 May 1671, and died, according to the Stuart Papers, in Middletown, Conn., 15 May 1720. There is no probate for him at Middletown, and we have not learned Mr. Stuart's source for the date of death. That Dr. Reade had, however, been of Middletown is clear from the wording of the petition for guardianship of his son Jacob, and he must have been dead by 29 Aug. 1722 when Thankful Read, not called widow, but obviously acting as one, petitioned the Middlesex County, Mass., Court, to grant administration of the estate of her son Philip to her son Peter. The marriage of Philip Reade to Thanks or Thankful Dill took place in Concord 6 Dec. 1699. She was born there 31 March 1676, daughter of Peter and Thanks (Shepard) Dill, and she was still living in 1722.

Children:

i. Philip,[3] captain in the military service, probably eldest and therefore b. ca. 1700; d. ca. 1722, probably unm. Middlesex (Mass.) file 18588 contains petition dated 29 Aug. 1722 whereby Thankful Read asked that son Peter Read be granted admin. of the estate of her son Phillip Read. The court so granted on 19 Sept. 1722 to Peter Read, cooper, of Lexington, and the decedent is then called Capt. Philip Read of Littleton, last of Kingston, drowned while he was in the country's service. For some curious reason the children of his brother David are sometimes credited to him, but as he could hardly have been older than 22 when he died, this is impossible.

3. ii. Peter, b. in June 1702 (Stuart Papers).

iii. Thankful, b. 14 Sept. 1706; m. in Brookfield, Mass., 1 June 1727, Benjamin Bartlett of Ware, Mass.

4. iv. David, b. in Concord 25 May 1710.

5. v. John, b. in Concord 7 Sept. 1714.

vi. Jacob, b. ca. 1718, was in his 15th year on 16 July 1733 when Benjamin Read of Lexington was appointed his guardian (Middlesex Probate Records, 22:55). What relationship, if any, existed between Jacob and this Benjamin does not appear. Benjamin and his wife Rebecca had ten children born in Lexington between 1718 and 1741, but their names (Benjamin, Abigail, Jonas, Rebecca, Isaac, Jonathan, Thaddeus, Dorcas, Samuel, and Ruth) show no affinity with Dr. Philip Reade's family. The guardianship papers call Jacob a minor son of Philip Read, late of Middleton in Connecticut Colony, dec'd. The Stuart Papers say he was of Littleton, Acton, Chelmsford, and Dunstable, but we have found no trace of him at any of these places unless it was he who married Elizabeth French in Littleton at a date not stated in "Littleton Vital Records", p. 467. Others have supposed he m. Mary———at Lexington in 1740, but this marriage cannot be verified.

2. Dr. Jacob[2] Reade, second son of Dr. Philip[1] Reade by his wife Abigail Rice, was born in Concord, Mass., 30 March 1673, and died in Simsbury, Conn., 3 Dec. 1709. The Stuart Papers (citing Hinman MS, vol. 7: Read) say that Dr. Reade returned home from the army where he lay sick for six weeks, but unless it is meant to be understood that this was his final illness, the year is not stated or implied. He married in Concord, 29 April 1699, Elizabeth Law, daughter of John and Lydia (Draper) Law, and she married, secondly, in Simsbury, ca. 1711, William Moses of Simsbury, born at Simsbury 25 March 1684/5, son of John and Deborah (Thrall) Moses. The marriage record takes pains to state the names of her father and first husband but not the date of the wedding. She died in Simsbury 13 May 1738, after which William Moses married, secondly, in Simsbury, 20 Nov. 1738, Hannah Humphrey. On a single date he recorded in Simsbury Records the births of three children: Bildad (6 May 1727), Hannah (12 Oct. 1739), and David (24 May 1742), of whom only the first was born during the marriage of William Moses to Elizabeth Law, but as Bildad Moses, "ye son of Hannah Hump-[hrey]", is also recorded in Simsbury as born 4 May 1728, it would seem probable that the child Bildad had taken the name of his step-father, and that Elizabeth Law was mother only to the three children of her first husband.

The inventory of Jacob Reade's estate came to £211/18/2, taken 31 Dec. 1709 by John Higley, Sen., Samuel Willcockson, Sen., and John Slaughter, Sen. (Manwaring, op. cit., 2:276 f.). On 6 March 1709/10 administration was granted to Elizabeth Read, widow, and John Tuller. On 2 July 1711 the administrator, John Tuller, complained against William Moses and Elizabeth, his wife, administrators, and they were cited to appear. On 19 Nov. 1711 Sergt. Wilcox was appointed guardian of Jacob Read, son of Jacob Read, and Richard Case was appointed guardian of Lydia Read, daughter of said decedent. On 3 March 1711/12 Elizabeth Moses of Simsbury, widow of Dr. Jacob Read, petitioned to have John Tuller made sole administrator. On 7 July 1712 the children Jacob and Lydia chose Sergt. Wilcox to be their guardian. On 1 Dec. 1712 Mr. Samuel Law of Concord was allowed by the court to be guardian of both Jacob and Lydia, provided he gave bond. On 7 Jan. 1712/13, John Tuller rendered an account which was accepted, and £22 was to be paid to William Moses, married to the widow. On 2 March 1712/13 William Moses and wife Elizabeth complained against John Tuller who had taken away a bed and sundries, and Tuller was cited to appear. On 3 April 1716 Lydia Read, aged 13, chose Joseph Case as guardian. On 1 April 1718, John Tuller complained that Elizabeth Moses then had £46/12/9 of the said estate, and she was cited. On 22 Feb. 1719/20 John Tuller rendered an account to complete the inventory. On 8 May 1721 he rendered another account which was accepted. On 5 June 1722 Joseph Phelps, Samuel Humphrey, Jr., and John Pettibone, were directed to set out to Elizabeth Read alias Moses one-third of Jacob Read's housing and lands, and finally, on 5 May 1724 John Tuller rendered a last account which was also accepted.

Children:

6. i. JACOB,[3] b. in Simsbury 15 May 1700.
   ii. LYDIA, b. ca. 1703; aged 13 in 1716; m. in Simsbury, 15 June 1721, JOHN[4] HUMPHREY (John,[3] John,[2] Michael[1]), b. 17 March 1700, d. in 1760 in New Haven, recorded in Simsbury. Frederick Humphreys, "The Humphreys Family in America" (New York, 1883), p. 123, wrongly calls her daughter of Josiah and Hannah (Amsdale) Read of Windsor.
7. iii. JOHN, b. Simsbury 20 June 1708, bapt. 1 May 1709 (Woodbridge's Church Records of Simsbury).

3. PETER[3] READ, cooper, second son of Dr. Philip[2] Reade (Philip[1]) by his wife Thanks Dill, is stated by the Stuart Papers to have been born in June 1702. We have also seen the date of birth given as May 1701 but have found no record anywhere. He died in Littleton 19 Sept. 1791, aged 90/4/-. He was baptized as an adult in Lexington 7 July 1733. He married, first, ABIGAIL BLODGETT, born in Woburn, Mass., 7 Nov. 1698, baptized there 13 Nov. 1698, died in Littleton 18 Aug. 1751, aged 52/9/11, daughter of Thomas and Rebecca (Tidd) Blodgett; and secondly, ABIGAIL WATERS, born in Salem, Mass., 1 Aug. 1702, died 8 Feb. 1770, aged 67/0/24, whose first husband was Cornet Samuel Dudley. See Littleton Records, p. 464; The Reade Record, 21:3-4; Charles Hudson, "History of the Town of Lexington" (Boston-New York, 1913), 2:573.

Children (all by first wife, recorded in Lexington):

   i. ABIJAH,[4] b. 18 May 1727, bapt. 21 May 1727; d. 3 May 1728.
8. ii. PETER, b. 16 Feb. 1729/30, bapt. 23 Feb. 1729/30.
   iii. ABIGAIL, b. 2 April 1731, bapt. 11 April 1731; d. in Bethlehem, N. H., in February 1820; m. 20 Nov. 1750 WILLIAM SHATTUCK.
   iv. MARY, b. 2 April 1733, bapt. 16 April 1733.
   v. SARAH, b. 26 April 1736; m. 26 Dec. 1753 NATHAN PIERCE.
9. vi. THOMAS, b. 3 Nov. 1739.
   vii. REBECCA, b. 24 May 1743.

4. DAVID[3] READ, son of Dr. Philip[2] Reade (Philip[1]) by his wife Thanks Dill, was born Concord 25 May 1710. His wife was named LOIS but of her we know nothing more. The children listed below all appear in the "Vital Records of Lexington", as indicated. A similar list appears in Charles Hudson, "History of the Town of Lexington" (Boston-New York, 1913), 2:573, but are there attributed, mistakenly, to a David[2] Read, son of Philip[1] Read. Others, also, have attributed these children to Philip[3] Reade (Philip,[2] Philip[1]), but as we have shown above, it is hardly possible for him to have lived long enough to procreate so many.

Children (all recorded in Lexington):

   i. BEULAH,[4] b. 10 Jan. (probably) 1734/5.
   ii. PHILIP, b. 6 Aug. 1736.
   iii. DAVID, b. 7 April 1738, bapt. 11 April 1738.
   iv. LYDIA, b. 23 June 1740.
   v. SILAS, b. 23 Feb. 1742/3, bapt. 14 April 1742.

vi. Ruth, bapt. 29 April 1745.
vii. Persis, bapt. 8 Sept. 1745.

5. John[3] Read, son of Dr. Philip[2] Reade (Philip[1]) by his wife Thanks Dill, was born in Concord 7 Sept. 1714. He may have been, though this is far from certain, that John Read who married in Westford, 3 Feb. 1736/7, Abiel Butterfield. In any case, there was a John Read who died in Westford 19 Jan. 1767, aged 81, certainly a much older man than our John Read and a possible father for the husband of Abiel Butterfield. We print, however, a list of the children of John and Abiel (Butterfield) Read taken from the Westford records, with the warning that they may not really belong here.

Children:

i. Sarah, b. 16 June 1738.
ii. John, b. 1 Sept. 1740.
iii. Abigail, b. 21 July 1743.
iv. Willard, b. 15 Aug. 1746; d. in Westford 8 Feb. 1814, aged 67; m. in 1774 Olive Minot.
v. Lydia, bapt. 18 June 1749.
vi. Mary, bapt. 7 June 1752.
vii. Simeon, bapt. 9 May 1756.

6. Dr. Jacob[3] Read, son of Dr. Jacob[2] Reade (Philip[1]) by his wife Elizabeth Law, was born in Simsbury, Conn., 15 May 1700, baptized there on 19 May 1700, and died there on 8 Jan. 1775. He married there, 9 April 1724, Mary Hill, died in May 1773, daughter of John. Jacob Read's will is dated 14 Dec. 1774 (Simsbury Records, 1:175). It lists the children as below; in the distribution made by the daughter Mary on 3 June 1775 (ibid., 1:211), the children appear as Mary, Lydia, Elizabeth, Jacob, Titus, Sarah, Silas, Abijah, and Amy. William Moses, stepfather to this Jacob Read, conveyed to him on 24 July 1735 (ibid., vol. 6).

Children:

i. Mary,[4] b. 20 Jan. 1724/5, named fourth and as eldest daughter in the will; m. 9 Nov. 1752 Phinehas Bunce; perhaps m. (2), in 1773, Jonathan Edgerton.
ii. Lydia, b. 18 Nov. 1726, named fifth and as second daughter in the will; d. in 1806; m. 22 Jan. 1746/7 John[4] Barber (Samuel,[3] Thomas,[2] Thomas[1]), b. in 1719, d. in 1799 (see "Barber Genealogy", 54 f.).
iii. John, b. 20 June 1728; d. vita patris, not in the will.
iv. Elizabeth, b. 27 April 1729; d. vita patris but is named in the will as deceased, leaving heirs; m. 5 Aug. 1751 John Segar.
10. v. Jacob, b. 20 Aug. 1731, named as eldest son in the will.
11. vi. Titus, b. 9 Jan. 1735/6, named as second son in the will.
vii. Sarah, d. in Simsbury 11 Dec. 1736, not named in the will.
12. viii. Silas, b. 22 June 1737, third son in the will.
ix. Sarah, b. 8 July 1740, named sixth in the will; m. 5 May 1763 Joseph Case, said to have been b. 30 Nov. 1722, d. 13 Feb. 1801, formerly husband of Mary Fuller. I am unable to identify him, but he was not, as claimed, Joseph[3] (Joseph,[2] John[1]).
x. Amy, birth not recorded, not mentioned in the will, but appears in the distribution. Titus Read's wife was named Amy, but he was still living in 1782, seven years after the distribution was made. So far as discovered, none of the three sons known to have had issue had a daughter Amy.

7. JOHN[3] READ, son of Dr. Jacob[2] Reade (Philip[1]) by his wife Elizabeth Law, was born in Simsbury 20 June 1708, but the birth is not recorded in the vital records, though it appears in Woodbridge's Church Records, where the date of baptism is given as 1 May 1709. No guardianship has been found, a strange fact in view of the frequent changes of guardians of his brother and sister. It is also puzzling to see that he did not take the freeman's oath until 10 April 1748. He married in Simsbury, 17 Feb. 1736/7, HANNAH[4] HOLCOMB, born in 1710, died in Simsbury 27 March 1756, daughter of Joshua[3] Holcomb (Joshua,[2] Thomas[1]) by his wife Mary Hoskins, not Ruth Sherwood, as The Reade Record, 7:14, wrongly states, naming her grandmother instead of her mother. He left a will dated 25 Feb. 1792 when he died in Granby. His son Abner was named as executor and to him on 9 Oct. 1798 (Simsbury Records 164) the following receipted: John, Hannah, Lucy.

Children:

i. JOHN,[4] b. 19 June 1738, eldest son and of West Granby in the will; d. 11 July 1822, aged 67; m. MARY SPRING.

13. ii. MARTIN, b. in 1742, named second in will; d. 26 Nov. 1815.

iii. AMI, no birth record, not in the will; d. in Navana, Cuba, while in the army, 3 Sept. 1762.

iv. HANNAH, no birth record, eldest daughter in the will; m. DAVID[3] HAYES, son of George[2] Hayes (George[1]) by his wife Sarah. C. W. Hayes, "Hayes Genealogy" knows of only two children.

Children (surname Hayes):

1. David.
2. Theodore.
3. Zophar, m. Martha Higley.
4. Hannah.
5. Charlotte.

v. VIOLET, second daughter in will, no birth record; m. ISAAC SWAWN, SWAN, or SWAYNE.

vi. LUCY, third daughter in will, no birth record; m. ELIJAH HAYES.

14. vii. ABNER, b. 22 Feb. 1755.

15. viii. BENJAMIN, no birth record, third son in the will.

8. PETER[4] READ, son of Peter[3] Read (Philip,[2] Philip[1]) by his first wife Abigail Blodgett, was born in Lexington, Mass., 16 Feb. 1729/30. His wife, of whom nothing more is known, was named BETTY. During the Revolution he served in Lieutenant Aquila Jewett's company. See The Reade Record, 21:3-4.

Children (recorded in Littleton):

i. BETTY5, b. 22 Aug. 1752.
ii. CHARLES (twin), b. 22 Aug. 1752.
iii. ABIJAH, b. 15 July 1754, called Abigail in The Reade Record.
iv. SARAH (twin), b. 17 Jan. 1757.
v. ABIGAIL (twin), b. 17 Jan. 1757.
vi. MOLLY, b. 29 May 1759.

9. THOMAS[4] READ, son of Peter[3] Read (Philip,[2] Philip[1]) by his first wife Abigail Blodgett, was born in Lexington, Mass., 3 Nov. 1739. He married in Littleton, recorded in Concord, 11 May 1764, LUCY FARRER of Concord. We cannot determine whether she was the daughter of Jonathan and Rebecca (———) Farrar, born in Concord 29 April 1742, or the daughter of Samuel and Lydia (Barrett) Farrar, born there 27 April 1745. See "Littleton Records", p. 109; The Reade Record, 21:3-4.

Children:

i. Peter,[5] b. 14 April 1765.
ii. Thomas, b. 23 Jan. 1767; m. Anne Parkhurst.
iii. Simon, b. 31 Aug. 1768.
iv. Lucy, b. 9 July 1770.
v. Asa Farrer, b. 20 Sept. 1772.
vi. Deidamia, b. 22 Dec. 1774.
vii. Patty, b. 5 March 1777.
viii. Barnard, b. 27 April 1780.
ix. Theodore, b. 6 Sept. 1782.
x. Sukey, b. 31. Aug. 1785.

10. Jacob[4] Read, son of Dr. Jacob[3] Read (Jacob,[2] Philip[1]) by his wife Mary Hill, was born in Simsbury, Conn., 20 Aug. 1731. He married there, 7 Dec. 1766, Rebecca Wood, of New Haven, of whom we know nothing more.

Children (perhaps others):

i. Jacob,[5] b. in Simsbury 31 [month omitted] 1767.
ii. Elizabeth, b. 12 Dec. 1769.
iii. Rhoda, b. 6 March 1772.

11. Titus[4] Read, son of Dr. Jacob[3] Read (Jacob,[2] Philip[1]) by his wife Mary Hill, was born in Simsbury, Conn., 9 Jan. 1735/6. His wife was Amy Case, undoubtedly a descendant of John[1] Case of Simsbury and probably also of his son Richard[2] Case whose wife, Amy Reade, has been listed above, but we have not been able to identify her parents.

Children (recorded in Simsbury):

i. Titus,[5] b. 2 Nov. 1765; m. Mary or Polly———(see H. R. in The Hartford Times, B-3947, 10 May 1952).
Children:
1. Titus,[6] b. in Simsbury 4 July 1790.
2. Timothy, b. in Granville, Mass., 14 July 1796.
3. Hiram S., b. in West Parish, Granville, Mass. 10 Oct. 1803.
ii. David, b. 13 May 1767.
iii. George, b. 5 Aug. 1769.
iv. Amy, b. 23 Feb. 1772.
v. Daniel, b. 29 May 1774.
vi. Roswell, b. 19 Aug. 1776.
vii. Phinehas, b. 5 Jan. 1781.
viii. Ruth, b. 20 Sept. 1782.

12. Silas[4] Read, son of Dr. Jacob[3] Read (Jacob,[2] Philip[1]) by his wife Mary Hill, was born in Simsbury, Conn., 22 June 1737. He married there, 5 May 1763, Thanks Adams.

Children:

i. Orpha,[5] b. 17 Aug. 1764.
ii. Ruth, b. 17 May 1766; d. 15 Jan. 1775.
iii. Hannah, b. 27 June 1771.
iv. Alvin, b. 8 May 1774.

13. Martin[4] Read, son of John[3] Read (Jacob,[2] Philip[1]) by his wife Hannah Holcomb, was born in Simsbury, Conn., in 1742, and died 26 Nov. 1815. He married Mary Moore.

Children:

i. Martin,[5] b. 18 Dec. 1768, stillborn.
ii. Mary, b. 18 Aug. 1770.
iii. Truman, b. 14 March 1772, stillborn.
iv. Starling, b. 2 June 1773, stillborn.
v. Martin, b. 16 April 1775.
vi. Allyn, b. 17 Jan. 1777, stillborn.
vii. Eunice Moor, b. 13 Aug. 1780.
viii. Starling, b. 3 July 1783.
ix. Allen, b. ca. 1785.

14. Abner[4] Read, son of John[3] Read (Jacob,[2] Philip[1]) by his wife Hannah Holcomb, was born in Simsbury, Conn., 22 Feb. 1755, and died in West Granby, Mass., 11 July 1822, aged 67. He married, 20 March 1783, Mary Spring, of Salmon Brook, born 1 Feb. 1762, died 25 May 1832, aged 70/3/4. See The Reade Record, 7:14 (Bible on p. 8). His children Justin, Chester, Lyman, Lothrop, and Sylvester, removed to Portage County, Ohio, ca. 1840, according to The Reade Record.

Children:

i. Lucinda,[5] b. 12 June 1783.
ii. Justin, b. 4 Oct. 1784; d. in 1841.
iii. A son, b. 1 Jan. 1786, d. 4 Jan. 1786.
iv. Chester, b. 25 Sept. 1787.
v. Lyman, b. 5 June 1789.
vi. Lothrop, b. 30 March 1791.
vii. Permelia, b. 28 Dec. 1792.
viii. A daughter, b. 1 Sept. 1794; d. 5 Sept. 1794.
ix. Sylvester, b. 19 Sept. 1795; d. in 1880.
x. Shalor, b. 31 Aug. 1797; d. in 1869; m. Laura Farnham.
xi. Harriet, b. 28 March 1799; d. in 1873.
xii. Forrest, b. 9 May 1801; d. in 1872.
xiii. A son, b. 15 Sept. 1803.

15. Benjamin[4] Read, son of John[3] Read (Jacob,[2] Philip[1]) by his wife Hannah Holcomb, is named as third son in his father's will, but no birth record has been found. His wife was Thula Wilcox.

Children:

i. Philemon.[5]
ii. Thula.
iii. Benjamin.
iv. Cleophas.
v. Miranda.
vi. John.

THOMAS REMINGTON OF SUFFIELD, CONN., AND SOME OF HIS DESCENDANTS

By Louis Marinus Dewey, Esq., of Westfield, Mass.

1. Thomas[1] Remington of Windsor, Conn., was a freeman there in 1672. He removed to Suffield prior to the birth of his son Benjamin in 1677, and took the oath of allegiance in 1679 with his sons Thomas and John, they being then 16 years old and upwards. (Savage's Gen. Dict.) He died at Suffield 23 Feb. 1721. His wife, Mehitable Walker of Windsor, died 17 Dec. 1718.

Children, in the probable order of birth:

i. Thomas,[2] d. 16 Dec. 1683.
2. ii. John.
3. iii. Jonathan.
iv. Sarah, m. 24 Jan. 1688-9, Peter Rowe.*
4. v. Joseph, b. at Windsor 1 Sept. 1675.
vi. Benjamin, b. at Suffield 23 Dec. 1677; d. 4 Jan. 1767.

2. John[2] Remington (Thomas[1]) lived at Suffield; married there, first, 6 Dec. 1687, Margaret Scott, who died 14 July 1693; and secondly, 19 Dec. 1700, Hannah Hale, who died 1 Apr. 1768.

Child by first wife:

i. Sarah,[3] b. 22 Jan. 1688.

* Rose in Savage's Gen. Dict.

Children by second wife:

ii. THOMAS, b. 2 Feb. 1701–2.
5. iii. DANIEL, b. 10 Feb. 1705–6.
6. iv. SAMUEL, b. 5 Mar. 1706–7.
7. v. STEPHEN, b. 3 Jan. 1711–12.

JOHN[4] REMINGTON'S (No. 14) widow Patience married Abel Rising, and died 14 Dec. 1834, aged 89.

Amos Richardson.—The brief account in the Richardson Memorial of the posterity of Amos Richardson is inaccurate.

Amos Richardson, who married Rachel Farrington (p. 804), and settled at Coventry, Conn., was the son of Jonathan and Ann (Edwards); grandson of Stephen and Lydia (Gilbert), and great-grandson of the first Amos and Sarah. The author of the Gilbert Family, in the Register, vol. iv., is authority for the statement also found in the Memorial (p. 16), that Lydia Gilbert married Jonathan Richardson, and this error seems to have been derived from a careless reading of the will of Mary Gilbert, widow of Jonathan. The christian name of her daughter's deceased husband is not mentioned in this will, but it twice speaks of "my late grandson Jonathan Richaelson dec^{d}." This was the first Jonathan in the family, and he was probably named after Jonathan Gilbert, who states in his will dated Sept. 10, 1674, that "I give to my grandchild Jonathan Richelson 5 pounds." He was not baptized at Stonington, where the other children of Stephen are recorded, but the records there do not commence until after his birth, and he may have been baptized at some other place.

JAMES RISING OF SUFFIELD, CONN., AND SOME OF HIS DESCENDANTS

By Louis Marinus Dewey, Esq., of Westfield, Mass.

1. James[1] Rising of Boston removed to the Bermudas, where he was a church member, and brought letters from the pastor there, Nathaniel White, being admitted to the Salem, Mass., Church about 1662. He removed to Windsor, Conn., where he kept a ferry, and died at Suffield, Conn., 11 Sept. 1688.

He married, 7 July 1657, Elizabeth Hinsdale, daughter of Robert of Medfield. She died at Windsor, in 1669, as did another wife who died 2 Apr. 1674.

Children:

i. James,[2] d. unm at Suffield 24 July 1690. His inventory, taken 12 Aug. 1690, amounted to £12 5s., "to go to John Rising for caring for his brother during his sickness."

2. ii. John, b. abt. 1660.

iii. Moses, who was appointed guardian in 1720 to Moses, son of John Rising, late of Suffield, deceased, a minor less than 17 years old.

Perhaps others.

2. John[2] Rising (James[1]), born about 1660, lived at Suffield, and died there 11 Dec. 1719.

He married first, 27 Nov. 1684, SARAH HALE, who died 11 Oct. 1698; and secondly, 22 Sept. 1699, MARY MCLAFLIN, daughter of Robert of Brookfield, Mass., a Scotchman.

Widow Mary Rising married secondly, 11 July 1723, Jonathan Remington (see p. 179). She died 24 May 1764. On 23 May 1723, * she complained to the probate court that, owing to the extra expense of sickness and lameness of the children, all the legatees of her husband's estate should bear the expense equally.

Children by first wife:

i. SARAH,[3] b. 15 Nov. 1685; m. 1707–8, SAMUEL HALL (or HALE).
ii. HANNAH, b. 23 June 1687; d. soon.
iii. EUNICE, b. 17 Mar. 1688–9; d. 16 Sept. 1689.
iv. HANNAH, b. 26 July 1690. The will of Hannah Rising of Hadley, Mass., dated Aug. 1751, proved 20 July 1757, mentions Mrs. Sarah Williams, wife to Rev. Chester Williams of Hadley; brother John Rising's daughter Hannah; to children of Jonathan Ingraham, late of Hadley, deceased, viz., Jonathan, John, and Mary, 20 shillings each; to brother John Rising of Suffield the rest of the estate, he to be executor. Suffield records say that Hannah was b. 26 July 1690, and d. 2 Aug. 1690, but John Rising mentions a daughter Hannah in his will, 2 Apr. 1718. There must be an error in date of death, and possibly this record of death should apply to Hannah b. 23 June 1687.

3. v. JOHN (twin), b. 20 Feb. 1692–3.
4. vi. JAMES (twin), b. 20 Feb. 1692–3.

ABNER RISING OF LITCHFIELD, N. Y., AND SOME OF HIS DESCENDANTS

By Mrs. Julia C. (Rising) Woodbury of Providence, R. I.

In Oct. 1909 there was published in the Register (vol. 63, pp. 333–341) an article by Louis Marinus Dewey of Westfield, Mass.,[1] entitled "James Rising of Suffield, Conn., and Some of His Descendants." In that article (p. 335) Abner[4] Rising (6, vi), a son of Aaron[3] and Sarah (Hamblin) Rising, is said to have been born at Suffield 20 Jan. 1748 and to have married (intention recorded at Southwick, Mass., 31 July 1774) Abigail Devotion. No further information is given there about Abner[4] Rising and his wife, nor is any mention made of their children. It is the purpose, therefore, of the contributor of the present article to supplement Mr. Dewey's record of the Rising family by adding an account, in the usual genealogical form, of Abner[4] Rising and some of his descendants. This additional information has been derived from records left by Mrs. Esther J. (Gallup) Rising, wife of Milo Moses[6] Rising (infra, No. 13), and completed by her niece, the compiler of this article.

1. Abner[4] Rising (Aaron,[3] John,[2] James[1]), sixth child and fourth son of Aaron[3] Rising,* was born at Suffield, then in Massachusetts but since 1749 in Connecticut, 20 Jan. 1748, and died at Litchfield, N. Y., 3 Jan. 1839. He married (intention recorded at Southwick, Mass., 30 July 1774) Abigail Devotion of Suffield, who was born 16 Jan. 1751 and died 10 Feb. 1846, daughter of Edward and Mary (Tute) Devotion.*

At the time of the Revolution he lived at Southwick, and served from 21 Oct. to 17 Nov. 1776, 28 days, as a private in Lieut. Solomon Stevens's detachment from Capt. Silas Fowler's company, Col. John Mosley's (Hampshire County) regiment. This detachment marched under command of Lieut. Col. Timothy Robinson to reinforce the Northern Army. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors of the Revolutionary War, vol. 13, p. 353.)

In 1801 he moved from Granville, Mass., to Litchfield, N. Y., to the locality which was then called Snowsbush and is now known as Cedar Lake. The old homestead near Cedar Lake, occupied successively by Abner,[4] Moses,[5] and George G.[6] Rising, is now owned by Harvey M.[7] Rising.

The family burial lot, enclosed by an iron fence, is near the entrance of what is known as the Goodier Burying Ground, at Cedar Lake, Litchfield.

DESCENDANTS OF JOHN ROBERTS OF SIMSBURY, CT. AND BLOOMFIELD, CT.

By Lester A. Roberts, Esq., of Brooklyn, N. Y.

1. John[1] Roberts, the earliest known progenitor of the family, is first found in Simsbury, Ct., May 21, 1688, when that town granted him ten acres of land for a home lot, that was followed by grants of other lands for pasturage, etc. These lands, located in the westerly part of the town near the Granby line, he sold in 1694, and in February, 1696–7, he bought eight acres "on the east side of the Mountain toward Simsbury east bounds, eastward of Mr Moores Marsh," and a second piece of 20 acres. These lands were in that part of the town afterward annexed to Bloomfield and known as Duncaster district, and on the smaller piece he resided till his death, about 1734. He married Patience Saxton, of Windsor, Ct., who was born June 28, 1658. She was daughter of Richard and Sarah Cook Saxton. Richard came to New England in the ship Blessing, and was in Windsor as early as 1643. The children of John and Patience Roberts were as follows:

i. Penelope,[2] b. Jan. 24, 1688; d. 1697.
ii. Ann, b. Feb. 10, 1689.
2. iii. Richard, b. April 2, 1692; d. 1751.
iv. Sarah, b. April 27, 1694.
v. John, b. July 19, 1696; d. 1724, probably unmarried.
3. vi. William, d. Jan. 4, 1761.
4. vii. Lemuel, b. 1700; d. Sept. 10, 1772.
5. viii. Nathaniel, bapt. March 24, 1704; d. March 4, 1776.

2. Richard[2] Roberts (John[1]) was born April 2, 1692, died in 1751. He married Deborah, daughter of John and Deborah Thrall Moses, of Simsbury. She died March, 1777, aged about 88 years. They had children:

i. Richard,[3] b. March 25, 1717; d. about 1743.
ii. Penelope, b. Feb. 27, 1721–2; m. Joseph Adams, Sept. 6, 1742.
iii. John, b. June 5, 1731.

3. William[2] Roberts (John[1]) died Jan. 4, 1761; married Sarah Mills, March 12, 1728. Their children were:

i. Sarah,[3] b. Nov. 30, 1728.
ii. Ann, b. Jan. 20, 1730; d. Nov. 9, 1732.
iii. Ezekiel, b. April 15, 1732.
iv. Daniel, b. Feb. 15, 1735.
6. v. William, b. Nov. 20, 1736; d. about 1774.
vi. May, b. Feb. 4, 1738–9.
vii. Moses, b. Dec. 24, 1740. viii. Aaron, b. April 16, 1744.

Of this family I find nothing definite. William (v.) doubtless married Phœbe Wilcox and went to Canton. The records of St. Andrews Church, North Bloomfield, Ct., have among baptisms, "Children of Ezekiel Roberts viz Aaron July 27, 1766; Daniel Sept. 10, 1769, and another Daniel Sept. 19, 1775, and Susannah Sept. 19, 1775." Also Sabra, female child of Moses Roberts, Nov. 27, 1768, but of none of these children do I find further. On the mountain, near the Adams Notch, lived once an aged couple remembered as Capt. Zeke Roberts, and Sue Zeke, who probably were of this family.

4. Lieut. Lemuel[2] Roberts (John[1]) was born about 1700, and "died Sept. 10, 1772, in the 72[d] year of his age." He was made lieutenant of the "train band of Simsbury" by the General Assembly in 1743. He married Abigail, daughter of Samuel Beaman, Nov. 7, 1731. They had children:

i. Abigail,[3] b. Sept. 15, 1732; d. Sept. 30, 1773, single.
ii. Lydia, b. April 14, 1735; m. Thomas Beaumont of Hartland, Ct., Jan. 18, 1753.
iii. Phœbe, b. Dec. 6, 1738; m. John Waters, Sept. 29, 1768.
iv. Lucy, b. Sept. 11, 1740; m. John Fitch, inventor of steamboats, Dec. 29, 1766. Their children were Shaylor, b. Nov. 3, 1768, m. Louisa Borden, Oct. 12, 1794; Lucy, b. 1769, d. 1807, m. James Kilbourn.
7. v. Lemuel, b. Oct. 2, 1742; d. Dec. 19, 1789; m. Ruth Woodford.
8. vi. Nathaniel, bapt. March 24, 1745; d. July 31, 1800; m. Rhoda Woodford, twin with Ruth.
vii. Margaret, bapt. May 28, 1749; d. Jan. 8, 1752.

5. Rev. NATHANIEL[3] ROBERTS (John[1]) was baptized March 24, 1704; died March 4, 1776. He was graduated by Yale College and ordained and settled as minister in Torrington, Ct. He married, Nov. 22, 1743, Margaret Marsh, of Windsor, Ct., and Nov. 7, 1748, Esther Loomis. By wife Esther he had:

   i. MARGARET,[3] b. June 5, 1759, who married Samuel Cummings.

6. WILLIAM[3] ROBERTS (William,[2] John[1]) was born Nov. 20, 1736. He married Phœbe Wilcox about 1756, and lived in Canton. He lost his life in an attempt to cross the dam at Segur's Mill, at low water, about 1774. Their children were:

   i. WILLIAM,[4] Jr., d. 1824; m. Margaret Merrill. They removed from Canton, Ct., to Ohio, and raised a large family of children, many of whose descendants are now living in and about Trumbull Co., Ohio; but I have been unable to get accurate information concerning them.
   ii. MARTIN, m. —— Moses. They removed to the state of New York, and afterwards to the "far west."
   iii. PHŒBE, b. 1761; d. 1837; m. Riverius Bidwell. They moved to Ohio when the youngest child was a little girl.
   iv. LUCINA, d. 1816; m. David Taylor. Their children were: David, Sylvester Pomeroy, Edmund, Lucina, who married Joel Bacon, Sally, Mindwell and Celestia.
   v. REUBEN, d. 1789, unmarried.
   vi. MINDWELL, b. 1769; d. 1833; m. Gurdon Humphrey.
   vii. ELIZABETH, d. 1844; m. William Humphrey.
   viii. ASENATH, m. Thomas Gleason.

7. LEMUEL[3] ROBERTS (Lemuel,[2] John[1]) was born Oct. 2, 1742; died Dec. 19, 1789. He married Ruth Woodford, of Northington, now Avon, Ct. He was variously known as Esquire, Judge and Captain. During the Revolutionary War he was engaged in the commissary department, but I have no evidence that he served as a soldier. To pay for provisions for the army he raised money by mortgaging land on Talcot Mountain, where the tower now stands. Government paid him in continental money, and the property was sacrificed. His stern patriotism made him some enemies, and in 1787 a protest by them was made to the General Assembly against his reappointment as Justice of the Peace, but without avail. (See vol. 3 Miscellaneous Papers in the State Library, Hartford, Ct.) He was found dead one morning at the foot of stone steps from a house in which he had held a court the evening before. Being lame, he was the last to leave, and if he fell or was thrown down the steps was never known. On his grave-stone in the Bloomfield burial-ground, under the usual inscription, are the following lines:

> "No Cordial to revive his heart,
> No one to hold his head,
> No friend to close his dying eyes;
> The ground was his death bed."

The children of Lemuel and Ruth were:

9. i. LEMUEL,[4] b. April 17, 1766; d. July 2, 1829; m. Roxy Gillet.
   ii. RUTH, b. Jan. 24, 1768; d. May 31, 1847; m. Ezra Griswold, and went to Worthington, O., in 1803. They were the first white family there.
   iii. HANNAH, b. March 15, 1770; m. Augustus Filley.
10. iv. SAMUEL, b. March 28, 1772; d. 1846; m. 1st, Elethea Calkins; m. 2d, Pamela Patchen.
   v. LOIS, b. Aug. 22, 1774; d. 1847; m. Zopher Topping and went early to Ohio.

vi. Eunice, b. Aug. 22, 1774; m. James Goodwin of Hartford. Their children were James, Jonathan and Jeanette.
vii. Hezekiah, b. June 5, 1776; d. same day.
11. viii. Hezekiah, bapt. Aug. 26, 1781; m. Harriet King.

8. Nathaniel[3] Roberts (Lemuel,[2] John[1]) was baptized March 24, 1745; died July 31, 1800. Married Rhoda Woodford, of Northington, now Avon, Ct. Their children were:

i. Rhoda,[4] b. Dec. 11, 1766; m. Elisha Allyn.
ii. Nathaniel, b. Nov. 13, 1768; d. Nov. 19, 1813, single.
iii. Lydia, b. March 20, 1771; m. Melancthon Foster. Children, Electa and Hannah.
iv. Orpha, b. July 16, 1773; m. Hezekiah Holcomb, 1791.
v. Electa, b. Oct. 1775; m. William Adams, Jr. Children, Chester and Tudor.
12. vi. Erastus, b. June 25, 1781; m. Lois Colton, Nov. 24, 1803; m. 2d, Hilpah Holcomb, Aug. 21, 1805.
13. vii. Chester, b. July 18, 1785; m. Harriet Wilson, Oct. 12, 1806.

9. Lemuel[4] Roberts (Lemuel,[3] Lemuel,[2] John[1]) was born April 17, 1766; died July 2, 1829; married Oct. 5, 1786, Roxy, daughter of Amos and Susannah (Webster) Gillet. Their children were:

i. Roxy,[5] b. 1787; d. July 4, 1882; m. Elijah Taylor—had Cordelia; m. 2d, Russell Wells—had Russell and Samuel R.

quence of his sound judgment and impartial decisions he was universally consulted by his townsmen on matters both public and private, being by all highly esteemed and respected. He represented his district in the state senate, filled important local offices, and but for his modesty and retiring disposition would doubtless have taken high position in the political world, for which he was well qualified. He was early enrolled among the friends of temperance and anti-slavery, and was a willing worker in any cause tending to promote human happiness. He married, Nov. 24, 1825, Polly Bidwell. 27. Charles Sedgwick[6] Roberts (Virgil B.,[5] Samuel,[4] Lemuel,[3] Lemuel,[2] John[1]) was born Sept. 17, 1848; married E. Josepha Smith, Nov. 26, 1884. Have one child:

i. E. Jessie,[7] b. Nov. 1, 1886.

28. William Harrison[6] Roberts (Harvey J.,[5] Erastus,[4] Nathaniel,[3] Lemuel,[2] John[1]) was born Sept. 15, 1839. He married Carrie J. Macomber, Dec. 20, 1882. They had:

i. An infant daughter,[7] d. August, 1884.
ii. Mary Elizabeth, b. June 24, 1885.

Robinson Family.—In the article in the Geneological Register for January, 1860, page 20, I stated that Thomas, son of Isaac, removed to Guilford, Conn. Information since received makes it probable that the Thomas of Guilford, who conveyed lands in Edgartown, June 19, 1706, was a son of the Thomas who was of Hartford as early as 1640, and removed with his family about 1660 to Guilford. The children of Thomas of Hartford and Guilford, were: Thomas, born about 1650, died in Guilford, 1712; Jonathan, David, Ann, Mary Saint and Elizabeth. Jonathan died young, all the others had families.

The fact that Isaac Robinson in his deeds of lands to his children residing at Martha's Vineyard, does not name a son Thomas, is negative evidence that he had no son Thomas living when he removed from that island in the year 1701. The only reference to a Thomas Robinson in the Tisbury town, or the Duke's county records, is the deed to which reference has been made. This is not sufficient to prove that Thomas, son of Isaac, was living June 19, 1706.

MR. THOMAS ROBINSON OF GUILFORD (CONN.) AND HIS DESCENDANTS.

Compiled by Hon. R. D. Smyth and communicated by Dr. Bernard C. Steiner.

1. Mr. Thomas[1] Robinson came to Guilford about 1665, and bought the Caffinch place there. On Nov. 1, 1667, the town granted him a parcel of land at Beggar's Marsh, of about nineteen acres, and as part of his third division of land, about two or three acres at the south end of his out lot. His home lot contained about two acres, and was between the lot belonging to Thomas Cooke, Jr., and "the Crittendens' land." He was styled "Gentleman" in the town records. On Oct. 3, 1679, by deed of warranty, he conveyed his home lot "with all and singular fences, fruit trees, privileges and appurtenances" to his son "Thomas Robinson, Jr., Cooper." On Nov. 5, 1675, James Kingsnorth testified under oath that with Thomas Cruttenden "he went to view Mr. Robinson's arms about ten days before he went hence to go to Farland," and "saw that he had not above sixteen bullets and also heard Mr. Robinson confess that he wanted powder to make up his quantity according to law."

Mr. Robinson's purchase of the Caffinch home lot brought into the family the land which is still owned by his descendants, the children of Rev. Harry Robinson. (There was a long suit between Mr. Robinson and the town of Guilford about a fence built by the former, which suit is discussed in Steiner's History of Guilford, pp. 112–114.)

Thomas[1] Robinson died 1689. He married Mary ———, who died July 26, 1668.

vii. Mary, m. Timothy Parsons of Durham, Nov. 3, 1719.
viii. Hannah, m. Benjamin Miller of Durham.

4. Samuel[3] Robinson (Thomas,[2] Thomas[1]) of Guilford, was a magistrate of New Haven County from 1753 until his death, and eighteen times between 1738 and 1763 represented Guilford in the General Assembly of Connecticut. He was a man of thought and worth, and always had the confidence of his fellow citizens. For fifty-one years, and until his death, after the early death of his wife, he remained a widower. He married Rachel, daughter of Thomas Strong of Durham, who died æ. 25, April 20, 1725.

Their only child was:

i. Samuel,[4] b. April 5, 1725; d. Oct. 16, 1802; m. Elizabeth, daughter of Nathaniel Bishop, Jr., May 25, 1760. She died March 1, 1797. He represented the town of Guilford in the General Assembly of 1778, and held other offices, among them that of member of the Committee of Correspondence, for the town, in 1774. Samuel and Elizabeth Robinson had one child: 1. Col. Samuel,[5] b. March 12, 1761; d. Nov. 17, 1839. He was a prominent citizen of the town, serving in 1809 on a committee to draft resolutions against the embargo, and contributing $200, in 1828, for the building of the First Congregational Church, in which he was a deacon. He was frequently a representative in the General Assembly. He married (1) Content, daughter of James[4] Robinson, March 29, 1786. She died æ. 46, Sept. 20, 1813. He married (2) Sarah Caldwell, Dec. 20, 1815. She died April 17, 1839. By his first wife he had: (1) Sally,[6] b. June 3, 1787; d. Dec. 18, 1829; m. ROBINSON NOTES.—The Thomas Robinson records, in the REGISTER, ante, pages 57–9, give the second wife of David[2] Robinson (Thomas[1]) as "Mary ———." Her parentage and further ancestry may be obtained of Miss C. L. Sands, Meriden, Conn. *

Though a descendant of above David,[2] Sr., and his first wife Abigail Kirby, I have never heard of his unfortunate fate so harshly recounted in the records. As an offset, I send you the inscription from the tombstone of David,[3] Jr., which has never been published to my knowledge, and, for its closing sentence, may be thought worthy of preserving.

"This monument is erected to perpetuate the memory of the aged and venerable Mr. David Robinson, who having served his generation according to the will of God, fell on sleep the 9th. day of February 1780 in the 86 year of his age. The whole number of his children and grandchildren and great-grandchildren was one hundred and seventy five of which one hundred and forty eight now survive him."

The wife of Phineas[4] Robinson (David,[3] David,[2] Thomas[1]), on page 59, is given as "Susannah ———." She was Susannah, daughter of Samuel[3] Fenn and his wife Ruth ———; son of James[2] Fenn and wife Joanna Prudden; son of Benjamin[1] Fenn and his second wife, Susannah Ward. Susannah,[5] daughter of Phineas[4] and Susannah (Fenn) Robinson, bapt. Aug. 14, 1760, m. Ozias Cornwell* of Middletown, Conn., and West Granville, Mass. For descendants, see Cornwall Genealogy, page 78, published by the Tuttle, Morehouse & Taylor Co., New Haven, Conn.

The tombstone of Ruth ———, wife of Samuel[3] Fenn, of Durham, gives her death as Nov. 13, 1773, in her 67th year. I would be glad to know of any Ruth, born 1706 or 1707, undisposed of in marriage to another. J. M. T.

THE ROGERS FAMILY OF NEWPORT, R. I., AND MIDDLETOWN, CONN.

[Communicated by Enos Johnson, Jr. Esq., of Chicago, Ill.]

The following genealogical data, being the Bible record of the family of John Rogers of Middletown, Conn., and of his father, Joseph Rogers, of Newport, Rhode Island, and afterwards of Middletown, have been faithfully copied from the same Bible.

I think it not a little singular that Farmer and Savage are both silent regarding this Newport family of Rogers, as I find in the "Rhode Island Colonial Records" that James Rogers was admitted freeman at Newport, Sept. 7, 1640; was elected sergeant of the General Assembly 15 March, 1643, and continued such until 1664; and was also the solicitor-general in 1657. In 1676 his widow, Mary Rogers (then Mary Peabody), petitions to settle his accounts. And from the same records I find that Thomas and John Rogers were admitted freemen at Newport in 1668.

I wish to ascertain, if possible, who was the ancestor of this Joseph Rogers of Newport. It will be observed that the Bible record gives the time of his death (Oct. 1711), place of burial (Newport), and the Christian name (Elizabeth) of his wife, who died at Tiverton, R. I.

"John Rogers, was married to Patience [torn] [the family say—Miller] November 22, 1757, by the Reverend Mr. William Russell. John was Born Sept. 18, 1758, on Monday, 9 P.M. Abigail was Born on Tuesday at 9 A.M., 15 April, 1760. Sarah was Born January 28, 1762, on Thursday. Joseph was Born May 5, 1764. Timothy was Born March 3^{d} at 10, A.M., 1766, on Monday. Constant and Patience was Born the 22^{d} April, 1768, on a Friday, both at a Birth. William was Born July 26, 1770, on Thursday at 10 in the Morning. A Son Born 25 July 1772 and Died y^{e} 28 July y^{e} 3^{d} day after born. Hannah was Born May 4, 1774, on Wednesday at 4 o'clock, P.M. Fanny was Born March 24, 1778, on Thursday at 11 o'clock at night.

Joseph Died Dec. 25, 1783, at Ocoyes in High Spinola. Hannah Died Nov. 22^{d} 1793, aged 19½ years on Friday at about 6 o'clock. Much Lamented by all that were acquainted with her.

March 27, 1805. This day received the melancholy announcement of the Death of my son John. He fell overboard and was drowned on the Coast of Carolina, on the first day of this Month at 8 o'clock in the Morning. O! sad news to relate. May God be pleased to sanctify this bereaving stroke of his providence to all our family, and while we call to remembrance his good and amiable disposition, and the many kind offices received from him, and how much disappointed we are in our future hopes and expectations, and now he is no more, may his memory be precious to us as long as life lasts.

August 25, 1807. My beloved Wife Died at 6 o'clock, afternoon.

September 15, 1808. John Rogers was married to Elizabeth Whitmore by the Rev^{d} Enoch Huntington on a Wednesday and she Died the 15th February following aged 67 years much lamented.

What followeth was written in my Honored Fathers Bible, viz. :

Joseph Rogers was Married to Dorothy Wood 16 March 1726. Mary was Born Oct^{r}. 4, 1730; wrong, it was 25th Jan'y, 1728. Joseph was Born Oct^{r}. 4, 1730. Elizabeth was Born January 4, 1733, and Died Aug. 29, 1735. John was born June 16, 1736. Constant was Born October 15, 1738. Abigail was Born Aug. 20, 1740, and Died Sept. 20, 1741. Elizabeth was Born May 4, 1743, in Middletown, Conn.

All above written were born at Newport in Rhode Island. I wrote this on New Years day at night, 1743–4. I then being in the fortieth year of my age till the 15th of May next. By account my Wife now 37 years of age Dec^{r} 11th last past.

Abigail was Born April 10, 1745, at half after 6, A.M. Samuel was Born Feb. 19, 1748, on Friday at 4 o'clock afternoon. Elnathan was Born May 9, 1752.

Our Honored Father Joseph, Died Sep. 16, 1751, A. 47. Abigail Died Sept^{r}. 30, 1753, Æ. 9 years. Joseph was lost at Sea with Capt. Edward Johnson on his passage from Surrinam, which place he left 10 Feby, 1756. Constant was unfortunately drowned on Saybrook Bar being bound on a Voyage to the West Indies aged 19 years. It was on the 23^{d} Dec^{r}. 1757.

Our Honored Mother Dorothy Died July 29, 1777, Aged 72 years.

May, 1750. This I found written on my Mother's Grave. "Elizabeth Rogers aged about 27 years, Died May 25 [torn] in Tiverton." My Honored Father lies interred at Newport. Died Octr. 1711, whose Memory for a long time will be precious."

HOPE ROGERS.

By James Swift Rogers, Esq., of Boston, Mass.

The following imperfect record of Hope Rogers and his descendants is offered with the hope of eliciting something concerning his parentage, brothers and sisters, etc.

The first record thus far discovered is in Windham County, Ct., records, that Hope Rogers of Mansfield bought lands of John Waldo, in Windham, June 5, 1713. 100 A. for 115 pounds sterling. He married Nov. 14, 1715, Esther Meacham. The record of his children is also found in the Windham Co. records.

One correspondent writes that Hope had four wives and thirteen children, but fails to name any wife except Esther Mecham, or any children except the ten given in Windham records.

According to one tradition, he was the only son of Joseph Rogers, who married Sarah Cuvier (or Currier). Shortly after his marriage he joined an expedition to Port Royal, where he was probably killed by the Indians, or French, as he was never heard from afterwards. Hope was so named in hopes of his father's return. The same tradition states that Joseph was one of four brothers who came from England and settled in Salem, Mass.

This last clause does not strengthen one's faith in the first.

The children of Hope and Esther (Meacham) were:

i. Joseph,[2] b. Aug. 5, 1716; d. infant.
ii. Ishmael, b. July 7, 1717.
iii. Ichabod, b. Jan. 19, 1719; m. Nov. 10, 1743, Priscilla Holt, dau. of Elias and Mary (Bixbee) Holt. She b. Andover, Mass., Sept. 14, 1725.
2. iv. Josiah, b. Oct. 7, 1720.
3. v. Jethro, b. April 14, 1722.
4. vi. Jeduthan, b. Feb. 16, 1724.
vii. Sarah, b. Feb. 21, 1726; m. Oct. 11, 1744, Robert Greene.
viii. Mary, b. Oct. 6, 1727.
ix. Joel, b. Oct. 14, 1729.
x. Ruth, b. Aug. 23, 1732.

2. Josiah[2] Rogers (Hope[1]), born Oct. 7 (or 18) 1720; died Dec. 4, 1815; married, March 1, 1743, Hannah Ford. She born Sept. 19, 1726, and died July 10, 1778, in the wilderness between Sunbury and Reading, Penn., while fleeing from the Indians at the Wyoming massacre. He was tithing man of Windham in 1760. He subsequently moved to Pennsylvania. After the Wyoming massacre, he returned to Wyoming and died there in 1815.

The children of Josiah and Hannah (Ford) were:

5. i. Jonah,[3] b. Dec. 15, 1743.
ii. Josiah, b. Aug. 15, 1747; d. infant.
iii. Hannah, b. July 15, 1748.

3. Jethro[2] Rogers (Hope[1]), born April 14, 1722; married Hannah Holt, Oct. 8, 1747. She daughter of Elias and Mary (Bixbee) Holt, born March 11, 1730, Andover, Mass.

The children of Jethro and Hannah (Holt) were:

i. Oliver,[3] b. April 14, 1748, Hampton, Ct.
ii. Bixbee, b. Dec. 18, 1749; d. infant.

4. Jeduthan[2] Rogers (Hope[1]), born Feb. 16, 1724; died Nov. 19, 1800; married first, Oct. 21, 1747, Anna Farnam (or Farnham). She died, Dec. 30, 1762; married second, Oct. 12, 1763, Hannah Knight; married third, Oct. 4, 1772, Eunice (Putnam) Burgess, widow. He was selectman of Hampton, Conn., 1785.

Children of Jeduthan and Anna (Farnam) were:

i. Jeduthan,[3] b. March 24, 1748; d. June 24, 1750.
ii. Ann, b. Dec. 10, 1749; m. Jan. 21, 1770, Ambrose Ames of Mansfield.
iii. Esther, b. March 6, 1751; d. Sept. 6, 1753.
6. iv. Jeduthan, b. March 4, 1753.
v. Esther, b. Jan. 7, 1755; d. Jan. 21, 1756.
vi. Lucy, b. Oct. 24, 1756; m. Amos Geer. Res. Monson, Mass.

HOPE ROGERS.—My attention has repeatedly been called to a seeming misstatement which occurs in the REGISTER, Vol. 55, page 51, in my contribution * upon "Hope Rogers," under No. 15, James Hervey[4] Rogers. It would there appear that the mother of John Webster, Gov[r]. of Connecticut, was descended from William Bradford, Gov[r]. of Plymouth Colony; but it is a typographical error, overlooked in the proofreading, and the paragraph should read "* * * Noah Webster, whose father was a descendant of John Webster of Hartford, Ct. (John Webster was Governor of Conn.), and his mother was a descendant of William Bradford, Governor of Plymouth Colony." See Memoir of Noah Webster, in Webster's International Dictionary. ROSSITER.—Can any one inform me what relationship there was between Edward and Hugh Rossiter, early settlers of Dorchester? Both had daughters Jane, and this name seems to have been continued to later generations in this family. Edward's daughter, then "widow Jane Hart," petitioned the government for aid in 1685, setting forth that she was the youngest surviving child of Edward Rossiter, and her age was 70 years. Hugh's daughter Jane married, before 1643 ("one of the earliest marriages of Taunton"), Thomas Gilbert of Taunton. This "Jane Gilbert, mother of Thomas Gilbert, Jr., died June 1, 1691, æ. 77 years."

"Jane (Rossiter) Hart, youngest surviving child of Edward Rossiter of Dorchester, died æ. 70." "It is ordered that John Phillips shall have for Edward Hart, Three quarters of an acre of medowe at Squantum necke" (Dorchester Town Records). See REGISTER, vol. xxi. p. 335. Was she wife or mother of this Edward Hart? Edward Rossiter, a grandson of the assistant, in a letter dated March 28, 1682 (REGISTER, vol. xxii. p. 457), speaks of his grandfather as "a pious gentleman of good estate, who left England for the sake of religion." He (the grandfather) died Oct. 23, 1630, much lamented, leaving a son who afterwards lived in Combe, in Devonshire, and Dr. Brian Rossiter who accompanied his father from England. and Mrs. Jane Hart above named. Dr. Bryan Rossiter had a daughter Joanna (Jane), born 1642, who married at Weathersfield, Conn., Nov. 7, 1660, the Rev. John Cotton, of Plymouth, Mass.

In the history of Guilford, Conn., by Smith, p. 18, we read, "Dr. Brian Rossiter of Guilford, Conn., is said to have come over originally with five or six brothers to Boston, on the 1st settlement of the country, he was early settler of Windsor—of Guilford and Killingworth—d. at Guilford Sep. 30, 1672—had wife Elizabeth."

In the Dorchester town records, Feb. 1634 (see REGISTER, vol. xxi. p. 330), "it is graunted, vnto Hugh Rosciter and Richard Rocket, to have each of them, 8 acres of land on the west side of the brooke adjoyning to m^r. Rosciter^s ground," &c.

In Baylies's History of New Plymouth, vol. i., pt. 1, p. 286, mention is made of Hugh Rossiter as one "of the first and ancient purchasers."

"Hugh Rossiter of Taunton 1637 sold out at Taunton before 1675, to Joseph Willis, and went to Connecticut." In what part of Connecticut did he settle, and had he a daughter Avis?

DR. BRYAN (OR BRAY) ROSSITER OF GUILFORD, CONN., AND HIS DESCENDANTS.

Compiled by HON. R. D. SMYTH and communicated by DR. BERNARD C. STEINER.

1. DR. BRYAN (OR BRAY) ROSSITER (the name is also spelled Rosseter) was a son of Edward Rossiter, and came to America with his father in the Mary and John, in 1630. He was made freeman at Dorchester, Mass., in 1631; removed to Windsor, Conn., in 1639, where he was town clerk, and came to Guilford, buying Mr. Samuel Desborough's estate, in 1651. It is said that he was the only physician in Connecticut colony at the time of his removal to Guilford. His medical practice was very

* This was William Bowes, loyalist, whose name appears in the list of those who, in 1778, were proscribed as enemies of the new State. He went to England, where he died in 1805.

extensive, and he is supposed to have performed the first autopsy in Connecticut. Shortly after removing to Guilford, he fell out with Gov. William Leete and the majority of the townspeople, very probably because his own son-in-law was not chosen to the vacant pulpit. The difficulties increased, and at the time of the struggle over the union with Connecticut, he placed himself at the head of the party favoring immediate union. (See Steiner's History of Guilford, for fuller account.) He was admitted as a freeman in Guilford, June 8, 1654, and though he left the town for a time, when Killingworth was settled, he returned and died there, Sept. 30, 1672. Where he studied medicine is unknown. His grandson, John Cotton, in 1713, wrote he was "one who made conscience in his demands for his service." He was also a surveyor, and laid out the lands about the Hammonasset River, in 1656. The following extract from a letter written to his daughter Joanna, and her husband, Rev. John Cotton, on Sept. 24, 1669, show his deeply religious character: "We have had a sore visitation again by sickness and mortality here in Guilford this summer, as the last. Our graves are multiplied and fresh earth heaps are increased. Coffins again and again have been carried out of my doors. I have taken up a lot amongst the tombs in the midst of them; Sister Sarah died August 10th. Her mother was overcome with grief, so that for ten days she refused to eat what was necessary to sustain nature, and spent that time in sighing and bitter mourning to the decay of her strength, and the distemper siezed on her and she died August 29th. Then on the second day of the week following, the young daughter Sarah sickened [i. e., John Cotton's daughter], and on the fourth day convulsion fits followed and she died September the 8th; the same day Josias came home from Killingworth very sick, under the sentence of death in himself and lay very dangerously hazardous for many days, but is now nearly recovered, that is a mercy. Yet I must return to sighs and sorrows, saying as Naomi did, 'Call me Marah!' I was full but now am empty. The good Lord support your hearts when these sad tidings come to you. Sarah Rosseter possessed the idea long before she was taken sick that she should die this summer and expressed so much to several. When death seized her, her mother desired her to give some testimony by sign of her good hope, if she could not speak. She fixed her eyes up to Heaven and smiled and so died, and when dead lay with a smiling countenance, to the admiration of the neighbors that were present. That is comforting. The mother had clear and full assurances of God's love before her death and held out to the last. She spent much time in prayer for her children—strongly pleading the covenant, and was strongly persuaded and believing that God had eternal mercy in store for them all. She was willing, nay desirous to die and could look death in the face with constant resolution until she had obtained the conquest through her dear Redeemer, who had conquered death and the grave. These are rich and comforting mercies, but the greater my loss, I can rejoice in her and their gain, but mourn my loss, the loss of a sweet companion, that hath so long been a comforting companion in all my tribulation. I will weep bitterly! I might have enlarged many things, but I can hold it no longer. Pray! Pray! Pray for us! So rests your loving father."

The children of Dr. Bryan and Mrs. Elizabeth Rossiter were:

i. Samuel,[2] b. ——; d. June 10, 1640.
2. ii. John, b. ——; d. Sept. 1670.

x. Sarah, b. ——; d. Aug. 10, 1669.

2. John[2] Rossiter (Bryan[1]), of Guilford and Killingworth, married, 1669, Mary Gilbert, daughter of Jonathan, of Hartford. After his death she married, 1673, Samuel Hotton, of Northampton. John Rossiter was a freeman in Guilford in 1659, and took a prominent part in supporting his father in his difficulties with New Haven Colony. His first home lot in Guilford contained four acres, and lay over against Thomas Clark's dwelling house; but in 1657 he exchanged it for one of 7½ acres in "the Plain," formerly the property of Abraham Cruttenden.

He and his wife had one child:

i. John, b. May 12, 1670, at Killingworth. Lost at sea.

3. Hon. Josiah[2] Rossiter (Bryan[1]) of Guilford, married Sarah, daughter of Hon. Samuel Sherman, of Woodbury. She died March 30, 1712, aged 58. He had a home lot of an acre on the south side of the Guilford Green, in 1710, and inherited from his father a parcel of upland of thirteen acres, and one of marsh land containing 6½ acres. His nephew, John Cotton, wrote of him, about 1713: "My uncle Josiah was a plain, honest country gentleman and who had so much learning and respect in that Government, as that he was chosen to the Upper House, being one of the Assistants." He represented Guilford nine times in the General Court, between 1683 and 1700, and then was assistant until 1711. In October, 1703, he was made Judge of the New Haven County Court and of the Probate Court. He was town clerk of Guilford from 1685 to 1706, and from 1707 to his death, in 1716. In 1687, an assistant clerk was appointed during his "providential weakness." He was one of the town's twelve patentees in 1685, and served on many important committees. In 1702, he was made first naval officer of Guilford, which was made one of the eight ports of entry in Connecticut. In 1676, he was ensign of the town train band.

His children were:

i. Sarah,[3] b. Nov. 26, 1677; bapt. at Woodbury, March 17, 1678; d. May 18, 1679.
ii. Elizabeth, b. April 1679; d. Sept. 17, 1698.
4. iii. Josiah, b. March 31, 1680; d. Sept. 23, 1751.
iv. Samuel, b. Jan. 28, 1681–2; d. Aug. 23, 1682.
5. v. Timothy, b. June 5, 1683; d. Feb. 7, 1724–5.
vi. John, b. Oct. 13, 1684; d. Jan. 8, 1686.
6. vii. Samuel, b. Feb. 28, 1685–6; d. Jan. 16, 1711.
viii. David, b. April 17, 1687; d. April 29, 1688.

ROSSITER.—My attention has been called to two errors in the article on the Rossiter family in the April REGISTER. The grandson of Dr. Bryan Rossiter referred to, page 150, line 10, was Josiah not John Cotton, and the date of the marriage of Joanna Rossiter to Rev. John Cotton should be 1660, and not 1670. *

DAVID RUSSELL (c. 1673-1752) OF KILLINGLY, CONN.

By George Ely Russell, of Bowie, Md.

Two apparently unrelated Russell men, David and John, were among the early settlers of Killingly, Windham Co., Conn. The second of these, John[3] Russell, from Weston, Mass., was born in Concord, Mass., 14 April 1686, son of Benjamin[2] (William[1]) and Rebecca Russell. He married in Cambridge, Mass., 30 March 1710, Elizabeth Patten of Menotomy. He settled in Killingly, 1718-1721, where he died in Thompson Parish 27 Dec. 1762. The other, David, is the subject of this study.*

1. David[1] Russell, the first of this Christian name in America, was born in 1673 or 1674 of yet unknown parentage or origin, died in Killingly, Conn., 9 May 1752, in 79th year. He married about 1713 Susannah Lawrence, widow of John Lawrence of Natick, Mass. She died 5 Feb. 1754.

A laborer of Woodstock, Conn., he purchased 250 acres in Killingly from Samuel Hooker's son 9 May 1707 and the next day 150 acres on the east side of the Quinebaug River in Killingly from Thomas Hart. In 1711 he sold 100 acres in Killingly to Daniel Lawrence† (Killingly Deeds, 1:31, 3:151). He was received into the Killingly First Church by letter 24 March 1717; both he and Susannah were listed as church members on an undated list. A husbandman of Killingly, 23 Feb. 1729/30, he paid £28 to his step-daughter Mercy (Lawrence) Fox and her husband Thomas Fox of Woodstock, as her share in the estate of her late father John Lawrence. On 1 Feb. 1732/3 in Killingly his step-son Samuel Lawrence gave a deed or receipt to David Russell.

Children:

2. i. STEPHEN,[2] b. about 1714.
3. ii. DAVID, b. about 1715.

2. STEPHEN[2] RUSSELL (David[1]) was born about 1714, baptized at the Killingly First Church in 1716. He married in Killingly, 19 Nov. 1735, LUCY CARTER.

They were members of the First Church. They lived in Gloucester, R. I., 1741-1745, after which they returned to Killingly where Stephen died 8 Oct. 1758. His widow Lucy was admitted to the Chesterfield, Mass., Congregational Church from the Killingly First Church in December 1779.

Children, born and baptized in Killingly unless otherwise noted (vital and church records):

i. BARZILLAI,[3] b. 15 Jan. 1738, bapt. 18 June 1738; d. in Killingly 25 Oct. 1739.
ii. MARY, b. 20 April 1740, bapt. 27 April 1740; d. in Killingly 5 Oct. 1754.
4. iii. DAVID, b. in Gloucester 2 Dec. 1741, bapt. 21 March 1742.
iv. LUCY, b. in Gloucester 9 April 1744.
v. STEPHEN, b. in Gloucester 7 March 1745; d. in Killingly 1 Oct. 1754.

viii. JOSEPH, b. 14 April 1754.
ix. MOLLY, b. 12 June 1756; m. ASA COLE of Belchertown, Mass. (intention 18 Sept. 1776, Chesterfield).

Probably the following were also related to Stephen Russell. Their marriages were performed by Rev. Benjamin Mills who officiated also at the marriage of David[3] Russell.

x. MARY, m. in Chesterfield, 9 Oct. 1768, NEHEMIAH SYLVESTER.
xi. MARTHA, m. in Chesterfield, 23 May 1771, JACOB FARR, both of Plantation No. 5 [Cummington, Mass.]

3. DAVID[2] RUSSELL (David[1]) was born about 1715. He married first, in Killingly, Conn., both of Killingly, 28 Jan. 1735/6, ANNA CARPENTER, died between 1755 and 1758; secondly, in Killingly, 15 May 1759, both of Killingly, SARAH READ, died there 5 July 1761; and thirdly, 11 March 1762, SARAH ANDREWS, recorded at both Gloucester, R. I. and Killingly.

David and Anna (Carpenter) Russell were members of the Killingly First Church; later, in 1752, she was admitted to the Killingly Breakneck Church. On 21 Nov. 1773 David's children by his first wife (the youngest child having attained aged 21) quit claimed all right to his estate. By deed, dated 9 Dec. 1774 (sic, recorded 6 Feb. 1774 [? 1775], Taunton Deeds, 55: 541). David Russell, yeoman, and wife Sarah of Killingly sold for £95-8-0 to John King of Raynham, Mass., three tracts totalling 35 acres in Taunton, Mass., two of which adjoined land of David Andrews and Josiah Andrews, respectively, and all of which were apparently Sarah (Andrews) Russell's share of the estate of Samuel Wilbore (Bristol County Land Records, Taunton, Mass., 55:541). David was head of a family in Killingly in 1790 comprised of himself, wife, one daughter, and three sons under age 16 (Federal Census). In 1796 and 1797 David was a widower living with his son Wilbur in Killingly. In 1796 his daughter Molly Joy of Plainfield, N. H., quit claimed to her brother Wilbur Russell all her right in the estate of her late mother Sarah Russell, her father David then living on the property. In 1797 his daughter Andrews did likewise.

Children by first wife, born in Killingly:

4. DAVID[3] RUSSELL (Stephen,[2] David[1]), was born in Gloucester, R. I., 2 Dec. 1741, died in Shoreham, Vt., 17 July 1813, aged 71. He married first, in Chesterfield, Mass., 22 July 1766, SARAH HEALY, born in Dudley, Mass., 4 April 1750, died in Shoreham, Addison Co., Vt., 9 March 1784 (gravestone), daughter of Capt. Joshua and Sarah (Newell) Healy; and secondly, in Chesterfield, "Now of Shoreham, Vt., formerly of this town," 26 Aug. 1787, SARAH (HORTON) KELLOGG of Chesterfield, died in 1744. They were buried in the family cemetery in Shoreham (gravestone).

On 28 April 1763 David[3] Russell purchased land in Chesterfield from Gad and Olive Lyman of Northampton, Mass., for £18-8-8 (Hampshire Deeds). He served from Chesterfield in the Revolutionary War as a Sergeant, 17-22 Aug. 1777. By 1784 David and Sarah (Healy) Russell had settled in Shoreham. The will of Abner Brown* of Chesterfield mentioned "a certain note or obligation I now have and hold against Capt. David Russell dated August 17, 1787" (Hampshire County Probate). David attended the Shoreham town organization meeting 28 Nov. 1786 (town records). He was head of a family in Shoreham in 1790 with himself and wife, four daughters, two sons over age 16, and one son under age 16 (Federal Census). In 1800 his family in Shoreham consisted of himself and wife aged over 45, a son age 16-25, two daughters age 10-15, and one son under age 10 (Federal Census of 1820, published by the Vermont Historical Society).

EBENEZER RUSSELL (1688-1762) OF READING, MASS. AND WINDSOR, CONN.

By George Ely Russell, of Bowie, Md.

Once committed to print a genealogical error can never be erased, but remains a permanent part of the literature and is accepted by the unwary and repeated in subsequent family histories. Though the numerous "portrait and biographical albums" and county histories which began to appear in the late 1800's are valuable sources of family information, they contain a disproportionately large amount of genealogical rubbish about the ancestry of subscribers. This may be attributed to the biographees themselves, few of whom had much more than a hazy notion of their ancestry. Not content to be recorded as ancestorless, some of the more affluent but gullible purchased spurious pedigrees from so-called genealogists. While flattering to the ego, these pedigrees too often do not stand up under critical scrutiny.

One such false pedigree is contained in W. R. Cutter's Genealogical and Personal Memoirs Relating to the Families of . . . Massachusetts (1910). In addition to providing (vol. IV, p. 2270-2271) the usual laudatory account of the prosperous (railroads and manufacturing) and civically active Russell family of Springfield, Hampden Co., Mass., it states—in error—that Ebenezer Russell, born in 1740 [sic, should be 1741], progenitor of the Springfield branch, was a son of Ebenezer Russell from Branford, Conn., born in 1703. The contributor to Cutter's work then provided a pedigree showing the following descent: John[1] Russell (1598-1680), Clerk of ye Writs at Cambridge and Hadley, Mass.; Rev. John[2] Russell (1626-1692), Harvard, Class of 1645; Rev. Samuel[3] Russell (1660-1731), Harvard, Class of 1681; and Ebenezer[4] Russell, born in Branford 4 May 1703, and—according to Cutter—founder of the Ellington Russell family and ancestor of the Springfield Russells.

The history of the Cambridge, Wethersfield, Hadley and Branford Russells has been told by Gurdon Wadsworth Russell, M.D., LL.D., in his excellent Account of Some of the Descendants of John Russell (Hartford, 1910). On page 152 he noted and correctly stated that Ebenezer[4] Russell (born in 1703) graduated from Yale in 1722, studied theology, and in 1727 became the first ordained pastor of the North Stonington Congregational Church; that he married Content Hewitt in 1727 and died without issue in 1731.

Hartford County records make it abundantly clear that the founder of the Ellington family was Ebenezer[2] Russell, born in Reading, Mass., 7 March 1688, son of William[1] and Elizabeth (Nurse) Russell from Salem, Mass. (Vital Records of Reading (1912), p. 201). By deed, dated 11 June 1734, Daniel Eaton, Jr., and wife Hannah of Windsor, Conn., sold 40-¾ acres in Ellington parish, Windsor, to Ebenezer Russell, Sr., yeoman, of Reading, for £40. (Windsor Land Records, vol. VI, p. 219). Ebenezer was still of Reading when he sold Ellington land to his son Ebenezer, Jr., of Salem, 14 July 1738 (ibid., vol. VII, p. 146), and when he purchased more land in Ellington from his brother-in-law Daniel Eaton, 24 July 1738 (ibid., p. 109). The Russell family was settled in Ellington before 3 April 1739 when James Nicholas of Windsor deeded land in Ellington to Ebenezer Russell, late of Reading, now resident of Windsor (ibid., p. 133). Of Windsor, by deeds dated 1 Sept. 1740 and 24 June 1741, he sold land in Ellington to his sons Ebenezer, Jr., of Salem, and William of Windsor, respectively (ibid., p. 187-188). He was taxed in Ellington in 1752 (Windsor Tax Lists).

Ebenezer Russell's will, not previously published, provides a full listing of his family.

"In the name of God, Amen, this fifteen day of September, . . . 1761, I, Ebenezer Russell of Windsor being infirm of body but of disposing memory do make and ordain this my last will and testament . . . I give to my loving wife Deborah all moveables in the house to be at her dispose . . . I give to my son Ellis Russell all my real and personal estate, viz. house, barn and land and outdoor moveables, he to maintain my loving wife Deborah so long as she shall remain my widow, he also to pay out to my sons Ebenezer Russell, Samuel Russell, Nathan Russell, and to my daughter Deborah Macintire, and to my grandson William Russell to each of them ten schillings lawfull money, only except my son Nathan Russell whom I give besides the ten shillings my horse bridle and saddle. I nominate and appoint my son Ellis Russell executor . . . [Signed] Ebenezer Russell. In presence of Thomas Potwine, Samuel Watson, Ammi Trumbull. Exhibited for probate Feb. 12, 1762, and then proved and approved. P. D. Edward, Judge of Probate, entered" (Hartford County Probate Records, vol. XIX, p. 44, #4676).

Ebenezer Russell and Deborah Hibbard were married in Andover, Mass., 25 Sept. 1710 (Essex County Quarterly Court Records, quoted in Vital Records of Salem (1924), vol. IV, p. 277). She was born in Beverly, Mass., 19 July 1687, daughter of Samuel[2] (Robert[1]) and Mary (Bond) Hibbard (Vital Records of Beverly (1906), vol. I, p. 173). In his Genealogy of the Hibbard Family (1901), p. 21, Augustine G. Hibbard mistakenly stated that Deborah married Peter Groves.

The births of all of the children of Ebenezer and Deborah (Hibbard) Russell were recorded in Reading, Mass. (vital records, p. 201-202):

i. DEBORAH, b. 17 May 1712; d. in Middleton, Mass., about 1799; m. in Reading, 15 May 1729, JOSEPH MACKENTIRE. Eight children born in Reading (Robert Harry McIntyre, Descendants of Philip McIntire (1941), p. 23).

v. WILLIAM, b. 18 May 1721; d. in Ellington in 1746 (Manwaring, Hartford District Probate Records, vol. 3, p. 634, #4695); m. about 1743 ELIZABETH ———. One child, William, b. about 1745.

vi. STEPHEN, b. 21 Aug. 1725; d. young.

vii. ELLIS, b. 17 Nov. 1730; d. after 1802; m. in Windsor, 14 Nov. 1751, JANE CATHERINE WOLCOTT. Ten children recorded in Windsor and Springfield.

STEPHEN RUSSELL (1749-1820) OF SOUTHWICK, MASSACHUSETTS, COLEBROOK, CONNECTICUT, AND LIBERTY, NEW YORK

George Ely Russell

In my account of the family of Samuel Russell (1716-1780) and wife Mareitje Hof of Kingston, New York, and Windsor, Connecticut (Register, 118 (1964): 175-177), I inadvertently failed to include son Stephen * among their children.

STEPHEN[4] RUSSELL (Samuel[3], Ebenezer[2], William[1]) was born at Windsor, Connecticut, 22 January 1748/9 (Windsor Vital Records; Henry Reed Stiles, History and Genealogies of Ancient Windsor [Hartford, Conn., 1892], 2:670). He and ELEANOR FOWLER of Westfield, Massachusetts, were married at Westfield 17 October 1771. She was born there 18 September 1752, daughter of Lieutenant Samuel and Naomi (Noble) Fowler (Christine C. Fowler, History of the Fowler Family [Batavia, N. Y., 1950], 563-568; Lucius M. Boltwood, Descendants of Thomas Noble [Hartford, Conn., 1878], 568, 570-574; Louis M. Dewey, "Genealogical Notes," MS., at Westfield Atheneum, Westfield, Mass.).

Of Westfield, Stephen bought eighteen acres there from Samuel Fowler in 1770, the land being near the home of his future father-in-law on the road to Simsbury. In 1772 he and his brother-in-law Silas Fowler (who apparently held the mortgage) sold the eighteen acres to John Campbell, and Stephen bought another eighteen acres in the same neighborhood from John Graves. The Russells and Fowlers lived in the Poverty Plain area in the southern part of Westfield, set off as the new town of Southwick in 1770. Stephen and wife Eleanor sold land in Southwick in 1772, 1773, 1775, and 1783 (Hampshire County Deeds, abstracted by Mrs. Seth Ames Lewis, Springfield, Mass., 1955).

Private Stephen Russell served as a Minute Man answering the Lexington Alarm. He was a member of the company organized 21 April 1775 under Colonel Danielson with Lieutenant Colonel Shepard of Westfield in command, setting out for Roxbury. He was in service from eleven to twenty days on the first call (Alfred Copeland, ed., Our Country and Its People. A History of Hampden County, Mass. [N.p., 1902], 3:204; Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors of the Revolutionary War [Boston, 1896-1908], 13:622, 670).

By deed dated 29 October 1783 Stephen Russell of Southwick bought seventeen and one-half acres in lot 72 between the second and third tiers of lots in Colebrook, Litchfield County, Connecticut from Aaron Lewis. In the period 1783-1794 he bought and sold a number of parcels of land in Colebrook, where their residence was on the south side of the highway leading to Norfolk, beside a sawmill near Farmington River (Colebrook Deeds, vols. 1 and 2). In the 1790 Census for Connecticut Stephen was listed as head of family in Litchfield County with two males aged 16 or older, three males under age 16, and three females. On 16 February 1795 his land was sold by the sheriff and Stephen was ordered committed to Litchfield Jail until his debt of £33.15.8 was paid.

The entire family left Colebrook in 1795 and settled in Mamacatting, Ulster County, New York, in the area which became Lumberland Township in 1798 and Liberty town in 1807, and was included in the portion set off in 1809 as Sullivan County (James E. Quinlan, History of Sullivan County, New York [Liberty, N. Y., 1873], passim). In the 1800 census of Lumberland Township, Stephen and wife are listed as aged 45 or more, with two sons and one daughter aged 16-25, two sons aged 10-15, and one son and one daughter aged under 10.

According to family records, Stephen died 18 September 1820, place not stated, though undoubtedly in New York State (communicated by R. Thomas Mayhill, Knightstown, Indiana, to whom I am indebted for sharing his research findings). The date of his wife Eleanor's death is not revealed in family records.

Children, all born at Southwick, unless otherwise indicated (retroactively recorded in Colebrook Vital Records):

SAMUEL RUSSELL (1716-1780) OF KINGSTON, N. Y.

By GEORGE ELY RUSSELL, of Bowie, Md.

Family, town and other records consistently err in giving Windsor, Conn., as the birthplace of Jacob Russell, a Revolutionary soldier and significant to historians as the father of the founder of the North Union Shaker Society in Ohio. Perhaps misled by the Windsor Vital Records, Windsor historian, Henry Reed Stiles, repeated that Jacob, son of Samuel Russell, was born in Windsor 15 April 1746.[1] Jacob himself, according to his family register, claimed Windsor as his birthplace.[2] Lending permanence to the error, the Western Reserve Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, cast in bronze that he was "Born 1746 Winsor [sic], Conn."[3] This error was compounded when J. P. MacLean, in his authoritative history of the North Union Shaker Society, stated that "Jacob, eldest son of Samuel, was born in West Windsor, Hartford County, Connecticut, April 26 [sic], 1746."[4] To confuse the matter still further Jacob recorded in his family register that his mother's name was Mary Huffman; his son Ralph then perpetuated this surname by calling one of his sons "Jacob van Huffman Russell."[2]

The facts of the matter are that Jacob was born in Kingston, Ulster Co., N. Y., and that his mother was Mary (Maria or Mareitje) Hof. Born in North Reading, Mass., 1 April 1716, son of Ebenezer and Deborah (Hibbard) Russell, Samuel was the first of the Russell family to settle in Windsor.[5] By deed, dated 11 June 1734, his father purchased land in Ellington Parish, Windsor,[6] and in that same year Samuel was a petitioner in Ellington,[7] suggesting that he had come ahead to prepare the land for the family's settlement, which occurred in 1738 or 1739.[8] Samuel purchased Ellington land 21 Sept. 1741, only to sell it to his brother William the following February.[9]

Samuel's settlement in Kingston occurred before 1745 for, according to the Kingston Dutch Church Register, "Samuel Rossel, born in Boston [sic], and Maria Hof, born at Livingston Manor, both residents of Kingston, bans registered August 18, 1745; certificate issued."[10] According to the family register, Samuel's wife Mary was born in Esopus (Kingston) in 1723.[2] Her parents have not yet been identified. She was undoubtedly of one of the so-called Palatine families which came to the New Queensbury-Haysbury-East Camp-Hunterstown-Palatine or German Town-Livingston Manor area in the 1710's.[11] The Kingston church register shows that Samuel and his wife remained in Kingston, where on 11 May 1746 their first child "Jacob, son of Samuel Rossel and Mareitje Hof," was baptized, the witnesses being Paulus and Lizabeth Swart.[10] They were still living in Kingston on 10 June 1746 when Samuel of Kingston purchased fifteen acres in Ellington from his brother Ebenezer, Jr.[12] His return to Ellington occurred before 21 Nov. 1746 when Samuel, then of Windsor, purchased land with a dwelling house near Nathaniel Diakes (Dix-Dyxx) from Jonathan Porter.[12]

In 1756 Samuel was taxed in East Windsor, where he lived in the Scantic Parish.[13] Sergt. Samuel Russell died in February 1780, was buried in West Windsor Square, and on 21 Feb. 1780 his sons Jacob and Cornelius were appointed to administer his estate.[14] His widow Mary died in Windsor in 1807, aged 84 years.[2]

i. JACOB, b. in Kingston 15 April 1746; d. in Warrensville, Ohio, 29 Aug. 1821; m. in Gilead, Conn., 28 May 1772, ESTHER DUNHAM of Hebron, Conn., b. there 4 April 1750, d. in Bentleyville, Solon Township, Cuyahoga Co., Ohio, 16 Sept. 1835, daughter of Isaac and Jerusha (Loomis) Dunham.

ii. CORNELIUS, b. 18 April 1750; d. in Randolph, Vt., 3 Aug. 1823; m. in Windsor, in November 1784, HULDAH PEMBER, b. in October 1754, daughter of Elijah and Hannah (Cross) Pember.

iii. ELIZABETH, b. 27 June 1752; d. before 1758.

iv. RACHEL "Maracha," b. 13 April 1756; m. in Wintonbury, Conn., 21 Dec. 1777, ELI COOK. They lived in Windsor, 1790; in Sharon, Schoharie Co., N. Y., 1831; in Cherry Valley, Otsego Co., N. Y.

v. ELIZABETH, b. 11 Aug. 1758; m. in West Windsor, 21 April 1777, EB-ENEZER YOUNG, b. in Hebron, Conn., 15 March 1756, d. in Windsor, Vt., 9 April 1815, son of Ebenezer and Eunice (Rood) Young. They lived in Hebron, 1777; Royalton. Vt., 1790; Woodstock, Vt., c. 1799; Plainfield, Vt., c. 1802. Elizabeth lived in Royalton, c. 1815-1838.

vi. JOHN, b. 11 Dec. 1761; d. in Rodman, Jefferson Co., N. Y., 22 June 1844; m. in Windsor, 20 July 1784, MARTHA "PATTY" THRALL, b. there 17 Sept. 1760, d. in Jefferson County 28 May 1834, daughter of David and Jane (Barber) Thrall. They moved from Windsor to near Troy, N. Y., 10 May 1799, and to Lorraine, Jefferson Co., N. Y., 1 June 1806.

SACKET-STANTON.—The identity of Abigail, wife of Capt. Joshua Stanton (1740-1811), of Connecticut and Vermont, has long been desired. Recently, and with the assistance of others, especially the initial search made by Donald Lines Jacobus, M.A., we have been able to solve the problem.

A manuscript of over 100 pages has been compiled, giving all proof and much detail, which my client, Roland Mather Hooker, Esq., of Miami Beach, Fla., a descendant and a member of this Society, plans eventually to publish in a small private edition. In the interim, a copy of the manuscript has been presented to our Society, where it may be consulted by those interested.

The proof rests on an account of his grandmother, the said Abigail, given by the Rev. Chauncey Graham Lee, which another descendant of Abigail's, Mrs. Thomas Porter Gunning, of Princeton, Ill., most graciously lent us and permitted us to photostat. In this lengthy tale Mr. Lee writes that his grandmother was born a Sacket. [This branch of the family dropped the final "t" although some later descendants resumed it. The 1891 Stanton genealogy, and the 1907 Sackett genealogy are not reliable.] He also mentioned a relative, a Dr. Sacket, who claimed Abigail as an aunt.

It was necessary to find out if Mr. Lee's recollections and traditions were correct, which necessitated considerable work in Connecticut, Massachusetts, and Vermont, mainly in original sources, such as the invaluable deeds. He was entirely truthful, therefore we could accept his statement as to his grandmother's maiden name.

Then came the problem, who was Abigail Sacket? We were able to eliminate all but two possible Abigails. However, Abigail,[5] born and baptised in Westfield, Mass., 27 April and 5 May 1745, daughter of Samuel[4] and Ruth (Trumble) Sacket, was proved to marry in Canaan, Conn., 30 Nov. 1764, John Richards, so we could discard her. This left the right Abigail,[5] born in Sheffield, Mass., Sept. 17 [torn, probably 1741], eldest daughter of Benjamin[4] and and Thankful (King) Sacket, who was indeed the wife of our Capt. Joshua Stanton. The Dr. [John] Sacket, named by Mr. Lee, proved to be her great-nephew, son of Buel Sacket, who was a son of Abigail's brother, Benjamin[5] Sacket. And the Oliver Sacket who witnessed deeds of Capt. Stanton's in Salisbury, Conn., in 1790, was a nephew, son of her brother, Zebulon[5] Sacket.

The complete manuscript consists of these chapters:

"Grandma" as written by Abigail's grandson.
Samuel Sacket, not Grandma's father.
Benjamin Sacket, Grandma's father.
Grandma—Abigail (Sacket) Stanton and her children, viz:
- Elizabeth (Stanton) Camp, wife of Luke Camp, Jr.
- Joshua Stanton Jr., who m. Eunice (Porter) Bird, widow of John Bird; she m. (3), Col. Albert Pawling.
- Abigail (Stanton) Lee, wife of the Rev. Chauncey Lee, from whom Mrs. Gunning descends.
- Sally (Stanton) Peaslee, wife of Lt. Zacheus Peaslee, from whom Mr. Hooker descends.

Addenda, consisting of:
- Dr. John Sacket, Grandma's great-nephew,
- Capt. Elijah Stanton, Grandma's father-in-law,
- Nathaniel Jewell, Sr., and Jr., Grandma's neighbors.
- Principal Authorities consulted and Suggestions for Further research

But for Mr. Hooker's patience and generosity, this material would not have been gathered and made available to the public, nor would the question of Abigail's identity have been solved. [The account gives full credit to those who assisted in the research and gives references for all the statements made therein. W. L. H.]

THE SECOND WIFE OF DAVID SAGE, SR., OF MIDDLETOWN, CONN.—It may now be authoritatively stated that the second wife of David Sage, Sr., of Middletown, Conn., who died in 1703, was Mary Wiley, eldest daughter of John and Elizabeth (Clough) Wiley of Watertown and Reading, Mass.

The estate papers of Mercy Sage (daughter of David and Mary Sage), found in the Hartford (Conn.) Probate District, File No. 4704, 1711/12, reveal the following two Accounts of Administration:

DAVID SAGE, OF MIDDLETOWN, CONN., HIS CHILDREN, AND GRANDCHILDREN

By Harold Kenneth Sage, of Normal, Ill.

1. David[1] Sage, born presumably in Great Britain, possibly in England, about 1639, died in Middletown, Conn., 31 March 1703. He is buried in the old Riverside cemetery in the city of Middletown, the inscription on his well preserved gravestone being our only record of the time of his birth. He married first, Elizabeth Kirby, born in Hartford, Conn., 8 Sept. 1646, died in Middletown about 1668, daughter of John Kirby; and married secondly, Mary Wiley, born in Watertown, Mass., 8 Dec. 1647, died (of record) in Middletown 7 Dec. 1711, daughter of John and Elizabeth (Clough) Wiley.

His name figures more or less prominently in the early town and church records of Middletown. As an early inhabitant, he received various grants of land from the town, and at the time of his death, was possessed of a goodly estate. He resided in the "Upper Houses", then a part of Middletown, now Cromwell.

Children by first wife, born in Middletown:

i. David,[2] b. 1 Feb. 1665; d. in Middletown in 1712 or 1713; m. in Wethersfield, Conn., 3 May 1693, Mary Coultman, b. in Wethersfield 29 Nov. 1672, d. there 3 Aug. 1744, daughter of John and Mary Coultman.

Children:

1. Mary,[3] b. in Middletown 8 May 1694; d. in Wethersfield after 1 March 1763; m. there, 31 Dec. 1713, Thomas Stedman, b. in Wethersfield 24 May 1684, d. there in January or February 1763, son of John and Susannah (Francis) Stedman. Children (surname Stedman), b. in Wethersfield: (1) Mary, b. 6 Nov. 1714; m. 17 April 1735 Amos Williams. (2) Martha, b. 18 Aug. 1716; m. 15 Jan. 1736 Daniel Blinn. (3) Elizabeth, b. 1 March 1718; d. before 1760; m. Samuel Belding, Jr. (4) Thomas, b. 4 Sept. 1719; d. 14 Sept. 1719. (5) Thomas, b. 20 July 1721; d. 4 Aug. 1721. (6) Elisha, b. 9 July 1722; m. 8 March 1750 Jerusha Stoddard. (7) Thomas, b. 23 Aug. 1724; d. 13 Sept. 1724. (8) Timothy, b. 20 Nov. 1727; d. 14 Aug. 1757. (9) Hester, b. 14 Oct. 1731; d. 21 Oct. 1738. (10) Justus, b. 4 June 1733; m. 27 April 1756 Amey Merrill. (11) Ann, b. 20 June 1736; m. 26 May 1757 Hezekiah Andrews.
2. Elizabeth, b. in Wethersfield 26 Oct. 1695; d. there s.p. 6 Sept. 1716; m. in Wethersfield, 8 March 1716, Noah Wadhams, b. there 10 Aug. 1695, d. in Goshen, Conn., in 1783, son of John and Hannah (Bidwell) Wadhams.

ii. Elizabeth, b. 9 June 1666; d. in Newport, R. I., 19 Feb. 1726; m. in Guilford, Conn., 11 Jan. 1694, Ezekiel Bull, b. probably in South Kingston, R. I., about 1671, d. in Newport, R. I., 7 Sept. 1727, son of Jireh Bull. Ezekiel Bull was a grandson of Henry Bull, one of the early Colonial Rhode Island governors. His father, Jireh, was the owner of the Bull Garrison House in South Kingston, famed for its destruction by the Narragansett Indians in 1675. In the possession of the Newport Historical Society is the water stained volume containing the record of Ezekiel Bull's will. He and his wife Elizabeth are buried in the old Common burial ground in Newport and the small slate markers are still legible.

FAMILY OF JOHN SAVAGE, MIDDLETOWN, CONN. 1652.

Contributed by James Francis Savage, A.B., Lowell, Mass.

The earliest information concerning John Savage, who settled in 1652 in Middletown, Conn.—then known by the Indian name Mattabesett or Mattabeseck,—is that contained in Hartford, Conn. records, as follows:

"John Savage of Hartford was married to Elizabeth Dubbin y^e^ tenth day of febru: one thousand six hundred and fifty two."

The name of his wife is Dublin in Middletown land records and the family records; by the marriage record it appears as Dubbin. Presumably, this is a corruption of D'Aubin, to-day commonly written Aubin, one of the many patronymics derived from the name of Ste. Aubin (latine Albinus), bishop of Antwerp. In 1707, John Dublin petitioned the General Assembly of Rhode Island that he might receive some allowance for the shot he received in his head while engaged with Col. John Wanton, in the capture of French privateers. He alleges that by this wound he lost one of his eyes. The Assembly "seriously considering his condition and willing to encourage such that are willing to defend Her Majesty's interest in this Colony" voted him four pounds a year for five years; and, in 1720, the Assembly voted him the same pension during his natural life. This is in evidence of the spelling of the name, as John was contemporary with Mrs. Savage, and might have been a nephew.

Whence John Savage came, where and when he landed in America, are alike unknown to his descendants. As few beside Englishmen were then in New England, it is probable that he came from England to the Massachusetts Bay Colony and thence removed to Hartford. The spelling of the name is various. Hon. R. R. Hinman, long Secretary of State in Connecticut, and well informed as to the early settlers, says: "Savage, Savidge, Savadge, John of Middletown was made free at Hartford, 18 May 1654."

His will is signed "John Sauidg" though, in the declaration with which that instrument opens, it is written "Savedg." The same uncertainty exists elsewhere. In England, the common spelling is Savage, from the time of Henry V. In France, at Bayeux, Normandy, and at Poictiers, Sauvage prevails. In Canada, where a numerous population of aboriginal extraction exists, the French spelling is followed. Little significance, however, in this case, attaches to difference in spelling, as, in the seventeenth century, the name applied to members of the Massachusetts family, in the public records of that Colony, was written Savadge, Savidge, Savige, and Sauage, as well as Savage. A very old blazon of arms, whose history is unknown, identical with the arms of Savage, of Rock Savage, County of Chester, England, is preserved in the family; members of which, like the Massachusetts branch, have inherited a tradition of kinship to the titled family in Cheshire.

He was made freeman in 1654. In 1657, he possessed 1207 acres of land, 441 acres being on the east side of the Connecticut river. His name is seventh in the list of members, who organized, in 1668, the First Congregational Church of Middletown. He held the military rank of Sergeant, as appears by "An Inventory of the Estate of Sarg^{nt} John Savidg, deceased March 6, 1684–5," filed with Hartford Probate Records, where his will may be found. His residence was in that part of Middletown known at different periods as North Society, Upper Houses, Upper Middletown and now Cromwell. He died March 6, 1684–5, and left an estate of 805 acres, valued at £480 15s. Children:

THE DESCENDANTS OF LIEUTENANT WILLIAM SEWARD, OF GUILFORD, CONN.

Compiled by Hon. Ralph Dunning Smyth, and communicated by his grandson, Dr. Bernard C. Steiner.

William Seward was born in England in 1627. He came from Bristol to New England, and is said to have been in Taunton, Mass., in 1643. He settled in New Haven shortly after arriving in America, and while residing there married Miss Grace Norton, of Guilford. He removed to Guilford shortly afterwards and took the oath of fidelity there, May 4, 1654. He appears to have been a tanner, a man of considerable property and eminence in the town, and was for a long time commander of the Train-Band. He frequently represented the town in the General Assembly. He died March 29, 1689. His will was dated the day of his death, and was proven June 7, 1689. He left his wife the use of one-half of the dwelling house for her life, and an annuity of forty shillings per annum from each of the six sons. Half of the movable estate, except the stock for the tan house, was left to her absolutely. His son Stephen seems not to have been capable of caring for himself and a life estate in the dwelling, and thirty acres were given him, under the trusteeship of John, who was to inherit the property absolutely after Stephen's death. Samuel, Caleb and Ebenezer, the other sons, were given tracts of land, and John, Joseph and Caleb are confirmed in the possession of lands already given to them. Each of the children of his daughter Mary were given a cow, and the other half of the movable estate was given to his daughter Hannah. The tan yard and meadow land were directed to be equally divided among the sons.

RICHARD SEYMOUR OF HARTFORD AND NORWALK, CONN., AND SOME OF HIS DESCENDANTS

Communicated by SEYMOUR MORRIS of Chicago, Ill.

1. RICHARD[1] SEAMER, the first of the Seymour name in this country, was baptized at Sawbridgeworth, co. Herts, England, 27 Jan. 1604/5, the son of Robert and Elizabeth (Waller) and the grandson of John and Dyzory (Porter),* and died at Norwalk, Conn., between 29 July 1655, the date of his will, and 10 Oct. 1655, the date of the inventory of his estate. He married at Sawbridgeworth, 18 Apr. 1631, MERCY RUSCOE, born about 1610, daughter of Roger and Sarah of Sawbridgeworth. She married secondly, 25 Nov. 1655, as his second wife, John Steele of Farmington, Conn., who died there 27 Feb. 1664/5.

Richard Seymour came to Hartford, Conn., in 1639, where he appears as a proprietor, and he was also one of the settlers who received land "by the courtesie of the town." His home lot was on the east side of the road to the Cow Pasture (North Main Street), and was bounded on the north by the Cow Pasture itself. He was chosen chimney viewer at Hartford in 1647. He was one of the signers of the agreement for the planting of Norwalk, Conn., 19 June 1650, removed to that place soon afterwards, and became one of its first settlers, being chosen a townsman or selectman in 1655. His will, dated 29 July and proved 25 Oct. 1655, names wife Mercy, eldest son Thomas, and "other three sons," John, Zachary, and Richard, who were under age.†

Children:

2. i. THOMAS,[2] bapt. at Sawbridgeworth, co. Herts, Eng., 15 July 1632.
   ii. MARY, bapt. at Sawbridgeworth, co. Herts, Eng., 9 Jan. 1634/5; bur. there 3 Apr. 1635.
   iii. MERCY, bapt. at Sawbridgeworth, co. Herts, Eng., 8 July 1636; no further record of her has been found.
3. iv. JOHN, b. probably at Hartford, Conn.
4. v. ZACHARIAH, b. at Hartford, Conn., abt. 1642.
5. vi. RICHARD, b. at Hartford, Conn.

2. THOMAS[2] SEYMOUR (Richard[1]), of Norwalk, Conn., baptized at Sawbridgeworth, co. Herts, England, 15 July 1632, died at Norwalk, Conn., between 22 Sept. 1712, the date of his will, and 15 Oct. 1712, when the inventory of his estate was taken. He married first, at Norwalk, 5 Jan. 1653/4, HANNAH MARVIN, born in co. Essex, England, about Oct. 1634, living in 1680, daughter of Matthew[1] and Elizabeth; and secondly ELIZABETH ———.

He was brought to New England by his parents about 1638–9, when he was about six years old, lived with them at Hartford, Conn., until about 1651, and then removed with them to Norwalk. As his mother remarried very soon after his father's death in 1655 and removed with her younger children to Farmington, Conn., and as he was the only one of the children who was of age at that time, he succeeded to his father's lands in Norwalk, and lived there until his death.* He was freeman in 1668, one of the patentees in 1686, and a deputy from Norwalk to the Connecticut General Court in 1690.

In his will, dated 22 Sept. and proved 7 Nov. 1712, he describes himself as "very Sick and Weak," bequeaths to his wife Elizabeth the use and improvement, during her widowhood, of his house, barn, one half of the orchard, and the west end of his home lot, together with meadow land and necessary household goods, and gives also to her the estate that she brought with her, his new Bible, and "one paire of Curtains that She made Since her Living with me." To his son John he gives the use and improvement of the other half of the orchard during his wife's widowhood. Upon the death or remarriage of his wife his house, barn, home lot, and orchard are to go to his grandson Thomas Seamer. To his sons Matthew and John he devises the rest of his lands, and they are to pay £4 "in provision pay" to each of his surviving daughters, except his daughter Elizabeth Knap, who is to receive 20s. The will was witnessed by James Betts, Sr., and John Copp. The inventory of his estate, taken 15 Oct. 1712 by John Raymond and Samuel Smith, showed property appraised at £351. 5s.†

7. x. JOHN, date of birth unknown (possibly a child by second wife).

3. JOHN[2] SEYMOUR (Richard[1]), of Hartford, Conn., born probably at Hartford, died there between 10 Dec. 1712 and 3 Aug. 1713. He married MARY[2] WATSON, who was living 10 Dec. 1712, daughter of John[1] and Margaret (Smith) of Hartford.

He was made a freeman in 1667, and was an active and influential man. In 1670 he and his wife owned the covenant at the Second Church in Hartford, and on 31 Mar. 1678 they were admitted to full communion.

In his will, dated 10 Dec. 1712 and proved 3 Aug. 1713, he bequeaths to his wife Mary one third of his movable estate for her disposal, and the remainder, together with his house, barn, orchard, three acres of land, etc., he leaves to her for her improvement. To his son John he gives twelve acres, with dwelling house thereon, lying south of Robert Webster's land, and also other lands. To his son Thomas he gives land on the west side of the Farmington road, being south of the land given to his son John, with dwelling house and barn, and also other lands. To his son Richard he gives the land where he [Richard] now dwelleth, with buildings thereon, five acres, and £20 to be paid equally by his three sons, John, Thomas, and Zachariah. To his son Zachariah he gives three acres, with his [the testator's] dwelling house, barn, etc., after the decease of his wife, and also other lands; and Zachariah is to pay to the testator's two daughters £20 each. To his daughter Mary North he bequeaths £30, of which his son Zachariah is to pay £20 and the rest is to be paid out of the movable estate after his wife's decease. To his daughter Margaret Root he bequeaths £30. The inventory, taken by James Ensign and Thomas Richards, shows property valued at £1158. 14s. 1d., a large estate for that time.

Children, born at Hartford:

vi. RICHARD, b. 11 Feb. 1676/7; d. at Canaan, Conn., between 1747 and 1753; m. at Hartford, 30 Oct. 1707, MARY[3] WILSON, bapt. 25 Mar. 1688, living a widow at Canaan in 1753, dau. of Dea. John[2] (Robert[1]) and Lydia (Cole). He was one of the original proprietors of Canaan, whither he removed about 1740, and was made lieutenant of the military company of that town, 25 Sept. 1740. His widow may have been the Widow Seymour who was buried in the Center Church Burying Ground at Hartford, 31 Jan. 1766, being interred at the expense of Thomas Seymour, Esq.* No record of any children has been found.

vii. JONATHAN, b. 10 Jan. 1678/9; d. young.

viii. NATHANIEL, b. 6 Nov. 1680; d. young.

10. ix. ZACHARIAH, b. 10 Jan. 1684/5.

4. ZACHARIAH[2] SEYMOUR (Richard[1]), of Wethersfield, Conn., born at Hartford, Conn., about 1642, died at Wethersfield in Aug. 1702, aged about 60 years. He married at Wethersfield, 9 Feb. 1687/8, MARY GRITT, who survived him and married secondly Joseph Hollister.

After the death of his father in 1655 Zachariah Seymour evidently removed to Farmington, Conn., with his mother, and appears as a freeman there in 1669. Later he settled at Wethersfield, where he married at the age of about 45.

In his will, dated 14 Apr. and proved 11 Nov. 1702, he bequeaths to his wife one third of his housing and land in Wethersfield; and she is to have one room in his dwelling house as part of her third as long as she remains his widow, and is then to receive a reasonable rent for her part of the house. To his four daughters he gives, in equal shares, all his estate after the decease of his wife; and they are to receive two thirds of their shares as they severally come of age. He chooses his "loving brethren," John Seymour, Sr., of Hartford and Richard Seymour of Farmington, to be overseers, with John Seymour, Jr., and Thomas Seymour of Hartford. The final division of his estate was made 3 May 1714 between his widow, his daughter Mary, wife of Henry Grimes, his daughter Elizabeth, wife of Gideon Belding, and his daughters Abigail and Ruth Seymour. On 5 Apr. 1714 the daughter Ruth, aged 15 years, had chosen Josiah Churchill of Wethersfield as her guardian.

Children, born at Wethersfield:

5. CAPT. RICHARD[2] SEYMOUR (Richard[1]), of Farmington, Conn., born at Hartford, Conn., died at Farmington prior to 29 Nov. 1710, being killed by the fall of a tree, and was buried on a portion of his own land which was afterwards used as a burial place. He married HANNAH[2] WOODRUFF, born about 1648, died at Farmington 16 Sept. 1712, daughter of Matthew[1] and Hannah of Farmington.

He was a freeman at Farmington in 1669 and one of the eighty-four proprietors of that town in 1672. His wife appears in a list of church members at Farmington, dated 1 Mar. 1679/80, and Richard became a member of the same church on 31 May 1685. He settled in that part of Farmington called Kensington (now the town of Berlin), and became a leader in the settlement. There the Seymour fort was built, within which were the cabins where the inhabitants sought refuge at night during the Indian alarms, Richard Seymour being the captain of the garrison. The well in front of the fort still remains.

The inventory of his estate, taken 29 Nov. 1710 by Thomas Seymour, Thomas Hart, and Thomas Curtis, showed property valued at £416. 13s. 3d. Administration on the estate was granted 4 Dec. 1710 to Hannah Seymour, the widow, and to Samuel Seymour, a son of the deceased. An agreement was made 1 Jan. 1710/11 between Hannah Seymour, the widow, sons Samuel, Jonathan, and Ebenezer Seymour, daughter Mercy Seymour, and Joseph Pomeroy in behalf of his wife Hannah, another daughter of the deceased. After the death of Hannah, the widow, a division of her estate was made 7 Nov. 1712, and was signed by Samuel Seymour, Ebenezer Seymour, Jonathan Seymour, Joseph Pomeroy, and George Hubbard.

Children, born at Farmington:

6. Capt. Matthew[3] Seymour (Thomas,[2] Richard[1]), of Norwalk, Conn., born at Norwalk in May 1669, died there about 1735. He married first Sarah Hayes, born at Norwalk 19 Sept. 1673, living in Feb. 1712, daughter of Samuel and Elizabeth (Moore); and secondly Catherine ———.

Matthew Seymour was a selectman of Norwalk for several years and deputy to the General Court from Norwalk in 1712 and 1713. He was made lieutenant in 1710, and was chosen captain of the North Company in Norwalk, 26 May 1729. In his will, dated 4 Jan. 1734/5 and proved 6 Jan. 1735/6, he names wife Catherine, sons Matthew, Samuel, Thomas, and Jehiel, youngest son Daniel (who is under age and is to have the whole of the house after the decease of Catherine, his mother), and daughters Hannah St. John, Elizabeth Bouton, Ruth Smith, Sarah Bouton, Catherine, and Susanna. He directs that some of the estate and "also my Negro man Bristoll" be sold. He appoints his wife Catherine and his brother John Seymour as executors. The amount of the inventory was £436. 5s. 1d.

* "On the same day that his child was born, the father, viz: Richard Seymour, went early into the woods to look for horses, 5, 6 or 7 miles off; found and followed one homeward: — but like to have perished ere he reached home.

"He was so feeble that he remembreth [nothing after coming down the last mountain by sight, and memory and strength in a manner] gone; — but God who leadeth the blind in a way that they know not, directed him to John Norton, Jun., who was thrashing in his barn, who took him in and put him to bed, — called friends about him, who were diligent in the use of means for his recovery, after some time spent betwixt hope and fear, as not knowing whether he would die or live; — He lying in a sad manner, grating his teeth [and round in his hand that pleased God he exhibited and came to rights again.]

"The day in which this fell out was January 6, 1682, — a snowy Saturday, — especially the latter part of it. Had the man not been directed home, in likelihood he had perished in the wilderness, and perhaps have been so far covered with snow as not to have been found 'till wild fowls or beasts had preyed on him." 7. JOHN[3] SEYMOUR (Thomas,[2] Richard[1]), of Norwalk, Conn., born at Norwalk, died there in the summer of 1746. He married first SARAH[3] GREGORY, born at Norwalk 15 Sept. 1678, daughter of Jachin[2] (John[1]); and secondly HANNAH ———.‡

In his will, dated 28 Apr. 1746, with two codicils dated 5 May and 26 May 1746, and proved 5 Aug. 1746, he names wife Hannah and son John Seymour of Norwalk (who are appointed executors), daughter Mary Hanford and her husband Thomas, to whom is given land bordering on land formerly belonging to the testator's brother Matthew, "other four" daughters, viz., Sarah Trowbridge, Abigail Selleck,

* The baptism of this child is recorded in the church records of Fairfield, Conn.

† In the absence of dates it is probable that Catherine and Susanna and possibly Sarah were children of the second wife, Catherine.

‡ She was probably Hannah Gould, widow, and had by her former husband a daughter Hannah, who married James Hoyt of Norwalk. James Hoyt gave a receipt dated 20 Feb. 1732/3, to Hannah Saymore, the mother and guardian of his wife Hannah.

Rebecca Bouton, and Martha Jarvis, and grandsons John Seymour (under twenty-one) and Munson Jarvis, son of Samuel and Martha Jarvis. The amount of the inventory, £4797. 10s., shows an unusually large estate.

John[1] and Agnes.

John Seymour was a large landholder in Hartford, Litchfield, and New Hartford, Conn., and by his will, dated Sept.

1747 and proved 6 June 1748, he divided his lands among his sons, John, Jr., Timothy, Daniel, Jonathan, Nathaniel, Zebulon, Moses, and Richard. He also provided for his wife, Elizabeth, and directed that his three daughters, Elizabeth, Susanna Pomeroy, and Margaret Catlin, should have £30 each. In his will he mentions half of the lot he had purchased of his brother, Thomas Seymour deceased, and also his share of land in Hartford, as yet common and undivided, which he held with Elisha Smith and wife Ruth in her right, daughter of his said brother, Thomas Seymour. He appointed his three eldest sons, John, Jr., Timothy, and Daniel Seymour, as his executors.

9. CAPT. THOMAS[3] SEYMOUR (John,[2] Richard[1]), of Hartford, Conn., born at Hartford 12 Mar. 1668/9, died there 30 Aug. 1740. He married first, 19 Feb. 1700, RUTH[3] NORTON (John,[2] John[1]), born about 1675, died at Hartford 19 July 1710, daughter of John[2] and Ruth (Moore) of Farmington, Conn.; and secondly, at Hartford, 21 June 1711, MARY WATERS, who died 18 Apr. 1746, in her 69th year, daughter of Bevil of Hartford.

Capt. Thomas Seymour was one of the prominent men of his day in Hartford. Besides holding various town offices, he was a deputy from Hartford to the General Court, 1719–1728, and was chosen ensign of the South Side military company at Hartford in April or May 1713, lieutenant of the same company 24 Nov. 1720, and captain 12 Oct. 1725. He owned large tracts of land in Hartford, Wethersfield, Waterbury, and elsewhere in Connecticut, which by his will, dated 4 May 1738 but not signed,* he gave to his two sons, Thomas and Bevil, directing that certain of these lands should descend to their eldest male heirs in a right line forever to the end of the world, without liberty to sell or to alter the property thereof. In his will he also named his daughter Mary, who had already received property from her father, his daughter Ruth Seymour, to whom he gave certain lands, part of which lay in common with his brother John Seymour, and his three youngest daughters, Sarah, Alice, and Jerusha, who were to receive his house and homestead in equal proportions, reserving to his wife the use of the north room and northwest cellar during her life. His negro man named Sias he bequeathed to son Thomas, who was also to have the rest of the movable estate, "for redeeming of his land mortgaged to the Country on account of the New London Society."

12. EBENEZER[3] SEYMOUR (Richard,[2] Richard[1]), baptized at Farmington, Conn., 1 Feb. 1684/5, died before Sept. 1733, when his widow, Abigail Seymour, appears in a deed. He married at Farmington, 29 Dec. 1709, ABIGAIL[3] HOLLISTER, born at Wethersfield, Conn., 16 Aug. 1688, daughter of Capt. Stephen[2] (John[1]) and Abigail (Treat).

Ebenezer Seymour settled in Kensington Parish, Farmington, and in a deed dated 1 Feb. 1723/4 is described as formerly of Farmington and now living on a "peculiar" (later called Meriden) between Wallingford and Farmington. Still later Ebenezer is described as of Pilgrim's Harbor, which is now known as West Meriden, Conn. After his death his widow Abigail apparently returned to Kensington Parish.

13. Jonathan[3] Seymour (Richard,[2] Richard[1]), of Farmington, Conn., baptized at Farmington 17 Apr. 1687, died before 5 Oct. 1725, when administration was granted on his estate. He married, 23 Dec. 1714, Eunice[3] Hollister, born at Wethersfield, Conn., about 1696, daughter of Capt. Stephen[2] (John[1]) and Abigail (Treat) and sister of Abigail, wife of his brother Ebenezer Seymour (12). Eunice (Hollister) Seymour married secondly, 13 Jan. 1726, William Chitistor [i.e., Chichester] of Wallingford, Conn.

Administration on the estate of Jonathan Seymour was granted 5 Oct. 1725 to his widow, Eunice Seymour, and to Mr. Ebenezer Gilbert, and said Eunice was appointed guardian of the children, viz., "Eliakim, 4 months old, Eunice, 10 years, Martha, 5 years [sic], Jerusha, 5 [sic], and Lois, 1 year and 7 months." * Soon after the second marriage of Eunice, widow of Ebenezer Seymour, his brother and sisters petitioned the Court that some other persons be appointed guardians of the children, because the said Eunice "is now married to one Wm. Chitester, a poor shiftless man, and the children are in a suffering condition, not likely to be provided for." * Robert Booth of Farmington was therefore appointed guardian of Eunice, Jerusha, and Lois, and George Hubbard of Middletown, Conn., who had married their aunt, Mercy Seymour (5, iii), was appointed guardian of Martha and Eliakim, children of the deceased.

Communicated by SEYMOUR MORRIS of Chicago, Ill.

14. MATTHEW[4] SEYMOUR (Capt. Matthew,[3] Thomas,[2] Richard[1]), of Ridgefield, Conn., born at Norwalk, Conn., about 1690 and baptized in the church at Fairfield, Conn., 7 Oct. 1694, died at Ridgefield 30 Apr. 1768, in his 77th year. He married at Ridgefield, 14 June 1722, HANNAH SMITH, baptized at Milford, Conn., 24 Oct. 1703, living in 1766, when her husband made his will, daughter of Thomas[3] (John,[2] John[1]) and Hannah (Camp).

Matthew Seymour was a resident of Ridgefield as early as 1716, according to a deed in which his father, Matthew of Norwalk, who was one of the proprietors of Ridgefield, gave to the son all right to all his lands in Ridgefield. In his will, dated 26 June 1766 and proved 7 June 1768, Matthew Seymour names wife Hannah, daughter Hannah Keeler, and sons Matthew and Thomas Seymour. To his wife Hannah he bequeaths the "use and Improvment of my Negro Girl named Ellin.* During the Natural Life of my s[d] Wife," after which said negro girl is given to the testator's daughter, Hannah Keeler. To his son Matthew, "on account of his Birth Right," he gives five acres of meadow land which he hath in part cleared.

Children, born at Ridgefield:

20. JOHN[4] SEYMOUR (John,[3] John,[2] Richard[1]), of Hartford, West Hartford, and New Hartford, Conn., born at Hartford 25 Dec. 1694, died at New Hartford 25 July 1758. He married first, at Hartford, 25 June 1718, LYDIA MASON, baptized at Hartford 2 Aug. 1696, daughter of John and Hannah (Arnold ?); and secondly, at West Hartford, 7 May 1733, HANNAH[4] ENSIGN, born at Hartford 19 Jan. 1711/12, died at New Hartford before 3 Jan. 1778, when her children sold property that formerly belonged to her, daughter of David[3] (David,[2] James[1]) and Hannah (Smith).

John Seymour settled first at Hartford, where eight of his children were baptized at the Second Church. Shortly after 1730 he removed to the West Parish of Hartford, now West Hartford, and about 1750 he became a settler of New Hartford. In his will, made 11 July 1758, shortly before his death, and proved 19 Sept. 1758, he describes himself as being sick and weak, and mentions his sons Elisha and John Seymour, both of Hartford, his wife Hannah, his two grandchildren, Isaac and Lydia Seymour, children of his son Isaac, late of Hartford, deceased, his sons William and Uriah of New Hartford, "my younger sons," Elias, Hezekiah, Nathaniel, Elijah, and David, and his daughters Lydia Steele, Abigail Flowers, Lucretia Ensign, Lucina Marsh, Elizabeth Smith, and Hannah, Zerviah, and Sarah Seymour. On 5 Dec. 1758 Hezekiah Seymour, aged 18, Nathaniel, aged 16, Elijah, aged 14 last August, and Zerviah, aged 12 last October, chose their mother, Hannah Seymour, as their guardian, and she was also appointed guardian of her other children under age, viz., David, aged 10, and Sarah, aged 8. The record of this family of twenty children, eighteen of whom survived childhood, is probably unsurpassed elsewhere in the annals of the family.

21. ENSIGN TIMOTHY[4] SEYMOUR (John,[3] John,[2] Richard[1]), of Hartford and West Hartford, Conn., born at Hartford 27 June 1696, died at West Hartford 8 Sept. 1749, in his 54th year (gravestone record). He married at Hartford, 27 Apr. 1727, RACHEL ALLYN, probably the Rachel Allyn born at Hartford 20 Aug. 1694, daughter of Edward and Rachel (Steele). She died a widow prior to 3 Feb. 1756, when administration on her estate was granted.

Timothy Seymour lived in the West Parish of Hartford, now West Hartford, where he became a member of the church in 1730 and where his children were baptized. The house that he built was standing in West Hartford as late as 1882 and was in the possession of his descendants until 1870. He was a selectman of Hartford in 1737, and was chosen ensign of the Fourth Company of Militia 13 Oct. 1743. Administration on his estate was granted 3 Oct. 1749 to his widow Rachel and his son Timothy, and on 23 Apr. 1751 distribution of the estate was ordered between the widow, Rachel, the eldest son, Timothy Seymour, and the other children, Allyn and Charles Seymour and Rachel Easton. The inventory amounted to £18,684. 4s. 9d., and included estate at Canaan, Salisbury, and Bethelem, Conn.

34. Capt. Stephen[4] Seymour (Ebenezer,[3] Capt. Richard,[2] Richard[1]), of Plymouth, Conn., born, probably at Farmington, Conn., about 1718, died at Sharon, Conn., 13 Nov. 1807, aged 89, being buried in the parish of Ellsworth in that town. He married first, at Waterbury, Conn., 18 Mar. 1740/1, Mehitabel[4] Hickox, born at Waterbury 22 Nov. 1723, died there 9 May 1767, daughter of Capt. Samuel[3] (William,[2] Samuel[1]) and Mary (Hopkins) and sister of Mary, wife of Richard Seymour (33), and of William Hickox, husband of Lydia Seymour (12, vi); secondly, at Waterbury, 12 Oct. 1767, Mary (Dunbar) Elwell, who died at Plymouth 8 Oct. 1799, aged 83, daughter of John of Wallingford, Conn.; and probably thirdly, at Plymouth, in Nov. 1801, ——— Todd.

Stephen Seymour settled in the Northbury Parish of Waterbury, which formed part of the town of Waterbury until 1780 and then was included in the town of Watertown until 1795, when it was incorporated as a separate town under the name of Plymouth. In 1764 he was ensign, on 6 May 1765 he was chosen lieutenant of the Northbury Company of the Militia at Waterbury, and in May 1777 he was elected captain of the Alarm List Company of Northbury Parish, Tenth Regiment, resigning this office in 1780 "on account of old age." About 1804 he removed with his son Amos to Sharon, where he spent the last few years of his life. In his will, dated at Plymouth 6 Feb. 1797 and proved at Sharon 15 Mar. 1808, he bequeaths to his son Amos his farming tools and all his right to the house and barn where he (Stephen) then lived, over and above his proportion with his brothers; and to his sons Gideon, Abel, Daniel, David, Zadock, Stephen, and Amos; and daughters Thankful, Mehitabel, and Amy he bequeaths the rest of his estate, both real and personal, each son to have two seventeenth parts and each daughter one seventeenth part. The inventory includes a debt of $20 against Mehitabel Mason and a debt of $14.21 against Thankful Hickox. These sums of money form part of their respective shares of the estate, which was distributed 22 Sept. 1808. Mary, second wife of Stephen, in her will dated 8 Jan. 1779 and proved 4 Nov. 1799, makes bequests to the Congregational Church of Northbury and to her husband Stephen Seymour, and also leaves one third of her land to son Amos Seymour, one third to Ebenezer Elwell, son of Samuel Elwell, and the remaining one third to her cousins, Mary, wife of Jonah Sanford, Molly Dunbar, daughter of the testatrix's brother John, Mary, daughter of Andrew Andrus and wife Elizabeth, and 35. ELIAKIM[4] SEYMOUR (Jonathan,[3] Capt. Richard,[2] Richard[1]), born at Farmington, Conn., about May or June 1725, died before 1 Aug. 1767, when the inventory of his estate was taken. He married SUSANNA[4] (JUDD) SEYMOUR, born at Farmington 8 Sept. 1726, daughter of Dea. Anthony[3] (John,[2] Thomas[1]) and Susanna (Woodford)* and widow of Eliakim's first cousin, Samuel[4] Seymour (32).

Eliakim Seymour lived at Kensington Parish, Farmington. Administration on his estate was granted to Susanna, his widow, 4 Aug. 1767. He owned no land, and the estate was insolvent. Widow Susanna Seymour was received into the church at Kensington Parish 17 Sept. 1769.

Children, bapt. at Kensington Parish, Farmington:

i. JERUSHA,[5] m. at Farmington, 24 Nov. 1774, JAMES MERRILL, who later lived at Castleton, Vt. Seven sons.
ii. MARY, bapt. 8 May 1757; m. DANIEL GREEN of Granville, N. Y., later of Hartwick, N. Y.
101. iii. JONATHAN, bapt. 16 Sept. 1759.
102. iv. SAMUEL, bapt. 26 Sept. 1762.
v. JOHN, bapt. 11 Aug. 1765. In the baptismal record his mother's name is given as "Mary."

EBENEZER[4] SEYMOUR OF RUPERT, VERMONT AND HIS DESCENDANTS

From material compiled by the late R. Owen Seymour and Edited by John D. Austin, F.A.S.G.

R. Owen Seymour and his sister, Florence E. Seymour, began research into their Seymour ancestry in the 1940s. Their motive was described by Mr. Seymour in a 1955 letter to a newly discovered relative: "Father was blind seven long years before we found a doctor who would give any hope of even partial sight. During that time all that was left for him to do was sit and think. He often said how well he would like to know about the family his Grandfather Orren and Uncle Uriah and Aunt Amarilla belonged to. So to give him an interest in life, my sister and I began searching."

The result was a large accumulation of notes and correspondence concerning a branch of the family of Richard[1] Seymour of Hartford and Norwalk, Connecticut, and a realization that the branch was incorrectly placed in the standard family genealogy. His father and sister both died, and R. Owen Seymour, a retired machinist residing on the family farm at Penfield Center, Monroe County, New York, continued the quest, with personal searching in neighboring Wayne County and correspondence throughout the nation. He died in 1969 and generously left his estate to the Salvation Army, the Wayne County Historical Society and the New England Historic Genealogical Society.

R. Owen Seymour and his sister learned of their descent from Lyman Seymour, who with brothers Ebenezer and Asahel early settled at Sodus, Wayne County, New York, about twenty miles east of Penfield Center. The information came from Donald Lines Jacobus, who was then compiling his History of the Seymour Family ([New Haven, 1939], hereafter cited as DLJ). As R. Owen Seymour wrote in 1955: "Jacobus used the Talcott data, and I have always thought that Aunt Sally [wife of Uriah Seymour, No. 6, below] furnished the information to Mary Kingsbury Talcott." This seems likely, as Uriah is the only child of Lyman whose children are listed in the compilation.

Jacobus tentatively placed Lyman and his brothers as sons of Uriah[3] and Dorcas (Ensign) Seymour of Whitestown, Oneida County, New York, because Lyman had children named Uriah and Dorcas (DLJ, 124). An additional geographical reason for assuming the connection was that a nephew of Uriah of Whitestown, also named Uriah, settled at Wolcott, Wayne County and a first cousin, Noah Seymour, at Sodus. It has since been determined, however, that Wayne County records show no relationship between the two groups of Seymours, although they lived in the same neighborhood.

The discovery by R. Owen Seymour of the Seymour-Bruster Bible (transcript, Syracuse, N. Y., Public Library) made clear the impossibility of the suggested parentage, for Lyman Seymour was born in 1761, while Uriah, the suggested father, was born in 1757 and married Dorcas Ensign in 1777.

The descent of Lyman from Richard[1] Seymour can only be suggested. The problem centers on the paucity of records concerning one Ebenezer Seymour, presumably of the fourth generation from Richard. There exists for him a gravestone in the North Rupert, Vermont, cemetery, showing his death on 20 December 1794 in his 66th year. Interred next to him is wife Darkis, who died 3 March 1795 in her 64th year. The stones have been examined; they stand together, somewhat apart from others in the old burial yard.

Rupert became a focal point for research because one Limon Seamour was listed there as head of a household in the 1790 census, undoubtedly the Lyman who later settled at Sodus. Since he was twenty-nine years old at the time of the Vermont census (actually taken in 1791), it is probable that the other two men in the household were his father Ebenezer and brother Asahel; the two women were undoubtedly his mother Dorcas and his wife Hannah; and one boy was probably his younger brother, Ebenezer, Jr.

No birth record has been found for Ebenezer, father or son, or for Lyman. However, in the Berlin-Kensington, Connecticut, Congregational Church records is found the birth of Asahel Seymour, son of Ebenezer, born 20 January 1765. Various land and probate records of Vermont and Connecticut have been examined for further clues to the identity of Ebenezer Seymour of Rupert. The only other records found which apparently pertain to him are two Waterbury, Connecticut, deeds. By the first, dated 29 December 1755, and recorded 25 March 1756, Stephen Saymore of Waterbury for £101. 10s. old tenor, conveys to Ebenezer Saymore of Waterbury one-half of two parcels in the north part of Waterbury, totaling 29¼ acres located south of Upson's Island Rock. The witnesses were Thomas Clark and Thomas Matthews. On 3 January 1758, Ebenezer Saymore conveyed the same premises to Josiah Welton of Waterbury for £10, the witnesses being Thomas Matthews and Stephen Matthews; this deed was recorded 24 February 1758.

The Stephen Seymour selling property to Ebenezer of Waterbury has been identified as a son of Ebenezer[3] (Richard[2], Richard[1]) and Abigail (Hollister) Seymour. It is clear from his notes and letters that R. Owen Seymour believed Ebenezer of Rupert to be a son of this same couple, and thus a brother of Stephen, although he was apparently unaware of the above deeds.

The Seymour genealogy (DLJ, 57-58) gives this information concerning Ebenezer[3] Seymour: "Ebenezer[3] Seymour (Richard[2], Richard[1]), baptized at Farmington, Conn., 1 Feb. 1684/5, died before Sept. 1733, when his widow, Abigail Seymour, appears in a deed. He married at Farmington, 29 Dec. 1709, Abigail[3] Hollister, born at Wethersfield, Conn., 16 Aug. 1688, daughter of Capt. Stephen[2] (John[1]) and Abigail (Treat).

"Ebenezer Seymour settled in Kensington Parish, Farmington, and in a deed dated 1 Feb. 1723/4 is described as formerly of Farmington and now living on a 'peculiar' (later called Meriden) between Wallingford and Farmington. Still later Ebenezer is described as of Pilgrim's Harbor, which is now known as West Meriden, Conn. After his death his widow Abigail apparently returned to Kensington Parish."

In his Genealogical Notes . . . ([New Haven, 1856], 104), Nathaniel Goodwin states that the Ebenezer who married Abigail Hollister in 1709 was of Farmington, Connecticut, afterwards of Windsor. There exist additional records of his activities: compare for instance LaFayette W. Case's The Hollister Family of America ([Chicago, 1886], 52), where it is stated that he lived in that part of Farmington known as Kensington, but about 1726-1727 "went to parts unknown, having been accused of counterfeiting. A descendant says he lived for a time at Suffield."

The Hollister genealogy also states that on 17 September 1733, widow Abigail Seymour bought land in Kensington, she probably being Ebenezer's widow. A Samuel Hollister, probably her brother, was witness. The record of this deed has not been found, but further details are given by Henry R. Stiles in his History of Ancient Wethersfield ([New York, 1904], 2:620), stating that Ebenezer Seymour must have died before September of 1733 when his widow Abigail Seymour purchased land in the Great Swamp of John North, with Samuel Hollister as a witness.

The counterfeiting activities of Ebenezer[3] Seymour are described by Kenneth Scott in Counterfeiting in Colonial Connecticut ([New York, 1957], 4-8, 27, 42-45, 216). In fact, the first photographic plates in the volume are reproductions of Ebenezer's handiwork. Ebenezer was the first person to be convicted under Connecticut's law against counterfeiting. He was also active for much of his life in real estate sales and purchases. Between 1711 and 1725. he was a party to nearly ninety land conveyances in Farmington; many of these involved his brothers Samuel and Jonathan as co-owners. In addition. he was a party to six conveyances of Wethersfield property between 1719 and 1723, and seventeen conveyances in Wallingford, between 1720 and 1723. In 1724, one Joseph Hills petitioned the General Assembly regarding title problems because of Ebenezer's land dealings in Meriden. In December of that year, Nathaniel Hollister, who was involved in an assault case, said he was residing with Ebenezer Seymour near Pilgrims Harbor.

It appears that Ebenezer resided in Kensington Parish, Farmington, from birth until 1722, at Meriden and West Meriden until 1724, and later probably at Suffield. A chronology is helpful, particularly in explaining the dearth of records as to his last years:

1 February 1684/5	Baptized at Farmington
29 December 1709	Married Abigail Hollister at Farmington
2 January 1709/10	Named co-administrator of father-in-law Stephen Hollister's estate, with mother-in-law Elizabeth Hollister
Spring 1710	Engaged in counterfeiting with some assistance from his cousin John Woodruff
May 1710	Given power with mother-in-law to sell lands of Stephen Hollister
26 June 1710	Convicted of counterfeiting, fined and sentenced to six months in jail, to be secured in irons
October 1710	Petitioned for release from jail and abatement of fine
3 March 1710/11	Daughter Abigail born at Farmington
28 July 1712	Daughter Anna born at Farmington
28 April 1714	Daughter Elizabeth born at Farmington
16 October 1716	Son Richard born at Farmington
ca. 1718	Son Stephen born at Farmington
13 July 1722	Called of Farmington in deed
10 December 1722	Called of Wallingford Purchase Land [Meriden] in a deed
Summer 1723	At Egg Harbor, New Jersey, on counterfeiting business
3 November 1723	Arrested at Wallingford for counterfeiting
24 February 1723/4	Called of Meriden, near Pilgrims Harbor [West Meriden] in deed
Before 10 March 1724	Escaped from the jail in Hartford and fled
25 August 1724	Indicted at Fairfield for counterfeiting, "promptly broke [from jail] and vanished" (Scott, Counterfeiting in Colonial Connecticut, 43)
30 September 1724	Called of Meriden in deed
13 May 1725	Joseph Hills petitioned General Assembly concerning Seymour's land dealings at Meriden, indicating Seymour is not available to execute deed
30 March 1727	Daughter Abigail married at Suffield to Ebenezer King
11 August 1731	Daughter Anna married at Suffield to Robert Granger
17 September 1733	Widow Abigail Seymour is granted land in Kensington Parish of Farmington

It should be noted that no birth or baptismal records have been found for Stephen, Lydia and Gideon, the three youngest known children of Ebenezer[3] Seymour, born probably 1718-1725 (DLJ, 57-58). It seems very likely that the Ebenezer Seymour, born about 1729, who died at Rupert, Vermont, was also his son.

No other logical place is found for this Ebenezer among the descendants of Richard Seymour. He was undoubtedly the Ebenezer Seymour who had a son born in 1765 at Kensington Parish, the place of residence of Ebenezer[3] Seymour before his troubles and the place to which his widow probably removed after his death. He was probably the Ebenezer Seymour who bought land at Waterbury, Connecticut, in 1755 from Stephen Seymour, another son of Ebenezer[3], probably his brother.

Darkis (or Dorcas), the wife of Ebenezer Seymour of Rupert, has not been identified, although likely candidates in Connecticut families have been traced, to no avail. It should be noted that three children of Ebenezer[3] and Abigail (Hollister) Seymour married children of Captain Samuel and Mary (Hopkins) Hickok: namely Lieutenant Richard Seymour [1716-1796] married, first, 1740, Mary Hickok [1721-1744]; Captain Stephen Seymour [1718-1807] married, first, 1740/1, Mehitable Hickok [1723-1767]; and Lydia Seymour [ca. 1725-1762] married, first, 1745, Lieutenant William Hickok [b. 1725/6]. Thus, Dorcas Hickok, born 11 July 1736 would be a logical candidate as the wife of Ebeneazer Seymour of Rupert if she were not accounted for having married John Welton and died in 1815 (Charles N. Hickok, The Hickok Genealogy . . . [Farmington, Conn., 1938], 21). Further research is suggested, considering that Ebeneazer may have married twice: first, to ——— Lyman, and second, to Dorcas ———. In the above discussion, although we presume Ebenezer of Rupert was identical with the hypothetical son of Ebenezer[3], we have not presumed to call him Ebenezer[4], because of the lack of concrete evidence.

2. i. LYMAN[2], b. 7 Aug. 1761.

ii. ASAHEL, b. 20 Jan. 1765, "son of Ebenezer," recorded at the Berlin-Kensington Congregational Church. According to the Seymour genealogy (DLJ, 125), he m. "late in life a widow Phillips and soon died." By deed dated and acknowledged 29 Oct. 1794 and recorded the same day, Asahel Seymour of Rupert purchased from Enoch Eastman of the same place for £7 "nine acres and 85 rods of land in Rupert, being a part of a 6th Division Lot No. 13 drawn to the original wright of Josiah Willard." Witnesses were Roswell Turner and Grove Moore, the latter being the justice of the peace who took the acknowledgment. Asahel sold the property back to Eastman the same day for £17, the record of the deed calling the grantee Lymon Seymor, but Lymon being crossed out and Asahel written in. An Asel Seymour served with an Ebenezer Seymour from Wayne County in the War of 1812 with Captain Gallup's Company. This man is undoubtedly the Asahel Seymour at Sodus in 1820 with this household: a wife (?) and four younger males. In 1830 at Port Bay [later Huron], Wayne Co., Asahel was the head of a family, a male and female other than himself and his wife. Sodus and Huron are the two towns in Wayne County in which Lyman Seymour's descendants are concentrated. It seems possible that the first husband of Asahel Seymour's wife was Esak Phillips, found at Sodus in 1810. There was an Isaac Phillips living in Williamson, Wayne Co., that same year, however, note that Rhoda Phillips, wife of Isaac of Williamson, joined her husband in executing a deed in 1817.

3. iii. EBENEZER, b. 1770-1775.

EBENEZER[4] SEYMOUR OF RUPERT, VERMONT AND HIS DESCENDANTS

From material Compiled by the late R. Owen Seymour and Edited by John D. Austin, F.A.S.G.

2. LYMAN[2] SEYMOUR (Ebenezer[1]) was born 7 August 1761 in Vermont, according to his son, Orin, or in Connecticut, where his brother Asahel was born; probably not at Ancram, Columbia County, New York, as stated in Lewis H. Clark's, History of the Churches of Sodus (Sodus, N. Y., 1876). He died at Sodus on 7 August 1824.

He married in Ancram, HANNAH WILBER, born 30 May 1773, probably in Livingston Manor, Columbia County, New York. This may account for the statement that Lyman Seymour was born in Ancram. She married second, Samuel Brewster, born 14 January 1762 and died 25 September 1833 at Sodus, where she died 13 February 1848. Samuel is unidentified.

Lyman's brother Ebenezer married, probably before 1800, Jemima Wilber, sister of Hannah. The identification of these Wilber sisters is difficult because of the paucity of records in eastern New York at the time of their birth. They are probably the daughters of Josiah Wilbor of Livingston Manor, who is himself unplaced in the New England family. John R. Wilbor in the first edition of The Wildbores in America . . . ([St. Paul, Minn., 1907], append., 19), gives the record of the unconnected family of Josiah Wilbor who "lived near Poughkeepsie, N. Y." with eleven children, including daughter Sally, who married ——— Seymour, and another unnamed daughter, who married ——— Seymour. The only date of birth for any of these Wilbor children is 1760, for the ninth Joshua listed. Turning to the multivolume second edition, compiled by John R. Wilbor and Benjamin F. Wilbour, one finds (5:247) the record of this Josiah Wilbor, still unplaced, as having married Jemima Wheeler and residing at Livingston Manor and Poughkeepsie. An additional unnamed child is indicated. Daughter Sally is still shown as marrying ——— Seymour, but the unnamed daughter is now shown as marrying ——— Skinner, instead of ——— Seymour. In addition, a birth year, 1751, is given for Joseph, the first child listed. (Jemima Wheeler is not found in the Wheeler genealogy, but attention is called to John, Jurry, Rynard, Frederick and Nicholas Wheeler, all mentioned in the minutes of the Committee of Safety of Livingston Manor in 1776.)

Probable sons of Josiah and brothers of these Seymour wives were Jacob, Joseph and Josiah Wilber or Wilbur, all found in Sodus and Williamson, 1810-1830, and moving to Bradford County, Pennsylvania.

Lymoun Seymour and Celeb Harmon witnessed a deed 1 December 1787 from David Tousley of Rupert, Vermont, to Jacob Southwell of Suffield, Connecticut, for land in Rupert. As noted before, Limon Seamour is found at Rupert in 1791, probably living there with his parents, wife, and brothers. There was one boy in the household who may have been a brother or a son.

By deed, dated 10 May 1790, acknowledged 25 May and recorded 29 May, Lyman Seymour of Rupert purchased land there from Oliver Eastman of Rupert for £101, the tract being 28 acres and 98 roods located on the west side of "the road that runs through the east part of said Rupert." The deed was witnessed by Thomas Touseley (?) and A. Eastman, and the acknowledgment taken by Israel Smith, justice of the peace. Contemporaneously, he mortgaged the property to Thomas Touseley, the witnesses being Oliver and Amos Eastman. The property was sold for £135 to Enoch Eastman by deed of 29 October 1794, the same day brother Asahel sold his land there to Eastman. Enoch and Oliver Eastman were sons of Jonathan Eastman of Norwich, Connecticut, an early tavern keeper at Rupert.

In 1795, Lyman moved to Pompey, Onondaga County, New York, where in the 1800 census he was the head of a household with three boys and three girls under 16. On 9 May 1806, Lyman and Hannah sold 30 acres in Lot 52, in Pompey, on Cazenova Road, to Francis Walton for $433.34. They moved in March of 1807 from Pompey to Williamson, Wayne County, New York, residing there on what was afterwards the Dr. Bennett farm on Jersey Street. They were near Jacob and Josiah Wilber, Hannah's brothers, and not far from Lyman's brother, Ebenezer Seymour.

Lyman Seymour's first purchase of land in Sodus is said by Clark (History of the Churches of Sodus) to have been in the fall of 1809, and he moved his family there the next spring. In the 1810 census for Sodus, he was the head of a household with a wife and seven children, and in 1820, with his wife and a household of nine, living next to Harmon Gurnee, a son-in-law.

Lyman Seymour's first recorded purchase of land in Ontario [later Wayne] County consisted of 50 acres in the southeast part of Lot 2, 1st range, in the southeast part of Township 14, in Sodus. It was purchased for $125 on 30 January 1816 from Robert Thorp of New York City, as administrator, with will annexed, of the estate of Sir John Lowther Johnstone, late of Wester-Hull, Co. Dumfries, Scotland. On 22 February 1820, Lyman purchased from Jacob W. Hallett and Gilly Maria, his wife, of Pultneyville, Town of Williamson, the 50 acres in the southwest part of Lot 2, resulting in a spread of 100 acres. Lyman sold the first 50 acres to his son, Lyman W. Seymour of Sodus, for $125 on 27 April 1820, the parents signing the deed by mark. The description noted that Harmon Gurnee, mentioned above, occupied land to the north of this lot. Then, on 9 February 1824, a half-year before his death, Lyman sold the second 50 acres to son Lyman W. for $200.

Lyman and Hannah Seymour were Baptists and a few days after their arrival assisted in organizing the parent church of the area at Sodus, 1 April 1810. In 1819, Lyman withdrew from the church because "their religion did not have any life in it," according to a manuscript note by R. Owen Seymour. On 24 December 1821, the church withdrew the hand of fellowship from "Brother Lyman Seymour, for breach of covenant, he refusing to travel with the church."

Lyman Seymour served with the home defense unit known as the "Silver Grays," commanded by Elder Seba Norton, and participated in the Battle of Sodus Point in 1813.

After Lyman's death, Hannah is found with her second husband, Samuel Brewster at Sodus in 1830 (the census indicates a young male child), and after Brewster's death, she was living with her son Uriah in 1840. Samuel Brewster and Hannah, his wife, sold ten acres at Sodus to Jacob Lefurgey in January 1836.

No records have been found of the burial place of Lyman Seymour, or wife Hannah and/or her second husband, or of Joseph and Delia Seymour, children of Lyman who are said to have died unmarried at Sodus. As R. Owen Seymour noted: "I have looked through the cemeteries within a ten-mile radius of Sodus." There are a number of early unmarked graves at the Baptist Church cemetery at Sodus Center. Early gravestones often do not exist in this region because of the remoteness of quarries and transportation difficulties. It is conjectured that the markers on early graves may have been wooden slabs which gradually rotted away.

Children of Lyman and Hannah (Wilber) Seymour (lists of R. Owen Seymour and of the Greenlaw collection):

i. JOSEPH[8], b. ca. 1790-1800; d. at Sodus, before 1810.
ii. HIRAM, b. ca. 1794-1800; m. SUSAN SUMNER of Rose, Wayne Co.; prob. went west; perhaps the Hiram Seymour at Jefferson Township, Muskingum Co., Ohio, 1840. R. Owen Seymour notes that "Hiram Seymour's wife was Marion."
4. iii. ABIGAIL, b. 15 Jan. 1793.
5. iv. JEMIMA, b. ca. 1794 and 1800.
v. DELIA, d.y. at Sodus.
6. vi. LYMAN WILBER, b. 1800 at Pompey.
7. vii. URIAH, b. 22 Mar. 1802 at Pompey.
8. viii. DORCAS, b. ca. 1796 (1850 census), but more likely 1800-1810.
9. ix. AMARILLA, b. 1805 at Pompey.
10. x. LUCY, b. ca. 1804 and 1810.
11. xi. ORRIN, b. 8 Nov. 1812 at Sodus.

3. EBENEZER[2] SEYMOUR (Ebenezer[1]) was born between 1770 and 1775 in Vermont or eastern New York. He died after 1840.

He married, probably before 1800, JEMIMA WILBER, sister of Hannah Wilber who married his brother Lyman. He has not been found in the 1800 census (note that there was an unidentified Ebenezer Seymour at Western, Oneida County, New York, recorded with a household of five). Ebenezer lived in Pompey until 1808, when he settled at Palmyra, Ontario [later Wayne] County. Soon thereafter he removed to Williamson, where he was recorded in the 1810 census with seven youngsters living near William and Jacob Wilber, relatives of his wife. He resided on Jersey Street at Williamson, next door to Josiah Wilber, his brother-in-law, and not far from his brother Lyman and another brother-in-law, Jacob Wilber. An Ebenezer Seymour served with Asel Seymour in Captain Gallup's Company, 1813-1814.

By 1820, Ebenezer and family were at Sodus, where the household is recorded in the census with nine children(?). As the highest bidder at public sale, he purchased twenty-seven acres in Lot 49, Township 13, first range of townships, for $410 from Enoch Morse and John M. Granger as administrators of the estate of John Granger, late of Sodus, 13 June 1822. Two years later, 27 December 1824, he and wife Jemima sold twenty-three acres of the above to John M. Granger for $300, and the remaining four acres to Enoch Granger for $110 on the same day. The property was located on the highway running from John M. Granger's to Flavel Kingsley's. Ebenezer was the head of a family of six others at Sodus in 1830, two houses away from Sidney S. Seymour, his son. R. O. Seymour relates that Ebenezer left Wayne County for the west in 1835; however, Ebenezer is recorded at Sodus in 1840, with his wife (?) and one younger female.

Children of Ebenezer and Jemima (Wilber) Seymour, according to (George W. Cowles, ed., Landmarks of Wayne County, New York [Syracuse, 1895]; notes of R. O. Seymour):

i. VALDA[3], b. 1794-1800.
12. ii. SIDNEY S., b. 29 Apr. 1799, Pompey.
13. iii. ORSON, b. 6 Dec. 1801, Pompey.
iv. DELMER, b. 1806; perhaps m. AMARIA ———, or ARMENA ———, and went to Livingston Co., N. Y. In the 1850 Census of Lima, that county, are found: Delmer, 44, and Amaria, 38, both b. N. Y.; Jane, 15, b. Canada; Emily, 13, b. N. Y.; Adaline, 7, b. N. Y., and Alice, 2, b. N. Y. Delmer and Armena Seymour last sold property at Lima in 1853.
v. HARLAND.

vi. MORRIS, d. bef. 1895 (Cowles, Landmarks of Wayne County).

vii. ORLANDO; perhaps he was head of a family of eight at Sodus, 1840. The difficulty in identifying him lies in the residence of another Orlando Seymour, related to the Whitestown branch, in Wayne County at this period. This second Orlando was head of a family at Port Bay (later Huron) in 1830, with eight others. He was b. 26 Apr. 1789 and d. at St. Louis, Mo., 20 Apr. 1882; m. (1) Mahala Parker, who d. 30 Jan. 1820, ae. 29, bur. in Evergreen Cem. at Huron; mar. (2) May Paddock, (3) Claracy Smith. Bur. with Mahala is dau. May, d. 1 June 1814, ae. 7 months. Orlando and second wife are mentioned in Wayne Co. land records, 1833-1835, as residents of Huron, and in 1836 as of Pittsford, Monroe Co., N. Y. According to records at the Phelps and Gorham Land Office, Orlando Seymour, probably the second above mentioned, and Norman Sheldon jointly purchased property in Lot 70.

viii. LUCINDA.

ix. JENNETTE.

x. CLARISSA, perhaps m. JAMES CRAWFORD who was head of a family in Sodus, 1840, with four boys, a wife and other adult friends.

xi. MARY ANN.

4. ABIGAIL[3] SEYMOUR (Lyman[2], Ebenezer[1]) was born 15 January 1793, probably at Pompey. She died 20 December 1859 and was buried at North Eagle, Clinton County, Michigan.

She married, first, probably by 1820 (but undoubtedly not in New York City, as stated in William B. Browne's Genealogy of the Jenks Family of America [Concord, N. H., 1952]), OLIVER JENKS, born 4 April 1792 in Rhode Island, probably at Cumberland, son of the Reverend Amos and Amy (Savage) Jenks. Oliver's father was a Methodist minister, who deeded property to Oliver in Seneca County, New York, in 1809. On 17 November 1814, Oliver Jenks enlisted in Captain Thomas Earle's Company, 27th Regiment, United States Infantry. On 8 September 1818 he was placed on the pension roll with three-fourths disability for injuries received in February of 1815 at Sandy Hook, New York. His enlistment record shows that Oliver was five feet, seven inches in height, with fair complexion, blue eyes, and black hair; his occupation was farming. He was granted 160 acres and an annual allowance of $72 following the war. An affidavit, 8 April 1820, stated that he had recently moved from New York to Michigan Territory with part of his family, the balance intending to follow shortly. Oliver Jenks was at Sodus in 1830 with a family of one son and three daughters (census); in 1840, at Huron, Wayne County, Oliver I. Jenks had a household of one male and five females in addition to himself and his wife; in 1850, Oliver and Abigail, both reported to be 70, were at Novi, Oakland County, Michigan, where he was a carpenter. There is no probate record for Oliver in Oakland County.

Abigail married, secondly, STEPHEN EDDY, son of Joseph and Naoma or Navina (Sheldon) Eddy, born 20 March 1788, died 11 March 1881, aged 93 years, 2 months, 21 days. He was buried in the North Eagle cemetery with Abigail. Stephen Eddy's first wife was Susanna Phillips, born 19 February 1787 and died 1 October 1857, buried at North Eagle cemetery. He married, third, 18 January 1864 at Eagle, Margaret (———) Niles, born in 1812, widow of Anthony Niles. Stephen's father came from Sodus to Novi, where he purchased land in 1824, and then moved to Eagle ca. 1835. Stephen followed his father to Eagle, purchasing eighty acres two miles north of him. Stephen Eddy served in the War of 1812.

Children (1850 Census of Novi; Ruth S. D. Eddy, Eddy Family in America [Boston, 1930]; surname Jenks):

i. OLIVER C.[4], b. 1823, New York State; prob. m. JULIA ———, b. 1824, as shown by 1850 census, although she may be a younger sister; at Novi, with parents, 1850.

ii. DELIA, b. 4 Jan. 1826, prob. at Sodus; d. 18 or 20 Nov. 1867, at Eagle, Mich., bur. at North Eagle cem.; m. 6 Jan. 1847 at Novi, then aged 22 [sic], as his second wife, her stepbrother, LUTHER EDDY, aged 29, of Eagle, son of Stephen and Susannah, b. at Sodus 21 Apr. 1817, d. 28 Nov. 1904 at Eagle, bur. with wife. He m. (1) 16 May 1844 at Novi, Jane Van Lieu, who d. 4 Feb. 1846; he m. (3) Mary Aldrich Gage (name also given as Mary Shuler); he m. (4) Julia Rowell Caldwell, b. 16 Feb. 1834, d. 27 July 1909, bur. North Eagle. He was a farmer and had two children by his first wife, two by his second (see Eddy, The Eddy Family in America, 1117).

iii. LYDIA, b. 28 Aug. 1828; d. 30 Sept. 1856, unm.; bur. North Eagle cemetery.

iv. LUCY MARIA, b. 12 Apr. 1831 at Sodus; d. 2 Nov. 1896 at Eagle, bur. North Eagle cem.; m. at Eagle, 1855, her stepbrother, NORRIS WASHINGTON EDDY, b. 21, 22 or 25 Nov. 1821 at Sodus, son of Stephen and Susannah; d. at Eagle 10 Nov. 1902, bur. North Eagle cem.; he was a farmer and had six children (see ibid.). Although her husband survived her, Lucy is listed as a farmer in her death certificate.

5. JEMIMA[3] SEYMOUR (Lyman[2], Ebenezer[1]) was born between 1794 and 1800, perhaps at Pompey, Onondaga County, New York.

She married before 1820, probably at Sodus, Wayne County, New York, HARMON GURNEE, born about 1780, perhaps at Haverstraw, Orange (later Rockland) County, New York, son of Isaiah and Margritye (Blauvelt) Gurnee of Haverstraw. "Harramonous" and Stephen Gurnee are among sons named in Isaiah's will, dated 31 May 1791 at Orange County. Both apparently came to Sodus, where Stephen Gurnee, who died 7 March 1849, aged 76 years, 6 months, is buried in the old cemetery on Mill Street in Sodus Village.

In 1820, Harmon Gurnee was residing next door to his father-in-law, Lyman Seymour, and a deed by Lyman Seymour of property at Sodus, dated 27 April 1820, mentions Harmon Gurnee's property bounding on the north. This tract was still bounded on the north by land "taken up and occupied by Harmonus Gurnee" according to a deed of 26 March 1825. R. O. Seymour noted that Harmon Gurnee bought five acres from Silas Newell 19 November 1836 and sold the property to Morris Arms on 23 May 1850 for $250.

Harmon Gurnee's household was recorded in the 1820 Census of Sodus with his wife, an older man, and two boys under 10. Also recorded was a Sidney Gurnee with two small children. In 1830, Harmon was in Sodus, i.e., Harmon Gurnee and his wife, four males under 15, one female 5-10; and in 1840, "Herman" Gurnee was head of a household there of the same number of young people. From these census records, it would appear that Harmon was married before 1820 and had a son by that marriage, born 1804-1810, at home with him. Possibly Sidney was another son of that marriage. Another Harmon Gurnee, born in 1812 and settled at Ontario, Wayne County, was a son of Caleb, a brother of Stephen and Jemima's husband.

6. LYMAN WILBER[3] SEYMOUR (Lyman[2], Ebenezer[1]) was born in 1800 at Pompey and died in November 1839 at Bethel, Branch County, Michigan, the second settler to die in that pioneer community. His grave is unmarked.

He married in 1824 at Sodus, MARY MCCHESNEY GILBERT, born 30

November 1802, probably at Salem, Washington County, New York, died 24 February 1898 at Galesburg, Kalamazoo County, Michigan, and was buried in an unmarked grave in the old village cemetery there. She was a daughter of Amos and Margaret (McChesney) Gilbert, her father serving in the Revolution. Amos Gilbert was born in 1757 at Brookfield, Massachusetts, and came to Lyons, Wayne County, New York, in 1806. He is buried in the Brick Church Cemetery at Sodus Center, having died in 1838 at the age of eighty.

On 27 April 1820, Lyman W. Seymour purchased fifty acres in the Town of Sodus for $125 from his father, the land being the southeast part of Lot 2 in the first range of lots, Township 14, first range of townships. Lyman W. Seymour and Mary M. Seymour, his wife, sold this land to Morris DeKay of Sodus for $193 on 26 March 1825, the deed reciting that Harmonus Gurnee resided on the north, and that land on the west was owned by the heirs of Lyman Seymour, deceased. In fact, the land on the west had been deeded to Lyman W. Seymour by his father on 9 February 1824.

Lyman W. Seymour purchased fifty acres on the south end of Lot 29 in Township 13, Sodus, from Benjamin Joy of Boston, Massachusetts, on 2 April 1827, the deed being executed by Joy's attorney, David Hudson, the purchase price being $400. Lyman W. Seymour and wife sold the property for $600 to David Hanchett of Sodus on 28 April 1829. Another fifty acres in Lot 29, Township 13, was purchased from Peter Storm of Phelps, Ontario, on 7 May 1829 for $600. Storm also deeded the same property to Seymour by reason of default on 18 September 1830. The land was sold to Jacob Johnson of Sodus by Lyman and wife on 17 March 1832 for $624.

Lyman W. Seymour appears in only one census of Sodus, 1830, where his household consisted of himself and his wife, a boy, and two girls under 10, and a man, 50-60, who was probably Amos Gilbert, his father-in-law. Lyman was located fifteen households from Sidney S. Seymour, his cousin, and seventeen from Samuel Brewster, his stepfather.

On 30 April 1836, he took up the southeast quarter of Section 23 in Bethel, Michigan. The record, made 1 May 1839, states that he was from Erie County, New York. Perhaps he resided for a time at Collins, Erie County, where his mother-in-law died 1838-1840. The family went by wagon train to Michigan.

Lyman W.[3] died in 1838. Probate records of his estate list the following heirs: Mary Fowler, widow, and children Elizabeth Wilkins, Laura Towsley, Mary Brown, Mariah Salisbury, Gilbert Seymour and Marshall Seymour. Only Laura was alive in 1914 when the estate was settled.

Mary M. (Gilbert) Seymour married, second, in August of 1840 at Bethel, Samuel Fowler. The Census of 1850 includes Henry Fowler, age seven, in their household; he was probably their son. Lyman W. Seymour's farm was eventually purchased by Daniel Booth, who obtained deeds from Mary Fowler of Bethel, Gilbert Seymour of Kalamazoo County, Martial J. Seymour of Calhoun County, Laura Towsley of Bethel and David and Lucy (Seymour) Salisbury on 9 December 1853. Mary Jane (Seymour) Brown quitclaimed her interest in the farm on 7 April 1860.

After the death of Samuel Fowler in 1864, Mary joined her children in Galesburg. She married, third, William Shakespeare who was born ca. 1795 and died in June 1872. She lived to the advanced age of ninety-six. The obituary of her brother John, who died 22 July 1882, describes her of Galesburg, and the last survivor of the ten children of Amos Gilbert.

Children (aforementioned land and probate records):

i. ELIZABETH[4], b. 1826 at Sodus; called herself Elizabeth Fowler when she m. 6 Mar. 1845, JOHN M. WILKINS, both aged 19 and of Kinderhook, Mich.; sister Lura and her husband, Harmon Towsley, were witnesses. Elizabeth d. before 1850, s.p., and her husband m. again in 1851.

14. ii. LURA ELVIRA (also called Laura), b. 25 Dec. 1828, Sodus; m. (1) Harmon Towsley; (2) Samuel W. Swaddell.

iii. GILBERT H., b. 7 May 1830 or 1831 at Sodus; d. 31 Oct. 1900 at Kalamazoo; bur. in cem. one mile north of Climax, Kalamazoo Co.; m. ca. 1867, LIVONIA BURNHAM, b. 2 May 1832, dau. of Hiram and Caroline (Robinson), d. at Climax 29 May 1900, bur. with husband; no children; the only heir listed on petition for appointment of his administrator was sister Lura E. Swaddell, then aged 72 and residing at Comstock, Mich.

iv. MARTIAL J., b. ca. 1833 at Sodus. In 1853, he was residing in Calhoun Co. He enlisted as a sergeant in Company I, 7th Michigan Infantry, on 28 June 1861 at Climax and was enrolled at Fort Wayne. He subsequently went to Camp Monroe, Mich. His military records give varying accounts of his death as follows: Died 12 July 1862 at Harrisons Landing. Died 20 June 1862 on voyage to Washington, D. C., from front Richmond of typhoid fever. Died 20 June 1862 on passage from White House, Va., to Washington, D. C., on transport Webster of typhoid fever. Died of camp diarrhea while on board the steamer Webster. He was unmarried, his mother receiving a pension for his service.

v. LUCY MARIAH, b. Feb. 1834 at Sodus; m. before 1853 DAVID SALISBURY who was bur. in Card Cem. in Bethel. His will, probated 1890, left money for the care of a sister. His widow Lucy, aged 60 [sic], and daughter Helen, aged 30, are listed as "whereabouts unknown"; they may have been in Iowa. A manuscript chart compiled by R. O. Seymour relates that this Maria m. John Little, and a note states that John T. Little resided in Olathe, Johnson Co., Kansas.

15. vi. MARY JANE, b. spring of 1839, Michigan.

EBENEZER[4] SEYMOUR OF RUPERT, VERMONT AND HIS DESCENDANTS

From material Compiled by the late R. Owen Seymour and Edited by John D. Austin, F.A.S.G.

7. URIAH[3] SEYMOUR (Lyman[2], Ebenezer[1]) was born 22 March 1802 in Pompey, died in Sodus, 23 September 1881. He was buried in Sodus Rural Cemetery.

He married 21 April 1825, SALLY M. JOHNSON, born 26 October 1806, at Sodus, daughter of Ichabod and Polly (Farnham) Johnson. She is said to have been the first white female born in that town. She died there 27 December 1894, aged 88 years, 2 months, 1 day.

He came with his parents to Williamson in 1807 and to Sodus in 1810. Uriah was a farmer and a carpenter. He was listed as the head of a household in the 1830 Census with two boys under five, living next to George W. Johnson. His stepfather Samuel Brewster died in 1833; his widow Hannah (Wilber) (Seymour) Brewster lived out her years in her son Uriah's household, so was undoubtedly the female between seventy and eighty with Uriah in 1840, when his household consisted of five children. Uriah continues as the head of a household in the 1850, 1860, 1865 (New York state), 1870, 1875 (New York state) and 1880 censuses of Sodus. All of the data as to his birthplace correspond with the above, except in 1860 he is recorded as born in Vermont, and in the state census of 1865, in which he is said to have been born in Cayuga County, New York. In 1865, his married son William and family were part of his household. In 1875, his grandson Berton Seymour, son of Joseph, was in the household, together with Marvin Granger, aged thirty-seven, wife Louisa, thirty-five, and son Willie, thirteen, who were perhaps hired help. In 1880, the son Joseph was with his elderly parents. According to the recollection of Mrs. Bertha Shoecraft of Honolulu, Sally (Johnson) Seymour resided on Mill Street in Sodus after the death of her husband, and still later with Charles L. Brown at Sodus. In History of the Churches of Sodus (Sodus, N. Y., 1876), Lewis H. Clark expresses his special indebtedness to Mrs. Uriah Seymour, "very clear in her recollection of dates." She is probably the source of the birthdate of Lyman Seymour and of the reference to Ancram, Columbia County.

In 1850, Uriah Seymour was called a carpenter and farmer, in 1860-1870, farmer, and in 1875 and 1880, carpenter. In the last census it was reported that Uriah had been unemployed for the whole year preceding (see below).

His first recorded purchase of land at Sodus was 8 December 1849 when he paid $85 to Salmon C. Featherly and Nancy Ann, his wife, for five acres in Lot 2 of Township 14, second range. On 1 October 1853 he purchased for $420 from Masterton Ure, Alexander Oswald and Edmund Bucknall, by their attorney, Joseph Fellows, the north forty acres of the southeast subdivision of Lot 2, second range, Township 14, first range. Uriah and his wife sold these parcels to son William H. Seymour for $1,800 on 10 April 1860, when the parents and son were dwelling together. Uriah took a $1,200 mortgage at that time. The son conveyed the south twenty acres of the forty-acre parcel back to his father for $975 on 5 November 1860.

In 1865, Uriah's farm was valued at $2,000 by the census taker, when it consisted of thirty-seven acres of improved land, and five acres of unimproved. The stock, worth $480, included two calves and three milk cows. Tools were valued at $50. A total of fourteen acres had been plowed, six acres were fallow, six were in pasture and ten in meadow. The harvest of 1864 had included 8 tons of hay, 16 bushels of winter wheat, 48 bushels of oats, 7 bushels of buckwheat, 140 bushels of Indian corn, and 15 bushels of potatoes. Sixty-five apple trees were in fruit, yielding 125 bushels and a barrel of cider. Hamilton Child's Gazetteer and Business Directory of Wayne County, N. Y. for 1867-1868 (Syracuse, N. Y., 1867) lists Uriah Seymour, carpenter and farmer of nineteen acres, as residing in the Town of Sodus.

Uriah and his wife joined the Methodist Church in the early days of that denomination at Sodus. He suffered a paralytic stroke in August of 1880 and died a little over a year later.

By his will, dated 7 July 1881 and admitted to probate 6 February 1882, he left his estate to his widow for life, the remainder to his grandchildren, being the children of William H. Seymour, Joseph J. Seymour and William C. Sergeant. Son-in-law Sergeant of Valparaiso, Indiana, was named executor.

Children of Uriah and Sally (Johnson) Seymour, all born at Sodus (the family Bible):

i. HULDA[4], b. 23 Apr. 1826; d. 15 July 1828.

16. ii. WILLIAM HIRAM, b. 28 June 1827.

iii. LOVINE J., b. 2 Dec. 1829; d. 31 July 1847; bur. with parents at Sodus Rural Cemetery, the tombstone giving her age at death as 17 years, 7 months, 28 days [sic].

17. iv. HANNAH M., b. 9 Nov. 1832.

18. v. JOSEPH G. (or J.), b. 14 May 1835.

vi. CHARLES A., b. 24 Mar. 1838; attending school at Sodus in 1850; "gone west," according to an unidentified church record noted by R. Owen Seymour; d. 1 June 1865 at Little Rock, Ark.

vii. LYMAN WALLACE, b. 7 Aug. 1841; d. 24 Dec. 1869, ae. 28 yrs. 4 mos., 11 days (g.s. Sodus Rural Cemetery); listed as "Wallace" attending school at Sodus in 1850; in the 1860 census, he is found twice, undoubtedly because he was "working out"; once with his family as Lyman Seymour, 18, farm laborer and attending school, and secondly as Wallace Seymour, 19, attending school and living with the family of Reuben Boyd, 39, a farmer at Sodus.

viii. EMMA S., b. 19 Aug. 1844; d. 20 July 1876; attending school at Sodus in 1850 and 1860; continued to live at home and is called a teacher in 1870; m. 5 July 1870, prob. at Newark, N. Y., W. HENRY DODD, b. ca. 1843; they were at Sodus in 1875, he a farmer; he may be a William Dodd of about the right age at Rose, Wayne Co., N. Y.

8. DORCAS[3] SEYMOUR (Lyman[2], Ebenezer[1]) was born ca. 1796, according to the 1850 census, but more likely between 1800 and 1810, probably at Pompey. She probably died in Athens County, Ohio, about 1850.

She married APOLLOS LILLY (his given name and surname are found in various spellings). He was the son of John and Jerusha Lillie of Windham, Connecticut; he was baptized 5 July 1777 at the Scotland, Connecticut, Congregational Church. The Appollos, son of John, baptized there 9 June 1776, was probably an older brother who died in infancy. Apollos was unmarried perhaps as late as 1815. He died in 1855 and was buried in Lewis Cemetery, Athens Township, Athens County, Ohio.

Apollos Lilley of Williamson, Wayne County, purchased on 20 February 1812 from a land agent fifty acres in Lot 21, Township 14, second range in Ontario [later Wayne] County for $125. Lilly already owned an adjoining lot. He sold this fifty-acre parcel to Jacob W. Hallett for $310, 4 July 1815, the deed designating both parties as "of Ontario County."

By 1820 he was in Athens, Ohio, where he was recorded in the 1820 and 1830 censuses. He is called a farmer, widower and pauper in the 1850 census of Athens, residing with Isaac Tierce(?). Dorcas, strangely, is recorded with the family of her son Rufus in this same census. Perhaps she died about that time, after she had been recorded, but before her husband was. (The mortality tables of that census in the Ohio State Historical Society may indicate the dates.)

Children (family records), surname Lilly:

i. JOSEPH[4].
ii. HANNAH.

iii. BENJAMIN.

iv. RUFUS L. or P., ca. 1823, Athens Co., Ohio; m. (1) SARAH GILPIN, b. ca. 1829, d. 1850, Morgan Co., Ohio; (2) DOROTHY ———, b. ca. 1833 in Ohio. He went to Decatur Co., Iowa, had sons Charles Wesley, b. ca. 1847, and Lorenzo Dow, b. ca. 1849, by Sarah; sons Lewis C., b. ca. 1854; James W., b. ca. 1856; George C., b. ca. 1857, and Rufus R., b. ca. 1859, by Dorothy, the last two born in Iowa, the others in Ohio. In 1860, the family was in Eden Township, Decatur Co., having moved there about 1856. With his family in Athens in 1850, in addition to mother Dorcas was Mary Mathery, aged 62, born in Pennsylvania. His second wife died during the Civil War, while Rufus was away in service. He is said to have had two other wives.

v. NIMROD A., b. ca. 1833, in Ohio; m. AMANDA ———, b. ca. 1840 in Ohio. He was living in Eden Township, Decatur Co., in 1860 with children Nora J., aged 2, and Edward W., 8 mos., both b. in Iowa. He is said to have had other children.

vi. LUCY.

9. AMARILLA[3] SEYMOUR (Lyman[2], Ebenezer[1]) was born in 1805 in Pompey, and died about 1870 in Sterling, Whiteside County, Illinois; she is said to have been buried across the river at Rock Falls.

She married ca. 1824, DAVID REED, who was born 16 October 1799 and died 11 September 1849, aged 49 years, 10 months, 25 days, buried in the York Settlement Cemetery, Huron, Wayne County, New York. He may have been related to Dorcas (Dorcus) Reed who was in Sodus in 1820 and was living there, next door to David Reed, in 1830; land records of 1848 indicate a connection between them. Another possible relative is Theophilus Reed, at Sodus with a wife and two young children in 1830 and 1840, living but four houses away from David Reed.

In 1830, David Reed's family is recorded at Sodus with two boys under 5; in 1840 with three boys and three girls under 15. In 1836 he is called of Huron; in 1838 and 1845, of Rose; and in 1848, of Sodus. At his death he was a resident of Sodus, probably living in the Alton neighborhood. His widow was in Huron, probably at York Settlement, in 1850, listed as unable to read or write. The second son, Byron, aged twenty, was a laborer, and all of the other children, except eldest son Nelson, were at home. Amarilla (Seymour) Reed and family disappear from Wayne County censuses (but note that the 1855 state schedule for Sodus is not available) until 1865, when she is residing with her five youngest children at Sodus. The record lists her as a once-married widow, the mother of ten children; it also states that she was born in Wayne County, which is undoubtedly an error.

The earliest real property transaction of record pertaining to David

Reed is his purchase, 12 July 1836, of 23.37 acres from Stephen Smith and wife Deborah of Rose for $750, being the north half of Lot 502, Gillespie's Allotment, Fitzhugh Tract, Williamson's Patent. Two years later, by two deeds, he conveyed property in Lot 2, First Range of 14th Township, Sodus. On 8 September 1838, he sold for $115 five acres to John Ferguson of Sodus. Two days later, he and wife Amarilla sold twenty-five acres to Jeremiah Burroughs of Sodus for $500. In both cases, the premises sold were bounded by lands formerly owned by Sidney S. Seymour (see no. 11, infra), a first cousin of Amarilla. David Reed mortgaged land in Rose to Jerry C. Rogers of Sodus for $144.54, 28 May 1845.

On 1 June 1848, David Reed of Sodus purchased from Masterson Ure and others for $140 the north 22½ acres of Lot 10, Sixth Range, Colt's Allotment in the Gore, town of Sodus. On the same day, Dorcas Reed of Sodus purchased an adjacent ten acres from the same grantors. David Reed mortgaged his premises to Isaac Lamb, Jr., of Lyons, 15 July 1848, for $120.

According to records of the administration of his estate, David Reed died owning the 28.37 acres in Rose and the homestead farm of 22½ acres in Sodus. Uriah Seymour, his brother-in-law, and widow Amarilla were appointed administrators, 23 October 1849. They sold both farms to Erastus Pollock of Sodus for $750, 9 May 1850, taking back a mortgage for $150.79.

Bonding the administrators were Bethuel Reed and Jerry C. Rogers. David's estate was valued at less than $250! The decedent held a note of Reasar J. Reed and another of Dorcus Reed. Personal property inventoried 19 January 1850 included a cider barrel, old harness, sleigh, Jenny mare, yearling heifer, two swine, one ton of hay, lot of corn and stalks, three beds and bedding for the summer, stove and furniture, two spinning wheels, six chairs, books and picture, one stand, one table, six knives and forks, nine sheep, two hogs, one lumber waggon, five tons of hay, one cutter, two bushels of rye, one pitchfork, one shovel, one plow, wheat on the ground, one calf, corn in the crib, a fourteen-year-old ewe, a twelve-year-old heifer [sic], four geese, twelve fowls, one clock, one clothes press, some clothes, one pair stulyards, one hoe, one lot of poor corn, flail, one ax, one yearling heifer and neck yoke.

Children of David and Amarilla (Seymour) Reed, all born in Wayne County:

19. i. NELSON W. S.[4], b. 16 Oct. 1825.
20. ii. BYRON G., b. 1831.
iii. SUSAN ANGELINE (also called Angelica), b. 1832; at Huron with her family in 1850; m. ——— JONES. Alice R. Murray of Germantown, Philadelphia, Pa., wrote in Apr. 1939 that she was a granddaughter of Angeline Reed (who was bur. in Sterling, Ill., on the same lot as Amarilla (Seymour) Reed) and that her mother (Angeline's daughter) was bur. 31 Mar. 1939 in Woodlawn Cem., Canandaigua, N. Y.

iv. MARIA AMARILLA, b. 1834; m. ——— MUTTENRIDGE; settled in the west, according to Alzada (Ridgway) Seymour [see No. 11 infra].

v. CAROLINE LOVILLA, b. 1837; called Lovilla in 1850 census, when she was attending school; m. ——— SHEPHERD: settled in the west, according to Alzada (Ridgway) Seymour.

21. vi. OREN D. (also called Orville), b. 1841.

vii. HANNAH JANE, b. ca. 1842; attending school in 1850; called Jane and single in mother's household, 1865, Sodus.

22. viii. WILLIAM D., b. 24 Oct. 1842, Sodus Bay.

ix. LAURA L., b. 1846; with mother's household at Huron in 1850 and Sodus in 1865; m. at Phelps, Ontario Co., N. Y., 17 Apr. 1872, WALTER A. SIBBETT. She was bur. in York Settlement Cemetery, Huron.

x. MARTHA E., b. 1848; with mother's household in 1850 and 1865.

EBENEZER[4] SEYMOUR OF RUPERT, VERMONT AND HIS DESCENDANTS

From material Compiled by the late R. Owen Seymour and Edited by John D. Austin, F.A.S.G.

10. LUCY[3] SEYMOUR (Lyman[2], Ebenezer[1]) was born probably between 1804 and 1810. The 1850 record of her age as thirty-two is undoubtedly an error. R. O. Seymour said that she was unmarried in December 1835, when her mother settled the estate of Samuel Brewster, Lucy's stepfather.

She married (before 1837?) JOSEPH GRACE, born in Vermont, circa 1805, the son of Joseph and Susan (Close) Grace. His father died circa 1817 in Lyons, Wayne County, New York, and Susan Grace, the widow, was listed there in 1820 with five children: four boys, one girl, under 10; and in 1830 with four males 10-30 (probably 20) and one girl 10-15.

On 13 November 1831, Joseph Grace of Lyons bought from Masterton Ure and John Gordon, by their attorney Joseph Fellows, for $15, three acres in the south part of subdivision 2, lot 13, first range, Colt's allotment of the gore, Lyons, located on Sodus Road; he sold it on 31 May 1832 to Peter Vanderbergh of Red Hook, Dutchess County, New York, for $100, taking a purchase money mortgage, which was satisfied 13 September 1832 upon certification of Joseph Grace. Joseph Grace and his wife took part in the migration from New York to Michigan, where after 1839 he was an owner of the old Shiawassee Exchange Farm in Shiawassee Township and County, succeeding Sidney S. Seymour (No. 12, supra). He was an original owner of forty acres in section 31, Vernon Township, Shiawassee County, in 1853. In 1850 the family is recorded in Novi, Oakland County. Joseph's brother, John Grace, also migrated from Wayne County to Michigan and died 7 February 1860 at Fulton, Gratiot County.

Children of Joseph and Lucy (Seymour) Grace, all born in Michigan (1850 census):

i. BENJAMIN[4], aged 13, b. ca. 1836-1837.
ii. HANNAH, aged 8, b. ca. 1841-1842.
iii. SEYMOUR, aged 2, b. ca. 1847-1848.
iv. LURA, aged 1, b. ca. 1848-1849.

11. ORRIN B.[3] SEYMOUR (Lyman[2], Ebenezer[1]) was born 8 November 1812, probably in Sodus, Wayne County; he died 28 June 1885 in Huron, Wayne County and was buried there in York Settlement Cemetery.

He married 25 February 1833, probably in Sodus, ANN MARIA FELLER, born 18 June 1814 in Columbia County, New York, daughter of Philip Nicholas and Mary (—) Feller or Fellows, both buried in the Episcopal Cemetery in Sodus. Ann Maria died 25 June 1902 and was buried beside her husband.

R. O. Seymour suggested that Orin B. Seymour was the boy, aged 15-20, in the household of Sidney S. Seymour, his first cousin (No. 12 supra) in the 1830 census of Sodus; he was not then listed in his stepfather's household.

In 1840, Oren B. Seymour appeared as the head of a household in Lyons, consisting of his wife and a boy and two girls under 10. By the 1850 census, he had moved to Rose, Wayne County, where he was a farmer with property valued at $800; his wife is erroneously called "Almyra" in this record, which also lists two of the children with incorrect names. Residing with the family was "Byram" Reed, nineteen, Oren's nephew, also a farmer. On 2 January 1855 Oren purchased from DeWitt Parshall and Susan, his wife, of Lyons, for $800, a tract of 44.2 acres in lot 509, Fitzhugh tract, Williamson's patent, town of Rose. Parshall took a $500 mortgage, which was later discharged.

By 1860, Oren had moved to Huron, where his property was valued at $900, and he and his son Adelbert were called day laborers. Five years later he was still at Huron, a farmer, with his wife and four youngest children (New York State census). The homestead was valued at $100. An 1867 gazetteer of Wayne County calls him a farmer with thirty-four acres in Huron, receiving his mail from the Alton post office. He continues to be listed in Huron in the 1870, 1875, and 1880 censuses. In every listing after 1850, his wife is called Maria, and in 1865 she is designated as the mother of eight children. In 1870, Oren is called a farmer with property valued at $1,990, and son Uriah and family were listed in the household. Only the youngest son Thaddeus was at home in 1875, when the frame homestead was valued at $500. Both Thaddeus and Eugene were at home in 1880; in that census, Oren stated a fact significant in the identification of his grandfather, that his father was born in Vermont!

His given name is spelled interchangeably "Oren," "Orrin," and "Orin" in extant records; his will of 26 February 1884 was signed "Orin B. Seymour." He names his wife Ann Mariah as executrix, and mentions four granddaughters: Margaret Seymour, Nelly Eugena Reed, Myrtle Seymour ("daughter of my deceased son Adelbert") and Susan Seymour; daughters Ellen G. Reed and Mary A. York; and sons Uriah H. and Thaddeus O. Seymour. Witnesses were William W. Gatchell and Edmund D. Bradshaw, both of Huron.

Children of Oren B. and Ann Maria (Feller) Seymour, all born in Wayne County:

i. ELLEN JANE[4], b. 2 Dec. 1835; m. her first cousin, NELSON W. S. REED (No. 19 supra).

23. ii. EUGENE F., b. 5 June 1837.

iii. ALMIRA A., b. 8 Mar. 1838; m. her first cousin, BYRON G. REED (No. 20 supra).

24. iv. MARY A., b. 1 Jan. 1842.

v. P. ADELBERT, b. 22 Oct. 1844; d. 1871, bur. Espenscheid Cem., near Alton, town of Sodus; m. ELLEN L. POMEROY, b. 18 July 1847, Sodus; d. 1871 and bur. with her husband; dau. of Ashbel Strong and Mary A. (Featherly) Pomeroy, who were living in Huron in 1865. Adelbert is incorrectly called "Margaret," aged 6, in his father's family at Rose in 1850. At the age of 15, he was called a day laborer and was also attending school in Huron (1860 census). He is undoubtedly the same person found in the same census in Williamson, Wayne Co., as a 15-year-old laborer in the household of Philip and Mary Mink, who were probably related to his mother; his grandmother Mary (———) Feller or Fellows having m. (2) Peter Mink. Also in the Mink household was Almira Feller, aged 36. Adelbert is found as a single farmer, aged 20, in his father's household in Huron in 1865. He and his wife Ellen are both listed as aged 23 (sic), he a laborer and she keeping house, in Ashbel Pomeroy's household in Huron in 1870. Only child: Myrtle L., b. 23 Sept. 1869, Huron; with her widowed grandmother Mary Pomeroy in the 1875 census of Huron; attending school from her grandmother's home at Huron in 1880. She is mentioned in her grandfather Seymour's will of 1884. On 24 Sept. 1885 she petitioned to have her uncle Lester D. Seymour of Butler, Wayne Co., appointed her guardian. According to the petition, her relatives residing in Wayne Co. were Mary Pomeroy and Anna M. Seymour, both grandparents, both of Huron; Uriah H. and Thaddeus O. Seymour, uncles, no residence listed; Ellen J. Reed and Almira Reed, aunts, both of Huron; Lester D. Seymour of Butler and Eugene F. Seymour of Wolcott, uncles. On 30 Jan. 1901, Lester D. Seymour deposed that Myrtle L. Seymour came of full age "several years since, that she has been twice married and is now a widow the second time."

25. vi. URIAH HORATIO, b. 4 Nov. 1846.

26. vii. LESTER DRAPER, b. 25 July 1848.

viii. THADDEUS ORIN, b. 16 Nov. 1851; d. 18 Apr. 1922 in Huron, aged 70 years, 5 months, 2 days (g.s. in York Settlement Cem.); m. Nov. 1884, ALZADA V. RIDGWAY, b. 22 Apr. 1863; d. 1951. "Aunt Alzada" was a frequent correspondent of R. O. Seymour in his genealogical research. Thaddeus was attending school at age 8 in 1860; in 1865 he was in the family home, aged 13; in 1870, aged 17; in 1875, aged 22, and 1880, aged 25. His occupation was given in none of these entries. In surrogate proceedings concerning his father's will (1884), Thaddeus is listed as aged 33, residing in Huron. He is called a farmer in Huron in the 1892 census with his wife; his mother was living with them. His household on Maple Ave., Huron, in 1915 included s. Basil, aged 12, and dau. Amelia, aged 11, and a nephew, Edwin Frice (?), aged 45, a carpenter. Thaddeus is called a farmer in his death certificate. By his will, dated 10 Feb. 1910, he left his entire estate to his widow. Her petition showed that he was also survived by sister Mary A. York of Chicago, brother Lester D. Seymour of Wolcott, adopted s. Basil Seymour and adopted dau. Amelia Clingerman. Children (adopted): 1. Basil, b. ca. 1903; living with Marvin Shannon in North Rose in 1922; m. Leola ———. 2. Amelia, b. 1903; m. Earl Clingerman; she d. in 1949 and was bur. in York Settlement Cem. with "Baby" Clingerman, who d. 1947.

12. SIDNEY S.[3] SEYMOUR (Ebenezer[2-1]) was born 20 April 1799 in Pompey, Onondaga County, New York; he died 4 February 1852 in Shiawassee. Donald L. Jacobus (A History of the Seymour Family [New Haven, 1939]) stated that he died in 1895.

He married RHODA BAKER, born 15 June 1799 in Franklin (sic, perhaps Frankfort), Herkimer County, New York, and died 1 July 1854 in Shiawassee. Jesse Baker and Ezekiel Baker appear as heads of households in the 1800 census of Frankfort, both with girls under 10. Rhoda was a sister of Hosea Baker, who was a first settler of Shiawassee Township in 1833, and its first supervisor in 1836.

Sidney Seymour is not found in the 1820 census, when he was probably residing in Sodus, but in 1830 he was there with a family of six children and two males over 26, living two houses from his father, and fifteen from his first cousin, Lyman W. Seymour. On 16 June 1828 he purchased for $300 from Jeremiah W. Pollock of Sodus (executing the deed as J. Wilson Pollock), 25½ acres in Sodus, on the west bank of Salmon Creek, being the south equal half of land in the west part of lot 3, first range, Colt's allotment in the gore between preemption lines. Pollock took a $200 mortgage, and Sidney and wife Rhoda, the same day, sold the property to Byington Newell of Sodus for $300. Sidney purchased for $112 on 18 August 1833 from Masterton Ure and others, sixteen acres in lot 2, first range, township 14, bounded on the south by fifty acres of J. W. Hallet and Lyman Seymour, and on the north and east by the Ridge Road. He and Rhoda sold 3 roods and 13 rods to Sidney King of Sodus for $15, on 24 February 1834, the property being in the 14th township and near the residence of Sidney and Rhoda. On 9 January 1835, Sidney purchased from Myron Park of Bloomfield, Ontario County, part of lot 3, second range, township 14, Sodus. The fifty acres was sold for $300. He later sold the home lot on Ridge Road to Peter Brant of Sodus for $310, Brant owning abutting property. The fifty acres in lot 3 were sold 5 October 1835 to John H. Kelly of Sodus for $500. The profits realized in both cases were substantial.

Sidney Seymour moved to Shiawassee County, Michigan, purchasing 160 acres from the federal government on 29 October 1835, it being the northeast quarter and the east half of the northwest quarter, section 23-6-3. He came to Shiawassee in 1836 and built a log cabin on his property. The tradition is that the family journeyed in two groups, Rhoda bringing four of the children by stage. He returned to New York State but was back in 1838, when he purchased the Shiawassee Exchange Farm, later owned by Joseph Grace (No. 9 supra). His house became a well-known wayside inn and ballroom. Sidney afterwards purchased a farm in section 25, where he resided the rest of his life. On 18 October 1843 he sold the tract in section 23 to George N. Merrill for $1,000. Sidney does not appear on a Shiawassee tax list for 1840, but his household in the 1840 census for Shiawassee township consisted of eight individuals under 20, and four adults. He is called a farmer, born in New York, in the 1850 census, with wife Rhoda, the only children then at home being George, twenty-five, born in New York, and Lenis (Lois), seventeen, born in Michigan. Daughters Lucinda and Martha were nearby with their families.

Children of Sidney S. and Rhoda (Baker) Seymour, all born in Sodus, except the two youngest in Shiawassee:

i. HARRIET CHARITY[4], b. 8 May 1818, prob. Sodus, although the 1860 and 1870 censuses show her b. 1822, and her death record gives date of birth as 8 May 1829; she d. 19 Dec. 1909 in Denver, Colo., bur. Fairmount Cem.; m. 13. ORSON[3] SEYMOUR (Ebenezer[2-1]) was born 6 December 1801, in Pompey; he died 14 April 1875 in Sodus, and was buried in Sodus Rural Cemetery.

He married circa 1833 SUSAN GRACE, born in August or September 1816 in Kennebec, Maine, daughter of Joseph and Susan (Close) Grace and sister of Joseph Grace, who married Lucy[3] Seymour (No. 10 supra). She came from Maine to Lyons in Wayne County at an early age. She died 11 January 1895, aged 79 years, 3 months, and 24 days (gravestone in Sodus Rural Cemetery) or 14 January 1895, aged 79 years, 4 months, 24 days (obituary in Wayne County Alliance, 16 January 1895).

Orson was listed as the head of a household in the 1840 census with one son 5-10 in Sodus, where he resided the rest of his life. He is called a farmer in the 1850, 1860, 1865, 1870, and 1875 censuses of Sodus. His sons, Morrill and Morris, were at home attending school in 1850. By 1860 the older boy was married and living elsewhere in Sodus, but his family was with Orson, Susan and Morris in 1865 (New York State census) when the family home was a frame dwelling, valued at $350. In 1867 Orson was in Sodus Village, farming forty acres. Morris was still at home in 1870, farming with his father, but he was married and had left the homestead by 1875. Widow Susan was living with Morris in 1880. In 1865 and 1875 her birthplace is stated to be Maine; in 1880, however, she is said to have been born in New York State, and both her parents in Massachusetts. Susan was with son Morris in the 1892 census of Sodus. She is said to have resided sixty-one years on the Sodus homestead.

Orson Seymour's name appears frequently in Wayne County land records. On 24 July 1825 he purchased from Samuel Ledyard and Sophia, his wife, of Williamson, for $300, a twenty-five-acre tract in the southeast corner of lot 5, township 14, Sodus, and a small village lot on the south side of Ridge Road; he gave Ledyard a mortgage for $281 the same day. On 19 December 1829, Orson sold the twenty-five-acre parcel for $300 to Phineas Heard of Ontario. Masterton Ure and others conveyed to Orson Seymour fifty-three acres in lot 4, first range, township 14, on 1 August 1833 for $250. He sold twenty-three acres of this tract to Josiah D. Dunning of Sodus for $230 on 30 May 1836.

Orson and Susan sold thirteen acres in Sodus to John Ferguson of Sodus for $250 in 1841. On 6 October of that year, John Ferguson and Catharine, his wife, of Sodus, sold back five acres in lot 2, first range, formerly belonging to Sidney S. Seymour, Orson's brother. On 8 October 1851, Orson and Susan sold to Dennis Lefurgey of Sodus, for $451, five acres in lot 2, first range, township 14, Sodus, which formerly belonged to William Tillotson and Louisa, his wife, of Sodus.

In 1865, Orson's farm consisted of thirty-two acres of improved land, nine acres of unimproved. Eleven acres were plowed, seven were in pasture and ten in meadow. The farm was valued at $2,100; the stock, at $275 and tools, at $150. In 1864, the farm yielded 18 tons of hay, 10 bushels of winter wheat, 20 bushels of oats, 50 of Indian corn and 15 of potatoes. There were forty-five apple trees in fruit, yielding 250 bushels and a barrel of cider. A yield of 10 bushels of peaches was also recorded. He had two calves and three milk cows, with butter production of 200 pounds in that year.

His will, dated 13 November 1868, was admitted to probate 19 August 1895, when wife and son Morris became executors. The other son, Morrill, then aged sixty and residing at El Dorado, Kansas, is not mentioned in the will, and he waived his rights on 23 May 1895.

Children of Orson and Susan (Grace) Seymour:

i. MORRILL D.[3], b. 16 Sept. 1834, Sodus; d. 17 Dec. 1900, Eldorado, Kans.; bur. there in West Cem.; m. 28 Apr. 1858, SARAH J. BANCROFT, b. 1 Dec. 1834; d. 5 Jan. 1924, Methodist Home for the Aged, Topeka, Kans., bur. with husband; dau. of Lysel and Lucinda (Gardner) Bancroft of Ft. Edward, Washington Co., N. Y. Morrill and Susan were residing at Sodus in 1860 and 1865, he a farmer. He enlisted 14 Oct. 1861 in Company C, 8th Cavalry, as a wagoner, and was subsequently promoted to wagonmaster; he was discharged with the regiment 27 June 1865. They moved to Butler Co., Kans., in the early 1870s and ran the Snow Hotel at El Dorado for several years. He later farmed in Rosalia Twp. nearby, managed a hotel at Douglass and returned to El Dorado. She served as city treasurer of El Dorado and was active in the Methodist church and the WCTU. She lived alone after her husband's death, becoming blind. She later resided at the Mother Bickerdyke Home, Ellsworth, Kans., and the Methodist home at Topeka. By her will, Mrs. Seymour left her property to Wesley Hospital, Wichita; Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church; and her sister, Mary B. Brown, who had predeceased her. The estate was valued at $304.33. One child: Herbert B., b. ca. 1859, Sodus; d. soon after 1900 in Denver, leaving three children: Glen Kise (or Kiser), Sadie Grace, and another dau., m. Walter Wurfil.

ii. MORRIS J., b. 24 Dec. 1840, Sodus; d. ca. May 1920; m. 1870, HANNAH GENEVIEVE BURT, b. ca. 1848, Montgomery Co., N. Y.; place and date of death unknown. Morris is found with his family in the 1850, 1860, 1865, and 1870 censuses of Sodus. On 30 Aug. 1862, he enlisted in Company D, 160th N. Y. Infantry, and was mustered at Auburn, N. Y.; he served until 1 Nov. 1865 when the regiment was discharged. He was wounded at the battle of Winchester, Opequan. He was promoted to corp. 1 Sept. 1863 and to serg. 1 Aug. 1865. He was a member of Dwight Post, G. A. R., of Sodus, and was serving as its comm. at his death. He was the last survivor of his Civil War co. He continued to farm the family homestead, his mother residing with him until her death in 1895. Wife Hannah probably d. before 1905, when Morris was a day laborer, boarding with Arthur Fell. No record of any children has been found.

14. LURA ELVIRA[4] SEYMOUR (Lyman W.[3], Lyman[2], Ebenezer[1]) was born 25 December 1828 in Sodus; she died 15 November 1918 in Alamo, Michigan.

She married, first, 24 September 1843, HARMON TOWSLEY, born 8 March 1821, at Oxford, Ontario, son of Myron and Anna (Hutchinson) Towsley. Some time before his marriage, Harmon settled in Indiana, just over the line from Kinderhook, Branch County, Michigan. In the marriage record of Sarah Towsley and Henry Ticker, 3 January 1847 in Branch County, Harmon, a witness, is called of Jameston, Steuben County, Indiana. He later went to northern Michigan for reasons of health and died there 14 May 1852.

16. William Hiram[4] Seymour (Uriah[3], Lyman[2], Ebenezer[1]), was born 28 June 1827 in Sodus; he died 28 February 1899 (1898 in Uriah Seymour Bible) in Junction City, Kansas.

He married on 8 November 1860 HANNAH SEDORE, born 14 December 1835 in White Creek, Washington County, New York, or over the line in Vermont; she died in Junction City on 29 February 1904.

In the 1850 census he was called "Hiram W." and was a carpenter, aged twenty-three, residing with his family in Sodus in 1850. In 1860, still living at home, he was called William H., aged thirty-three, a farmer with property valued at $2,300. His wife Hannah and their two older children were with the Uriah Seymour family in Sodus in 1865. William H. Seymour, captain, enlisted in May 1861 in Company K, 14th New York Regiment. Hannah, in the last-mentioned census, calls herself a native of Vermont and the mother of two children.

As noted heretofore, William purchased property from his father in 1860. James Stubbins of Sodus assigned a $300 mortgage to him on 24 November 1853, when William was twenty-six years old. In the 1867 Gazetteer, he is called a farmer with twenty-two acres in Sodus Village. He probably sold his holdings, although there is no record of any conveyance. He, his wife, and the two oldest children were in Shiawassee in 1870, when he was called a carpenter and joiner and his wife was keeping house. His property was valued in that year at $1,150.

William and his family moved to Valparaiso after 1870, perhaps to join his brother-in-law and sister, William C. and Hannah M. (Seymour) Sergeant, who went there before 1870. The family moved to Kansas about 1876, where he was residing in Manhattan, Riley County, in 1881.

Children of William Hiram and Hannah (Sedore) Seymour:

i. EVA S.[5], b. 15 Apr. 1862, Sodus, N. Y.; d. 18 Oct. 1953, Kansas City, Kans.; bur. Highland Park Cem.; m. W. H. MACKEY, who d. before 2 Feb. 1945. Among their children were a dau., Evelyn, unm., res. Kansas City; and a s., res. Parsons, Kans., in 1955.

ii. WILLIAM D., b. 5 Apr. 1865, Sodus; d. 2 July 1884, Manhattan, Kansas.

17. HANNAH M.[4] SEYMOUR (Uriah[3], Lyman[2], Ebenezer[1]) was born 9 November 1832 in Sodus; she died 28 January 1877 in Valparaiso, and was buried there in the "old city cemetery."

She married 29 November 1856 (20 May 1856, in a note of R. O. Seymour) WILLIAM C. SERGEANT, grandson of Richard and Hannah (Harkness) Sergeant, who came to western New York from Massachusetts. William Sergeant, aged twenty-one, and born in New York State, appears in the 1850 census of Sodus as a farmer in the household of Hannah Sergeant, aged forty-two, with Fideliah, fourteen; John, eleven; and Eveline, nine. The value of the farm, $1,500, is set opposite Hannah's name; thus it appears that she was William's widowed mother. In the same census are found Nathan Sergeant, aged fifty-two and born in Massachusetts, probably an uncle of William, with wife Permelia, forty-two, and son Milan, sixteen. William Sergeant and Hannah, his mother, went to Indiana in 1852, and settled in Valparaiso. The Hannah Sergeant of Sodus who was probably William's mother died in Valparaiso, 10 October 1872, aged sixty-five. She is referred to in an obituary notice as mother of Mrs. John Boyd of Sodus. After his wife's death, William married, secondly, ——— Fall, by whom he had a daughter, Nellie, who married ——— Hodsden.

Children of William and Hannah M. (Seymour) Sergeant:

18. JOSEPH G. (or J.)[4] SEYMOUR (Uriah[3], Lyman[2], Ebenezer[1]) was born 14 May 1835 in Sodus. He died there 24 November 1890, aged 55 years, 6 months, and 10 days, and is buried with his parents in Sodus Rural Cemetery.

He married, first, 31 December 1857, CATHERINE SILVERNAIL, perhaps of Yates County, New York, who died in Sodus some time after 1865.

His second wife, whom he married 3 February 1886 in Huron, was MRS. MARY C. BLANCHARD of that place. She died in Sodus 29 October 1921, aged seventy-six. Letters of administration were issued to her daughter, Florence E. Knapp of Sodus.

In the 1850 census of Sodus, Joseph was residing with his family, called both a farmer and a schoolchild, aged fifteen. He resided in Yates County after his marriage. In 1880, he was again with his parents in Sodus. At the time of his death, he was town clerk of Sodus.

Children of Joseph G. and Catherine (Silvernail) Seymour:

i. CHARLIE M.[5], b. ca. Aug. 1860 in Yates Co.; d. 27 Nov. 1876, aged 16 years, 3 months (g.s. Sodus Rural Cem.). In 1875, he was a laborer living with W. H. Dodd, his uncle by marriage, a farmer in Sodus.
ii. EDWIN J., b. 24 Dec. 1858, in Yates Co.; killed in Rochester, N. Y., 11 Dec. 1907; bur. in Sodus Rural Cem.; m. 11 Sept. 1895 MARY E. GIBSON of Sodus, b. 28 Jan. 1863, in Greenwood, Ont.; dau. of J. W. Gibson of Sodus. Edwin went to live with his grandparents in Sodus at an early age. He had one dau.

iii. BERTON, b. 1865, Yates Co.; in 1875, he was living with his Seymour grandparents in Sodus; in 1880 he was a farm laborer in the household of John and Imogene Shaw in Arcadia, Wayne Co. He was working in Corning at the time of his father's death in 1890.

19. NELSON W. S.[4] REED (Amarilla[3] Seymour, Lyman[2], Ebenezer[1]) was born 16 October 1825 in Lyons, died 29 February 1896 in Huron, and was buried in York Settlement Cemetery.

He married circa 1855 ELLEN J.[4] SEYMOUR, his first cousin and daughter of Orrin[3] and Ann Maria (Feller) Seymour. She was born 2 December 1835 in Sodus; she died 16 April 1913 in Wolcott, Wayne County.

In 1855, the census records him as a farmer in Huron, having been living there since March. In the same household were his sister Hannah and brother Byron. Nelson was still farming in Huron in 1860.

He was drafted for Civil War service, and inducted at Auburn, New York, on 3 April 1865 for a one-year term with the 65th Regiment. He served in Company I of the 65th and was discharged 26 August 1865. In the New York State census he is called a laborer and his wife is recorded as being the mother of four children.

He is called a farmer in Huron in all censuses from 1870 to 1892 and at his death. His widow survived him by seventeen years and was living with their son Harry in 1905, and probably at her death in 1912. Her will, dated 20 August 1912, mentions the son Harry, who was named executor, as were granddaughters Ellen Pierson and Effie Caster, grandsons Benjamin and Albert Daily, and Laura Sibbits, "aunt of Effie and Ellen."

Children of Nelson W. S. and Ellen J. (Seymour) Reed, born in Huron:

i. HARRY D.[5], b. 1857; d. after 1913 and bur. with parents in York Settlement Cem.; he m. after 1880 LILLIE M. ———, b. ca. 1865; he was a farmer in Huron, and was called boatman in 1880. One dau. Effie, b. ca. 1891; m. ca. 1912 ——— Caster (named in her grandmother's will).

20. BYRON G.[4] REED (Amarilla[3] Seymour, Lyman[2], Ebenezer[1]) was born in 1831 in Wayne County; he died in 1906 in Huron, and was buried beside his wife in York Settlement Cemetery.

He married circa 1857, ALMIRA A.[4] SEYMOUR, his first cousin, daughter of Orrin[3] and Ann Maria (Feller) Seymour. She was born 8 March 1838 in Wayne County and died in Huron 2 March 1896, aged 56 years, 11 months (death certificate).

In 1850, Byron was a laborer living with his widowed mother in Huron. In the New York State census, 1855, he is called a boatman, living in the household of his older brother. In 1860, still a boatman, he, his wife and eldest son were in Huron; his estate was valued at $200. In censuses from 1865 to 1875, he was in Huron, a boatman; in those of 1880 and 1892, he is called a farmer.

Children of Byron G. and Almira A. (Seymour) Reed:

i. WILLIAM G.[5], b. ca. 1858; became a minister; living in Newark, Wayne Co., in 1937.

ii. DELMER S., b. 1861; d. unm. 18 Aug. 1895; bur. with parents; in 1880, he was called a farm laborer and attending school, in the household of his uncle, Lester D. Seymour, in Huron; he was living with his parents in 1892.

21. ORIN D.[4] REED (Amarilla[3] Seymour, Lyman[2], Ebenezer[1]) was born in Sodus in 1841; he died 5 August 1882 in Rock Falls, Illinois, and was buried with his mother in the Sterling, Illinois, cemetery.

He married 24 December 1866 in Flint, Michigan, ELECTA J. HURD, who was born 27 June 1851 in Cranetown, Seneca County, New York, and died after 1917. The marriage record calls him "Orville." His widow married secondly 12 September 1886 in Cairo, Michigan, Leonard M. Reynolds, who died 11 November 1890 in Frankenmuth, Michigan. She married thirdly Edward Flint, who died 12 February 1916 in Port Angeles, Clallam County, Washington, where she was in 1917.

Orin Reed was living with his parents and attending school in Sodus in 1850. In 1865 he was listed as a laborer and a voter and was head of his widowed mother's household. He enlisted 24 May 1861 in Dixon, Illinois, with the 13th Regiment, Illinois Infantry, and was discharged 1 July 1862 in Jacksonport, Arkansas. Although he had received back injuries, he re-enlisted 29 February 1864 in the 148th Regiment, New York Infantry, from Geddes, Onondaga County, New York. He was taken prisoner 27 October 1864 in Fair Oaks, Virginia, and was discharged 26 July 1865.

His widow remained in Illinois until some time after 1882, when she moved to Michigan. She was living in Cass Bridge, Saginaw County, in 1890. As noted above, she later moved with her third husband to the state of Washington, where she probably died.

Children of Orin D. and Electa J. (Hurd) Reed, all probably born in Illinois:

i. EVA M.[5], b. 17 July 1871; m. ——— GARVEY.
ii. MAGGIE D., b. 8 Jan. 1874.
iii. INA I., b. 23 Aug. 1876.

22. WILLIAM D.[4] REED (Amarilla[3] Seymour, Lyman[2], Ebenezer[1]) was born 24 October 1842 in Sodus Bay; he died 23 December 1925 in Kansas City, Missouri, where he was buried in the Elmwood Cemetery.

He married "at Dr. Ball's house" in Melvern, Osage County, Kansas, 1 June 1871, SARAH ANN CONVERSE, who was born 30 September 1845 in Jerseyville, Illinois, and died 26 March 1930, in Maple Park, Missouri; she was buried beside her husband.

On 29 August 1862, William D. Reed enlisted at Hopewell, Ontario County, in Company K, 148th Regiment, New York Infantry, and was mustered into service in Geneva, New York, on 14 September. He was captured 27 October 1864 in Seven Pines, Virginia, receiving gunshot wounds in both legs, and became a prisoner of war. Upon his release, he was discharged in Rochester, on 25 July 1865.

He was living in Alton in 1865, and in Melvern in 1871. Later he lived in Pleasant Hill and Collins, Missouri; Salina, Kansas; and Polo and Kansas City, Missouri. He was a farmer and at the time of his death he was living in Kansas City with his daughter Maude.

23. EUGENE F.[4] SEYMOUR (Orrin[3], Lyman[2], Ebenezer[1]) was born 5 June 1837 in Wayne County; he died 11 April 1887 in Wolcott, aged 50 years, 10 months, and 6 days. He was buried in York Settlement Cemetery.

He married, before 1865, GUETTE GATCHELL, born 9 January 1837 in Wayne County, daughter of Elisha and Margaret (Britton) Gatchell. She died 29 October 1871 in Huron and was buried with her husband.

Eugene was at home with his family in Rose in 1850, attending school; in 1860, he was a farm laborer living with the family of Alva Brundage in Lyons. On 25 July 1863, he was drafted for service and served in the 146th Infantry; he was wounded in the leg in Spotsylvania, Virginia. He was taken prisoner in Libby, Virginia, and was discharged 30 May 1865 from St. Mary's Hospital, Rochester. He was the only drafted man of 1863 from Huron who saw service in battle.

In 1865 he and his bride were residing with her parents. She was listed as the mother of one child, although none was listed as living. In 1870, Eugene was the head of a household and a farmer in Huron with a wife and two children. A widower, he is not found in the 1875 census, but in 1880 he was a farm laborer living with his father. He was residing in Butler in 1885.

His mother sold him eight acres in the northeast part of the east part of lot 542, Caveron tract, Williamson's patent, town of Huron, on 23 December 1865, for $300. The tract was bounded by land owned by John York. Five days later, DeWitt Parshall and Susan, his wife, of Lyons, sold Eugene Seymour five acres in the southeast part of the same lot for $275. His brother-in-law and sister, Samuel and Mary York of Rose, sold to him on 23 June 1865, for $400, the lot on Blockhouse Road in Rose. Eugene and his wife sold the land back to Mary A. York on 30 July 1866 for $495.

Children of Eugene F. and Guette (Gatchell) Seymour, all born in Huron:

i. (Daughter)[5], b. and d. before 1865.

ii. CHARLES A., "only son," b. 1863; d. 17 Mar. 1890, bur. with parents.

iii. MAGGIE A., b. 5 Jan. 1863; d. 17 Mar. 1890, bur. with parents; in 1880, she was living with her uncle, Charles Gatchell and her grandmother, Margaret, in Huron; note that she was also listed with her uncle, Uriah H. Seymour, in Huron; she m. THEODORE J. EBERLE, who lived in North Parma, Monroe Co., N. Y., after her death. Their dau., Alice A., was b. 27 Feb. 1890 and d. 16 Aug. 1891, bur. with mother.

24. MARY A.[4] SEYMOUR (Orrin[3], Lyman[2], Ebenezer[1]) was born 1

January 1842 in Wayne County (1841 in her mother's Bible); she died in 1920.

She married 27 August 1859, SAMUEL D. YORK, born 13 March 1840 in Huron, the son of John, Jr., and Sarah D. (Burt?) York, who came from Maine to Huron, where they are found with son Samuel, aged fifteen, in the New York State census of 1855. Samuel was probably a grandson of Benjamin and Martha (Churchill) York, who came to Huron in 1812.

Mary Seymour was probably the child called "Margaret," aged six, attending school, in her parents' household in the 1850 census of Rose. She and her husband probably moved to Wisconsin soon after marriage, for the papers of R. Owen Seymour, deposited in the Wayne County Museum, include a picture of their son Frank as a young man, taken in Oshkosh. They were in Eagle River, Wisconsin, in 1885, and she was in Chicago in 1920.

Child of Samuel D. and Mary A. (Seymour) York:

i. FRANK L.[5], b. 9 July 1860; d. 21 Sept. 1889; m. and had one child, Isabelle Mina, b. 28 Dec. 1887, in Bald Knob, Ark; she was living in Chicago in 1947; she m. ——— Broughton and had two children: Gerald John, b. ca. 1915, and Eileen Mary, b. ca. 1917.

25. URIAH HORATIO[4] SEYMOUR (Orrin[3], Lyman[2], Ebenezer[1]) was born 4 November 1846 in Wayne County; he died in 1910, and was buried in the York Settlement Cemetery.

He married circa 1866, JANE BEULAH DAVENPORT, born circa 1845-1846 in Wayne County, daughter of Samuel and Anna Davenport of Huron; she died in Huron, 30 April 1891 (g. s.), or 29 April (death certificate). She was buried with her husband.

In 1860 Uriah was living with his family and attending school. He served with Company G, Third Artillery, in the Civil War, from 19 February 1864 to 7 July 1865. In the 1865 census he is called a soldier. In 1870, with a wife and two children, he was listed in his father's household in Huron. He is called a farmer in Huron in the 1875 and 1880 censuses. He was there in 1905, no occupation listed. What appears to be a list of the residences of the Uriah H. Seymour family has been found among the notes of R. O. Seymour, in his handwriting, as follows: "Davenport, Feb. 1867; Orrin, Feb. 1870, 1869; Pine Tree, 1871; Grassy Point, May 1872, left Apr. 73; Davenport, 1873, left Apr. 74; Purdy Place, June 1874-75, left Apr. 76; Preemption South, Cousin Charlie died 1876, Dec. 1876, left Apr. 77; York Settlement, May 1878 77-88, Apr. 79; Preemption New House, Apr. 1879-1880, left Apr. 81; Bay, Apr. 1882, 1881-82, left 83; Ackerman Place, Mabel 2 yr., 1883-84-86; Bay, Apr. 1886, moved away in spring 87; Gillett Place, Apr. 87, left Apr. 88; Bradshaw, Apr. 1888."

Children of Uriah Horatio and Jane Beulah (Davenport) Seymour, all born in Huron:

i. FRANKLIN[5], b. 24 Feb. 1867 "on [the] Ackerman Place" in Huron; m. 24 Dec. 1888, HATTIE L. CORELL of Rose, b. 7 May 1866, dau. of George and Maryette (Owen) Corell; d. 12 Apr. 1937, Penfield Center, Monroe Co.; he was a farmer; he lived in Webster, N. Y., 1940. Children: 1. Florence E., b. 25 Aug. 1890; unm. 2. Robert Owen, b. 17 Feb. 1909; primary compiler of this genealogy.

ii. MARION (called "Mate" in list of children), b. 16 Feb. 1870; m. ——— SHERMAN; d. 16 Sept. 1940 at her home on Jenkins Road, Red Creek, aged 79 (obituary); bur. Glenside-Leavenworth Cem., Wolcott; survived by two daus.: Mrs. Meredeth Lovelace of Red Creek and Mrs. Edward Ulrich (given name Alice) of Buffalo, two grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

iii. ANNA, b. 5 May 1872.

iv. BENJAMIN, b. 8 June 1874 "at the Perdue Place," in Huron; m. EMMA ———; he was a farmer on State Road, Huron, in 1915; res. Resort, N. Y., in 1940; one child, Franklin, b. 1901; m. Laura ———.

v. LESTER D., b. 19 Dec. 1875 "at the Preemption, south of the railroad" in Huron, where he was living in 1905, listed as "life saver"; res. Ellisburg, N. Y., in 1940; he assisted in the rescue of the crew of the John R. Noyes, a Lake Ontario vessel, on 15 Dec. 1902, as a crewman at the Charlotte lifesaving station.

vi. CHARLES F., b. in May 1876; m. JENNIE ———; was a farm laborer residing on Glenmark Road, Huron, in 1915; in Alton in 1940. Children: 1. Stella, b. 1898. 2. Lavern Charles, b. 1899; res. Galen, Wayne Co.; d. 7 Mar. 1968, survived by wife Gladys; s. Roy Laverne of Jacksonville, N. Y. (killed 15 Dec. 1970 in N. C., a U. S. Marine staff serg.), and daus. Jean Baldwin of Clyde, N. 26. LESTER DRAPER[4] SEYMOUR (Orrin[3], Lyman[2], Ebenezer[1]) was born 25 July 1848 in Huron; he died 4 August 1931 in Wolcott and was buried in Glenside-Leavenworth Cemetery.

He married 4 April 1872 ELIZABETH HARRIETT REYNOLDS, born in 1851, daughter of Jacob Reynolds of Huron; she died in 1930, and was buried with her husband.

Lester, aged twelve, was living at home in Huron in 1860, attending school, even though a biography submitted to and published in Landmarks of Wayne County recites that he left home at the age of ten and was a boatman on the Great Lakes for a time. In 1865, Leicester (sic) Seymour is indeed called a boatman, residing with his family in Huron. He is said to have begun the study of veterinary medicine under John Graves of Pultneyville, New York, at the age of sixteen. He continued his study with "Professor" McKenzie in Buffalo, and studied also for one year at a veterinary college in Adrian, Michigan. He reportedly returned to Wolcott in 1874, and is listed as a farmer in the nearby town of Huron in 1875. He practiced his profession for twenty years in Wolcott. He was called a farmer, living in Huron, in 1880. In his family in 1875 was Emma Rice, aged twelve, a niece, and in 1880, Delmer Reed, aged nineteen, his nephew, son of Byron[4] and Almira[4] (Seymour) Reed. At his death in 1931, Dr. Lester D. Seymour was residing on New Hartford Street in Wolcott. His gross estate was valued at nearly $11,000, and included two houses in Wolcott, a 115-acre farm in Butler and a 40-acre farm in Wolcott.

Children of Lester Draper and Elizabeth Harriett (Reynolds) Seymour:

i. SUSAN M.[5], b. 4 May 1872; d. 1892 soon after graduation from Leavenworth Institute in Wolcott, and was buried with her parents.

ii. EUGENE ADELBERT, b. 28 Nov. 1876 (28 Sept., obituary); d. 28 Apr. 1940 at his home on New Hartford St., Wolcott; m. PHEBE SILLIMAN, b. 1887 and survived him; he was one of the first rural mail carriers of Wolcott. Letters of administration on his estate were issued to his brother 22 May 1940.

iii. LESTER DRAPER (called Draper), b. 28 Oct. 1893; m. MARY LEDLAK, b. 1897; in 1940 res. Sodus Point; at one time was vice-president of an airport in Chicago. At least one son: Eugene Paul, living in Akron, Ohio, in 1940.

ISAAC SHELDON OF WINDSOR, CONN.

By Mrs. Charlotte Alling Hunt, of Worcester, Mass.

The earliest mention of Isaac Sheldon found in the literature is in a paper by the Rev. David M'Clure of East Windsor, Conn., published in 1798.[1] This is an account of the settlement and history of the town of Windsor, in which the Rev. Mr. M'Clure lists sixteen individuals who came from Dorchester, Mass., with the Rev. John Warham in the migration of 1636, and were "in full communication with the church." He also lists thirty-five "other settlers of Windsor whose names are mentioned in the records of the town, anno 1640." This latter list includes Isaac Sheldon.

In 1804, the Rev. Dr. Thaddeus Mason Harris, pastor of the First Church of Dorchester from 1793 to 1836, published a paper on the history of Dorchester in which he described, among other matters, the 1636 migration from Dorchester to Windsor.[2] In a footnote to this, he says: "The names of those who came with Mr. Warham, and were in full communication with the church, were . . ." and gives a list identical with that of the Rev. Mr. M'Clure. He then adds: "Of the congregation were Roger Ludlow, Esq., Thomas Stoughton, Capt. John Mason, Isaac Sheldon, Bray Rossiter, and several others." Now, these five names occur in the same sequence, scattered through M'Clure's list of "others," which suggests that Dr. Harris may have taken them from that source. In M'Clure's list of thirty-five others, there are seventeen names which also appear in the Dorchester town records, although Isaac Sheldon's name does not. Why did Dr. Harris choose to mention only those five? Could it have been merely a matter of casual memory?

In 1829 John Farmer published his Genealogical Register.[3] His entry reads: "Isaac Sheldon, D. 1634; rem. to W. as early as 1640 and perhaps to N., 1658. The one at N. had 15 ch." Did he get that date 1634 from the Dorchester records, or from Dr. Harris? In some of Farmer's letters[4] which have been preserved we find mention, on several occasions in 1825, of his having borrowed Dr. Harris' manuscript, from which, he says, "I have transferred to my catalogue most of the dates which I had not before." Although his letters do not state the exact nature of "Dr. Harris' manuscript" this strongly suggests that Harris may have been the source of much of Farmer's information about early settlers of Dorchester. By his own statement, Farmer was more or less of an invalid and depended heavily upon his correspondents. He was definitely working on his Register at the time the letters referred to were written.

In 1830 Dr. Harris delivered two centennial discourses to which he appended, on publication, extensive lists of the early settlers of Dorchester. Of these lists he says:

> As there is no list remaining of original settlers, I cannot presume that the foregoing is perfect. It is compiled from the Town Records where names are incidentally mentioned, from Records of the General Court, and from Family Genealogies; and by collating all these with the Genealogical Register, published by Mr. Farmer.[5]

Many names in these lists are marked "T. R." with a date, indicating when they first appeared in the Town Records. Isaac Sheldon's name, on the list, is marked simply: "1634. Removed to Windsor." Where did Harris get that date? From Farmer? Or vice versa? Harris does not indicate that this name occurs in the Dorchester town records; nor has anyone ever been able to find it there.

In 1834, Dr. Harris published a small leaflet describing the Old Book of Records of the Town of Dorchester, from which I quote:

> The apprehension of having a book so venerable and precious exposed to the danger of being lost, or destroyed by fire, together with a desire to render the information which it contains more accessible and useful, led to a vote of the town, that an amanuensis should be employed to transcribe it into a fair and legible hand. In seeing that this vote was carried into effect, the Selectmen could not readily find a person acquainted with the ancient chirography, who would engage in the arduous task. Exceedingly desirous that there should be a copy, the subscriber undertook to make it himself, and has accomplished it with much pains, care and labor. In doing this he has been particular to mark with red ink, in the margin, the pages of the old Record, so that the volume of Index, made for that book by Mr. James Blake in 1745, will serve equally well for this. With all his antiquarian perspicacity, however, the copier was often exceedingly puzzled in deciphering the old chirography, rendered almost illegible by the faded state of the ink originally used, and by the decayed condition of many of the leaves, some of which were also much defaced by use.[6]

These three precious documents,—the Old Record Book of Dorchester, the Harris transcription of it, and the 1745 Index for both—may all now be seen on microfilm at the Boston Public Library. However, we search them all in vain for any mention of Isaac Sheldon.

Was his name there when Harris or Farmer, or someone else on Farmer's behalf, earlier examined the record? Had it become missing or "too defaced by use" to be read by 1834? Careful examination of the original actually gives us very scant reason for thinking the latter, especially in the 1634 portion of it. However, the first two leaves of the book (that is, 4 pages) were missing by the time the transcription was made. The second leaf, at least, was still there in 1745, for the Index contains entries for pages 3 and 4, dated in 1632, but none for pages 1 and 2, which may have been missing by then, or may have been simply a title page. The lower half of pages 19 and 20 was also missing. But on page 20, a two-column list of names, dated in 1635, has a line drawn under it at mid-page, with sufficient blank page left below to make it plain that the lower half had been torn off before page 20 was written, since the two-column list is completed on page 21. Certainly, neither Harris nor Farmer could have seen that missing portion.

In the Index, we find this item:

1632.	Marsh.	At the higher end of Neponset, who to have it.	4
		From ye Plantation to Strawberry Hill, who to have it.	4
		On ye west side of Ni. Denslow's, who to have it.	4

Here, obviously, some settlers were named. Was Isaac Sheldon one of them? We can never know. If this page, missing by 1834, had still been available when either Harris or Farmer examined the book at some earlier date, and if Isaac's name had been on it, their error would have been only in the date they gave; but, alas, neither of them made any mention of page 4, so we may not jump to conclusions about it.

In 1860 James Savage published his Genealogical Dictionary.[7] Of Isaac Sheldon, he says: "Windsor 1640, perhaps not coming from Dorchester, where Dr. Harris thot. he saw him in 1634. Earlier than 1652 he may not be found at W. by Stiles"[8] . . . . And thus was precipitated a controversy which is still unresolved after more than a hundred years! Was there, or was there not, an Isaac Sheldon in Dorchester in 1634 who went to Windsor? If so, he could hardly have been the same one who removed from Windsor to Northampton about 1655, and there testified at a court on 25 Sept. 1679, that he was then "about 50 years old."[9] If it were his father, no proof of his existence remains.

In 1895 Mr. George Sheldon, the historian of Deerfield, Mass., wrote:

> [While being satisfied that Isaac Sheldon of Windsor was of age, I can give no further account of him or his family. I assume that Isaac of Northampton was his son, because in 1652 he is found in possession of this land at Windsor. Not unlikely Isaac had other sons and went away to live with them; am still (1886) engaged with H. S. Sheldon of West Suffield, Conn., in an exhaustive search for the original Simon pure Isaac.]
>
> I choose to let the above stand as printed in 1886 as explanatory, and to prevent subsequent confusion; since 1886 it has been shown that the entries at Windsor . . . on a page headed 'Jan. 11, 1640,' were really made at a later date, to utilize a blank page; with this fact established, all evidence of the above Isaac disappears. Isaac (1) is the true head of this Sheldon family.[10]

Unfortunately, Mr. Sheldon gave no reasons for his conclusion, so it has not been fully accepted, and the subject has remained controversial to the present time. However, among Mr. Sheldon's personal papers which have been preserved[11] there is a communication from Mr. Hezekiah S. Sheldon of Suffield, Conn., dated May 1890, which is undoubtedly the basis for the above statement that "since 1886 it has been shown ——," etc. This bears quoting, in part:

A history of Dorchester (1859), p. 98, says: "Isaac Sheldon was in Dorchester in 1634, and removed to Windsor as early as 1640, thence to Northampton."

The publishers,[a] when personally enquired of for authority for the above statement, could give no other than T. M. Harris, and confessed that the Church and Town records of Dorchester nowhere mentioned "Isaac Sheldon." Blake's "Annals of Dorchester" are equally silent.

Mr. Henry O. Sheldon, publisher of the "Sheldon Magazine" (1855), began its compilation about the year 1840. A superficial examination of the Windsor Land Records led him, (as it has others,) to believe that Isaac Sheldon purchased a Dwelling House and land at Windsor in 1640, only four years after its settlement.

Now the Isaac Sheldon who sold this dwelling house and land, and removed to Northampton in 1654, was but twelve years old in 1640[b]; and too young to make the story of the purchase credible. To obviate this inconsistency, the Genealogist created a mythical "Isaac" without authority and for no other reason.[c]

How came this date (January 11, 1640) at the top of the page whereon Isaac Sheldon's purchase is recorded? A slight examination shows that this date was not intended for Isaac Sheldon's land, but for two other persons whose names are written in below the date, and stricken out by a line with a pen. Space in Old Record Books was valuable, and this blank page was utilized by recording Isaac Sheldon's purchase. The practice was common in the old book. This inference is fully supported by tracing back the record of this house and lot. Isaac Sheldon purchased it of John Stiles, and John Stiles did not own it before 1650. Stiles bought it of John Bennett who bought it of Peter Tilton. Isaac Sheldon's recorded purchase of the Dwelling House and lot bounds it South by Robert Watson, who did not make his purchase until 1650.[d] The records give evidence that Isaac Sheldon made his purchase after 1650. He was then a single man about twenty-one years old. Bought a Dwelling House and land in Windsor about 1651; kept house with Samuel Rockwell 1652; married Mary Woodford of Hartford 1653; sold his place to Samuel Rockwell, and removed to Northampton in 1654.

It is to me conclusive that there was but one Isaac Sheldon at Windsor.

These questions, however, still remain unanswered! Who was he, and who were his ancestors?

Suffield, May 1890. (Signed:) H. S. Sheldon

To Hon. Geo. Sheldon Deerfield, Mass.

Mr. H. S. Sheldon annotated this letter as follows:

[a]See William B. Trask,—letter to H. S. Sheldon, 1879.

[d]See appended abstract from Vol. 1, Windsor Land Records, by J. H. Hayden, Esq."

It is greatly to be regretted that Mr. George Sheldon did not settle the controversy then and there by publishing this excellent evidence. Since he did not I present it here, with some additional considerations which strengthen his conclusion.

First of all, let us look at the record itself as it stands on page 40 of the original Windsor Land Record Book.[12*]

The date at the top of this page is untenable for the following reasons, in addition to those given by Mr. H. S. Sheldon: 1st. One abutter, the Widow Gibbs, was not a widow until 1641. 2d. Another, Susanna Grant, in 1640 was the Widow Rockwell; she did not become Grant until 1645, when she married Matthew Grant whose first wife had died in 1644. 3rd. "Richard Samwas yt was" died in 1650. Moreover, the date and the two names which are stricken out are written in one hand, while the record of Isaac's property is in another; the capital J's, for instance, are distinctly different in the two hands.

In the same Record Book we find numerous other transactions pertaining to these same pieces of property, some of which follow:

Concerning Lot #1

Samuel Gaylord hath: Also purchased of Isaac Sheldon, in great meadow, two acres, the breadth three rod seven feet, as it lies bounded north by John Hakes, south by William Hannum, east by the river, west by the water course near to the bank.

Thomas Parsons hath: Also purchased of Thomas Buckland and the Widow Rockwell home lots the western end two acres more or less as it lies bounded east by land of said Thomas Buckland and Widow Rockwell, west by land of Thomas Dibble, south by land of George Hull, north by land of Joseph Clark, to him and his heirs forever. [Marginal notation: Sold to Isaac Sheldon.]

*The Editor has carefully examined a clear photostat of page 40 in the Windsor Land Record Book, from which this transaction of Isaac Sheldon is printed, and gives it as his considered opinion that the date at the top of the page [January 11th, 1640] and the first words of the quotation [John Diamonte & William Jess] which have been crossed out are in one and the same handwriting and that the rest of the document quoted here, was written in another hand. An examination of the capital 'J' in particular is sufficient to determine this fact, but there are other telltale letters, such as the capital 'W' and the small 'y' which substantiate it. The photostat copy is on file in the Society's collections.

Peter Tilton hath: Also he hath purchased of Thomas Buckland part of his house lot lying on the west side of the highway, containing three acres more or less as it lies bounded by the land of Samuel Rockwell on the north, and the land of P. Thomas on the south.

Richard Saxton hath: Also by purchase of Isaac Sheldon, two acres as it lies bounded south by Peter Tilton and Catherine Gibbs, east by Peter Tilton and the home lot that was William Rockwell's, north by Joseph Clark, west by a way that divides it and Abraham Randall and Anthony Hawkins.

Concerning Lot #3

William Rockwell hath granted from the plantation an home lot, nine acres more or less, the breadth sixteen three-quarters rod, in length from the meadow bounds back to Thomas Dibble's lot, bounded by Joseph Clark north and Thomas Buckland south.

Samuel Rockwell hath: By gift from his mother part of the home lot that was his father's, lying on the west side of the street, being in breadth eight rod six feet, the length is from the street back to the west to the land of Isaac Sheldon, bounded north by the remaining part of the aforesaid lot, south by Peter Tilton and Isaac Sheldon. [Marginal notation: Sold to Isaac Sheldon.]

William Hannum hath: Purchased from Samuel Rockwell one parcel of land on the west side of the street, two acres and half more or less, in breadth eight rod six feet, bounded on the north by land that was William Rockwell's, deceased, on the south by Peter Tilton in part, the other part and the west by Isaac Sheldon, east by the street. [Marginal notation: Sold to Richard Saxton. Note that the record here is somewhat confused. Samuel had sold this lot to Isaac, from whom William Hannum must have bought it.]

Richard Saxton hath: Also by purchase of William Hannum two acres and half more or less, in breadth eight rod six feet, bounded on the north by land that was William Rockwell's, deceased, south by Peter Tilton in part, the other part and west by his own land, purchased of Isaac Sheldon, east by the street.

Concerning Lot #4

John Bennett hath: Purchased of Peter Tilton his home lot, dwelling house and barn, containing three acres more or less, as it lies bounded by the land of Richard Oldage north, by Anthony Hawkins south, to him and his heirs forever. [Marginal notation: Sold to Samuel Rockwell.]

John Stiles hath: Also purchased of John Bennett his Dwelling House, orchard, barn and home lot, with all and either their appurtenances, being three acres more or less, in breadth four rod, in length one hundred eighteen rod, bounded by the land of Richard Oldage north, by the land of Robert Watson south. [Marginal notation: Which was Peter Tilton's.]

Samuel Rockwell hath: Also by purchase of Isaac Sheldon, a dwelling house, barn, orchard and home lot, with all appurtenances thereto pertaining, being three acres more or less, the breadth four rod, the length one hundred eighteen rod, bounded by the land of Richard Oldage north, by the land of Robert Watson south. [Marginal notation: Sold to John Osborn.]

John Osborn hath: By purchase of Samuel Rockwell three acres of land, with all the housing, orchard and common privileges thereto belonging, four rod in breadth, in length one hundred eighteen rod, bounded north by Richard Oldage, south by Robert Watson, east by the meadow, west by a Way that divides it and the woodlot of John Haynes, dec'd. 1654, May 22nd.

None of the land records quoted above bears a date except the last one. The only dated record of Isaac Sheldon that we can find in Windsor is a Town Act of Sept. 13, 1652, whereby:

"It is assented yt Isaac Sheldon and Samuel Rockwell shall keepe house together in ye house yt is Isaak's so they carry themselves soberly and doe not entertayne idel persons to ye evil expense of time by night or daye." [Samuel, born in 1631, was slightly younger than Isaac; both were then single young men.][13]

In the record of Isaac Sheldon's lots, the third one, purchased of Samuel Rockwell, is described as being bounded on the west and partly on the south "by his own land." This statement has sometimes been taken as evidence that land had been granted by the plantation to an earlier Isaac, from whom the young Isaac inherited it.[10] There is no record to be found, however, of any such grant. Moreover, if one draws a diagram, roughly to scale, of the second and third lots as described, and also considers the other transactions pertaining to them, it becomes unmistakable that "his own land" refers to the second lot just previously described! (See plat.)

Diagram of Lots #2 and #3.

Thus we find that there is absolutely no evidence in the Windsor records of any other Isaac Sheldon than this one. Although we cannot actually prove that Dr. Harris was mistaken—some of the earliest records of both Dorchester and Windsor being lost—and that there never was an earlier Isaac Sheldon in Dorchester who went to Windsor and there perished very early, it seems highly unlikely that it was so; there is no evidence whatever to support it.

We know only that Isaac Sheldon was born about 1629; that he owned property in Windsor prior to 13 Sept. 1652 when he and Samuel Rockwell were allowed to "keepe house together in ye house yt is Isaak's;" that he married Mary Woodford of Hartford in 1653, and soon removed to Northampton, Mass., where all of his children except the first were born. His wife, Mary, died April 17, 1684, and he married, second, about 1685 or 86, Mehitable (Gunn), divorced wife of David Ensign, who gave him his 14th and youngest child, Jonathan, born May 29, 1687. Isaac died in Northampton on Aug. 29, 1708. Since his will, on record,[14] is signed with his mark, we also know that he was unschooled. This much can be proven. All else is conjecture. As to who his parents were,[15] where he came from, and when he arrived in Windsor: the records give us no knowledge. In the Sheldon Magazine[16] he is S#5 Isaac, the true head of this Sheldon family in this country.

SHELTON OF CONNECTICUT.

This surname is evidently a local one, signifying either the enclosure or town abounding in shells, or the enclosure, dwelling or town of Schelte or Shelto, if there was such an Anglo Saxon forename, which is not improbable, as Schelte was an old Frisian name, and Scheltinga, i. e., Schelte's son, is still a West Friesland family name.

There are places called Shelton in at least four counties of England, and seven coats of arms to the surname are given in Burke's Armory; but from the slight differences between some of them, they appear to be but variations of three original coats.

The principal family of the name in England, who derived their appellation from the village of Shelton (Sceltuna in Domesday), Co. Norfolk, were early seated at Stradbrooke in Suffolk.

John de Shelton appears to be the first on record. By deed, without date, he tied his manor of Stradbrooke to the Prior of Butle, and John, his son, confirmed it. In 1215, Nicholas de Shelton had purchased an estate in Weybred, and was then one of the rebelling Barons against King John.

Sir Ralph de Shelton was knighted at the battle of Crecy, in 1346. He married Joan, daughter of John de Plais, and dying in 1373, was buried in the chancel of St. Mary's church at Shelton, under a monument bearing his effigy in armor complete, with this epitaph:

"Pryez pour l'ame du Monsieur Raulf de Shelton le pere jadis Maister de Ceste Ville qui morust le XVII jour de Novembre l'an de Grace Mccclxxiii et pour le femme File du Mounseiur Plays.

"Le Corps du quel gist ici Dieu de Son ame eit Merci."

In 1504, Sir John Shelton, Knight of the Bath, was High Sheriff of Norfolk and Suffolk. His son, Sir John Shelton, served the same office, which was also held in 1570, by Sir Ralph Shelton.

The estates continued in the family until 1694. Shelton Hall, a noble mansion, has long been in ruins.

Another family were seated in Staffordshire, and probably took their name from Shelton, anciently Scelfitone, in that county.

A John Shelton was Sheriff of Co. Stafford in 1660–61.

Others of the name appear to have been seated in the counties of Berks, Northampton, Nottingham, Worcester, etc.

The founder of the Connecticut family (with a brother Richard who is said to have settled in Richmond, Virginia,) was, according to tradition, native either of the county of Norfolk or Derby, England. This Daniel Shelton, merchant, emigrated to New England in the latter part of the seventeenth century, and settled in Stratford, now Huntington, Conn., where, in 1680, he purchased lands still held by his descendants.

He married in Stratford, April 4, 1692, Elizabeth (b. 1670), daughter of Hon. Samuel Welles, of Wethersfield, Conn., by his wife Elizabeth, daughter of John Hollister, of Wethersfield, and Joanna, daughter of Hon. Richard Treat, his wife, and grand-daughter of the Hon. Thomas Welles, one of the first settlers of Hartford, and one of the early Governors of Connecticut.

He had issue (with daughters), seven sons, viz.: Joseph, Daniel, Thaddeus, Samuel, James, John, and Josiah.

Mr. Shelton died at Ripton Parish, Stratford, in 1728. His eldest son,

Joseph Shelton, born June 24, 1698, married his second cousin Mary (born August 25, 1704), daughter of Joseph Hollister, of Glastonbury, and Ann, his wife, and died circa 1769, leaving, (with four daughters,) one son, William Shelton, born July 26, 1739, married Oct. 1, 1764, Susannah, (born Feb. 1, 1743,) daughter of Thomas Strong, of Brookhaven, L. I., and Susannah Thompson, his wife, and sister of the Hon. Selah Strong, first Judge of Suffolk county, L. I. Her grandfather, Selah Strong, who settled in Brookhaven, where he died in 1732, was grandson of Elder John Strong, native of Taunton, Co. Somerset, England, who arrived in New England in 1630.

Mr. Shelton died January 27, 1812, aet. 72, leaving issue, (with two daughters,) five sons, viz.: Joseph, William, Selah, Thomas Strong and George. The eldest son,

Joseph Shelton, born Aug. 27, 1765, married Nov. 24, 1791, Charity, (born March 27, 1769,) daughter of Stephen Lewis, of Stratford, and Jerusha, daughter of Stephen Curtiss, his wife, and had, with other issue who died unmarried, three sons and one daughter, viz.:

1. Henry, married Helen, daughter of Hon. E. W. King, a Senator of New York, and died 1843, leaving one son, Henry Wright Shelton, and one daughter.

2. Philo Strong, of whom hereafter.

3. Edward Nelson, married Mary Jane, daughter of Linson DeForest, and his wife Jane, daughter of Cyrus Hawley, and sister of Hon. Charles Hawley, Lieut. Governor of Connecticut.

1. Nancy B., married Hon. N. C. Sanford, a Senator of Connecticut, who died, leaving an only son, Henry Shelton Sandford, L.L.D., late Chargé d'Affaires of the United States of America, at Paris.

Mr. Shelton died Sept. 1, 1848, aet. 83. His second son, Philo Strong Shelton, removed to Boston, Mass., married Georgiana Albertina, daughter of Benjamin Parrott Homer, and has issue.

DESCENDANTS OF EDWARD SHEPARD, MARINER, CAMBRIDGE, MASS., 1639.

Compiled by JAMES SHEPARD, New Britain, Ct.; NAMAN SHEPPARD, 150 Crown Street, New Haven, Ct.; A. E. B. SHEPHERD, 321 W. 33d Street, New York City, who solicit further information.

IT is supposed that this Edward Shepard came from England, but no mention has been found of him previous to his appearance in New England, nor have we been able to trace any connection between him and some half dozen other Shepards who came to this country about the same time.

"Edward Shepard;—bought of James Herringe one dwelling-house, with a garden: abuttelling on John Betts north east. Edward Mickerson on the north, Mr. Andrews west, the highway (now South Street, between Holyoke & Dunster) south.—More, a small garden, on the other side the highway: abutelling on John Thrumbull east and south, on Mr. Paine's yard west, on the highway north. More, upon the south side of Charles River, a lot of planting land, 5 acres, more or less—abutelling Boston field east, John Thrumbull and Mr. Andrews' lands west and south, upon the highway and Creek north.

ROBERT SAUNDERS."

The following is from the record of "Shepard's and Mitchell's Church," which was made up from memory by Rev. Mr. Mitchell, in 1658, after the death of Rev. Thomas Shepard.

"Edward Shepard member in f. c. So also was his wife Violet deceased. Their children y^t were in minority when He joyned, are, Abigail, now living at Dedham; Deborah, now also at Dedham, and Sarah now dwelling at Braintree. The eldest of these aged twelve, y^e 2^d ten, 3^d seven years, when their Parents joyned, being all baptized in England."

Sarah (Shepard) Tomson died at Braintree, Mass., Jan. 15, 1679, æt. 43, and would therefore be seven years of age in 1643, and in this year, May 10, Edward was made a freeman at Cambridge. (It was necessary to be a member of the church to be made a freeman.) From the same record:

"Mary, now the wife of the foresaid Edward Shepard, was dismissed hither from Ch. at Dorchester, and is in f. c. with us. Her dau. Mary Pond baptized at Dorchester, was eleven years old at her mother's joyning with us."

We have no record of their marriage, but Violet Shepard died Jan. 9, 1648–9. The daughter of Mary Pond married John Blackman, and their first child was born Aug. 10, 1656. We may therefore conclude that Mrs. Mary Pond lived at Cambridge before her marriage with Edward Shepard, a conclusion the more probable because her first husband, Robert Pond, died in 1637; that it is also probable that she brought other children with her to Cambridge, and that Daniel Pond, who married Abigail Shepard, was her son. Edward Shepard's name, as also that of his son John Shepard, appears in the town and county records in various relations until 1680–81, when his will was proven Aug. 20, 1680, and John sold the homestead Sept. 18, 1681, to Owen Warland.

That he was a mariner appears from his own assertion in deeds—to Richard Champney, March 19, 1652; and to W. Fessenden, Feb. 18, 1679, and in his will dated Oct. 1, 1674. Also from mention made in the record of the steward of Harv. Coll. 1654, of two importations of wheat "from aboard Ed. Shepheard's vessel."

We have no means of determining the date of his death other than the deed to W. Fessenden, 1679, and the proving of his will, 1680. The original is on file at the Middlesex Probate office, East Cambridge, Mass., and the will is also on record there. It is as follows:

"In the name of God, Amen. Know y^{ee} that I Edward Shipheard of Cambridge, New England, mariner, being through the favor of God arrived unto old age expecting daily my change, I account it my duty to set my house in order: and therefore do hereby make and declare this instrument for my last will and testament, 1: I commit my immortal soul into the hands of the Lord God Almighty, the only living and true God: distinguished into three glorious persons, The Father, Son and Holy Ghost; resting and relying on the merits, righteousness and satisfaction of my dear Lord Jesus Christ for life and salvation. 2, that concerning my body my will is y^{t} it be decently interred resting in hope y^{t} by the virtue of Christ's Resurrection it shall in God's appointed time be raised up again and united to my soul and both soul and body in one man be translated to eternal happiness and there to live with God and praise him forever. Lastly, concerning my temporal estate my will is that that which shall be and remain after my death, my will is y^{t} my just debts and funeral expenses, being first paid, the remainder to be disposed of as followeth,

Imp^{s}—I give and bequeath unto my dear wife Mary either the sum of twenty pounds to be paid her by my executors within three months after my decease in such household goods and other things as may be suitable for her at equal prices as two honest men shall judge or in case of difference to be determined by the County Court, or else the use of my dwelling house barn and orchard y^{t} lie on the north side of the Street during her life, provided she keep the same in tenantable repair, all the rest of my estate my will and order is y^{t} it be divided into six equal parts—two parts I give and bequeath unto my son John Shipard, or in case of his death before mee, then equally to be divided among his children: unto my dau. Elizabeth one sixth part or in case of her death before, then equally to be divided among her children; unto my dau. Deborah one sixth part, and in case of her death before mee then equally to be divided among her children: unto the children of Daniel Pond which he had by my dau. Abigail deceased one sixth part equally divided; unto my dau. Sarah one sixth part, or in case of her death before me then equally divided among her children & I do hereby nominate and appoint my dear son John Shipard my executor of this will, and in case he should decease before me y^{n} I do appoint his eldest son my executor, In testimony of the truth hereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this first day of Oct. 1674.

Signed sealed and declared EDWARD SHEPHARD.

In presence of us,

Children of Edward and Violet Shepard:

2. i. JOHN, born in England, 1627 (?)
3. ii. ELIZABETH, " " 1629 "
4. iii. ABIGAIL, " " 1631 "
5. iv. DEBORAH, " " 1633 "
6. v. SARAH, " " 1636 "

There is no record of any children by Mary Pond.

2. JOHN[2] (Edward[1]). Mitchell's church record contains the following: "John Shepard (son of Edward Shepard, before named) and his wife, both in f. c. Their children, Rebecca, John, Sarah, Violet, all borne and baptized in this Church: Elizabeth, baptized July 29, 1660; Edward, baptized Aug. 3, 1662; Samuel Shepard, baptized July 3d, 1664; Thomas, baptized Nov. 18, '66."

John made freeman at Cambridge, May 22, 1650. We suppose that he removed to Hartford after the birth of Thomas, 1666, as this is the last birth recorded in Cambridge. The first mention of him in Hartford is found in the Conn. Col. Rec., vol. i. p. 360.

"Receaued by me John Shepherd of my loving Vnkel Gregory Winterton, Thirty four pounds w^ch^ he receaued of my Bro: Thomas Greenhill for lands I sold him for w^ch^ I made my Vnkel a letter of Attourney, I say receaued by me John Shepherd Augs^t^ 4, 1654."

Hinman says he was "a man of consequence in the colony." Also says that Edward "resided in Hartford." He was known as Serjeant John Shepard. He lived in Hartford in what is now known as Lafayette Street, just south of new State-House, and owned lands to the Wethersfield bounds.

He married first, Oct. 1, 1649, Rebecca, daughter of Samuel Greenhill. She died Dec. 22, 1689, aged about 55. (Judd says she died Dec. 26, 1690.) He married second, Susannah, widow of William Goodwin, Sen., Hartford, with whom he made a marriage contract, dated Aug. 3, 1691.

William Goodwin died Oct. 15, 1689. Her will, dated March 7, 1698, mentioning three children by name of Goodwin (John Bigelow and Jonathan Butler witnesses), was proven April 14, 1698. William Goodwin and John Pratt appointed administrators.

He married third, Sept. 8, 1698, Martha, widow of Arthur Henbury, who survived him. Arthur Henbury was buried Aug. 1, 1687. John Shepard died June 12, 1707. Children, all by first wife:

14. ix. DEBORAH.
15. x. ABIGAIL.
16. xi. HANNAH.

3. ELIZABETH[2] (Edward[1]), according to church record, born in England, and mentioned in her father's will as though married, but we have not yet been able to identify her with any person bearing the name of Elizabeth, though we have found several whose ages and marriage might correspond, viz.: (1) Elizabeth, wife of Roger Bancroft, Cambridge, 1642;

he died Nov. 28, 1653 (probably leaving no children). (2) Wife of Martin Saunders, of Braintree. (3) Wife of Dea. John Ridge, of Cambridge. (4) Edward Taylor, Boston. This Elizabeth was living Dec. 23, 1683. She may have been the wife of Richard Faxon, and married second, Caleb Hobart. Mrs. Hobart died Aug. 9, 1704, æt. 71. She may have married John Munnings, of Cambridge, or Moses Paine, of Braintree. We have been thus explicit in giving the result of our researches, hoping to elicit correct information in regard to her marriage and settlement.

4. ABIGAIL[2] (Edward[1]), m. Daniel, son of Robert and Mary Pond, of Dedham, above mentioned. After her death, July 5, 1661, he m. Sept. 18, 1661, Ann Edwards, who survived him, and d. June 6, 1732. He died Feb. 4, 1698. Children of Abigail Shepard and Daniel Pond:

A tradition, zealously adhered to by his descendants, says that he came from Ayrshire, Scotland, a myth without any apparent foundation. There is, however, a document preserved of more substantial value in the form of a compact for his maintenance during his declining years, entered into by his sons, containing their names, and bearing date 1792. He is described of fine appearance and manner, wearing the English costume till the day of his death. Children, b. in Milford, were:

i. Mary, b. June 19, 1733; bapt. May 12, 1734.
ii. Abigail, bapt. July 6, 1735.

LIEUTENANT JOHN SKINNER OF THE CONTINENTAL ARMY.

By Zoeth Skinner Eldredge, Esq., of San Francisco, Cal.

Sometime between the years 1649 and 1652 there came from Chichester, England, one Thomas Skinner, bringing with him his wife and two sons, and settled in Malden, Mass. He had been a victualler in Chichester and was, on May 31, 1652, licensed to keep an ordinary in Malden. He was admitted a freeman in Malden, May 18, 1653. Thomas Skinner was born in England in 1617, and died in Malden. He married in England, Mary ———, who accompanied him to America. After her death, April 9, 1671, he married, second, widow Lydia Ball, who died March 2, 1704.

Children, born in England:

i. Thomas,[2] b. July 25, 1645.

ii. Abraham, b. Sept. 29, 1649; m. Hannah ——— who d. Jan. 14, 1725–6, and had:

1. Abraham,[3] b. April 1, 1681; m. Tabitha ——— and had ten children, b. in Malden. Removed to Woodstock, Conn.
2. Thomas, b. Dec. 7, 1688; m. Mehitable Durant and had nine children, b. in Malden.
3. Mary, b. Sept., 1690.

2. Thomas[2] Skinner (Thomas[1]), was born in Subdeanerie Parish, Chichester, England, July 25, 1645. He married Mary, daughter of Richard and Mary Pratt of Charlestown. She was born Sept. 7 or 30, 1643, and died in Colchester, Conn., March 26, 1704. Her father, Richard Pratt, was, it is said, the youngest of nine children of John Pratt of Malden, county Essex, England, and was baptized there, June 29, 1615. He died in 1691. About the beginning of the eighteenth century, Deacon Thomas Skinner removed with his wife, sons Richard, Benjamin, Ebenezer, Nathaniel, and daughter Abigail to Colchester, Conn., where he was an original proprietor and his name and that of his son Ebenezer appear frequently in the records, holding various town offices. On January 21, 1702, he and his son Benjamin and others were granted a lot of land, "the littel Round Medow," etc., and in May of the same year there was granted to Thomas Skinner a house lot one hundred and sixty rods in length and twenty-one rods in breadth, and in addition sixty acres of land. In the trustees' deed to the original proprietors, dated April 28, 1713, appear the names of Thomas Skinner and his sons Richard, Benjamin and Ebenezer. On March 29, 1709, he deeded land "to my son Nathaniel Skinner," and on July 19, 1715, "to my son Ebenezer Skinner." I have been unable to find the record of his death, but in May, 1722, the Assembly released Deacon Thomas Skinner and Joseph Gellett from "all taxes that are due to the publick treasury upon account of an assessment set upon their heads by the listers of Colchester in the year 1720." After that I see his name no more. In a diary, kept by his son Thomas, and now in possession of a descendant, is recorded "The birth of all my father's children except Abigail." Also: "Mother Skinner died March 26, 1704." Thomas's record of his mother's death agrees with the date in the Colchester town records of the death of "Mary the wife of Dea. Thomas Skiner."

Children, all born in Malden:

i. MARY,[3] b. Nov. 3, 1666.
ii. THOMAS, b. Nov. 3, 1668. Removed to Norton, Mass.
iii. ABRAHAM, b. June 16, 1671.

3. SERGT. EBENEZER[3] SKINNER (Thomas,[2] Thomas[1]), born in Malden, April 23, 1684; married Abigail, daughter of William and Lydia (Brown) Lord. Her mother, Lydia Brown, was, it is supposed, the daughter of John Brown Jr., of Rehoboth and granddaughter of John Brown, the distinguished magistrate, assistant and commissioner of Plymouth Colony. Her father, William Lord, of Saybrook and Lynn, was born in England in 1623, and came with his father, Thomas Lord, in the "Elizabeth and Ann" in 1635.

Sergt. Ebenezer Skinner accompanied his father to Colchester, where for many years he was a prominent man. On Dec. 14, 1724, the town meeting granted to Ebenezer Skinner "the liberty of giting wood to make Cole in the sequestred Comons to maintain Iron works so long as he shall maintain and keep up the Iron works." April 27, 1725, the town meeting granted to Capt. Joseph Wright, Ebenezer Skinner, Joseph Dewey and Josiah Gillett Jr. "ye liberty of ye stream on Jeremiahs Reuer to set up Iron works & also the preueleg of fiue or six acers of land if it be thare to be for a pastuer whare a Conuenient place is: thay to haue the priueleg of it so long as they shall maintain Ironworks or other mills thare & no longer, the place lying about 40: or fifty Rods Down the reuer from James Roberdses souwest Corner of his home lot." On February 4, 1728, Ebenezer Coleman of Hebron deeded lands, etc., to Ebenezer Skinner of Colchester, in consideration of part of certain iron works in Colchester. About this time Sergt. Skinner removed to Hebron with his family of eleven children. Here, during one week, Nov. 27 to Dec. 31, 1736, his four youngest children died of putrid sore throat, then so prevalent throughout the colony.

Some time between 1737 and 1740, Ebenezer Skinner jr., as he was called, removed to Hebron. On Jan. 7, 1756, he deeded: "to my son John Skinner of Hebron, one-half of that lot of land which I now live on," &c. Children:

x. Lydia, b. Hebron, Sept. 10, 1740.

5. Lieutenant[5] John Skinner (Ebenezer,[4] Ebenezer,[3] Thomas,[2] Thomas[1]), born in Colchester, Feb. 23, 1732-3; died in Ballston, N. Y., August 29, 1819; married in Hebron, Jan. 22, 1756, Elizabeth, daughter of John and Esther (Strickland) Merrills; born in Hebron, March 3, 1732. Her father, John Merrills, was the son of Thomas Merrills of Saybrook, and Hannah, daughter of John Parmelee, his wife.

Lieutenant Skinner was a man of standing in Hebron, held many of the local offices and was lieutenant of the "Lexington Alarm Company," and marched with them to the relief of Boston, April, 1775. His service with the Minute Men was seventeen days. In May, 1775, he received a commission as second lieutenant of Tenth Company, Fourth Connecticut Regiment (Col. Hinman's). The regiment was raised on the first call for troops. It was rapidly formed and dispatched by Governor Trumbull to Fort Ticonderoga to protect that post and Crown Point from re-capture. It took part in the operations of the Northern Department and the Tenth Company was at the siege of Boston.

The army under Washington's command was composed of what may be termed provisional troops. The regiments were raised by the colonies and the terms of enlistment usually expired in December, leaving the commander without an army during the winter. As it was imperative, however, to continue to hem in the ememy at Boston and to hold the ground gained in the Northern Department, as well as to prepare for a determined struggle, Congress at an early date made provision for organizing a force for 1776, and the necessary resolutions were adopted Nov. 4, 1775. General Washington immediately called on the soldiers serving under him to re-enlist, and new lists were made out of field and line officers under whom they were to serve. The troops were known as Continentals, but there was nothing approaching a permanent, disciplined and "regular" army until Congress provided for the formation of the "Continental Line" in 1777.

It is not known what proportion of the force in the field responded to Washington's call, as the records for 1776 are defective. Hinman's regiment was discharged in December, 1775, but John Skinner certifies that, after being honorably discharged by the commanding officer (Dec. 19, 1775) he "by virtue of a proclamation served his country in the said war for two months as a first lieutenant in the above-mentioned line, and was honorably discharged from the service by his Excellency, the late General Washington."* His statement herein quoted is confirmed by the records of the Pension Office and by those of the Adjutant General of Connecticut.

On June 20, 1776, Lieutenant Skinner received a commission from Governor Trumbull as first lieutenant of Connecticut troops and served until honorably discharged at Fort Ticonderoga, Nov. 30, 1776. I have no further record of this tour of service, but the term thereof is confirmed by the above-mentioned authorities.

On March 28, 1818, John Skinner, then living in Ballston, N. Y., made an application for a pension, stating that he was poor and needed the assistance of his country. It was time he received it; he was over eighty-five years old. A pension of $20 per month was at once granted him and this he received up to the time of his death in August, the following year. Children, all born in Hebron:

Lieutenant John Skinner.—My attention has been called to several errors in my article on Lieutenant John Skinner in the Register for October, 1899, which I shall be very glad to correct. The date of birth of v. Richard Skinner (Thomas[2], Thomas[1]) should be January 2, 1675-6, and the place of birth of his children, from 2 Richard to 6 Ebenezer, inclusive, should be East Haddam, Conn. The second child of viii. Benjamin (Thomas[2], Thomas[1]) should be Rachel, not Richard, and the sixth child Zerviah, not Jeremiah. The wife of 3 Benjamin (Benjamin[3], Thomas[2], Thomas[1]) was Rebecca Goot. Among the children of x. Nathaniel (Thomas[2], Thomas[1]), is 11 Rebecca. She was probably his grand-daughter, the child of his son Nathaniel. The date of birth of 10 Zerviah should read June 25, 1730. xi. Abigail (Thomas[2], Thomas[1]) married Ebenezer Mudge, January (not July) 13, 1708–9. The principal correction, however, is that effecting Lieutenant Skinner's line of descent, and this, after careful investigation and study, I am satisfied should be made. Sergeant Ebenezer Skinner (Thomas[2], Thomas[1]) married Sarah, daughter of William[3] and Sarah (Shaler) Lord, great grand-daughter of Thomas Lord the first, of Hartford, and not Abigail, daughter of William[2] and Lydia (Brown) Lord, as I had it. Lydia Brown was the widow, not the daughter, of John Brown, Jr. of Rehoboth.

WILLIAM SLATE OF WINDHAM AND MANSFIELD, CONN., AND SOME OF HIS DESCENDANTS

By GRACE OLIVE CHAPMAN, of Dorchester (Boston), Mass.

1. WILLIAM SLATE was born about 1675 ("Abbe-Abby Genealogy", p. 21). Where he was born or who were his parents, the compiler of this record has not discovered. On 23 Sept. 1702 he married ELIZABETH ABBE: "Slate, W[illia]m, and Eliz[abeth] Abby, Sept. 23, 1702" ("Salem [Mass.] Vital Records", vol. 4. p. 315). Elizabeth was born probably in Wenham (first called Enon), Mass., about 1681 and was baptized there before 1682, the daughter of Samuel and Mary (Knowlton) Abbe.

William and Elizabeth Slate lived in Windham, Conn., which town was a bequest from Joshua, son of Uncas, to fourteen prominent men of Norwich and vicinity.

Children (births from "Windham Vital Records"):

i. WILLIAM,[2] b. 7 Dec. 1703. Was he the William Slate who m. 28 Feb. 1724/5 Elizabeth Becket, daughter of William Becket ("The History of Salem, Mass.", by Sidney Perley, vol. II, p. 223)?

ii. ELIZABETH, b. 29 Aug. 1705; m. 23 Jan. 1727 WILLIAM SMITH ("Mansfield Vital Records", p. 280).

2. iii. DANIEL, b. 30 March 1708.

iv. ANNE, b. 29 April 1710; d. in Mansfield 28 March 1772 ("Abbe-Abby Genealogy"); m. in Mansfield, 9 Oct. 1734, JOSEPH WHITTEMORE ("Mansfield Vital Records", p. 296), b. 13 March 1694, d. in Mansfield 15 May 1742 ("Abbe-Abby Genealogy").

Children (surname Whittemore) (births from "Mansfield Vital Records", p. 193):

1. Joseph, b. 4 July 1736; m. in November 1763 Sarah Howe of Mansfield, b. about 1738, d. in 1802. Children: (1) Joseph, b. 11 April 1764; m. 20 Aug. 1786 Sarah Larabe of Windham. (2) Samuel, b. 12 Jan. 1767; m. 1 Jan. 1794 Sarah Wales. (3) Shubael, b. 28 Feb. 1771. (4) Sarah, b. 24 Dec. 1779.

2. Ann, b. 6 Feb. 1738/9. Probably the Ann who m. 7 Sept. 1755 David Eldredge, and had a daughter, Elizabeth Eldredge, b. 7 Sept. 1756.

3. Elizabeth, b. 9 June 1741. Probably the Elizabeth who m. 7 Nov. 1759 James Dana, and had a daughter, Anna Dana, b. 31 Dec. 1760. The "Ashford [Conn.] Vital Records" give a James Dana, b. 9 Oct. 1735, son of Jedediah and Elizabeth Dana, and Ashford adjoins Mansfield.

3. v. SAMUEL, b. 8 Nov. 1711.

vi. JOHN, b. 7 June 1715. The account book of Thomas Newcomb of Lebanon, Conn., 1735-1738, lists a "John Slate of Windham" (THE REGISTER, vol. 31, p. 296). Did he marry in Middletown, Conn., 24 April 1735, Susannah Egleston?

vii. EBENEZER, b. 19 Jan. 1717/18; m. 6 March 1740 SARAH MANLEY, daughter of Eleazer Manley ("Mansfield Vital Records", p. 280). Child (ibid.):

1. Sarah,[3] b. 5 May 1741.

4. viii. EZEKIEL, b. 26 Dec. 1719.

Unpublished notes of Royal Hinman on early Connecticut settlers, on file in the Library of the New England Historic Genealogical Society, give the children of William and Elizabeth Slate as follows: "Slate Slade Wm. & Elizth of Windham had son W^{m}. b. Dec. 7, 1703

"Slade Slate W^{m} of Windh^{m} m^{d} Elizath and Elizth b. Aug. 29, 1705—Daniel b. Mar. 30, 1708—Anne b. Ap^{l} 29, 1710—Samuel b. Nov. 9, 1711—John b. June 7, 1715—Ebenezer b. January 19, 1717-18—Ezekiel b. Dec. 26, 1719".

2. DANIEL[2] SLATE (William[1]) was born probably in Windham, Conn., a town adjoining Norwich in that day, 30 March 1708. On 23 Sept. 1731 "Daniell" Slate married Mary Saben of Norwich, by Benjn Lord ("Norwich Vital Records"), probably the Daniel of Windham, son of William. Kellogg's "Bernardston, Mass., Genealogies", 1902, says that the Daniel Slate who married Mary Saben was born in England in 1708.

William Slate of Windham and Mansfield, Conn., and Some of His Descendants: Additions.—In the April 1957 number of The Register there appeared a short * genealogy on the Slate family by Grace Olive Chapman.

A detailed study of the descendants of Anne Slate and her husband, Joseph Whittemore, of Mansfield, will be found in The Register, vol. 107, pp. 181, 182; vol. 108, p. 163. I did original research for this data in Connecticut.

For a detailed account of the descendants of Joseph and Anne's daughter, Elizabeth, and her husband, Gen. James Dana, I refer you to the newly published "Dana Family in America", 1956, pp. 267-271, 326-328. This couple produced a large and eminent posterity.

JOHN SMITH OF MILFORD, NEW HAVEN COLONY, 1640; AND HIS DESCENDANTS TO THE FIFTH GENERATION.

Compiled by ROBERT ATWATER[8] (BASSETT,[8] CLARK[8]) SMITH,[8] of New Haven, Conn.

JOHN[1] SMITH [16— –1684], a settler of Milford, Conn., in 1640, is presumed to have been one of several from Hertfordshire who could not leave England in 1637, when the Rev. Peter Prudden and others from that section of England sailed in the company of the Rev. John Davenport, Gov. Theophilus Eaton, Deputy Gov. Stephen Goodyear and other persons from London who came to this country in the ships Hector and Martin [?] in 1637. It is probable he came direct from England to New Haven in one of the three ships which sailed in 1639 to New Haven, viz: the St. Johns, Capt. Russell; the Fair Weather, which reached New Haven before July 28, 1639; and the third ship (name unknown) which arrived soon after, probably bringing the company which settled in Southold, Long Island.—[See Atwater's History of N. H. Colony, pages 162–3.] From the amount of property (£513. 3. 9.) left by him at his death in 1684 (the inventory was taken December, 1684), it is probable that he belonged to a family of some wealth in England. It has been suggested that he may have been one of the Smiths of Haddon Hall, some of whom came to this country. He married Grace Hawley (born ——, 16—), who died in 1690. The will of Mrs. Grace Smith is recorded in Vol. 2, page 90, of the New Haven Probate Records. It is dated Nov. 26, 1689. She gives her property of £61. 11. 7. to her four children. There is no inventory to be found. Children:

2. i. EPHRAIM,[2] bap. Oct. 12, 1644; d. May, 1712; m. Abigail Briscoe.
3. ii. JOHN, bap. Aug. 27, 1646; d. Jan. 8, 1732; m. Phebe Canfield.
iii. MARY, bap. Jan. 7, 1648; d. December, 1691; m. Oct. 29, 1667, Dr. Abel Gunn (b. June, 1643, d. ——, 1688), son of Dr. Jasper Gunn (1606–1670) of Milford. Dr. "Abell" Gunn's will, dated May 11, 1688, is found on page 7 of Vol. 2, N. H. Prob. Rec.; an inventory is indexed as on page 11, but cannot be found on that page. He gives his property to his wife, Mary Gunn; no children are mentioned.
iv. EBENEZER, bap. Nov. 10, 1650; d. young.
v. MERCY, bap. Dec. 5, 1652; d. May 2, 1670.
4. vi. MEHITABLE, b. March 25, 1655; d. ——, 17—; m. Edward Camp, Jan. 15, 1673–4.

2. EPHRAIM[2] SMITH (1644–1712), son of John[1] Smith the Settler, removed to Derby, Conn. He married Abigail Briscoe of Milford.

No will is recorded. The inventory was taken June 13, 1712. The probate records are in Vol. 3, pages 50, 61, 80, 99 and 119. On page 80 is given the division of the property among the children; only John is mentioned; probably the wife and the daughter, Ruth Briscoe, were dead at that time. Ruth's portion of £56 is given to the daughter, Ruth Briscoe; Mercy's portion is given to her husband, Samuel Gunn, who was appointed executor; no mention is made of Ephraim, who did not die until December, 1712. The estate amounted to £226 3. 7. The History of Derby states that Ephraim Smith (1644–1712) died without leaving any children; this is incorrect. Children:

5. i. JOHN,[3] b. ——, 1672; d. May 31, 1749; m. Mary ——.
6. ii. MERCY, b. ——, 1674; d. Aug. 11, 1750; m. Lieut. Samuel Gunn, Nov. 11, 1698.
7. iii. EPHRAIM, b. ——, 16—; d. December, 1712; m. Susannah ——.
8. iv. RUTH, b. ——, 16—; d. 17—; m. Samuel Briscoe.

3. Sergeant JOHN[2] SMITH (1646–1732) (John[1]), son of John Smith the settler, lived in Milford. He married, Jan. 23, 1672–3, Phebe Camfield (born May 8, 1656, died May 3, 1730), daughter of Sergeant Thomas Camfield (died 1689) and Phebe (Crane) Camfield of Milford. No will or inventory of estate can be found in the New Haven Probate Records. Their tomb-stones can be found in the Milford Cemetery; they are recorded in the "Tomb-stones of Milford." Children:

9. i. JOHN,[3] b. June 18, 1674; d. May 14, 1751; m. Ruth Briscoe.
10. ii. THOMAS, b. March 7, 1677; m. Hannah Camp.
11. iii. SAMUEL, b. Oct. 18, 1679; m. Rachel Lambert [?].
12. iv. EBENEZER, b. March 31, 1683; d. Nov. 4, 1744; m. Sarah Collins, Jan. 3, 1710–11.
v. JOSEPH, bap. Nov. 29, 1685; died young.
vi. ABIAH, bap. March, 1686; born and lived in Milford. No further records up to the present time. Her name was given to two of her nieces: family 12 No. iii., and family 14 No. iii.
13. vii. NATHAN, bap. September, 1689; m. Hannah Tibbals.
14. viii. JOSEPH, bap. April 15, 1694; m. Mary Clark.

4. MEHITABLE[2] SMITH (John[1]), born 1655, lived in Milford. She married, Jan. 15, 1673, Edward Camp (born 1650, died March, 1721), son of Edward and Mary Camp of New Haven. The will of Edward Camp of Milford, made March 11, 1721, is in Vol. 5 of N. H. Prob. Rec., on pages 56–7; the inventory on page 65, taken March 29, 1721. He gives his property to "wife Elizabeth" (a second wife) and his three children Samuel and John Camp and daughter Sarah Boardman. How many of these children were the children of Mehitable Smith is not yet known. Child:

i. —— CAMP.[3]

5. JOHN[3] SMITH (Ephraim,[2] John[1]) probably resided in Derby. He married Mary ——, who died June 12, 1745. In the will of John Smith of Derby, made Jan. 27, 1746, in N. H. Prob. Rec., Vol. 7, pages 485–8 and 646, are mentioned the four sons given below and "daughter Mary, wife of Ephraim Smith." Inventory taken June 17, 1749. Children:

i. THOMAS.[4]
ii. JOSIAH.
iii. DANIEL.
iv. JONATHAN.
v. MARY, m. Ephraim Smith.

6. MERCY[3] SMITH (Ephraim,[2] John[1]) married Nov. 11, 1698, Lieut. Samuel Gunn (born Jan. 15, 1669, died Sept. 10, 1749), son of Jebomah and Sarah (Lane) Gunn (1641) of Milford. In her will, dated Milford, Sept. 28, 1750, recorded in N. H. Prob. Rec. Oct. 8, 1750, in Vol. 7, pages 668–70, she gives £100 to each of her three sons, Samuel, Lazarus and Isaiah, and other property to her daughters, Abigail Riggs, Sarah Northrop and Mary Ford. Children:

i. ABAGAIL[4] GUNN, b. March, 1699; d. ——, 17—; m. Samuel Riggs of Derby.
ii. SAMUEL[4] GUNN, b. Jan. 15, 1701; d. Jan. 8, 1756; m. Sarah Clark.
iii. SARAH[4] GUNN, b. February, 1703; d.——, 1780; m. Ephraim Northrop, Nov. 26, 1730.
iv. LAZARUS[4] GUNN, b. October, 1707: d. March 27, 1751, unmarried.
v. ISAIAH[4] GUNN, b. May, 1710; d. ——, 17—, unmarried.
vi. MARY[4] GUNN, b. May, 1713; d. Nov. 10, 1760; m. John Ford.

7. EPHRAIM[3] SMITH (Ephraim,[2] John[1]) lived in Derby, and is recorded in the Index of N. H. Prob. Rec. as from Derby. He married ——, 16—, Susannah ——. His will, in Vol. 5, page 114, gives his property to his wife Susannah and his four children named below. His wife Susannah was made executrix; the inventory on page 207 was taken Jan. 1, 1713; the amount £178 9. 6. Children:

i. EPHRAIM.[4]
ii. JOSEPH.
iii. SUSANNAH.
iv. SAMUEL.

8. RUTH[3] SMITH (Ephraim,[2] John[1]) married ——, 17—, Samuel Briscoe (born April, 1678, died ——, 1756), son of Nathaniel Briscoe (1647——) and Mary (Camp) Briscoe of Milford. Her child, Ruth Briscoe, is mentioned in the will of her father, Ephraim Smith (1644–1712). Child:

i. RUTH[4] BRISCOE, m. Joseph Brewster.

9. JOHN[3] SMITH, JR. (John,[2] John[1]) married Ruth Briscoe (born ——, 1682, died June 16, 1749), daughter of James Briscoe and Sarah (Wheeler) Briscoe of Milford. His will of Aug 2, 1750, mentions first his four daughters, Ruth Smith, Sarah Beard, Phebe Platt and Mercy Gillette, afterwards the four sons. The will is in Vol. 8, page 16; on page 17 is the will of Ruth Briscoe Smith, his wife; it is dated Jan. 21, 1741–2. Children:

i. JAMES,[4] bap. December, 1702; d. ——, 17—; m. Hannah Northrop, March 30, 1728.
ii. CALEB, bap. December, 1702; d. Nov. 4, 1758; m. Abigail Clark, April 26, 1728.

Spaulding.—In the early part of the eighteenth century there were two men named Joseph Spaulding in Chelmsford, Mass. One was Joseph[3] (John,[2] Edward[1]), born 22 Oct. 1673. He was a husbandman, and married Elizabeth Colburn. He was called Junior, to distinguish him from the other Joseph, though the difference in their ages was only about two years.

The second Joseph was a wheelwright, with wife Mary. He was sometimes called Senior, though he often appears without such a suffix. In 1715, and after, he purchased land in Groton, but retained his Chelmsford estate, and from that date divided his time between the two towns, though mainly living in Groton. In 1717 his daughter Susanna had the use of his Chelmsford farm. It was claimed that he owed taxes in Chelmsford, and Joseph Spaulding the husbandman, being town constable, entered the house and seized certain domestic utensils to meet the claim. This led to a suit in the Inferior Court of Common Pleas. The bill of complaint alleges that Joseph Spaulding, Jr., (the husbandman) entered the "hired house of Susanna Spaulding, spinster," and seized articles as aforesaid, but that they were hers, not those of Joseph Spaulding the wheelwright. Various depositions appear, among them that of Thomas Read, Jr., who states that he saw "Joseph Spaulding of Chelmsford who desired me if I met his brother [sic] Joseph Spaulding to inform him that he had that day been to his house and made distress upon" the articles mentioned. Judgment was for the plaintiff, the articles to be returned and costs paid. "Joseph Spaulding of Groton" receipts for the money due, and the official record calls him father of Susanna.

Joseph the wheelwright appears in the Court of Sessions for 1748 in a petition from the selectmen of Dunstable, dated 8 Mar. 1747. They state that he is living in that town, "upwards of seventy-six years old," infirm and poor, and they ask that the Court compel such of his children as are well-to-do to support him, naming them thus: Joseph Spaulding and John Spaulding of Dunstable, Ebenezer Spaulding of Westford, Susanna, wife of Mousel Wright of Woburn, Mary, wife of John Nutting of Groton, and Lydia, wife of Ephraim Nutting of Groton. The selectmen add that the father once had a "good estate," but that he passed it over to his children. Deeds confirm this. In the order of the Court his son Joseph is called "eldest son." The father elected to make his home with Ephraim Nutting. This paper has a strong secondary importance in that it gives the identity of the wives of the Nuttings. The latter were brothers, sons of an older John Nutting and wife Mary Woods, and grandsons of John and Mary (Lakin) Nutting. Joseph Spaulding the wheelwright does not appear in the Spaulding Genealogy. Who was he? In the genealogy we have the history of an older man of the same name.

Joseph[2] Spaulding (Edward[1]) was born 25 Oct. 1646; removed in middle life to Plainfield, Conn., and died there 3 Apr. 1740. He married, 9 Dec. 1670, Mercy (or Mary) Jewell, and is said to have had these children:

i. Eunice,[3] b. 14 Feb. 1685; not traced.
ii. Nathaniel, b. 24 Feb. 1687; m. Johanna ———.
iii. Thomas, b. 2 Apr. 1690; m. Mercy Welch.
iv. Mercy, b. 21 Feb. 1692; not traced.
v. Susanna, b. 12 Sept. 1695; not traced.
vi. Joseph, b. 16 Apr. 1697.
vii. Joseph, b. 17 Apr. 1699; d. at Dunstable 9 Mar. 1772; m. at Dunstable Mary ———.
viii. Ebenezer, b. — July 1701; m. Hannah Craft, and lived in Westford.
ix. Mercy, b. — Oct. 1703; not traced.
x. Mary, b. 29 Jan. 1706; not traced.
xi. Lydia, b. 1 July 1708; not traced.
xii. Rachel, b. 9 Sept. 1710; not traced.

If the above is correct, it is remarkable in that, first, there is no sign of children until the parents were married nearly fifteen years, after which twelve were born, and, secondly, that the last child was born forty years after the marriage, at which time the father was sixty-four years old, and the mother, according to her age at death, fifty-eight.

Compare the last half of the foregoing with that of Joseph the wheelwright. His wife was Mary, and his children were:

i. Susanna, m. Mousel Wright.
ii. Joseph, eldest son; was living in Dunstable in 1747, and deeds show that his wife was Mary.
iii. Ebenezer, was residing in Westford in 1747.

iv. MERCY, probably, m. SIMON RUMRILL about 1722, Simon receiving land from Joseph the wheelwright in 1727. Also, in 1743 Simon's "usual place of abode" was at the house of John Spaulding. (See Inferior Court, Nutting v. Rumrill.)

v. MARY, m. JOHN NUTTING.

vi. LYDIA, m. EPHRAIM NUTTING.

vii. JOHN, was living in Dunstable in 1747.

The father of these children, Joseph the wheelwright, was seventy-six years old in 1747, which places his birth about 1671. This is significant in view of the fact that the older Joseph Spaulding and Mercy Jewell were married in 1670. Middlesex Deeds, vol. 17, p. 182, 26 Sept. 1712, adds emphasis to the point. Joseph Spaulding and wife Mercy, of Plainfield, to my son Joseph Spaulding, wheelwright, of Chelmsford, various lots of land in the last-named town, "on condition that my said son Joseph shall have no right to my land in Plainfield."

It is the contention of this article that, a year after his marriage to Mercy Jewell, Joseph[2] Spaulding (Edward[1]) had a son Joseph born; that said son was the wheelwright, and that the genealogy has omitted a generation and joined the children of the son to those of the father. As a final point, attention is called to the fact that, in the suit of Spaulding v. Spaulding, above quoted, Joseph the wheelwright is called "brother" of the contemporaneous Joseph the husbandman, though, as before shown, they were not children of the same father. The husbandman married Elizabeth Colburn. The writer knows but little of the latter family, but supposes she was born 8 Apr. 1679, daughter of John and Elizabeth (———) Colburn, and supposes, further, that John previously has a wife Susanna Read. If so, he had a daughter Mary born 23 Oct. 1671. Observe that Joseph the wheelwright had wife Mary and children Susanna and John. Were the wheelwright and the husbandman "brothers" because they had married sisters?

SPAULDING, SHEPARD.—The Spaulding Genealogy does omit children of Joseph Spaulding, Sr., and join the remaining list with that of the son's children (REGISTER, vol. 63, p. 380). For further data consult records at Plainfield and Willimantic. Hannah, daughter of Joseph and Mercy (Jewell) Spaulding, married Issac Shepard, Sr., of Plainfield, Conn., son of Isaac Shepard of Concord, Mass., by his wife Mary Smedley. Isaac Shepard, Jr., of Plainfield, married Mary Gerould. This corrects the Spaulding work, and supplies the missing wives for the two generations of Shepards. *

WHO WAS THE FIRST WIFE OF THOMAS[1] SPENCER OF HARTFORD, CONN.?

By MRS. WILLIAM C. CLARK, of Elkins Park, Pa.

Nowhere in print have I seen any mention of the name of the first wife of Thomas Spencer, the immigrant. It is usually stated that her name is unknown.

Paige's "History of Cambridge", p. 659, says that Thomas Spencer was there as early as 1633 and his name appears in the first volume of Proprietors Records of Cambridge in 1635. He may have gone to Hartford with Thomas Hooker in 1636 but was there at least by 1639.

Of the three children by his first wife, Obadiah, Thomas, and Samuel, Samuel was probably the youngest. I believe that there is no doubt, although I have seen no proof, that he was the Samuel who died in Windham, Conn., 8 Jan. 1726–7, aged about 88. His wife was Sarah ———, and she was probably the Sarah who died at Windham 15 April 1733, aged about 73.

In the Boston Probate Court Records, vol. 6, p. 553, part 2. P. 350 of the original volume, appears the following will:

"Know all men by these presents that I, Barnabas Derifall now of Braintery upon good consideration give & bequeath unto my kinsman Samuel Spencer to him and his heires Execrs Admrs & assignes forever the one halfe of my whole Estate both in quantity & quality all which hee is now by this Instrument really & legally possessed of and shall by this present have hold & enjoy the same as a peaceable possession from all Claymants whatsoever by from or under me whereby hee may bee ejected out of the same or any part of it forever, Also I do by this present give & bequeath unto my kinsman Samuel Spencer his heires Execrs & Assignes the other half of my reall Estate, which I shall not have occasion to spend for my comfortable Subsistance wh hee shall have after my decease paying all my debts and taking care of my decent funerall and paying to his two Brothers Obadiah & Thomas Spencer forty shillings apiece within twelve months after my decease. This I do voluntarily and freely give as my firm act and deed, and to this Instrument have set to my hand & Seale this 28 day of January 1680. Barnabas Derifall.
His 8 marke & Seal.
Signed & Sealed in the presence of us Richard Brackett, Samuel Tompson, Boston in Suffolke.
Captn Richard Brackett, and Deacon Samll Tompson, made Oath before Joseph Dudley, Esqr and John Hall Esqr Assistts 24 Febry 1680 that Barnabas Derifall did Signe Seale & publish this Instrument to bee his last will, and that hee was of disposing minde wn hee so did, But the will being imperfect for want of an Executor The County Court sitting by Adjournmt 10th March 1680 granted Lres of Adm to the within named Samll Spencer to be annext to this imperfect will hee giving bond to attend the same in his Admcon.
Isa Addington Cler
New Series 4–8.
Boston Apr. 23, 1681 Samuel Spencer & Capt. Richard Brackett gave bond of £100."

The three Spencers named in this will have the names of the sons of Thomas Spencer's first wife, and further evidence that it was this same Samuel is found in the will of his father, Thomas Spencer.

Chas. W. Manwaring's "Digest of early Conn. Probate Records", vol. 1, p. 365 (vol. 4 of the records, p. 262) gives the following: Sergt. Thomas Spencer of Hartford, died 11 Sept. 1687. Inv. £139:19:00. Will dated 9 Sept. 1686. The 3rd item of bequests says "I give to my son Samuel [he having received a good portion from his Uncle] my wearing Apparrell".

In the Suffolk County Court, Session of 29 Oct. 1678, there are listed the names of such persons in Brantery as have taken the oath of allegiance, in this list the names of Barnaby Derifield and Samuel Spencer appear.

Records of the Town of Braintree, 1640 to 1793, edited by Samuel A. Bates, 1886, lists on p. 657, the death of Barnabas Dorifield on 2 Feb. 1680 and that of his wife, Elizabeth, on 16 Sept. 1679. Also on p. 664, under Braintree Births, Marriages and Deaths, p. 45, Sarah Spencer, dau. of Samuel and Sarah Spencer b. anno 1686, August, and on pg. 666, pg. 49 of the records, Anna Spencer, dau. of Samuel Spencer and Sarah his wife, b. 21 Aug 1689.

Samuel Spencer sold his property in Braintree May 14, 1708; the deed is recorded in Suffolk Co. land records, vol. 29, p. 30, and is as follows:

"Samuel Spencer of Braintrey, Suffolk Co., Mass., husbandman, for 34 pounds lawful money paid by Nathaniel Owen of Braintrey, do sell, bargain, convey etc. — dwelling, orchard and homestead in Braintrey, thirteen acres more or less; bounded south and west on the commons, north on a brook running to furnace pond, and east upon land of Nathaniel Owens. Sarah, wife of sd Samuel both absolutely give yield and surrender her right of dower.

Samuel Spencer his mark.

In presence of Joseph Neal

Sarah Spencer her mark

Joseph Crosby

Joseph Parmenter."

It would seem significant that in Windham on 16 Sept. 1708 a Sarah Spencer married John Crane, probably the above daughter born in August 1686; also in "Groups of Palmer Families", by Emily Wilder Leavitt, 1901, on p. 65, it is stated "Gershom Palmer son Jonah & Elizabeth (Kenrick) Palmer b. Rehoboth Nov. 14, 1694, d. Scotland Dec. 11, 1776 in 83rd, mar. 1st., at Windham June 28, 1715 Hannah Spencer who died Scotland Parish Nov. 22, 1766 in 78th". This age at death would indicate that Hannah was born in 1689, and was probably the Anna born in Braintree 21 Aug. 1689.

But to return to the Derifalls, only two are mentioned by Savage; and Pope, the latter in his "Pioneers of Massachusetts", p. 137, gives the following —

"Derifall, Doryfall, Anne ae 24, came in Elizabeth of Ipswich Apr. 30, 1634. Maid servant to Wm. Coddington. Admitted Church Boston 2 (9) 1634."

"Derifall, Doryfall, Derroford, Derisould, Barnabas, Boston. Admitted church 1632–3. Freeman May 25, 1636; dismissed to church of Braintree 24 (3) 1640. Proprietor 1648. Proprietor at Lynn before 1655. His wife Elizabeth died at Braintree 16 Sept. 1679; he died Feb. 2, 1680. Will dated 28 Jan., probated 24 Feb. 1680, bequeathed to kinsman Samuel Spencer all his estate in consideration of his taking care of him the rest of his life; with small legacies to Samuel's brothers, Obediah and Thomas Spencer". In Savage's Gen'l Dictionary Vol. 2, p. 61–Doryfall or Dorifield, Barnaby, Boston. Came in the Mary & Jane 1633, I presume, with Coddington, for he was admitted of the church nearly the same time with the new wife which Coddington brought in that ship and there came in 1634 by the Elizabeth from Ipswich, Ann Derifall, ae 24, perhaps sister of Barnabas called when admitted 2 Nov. following "our brother Wm. Coddington's maid servant." He lived at Braintree, then part of Boston, and Coddington had a large farm there. Freeman 25 May 1636.

In the Braintree Records, edited by Bates and previously mentioned, on p. 10 of the records "2th [sic] 11 mo 1656 A highway layed out into the common upon Henry Neals land from Barnabus Derifalls". Page 16 of the records December 1672 "the ancient way into the comon over Barnabas Derifalls land shall ly at the head of the furnace pond and so into the way that goes into the mill pond, — it would appear that this is the land sold by Samuel Spencer in 1708".

From all this evidence, it appears that Anne Derifall was the sister of Barnabas and also the first wife of Thomas Spencer of Hartford.

HUMPHREY SPINNING OF GUILFORD, CONN., AND ELIZABETH, N. J., AND HIS DESCENDANTS.

Compiled by Hon. RALPH D. SMYTH, and communicated by Dr. BERNARD C. STEINER.

1. HUMPHREY[1] SPINNING, SR., appears on New Haven Records as early as Dec. 4, 1639. On Dec. 6, 1655, he refused to watch, claiming that he was old and "but a sojourner." His will, made June 20, 1649, "before going for the Bay," makes bequest to his wife's son Edward, his daughter Mary, and his wife's daughter Lettice, and speaks of his son-in-law in England. He mentions having money in the hands of John Brown of Salem, lands in Delaware Bay which he leaves to his kinsman Humphrey Spinning, and property at Oyster Bay. His estate, Sept. 29, 1656, was inventoried at New Haven as worth £208. His wife, who died at Delaware Bay, had brought him £200. Goodmam Rice's son was about to marry Mary Spinning when her father died.

2. Humphrey[2] Spinning, Jr., probably nephew of the former, took the oath of fidelity at New Haven, Oct. 14, 1657. He had been taken by his relative "when but a child" from his father in England. He married first, Oct. 14, 1657, Abigail, daughter of George Hubbard of Guilford, and soon removed thither, where he was admitted as planter on Mar. 13, 1661/2. About 1666 he removed to Elizabeth Town, N. J. In 1670 he bought 280 acres there, and was a husbandman. He made his will in 1680, though it was not registered until Mar. 26, 1689. In Guilford he bought Richard Hubball's home lot, containing about six acres, and on June 21, 1667, after removing to New Jersey, sold it to John Bowers. He married second, Anna ———.

Children:

3. i. John,[3] b. at New Haven, Feb. 11, 1658-9; d. Feb. 27, 1712.
ii. Daniel, b. at Guilford, Feb. 5, 1661; executor of his father's will.
iii. Abigail, b. Elizabeth Town.
iv. Ebenezer, b. Elizabeth Town.
v. Edward, b. Elizabeth Town.
vi. Benjamin, b. Elizabeth Town.
vii. Anna, b. Elizabeth Town.
viii. Elizabeth, b. Elizabeth Town.

3. John[3] Spinning (Humphrey[2]), of Guilford, married first, Mch. 16, 1687, Deborah Bartlett, who died Dec. 10, 1692; and married second, Aug. 22, 1694, Rachel Savage, who married second, Dea. Thomas Hall of Guilford. Her list was £103. 6. 0, in 1716.

Child by first wife:

i. Daniel,[4] b. Mch. 16, 1688-9; d. young.

Children by second wife:

4. ii. John, b. May 14, 1696; d. May 28, 1722.
iii. Abigail, b. May 17, 1699; d. Feb. 22, 1751; m. July 1, 1719, John Bishop of East Guilford, who d. Jan. 28, 1752.
5. iv. Nathaniel, b. Nov. 30, 1702; d. Jan. 1, 1795.
v. Daniel, b. Nov. 8, 1711; d. single, June, 1733.

4. John[4] Spinning, Jr. (John,[3] Humphrey[2]), of Guilford, married, Aug. 2, 1721, Deborah Chittenden, who married second, Caleb Pitkin of East Hartford, and died Feb., 1766.

Child:

i. John,[5] b. June 11, 1722; d. single, June 9, 1746.

5. Nathaniel[4] Spinning (John,[3] Humphrey[2]), of Guilford, married first, Sarah Cruttenden, who died Nov., 1736; and married second, Anna Talman, who died Dec. 29, 1789.

Child by first wife:

i. Nathaniel,[5] b. about 1729; lived in North Guilford and Ashfield; m. Mch. 1, 1752, Thankful, dau. of James Benton, Jr.; had: John,[6] b. Aug. 23, 1753; and Mary, b. Sept., 1756.

Children by second wife:

ii. Daniel, b. July 19, 1738; d. Dec. 16, 1746.
iii. Levi, d. July 25, 1781; m. Jan. 15, 1777, Anna Blachley, who m. (2) in 1782, Joarib Field, removed to Bergen, N. J., and d. there July 6, 1829. Child: Eber,[6] b. 1778; d. Aug. 8 1795.
iv. Sarah, b. 1749; d. Nov. 26, 1757.
v. Lois, b. 175–; d. Nov. 29, 1757.
vi. Anna, b. 1757; d. Aug. 17, 1844; m. Jan. 5, 1783, Isaac Hotchkiss of Guilford, who d. Aug. 8, 1835.

Spinning-Royce-Beach-Macock. — A note in the Register, vol. 80, pp. 107–109, prepared by the undersigned for Miss Helen Beach, who died at Geneva, Switzerland, in Dec. 1927, presented proof that the wife of John[2] Beach of Wallingford, Conn., was Mary[3] Royce, daughter of Jonathan[2] Royce of Norwich, Conn., by a first wife; and evidence was also presented to indicate that the first wife of Jonathan Royce was Mary[2] Spinning, daughter of Humphrey[1] Spinning of New Haven. The note here contributed is offered as a memorial to the work of Miss Beach, who labored for many years on these problems; and it presents later discoveries which confirm and amplify the conclusions set forth in the earlier note.

Humphrey Spinning, it will be remembered, had a stepdaughter named Lettice (his wife's daughter), who was half sister of Mary (Spinning) Royce. Mary (Royce) Beach, daughter of Mary (Spinning) Royce, named her eldest child Lettice; and the recurrence of this uncommon name was a part of the circumstantial evidence favoring the deduction that Mary Spinning was the mother of Mary (Royce) Beach.

The surname of Mary Spinning's half sister does not occur in any public record of New Haven or vicinity. Lettice was unmarried when her stepfather died in 1656. A Lettice Atred, Sergeant Baldwin's maid at Milford, was referred to by Winthrop in 1657. This surname has not been found anywhere in the neighborhood of New Haven, and Spinning's stepdaughter, being left a double orphan, with no home of her own, might easily have entered the employ of Baldwin in the adjacent town of Milford. There was a Capt. Thomas Macock, or Meacock, who early had a grant of land in Milford. He later removed to Guilford, Conn., where he died in 1707.

That Macock was in Milford about the time Lettice Atred was living there is proved by a grant of land dated 3 Jan. 1659/60 and by his appearance at a town meeting held 20 Feb. 1659/60; but his name does not appear in a long list of freeholders, with the amount of land given to each, at a town court apparently held on 19 Mar. 1659/60. For these Milford references I am indebted to George C. Bryant, Esq., of Ansonia, Conn.

Macock bought land in Guilford, Conn., on 23 Nov. 1662, and thereafter his name frequently occurs in the Guilford records. In his will, dated 1 Nov. 1701, he gave nearly all of his property, which included negro servants, to his kinsman Samuel Smithson of "Brafield near to Northampton in old England," and requested that Smithson "Take speciall Care of and well provide for my dear and Loving wife Lettis Macock," who was to have £20 to dispose of as she pleased at her decease. A codicil was added 2 Feb. 1704 [probably 1704/5], and the will was proved on 28 May 1707. Mrs. Lettice Macock appeared and declared "yt she would not Contest ye Will."

Lettice, the stepdaughter of Humphrey Spinning, is without a surname, and without a history after 1656. But — to sum up — a Lettice Atred was living in Milford in 1657. Thomas Macock was living in Milford in 1660 and perhaps earlier, but had removed to Guilford by 1662. In 1693 Macock's wife Lettice appears in a deed with him in Guilford; and she was named in his will in 1701, survived him, and died at Guilford on 5 Sept. 1715. Humphrey Spinning's nephew of identical name also settled in Guilford. Considering the rarity of the name Lettice and the failure to find any other Lettice at that period in that region, it may be guessed that Spinning's stepdaughter is the Lettice whose history is glimpsed in the records cited above.

But the strongest piece of evidence remains to be stated. Mary Spinning, the half sister of Lettice, married Jonathan Royce, had a daughter Mary, and died. Royce removed to New London and Norwich, Conn., and married again. Mary Royce married John Beach of Wallingford, which was a considerable distance from Norwich; and it is a fair guess that Mary was brought up by her childless aunt, Mrs. Lettice Macock, in Guilford. Be that as it may, Mary (Royce) Beach named her first child Lettice; and this Lettice Beach, having married William Ward, who came from Guilford to Wallingford, proceeded to name a son Macock Ward. Careful study has failed to reveal any other way by which the name Macock could have come into the Ward family except through this Spinning-Royce-Beach connection; and, although this does not constitute legal proof, it makes the suggested hypothesis genealogically perfect.

New Haven, Conn. DONALD LINES JACOBUS.

STANDISH, WHEELOCK, KIRKLAND.—In the April number of the Register, Ariel S. Thurston, of Elmira, N. Y., inquires "upon what authority it is stated, in Part II, page 23, of 'The Historical Memoir of Plymouth Colony,' by Francis Baylies, that 'from Alexander Standish are descended two gentlemen of distinguished literary talents, Dr. Wheelock, late President of Dartmouth College, and Dr. Kirtland, late President of Harvard.'"

There does not appear to be any authority for the statement, if based on the marriage of Deacon Ralph Wheelock with Mercy Standish.

The impression seems to be very general among the biographers and connections of President Kirkland, that his mother, Jerusha Bingham, was the daughter of Jabez Bingham, of Salisbury, and Mary Wheelock, only child of Dea. Wheelock by Mercy Standish. Mr. Young, in the appendix to his discourse on the life and character of Pres. Kirkland, makes this claim, and gives his line of descent from Miles Standish. He adds, that his statement may be relied upon. President Allen, in his notice of Dr. Wheelock, in Sprague's Annals, says: "his half sister, Mary, whose mother was Mercy Standish of Preston, married Jabez Bingham of Salisbury, and was the grandmother of the Rev. Dr. Kirkland, late President of Harvard University." In the genealogy of the Kirtland family, published in the July number of the Register, this statement is repeated, and several communications received from descendants and connections of the Kirtland and Standish families, are to the same effect.

But I am satisfied, after a careful examination and comparison of original records, that the Jerusha Bingham who became the wife of Rev. Samuel Kirtland, missionary to the Indians, was the daughter of Joseph Bingham of Windham, and Sarah Wheelock, own sister to Dr. Wheelock.

The following particulars of Deacon Wheelock's family, on which I base this opinion, are mostly derived from Windham records.

1. Dea. Ralph[1] Wheelock of Windham, m. 1st, Ruth Huntington, dau. of Dea. Christopher Huntington of Norwich, Jan. 8, 1707–8; she d. Sept., 1725; m. 2d, Mercy Standish, dau. of Josiah Standish of Preston, Sept. 30, 1726; she d. Nov. 4, 1748; he d. Oct. 15, 1748, aged 66. By his first wife Ruth he had six ch.:—(2) Elizabeth,[2] b. July 18, 1709, m. Joshua Hendee;—(3) Eleazer,[2] b. April 22, 1711, originator of the celebrated Indian School at Lebanon, and founder and first President of Dartmouth College, m. 1st, Mrs. Sarah Maltby, relict of Capt. William Maltby of New Haven, and dau. of the Rev. John Davenport of Stamford; m. 2d, Mary Brinsmade of Milford;—(4) Ruth,[2] b. May 25, 1713, m. Robert Hebard Jr.;—(5) Abigail,[2] b. March 3, 1717, m. Rev. Benjamin Pomeroy of Hebron;—(6) John,[2] b. Jan. 24, 1719–20, d. Jan. 29, 1719–20;—(7) Sarah,[2] b. July 7, 1725, m. Joseph Bingham Jr. Dec. 21, 1742, and had nine ch.:—Jerusha,[3] b. Oct. 15, 1743, m. Rev. Samuel Kirtland, Sept. 20, 1769; Tryphena,[3] Sarah,[3] d. y., Chester,[3] Ozias,[3] Ralph,[3] Salome,[3] Celinda,[3] and Augustus Wheelock.[3] By his second wife Mercy he had one ch.:—(8) Mary b. Nov. 28, 1728, m. Jabez Bingham Jr. Dec. 24, 1746, and had ch.:—Jabez,[3] b. at Windham, Feb. 13, 1748–9. They then removed to Salisbury and had: Ralph Wheelock,[3] b. Feb. 17, 1750–51; Mary,[3] b. July 3, 1752; Alvan,[3] b. Dec. 20, 1754. Their record then disappears from Salisbury, I have not traced it farther. If they had a daughter Jerusha, born after Alvan, she must have been too young to be married in 1769.

If the above records are authentic—and I would thank any one to correct them if wrong—it is very evident that there was no Standish blood in President Kirkland, and certainly none in Dr. Wheelock.

STANTON.—I desire information relative to the wife and the descendants of Rev. Robert Stanton, first pastor of the East Church in Salem, Mass. He was born in Stonington, Conn., Dec. 7, 1689, his father being Robert Stanton (son of the first Thomas), whose wife was Joanna, daughter of Thomas and Lucy (Smith) Gardiner, of Roxbury, Mass. He was graduated at Harv. Coll. in 1712. After this he was master of the Roxbury grammar-school for several years, and then chaplain at the castle. April 9, 1719, he was ordained and settled as pastor of the Salem East Church, Cotton Mather being preacher of the ordination sermon. He seems to have been married about that time. He died May 3, 1727, leaving a wife and five children. All I know of his wife is that her name was Katharine. Hon. Richard A. Wheeler, of Stonington, Conn., adds to this, that her bondsman, as administrator of her husband's estate, was Thomas Simpkins, of Boston, and reasonably conjectures that he was her brother, and a grandson of Pilgrim Simpkins, of Boston, who was married to Katherine Richardson, Nov. 27, 1661. Pilgrim Simpkins had a son Thomas who died previous to the death of Mr. Stanton, and who may have been the father of both Mrs. Stanton and her bondsman. Rev. Robert Stanton's children were as follows: Thomas, b. May 15, 1720; Joanna, b. July 28, 1722; Robert, b. Oct. 8, 1723; Marjery, b. Sept. 10, 1725; William, b. June 12, 1727.

Who can give authentic information concerning the family of his wife, the history of his wife and children after his death, and the descendants of his children?

Worcester, Mass. JOHN D. BALDWIN.

DOROTHY STANTON.

By Edward Doubleday Harris, Esq., of New York City.

The fate of an early Dorothy Stanton of Stonington, Connecticut, has been a mystery to genealogists from Miss Caulkins's day to the present; nor, notwithstanding the statements in recently published genealogies of the Dennison and Stanton families, does it seem nearer a solution.

The woman in question was the daughter of Thomas, and granddaughter of the first Thomas Stanton, the Indian interpreter. She married Nicholas Lynde of Charlestown, subsequently John Trerice, and thereafter becomes apparently confounded with some other Dorothy Stanton whose identity is undiscovered.

The positive evidence concerning her may be summed up as follows:—

Stonington church books record the baptism of Dorothy, daughter of Thomas Stanton, Junior, April 24, 1681. There is reason to believe that she was, at that time, a child of two or three years of age. The town records dispose of her later, in this wise: "Nicholas Lynd of Charlestown and Dorothy Stanton of Stonington were married 9 May, 1696." Charlestown records confirm the fact of the marriage, but alter the date to 7 May, the entry, however, being delayed until 10 March, 1700–1.

Col. Lynde, continuing the story, wrote in his family bible, "my Grand-daughter Sarah Lynde, daughter to my son Nicholas—Lynde, was born Feb. 23, 1700, on a Sabbath day in the morning." The birth was at Charlestown, for the town records there enter it as Feb. 25, 1699–1700, and the church records follow with the baptism, March 31, 1699, and the admission of the mother, Dorothy, to full communion, on the same day.

Then the bible record goes on:—"my Grand-child Joseph Lynde, son to my son Nicholas Lynde, was born at Stonington in January 1702–3 on a Thursday"; and the Stonington records fix the exact date as the 1st, "about to of the clock in the afternoon," and that of the baptism as the 10th of the same month.

The bible again is authority for Lynde's death "at Jamaica [W. I.] Oct. 1703," and the Charlestown records for the marriage of Dorothy to John Trerice, Jan. 22, 1707–8.

At this point the difficulty begins. The family records of the Lyndes are, happily, so complete, that no room is given for the suspicion that the Dorothy who married Trerice was any other than the widow of Nicholas. Wyman, generally careful, makes this Trerice the elder John, then, if living, in his 69th year,* while Mr. Appleton, much more reasonably, prefers to consider him the younger man, born 1671.† John Jr. was living June 29, 1722, to join with his sister Hannah Austin in the conveyance of real estate, then an inhabitant of Charlestown.‡ Middlesex and Suffolk county records of probate and deeds, and Charlestown town and church records have been vainly searched for further trace of Dorothy Trerice.

We know that Col. Lynde adopted the two children of his deceased son Nicholas. He, himself, died intestate Jan. 29, 1722, but the division of his large estate gives no intimation concerning the daughter-in-law Dorothy. But if the widow is thus, in recorded history, so suddenly lost sight of, family tradition has kept her memory green. Her son, in 1746, named a daughter for her, and this Dorothy lived until 1837, to see the name borne worthily by two others, Mary Dorothy Harris (1797–1890) and Dorothy Lynde Dix (1802–1887), both in the fourth generation in descent from Dorothy Stanton. Certainly as long ago as in 1820 there was an unquestioned family tradition that after the death of Lynde the widow had "three or four husbands, and died in Connecticut at the age of 105 (or 107) then the widow Dennison." This would place the date of her death at about 1785, when the granddaughter referred to was in her fortieth year, with years enough then before her in which to confirm or correct a tradition certainly in force in 1820.

Mess. Baldwin and Clift in their Dennison book§ ignoring or ignorant of the Trerice marriage, gave the widow Lynde to John Frink, and 3d to Robert Dennison of Montville, and then gave to her by Dennison, a son George, born 1719, and a daughter Dorothy, born 1721.

In Baldwin's Stanton Genealogy of 1882 he reasserted the Frink-Dennison story and finding in the Stonington records three children of John Frink, born between 1710 and 1717, fastened them upon Dorothy without any authority whatever that is now apparent.

After a long and persistent search for Baldwin's authority of this apparent confirmation of the family tradition of the Dennison marriage (which, by the way, the compilers of the Dennison book were probably not aware of), the writer found it in the Montville church records. The Rev. David Jewitt, the second pastor, began his new book with an account compiled "with care" of the several families of the parish. This was in 1739. Page 2, devoted to the family of Capt. Robert Dennison, gives us the names of his children "by his first wife Joanna" (all born and baptized at Stonington), and then, below, the record runs: —

The children by the Second Wife Widº. Dorothy Frink, her maiden name Stanton, George.
Dorothy, bapt. Dec. 30, 1722.

Turning back to the first book of records, commencing with the gathering of the church, we are confronted with a difficulty,—one that Baldwin disposed of by ignoring. In the list of original covenanters of Oct. 1722, are the names of "Capt. Dinnison and Mrs. Sarah Dinnison," presumably husband and wife. Jewitt so understood their relation, as he in his copy writes "Capt. Robert Dennison and his wife Sarah," and moreover finds "old Miss Sarah Dennison" a church member in 1739, the captain having died in 1737. If Sarah were Dennison's wife in 1722, and Dorothy bore him a child in 1721, then it was quick work even for those days of speedy matrimonial consolations. But, if we believe this, and that his Dorothy had been Lynde's widow, how reconcile Sarah's appearance with the Lynde tradition that Dorothy lived "the widow Dennison" until 1785?

The most careful scrutiny of the Stanton records fails to find any Dorothy married to a Frink. Nor does any evidence appear as yet, save Jewitt's testimony, of any Frink with a Dorothy as a wife; nor does the Dennison book, on the other hand, give us any widow Dorothy that could possibly serve our purpose. Again, if Trerice were living in 1722, unless Dorothy had left him, she could not have been the wife of Frink from 1710 to 1717, and of Dennison in 1721.

The Baldwin and Clift statement was at first accepted by the writer of this article as conclusive, and it was not until a personal examination of the Montville records had been made by him, together with a study of the Trerice-Frink-Dennison alliances, that doubt arose in his mind as to the identity of the Dorothy concerned. Meantime the Rev. William A. Stanton had printed his Stanton Genealogy with the writer's endorsement of the Baldwin theory* and Professor and Mrs. Salisbury had given to the public their sumptuous work embracing the chapter on the Lords, repeating the same account.

Perhaps some future investigator may discover evidence that will confirm Jewitt's record, and Baldwin's construction of it, but meantime the writer prefers to believe that Dorothy Lynde did not marry either a Frink or Robert Dennison of Montville, and that her story, after the Trerice marriage in 1708, is yet to be told.

DOROTHY STANTON.

By Richard A. Wheeler, Esq., of Stonington, Conn.

An article written by Mr. Edward Doubleday Harris, showing great research and eminent ability, appeared in the Register, Vol. 48, pages * 421–3, relative to the personal history of Dorothy Stanton, of Stonington, Conn., daughter of Thomas Stanton, Jr., and his wife Sarah Denison, daughter of Capt. George Denison by his first wife, Bridget Thompson. The early life of this Dorothy Stanton was devoted to her father's family, and to assisting him in his mercantile and commercial business at the Stanton trading house, so-called, in Stonington, near Pawcatuck rock, on the west side of Pawcatuck river, at that time the only commercial place in the region round about; the business of and from which extended from Boston to the West Indies. While so engaged, Dorothy Stanton became acquainted with Nicholas Lynde, who generally acted as supercargo of a vessel trading along our New England coast, which business frequently compelled him to call at the Stanton trading house to deliver and receive dry goods and such commodities as were reciprocally exchanged. Mr. Lynde's calls at the trading house were mutually enjoyed by him and Miss Stanton, and finally resulted in their marriage, May 9th, 1696. By this union were two children, viz., Sarah Lynde, born Feb. 20th, 1699–1700, and Joseph Lynde, born Jan. 1st, 1702–3.

Nicholas Lynde, while on a voyage to the West Indies, died at Jamaica, in October, 1703. After his death, the two children were adopted by Col. Joseph Lynde, their grandfather, and, with their mother went to live with him, where the widow resided until she married John Trerice, Jan. 22d, 1707–8. This John Trerice was a widower at the time of his marriage, some forty years older than Mrs. Dorothy Lynde, which caused Mr. William S. Appleton to say in the Register, Vol. 46, page 174, that it was John Trerice, Jr., who married Mrs. Dorothy Lynde Jan. 22, 1708; but Mr. Wyman, in his History of Charlestown, Mass., Vol. 2, page 952, says that it was John Trerice, Sr. Mr. Wyman also there says that John Trerice, Jr., was living in 1722, when (June 29th) he joined with his sister, Hannah Austin, in the conveyance of real estate. No wife joined him in the deed.

There are no records of the death of John Trerice, Sr., anywhere to be found, but there are traces of Dorothy Trerice after his death, which appear in the New London County Probate records and the Montville Church records, clearly establishing the fact that Mrs. Dorothy Trerice became the wife of two more husbands after the decease of John Trerice, Sr., viz., Samuel Frink, of Stonington, and her first cousin, Robert Denison, of Montville, Conn. There are no known records of either of these two last marriages, but there is convincing proof. The author of the Stanton genealogy states that John Trerice died soon after his marriage with the widow of Nicholas Lynde; Clift and Baldwin, in their Denison genealogy, fail to give a correct account of the life of Dorothy Stanton; nor was her history after her marriage with John Trerice known with certainty until the records and files of the New London County Probate records, or so many of them as escaped the burning of New London by the infamous Arnold, Sept. 6th, 1781, were thoroughly examined, arranged and indexed.

The Hon. Alfred Coit, present judge of the New London Probate Court, has furnished by his official hand the following from these recently discovered records:—

"Administration was granted to Dorothy Frink, widow of Samuel Frink, of Stonington, October 13th, 1713, who gave bonds for £1500, with her late husband's brother, John Frink, and her own brother, William Stanton, as sureties on her bond."

The Stonington town records of births, marriages and deaths show that Samuel Frink, Sr., of Stonington, died Oct. 12th, 1713. The law and practice in the old County Probate Courts in Connecticut required the administrators of all intestate estates, at the time of their appointment as such, to furnish the Court with a list of the descendant's children, and their ages, which she did as follows:—

CHILDREN OF SAMUEL FRINK.

Samuel Frink, Jr.,	age	21	years.
Andrew Frink,	"	20	"
Grace Frink,	"	18	"
James Frink,	"	17	"
Hannah Frink,	"	15	"
Jedidiah Frink,	"	12	"
Jerusha Frink,	"	10	"
Elias Frink,	"	8	"
Abigail Frink,	"	6	"
William Frink,	"	2	"

Nine of these children were by Samuel Frink's first wife, Hannah (Miner) Frink, and the tenth child was by his second wife, Mrs. Dorothy (Stanton, Lynde, Trerice) Frink.

How long Mrs. Frink remained a widow after the death of her third husband, Samuel Frink, before she became the wife of her cousin, Robert Denison, Jr., as his second wife, and her fourth husband, I have seen no record. Robert Denison, of Stonington, and Joanna Stanton, of the same town, were married in 1696, and became the parents of fourteen children, the youngest of which was born in 1715. How long Mrs. Robert Denison survived the birth of her youngest child does not appear.

From the best attainable evidence, Mrs. Dorothy Frink became the wife of Robert Denison in 1718, at which time they were both living in Montville, Conn. During the year 1719, a son was born to them, which they named George Denison, after their distinguished grandfather, Capt. George Denison; and in the year 1721 a daughter was born, which was given the name of its mother, Dorothy Denison.

Robert Denison and his wife both became members of the Montville Church. In 1739 the pastor of the church compiled with evident care the names of the families of the parish. Page 2 of the record was devoted to the family of Capt. Robert Denison, who had died in 1737, two years before the compilation. His widow, Mrs. Dorothy Denison, doubtless furnished the compiler with the facts—the names of his children by his first wife, Joanna Stanton (all born and baptized in Stonington), and then, below, the record: "the children by the second wife, Widow Dorothy Frink, her maiden name Stanton:

George Denison.
Dorothy Denison, bapt. Dec. 30th, 1722."

This church record seems positive and conclusive proof that she was the Dorothy Stanton who married first Nicholas Lynde, second John Trerice, third Samuel Frink, and fourth Robert Denison, and by well-sustained and established tradition lived to enjoy and pass the one hundred and fifth anniversary of her birth.

STARR.—Comfort Starr of Guilford, Conn.; Comfort Starr of Danbury, Conn.; Thomas Norton and wife Rachel, and Daniel Dennison and wife Rachel of New London; Archibald Greenfield and wife Hannah of Lyme; Jonathan James, Thomas * Starr, and John Chester and wife Mary of Groton, Conn.; John Sage and wife Hannah, Joseph Kenney and wife Mary, Joseph Starr and Elizabeth Ward of Middletown, Conn., and William Peabody and wife Jerusha of Little Compton, R. I., in 1733–4, release to Benjamin Starr of New London, their right in 400 acres of land "granted by the Assembly in the Province of the Mass. Bay in General Court 19 Oct 1658 unto the widow of Thomas Starr late of Charlestown and by the General Court of said province in Oct 1733 confirmed unto the said Benjamin and the rest of the descendants of the said widow."

The above facts are given in a deed recorded among the Worcester County Deeds, Lib. v. folio 327. HENRY E. WAITE.

STEDMAN FAMILY.

[By George Chandler, M. D., from Notes of Jona. Clark, Esq.]

The progenitor of the Hampton, Ct. branch of this family was Thomas Stedman, Jr. A deed of 150 acres of land in Hampton bears date "3d December, 1731," from "Nathaniel Kingsbury of Windham to Thomas Stedman, Jr. of Brookline, Suffolk Co., Mass."

1. Thomas[1] Stedman, Jr., b. 1698, m. Anna Seaver, April 9, 1724. She was b. 1699. They had 4 children b. in Massachusetts, then removed to the then Second Parish in Windham. He was a carpenter and joiner, and built the meeting-house there which is still a "good country" meeting-house. It was dedicated March, 1754. He and his wife joined the church, Nov. 1732, under the care of Rev. William Billings, and he was chosen deacon Dec. 3, 1733. Deacon Thomas was killed April 9, 1773 (by falling from the load on which he was riding, and the wheel or log passing over him,) aged 75 years. His wife Anna d. April 20, 1787, aged 88 years. Among the names of petitioners of Muddy River (Brookline) for that place to be set off from Boston and "be made a separate village, or peculiar," 1704, are those of Thomas Stedman and Thomas Stedman, Jr., who may have been the ancestors of Thomas, Jr. of Hampton.

The children of Deacon Thomas[1] and Anna, were :—(2) James,[2][†] b. at Brookline, Mass., 1725, m. Hannah Griffin ;—(3) John,[2][†] b. at Brookline, 1727, w. Abigail ;—(4) Anna,[2][†] b. at Brookline, 1729, m. by Parson Moseley, April 29, 1743, to Joseph Marsh ;—(5) Thomas,[2][†] b. at Brookline, 1732, m. Mehitable Griffin ;—(6) Mary,[2] b. Aug. 15, 1734, bp. Aug. 15, 1734, died April 20, 1753, aged 18 yrs. 8 mos. 5 days ;—(7) Sarah,[2][†] b. Oct. 30, 1736, bp. Nov. 14, 1736, m. Joseph Chaplin ;—(8) Elizabeth,[2][†] b. April 30, 1738, bp. May 6, 1738, m. Joseph Abbot ;—(9) Lucy,[2] b. March 8, 1740, bp. March 22, 1740, m. to Samuel Moseley, Jr., by his father, Parson Moseley, Oct. 7, 1762 ; removed to Ashford, Ct.;—(10) Patience,[2] b. April 17, 1743, bp. April 24, 1743, m. Nov. 18, 1762, Daniel Fuller, who d. Oct. 11, 1818 ; she d. Feb. 18, 1835 ;—(11) Daniel,[2][†] b. Dec. 9, 1745, bp. Dec. 22, 1745, m. Sarah Williams ;—(12) Easter,[2][†] b. Sept. 25, 1748, bp. Oct. 2, 1748, m. April 14, 1774, Cornelius Adams.

2. James[2] Stedman, the first child of the first of the name in Hampton, was m. by Parson Moseley, April 11, 1751, to Hannah, daughter of Deacon Ebenezer Griffin of Hampton, when she was 18 years 7 mos. old. She was b. Sept. 11, 1732. He was a "good" farmer, carpenter and joiner, and clock maker. He was made a member of the church Nov. 15, 1741, and his wife, Nov. 26, 1789. He d. Sept. 7, 1788, aged 63. She d. Aug. 30, 1795, aged 62 yrs. 11 mos. 20 days.

On April 22, 1775, the Saturday next after the Lexington Fight, he started with the Connecticut troops to aid the patriots, but hearing that the British had returned to Boston, the Conn. troops went back the next day.

By the "Assembly, May Session, 1776, a Regiment or Battalion [was] ordered to be raised to go to Boston, to be composed of 8 Companies (76 privates and 14 others to a Company,) to serve a year, to be commanded by Andrew Ward of Guilford, Colonel." James Stedman was appointed Captain in this Regiment, June 26, 1776.—"July 8, 1776, this regiment was ordered to New York instead of Boston, and it was in Bucks County, Penn., Dec. 24, 1776."

Capt. Stedman was for many years collector of taxes in Hampton, and died there of a scrofulous complaint on the nape of the neck. He was much respected, beloved and honored.

Crayon portraits of him and his wife, by Joseph Stewart of Hartford, Ct., are in possession of the writer.

Their children were :—(13) Thomas,[3][†] b. Nov. 6, 1761, bp. Nov. 15, 1761, m. Lucy Warren ;—(14) Hannah,[3] b. Nov. 23, 1769, bp. Nov. 26, 1769, d. unm. July 14, 1795, a. 25 yrs. 7 mos. 21 days ;—(15) Mary,[3][†] b. Jan. 14, 1772, bp. Jan. 17, 1773, m. John W. Chandler.

3. John[2] Stedman lived in east part of Holliston, Mass., farmer. In 1774 he bought of his brother, Capt. James, land in Hampton, and sold it back in 1776, and was described as of Holliston. Was selectman in 1782, in Holliston. He m. Abigail, who d. 1822; s. at Chabboquisset in S. E. part of Holliston, and had :—(16) Anna,[3][†] b. March 17, 1766, m. 1st, Daniel Tidd, May 5, 1791; m. 2d, Chapin; m. 3d, Sumner; lived with 3d husband but three weeks, and desires to be called by the name of Chapin ;—(17) Mary,[3][†] b. March 4, 1768, m. ——— Fairbanks ;—(18) John,[3][†] b. May 17, 1772, m. Mercy Richardson ;—(19) Josiah,[3][†] b. June 7, 1775, m. Keziah Richardson ;—(20) Abigail,[3] b. Dec. 1, 1777.

4. Joseph Marsh, who m. Anna[2] Stedman, was son of Deacon Thomas Marsh of Hampton. Their children :—(21) Daniel,[3] b. April 5, 1744, bp. April 8, 1744, d. April 26, 1753, aged 9 yrs. 2 mos. 21 dys.;—(22) Anna,[3] b. Nov. 14, 1745, bp. Dec. 15, 1745 ;—(23) Joseph,[3] b. Dec. 20, 1747, bp. Jan. 10, 1748, d. June 11, 1753, aged 5 yrs. 5 mos. 27 dys.;—(24) Elizabeth,[3] b. Dec. 5, 1749, bp. July 10, 1750, d. April 29, 1753, aged 3 yrs. 4 mos. 24 dys.;—(25) Stephen,[3] b. Feb. 5, 1752, bp. March 22, 1752, d. May 8, 1753, aged 1 yr. 1 mo. 3 dys. Anna,[2] wife of Joseph Marsh, d. April 19, 1753, aged about 24 years. In 1754, June 20, said Joseph m. Lydia Bennet, by whom he had several children.

5. Thomas[3] Stedman, m. by Parson Moseley, Sept. 23, 1760, Mehitable Griffin, dau. of Dea. Ebenezer. She was b. Nov. 29, 1741, and was then 18 yrs. 9 mos. 24 dys. old. She was a keen, bright-eyed woman, and very smart. Thomas Stedman joined the church June 23, 1776, and his wife, Nov. 6, 1815. He was a house-carpenter and joiner. He was town clerk from the incorporation of the town, 1786 to 1798. He represented the town in the Legislature, October, 1787, and May and October, 1793. He was an intelligent, conscientious man, of few words, but those were to the point. He was 6 feet in height, and spare. Light complexion.

Their children were :—(26) Mary,[3][†] b. April 14, 1762, bp. June 23, 1776, m. May 24, 1781, Israel Clark ;—(27) Anna,[3][†] b. Aug. 7, 1764, bp. June 23, 1776, m. WILLIAM STEEVENS OF KILLINGWORTH, CONN.: A NEW MAYFLOWER LINE

By Claude W. Barlow, Ph.D., F.A.S.G., of Worcester, Mass.

Melatiah[3] Bradford, daughter of William[2] and Alice (Richards) Bradford, and granddaughter of Governor William Bradford of the Mayflower, was born in Plymouth, Mass., 1 November 1664 and married in Hartford, Conn., about 1682, John Steele, son of James and Anna (Bishop) Steele, born in Hartford about 1660, died there, 6 March 1698 (probate in Manwaring, Early Connecticut Probate Records, 1 [1902]: 587, mentions three minor children, Bethia, John, and Ebenezer Steele). By 15 December 1715 Bethia had married Samuel Shepherd of Hartford, who moved the Probate Court for distribution of the estate of John Steele, Jr., deceased. Notice was sent to Melatiah Stevens of Killingworth, widow. Melatiah had married secondly, probably in Killingworth about 1702, Samuel Steevens, son of William and Mary (Meiggs) Steevens, born in Guilford 1 March 1656, died in Killingworth before 7 July 1712, the date of his inventory in New London probate book A:643. Samuel's first wife Elizabeth —— had died 30 May 1701, the mother of five children.

When Melatiah Steevens swore to the inventory on 12 August 1712, she listed the ages of the children thus:

John Stevens	aged	27 years
Saml Stevens	"	25
William		6
Temperance		29
Tamison		22
Elizabeth		9

From the date of death of Samuel Steevens' first wife in 1701 it is evident that the younger children, Elizabeth and William, must have been the children of Melatiah. Unfortunately, the original documents printed in a family account in A Genealogy of the Lineal Descendants of John Steevens, who Settled in Guilford, Conn. in 1645, compiled by Charlotte Steevens Holmes (Elmira, N. Y., 1906), have William's age as 26, not 6. Mrs. Holmes must have thought that from the position of William's name in the list he had to be close to the ages of the others mentioned before and after him. Actually, the court followed the usual custom of naming the sons in order of age, then the daughters in the same order.

Lineages from three of the children of Melatiah (Bradford) (Steele) Steevens have long been accepted for membership in the Society of Mayflower Descendants. These are: Bethia Steele, wife of Samuel Shepherd; Ebenezer Steele, who lived with his mother in Killingworth, then returned to Hartford after his marriage to Susannah Merrill; Elizabeth Steevens, born about 1703, married in Killingworth, 30 August 1724, John Hubbard, whose family is given in full in Donald L. Jacobus' New Haven Genealogical Magazine, 4 (1926): 864-867. It is the purpose of this article to establish William Steevens as another Bradford descendant and to correct other errors in the published reports of his marriage and descendants. For ease in tracing his lineage from Governor Bradford of the Mayflower we are listing William as William[4] Steevens (Melatiah[3] Bradford, William[2], Gov. William[1]).

1. William Steevens was born in Killingworth and died before 3 September 1751, the date of his inventory in Guilford probate. The Barbour collection of vital records of Connecticut actually has a transcript of book 2, page 160, of Killingworth vital records for William, son of Samuel and Melatiah Steevens, born 2 February 1715/6. Since Samuel had died in 1712, this is undoubtedly an error for 1705/06, which would make William just six years old in 1712.

He married in Killingworth, 26 August 1734 (Vital Records, 2:191), Ruhamah Earl of Killingworth. It has not been possible to identify Ruhamah or her sister Elizabeth who married Lemuel Hull, but there was a Henry Earl, weaver, who had land grants from Killingworth, and who sold land there in 1742 and 1749. Unfortunately, Mrs. Holmes, thinking that Samuel's son William was born in 1686 and would have been 48 years of age in 1734, has assigned this marriage to another William Steevens, son of John and Abigail (Cole) Steevens, born in Killingworth 24 September 1701 or 1702. Sufficient evidence has been developed by me elsewhere (to be published soon in a new John Steevens Genealogy) to prove that William, son of John, went with two or more brothers to Dutchess County, New York. There is more good evidence on William, son of Samuel. When William, husband of Ruhamah, died, his brother Samuel Steevens administered his estate, and some of the children chose Samuel for their guardian, calling him "uncle." William, son of Samuel, did have an older half-brother Samuel, but there was no Samuel in the family of John Steevens. There is further coincidence in the use of names, in that William and Ruhamah gave a son the uncommon name of Leverett, which was also the name of the first child of William's sister, Elizabeth Hubbard.

The death of Melatiah (Bradford) (Steele) Steevens was not recorded, but she and her son William received land grants from the town of Killingworth on several occasions. The last one recorded to "Maletiah" Steevens was on 7 December 1737 (Land Records, 6:123) and she sold this on 24 April 1739 to "my son-in-law [i.e. step-son] Samuel Steevens" (ibid., 270). This is the latest date on which it is known that she was alive; she would have been in her 75th year.

The six children of William and Ruhamah Steevens were listed when the inventory of his estate was presented, and again when the estate was settled and distribution made 21 November 1753. There is no reference in probate papers or in any later records to the widow Ruhamah. She may have died between 1747 and 1751. The numerous guardianships for the children are mentioned with each member of the family. It appears that the three older boys, William, Christopher, and John, were brought up by their uncle Samuel Steevens, the next son Leverett by his aunt Elizabeth Hubbard in New Haven, the girl Ruhamah and the youngest boy Moses by their uncle Lemuel Hull of Killingworth.

Children of William and Ruhamah (Earl) Steevens, recorded in Killingworth Vital Records, 2:160:

i. RUHAMAH[5], b. 20 Apr. 1735, also called Amy in the probate records. She chose Lemuel Hull her guardian 26 Mar. 1752, and when she gave him a receipt on 15 Jan. 1754 she called him "uncle." Lemuel had married Elizabeth Earl, sister of Ruhamah the mother, 24 Dec. 1729.

2. ii. WILLIAM, b. 1 Sept. 1736.

3. iii. CHRISTOPHER, b. 13 Sept. 1738.

iv. JOHN, b. 4 Aug. 1740; had Samuel Steevens for guardian 31 Mar. 1752. In 1770 he was a resident of the Island of Guadeloupe in the West Indies (see deeds abstracted below).

4. v. LEVERETT, b. 19 Sept. 1742.

vi. MOSES, b. 30 Aug. 1747; had Lemuel Hull for guardian 31 Mar. 1752. He was "deceased" before 9 Mar. 1762 when his brother William sold a share inherited from Moses (see deed below).

2. WILLIAM[5] STEEVENS (William[4], Melatiah[3] Bradford, William[2], Gov. William[1]), born 1 September 1736, died in Hartford before 4 March 1763, the date of the administration of his estate (Hartford probate #5219).

He married 9 July 1761, ELISABETH SEDGWICK, daughter of William and Elizabeth (Brace) Sedgwick, baptized in West Hartford 5 July 1741, died 24 November 1802. She married secondly, 23 January 1766, James Taylor of Hartford who died in 1772. She married thirdly, Ebenezer Kneeland, with whom she is buried in the Center Cemetery, Hartford.

William chose Samuel Steevens his guardian 3 February 1752. When he gave a receipt 19 May 1760 he was called "William Stephens of Hartford." Killingworth Land Records, 9:248, also contains a conveyance dated 9 March 1762, from William Steevens of Hartford to Theophilus Morgan of "a certain lott in Killingworth set off to William from his father, being one-fifth of the lot," and also the part that belonged to William's brother Moses, deceased.

William Steevens had enlisted in the army from Hartford for service in the Colonial Wars in 1756, and may have remained in service until he died in 1763. He served under a "Capt. DiLoys." A Mrs. Stevens received expenses for caring for her ill husband in 1761. His estate was administered jointly with that of Joseph Blancher and both of the deceased had military wages due to them. The administrator was John Steel with Elisha Steel as surety (Hartford probate #5219). John and Elisha were sons of Ebenezer Steel, and cousins of William Steevens.

William Steevens was offered communion in the West Hartford Church 18 April 1762.

Child of William and Elisabeth (Sedgwick) Steevens:

i. ELISABETH, bapt. 13 June 1762 (West Hartford Church Records). There is no further record of her.

3. CHRISTOPHER[5] STEEVENS (William[4], Melatiah[3] Bradford, William[2], Gov. William[1]), born 13 September 1738, died in Killingworth 4 September 1787 (Church Records).

He married in Killingworth, 27 September 1764, his third cousin once removed, NAOMI STEEVENS, daughter of Amos and Mary (Stannard) Steevens, born in Killingworth 23 April 1737. Their children were recorded in Killingworth vital records with the mother's name spelled Neomey. Each of the children was baptized in Killingworth Church on the Sunday following birth.

Christopher Steevens, a minor under 14, had Samuel Steevens for guardian 31 March 1752, and on 2 December 1754, aged over 14, again chose Samuel as guardian. In Killingworth Land Records, 9:442, he sold to Samuel Hezelton of Derby, Conn., for £20 New York money "a full quarter of my right in land and buildings of my Honoured father William Steevens, late of Killingworth deceased, plus rights that may accrue by the deaths of other heirs," dated 30 May 1761 and acknowledged the same day in Dutchess County, New York.

He was offered communion in the Killingworth Church 6 May 1764 and was a faithful member until his death. There is no probate of his estate.

Children of Christopher and Naomi (Steevens) Steevens:

i. WILLIAM, b. 22 Feb. 1767.
ii. RUHAMAH, b. 25 Oct. 1768; mar. 7 Jan. 1790 DIDYMUS JOHNSON of Haddam, Conn. (Church Records, 2:70).
iii. EUNICE, b. 24 Aug. 1770.
iv. LUCINDA, b. 31 Aug. 1772; d. "10 weeks after."
v. MOSES, b. 12 May 1774.
vi. LUCINDA, b. 16 Mar. 1777.

4. LEVERETT[5] STEEVENS (William[4], Melatiah[3] Bradford, Williams[2], Gov. William[1]), born 19 September 1742, became a sea captain. He was reported "last seen on the coast of Florida" 24 October 1799.

He married in New Haven 24 October 1771, ESTHER MACUMBER, daughter of Jeremiah and Sarah (Cooper) Macumber, baptized in New Haven 2 September 1750, died there 14 August 1829, aged 79.

Leverett probably went to New Haven to live with his aunt Elizabeth Hubbard, as no guardianship is found for him in Guilford probate. The clue to his residence is found in deeds recorded in Killingworth Land Records, 11:377:

> John Steevens of Guadeloupe [the name is very difficult to read, but becomes certain after two repetitions in the following instrument] . . . constitute my well beloved brother Leverett Steevens of Newhaven, mariner, my lawful attorney to sell all my real estate in the Colony of Connecticut.

The above deed was dated 8 February 1770 and witnessed by Abiathar Camp and Moses Sawyer. Four months later, 2 June 1770, Leverett Steevens by a deed witnessed by Nathan Hill and John Morgain leased land which he held in common with his brother:

> Leverett Steevens of Newhaven, agent and attorney for John Steevens of the Island of Guardeloup in the West Indies lease to Theophilus Morgan Esq. of Killingworth for £8 in full what was set to me and John of Guadiloupe of our father

William deceased and also our brother Moses Steevens late of Killingworth deceased.

Children of Leverett and Esther (Macumber) Steevens, some recorded in New Haven, all baptized in the First Church (from Donald L. Jacobus, New Haven Genealogical Magazine, 7 [1931]: 1704):

i. Leverett, b. 4 July 1773; mar. 7 Sept. 1796, Nancy Thomas.
ii. Earl, b. 3 Oct. 1775; d. 17 May 1838; mar. (1) Wallingford 1795, Rhoda Ford, b. about 1778, d. 20 Feb. 1811, aged 33; (2) Maria ———. Five children by first wife, b. New Haven.
iii. Daniel, bapt. 8 Feb. 1778; d. 4 July 1796.
iv. Sarah, bapt. 12 Nov. 1780; mar. 31 May 1804, William Butler.
v. John, b. 16 Feb. 1783.
vi. Esther, bapt. 28 May 1786; mar. 22 May 1804, Henry Osborne.
vii. Hannah, bapt. 1 March 1789.
viii. Isaac, b. 17 Aug. 1793.

All descendants of William Steevens of Killingworth by his wife Ruhamah Earl thus have a proved line of descent from Gov. William Bradford of the Mayflower.

JOHN STEPHENS OF GUILFORD (CONN.) AND HIS DESCENDANTS.

Compiled by Hon. R. D. Smyth and communicated by Dr. Bernard C. Steiner.

1. John[1] Stephens, or Stevens, was one of the early settlers of Guilford, but not a signer of the original plantation covenant. He shared in the first division of homelots and lands. His homelot of 1½ acres was on the East side of Fair Street. In addition, he owned a parcel of upland containing 36¼ acres, beside the Alderswamp, near the present Alderbrook Cemetery. "Goodman Stevens" was fined for neglect of fencing, on Oct. 9, 1645. He was a "planter" in 1650, but before 1656 seems to have united with the church, as he is recorded as a freeman in the latter year. He died Sept. 1, 1670, leaving a will made on Aug. 27 of that year. To his son Thomas he gave "the mare I usually ride on and my biggest brass kettle," "my best sute and my cloake and my bed and one payre of sheets and all my other bedding," and made him executor. To his son William he gave "all my houseing and my homelot and my meadow at the East River here in Guilford, he paying out of it £20, £10 to my sonne John Stephens in old England to be paid here in currant pay in New England £10 to my daughter Mary Collins."

To each of his four grandsons, James and John the sons of Thomas, and John and Samuel the sons of William, he gave £5, and to his granddaughters Judith and Mary each a "payre of sheets." The residue of the estate was to be divided between Thomas, William and his daughter Mary Collins. The inventory of the estate showed £32.15.0 of property at Killingworth, and £93.05.01 at Guilford. He signed with his mark, and seems to have been one of the less conspicuous settlers. On March 11, 1669–70, six months before his death, John Stephens executed a deed of gift to his son Thomas of his East Creek Land near the Alderswamp, and all after divisions of land. With his sons, he supported Dr. Rossiter in the troubles attending the union of New Haven and Connecticut. His wife was Mary ——. His children were:

i. Mary,[2] b. about 1623; m. (1) Henry Kingsnorth, one of the early settlers of Guilford (see Steiner's History of Guilford, p. 46); and m. (2) John Collins.
2. ii. Thomas, b. about 1628; d. Nov. 10, 1685.
3. iii. William b. about 1630; d. Jan. 1702–3.
4. iv. John, b. about 1632; of New London and New Haven.

2. Thomas[2] Stevens (John[1]) removed to Killingworth, and was a member of the church there in 1670. He never became a freeman in Guilford. He married in 1650, Mary, daughter of John Fletcher of Milford. She joined the Killingworth Church in 1675. With his father and brother, he was a strong adherent of Dr. Rossiter, and in October, 1662, all three joined with others of Guilford in seceding from New Haven Colony, and tendered themselves with their persons and estates to the Connecticut Colony, and were accepted and promised protection. The bitter controversy that followed was the chief cause of both Thomas's and William's leaving Guilford. Thomas was a man of ability and prominence at Killingworth, and twice served in the General Assembly from that town. On March 11, 1670–1, he sold to William all his lands at the East End of Guilford, reserving his right in "any other divisions that shall be hereafter laid out," and his right in "commonage if they come to be stinted." On June 7, 1679, he sold nine acres of the East Creek land to Stephen Dod, and on May 28, 1683, he sold to the same man the rest of the East Creek land, and the old homelot. In 1654–5, he was convicted of selling flax with defective weights, through carelessness in not having them inspected. He was a miller. In 1654, when an expedition against the Dutch was proposed, he was chosen corporal, "but onely for this present service and that he accede no higher in any other office because he is not a freeman."

His children were:

1. GEORGE[1] STOCKING, born in England; married 1st, in England, Anna ———; married 2d, in Hartford, Ct., Agnes ———†. He came to Massachusetts about 1633. Had a house in Cambridge, situated on the southwest corner of the present Holyoke and Winthrop Streets, in 1635. Was admitted freeman in Massachusetts, May, 1635. Removed with the first settlers to Hartford, 1636, and had a lot of twenty acres there in the first distribution of land. Selectman in Hartford, 1647. Surveyor of highways, 1654 and 1662. Chimney viewer, 1659. Excused from military duty, 1660, probably on account of age. May, 1670, he with his second wife, Agnes, separated to the Second Church of Hartford. He died "at great age," May 25, 1683. He left no will and his estate,* which amounted to £257:09:00, was divided among his children: Samuel Stocking, Hannah Benton, the wife of John Richards, the wife of Samuel Olcott, and his grandson John Stocking. Family tradition says that he came from from the "West of England" and was derived from a good family there. In the older records the name is often written Stocken or Stockin. Children:

2. i. Deacon SAMUEL,[2] b. in England.
ii. HANNAH, m. Andrew Benton, of Hartford.
iii. SARAH, m. Samuel Olcott, of Hartford.
iv. LYDIA, m. John Richards, of Hartford.

2. Deacon SAMUEL[2] STOCKING (George[1]), married May 27, 1652, at Hartford, Bethia, daughter of John and Jane Hopkins. He came with his father to Massachusetts and removed with him to Hartford. About 1650 he removed with the first settlers to Middletown. Was one of the three signers of the Indian deed of Middletown. Was the first deacon in the Middletown Church, which was organized in 1668. Was representative from Middletown, 1658, 1659, 1665, 1669, 1674, 1677 and 1681. Served in King Philip's war, probably as sergeant. His house stood in Upper Middletown, now the town of Cromwell. In his will he mentions all his children, except Hannah, who was probably dead, and leaves all his land on the east side of the Connecticut river to his sons George and Ebenezer and gives £3 to his pastor, Rev. Nathaniel Collins. He died Dec. 3, 1683. The inventory of his estate amounted to £648:08:08. His widow married James Steele. Children:

i. HANNAH,[3] b. Oct. 30, 1654; d. before 1683.
ii. SAMUEL, b. Oct. 9, 1656; d. Dec. 2, 1697. Left his estate (£327) to his brothers John, George and Daniel, and his sisters Bethia Stow and Lydia Howell.

3. GEORGE[3] STOCKING (Deacon Samuel,[2] George[1]), married Elizabeth ———. Removed from Upper Middletown to East Middletown (later Chatham, now Portland) before 1710. His name appears for the single year, 1694, on the tax list of Southampton, L. I., but it is not probable that he lived there for any length of time. He died Feb. 17, 1714, and was buried in the old graveyard in Portland. His estate, which amounted to £359:09:01, was divided among his

The following of the name of Stocking, all descendants in the fifth and sixth generation from George Stocking of Hartford, served in the Revolution: Abner, Amasa, Ebenezer, Eber, Elisha, George, George Jr., Hezekiah, Israel, James, John, John, Jonathan, Joseph, Marshall, Moses, Samuel and William. These are all mentioned in the adjutant general's list of "Connecticut Men in the Revolution," published by the State of Connecticut and their specific services given. In addition to these the following probably all served on Revolutionary privateers: Capt. Abner, who is said to have commanded a privateer that sailed out of New York; Rev. Jeremiah, who was put on board a privateer late in the war; James and Nathaniel, members of the captured crew of the "Sampson," who died in prison in New York 1782; Capt. John, who spent six months in the prison-ship in New York; and Reuben.

STOCKING GENEALOGY: CORRECTION AND ADDITIONS. — To the REGISTER, vol. 50, pp. 171–176 (April 1896), Edward E. Cornwall, M.D., of Brooklyn, * N. Y., contributed an article entitled "Family of George Stocking," which was reprinted in pamphlet form. It deals with the early generations of a Connecticut family. The last child of the last head of a family given in this article is Margery (p. 176), baptized 7 Jan. 1759, daughter of Elisha[4] Stocking (No. 11 of the article). This Margery, it is stated, married 20 Oct. 1793 James Porter. As a matter of fact she married Ebenezer Wells, and it was her niece, another Margery Stocking, daughter of a half brother, Capt. Zebulon[5] Stocking (11, iii), who married James Porter. This second Margery Stocking was the sixth child of Capt. Zebulon and Martha (Edwards) Stocking, and is not found in the list of their children — five in number — given in Dr. Cornwall's article. The erroneous statement that Marjery Stocking, daughter of Elisha, married James Porter, is printed also in "The Stocking Ancestry," by Rev. Charles Henry Wright Stocking, D.D., 1903, p. 12, though on p. 191 of this book, under the heading "Sundry Marriages," is recorded the marriage of a Marjery Stocking and Ebenezer Wells, 29 Apr. 1779. The evidence that it was Margery, daughter of Capt. Zebulon Stocking, who married James Porter is herewith submitted.

In the Middletown (Conn.) Land Records, vol. 22, p. 401, there is entered a deed, dated 2 July 1781, from Ebenezer Wells and his wife Margery of Wethersfield to Elijah Wright of the same town, conveying their interest in certain lands, this Margery being the daughter of Thankful Stocking [the third wife of Elisha[4] Stocking]. Elijah Wright was the husband of Lucy, a daughter of Thankful Stocking by her first husband, Benjamin Butler. This Margery (Stocking) Wells never married James Porter.

The records of the Congregational Church of Cromwell, Conn., which was a part of Middletown until 1851, show the marriage of James Porter and Margery Stocking on 4 Sept. 1793 — not 20 Oct. 1793, the date given by Dr. Cornwall for the marriage of Margery, daughter of Elisha Stocking, and James Porter.

This Margery (Stocking) Porter moved to Brooklyn, N. Y., where she died 8 Feb. 1856, her death notice in the Brooklyn Evening Star of 9 Feb. 1856 reading: "In this city on the 8th of February, Margaret, relict of the late James Porter, aged 80."

She was buried in the cemetery at Brooklyn known as "The Evergreens (Lot 12, Midpath), and the inscription on her tombstone reads: "In Memory of Our Mother Margery Porter Born at Middletown, Conn. June, 177[worn] Died at Brooklyn, 1856 Aged 8[worn] years, [worn] months." In the cemetery book there is a burial record, which gives the name as Margaret Porter, the date of burial as 10 Feb. 1856, the place of birth as Middletown, Conn., and the age of the deceased as 80 years, 6 months, 21 days. As the tombstone gives June as the month of her birth, "6 months" must be an error for "7 months," and therefore she was born 18 June 1775.

The grave was further identified by a grandson, John Addison Porter of Brooklyn, who wrote on 24 Mar. 1924: "My grandfather's given name was James and he married Margery Stocking."

Mr. Frank Farnsworth Starr, the well-known genealogist of Middletown, Conn., examined the original records of the Congregational Church of Cromwell, and found this entry which appears to have been overlooked by the compilers of the Stocking genealogies: "1775 July 9, Margery dau. of Zebulon and Martha Stocking, baptised." This corresponds with the dates given on the tombstone and in the burial record of the Margery Stocking who married James Porter.

To the list of five children of Capt. Zebulon and Martha (Edwards) Stocking, given under 11, iii, of Dr. Cornwall's "Family of George Stocking," there should now be added:

6. Margery, b. 18 June 1775 and bapt. at Cromwell (then a part of Middletown), Conn., 9 July 1775; d. at Brooklyn, N. Y., 8 Feb. 1856; m. at Cromwell (then a part of Middletown), 4 Sept. 1793, James Porter, bapt. at Kensington, Conn., 18 Apr. 1771, son of Gideon and Huldah (Hart) Porter. (Cf. The Descendants of Rev. Thomas Hooker, p. 61.)

*Pages 449-454, this volume.

The children of James and Margery (Stocking) Porter were:

i. Harriet, b. at Middletown, Conn., 14 Oct. 1794; d. at Brooklyn, N. Y., 17 June 1864; m. at Middletown, 21 Feb. 1813, Edwin Smith (Middletown Congregational Church records), son of Nathaniel and Sarah Smith of West Haven, Conn. Children (surname Smith): 1. Edwin Porter. 2. Harriet. 3. Caroline B. 4. Robert H.

ii. William, b. 12 Apr. 1801; m. 1 Dec. 1828 Mary A. Armstrong. Children: 1. George A. 2. William. 3. Edwin A. 4. Harriet E. 5. Mary A. 6. David C. 7. Julia S. 8. John Addison.

THE DESCENDANTS OF CAPT. JONATHAN STOKES OF BRANFORD, CONN.

By Edwin A. Hill, Ph.D., of Washington, D. C.

Stokes is a very common name in the river towns of the Saybrook colony, and all of the name in eastern Connecticut descend from Capt. Richard[3] (Capt. Jonathan,[2] Jonathan[1]), who married Jerusha[6] Lay. (See No. 20 in the writer's account of the Descendants of Robert[1] Lay of Saybrook, ante, page 210.)

1. Jonathan[1] Stokes of Stoke Bay (Stokesby?), England, came to Boston, Mass., about 1748 (or before 1758, according to another authority), with a wife and two sons, of whom Capt. Jonathan[2] of Branford was one. The other son eventually settled on the Hudson river, and retained the family bible, while Jonathan[2] kept the family prayer-book. The prayer-book is now in the possession of the writer. It contains the inscription: "Jonathan Stokes his book, God give him grace therein to look," and the date "1757," and also the birth records of his children. The bible has never been found.

2. Capt. Jonathan[2] Stokes (Jonathan[1]) is first heard of at Branford, Conn., about 1757. He commanded a vessel sailing from New London to the West Indies, and was lost overboard when two days outward bound, in 1764. He was married at Branford, 27 Sept., 1758 (Town Records), to Hannah Goodrich. On 20 Dec., 1768, administration on his estate was granted to Hannah Stokes, widow, and the estate was found to be insolvent (Guilford Probate Records, vol. x.). The ancestry of his wife Hannah is proved by a deed of 16 Jan., 1769 (New Haven Records, vol. 30, p. 216), in which Timothy, Joseph and David Goodrich, Richard and Bathsheba Towner, and Hannah Stokes, convey lands formerly belonging to their father, Bartholomew Goodrich. (See also Goodrich Geneaalogy.) She was the daughter of Bartholomew[3] Goodrich (Bartholomew,[2] Richard[1] of Guilford) by Abigail,[3] daughter of John[1] and Mercy (Mansfield) Thompson of New Haven.

On 17 Jan., 1769, Caleb Spencer and "Johanna" Stokes were married at Branford (Bailey, ii., 107). In all the family records she is uniformly called Hannah, yet her aunt, who married John Belden in 1716, was named Johanna, and that may have been her real name.

According to family records, Jonathan[2] was quite young when he came to Boston, and his father dying soon, his mother apprenticed him to a Boston physician. Not liking the treatment he received, he ran away to Connecticut in the company of a fellow apprentice, Jonathan Ingersoll of the New Haven family of that name, Stokes being then about 16 or 17 years old.

Children:

i. Miriam,[3] b. 7 Jan., 1759; m. (1) 20 June, 1775, at Branford, John Mallory, who only lived about two years; m. (2) ——— Smith of New Haven, Conn.; d. without issue.

ii. Jonathan, b. 17 Mch., 1760; d. 4 Apl., 1760.

3. iii. JONATHAN, b. 23 Feb., 1761; d. 1844.
iv. HANNAH, m. ——— Olmsetter of New London, Conn.; d. without issue.
4. v. RICHARD, b. 20 Jan., 1761 (or 4); d. 7 Nov., 1845.

3. JONATHAN[3] STOKES (Jonathan,[2] Jonathan[1]), born 23 Feb., 1761, at Branford, Conn., is said to have married at Branford, but the marriage is not found in Bailey's Conn. Marriages. He resided at New Durham, N. J., where he died in 1844, from an attack of heart disease. No complete list of his children has been obtained. Hannah,[4] one of his daughters, visited Westbrook in 1818, at which time she was living in New Durham, N. J. In 1870 she was living in Hudson, N. Y. In 1875 some of his descendants were living in Jersey City, N. J.

4. CAPT. RICHARD[3] STOKES (Jonathan,[2] Jonathan[1]), born at Branford, Conn., 20 Jan., 1762 (or 4, as stated by another authority), died 7 Nov., 1848, aged 85 (gravestone at Westbrook). In his pension papers (Pension Bureau, Washington) he swears that he will be 69 years of age in January, 1833, that there is no record of his age that he is aware of, and that he was born in Branford, where he resided until he was about 5 years old, when he moved to Saybrook. Branford Town Records give 20 Jan., 1761, as the date of his birth, which is probably correct. He married Jerusha[6] Lay (Daniel,[5] Daniel,[4] Robert,[3] Robert,[2] Robert[1]), born 9 Oct., bapt. 13 Dec., 1767, in Westbrook, who died there, 14 Apr., 1862. He served as private in the Revolution, and was granted a pension; and at his death a pension was granted to his widow (Pension Papers; and Conn. Men in the Revolution, 654, 664). His title of Captain came from his commanding a coasting vessel. His family bible, containing the birth records of all his children, is now in the possession of the writer.

REV. NICHOLAS STREET AND HIS DESCENDANTS.

By HENRY A. STREET, Esq., of New Haven, Ct.

1. REV. NICHOLAS[1] STREET or STREETE came from Taunton, England. The place of his birth is unknown. He was matriculated at the University of Oxford, Nov. 2, 1621, and is then described as eighteen, and as from Somersetshire. He received the degree of B.A. at Oxford, Feb. 21, 1624–5. About 1638 he was settled at Taunton in the Plymouth Colony, now in Massachusetts, as colleague with Rev. William Hooke. Lechford (Plain Dealing, p.

96) says, that Mr. Streete was ordained Teacher of the Church, by Master Hooke, assisted by Bishop, a schoolmaster, and one Parker a husbandman.

Mr. Street followed Mr. Hooke to New Haven, where he took the latter's place as colleague of Rev. John Davenport, Sept. 26, 1659. After Mr. Davenport was called to Boston, Sept. 27, 1667, he had sole charge of the First Church till his own death, April 22, 1674, when for eleven years there was no settled pastor. By his 1st wife, whose maiden name is said to have been Poole, he had five children. His 3d wife was widow of Gov. Newman. Children:

2. i. SAMUEL,[2] b. 1635; m. Nov. 3, 1664, Anna Miles. He d. Jan. 17, 1717. She d. July 19, 1730.
ii. SUSANNAH, m. —— Mason.
iii. SARAH, m. 1662, James Heaton.
iv. ABIAH, m. Sept. 28, 1664, Daniel Sherman. Had 3 children.
v. HANNAH, m. —— Andrews.

2. Rev. SAMUEL[2] STREET (Nicholas[1]) was graduated from Harvard College 1664, one of the first settlers of Wallingford. Installed 1674, first pastor there, and remained till his death, Jan. 17, 1717. Married Nov. 3, 1664, Anna, daughter of Richard and Katherine Miles. She died July 19, 1730. Children:

i. ANNA,[3] b. at New Haven, Aug. 17, 1665; d. before her father.
3. ii. SAMUEL, b. at New Haven, July 27, 1667; m. 1st, Nov. 1, 1684, Madeline Daniels; m. 2d, July 14, 1690, Hannah Glover, d. July 3, 1715; m. 3d, Dec. 20, 1716, Elizabeth ——. Had 3 children by his 1st marriage and 7 by his 2d.
iii. MARY, b. at New Haven, Sept. 6, 1670.
iv. SUSANNA, b. at Wallingford, June 15, 1675; m. Dea. John Peck, May 23, 1694.

EARLY RECORDS OF BRAINFORD, NOW BRANFORD, CT.

[From materials principally furnished by Mr. Charles M. Taintor of Shelburne, Mass.]

In the accounts of Branford which we have seen, we do not find any reason given why that name was made choice of. It was for a time called Brainford, which was probably as correct as Branford, neither giving a very precise idea of its probable origin. It is our opinion that it was so named after Brentford in England; if so, its signification is perfectly apparent. Our fathers have left us much in the dark in respect to the reasons they may have had for naming many of our towns; and although we have no Barnstaple, or Brentford, there can be but little doubt that our towns of Barnstable and Branford were so named to perpetuate those.

Whether some of the early inhabitants of Branford came originally from Brentford in the county of Middlesex, England, or whether some of their friends or connections distinguished themselves on the side of the Parliament there in 1642, we have not the means within our reach to decide. However, we are told that Branford received its name in 1644. It may be interesting to our readers to note that Brentford is early mentioned in English history. There was a bloody conflict between Edmund Ironside and the Danes here, A. D. 1016, and in the time of Mary, six persons were burnt at the stake on account of their religion. The famous battle-ground of Hounslow-heath is near it. In its church is an inscription to John Horne, father to the well known John Horne Tooke. The last Duke Schomberg was Earl of Brentford. He died in 1719.

Branford was purchased by the New Haven colonists in December, 1638, a few days after they had bought New Haven of Momanquin, sachem of that place, then called Quinnipiac. In 1644, a tract of land was sold by New Haven to Mr. William Swain and others, for the accommodation of those persons in Wethersfield who wished to remove from thence. Sept. 5th, 1640, the General Court at New Haven made a grant of a tract, the Indian name of which was Totokett, to Samuel Eaton, brother of Governor Eaton, upon the condition of his procuring a number of his friends from England to make a settlement in that tract of country. Mr. Eaton failed in fulfilling the conditions. About three years after, the subject was acted upon thus: "Totokett, a place fit for a small plantation betwixt New Haven and Guilford, and purchased from the Indians, was granted to Mr. Swayne and some others in Weathersfield, they repaying the charges, which are betwixt £12 and £13, and joining in one jurisdiction with New Haven and the fornamed plantations, upon the same fundamental agreement settled in October 1643, which, they duly considering, accepted."*

The following is a verbatim copy of the "New Plantation and Church Covenant" of Branford, with its original signers' names:—

"Jan. 20: 1667 — forasmuch as y^t it appeares y^t the undertaking & the settlement of this place of Brainford was secured by & for men of congregationall principles as to church orders according to y^e platforme of disceplaine agreed on by the senate or thare abouts drane from y^e word of God in y^e which we y^t remaine hear can say we have found much peace & quiatnes to our great comfort for y^e which we desire for to bless God & that it may so remaine unto such as do continue thair abode in this place & to such as

MICHAEL TAINTOR

Was one of the principal inhabitants of Branford, drew up the "New Plantation and Church Covenant" above inserted, still preserved in the records in his hand-writing, and he was probably the author of it. A good facsimile of his autography and of the records accompany this article. The autograph of a progenitor of a highly respectable race must be viewed by his descendants with much satisfaction; and not only by his descendants, but by all true lovers of antiquarian matters.

Michael Taintor came from Wales, and in 1653 was master of a vessel trading to Virginia. He afterwards settled in Branford, and died there in 1673. In 1667 he was one of four persons "employed and empowered by the town of Branford to buy the house and lands of Richard Harrison." In 1669 he was of the number chosen by the town to settle certain difficulties between Branford and New Haven, respecting bounds. The next year he was employed upon a like matter relative to the bounds of Branford and Guilford. About the same time he was judge of a court at Branford, and he was frequently a member of the General Court or Assembly of Connecticut. At his decease his estate amounted, as per inventory, to £166 4s. 10d. His wife Elizabeth died July, 1659.

DESCENDANTS OF REV. EDWARD TAYLOR OF WESTFIELD, MASS.

(Communicated by the Rev. Emerson Davis, for the New England Historical and Genealogical Register.)

Edward Taylor was born at Sketelby, Leicestershire, England, 1642, was designed for the ministry and received his education in part in that country, but the ejection of two thousand ministers from their pulpits in 1662, for nonconformity, so darkened his prospects for usefulness there, that he determined to come to America. He arrived here in 1668, and entered the University at Cambridge, where he graduated in 1671. He came to Westfield in October of that year, and after preaching two years concluded to settle, but Philip's war came on, and the people were so much disturbed that he was not ordained till Aug. 27, 1679. He was married to Miss Elizabeth Fitch, daughter of Hon. James Fitch of Norwich, Ct., Sept. 5, 1674. She died in 1689. He died June 29th, 1729, aged 87. His children were, Samuel, b. 1675, m. Margaret Mosely; Elizabeth, b. 1676, d. young; James, b. 1678; Abigail, b. 1681, d. young; Barshuah, b. 1683; Elizabeth, b. 1684, d. young; Mary, b. 1686, d young; Hezekiah, b. 1687, d. young. In 1692, Mr. Taylor married for his second wife, Ruth Wyllys of Hartford, daughter of Hon. Samuel Wyllys. She died in January, 1730. His children by this wife were, Ruth, b. 1693, m. Mr. Benjamin Church, 1713; Naomi, b. 1695, m. Rev. Ebenezer Devotion of Suffield, Ct., 1720; Anna, b. 1696, m. Rev. Benjamin Lord of Norwich, Ct., 1720; Mehitabel, b. 1699; Keziah, b. 1702, m. Rev. Isaac Stiles of New Haven, and was mother of President Stiles; Eldad, b. 1708, m. Rhoda Dewey, 1732.

THIRD GENERATION.

Samuel, son of Rev. Edward, m. Margaret Mosely in 1704. He died in 1709, and his wife in 1708. Their children were, Elizabeth, b. 1705, m. Rev. Peter Reynolds of Enfield, Ct., 1727; Margaret, b. 1707, d. young.

Eldad, son of Rev. Edward, m. Rhoda Dewey, 1732. She died in 1740, and he died at Boston, while a member of the General Court, in 1777. His children were, Eldad, b. 1733, m. Esther Day; Rhoda, b. 1735, d. young; Mehitabel, b. 1736; Rachel, b. 1740, d. young. In 1742, Eldad T. m. Thankful Day, and they had Edward, b. 1743, m. Sarah

Ingersoll, 1769; Samuel, b 1745, m. Sarah Holcomb, 1786; Thankful, b. 1747, m. Bohan King, 1771; James, b. 1750, m. Mary A. Mosely, 1771; Jedediah, b. 1752, m. NOTES ON THOMPSON FAMILIES OF CONNECTICUT

By Donald Lines Jacobus, M.A., of New Haven, Conn.

The earlier generations of the Thompson families of East Haven and of New Haven have been confused, and the published accounts are inaccurate without exception. The principal reason for this is that three John Thompsons in succession flourished in each family. Furthermore, considerable confusion has arisen with regard to their wives, due to the fact that John, Sr., of New Haven married Ellen Harrison, while the widow of the first John of East Haven married Thomas Harrison for her second husband. Consequently, Ellen has been assigned indiscriminately to three separate Johns. The following account of the two families may help to straighten matters.

The Thompson Family of East Haven

1. John[1] Thompson, "farmer," of East Haven, apparently was not related to the three brothers who founded the New Haven family. According to Dod's East Haven Register, the name of his wife was Ellen, and this has been followed by every succeeding account, including that in the Tuttle Genealogy (1883). She is referred to merely as "the widow" in the County Court Records, where many of the early Probate entries are to be found; but in the unindexed second volume of Proprietors' Records is a passage (p. 185) which distinctly calls her Dorothy. There is no reason for disputing the correctness of this record, especially as two of her children, Rebecca (Thompson) Thomas and Nathaniel Harrison, named a daughter Dorothy. John Thompson's estate was inventoried in 1655 (New Haven Probate Records, vol. 1, p. 58), and he probably died in that year. His widow was unmarried in February 1656 (Proprietors' Records, vol. 2, p. 185), but shortly thereafter married Thomas Harrison of Branford, as his first wife. By him she had two sons, Thomas Harrison, born 1 Mar. 1657, and Nathaniel Harrison, born 13 Dec. 1658. It would seem that she did not long survive, for on 29 Mar. 1666, Thomas Harrison married his second wife, Elizabeth Stent. On 27 Jan. 1671, the children of John Thompson, farmer, deceased, made application for the distribution of their father's estate, mentioning their "father-in-law" Thomas Harrison as its custodian. Their names are given as John the eldest son, Joseph, Hannah, Mary, Rebeckah, Abigaile and Sarah; and Mathew Moulthrop and John Cooper, Jr., acknowledge the receipt of their wives' portions (New Haven County Court Records, vol. 1, p. 36).

Children:

i. Hannah,[2] m. 26 June 1662, Matthew Moulthrop, who d. 1691; d. 1681.

2. ii. John.

iii. Mary, m. 27 Dec. 1666, John Cooper, bapt. 28 May 1642; d. Nov. 1714.

3. iv. Joseph.

v. Abigail (twin), b. 26 Jan. 1651; m. (1) 25 Nov. 1672, Joseph Alsop, Jr., b. abt. 1649, d. 12 Jan. 1691; m. (2) Capt. John Miles, Jr., b. 9 Jan. 1668, d. 10 Feb. 1710; d. 1727.

vi. Rebecca (twin), b. 26 Jan. 1651; m. (1) 3 Feb. 1669, Daniel Thomas of West Haven, who d. 1694; m. (2) abt. 1703, John Perkins, b. 18 Aug. 1651, d. after 1727; d. after 1730.

vii. Sarah, b. 30 Apr. 1654; m. 24 Nov. 1678, Alling Ball, b. 27 June 1656, d. 1710; d. 1716.

2. John[2] Thompson (John[1]), "farmer," of East Haven, married, 22 May 1666, Priscilla Powell, daughter of Thomas, who died 18 Apr. 1726. He died 13 Feb. 1693. In his will of 13 Feb. 1693, probated June 1693, he mentions his wife, eldest son John, son Samuel, daughter Chidsey, and daughter Abigail (New Haven Probate Records, vol. 2, p. 136).

Children:

i. John,[3] b. 6 Aug. 1667; called "farmer" and sergeant; m. Mercy Mansfield, dau. of Moses and Mercy (Glover), b. 2 Apr. 1667, d. 9 Jan. 1745, who m. (2) Nathaniel Bradley (cf. her gravestone, East Haven cemetery); d. 25 Sept. 1721. This Thompson line was carried on through his sons, John,[4] Moses, and Samuel.

ii. A daughter, b. 17 Oct. 1669; d. 29 Oct. 1669.

iii. Priscilla, b. 7 Aug. 1671; m. Ebenezer Chidsey, b. 10 Feb. 1666, d. Sept. 1726; d. 1 Jan. 1726.

iv. Samuel, b. 29 Jan. 1674; d. young.

v. Samuel, b. 1 May 1677; m. Abigail Potter, dau. of John and Mary (Hitchcock), b. 23 Sept. 1680, who m. (2) Thomas Smith; d. 25 Dec. 1712. His only son was Samuel,[4] whose male line became extinct in the next generation.

vi. Abigail, b. 24 Feb. 1680; m. 8 Sept. 1698, Daniel Collins, b. 28 May 1677.

3. Joseph[2] Thompson (John[1]) removed to Wallingford, Conn., where he married first, about 1683, Mrs. Elizabeth (Lathrop) Royce, widow of Isaac, who was born in 1648, and in 1669 married Isaac Royce, who died in 1682. She died before 1690, when Joseph Thompson is referred to as father-in-law of the Royce children (County Court Records, vol. 1, p. 178). He married secondly, 22 Nov. 1694, Mercy Jacob. In Feb. 1704, administration on the estate of Joseph Thomson of Wallingford, deceased, was granted to Mr. John Moss and to Joseph Thomson, son of the deceased; and the estate was distributed to the widow Mercy, and to Joseph, John, and Hannah (County Court Records, vol. 2, p. 151).

Children:

i. Joseph,[3] b. abt. 1683; called Captain; m. 9 Feb. 1710, Hannah Clark, who d. 17 Aug. 1763; d. 7 Nov. 1756. This line was continued through his only son, Samuel.[4]

ii. John, b. 1 Feb. 1685; m. 23 June 1710, Sarah Culver, who d. 26 July 1751; d. 1763. He left descendants, who lived at Wallingford and Goshen, through his sons, Abel,[4] John, and Joseph.

iii. Hannah, b. 16 Apr. 1687; m. 1 Mar. 1706, Samuel Thorpe of Wallingford, b. 13 Feb. 1682; d. after 1742.

The Thompson Family of New Haven.

The New Haven family of Thompson was founded by three brothers, William, Anthony, and John. An attempt has been made to connect them with the Thompson family of Lenham, co. Kent, England. This Lenham myth has been set forth as a certainty in the History of Goshen (by A. G. Hibbard, 1897), in the Marks-Platt Ancestry (by E. J. Lines, 1902, pp. 46–50), and in several other accounts, and so far as known has never been refuted. Henry Thompson of Royton in Lenham married Dorothy Hony wood, and died 20 Oct. 1648, leaving, with other issue, sons John, William, and Anthony. The coincidence of names would seem promising, and it is not strange that somebody hastily conjectured their identity with the emigrants, but investigation overthrows the theory. According to William Berry's Pedigrees of the Families in the County of Kent (published in 1830, pp. 15–17), Anthony Thompson of Lenham was baptized 30 Aug. 1612, and died in England 13 Feb. 1682, leaving as heiress an only daughter. Moreover, John Thompson of Lenham was born in 1604, too early for John of New Haven, who was probably the youngest of the emigrant brothers. The Lenham brothers had three cousins, sons of Thomas Thompson of Pethem, co. Kent, likewise named John, William, and Anthony; but this John was a knight, and died in 1645 without issue. Furthermore, the evidence of chronology tends to show that the emigrants could not descend from Henry of Lenham or Thomas of Pethem in the following generation. At all events, the accepted pedigree must be abandoned.

1. WILLIAM[1] THOMPSON died unmarried in New Haven 24 Apr. 1683. In his will of 6 Oct. 1682 he calls himself "far stricken in years," and mentions his nephews Benjamin Broadly and brother Abraham Broadly; nephew John Thompson, son of brother Anthony; cousin John Thompson, Jr., son of nephew John abovesaid; cousin William Thompson, son of nephew John abovesaid; cousin Mary Lynes; sister Ellen Thompson; cousins Mary Lynes, Anna Broadlye, and Elizabeth Broadlye, daughters of sister Ellen Thompson; Elizabeth, eldest daughter of Benjamin Broadlye; and cousins Bridgett Bowers, Anna Stanton, and Lydia Cruttenden (New Haven Probate Records, vol. 1, p. 192).

2. ANTHONY[1] THOMPSON died Sept. 1648. In his will of 23 Mar. 1647 he mentions his eldest son; second son, Anthony; daughter Bridget which he had by former wife; other daughters; wife; and brothers William and John (New Haven Probate Records, vol. 1, p. 33). He married first ——— ———; and secondly KATHARINE ———, who married for her second husband, 14 July 1652, Nicholas Camp of Milford. The Proprietors' records contain several references to payment of portions to Anthony's children, by "Kattern Camp," the children mentioned being John, Hannah, Liddia, Ebenezer, Anthony, and Bridget (Proprietors' Records, vol. 2, pp. 91, 98, 114, 229).

Children by first wife:

4. i. JOHN.[2]
   ii. ANTHONY, b. Dec. 1634; d. at Milford 29 Dec. 1654. In his will of 26 Dec. 1654 he names his brother John Thompson; his eldest sister, his father's daughter by his own mother; and his sisters, daughters of his father by his mother-in-law, goodwife Camp (New Haven Probate Records, vol. 1, p. 55).
   iii. BRIDGET, m. REV. JOHN BOWERS of Derby, who d. 14 June 1687; d. 19 May 1720.

Children by second wife:

   iv. HANNAH, bapt. 8 June 1645; m. ——— STANTON.
   v. LYDIA, bapt. 24 July 1647; m. (1) 20 Sept. 1665, ISAAC CRUTTENDEN of Guilford; m. (2) Dea. JOHN MEIGS; d. Dec. 1729.
5. vi. EBENEZER (posthumous), b. 15 Oct. 1648.

3. JOHN[1] THOMPSON, called "Senior" to distinguish him from his nephew the "Mariner," married, 25 Feb. 1650, ELLEN HARRISON, probably a sister of the Thomas Harrison who married the widow of John Thompson of East Haven. He died 14 Dec. 1674, and on 9 June 1675 "Ellin ye relict" presented the inventory of his estate, which was distributed to herself, to Samuel Lines in right of Mary his wife, to Abraham Bradlye in right of Hanna his wife, to Elizabeth, and to "the younger daughter" (County Court Records, vol. 1, p. 86). His widow died 8 Apr. 1690, and in her will of Oct. 1689 she mentions her daughters Mary, Hannah, and Elizabeth, her sons-in-law Abraham and Benjamin Bradlye, and her grandchild Sarah daughter of her daughter Elizabeth (New Haven Probate Records, vol. 2, p. 41).

Children:

i. MARY,[2] b. 24 Apr. 1652; m. (1) Nov. 1674, SAMUEL LINES, b. Apr. 1649, d. 1692; m. (2) JOHN HITCHCOCK of Wallingford, who d. 6 July 1716; m. (3) 18 Apr. 1717, SAMUEL CLARK.

ii. ANNE, or HANNAH, b. 22 Sept. 1654; m. 25 Dec. 1673, ABRAHAM BRADLEY, b. 24 Oct. 1650, d. 19 Oct. 1718; d. 26 Oct. 1718.

iii. ELIZABETH, b. 3 June 1657; m. 29 Oct. 1677, BENJAMIN BRADLEY, b. 8 Apr. 1657, d. 1728; d. 3 Nov. 1718.

iv. LYDIA, b. 13 Mar. 1664; evidently "the younger daughter" referred to in 1675; d. before 1689 and probably before 1682, as she is not mentioned in her uncle William's will.

v. SARAH, b. 25 Mar. 1667; d. 1669.

4. JOHN[2] THOMPSON (2. Anthony[1]), called "Mariner," has usually been assigned a wife Ellen or Hellena (cf. History of Goshen, and Genealogical History of Connecticut, 1911, p. 1000). This is an error, and the only wife of John who appears on record was ANNE VICARS, or VICARIS. On 25 Feb. 1657, John Tompson entered an action against the estate of John Roberts, part of which was then in the hands of Mr. Wakeman, on the ground that there had been a treaty of marriage betwixt the said John Roberts and Ann Vicars (now wife to the said John Tompson), and that her former betrothed had by word of mouth left his estate to Ann (Hoadley, Records of the Jurisdiction of New Haven, vol. 2, p. 198). It should be noted that John Wakeman's wife, Elizabeth Hopkins, had a first cousin Ann, daughter of Walter Vicaris (see the will of William Hopkins of Bewdley, Worcestershire, given in the Wakeman Genealogy, p. 30). John Thompson died 2 June 1707, and the inventory of "Mr. John Thompson, Marriner, late decd," was presented 28 Oct. 1707 (New Haven Probate Records, vol. 3, p. 116). In the absence of any distribution of the estate, it is difficult to place his daughters with certainty. Most of his land had been deeded in the later years of his life to his sons John, Joseph, Samuel, and William (New Haven Deeds, vols. 2 and 3). There is no difficulty in identifying the first three, but there seems to have been considerable misapprehension as to the identity of William. This problem is considered below under William Thompson (no. 9). There is no proof that Ann Vicars was mother of all the children, but no other wife has been found.

Children:

6. i. JOHN,[3] b. 12 May 1657.

ii. ANNE, m. 10 May 1688, CALEB CHIDSEY of East Haven, b. 20 Nov. 1661, d. 1713; she d. before 6 July 1693, when Caleb m. his second wife, Hannah Dickerman. She left no children; and there is no reason for assuming that she was daughter of "John the mariner," except that it is difficult to place her anywhere else, and it seems natural that he should have a daughter named for her mother. Perhaps she is identical with the unnamed child (iv.) below.

7. iii. JOSEPH, b. 4 Apr. 1664.
   iv. A CHILD, b. Sept. 1667.
8. v. SAMUEL, b. 12 May 1669.
   vi. SARAH, b. 16 Jan. 1672; m. 25 Nov. 1702, JOHN MIX, b. 25 Aug. 1676, d. 10 Dec. 1721; d. 21 Nov. 1711.
9. vii. WILLIAM, b. 17 Jan. 1674.
   viii. MARY, b. 16 May 1678.

5. EBENEZER[2] THOMPSON (2. Anthony[1]), born 15 Oct. 1648, settled at Guilford, Conn., where he died in 1676. He married, June 1671, DEBORAH DUDLEY, born 20 Sept. 1647, died before 1682, who married secondly Thomas Scranton of Guilford. In his will of 16 Aug. 1676 (inventory taken 6 Nov. 1676) he called himself about 28 years old, and named his wife Deborah, son John, and two brethren, John Tompson and Isaac Cruttenden (New Haven Probate Records, vol. 1, pt. 2, p. 65). On 14 June 1682 is the following record of the estate of Ebenezer Thompson: "the relict (afterwards married to Thomas Scranton, but since deceased) leaving a child of her first husband's (called John Thompson) in his minority, now about eight years old, the court appoints skipper John Thompson of New Haven, Isaac Cruttenden and Joseph Dudley of Guilford, guardians" (New Haven County Court Records, vol. 1, p. 135).

Children:

   i. JABEZ,[3] b. 16 Oct. 1672; d. young.
10. ii. JOHN, b. Nov. 1674.

6. LIEUT. JOHN[3] THOMPSON (John,[2] Anthony[1]), born 12 May 1657, married, 9 May 1682, REBECCA DANIEL, daughter of Stephen and Anna (Gregson), who was born 30 Jan. 1657, and appears to have been living as late as 1749. According to his gravestone, he died 15 Nov. 1711. Administration on his estate was granted 18 Dec. 1711, to the widow Rebecah and to Daniell Thomson, son of the deceased (New Haven Probate Records, vol. 3, p. 301). The estate was divided to the widow, Daniel the eldest son, Anne, Rebeckah, Elisabeth, John, and Anthony (Ibid, vol. 4, p. 55).

Children:

   i. ANN,[4] b. 20 Mar. 1683; m. 4 May 1711, THOMAS IVES of North Haven, b. 22 Aug. 1683, d. 5 May 1767. Their descendants removed to Great Barrington, Mass.
11. ii. DANIEL, b. 31 Oct. 1685.
   iii. REBECCA, bapt. 24 Apr. 1689; m. 20 Dec. 1716, CALEB MIX, b. 27 Sept. 1687, d. 30 Jan. 1765; d. 3 Dec. 1760.
   iv. ELIZABETH, bapt. 26 Apr. 1693; m. 31 Jan. 1716, JOHN BASSETT; d. 3 Sept. 1756.
   v. JOHN, b. 15 Oct. 1696; d. after 1712, without issue. On 22 July 1733, Thomas and Ann Ives, Caleb and Rebeckah Mix, John and Elizabeth Bassett, and Anthony Thompson deeded to their brother Daniel Thompson all right in their father Thompson's and brother John Thompson's estates (New Haven Deeds, vol. 29, p. 520).
   vi. ANTHONY, b. 22 Sept. 1700; resided at Mt. Carmel; m. (1) 20 Apr. 1727, SARAH PECK, b. 21 Mar. 1705; m. (2) SARAH PARDEE, b. 5 Nov. 1719; d. abt. 1786. On 27 Apr. 1763, Anthony and Sarah Thompson deeded land that their two brothers, Ebenezer and Benjamin Pardee, quitclaimed to Sarah (New Haven Deeds, vol. 26, p. 232). In his will of 23 Feb. 1769 he named his present wife, and his kinsman Anthony son of John Thompson (New Haven Probate Records, vol. 15, p. 83). He evidently left no issue, and during his lifetime deeded much of his property to his grandnephew Anthony (New Haven and Hamden Deeds).

7. Joseph[3] Thompson (John,[2] Anthony[1]) of West Haven, born 4 Apr. 1664, died 14 Dec. 1711 (gravestone record). He was a sergeant, and received by deed his father's West Haven property. He married, 2 Feb. 1697, Elizabeth Smith, daughter of John and Grace (Winston), who was born 1 Aug. 1675, and died 14 Nov. 1743 (gravestone record, West Haven). Administration on the estate of "Clark" Joseph Thompson was granted to his widow 6 May 1712 (New Haven Probate Records, vol. 4, p. 36). The children's names are given as Anna, aged 14, Joseph, aged 9, Stephen, aged 5, and Jonathan, aged 3. An interesting deed granting a right of way, dated 1 Feb. 1770, names grantors Daniel Thomas, Asa Smith, Jonathan Thompson, Ebenezer Humphrevile and wife Esther, John Johnson, Jr., and wife Mabel, Moses Pardee and wife Mary, Titus Beecher and wife Elizabeth, Bethia and Jeduthan Thompson, and Benajah Thomas (New Haven Deeds, vol. 30, p. 434). All of these, except the two Thomases, were heirs of Joseph Thompson through his sons Joseph and Stephen.

Children:

i. Anna,[4] b. 17 Feb. 1697; m. 3 Feb. 1726, Ebenezer Clark, b. 5 Aug. 1695; d. before 1761.

12. ii. Joseph, b. 5 Mar. 1703.

13. iii. Stephen, b. 3 Dec. 1705.

iv. Jonathan, b. 3 Apr. 1709; d. 31 Jan. 1725 (gravestone, West Haven).

v. Ebenezer (posthumous), b. 21 June 1712; m. 20 Mar. 1734, Esther Stevens, dau. of Thomas and Amy (Smith), b. 17 May 1715. The births of three children are recorded to them at New Haven: Ebenezer,[5] 15 Jan. 1735; John, 18 Feb. 1737; Amy, 28 July 1739. The family removed to Scituate, Mass. On 20 Oct. 1756, Ebenezer Thompson, clerk, of Scituate, Mass., deeded land in West Haven (New Haven Deeds, vol. 20, p. 203).

8. Samuel[3] Thompson (John,[2] Anthony[1]), born 12 May 1669, died 26 Mar. 1749. He was a captain, and lived at Westville, but purchased property at Goshen, Conn., where several of his sons settled. He married, 14 Nov. 1695, Rebecca Bishop, daughter of James and Elizabeth (Tompkins), who was born 10 Dec. 1673, and died 5 Apr. 1734 (gravestone record).

Children:

i. Samuel,[4] b. 2 Dec. 1696; m. 20 Jan. 1719, Esther Alling, dau. of Samuel and Sarah (Chidsey), b. 10 Jan. 1699; removed to Goshen, and later to Stanford, N. Y. Children, recorded at New Haven: Elizabeth,[5] b. 17 Oct. 1719; Samuel, b. 15 Dec. 1722; Sarah, b. 22 Apr. 1725; Esther, b. 3 May 1728.

14. ii. James, b. 5 June 1699.

iii. Amos, b. 3 Mar. 1702; m. 7 Sept. 1726, Sarah Alling, dau. of Samuel and Sarah (Sackett), b. 25 Apr. 1702; removed to Stanford, N. Y., and lines of descent from him are given in American Ancestry (vol. 2, pp. 51, 126). Children, recorded at New Haven: Alling,[5] b. 2 June 1727; Rebecca, b. 28 Apr. 1729; Amos, b. 7 Aug. 1731.

iv. Dea. Gideon, b. 25 Dec. 1704; m. 9 Jan. 1729, Lydia Punderson, dau. of Thomas and Lydia (Bradley), b. 1 Mar. 1708. He removed to Goshen, and d. at Hartford, Mar. 1759, while a Representative there. Children recorded at New Haven: Elisha,[5] b. 23 Oct. 1729;

David, b. 1 Dec. 1731; Stephen, b. 20 Apr. 1734; Lydia, b. 16 Oct. 1736; Gideon, b. 5 Apr. 1739. His descendants are given in the History of Goshen.

v. REBECCA, b. 23 Feb. 1708; m. 11 Feb. 1731, DAVID AUSTIN, b. 25 Oct. 1703, d. 28 Aug. 1759; d. 26 Feb. 1739.

vi. JUDAH, b. 10 June 1711; d. 1 Aug. 1712.

vii. JUDAH, b. 5 Oct. 1713. On 16 Aug. 1745, Samuel[3] Thompson deeded land to his son Judah, of New Haven (New Haven Deeds, vol. 12. p. 440), but what became of him afterwards has not been ascertained. In the Second Congregational Church Records the marriage is recorded, 14 Feb. 1759, of a Judah Thompson to Sarah Morris, who was b. 15 Mar. 1737, the town records giving the birth of a daughter Rebecca in 1760, and the church records a son Judah, bapt. in 1764.

viii. ENOS, b. 18 Aug. 1717; m. 2 Apr. 1741, SARAH HITCHCOCK. On 20 May 1752, Enos Thompson "of Smithfield in the great nine partners in Dutchis County in ye province of New York" deeded land to Hannah Thompson of New Haven (New Haven Deeds, vol. 17, p. 57). Children, recorded at New Haven: Israel,[5] b. 7 Mar. 1742; Rebecca, b. 30 June 1744; Enos, b. 26 July 1746; Jesse, b. 14 Nov. 1749. A grandson, according to the Tuttle Genealogy (p. 704), was Enos Thompson Throop, governor of New York.

9. WILLIAM[3] THOMPSON (John,[2] Anthony[1]) was born 17 Jan. 1674. That "John the mariner" had a son William is proved by two deeds to the latter, and by mention of him in the will of William[1] Thompson (no. 1) in 1682; but there has been considerable doubt as to his identity, as there were two Williams who could be eligible. One, called William, Sr., was a man of some importance, is called "joiner" and "surveyor" in deeds, and frequently had "Mr." prefixed to his name; he married in 1682 Joanna Daniel, widow of John Glover, and died in 1741. The other, called William, Jr., married before 1708 Martha ———, and died in 1717. The obvious theory is that William, "Sr.," was one of the oldest sons of John, and that William, "Jr.," was son of William "Sr.," but this hypothesis, which is generally accepted, proves untenable. The chronology of William, Sr's, recorded family leaves no room for the birth of a son William. Moreover, William, Sr., deeded no land to William, Jr., nor did he mention him or his heirs in his will, wherein he made careful provision for his sons. Nor do the heirs of William, Jr., appear in deeds in which all the heirs of William, Sr., appear; but there is positive evidence to prove that William, Jr., was son of John the mariner. First: William, son of John Thompson, was born 17 Jan. 1674, which is much too late for the birth of William, Sr.; secondly: John the mariner deeded to his son William, along with other land, one-third part of his whole division and tract of land (1702), which property was afterwards (1707) deeded away by William Thompson, husbandman (New Haven Deeds, vol. 3, pp. 21, 34), showing that John's son William was a farmer, whereas William, Sr., always appears as joiner or surveyor; thirdly: the other land deeded by John the mariner to his son William (New Haven Deeds, vol. 3, pp. 21, 22) is to be found mentioned in the inventory of William, Jr. (New Haven Probate Records, vol. 6, p. 1); and finally: Caleb Thompson, who is known to be a son of William, Jr., deeded land that was laid out to his father William Thompson, deceased, and other land that was laid out to his grandfather John Thompson, deceased (New Haven Deeds, vol. 8, p. 331). The only question that could remain is whether, as sometimes happened, John could have had two sons named William, but the evidence is against it, for in John's deed to William he is referred to as his "son William." Also, the will of William[1] Thompson (no. 1), wherein he mentioned his "cousin William, son of nephew John," would have distinguished between them if there had been two sons named William.

William, Jr., who died 13 Mar. 1717, married MARTHA ———, who died after 1755. His estate was not settled until 1730 (New Haven Probate Records, vol. 6, p. 1).

Children:

i. CALEB,[4] b. 15 Sept. 1708. On 7 Nov. 1726, he chose Capt. Samuel Thomson his guardian (New Haven Probate Records, vol. 5, p. 320). He removed to Waterbury, where he m. 16 Aug. 1731, REBECCA HICKOX. Children: 1. Sibyl,[5] b. 8 Apr. 1732; m. Bartholomew Williams. 2. William, b. 5 Feb. 1735; d. 1760. 3. Rachel, b. 22 Dec. 1737; m. 5 Apr. 1760, Jediah Turner.

ii. MARTHA, b. Feb. 1710; m. 19 Apr. 1732, STEPHEN AUSTIN, b. 1 Jan. 1706, d. 29 Sept. 1787; d. 22 Dec. 1769.

iii. LIEUT. ABRAHAM, b. June 1711; m. 9 Nov. 1732, MARY ALLING, daughter of Samuel and Sarah (Sackett), b. 6 Feb. 1707, d. 8 Feb. 1788 (gravestone record); d. 2 Sept. 1774 (gravestone record). He had, probably with other issue, children: 1. Abraham,[5] bapt. 13 June 1738; d. 12 Dec. 1739 (gravestone record). 2. Abraham, b. 28 Aug. 1740; m. (1) 13 June 1758, Rachel Warner; m. (2) 8 Nov. 1770, Hannah Brown; left issue. 3. Isaac, b. 19 Aug. 1743; m. (1) 14 Nov. 1765, Elizabeth Thompson (no. 15, i), b. 5 July 1742, d. 8 Jan. 1788; m. (2) Sarah Thompson; left female issue; d. 13 Sept. 1824. 4. Jacob, b. 7 Oct. 1745; m. 30 Aug. 1772, Esther Mansfield, b. 2 Nov. 1746, d. 25 July 1828 (Columbian Register); left issue. 5. Mary, b. 3 May 1748; m. 26 Apr. 1770, Nathaniel Fitch. 6. (perhaps) Martha, bapt. 5 Nov. 1733.

iv. SARAH, b. 1 Oct. 1717 (posthumous); m. 12 June 1755, MATTHEW GILBERT, b. 21 Feb. 1722, d. 2 July 1795.

10. JOHN[3] THOMPSON (Ebenezer,[2] Anthony[1]), born at Guilford Nov. 1674, removed to Branford, where he married, 23 Apr. 1702, HANNAH WHEDON, daughter of Thomas of Branford, who was born 21 July 1674. Several accounts, including the History of Goshen, state that after the death of Hannah he went to Wallingford, and married Sarah Culver in 1710, but the John who married Sarah Culver belonged to the East Haven family (no. 3, ii), and there is ample evidence that John of Branford was still living there as late as 1726 (County Court Records, vol. 3, p. 206). Whether he had another wife is not known, but by Hannah he had

Children:

i. DEBORAH,[4] b. 9 Mar. 1703.

ii. THANKFUL, b. 7 July 1705; m. WILLIAM FANCHER of Waterbury, who d. 20 Aug. 1759; d. 19 Aug. 1759. William and Thankful Fancher of Waterbury deeded right to land from grandfather Thomas Whedon of Branford, dec'd, by mother Hannah Thomson, dec'd, daughter to said Whedon (Branford Deeds, vol. 7, p. 516).

11. ENS. DANIEL[4] THOMPSON (John,[3] John,[2] Anthony[1]), born 31 Oct. 1685, lived in the parish of Amity, now the town of Woodbridge, Conn. He married, 16 Jan. 1717, MARY BALL, daughter of John and Sarah (Glover), born 22 Oct. 1694, died 11 May 1776, aged 82 (gravestone record, Woodbridge). He died 26 Nov. 1766 (gravestone record, New Haven), and his will of 10 Apr. 1758, proved

Mar. 1767, referred to his father John Thompson, deceased, and named his wife Mary, eldest son John, sons James, Jabez, Daniel, and Eliphalet, daughter Ann, and granddaughter Mabel the daughter of his son John. His wife, and sons James and Daniel, are named as executors; but Mary and Daniel appeared and refused the trust (James seems to have died), so administration was granted to the son Jabez of Derby (New Haven Probate Records, vol. 10, p. 283).

Children:

i. ANN,[5] b. 4 Nov. 1717; d. at Woodbridge abt. 1790. In her will of 27 July 1790, proved 16 Aug. 1790, she mentioned her father Daniel Thompson, deceased, and left her property to her nephew Thaddeus Thompson (New Haven Probate Records, vol. 16, p 647).

15. ii. JOHN, b. 16 May 1719.

iii. JAMES, b. 20 June 1721; living in 1758, but apparently d. before 1767.

iv. Mabel, b. 6 Dec. 1723; not named in her father's will.

v. DANIEL, b. 27 Oct. 1725; d. 11 Dec. 1727.

16. vi. JABEZ, b. 3 July 1727.

vii. EUNICE, b. 21 Oct. 1729; not named in her father's will.

viii. DANIEL, b. 30 Dec. 1731; m. 17 Sept. 1761, MARY CARRINGTON (Woodbridge Church Records), who was bapt. 11 May 1740 (First Congregational Church Records). On 5 Apr. 1768, Daniel Thompson of Farmington deeded to his brother John and sister Ann of New Haven, and brother Jabez of Derby, all right in Amity from his father (New Haven Deeds, vol. 29, p. 402). He appears to have returned to Woodbridge from Farmington, for in 1785 he deeded land to his son Thaddeus (Woodbridge Deeds, vol. 1, p. 77).

ix. ELIPHALET, b. 25 Mar. 1734; d. before Dec. 1760, when administration on his estate was granted to his brother Daniel, Jr. (New Haven Probate Records, vol. 9, p. 438).

x. LOIS, b. 22 Apr. 1736; not named in her father's will.

xi. JOEL, b. 23 Nov. 1737; not named in his father's will.

12. JOSEPH[4] THOMPSON (Joseph,[3] John,[2] Anthony[1]), born 5 Mar. 1703, lived at West Haven. He married, 15 May 1728, HANNAH SMITH, daughter of Nathan and Hannah (Brown), a first cousin of his mother's. He died 5 July 1745 (gravestone record, West Haven), and on 16 July 1745 administration on his estate was granted to the widow, Hannah (New Haven Probate Records, vol. 6, p. 629). In 1759, the estate of Ens. Joseph Thompson was divided to the widow, and surviving children (the eldest son being dead without issue) Jeduthan and Mabel Thompson, Esther Humphrevile, and Mary Thompson (Ibid, vol. 9, pp. 227, 256). In Feb. 1770, administration on the estate of Hannah, late widow of Joseph Thompson, was granted to her son Jeduthan (Ibid, vol. 11, pp. 52, 67).

Children:

i. A SON,[5] d. shortly after his father, without issue.

ii. MABEL, m. JOHN JOHNSON, b. 17 May 1732, d. after 1792. They appear in the deed mentioned under Joseph[3] (no. 7). In another deed, dated 26 Dec. 1767, Hannah Thompson deeded to her son Jeduthan land bounded east on land of dau. Mabel Johnson (New Haven Deeds, vol. 30, p. 390).

iii. ESTHER, b. abt. 1732; m. 25 July 1754, EBENEZER HUMPHREVILLE, b. 29 July 1726, d. 6 Feb. 1802; d. 24 Sept. 1710. Their descendants lived at Orange and Woodbridge, and changed their name to Umberfield.

iv. MARY, m. MOSES PARDEE. On 17 June 1768, Moses Pardee and wife Mary deeded land in West Haven to their brother Jeduthan Thompson (New Haven Deeds, vol. 30, p. 327).

v. JEDUTHAN, m. THANKFUL BEARDSLEY; killed 5 July 1779, by the British. Children: 1. Desire,[6] b. 18 Feb. 1771. 2. Thankful, b. 25 July 1772; m. Sept. 1797, Calvin Turner, who d. 30 Apr. 1825; d. 10 May 1841. 3. Eunice, b. 26 June 1776. 4. Joseph, b. 12 Nov. 1778; m. Mary Ann Sharp; d. 23 July 1856; left issue.

13. STEPHEN[4] THOMPSON (Joseph,[3] John,[2] Anthony[1]), born 3 Dec. 1705, lived at West Haven, where he died in 1746. He married, 4 Sept. 1728, ELIZABETH HUMPHREVILLE, daughter of Samuel and Experience (Pinion), who was born 27 Oct. 1708, and died in 1785. On 1 June 1746, administration on his estate was granted to the widow Elizabeth, and the estate was divided between the widow, Jonathan the eldest son, Stephen, David, Sarah, Elizabeth, and Bethiah (New Haven Probate Records, vol. 7, p. 46; vol. 8, p. 482).

Children:

i. STEPHEN,[5] b. abt. 1729; d. 12 Feb. 1735 (gravestone record, West Haven).

ii. SARAH, b. 15 Apr. 1731; m. ASA SMITH, who d. 1782; d. before 1759. She is called Smith in the probate of the estates of her brothers Stephen and David, and on 31 Oct. 1765, Asa Smith deeded land to his mother Elizabeth Thompson (New Haven Deeds, vol. 26, p. 156). After her death, he m. (2) Sarah ———.

iii. JONATHAN, b. 11 Feb. 1733; m. MARGARET ———; d. 1784/5; left issue.

iv. DAVID, b. abt. 1735; d. May 17— (gravestone record, West Haven).

v. ELIZABETH, b. 9 Oct. 1737; m. TITUS BEECHER, b. 5 July 1740; d. before 1785. She is called Beecher in the distribution of her brother David's estate, and she and her husband appear in the deed mentioned under Joseph[3] (no. 7).

vi. STEPHEN, b. 3 Apr. 1739; d. 1759. His estate was distributed to his brothers and sisters, Jonathan Thompson, David Thompson, the heirs of Sarah Smith, Elizabeth, and Bethiah (New Haven Probate Records, vol. 9, p. 223).

vii. DAVID, d. 1766, when his estate was distributed to his brother and sisters, Jonathan Thompson, the heirs of Sarah Smith, deceased (viz. Lois and Silas), Elizabeth Beecher, and Bethiah Thompson (New Haven Probate Records, vol. 10, pp. 359, 414).

viii. BETHIA, d. unm. 1791.

14. JAMES[4] THOMPSON (Samuel,[3] John,[2] Anthony[1]), born 5 June 1699, resided at Westville, and died in 1737. He married, 30 May, 1723, HANNAH WILMOT, daughter of Benjamin and Mary (Beecher), who was born 9 Dec. 1701, and died 19 Feb. 1767 (First Congregational Church Records). In his will of 28 June 1737, proved 5 Dec. 1737, he named wife Hannah, and children (New Haven Probate Records, vol. 6, p. 231).

Children:

i. MARY,[5] b. 16 Feb. 1724; m. 20 Apr. 1743, JONAH BALDWIN.

17. ii. JAMES, b. 21 Nov. 1725.

iii. HANNAH, b. abt 1727; living unm. in 1754.

iv. MABEL, bapt. 5 Oct. 1729; m. GRIFFIN BRADLEY, b. 9 Nov. 1724. On 5 Jan. 1754, Hannah Thompson, Jr., James and Hezekiah Thompson, Jonah and Mary Baldwin, Griffin and Mabel Bradley of New Haven, and Ariel and Ame Bradley of the province of New York, joined in a deed (New Haven Deeds, vol. 20, p. 84).

v. AMY, bapt. 2 Apr. 1732; m. 7 Nov. 1751, ARIEL BRADLEY (Woodbridge Church Records), b. 8 Mar. 1729. On 20 Nov. 1753, Ariel Bradley and wife Ame deeded land from the estate of "our father, Mr. James Thompson, deceased" (New Haven Deeds, vol. 18, p. 308). They removed to New York State.

vi. Hezekiah, b. abt. 1735; m. 1 Oct. 1761, Rebecca Judson; d. Mar. 1803. He removed to Woodbury, Conn., and his descendants appear in Cothren's History of Woodbury.
vii. Rachel, bapt. 2 Oct. 1737; probably d. young.

15. John[5] Thompson (Daniel,[4] John,[3] John,[2] Anthony[1]), born 16 May 1719, died in 1784. He married, 5 Nov. 1741, Elizabeth Bradley, daughter of Benjamin and Martha (Tuttle). The Tuttle Genealogy gives some account of this family (p. 149), but erroneously calls John of the East Haven family. On 16 Aug. 1784, administration on his estate was granted to Isaac Thompson, and the estate was distributed to the nine children: Anthony the eldest son, Levi, Elizabeth wife of Isaac Thompson, Mabel wife of Nathaniel Kimberly, Eunice wife of Edward Larkin, Mary wife of Amos Thompson, Phebe Thompson, Hannah wife of Jehiel Arnold, and Sarah wife of John Arnold (New Haven Probate Records, vol. 14, p. 305; vol. 15, p. 19).

Children:

i. Elizabeth,[6] b. 5 July, 1742; m. 14 Nov. 1765, Isaac[5] Thompson (no. 9, iii, 3), b. 19 Aug. 1743, d. 13 Sept. 1824; d. 8 Jan. 1788 (gravestone record).
ii. Anthony, b. 20 Dec. 1743; fell heir to the lands of his great-uncle Anthony in Hamden; m. ——— ———. Children recorded at New Haven: Amos,[7] b. 4 June 1774; Lowly, b. 21 July 1776.
iii. Mabel, b. 5 Nov. 1745; m. Nathaniel Kimberley; d. 8 Apr. 1808. She is mentioned in the will of her grandfather Daniel Thompson.
iv. Joel, b. 6 May 1747; d. young.
v. Eunice, b. 14 Apr. 1749; m. 13 Aug. 1767, Edward Larkin.
vi. Levi, b. 26 Dec. 1751.
vii. Mary, b. 5 Nov, 1754; m. Amos Thompson of East Haven, b. 2 Aug. 1751, d. 24 Sept. 1817; d. 2 Nov. 1815.
viii. Phebe, b. 15 Apr. 1756.
ix. Hannah, b. 4 June 1758; m. 6 May 1779, Jehiel Arnold.
x. Experience, b. 25 July 1761; d. young.
xi. Sarah, b. 13 Feb. 1763; m. John Arnold.

16. Col. Jabez[5] Thompson (Daniel,[4] John,[3] John,[2] Anthony[1]), born 3 July 1727, removed from Woodbridge to Derby, where he married, 25 Oct. 1748, Sarah Gunn of Waterbury. In his will of 1 June 1776, proved Mar. 1777, he named wife Sarah, and children Jabez, Abel, Lois wife of David Person, Ann wife of Ebenezer Riggs, Sarah wife of Joseph Hawkins, Eunice, Hannah, and Betta (New Haven Probate Records, vol. 12, p. 165).

Children:

i. Lois,[6] b. 29 Dec. 1749; m. David Pierson, ii. Anne, b. 5 Mar. 1753; m. Ebenezer Riggs.
iii. Sarah, b. 21 Feb. 1756; m. Joseph Hawkins.
iv. Capt. Jabez, b. 7 Jan. 1759; m. Hannah ———. His estate was divided between the widow, and children William, Polly Kimberly, Sally Pease, Sheldon, Curtis, Betsey, and Harry (New Haven Probate Records, vol. 24, p. 24).
v. Eunice, b. 5 Jan. 1762.
vi. Abel, m. Apame ———; d. 1798; left issue.

THE WILLIAM THOMPSON FAMILY

1. WILLIAM[1] THOMPSON of New Haven, called "Sr.," has generally been considered a son of "John the mariner," of the foregoing family. Under William[3] Thompson (no. 9, preceding), I have stated the facts that invalidate that claim. Since three of his daughters married Stratford men, it might be conjectured that he sprang from the Thompson family of that town, but there seems to be no place for him there. His early appearance in New Haven, the name William, and the fact that his wife's sister married a son of John the mariner, all tend to connect him with the New Haven family, though there seems to be no place for him there, and for the present he is left unplaced..

He is called joiner and surveyor in deeds, and the County Court Records show that he was frequently called on for jury duty and for surveying. He was styled "Mr.," and was appointed Master of the Excise for New Haven County (County Court Records, vol. 2, p. 394; p. 486 in the modern copy). On 28 Dec. 1682, he married Mrs. JOANNA (DANIEL) GLOVER, daughter of Stephen and Anna (Gregson), and widow of John, born 1 Sept. 1652. She married first, 7 Dec. 1671, John Glover, who was baptized 8 Oct. 1648, and died 29 Jan. 1679, by whom she had four children, two of whom also married in Stratford.

William[1] died before 6 Apr. 1741, when (the person nominated in the will being dead) administration on his estate was granted to Josiah Thompson. In his will of 2 July 1728 he named his wife Joanna, and daughters Jane, Abigail, and Sarah; his son Josiah was to be provided for by deed, and Stephen had been given his portion, so Benjamin was to receive the residue. His wife and son Benjamin were named executors (New Haven Probate Records, vol. 6, p. 329).

Children:

i. JANE,[2] b. 29 Oct. 1683; m. 22 Dec. 1707, JOHN MOSS of Stratford, b. 7 Jan. 1677, d. 1724; d. 28 Sept. 1743.
ii. ABIGAIL, b. 18 Oct. 1685; m. 11 Dec. 1707, RICHARD HUBBELL of Stratford, b. 25 Jan. 1684.
iii. MARY, b. 13 Sept. 1687; m. 4 Mar. 1708, JOHN HITCHCOCK, b. 28 Jan. 1685, d. 14 Oct. 1753; d. 27 Feb. 1709.
2. iv. JOSIAH, b. 31 Dec. 1689.
v. SARAH, bapt. 19 Jan. 1692; m. (1) 15 Nov. 1715, TIMOTHY FAIRCHILD of Stratford, b. 9 Dec. 1687, d. 23 Nov. 1726; m. (2) 12 July 1729, Ens. William Peat, b. 1 May 1694, d. 1761.

vi. Stephen, b. 12 July 1695; d. unm. 6 Aug. 1732 (gravestone record). On 6 Apr. 1733, administration on the estate was granted to Josiah Thompson, brother of the deceased (New Haven Probate Records, vol. 6, p. 107). On 29 May 1739, Richard and Abigail Hubbell, William and Sarah Peat, and Jane Moss of Stratford, and John Hitchcock, Jr., of New Haven, coheirs of the estate of Stephen Thompson, deceased, deeded to John Umphrevile their right in land where their aforesaid deceased brother lived, and since his death conveyed by their brother Josiah Thompson to said John Umphrevile (New Haven Deeds, vol. ii, p. 45).

vii. Benjamin, b. 12 July 1698; d. unm. 20 Sept. 1734 (gravestone record).

2. Josiah[2] Thompson (William[1]), born 31 Dec. 1689, died 5 May 1774 (First Congregational Church Records). He married (not recorded) Elizabeth Miles, daughter of Lieut. Richard and Hannah (Easton), who was born 10 Sept. 1695. She is called Elizabeth Thompson in her father's will, dated 24 Jan. 1756 (New Haven Probate Records, vol. 8, p. 560). The death of Elizabeth, wife of Josiah Thompson, aged 75, is recorded in the First Congregational Church Records, 1 Mar. 1771. It is difficult to trace his children.

Children:

i. Mary,[3] m. 24 Aug. 1738, Daniel Talmadge. Her place in the family seems likely from the names of her children: William, Josiah, and Elizabeth.

ii. Elizabeth, m. 23 Nov. 1740, Timothy Andrews, b. 1 Apr. 1713, d. 1742. Timothy Thompson was guardian to her son Elijah (New Haven Probate Records, vol. 9, p. 165).

iii. Timothy. On 12 June 1762, Josiah Thompson deeded land to his son Timothy (New Haven Deeds, vol. 26, p. 391).

iv. Sarah, m. Aug. 1760, Richard Hood. On 23 Feb. 1771, Josiah Thompson deeded land to his son-in-law Richard Hood (New Haven Deeds, vol. 31, p. 377).

CHRISTOPHER TODD OF NEW HAVEN, CONN., AND HIS DESCENDANTS.

Compiled by Hon. RALPH D. SMYTH, and communicated by Dr. BERNARD C. STEINER.

1. CHRISTOPHER[1] TODD was at New Haven, and took the oath of fidelity there, in 1644. In 1681 he was the miller. His will, dated 1656, notes his mill, bakehouse and lands; and the estate inventoried at £985. His name appears frequently in the divisions of land, but he did not have much to do with public affairs. He married Grace ———.

Children:

2. i. JOHN,[2] bapt. Dec. 2, 1642; d. Sept. 21, 1723.
3. ii. SAMUEL, bapt. Apr. 20, 1645; d. June 1, 1706.
iii. MARY, bapt. Sept. 16, 1647; m. Aug. 19, 1668, Isaac Turner.
iv. GRACE, bapt. Dec. 15, 1650; m. Richard Mallock, who deserted her.
4. v. MICHAEL, bapt. June 18, 1653; d. Sept. 10, 1744.
vi. MERCY, bapt. Feb. 18, 1655; m. Samuel Bassett.

2. JOHN[2] TODD (Christopher[1]) married first, Nov. 26, 1668, Sarah Gilbert, who died Apr. 1, 1674; and married second, Aug. 20, 1677, Sarah Blackman.

Child by first wife:

i. SARAH,[3] b. May 13, 1673; d. Oct. 1, 1678.

Children by second wife:

THE TOWNSHEND FAMILY.

By Charles Hervey Townsend, Esq., of New-Haven, Ct.

The Townsend or Townshend families of England and America are of mixed Saxon and Norman origin and of great antiquity in the county Norfolk, England.

Walter Atte Townshende, son of Sir Lodovic de Townshende, a Norman nobleman whom Collins in his Peerage of England puts at the head of this family, flourished soon after the Conquest. This Lodovic it seems married Elizabeth de Hauteville, sole heir of Raynham daughter of Sir Thomas de Hauteville, of the famous family of de Hauteville or Havile, which family at this time appear to have been a most important one. They were of Norman extraction, and settling in the county of Norfolk became possessed of a considerable property said to have been granted them by William the Conqueror, which by marriage came to the Townsend family.

We find the name in ancient deeds written thus: Ad-Finem-Ville. Ad-Exitum-Ville. William Ad-Exitum-Ville, that is Townsend or Tunneshende, held considerable lands of the prior of Norwiche's lordship in Taverham, Norfolk, in the reign of King John, A.D. 1200. In the reign of Henry III. A.D. 1217–72, lived Thomas Atte Tunneshende of West Herling; and in 1290 lived William Atte Tune'sende. In 1304 John, son of Thomas Atte Tunnesende, died, leaving Alice his widow, and William his son who was married in 1306. This family were possessed of valuable estates, and their seal was a cheveron between three escollop shells, the arms of the family to this day.

There were several of the name living in Norfolk about the beginning of the 14th century, and from them no doubt the various families of the name sprang. Anno Domini 1319, Richard Atte-Towneshende, of Fincham, conveyed lands, &c., with the services of divers men, to Adam de Fincham, and in the church of St. Martyn's, Fincham, on the pavement near the lowest south window, lies a gravestone, to which was once fixed a brass plate with a long Latin inscription memorative to Thomas Townsend, a probable descendant of this family, and which is now preserved in the church chest, but much broken.

In 1371, Peter Atte Townesend was presented with the living of Great Winchingham by the king and nominated by the bishop. There was a William Atte Tounsend whose son Thomas settled his estates in Thorpland and Barsham in Norfolk on his son John, by deed dated July 11, 1377. This John was living at Snoring Magna, A.D. 1396, and afterward settled at Raynham.

Roger de Townshende, who by wife Catherine, daughter of John Atherton, of the co. Sussex, was father of Sir Thomas de Townshend, whose wife was Agnes, daughter of William Payne, gentleman. This Sir Thomas was buried in the choir of White Friars' Church in Fleet Street, London, April 1, 1421, and his son and heir Roger was wedded to Eleanor, daughter of Sir Thomas Giggs, of Rollesby, in co. Norfolk, and had issue John Townsend, son and heir, who married Joan, daughter and heir of Sir Robert Lunsford, of Rumford in co. Essex; his will is dated Feb. 16, 1465, and proved Jan. 4, 1466. He orders his body to be buried in the middle of the church of St. Mary's, Raynham, before the image of the crucifix of our Lord, and appoints one secular priest to celebrate, for his soul and that of his wife, for the space of 20 years. By this match the Townsend family have right to bear the arms of Lunsford, Barrington, Belhouse, Marcy Manderville, Earl of Essex, &c. By the said Joan Lunsford this John Townsend had one son Roger and four daughters.

Roger Townsend, Esq., son and heir, was entered a student of Lincoln's Inn, and elected a governor and lent reader in 1461. In 1468 was trustee in purchasing the Lordship at Winchingham, St. Mary's. In 1472 was member of parliament for Calme, in Wiltshire; and in 1476 he purchased the remainder of the Lordship of Havile, Raynham, so that the whole estate was then in this family. In 1477 he was called to the degree of sergeant-at-law; in 1480, summoned to be an assistant to the house of lords in parliament; and in 1485 was made king's sergeant-at-law, and the year following was appointed a justice of the common pleas. King Henry VII. renewed his patent, and knighted him in his chamber at Worcester, on Whitsunday before the coronation. Sir Roger dates his will Aug. 14, 1492, and orders his body to be buried in the chapel of St. Katherine's, in the church of St. Mary's, Raynham, if he fortunes to decease there; but if in London, in the church of White Friars in Fleet Street, before the crucifix. He leaves legacies to his daughters, and mentions son Thomas; makes Eleanor, his wife, sole executrix and guardian to his eldest son Roger, on whom he entails his property. His will was proved 1493, and his wife Eleanor survived him, and in her will dated Nov. 9, 1499, she orders her body to be buried by the high altar in the chancel of the church of St. Mary's, Raynham, and a new tomb to be made for her husband, and her bones, upon which tomb to be graven a sepulchre for Easter-day, if a chapel be not made at her decease, and if a chapel be made then she would be buried with her husband there. She appoints Sir Robert Clere, knt., her executor, and her will was proved Oct. 8, 1500.

Roger Towneshend, eldest son of the Judge, was bred to the law, and among other gentlemen of worth and dignity of the co. Norfolk was appointed a commissioner by act of parliament for raising the sum of £163,000 by a poll-tax in 1513 for defraying the expense of taking Teroven and Tournay. In 1518 he covenanted to serve the king with ten men-at-arms; was sheriff of Norfolk and Suffolk 1511, 1518, 1525, and one of the masters of the courts of request in 1529, serving also the same year as one of the King's Council with the Bishop of Lincoln. On Jan. 1, 1539, he attended the Duke of Norfolk at the marriage reception of King Henry VIII., and was knighted 1545, on the return of the king from Boulogne, and on the death of that monarch was commissioned to take care of the peace of the co. Norfolk. He was a gentleman of great honor and worth, both at home and at court, and was one of the king's privy council. His wife was Anne, daughter and co-heir of Sir William de Brewse, who was from a very ancient family which held by descent a great estate, and brought high honors into the family, she being connected by birth with many of the ancient nobility. In his will, which bears date July 31, 1551, he calls himself son and heir of Sir Roger Townshend, deceased, and orders his body to be buried in the church of East Raynham by Amy, his wife, if he fortune to depart within the shire of Norfolk; leaves bequests to his sons and daughters, and makes his great grand-son Roger (then a minor), son of Richard, lately deceased, son of his son John, also deceased, his heir apparent when he attains the age of 27 years. Appoints his sons George and Thomas his executors, and his will was proved May 10, 1552, and he was buried in the church of St. Mary's, Raynham. As both these Sir Roger Townshends left wills, in which all their children are mentioned, it is evident that Collins and Blomefield have made an error in calling them the same person.

Sir Roger Tounsend, heir to his great-grandfather Sir Roger aforesaid, and ancestor to the present Marquis Townshend. Earl Sydney, Viscount Raynham and Lord Bayning, was afterward a celebrated commander, and brought his own ships into the service of his country during the time of the Spanish armada in 1588, and showing such undaunted spirit and bravery, was knighted at sea the 26th of July of the same year by the Lord High Admiral Charles Howard, with the Lords Howard, Lord Sheffield, John Hawkins and Martyn Frobisher; and as his name is mentioned before the two last, his command was no doubt a most important one. On the tapestry hanging on the walls of the house of lords was embroidered Lord Howard and his captains, one of which was this Sir Roger. He died at Newington, co. Middlesex, June 30, 1590, and was buried in the church of St. Giles, Cripple-gate, London.

As the history of the chief branch of this family has been written several times within the past century, we will not continue it further, but will here notice the different modes of spelling the name. The first part Atte seems to have been dropped during the 14th century, and from this time down to the dawn of puritanism, as many as twelve different ways of spelling the name have been found. Thus: Townsend, Tounnyeshende, Towneshende, &c. About 1500 we learn it became fashionable to cut down still more; so Towneshende was abridged by dropping the e in the first and the h and e in the last syllables, which abridged form seems at this time to have been generally adopted by the different branches of the family; but soon after the year 1580, the chief family at Raynham finding that this mode gave a wrong signification to their name, as they were the land-holders, stadt or town-holders of that section of the county, they again used the h in the last syllable, considering it more correct.

Burke says, in his "Landed Gentry," that previous to the ennobling "of the English family, we find the name as frequently spelt without the h as with, and according to Blomefield the orthography of the old Townsend Monuments at Raynham is similar. Spelling, however, in those days was not considered a matter of much importance, and it seems not improbable that Townshend is the most correct, hend being derived from hand (Saxon henden), or the Latin root hendere, only used in composition, to take, to hold."

Having enlarged on the orthography of this ancient family name, we turn our attention to the line of Robert Townshend, second son of Sir Roger, by wife Anne de Brewse, who married Alice, daughter and one of the heirs of Robert Poppy, Esq., of co. Norfolk. This Robert in his father's will is called Sir Robert Townshend, knt., and he bequeaths him his "Cheyne of Gold." Sir Robert was of the Society of Lincoln's Inn in the early part of the reign of King Henry VIII., becoming as eminent as his ancestor in the study of law, and with his father attended the Duke of Norfolk at the reception of Lady Anne, daughter of John, Duke of Cleves, who married King

Henry VIII., Jan. 1, 1539. He was afterward made king's sergeant-at-law in 1541, and knighted by Henry VIII. at Hampton Court, on Trinity Sunday, 1545, and the same year made lord chief justice of Chester, in which post he was continued by both King Edward VI. and Queen Mary. He deceased on Feb. 8, 1555–6, possessed of the manor and rectory of Gayst, an advowson of the vicarage of the church, the manor of Swanton, Foxley, and Southwell in Norfolk, and the priory and house of St. Augustine in Ludlow, Salop. Sir Robert was buried in the high chancel of Ludlow church in an altar tomb, which is a remarkable example of an early and very rich classic monument of the times. On the top of it, cut in marble, are the full length recumbent figures of himself dressed in full armor, and his lady in the costume of her day, while figures of his children surround the base of the tomb. Over the monument, built in the solid masonry of the chancel, is a beautiful gothic arch, and the family crest, a buck trippant, crowns the whole fabric, which is decorated with escollop shells and other insignias of the family; above the monument on the walls are the Townsend arms, quartered with the de Hauteville, de Brewse, Gifford, Lunsford, Schardlow, Carbonnel, Curson, Poppy and others; and beneath the beautiful Gothic window, of stained glass, is this inscription: "Memento Mori Respice Finam," Anno Domini 1581, and around the coping of the top of the tomb: "Here lyeth the body of Sir Robert Towneshende, Knight, Chief Justice of the Councill in the Marches of Wales & Chester, and Dame Alice, his wife, daughter and one of the heirs of Robert Poppy, Esquire, who had between them 12 children, 6 sons & 6 daughters lawfully begotten." On the pannelling of the monument are the names of his children, but time has obliterated most of them. The names, however, of Thomas, Robert, Isaac and Henry are still visible. This Sir Robert Townshend died at Salop, Feb. 8, 1556, and from an inquisition taken at Norwich, April 26, 1556, and at Salop 11th of Aug. following, Thomas Townsend of Bracon Ash, Norfolk, was found to be his heir, who was at that time 22 years of age, and was seized of the manor of Suton, Swanton and Folsham, in Folsham, with Foxley manor in Twyford, which came to him by Alice his mother, daughter and heir of Robert Poppy, Esq.

Thomas Townsend, Esq., eldest son of Sir Robert, in 1558 presented the advowson of the church of Twyford, and in 1568 he passed this manor to Rowland Hayward. He was married June 27, 1558, to his first wife the Lady Elizabeth Style, daughter of George Periente, gentleman, of Digswell, co. Hertford, and widow of Sir Humphry Styles, of Langly, sheriff of Kent, 1543, and one of the esquires of King Henry VIII. He was afterwards lord of the manors of Hethill, Pennes, Stanfield Hall, Carlton Curson, Carlton Peveral, and held interest in other manors and the advowson of the church of Bracon-Ash. He acknowledged the receipt of the Herring Pyes of the sheriff of Norwich, Sept. 4, 1576, and the year following Het-hill-Green was divided between him and that city. On Aug. 16, 1578, he entertained Queen Elizabeth at Bracon-Ash Hall, where she dined while on her progress through Norfolk to Norwich, and the Lady Elizabeth Style his wife was afterwards the recipient of a beautiful gilt bowl from her majesty on account of the great hospitality shown her while at Bracon-Ash. By this lady he had several children, but all died young except Henry, who was baptized "ye last of May 1568." The lady Elizabeth Style was buried June 30, 1580.

Thomas Townsend married for 2d wife, 1581–2, Anne daughter of Henry D'Oyly, Esq., of Pond-Hall, Hadleigh, co. Suffolk, and of Shottisham, Norwich, co. Norfolk. By this lady, who was many years his junior, he had several children, and all died young except Alice, baptized May 12, 1583, and Mary, baptized Nov. 7, 1588, living unmarried 1624. In 1585 his father-in-law Henry D'Oyly levied a fine of Pond-Hall, Suffolk, and Shottisham, Norfolk, and all other of his estate to him in trust for the benefit of his D'Oyly children. He is often spoken of in connection with his own and the D'Oyly estates, and seems to have been quite a man of business, leading the life of a country esquire.

His daughter Alice married Ambrose Clyve, Esq., of Styche in Shropshire, and by him was progenitrix of the Lord Clive and Earl Powis. He died at Bracon-Ash, and was buried June 12, 1591, and a special livery dated Westminster, Nov. 25, of the same year, Henry Townsend, Esq., at that time 23 years of age, was proved his son and heir. After the decease of Thomas Townsend, his wife Anne D'Oyly married a Mr. Wilmott, of Staffordshire. She survived him also, and wedded thirdly, in or before 1597, Sir Robert Needham, of Shenton, co. Salop, knt., who in 1625 was created viscount Kilmorey in the kingdom of Ireland.

Henry Townsend, Esq., son of the aforesaid Thomas by first wife Elizabeth Periente (Lady Style), who was the only sister of Mary Periente, second wife of William Clopton (son of John Clopton, and grandson of Sir William Clopton of Kentwell and Long Melford, co. Suffolk, by his first wife Joan, daughter of William Marrow, of London), who had sons George Clopton, Thomas Clopton, and Townsend Clopton. Thomas Clopton, son and heir of the aforesaid William Clopton, by wife Mary Waldergrave, had Sir William Clopton, who by wife Anne, daughter of Sir Thomas Barnardiston, was father of Anne Clopton, sole heir to the knightly family of Clopton of Kentwell Hall, co. Suffolk, and wife of Sir Symond D'Ewes, Bart.

The aforesaid Sir William Clopton by second wife Thomasine, eldest daughter of Thomas Knevets, was father of Richard Clopton of Groton, co. Suffolk, whose son William Clopton, by wife Margery daughter of Edmund Waldegrave, was father of William Clopton, who married Alice daughter of Edmund D'Oyly, brother of Anne D'Oyly, second wife of Thomas Townsend, Esq., father of the said Henry Townsend, who by first wife Margeret Forthe, daughter of Robert Forthe, was cousin of Mary Forthe first wife of John Winthrop, Esq., governor of New-England, who married for his second wife Thomasine Clopton, sister of the aforesaid William Clopton of Groton.

Henry Townsend and Margaret Forthe were married 1589–90, and the said Margaret was buried at Bracon-Ash, June 23, 1596. They had:—

i. Robert, bapt. June 8, 1591.
ii. Arthur, " Nov. 16, 1593, who died young.
iii. Thomas, " Jan. 8, 1594–5.
iv. Elizabeth.

By his second wife Anne, daughter and one of the heirs of Berthram Calthorpe, counsellor of the Middle Temple, London, and of Antringham and Ormsby, co. Norfolk, he had it is supposed no issue, as his will which is quite lengthy speaks of none by her, and it gives an outline history of the past 25 years of his life, a portion of which he appears to have spent at Gedding near Edwardston and Groton, co. Suffolk. Family tradition informs us, and we have sufficient evidence from this will and otherwise to prove that the estates of Henry Townsend were encumbered before the death of his father, and he sold Bracon-Ash to Sir Edmund Riche in 1599. In this will, dated Sept. 10, 1624, and proved Aug. 29, 1625, he appoints his well beloved William Payne, of Nowton, co. Suffolk, gentleman, his executor, and leaves his now wife Anne an annual anuity of £40 lawful money, towards her maintenance during her life.

To son Robert £400, to be paid him by sums of £100 a year. To his other son Thomas £300, to be paid him in sums of £50 a year; and to his daughter Elizabeth £300, to be paid her in sums of £50 a year. He leaves numerous bequests to others, and the residue of all his goods, chattels, ready money and debts of whatever kind and nature they be, he wholly and freely gives to his executor towards his charges, and for bringing his body decently to the earth. This Henry Townsend or Townshend, for we find his name spelt in both ways, was buried at Gedding, co. Suffolk, Aug. 22, 1625, and the original copy of his will was delivered to his executor, Aug. 5, 1626.

His third son Thomas was born at Bracon-Ash, and after the sale of the Norfolk estates he resided at Gedding, co. Suffolk, until his majority, when he moved to the neighborhood of London, where his uncle Thomas Forthe resided, who was son and heir of Robert Forthe, D.C.L. and LL.D., deceased, whose funeral was solemnized at St. Gregory's Church, near St. Paul's, with heraldic ceremonies, Oct. 13, 1595; he having died the 3d of the same, seized of the manor of Levehurst in Lambert, and of Palmer alias Tylehurst in Croyden, both near Southwark, co. Surry. Tradition and family records inform us that Thomas Townsend came from London, and settled at Lynn, in the colony of Massachusetts Bay, about 1635, and as John Winthrop, his cousin, was governor of this colony, it is probable that his puritanical inclination caused him to select a home in New-England where many of his kinsmen and neighbors had emigrated a few years before.[1] His wife was Mary, probably a sister of John Newgate or Newdigate, a merchant of Boston, who was born in Southwark, near London bridge, in 1590, and who in his will dated May 8, 1665, calls him brother-in-law, and leaves him a legacy of £10, to be paid him within one year after his decease.

1. Thomas Townsend was granted 60 acres of land with Lord Brook and others by the town of Lynn, in 1638, and he owned other lands near the iron works and at Rumney Marsh, Chelsea. His town-house and lot of 7 acres was on the south side the mill street near the common, and next the Mansfield property, and it was sold by his grandson Thomas, son of Andrew, to Daniel Mansfield, of Lynn, July 25, 1702.

He was made a freeman March 14, 1639, calls himself husbandman in his well-drawn deeds of gift to his children, and from his serving the public on more than one occasion, seems to have been an important citizen, and from papers bearing his name, and his beautiful autograph, now to be seen in the secretary of state's office in Boston, we have sufficient evidence of his ability. He died in Lynn, Dec. 22, 1677, aged 83, and his wife Mary died of camp-fever, probably at the house of her son Andrew, Feb. 28, 1692. They had:—

2. i. Thomas, born about 1637.
3. ii. Samuel, b. in Lynn about 1638.
4. iii. John, b. in Lynn about 1640.
5. iv. Andrew, b. in Lynn about 1642.
   v. Elizabeth, b. in Lynn about 1644; m. Samuel Mansfield, of Lynn, Dec. 22, 1669.

[1] A mass of circumstantial evidence to be embodied in a memorial volume when published has satisfied several expert genealogists and myself that Thomas Townsend son of Henry and Margaret was identical with the settler at Lynn.

2. THOMAS[2] (Thomas[1]), born, supposed in Lynn, where he lived and died. He married probably Mary, daughter of Samuel Davis, was member of second church, Boston, Oct. 30, 1681, and freeman 1683. He is left a legacy by his father, in deed of gift to his brother Andrew, March 24, 1694–5, and his will was proved July 1, 1700: leaves wife his property, but if she marries again it goes to his children. Appoints his wife executrix. They had:—

i. JOSEPH, born 23 10th mo. 1665.
ii. THOMAS, " Dec. 10, 1667.
iii. SUSANNAH, b. Nov. 5, 1772.

vi. NATHAN, b. July 5, 1677.
vii. PRISCILLA, b. Sept. 20, 1679.
viii. ELISHA, b. Sept. 9, 1680; d. Oct. 1, 1693.
ix. BENJAMIN, b. Jan. 10, 1682.
x. HEZEKIAH, b. April 12, 1685.
xi. TIMOTHY, b. April 25, 1688.
xii. JOSIAH, b. May 8, 1690; d. Sept. 28, 1695.
xiii. THOMAS, b. Oct. 1692.

3. SAMUEL[2] (Thomas[1]), born in Lynn, and settled at Rumney Marsh, or Chelsea, Mass., where he held several important offices. Married Abigail daughter of Samuel Davis, who leaves her a legacy. He was executor for his son Jeremiah's estate, which was proved Nov. 19, 1690. He was also executor for his brother Andrew's estate, which inventory was taken March 10, 1692–3, and was appointed guardian for his children, Abigail and David. He lived and died in Chelsea, and his gravestone is still to be seen in the old burying ground, bearing date Dec. 21, 1704. His wife died Jan. 2, 1728, aged 87. They had:—

i. JEREMIAH, b. 1660; d. Sept. 6, 1690.
ii. SAMUEL, b. 1662; d. Nov. 18, 1723; m. 1st wife Elizabeth, d. Nov. 20, 1699; 2d wife Eliz. Bucknam.

vii. ELIAS, b. March 2, 1678; d. Nov. 1738; m. Rebecca.
viii. ABRAHAM, b. May 20, 1682; d. May 20, 1746; m. Mary Eustice, Nov. 30, 1708, d. Jan. 28, 1718; 2d wife Judith.
6. ix. ISAAC, twin brother of Abraham, b. May 20, 1682; d. Jan. 16, 1718; m. Anne Ranger, July 6, 1703, d. Nov. 8, 1726, aged 50.

4. JOHN[2] (Thomas[1]), born in Lynn, and settled in Reading, Mass.; freeman May 8, 1678. His father gave him a farm of 60 acres in the town of Lynn, Nov. 23, 1668, and he bought of Edward Taylor lands in Reading, June 1, 1675. His will is dated Jan. 15, 1722–3, and he is called of Lynn in the co. of Essex, yeoman; appoints son Daniel executor.

First wife Sarah, daughter of John Pearson, married March 27, 1668. She died July 9, 1689. He died Dec. 14, 1726–7. They had:

i. GEORGE, probably his son, m. Rebecca.
ii. SARAH, b. Sept. 4, 1673; m. Deacon Brown Emerson.
iii. JOHN, b. March 17, 1675; d. 1757; m. Sarah Boutwell, 1698, b. 1677.
iv. MARY, b. Sept. 2, 1677; d. July 6, 1717.

vi. ELIZABETH, b. Nov. 9, 1683; m. Jonathan Nichols, April 11, 1753.
vii. NOAH, b. Aug. 30, 1686; d. Dec. 15, 1713.
viii. EBENEZER, b. July 3, 1689.

Second wife Mehitable, probably daughter of Nicholas Brown, married April 23, 1690, and died July, 1735. They had:

ix. Thomas, b. Oct. 7, 1692; d. June 1, 1716; m.
x. Mehitable, b. April 28, 1695; d. Sept. 1, 1695; m.
xi. Martha, b. Aug. 14, 1697; d. May 27, 1729; m. [1726.
xii. Daniel, b. April 1, 1700; d. Oct. 10, 1761; m. Lydia Sawyer, Oct. 18,

5. Andrew[2] (Thomas[1]), born in Lynn; made freeman April 18, 1691. His father gave him in deed of gift, dated June 1, 1674, 2 acres of land, part of his town lot, south side the Mill street near the commons in Lynn. Was a soldier in Captain Gardner's company, and was wounded in the great battle fought with the Narragansett Indians in Rhode Island, Dec. 19, 1675, and his children were afterward granted lands in Worcester county, Mass. He married, July 18, 1678, Abigail, daughter of John Collins of Lynn. They both died of camp fever, he on the 10th of Feb. 1692, she on the 22d of Feb. following. They had:

i. Thomas, b. June 12, 1679; d.
ii. Abigail, b. Jan. 23, 1680; d. Feb. 22, 1692.
iii. Elizabeth, b. May 21, 1683; d.
iv. Mary, b. July 7, 1685; d. Dec. 10, 1685.
v. Andrew, b. Feb. 13, 1686; d. Dec. 1688.
vii. Daniel, b. Dec. 1688; married, had children, settled in Charleston, South Carolina.
viii. David, b. April 6, 1691; m. Mabel Shippie.

6. Isaac[3] (Samuel,[2] Thomas[1]), born in Chelsea and settled in Boston. He bought, April 20, 1716, lands on Winter Street, of Henry Bridgman, joining to Col. Penn Townsend's on N. W. and N. E. He was killed at a fire in Boston, Jan. 16, 1717–18, aged 37. Married, July 6, 1703, Anne, daughter of Edmund Ranger. She died Nov. 8, 1726, aged 50. They had:

i. Isaac, b. March 25, 1704; d. April 26, 1785, in Boston.
ii. Ebenezer, b. Jan. 2, 1705; d. Sept. 28, 1708, in Boston.
7. iii. Jeremiah, b. Nov. 12, 1711; d. Jan. 6, 1803, in New-Haven.

v. Ebenezer, b. June 22, 1716; d. Dec. 3, 1775, in New-Haven; m. Elizabeth Larman, Nov. 23, 1738, d. Aug. 30, 1784.

7. Jeremiah[4] (Isaac,[3] Samuel,[2] Thomas[1]), born in Boston, Mass. Moved with his family and brother Ebenezer to New-Haven, Conn., where they settled May 20, 1739. He bought lands the year before (March 10, 1738) of Mindwell Jones in the Governor's Quarters for £16; also buys Dec. 10, 1739, of Ebenezer Mix, one-half of house and lot, one acre more or less, on the N. W. corner of the Green or Market Place. He again buys, April 6, 1742, the other half for £260. Also house and land of Elizabeth Perkins. His first wife was Hannah, daughter of John Kneeland or Cleland of Boston, Mass.; married April 16, 1734. She died July 30, 1744, aged 33. Married second wife, Rebecca Parkman, widow of Captain Coit of Boston (who was lost on a voyage from the West Indies), Oct. 9, 1746. She died in New-Haven, Jan. 15, 1788, aged 67.

Mr. Townsend left to his descendants a record of his family, together with a tradition which has been of the greatest assistance to the compiler of this genealogy. He died in New-Haven, Jan. 6, 1803. His children by first wife were:

i. Jeremiah, b. Jan. 20, 1734[?]; d. Sept. 24, 1794, in New-Haven; m. Abigail Woodbridge, d. May 20, 1768, aged 31.
ii. Isaac, b. July 18, 1735; d. Nov. 28, 1736, in New-Haven.
8. iii. Isaac, b. Oct. 13, 1737; d. June, 1818, in New-Haven; m. Elizabeth Hitchcock.

iv. JOHN, b. July 22, 1739; d. Nov. 30, 1739, in New-Haven.
v. SAMUEL, b. Oct. 14, 1740; d. Aug. 29, 1795, in East-Haven; m. Sarah Treadway, d. Feb. 7, 1801, aged 64.
vi. HANNAH, b. Nov. 29, 1742; d. May 31, 1773, in New-Haven.

His children by second wife, Rebecca (Parkman) Coit, were:

vii. NATHANIEL, b. Oct. 10, 1747; d. 1818, in Norwich, Conn.; m. Hannah Hughes, d. 1802, aged 42.
viii. JOHN, b. Aug. 1, 1747[?]; d. Feb. 1833, in New-Haven, Conn.; m. Martha Beardsley, d. Nov. 7, 1749[?], aged 45.
ix. REBECCA, b. Dec. 14, 1751; d. 1800.
x. WILLIAM, b. Dec. 7, 1753; d.
xi. TIMOTHY, b. Nov. 10, 1755; d. Feb. 15, 1832; m. Hannah Alling.

8. ISAAC[5] (Jeremiah,[4] Isaac,[3] Samuel,[2] Thomas[1]), born in Boston, came a child to New-Haven with his parents. Commenced business in New-Haven, but moved to Stratford, Conn., about 1763, where he owned lands, and most of his children were born. About 1783 he removed to New-Haven, where he lived the remainder of his life. His wife was Elizabeth, daughter of Jacob and Abigail (Butler) Hitchcock, of Springfield, Mass., born Aug. 5, 1741, died Nov. 9, 1792. They had:

i. ELIZABETH, b. Nov. 1, 1762; d. Jan. 15, 1842, unmarried.
9. ii. ISAAC, b. Feb. 4, 1765; d. Nov. 5, 1841; m. Rhoda Atwater.

v. ABIGAIL, b. Sept. 4, 1771; d. May 30, 1814, unmarried.
vi. MARY, b. Jan. 29, 1774; d. Dec. 26, 1788, unmarried.
vii. SARAH, b. 1776; d. May 1, 1844; m. Joel Atwater. viii. ANNE, b. May 20, 1779; d. Nov. 18, 1861, unmarried.
ix. WILLIAM, b. May 12, 1781; d. July 28, 1849; m. Maria Lampson.

9. ISAAC[6] (Isaac,[5] Jeremiah,[4] Isaac,[3] Samuel,[2] Thomas[1]), born in Stratford, Conn. In the year 1781, when but 16 years of age, he joined a Connecticut regiment under the command of Col. Meigs, and served until the close of the war of the revolution. He commenced business as a merchant in New-Haven, 1788–9, and was largely interested in mercantile pursuits by land and sea. Was interested in landed estates in Virginia, Vermont, Connecticut and Ohio. In the latter state he was joint owner with his brothers of the town of Townsend, Huron co. During the last war with England he was with his son Isaac Henry (late professor of law in Yale College) taken prisoner by one of the enemy's armed vessels cruising in Long Island sound, while on the passage to New-Haven from New-York on board the packet sloop "Susan," Oct. 9, 1814. They were taken to Plum Island and detained on H. B. Majesty's ship "Pomone," Captain Carteret, until ransomed.

Mr. Townsend retired from active business soon after the war on an ample fortune, and his business was successfully carried on by his sons. He married Rhoda, daughter of David and Elizabeth (Bassett) Atwater, April 11, 1795. She was born in Hamden, Conn., May 13, 1766, and died in New-Haven, April 10, 1840, aged 74 years. They had:

10. i. WILLIAM KNEELAND, b. June 3, 1796; d. Sept. 23, 1849.
ii. ELIZABETH MARY, b. Feb. 18, 1798; m. Isaac Beers, Nov. 26, 1821.
iii. ISAAC ATWATER, b. Dec. 2, 1799; d. June, 1803.
iv. CHARLES HENRY, b. June 26, 1801; d. July 1, 1803.
v. ISAAC HENRY, b. April 25, 1803; d. June 11, 1847.
vi. JANE MARIE, b. May 1, 1805; d. Dec. 15, 1814.
vii. GEORGE ATWATER, b. Oct. 28, 1807; m. first wife, Julliet Sanford; second wife, Mildred Parker.
viii. EMILY AUGUSTA, b. Sept. 28, 1810; m. David Sanford, of Newtown, Conn., Oct. 5, 1831.

10. William Kneeland[7] (Isaac,[6] Isaac,[5] Jeremiah,[4] Isaac,[3] Samuel,[2] Thomas[1]), born in New-Haven, educated at the Hopkins Grammar School, and commenced life as a merchant.—Was lieutenant of 2d company governor's horse guards of the State of Connecticut—justice of the peace and representative for the town of East-Haven to the Connecticut state assembly. About 1830, on account of ill health he retired from business and made his residence at Bayridge, Raynham, in the town of East Haven, a property which he bought of his father and uncle some time before, which was once a part of the original grant by the New-Haven colony to William Tuttle, the maternal ancestor of his wife Eliza Ann eldest daughter of Hervey and Nancy (Bradley) Mulford, whom he married Dec. 3, 1820, and was born in New-Haven, Nov. 26, 1798, and now living, 1874. This lady's lineage has been traced back to more than fifty of the first settlers of New-England, among them John Howland and John Tilly pilgrim fathers of the "Mayflower," 1620. They had:—

11. i. William Isaac, b. Nov. 28, 1822.
12. ii. James Mulford, b. Jan. 20, 1825.
iii. George Henry, b. in New-Haven, Dec. 28, 1826; married Oct. 22, 1862, Mary Gertrude, daughter of James and Margaret (Snedecker) Buckelew, of Jamesburg, N. J., where she was born Nov. 12, 1838.
iv. Frederick Atwater, b. in New-Haven, March 23, 1829.
v. Robert Raikes, b. in East Haven, Dec. 22, 1831; d. June 30, 1857; m. Mar. 21, 1853, Almira N., dau. of Hezekiah and Nancy (Landfair) Tuttle, of Fair Haven, Conn., where she was b. Oct. 17, 1833.
13. vi. Charles Hervey, b. Nov. 26, 1833.
vii. Timothy Beers, b. Nov. 21, 1835.
14. viii. Edward Howard, b. April 8, 1840.
ix. Eliza Mulford, b. Dec. 3, 1842, in East Haven; married Oct. 13, 1863, Charles Augustus Lindsley, of New-York.

11. William Isaac[8] (William K.,[7] Isaac,[6] Isaac,[5] Jeremiah,[4] Isaac,[3] Samuel,[2] Thomas[1]), born in New-Haven; married April 22, 1850, Elizabeth B., daughter of Col. Mason A. and Elizabeth (Bradley) Durand, of New-Haven, where she was born April 7, 1828. They had:—

i. Elizabeth Durand, b. Feb. 11, 1851; d. May 27, 1857.

12. James Mulford[8] (William K.,[7] Isaac,[6] Isaac,[5] Jeremiah,[4] Isaac,[3] Samuel,[2] Thomas[1]), born in New-Haven; married Sept. 1, 1847, Maria Theresa daughter of Epaphras and Sarah (Hall) Clark, of Middletown, Conn., where she was born Oct. 10, 1828. They had:—

i. William Kneeland, b. June 12, 1848; married July 1, 1874, Mary L., daughter of Winston J. and Mary (Leavenworth) Trowbridge, of New-Haven, Conn. She was born in Barbadoes, May 6, 1857.
ii. James Mulford, b. May 26, 1852.

13. Charles Hervey[8] (William K.,[7] Isaac,[6] Isaac,[5] Jeremiah,[4] Isaac,[3] Samuel,[2] Thomas[1]), born in East-Haven; married April 26, 1871, Mary Ann, daughter of Henry and Elizabeth (Prescott) Hotchkiss, of New-Haven, where she was born Dec. 5, 1839. They had:—

i. Henry Hotchkiss Townshend, born in New-Haven Sept. 30, 1874.

14. Edward Howard[8] (William K.,[7] Isaac,[6] Isaac,[5] Jeremiah,[4] Isaac,[3] Samuel,[2] Thomas[1]), born in East Haven; married April 28, 1869, Alice Eliza, daughter of Caleb S. and Mary (Foster) Maltby, of New-Haven, Conn. She was born April 4, 1843, in Triadelphia, Va. They had:—

i. Maud, b. in New-Haven, June 21, 1871; died July 25, 1871.

Colonial history mentions several of the name who emigrated from England to the American colonies in the 17th century, and as many of their descendants now claim the Norfolk family as the "parent stem," the compiler cannot close this attempt to record his own family without making mention of them. The pioneers of their several families were:—Richard, of James-city, Virginia, 1620; William, of Boston, Mass., 1634; Martin, of Watertown, Mass., 1644; John Henry and Richard (brothers), of New-England and New-York, 1640–50; Richard, of Philadelphia, 1682; Joseph, of Philadelphia, 1712.

The exact relationship these Townsends bore to each other has not yet been determined, but enough has been discovered by late researches in England to suggest that they were of the same family. A thorough search will perhaps connect all the American pioneers with the chief family of Raynham, Norfolkshire.

Tracy, Mason.—In all accounts, for about forty-five years, of Lieut. Thomas Tracy of Norwich, Conn., the progenitor in America of a large family, it is positively asserted that his first wife was Mary, the widow of Edward Mason, whom he married in Wethersfield, Conn., in 1640 or '41.

The statement has been so long unquestioned and accepted as a fact by all writers about the Tracy family that it will be necessary to convince people of the falsity of the account by quoting the authorities in detail which show that Mary Mason lived and died in Wethersfield as the Widow Mason.

The First Book of the Land Records of Wethersfield, Conn., shows that "The Widow Mason," as she is usually called in the "Boundary Record," died a widow between Mar. 22, 1650, and Feb. 20, 1659. (See pages 259 [1640]; 207, 208, 216, 218, 189, 199, 147 [1641]; 121, 124 [1643]; 73, 84 [1644]; 85 [1645]; 151 [1646]; 43, 153, 189 [1647]; 170 [1650]*; 190 [1659]†.)

Edward Mason, an early settler in Wethersfield, Conn., was a mechanic, and died early; the date is not recorded. The inventory of his estate was exhibited at Hartford, Sept. 4, 1640, but the distribution is not recorded, and there is no mention in the Probate Records of a widow or children. After his decease, there was recorded to him in the First Book of Land Records of Wethersfield, page 230, ten pieces of land, with the boundaries. Some of his lands are identified as later belonging to "the Widow Mason," and are the only records indicating that he left a widow. She has no probate record. So far as the writer knows, the record of their marriage has not been discovered, and nothing is known of her previous history. They may have been married before coming to America.

Her first name is never mentioned in the many references to her in the land boundaries, neither is she in any instance called "the Widow of Edward Mason." She is usually called "the Widow Mason"; sometimes simply "Widow Mason." The prefix "the" is interpreted to mean she was the only "Widow Mason" living in the town during her period.

The first time the names of Thomas Tracy and "the Widow Mason" were mentioned together in print was in a query inserted by Judge Frederick Palmer Tracy, then of San Francisco, Cal., in vol. 2, page 91, of "The Historical Magazine and Notes and Queries Concerning the Antiquities, History and Biography of America," New York, 1858.

Any one who will furnish any information relating to Lieut. Thomas Tracy's first wife, the mother of all of his children, will gratify many thousands of his descendants, including the writer. Dwight Tracy, M.D., D.D.S.

* This record names "Widow Mason," and is dated "22th of March 1650."

† In this record, dated "Feb the 20th day 1659," mention is made of "the Widow Mason deceased."

THE TULLY FAMILY OF SAYBROOK, CT.

HISTORICAL AND GENEALOGICAL SKETCHES OF THE TULLY FAMILY, INCLUDING AN ACCOUNT OF THEIR FIRST SETTLEMENT IN AMERICA; COLLECTED FROM MANUSCRIPTS IN POSSESSION OF INDIVIDUALS BELONGING TO THE FAMILY.

[Communicated by Samuel H. Parsons, Esq., Member of the N. E. Historic, Genealogical Society.]

[It is stated in the following memoir, that "there were few in England of the name" of Tully, and from considerable investigation we are led to the same conclusion. We meet with Robert Tully, a monk, of the city of Gloucester, at a very early age. He belonged to the "famous church" of that city, "the great and stately tower" of which was built by Abbot Seabroke. "This is so neat and curious, that travellers have affirm'd it to be one of the best pieces of Architecture in England. Abbot Seabroke, the first designer of it, dying, left it to the care of Robert Tully, a Monk of this place; which is intimated in those verses written in black Letters, under the arch of the Tower in the Quire:

Hoc quod digestum specularis, opusque politum, Tullii hæc ex onere, Seabroke Abbate jubente.
This Fabrick which you see, exact and neat,
The Abbot charg'd Monk Tully make compleat."*

In the pedigree of Savile of Thornhill, mention is made of Elizabeth, daughter of Dr. Tully, married to John Savile, rector of Thornhill in Yorkshire. This was in the early part of the last century. And in the pedigree of Netterville of Ireland, it is noted that James Tully of Dunmore, M. D., married one of that family. We meet with several eminent authors of the name. Thomas, a native of Carlisle, educated at Queen's College, Oxford, flourished from 1642 to 1675. He was born 1620. George Tully, a relative of the preceding, according to Lempriere, was also of Queen's College; a publisher of a translation of Plutarch's Morals—of Miltiades's Life of Nepos, Cæsar by Suetonius, with notes, &c. He was born 1653.

In the Heraldic Dictionary we find only

Tully (Wetherall Abbey, co. Cumberland). Ar. on a chev. gu. three escallops or, in chief a lion pass. vert. Crest—A cupid with his bow and quiver, all ppr.

Tully (Ireland). Ar. on a chev. three escallops of the second. Crest—On a chapeau a serpent nowed in a loveknot, all ppr.]

It appears that the family originally belonged to the parish of Horley,† in the county of Surry, England, about twenty miles from London; and that the grandfather of him who first came into New England had three children, namely, John, William, and Martha, but neither his age, his marriage, or christian name is known.

The father of him who first came to New England was brother to the above named William and Martha, and married Sarah, the sister of John Fenner, the first of that name who came to Saybrook, the brother of Arthur and William Fenner, who settled in Providence, R. I.

The two last mentioned were the progenitors of the present Fenner

Family in Providence. It further appears that John Tully of the parish of Horley, who married Sarah Fenner and died while in England, had by her two children, namely, John and Sarah, the former of whom, as appears by the clergyman's certificate, was baptized Sept. 9th, 1638, and the latter, Sept. 27th, 1640.

In the year 1644, on the 11th June, John Tully, who died in England, made his will, leaving a widow Sarah, with her son John, five or six years of age, her daughter, about three or four, and herself about twenty-seven.

This John Tully of Horley, by his will, after making a donation to the poor of the parish, and after giving a legacy to his brother William, of fifty pounds sterling, to be raised from the rents of a certain piece of land in said parish known by the name of Featheridge, placed all his lands under the care of his brother and one George Kerrall as overseer, and ordered the rents of said lands to be put into his wife's hands till his daughter should come to the age of ten years; and after that the avails of the lands to continue in the overseers' hands till the rents should amount to fifty pounds, and then to return to his widow to be held and improved by her during her natural life; but in case she should die before the fifty pounds should be raised, he directed that said lands should continue in the overseers' hands for the purpose of educating his daughter. He then bestowed on his brother William a small gift, and another on his sister Martha, and a valuable present in personal estate on his son John, then about five or six years of age; after which he gave all his goods and chattels to his wife Sarah, his debts being first paid, and made his wife sole executrix, putting into her possession all his lands, houses, and other buildings, till his son should come of age. In the year 1646 or 1647, Sarah, the widow, with her two children, accompanied her two brothers, Arthur and William, to New England, and settled here. At this period, his son was in the ninth year of his age. At a proper time, one of the Fenners, in behalf of John Tully, made a voyage to England for the purpose of obtaining possession of his property, but by some means now unknown, was unsuccessful in effecting it; but neglecting to take his deeds, his uncle William and the other overseer denied his right, and in fact asserted that he was an impostor, and that they had ample proof of the death of the real heir. Therefore he was necessitated to return to America in order to procure testimonials of his descent, and possess himself of the writings of the estate. On reaching the house of his mother, who had not long before married Mr. Robert Say of Saybrook, he found the deeds, so essential to the case in question, cut into narrow slips and attached to a lace pillow; but with much difficulty the pieces were at last so nicely pasted together as to answer the purpose. When he reached England, having happily recovered the estate, he disposed of the same, which seems to have been very valuable, as the house had been used as a house of entertainment.

By one deed he sold to Peter and Anthony Leachford all that messuage or tenements, gardens, orchards and backsides, barns, stables, &c., thereto belonging, with that piece of land adjoining called Styfields, containing eight and one half acres, lying in said parish of Horley, for £120.

The recovery of the estate appears to have been about twenty years after his father's death.

In 1671, John Tully was married to Mary Beamont, daughter of William Beamont, a native of Carlisle, in the county of Cumberland, on the borders of Scotland, who came to Connecticut in the capacity of tailor to Sir Richard Saltonstall.

The mother of this Mary Beamont, it appears, was a Danforth, sister to him who was formerly deputy governor of Massachusetts. After this, John Tully settled at Potapaugh, in that part called Denison's Point, in the now second society of Saybrook, where his first four children were born. In February, 1680, he purchased of Robert Say, his father-in-law, a house and lot on the Town Plot, about three quarters of a mile westward of a nook of salt meadow, in which house he resided till the day of his death, which happened October 5, 1701.*

As he had not been bred a farmer, and had no relish for agriculture, he disposed of his property in lands, which it seems was very considerable, and almost wholly supported his family by teaching arithmetic, navigation, and astronomy. In addition to this, he annually furnished New England with almanacs, from 1681 to 1702,† the last of which was published in Boston, after his death. The duties attached to the office of Town Clerk were also discharged a long time by him, and from the ancient mode in which writings of this nature were executed, he probably made the business lucrative. So greatly superior was this man's education to most, if not all, of his cotemporaries in America, and so superstitious and ignorant were the common people in the country, that with them he was reputed a conjurer. This strange reputation, however, was acquired, as appears, merely by exercising what at the present day would be termed common sagacity. As an instance of this we have an account of an application from a person at Long Island respecting a child that was lost in the woods several months before by a party who were gathering wild fruit; and as it appeared on enquiry that no search had been made in a neighboring village of Indians, our ancestor directed the father to enquire there, which he accordingly did with success.

From papers now in possession of the family, it may with the greatest certainty be concluded that his established principles and practices were those of true Christianity.

Sarah, the sister of said John, it appears, married a Denison, soon after she came to this country, and from her, we are told, sprung all the present families of that name in the towns of Stonington and Saybrook. Their mother died soon after her son removed to the Town Plat.

The children of John Tully were as follows:

John, b. Dec. 3, 1672, lost at sea.
Sarah, b. April 9, 1674, d. Dec. 30, 1692.
William, b. Jan. 5, 1676, d. July 5, 1744.
Lydia, b. March 15, 1679, d. July 12, 1740.
Mary, b. Aug. 10, 1681.
Deborah, b. Feb. 24, 1683, d. March 13, 1721.
Lucy, b. March 22, 1686, d. April 5, 1692.
Hepsibah, b. Dec. 22, 1689, d. Oct. 26, 1767.

JOHN, the eldest, married in Boston and settled there, whence he sailed master of a vessel bound to England just before a remarkably severe storm, in which it was conjectured he was lost. It is now suspected, however, considering the little intercourse which in that day subsisted between the colonies, that the storm in which he was supposed to have perished shipwrecked him on our southern coast, where he probably made choice of another wife, for it is worthy of remark, that in the year 1775, an individual of the Tully family from Saybrook became acquainted at Roxbury, near Boston, with two young men of the same name from Pennsylvania, or one of the Southern States. They were mutually surprised on meeting, neither having known of any family in the country of their name except his own. Inquiries followed, and it appeared that the father of these young men had no brothers or sisters, but of their grandfather's name and place of nativity they were totally ignorant. The reason why it is disbelieved that there was another family is, that there were few in England of the name, and that none of them have ever been mentioned in the numerous catalogues of emigrants. It is, however, possible, that the ancestors of these young men had changed a name nearly similar into that of Tully, which had long been famous in the literary world.

Sarah, the first daughter, married John Smith of Haddam, and had one daughter, Lucy, who married Andrew Beach of Branford.

Mary married Daniel Clark of Haddam.

Deborah, fourth daughter, died unmarried in Saybrook.

Lucy died by scalding, about six years old.

Hepsibah, the youngest daughter, died in Saybrook, unmarried.

William, the second son, from whom sprung all the successive families in Saybrook, married Abigail Maverick of Boston, the daughter of a clergyman who left England in the time of persecution. The maiden name of Mr. Maverick's wife was Sherwood, and it appears that she came from Cornwall in company with a brother, who settled at Little Chaptauk, in Maryland. The children of the above named William and Abigail were ten, their births and deaths as follows:

John, b. March 18, 1702, d. Oct 29, 1776.
Margaret, b. May 23, 1704, d. Sept. 15, 1775.
Abigail, b. July 5, 1707, d. May 2, 1773.
William, b. June 13, 1709, d. March 18, 1775.
Lydia, b. July 24, 1711, d. July, 1792.
Elias, b. Jan. 17, 1713, d. July 19, 1773.
Sarah, b. Jan. 6, 1715, d. Oct. 19, 1764.
Mary, b. March 30, 1718, d. Sept. 17, 1739.
Samuel, b. April 29, 1721, d. Aug. 4, 1749.
Daniel, b. July 24, 1723, d. March 25, 1727.

Abigail, the mother of the last named family, was born Sept., 1675, and d. Dec. 9, 1750.

William, the husband of Abigail, was bred a farmer and shoemaker, which branches of business he carried on largely until his death.

Margaret, the first daughter, was once a promising child, but in early years disease deformed her person and impaired her intellect. She died in Saybrook, unmarried.

Abigail, the second daughter, married Captain John Lee of Lyme, 7th Oct., 1741, an attorney at law, and had two children, Eunice, b. 1743, and Andrew, b. 1745, the former of whom married Samuel Hall of Wallingford, and the latter having been liberally educated in Yale College and otherwise duly qualified, became a minister, and was ordained pastor of a church in Lisbon, Ct.

The above named Abigail afterwards became a widow, and married Deacon Caleb Chapman of Saybrook.

Lydia, third daughter, married Humphrey Pratt of Saybrook, by whom she had five children, namely, Humphrey, William, Lydia, Elias, and Andrew.

Sarah, fourth daughter, married Captain Joseph Buckingham of Saybrook, and had six children, namely, Sarah, Esther, Margaret, Louisa, Abigail, and Anna.

Mary died a single woman at Saybrook.

Samuel, fourth son, lived at Saybrook, unmarried. He was by occupation a farmer and shoemaker, and a person of such known and strict integrity and uprightness as to have become proverbial, being styled by his acquaintances the honest shoemaker.

Daniel, the fourth son, died in early childhood.

John, the eldest son and child, married Parnell Kirtland, by whom he had seven children:

Parnell, b. June 5, 1732, d. Sept. 1, 1796.

John, b. March 12, 1734, d. Oct. 22, 1760.

Anne, } twins, b. Nov. 24, 1736, d. Sept. 5, 1739.
Daniel, } d. Sept. 13, 1739.

Elizabeth, b. April 23, 1739.

Mary, b. July 21, 1742, d. Aug., 1793.

Sarah, b. June 25, 1745, d. Aug. 30, 1747.

The mother of the above children died July 26, 1748, aged 43 years and 8 months.

After this, John Tully married a second wife, the widow of John Russell of Branford, whose name before marriage was Mary Barker, by whom he had two children hereinafter named:

Maverick, born June 10, 1754, d. Sept. 26, 1754.

Sarah, b. Oct. 11, 1757.

Mary, the mother of the last named children, died at the birth of the last child.

Parnell, the first child, died a single woman, in Saybrook. She was carried off suddenly, with less than half an hour's illness, by Asthma.

Elizabeth, third daughter, married Ambrose Whittlesey of Saybrook, by whom she had nine children, namely, Mary, Ambrose, Elizabeth, Lydia, John Tully, Parnell, Sarah, Anne and Daniel, twins.

Mary, the fourth daughter, married Richard Dickinson of Saybrook, by whom she had eight children, namely, Richard, John, Charles, George, Mary, Samuel, William, and Anne.

Sarah, by the second wife, was married to Samuel, eldest son of Elias, brother of the father of said Sarah, whose family see hereafter.

John, the eldest son, followed the business of a merchant for a number of years, but taking the small pox in New York, died of it, by which event that branch of the family became extinct. John, the father of these children, was bred to the business of his father, but as he advanced in years, agriculture became more congenial to his taste, and he devoted to it all the time not employed in discharging the duties of Town Clerk, an office that he held a long time.

William, the next brother to said John, married two wives, the first of whom was Anne Beament of Saybrook, granddaughter to a brother of the same Mary Beament who married John Tully who came from England.

By this wife he had two children, 1, Abigail; 2, Anne, who died an infant one month old, five days after the mother expired, Aug. 5, 1748.

Said Abigail married Seth Pratt of Saybrook, by whom she had five children, Azariah, Daniel, Ezra, Elisha, and Anne.

The second wife of said William was Elizabeth Say of Lyme, to whom he was married August, 1750, and by whom he had the following children:

Anne, b. June, 1751.

William, b. Sept., 1752, d. aged 6 weeks.

Elizabeth, b. Nov. 6, 1753.

Hepsibah, b. Feb. 12, 1755.

Sarah, b. Jan. 5, 1757.

William, b. Feb. 10, 1759, d. Oct. 5, 1811.

Lydia, b. Feb. 5, 1761, d. Feb. 13, 1813.

The mother of these children died Sept. 8, 1793.

Elias, of second generation, married Mercy Pratt of the parish of Potapaugh in Saybrook, by whom he had four children, namely, Samuel, b. May 28, 1750, died Nov. 1, 1827; Mercy, b. April 14, 1755, d. Aug. 26, 1775; Charles, b. July 30, 1752; Eunice, b. Aug. 5, 1758.

Mercy, the mother of the last named children, died April 26, 1800, aged 85. The said Mercy was born July 27, O. S., 1715. Samuel, the last male of the third generation, married Sarah, the youngest daughter of his uncle, John Tully, on the 6th of February, 1783, and by her had the following children: Sarah, b. Dec. 8, 1783; Mary Barker, b. Feb. 12, 1786; John, b. Oct. 4, 1788; Samuel Maverick, b. Nov. 28, 1790; Eunice, b. Feb. 7, 1794; Sophia, b. June 6, 1798.

Elias, the second male of the third generation, married Azubah, the dau. of Deacon Samuel Kirtland, Jan. 23, 1783, and had issue, Polly, b. Oct. 21, 1783; Mercy, b. April 27, 1785; Betsey, b. March 18, 1787; Azubah, b. March 20, 1789; Lucia, b. May 15, 1791; Harriet, b. March 21, 1794; Lydia, b. June 27, 1796. The mother died June 27, 1796. The said Elias married Lydia, the daughter of Mr. Adonijah Buckingham, Dec. 24, 1797, and had issue, Jannet, b. Nov. 15, 1799; Anne, b. March 22, 1801.

William, third male of the third generation, married Eunice, second dau. of his uncle, March 13, 1785, and by her had a son, who, on the 6th of April, 1786, was baptized by the name of William, who, having been liberally educated in Yale College and otherwise duly qualified for the practice of physic, resided awhile in Milford, but in the winter of 1816, removed to Upper Middleton. He married Mary Potter, daughter of Elam Potter of Enfield, Ct.

Polly, the oldest daughter of Elias Tully, was married to Asa Kirtland, Jr., Feb. 18, 1807. Their son Asa, b. May 14, 1808, d. May 22; Henry, b. July 4, 1809; Azubah, b. Sept. 14, 1811; Elias Tully, b. Sept. 7, 1814; Frederick, b. July 31, 1817; Ozias H., b. Sept. 24, 1819; Mary Ann, b. Dec. 26, 1821; Asa, b. Jan. 9, 1825; Emeline, b. Sept. 14, 1827.

Mercy, the second daughter, was married to Dr. Asa Miller Holt of East Haddam, Sept., 1816, and had issue, Elizabeth, b. Nov. 25, d. Dec. 26; Theodore, b. May 13, 1818; Asa, b. Nov. 24, 1819; William, b. May, 1822; Harriet, b. March 29, 1824; John, b. July, 1826, d. Dec.

Betsey, third daughter, m. Ozias Holmes of East Haddam, Jan. 21, 1808; issue, Mary Ann, b. Feb. 4, 1809; Joseph, b. Dec. 17, 1817.

Lucia, fifth daughter, married George Henry Chapman of Saybrook, Nov., 1814; issue, George Henry, b. May 15, 1817; Harriet, b. April 15, 1819; Edward, b. Dec. 2, 1820; Clarissa, b. June 12, 1824; Robert, b. Jan. 12, 1824.

George Henry Chapman, above named, owns and resides upon the place which was originally owned and occupied by his ancestor, Robert Chapman, who was born in Hull, England, came to Boston in 1635, and to Saybrook in 1636. Said Robert married Ann Bliss, April 29, 1642.

Harriet, sixth daughter, married Ezra Kertland, Oct. 6, 1821; issue, Ellen, b. Feb. 18, 1823; Harriet, b. Feb. 6, 1826; Ann; Elizabeth; George.

Lydia, seventh daughter, married William Rufus Clark of Saybrook, April 3, 1822; issue, Azubah, b. Jan. 5, 1827; Mortimer, b. Jan. 12, 1829.

Azubah, fourth daughter, married Samuel S. Warner of Lyme, Nov. 17, 1825; issue, Mary, b. Aug. 23, 1826; Samuel, b. Dec. 17, 1827.

Lydia, wife of Elias Tully, died Sept. 19, 1825, aged 60. Mr. Elias Tully is now living in Saybrook, (August, 1848,) aged 96 years, "sana mens in sano corpore."

Ward, Hawley, Nichols, Hill.—Ebenezer Hawley, son of Joseph of Stratford, m. 1678, Esther, widow and only heir of William Ward, and d. 1681. His widow m. 3d, 1682, Ephraim, son of Isaac Nichols, of Stratford. Ephraim Nichols d. about 1690, and his widow Esther m. 4th, Eliphalet Hill.

The above is according to Savage.

According to the Fairfield records, Eliphalet Hill m. November, 1691, "Esther Nichols, who was the daughter of William Ward."

Again, "Ephraim Nichols, of Stratford, married with Esther Hawley, of Fairfield, on y^e^ 7th day of October, 1682."

At Fairfield is also recorded, under date of April 19, 1678, a marriage covenant between Ebenezer Hawley, son of Joseph, of Stratford, and "Hester Ward, daughter unto Mrs. Deborah Ward Tappin, of South Hampton." It begins: "Whereas there is a marriage intended," and refers to "the house and all the lands that the said Hester is now possessed of within the county of Fairfield."

It appears from this that William Ward's widow was Deborah instead of Esther, and that she married, before 1678, a Tappin of South Hampton, L. I. Savage places a Jonathan Tappin there in 1673. William Ward's inventory bears date, March 4, 1675–6. It is also evident that Esther or Hester Ward, who m. Hawley, Nichols, and Hill, was the daughter of William and Deborah Ward.

New-York, Sept. 1872.

The Identity of the Wife of Samuel Warner of Woodbury, Conn.:—James Alfred Warner's History of John Warner of "Increase" 1635, 1924-1927 and 1927-1943, states that Samuel Warner, born at Woodbury, Conn., the son of Thomas Warner (1722-1778) and Abigail Prentice, his wife, died 1 Nov. 1794, married Sarah Crittenden. In D.A.R. Lineage Book, vol. 52, p. 271, Mrs. Flora King Herrick, #51619, is listed as gr-granddaughter of Samuel Warner (b. 1756) and Sarah Crittenden, his wife, and gr-gr-granddaughter of Thomas Warner (1722-1778) and Abigail Prentice, d. 1794.

Mrs. Alice D. Halpine of New Milford, Conn., wrote me on 15 May 1952 that "from church and land records of Woodbury and Roxbury, Samuel Warner and wife Anna are mentioned. From probate records I dare say her name was Blakeslee." A file folder at the Syracuse Public Library contains an undated letter from one Harry F. Johnston to Miss M. Frances Ferris of the Genealogical and Local History Department. In it he states that the marriage of Sarah Crittenden and Samuel Warner took place in Middletown, Conn., 2 June 1768, and that the groom could not have been Samuel Warner, born 1756, son of Thomas and Abigail (Prentice) Warner of Woodbury, who would have been under twelve at the time of the marriage. He continues, without giving proof, "Samuel, son of Thomas, married Anna Blakeslee. They removed to Blooming Grove, Orange Co., N. Y., from Roxbury, Conn. Had five children: Samuel, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and Rebecca".

Roxbury Congregational Church and Society Records 1742-1830, vol. 3 (1799-1888), on file in the vault of the Woodbury Savings Bank at Woodbury, Conn., shows that Isaac, Jacob, and Rebekkah Warner were baptized at Roxbury on 12 Sept. 1802, their parents being listed as Samuel and Anna Warner.

Samuel Blakeley, father of Anna (Blakeley) Warner, had the following children: Ruth, Rebecca, Miriam, Anna (1) d. 1753, Israel, Anna (2) bapt. 15 Aug. 1756, Joseph, James, and Eleanor (William Cothren's History of Ancient Woodbury, Conn. (1854), p. 504). The year of Anna Blakeley's baptism coincides with that of the birth of her husband.

Conclusive proof of Anna's identity is found in the land records. By warranty deed dated 8 Aug. 1783, Samuel Warner and Anna Warner, his wife, of Woodbury, Litchfield Co., Conn., conveyed to Thomas Canfield "one certain piece of land lying in sd Woodbury, east of Jacks Brook". The land is identified as being a part of the holdings of Joseph Blakeley which upon his decease was distributed to his sister Anna Warner (Woodbury Land Records, vol. 24, p. 15).

WATERBURY ENTRIES IN THE STAMFORD EARMARK RECORDS.

By COLIN CAMPBELL of Belmont, Mass.

The cattle-brands of the western States have been referred to as the heraldry of the range; the earmarks used for livestock in the east, during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries, might be called the heraldry of the pasture. A definite system of marks was used, and set terms used to describe them. At this period, the brand on the animal indicated the town (see no. 11 below) while the earmarks denoted the owner.

Earmark records have been printed in Richard LeBaron Bowen's Early Rehoboth (1946), which gives, pp. 123-132, abstracts of marks entered in the Rehoboth copy of the General Laws of Plymouth Colony from 1697 to 1759. The Gloucester County (N. J.) earmark book, 1686 to 1728, with added entries to 1758, is printed in the (Second) Publication of the Gloucester County Historical Society (1930), while an article on "The Genealogical Significance of Cattle Earmarks", by Oliver D. Drake, has appeared in the Genealogical Magazine of New Jersey, 20 (1945):10-13.

The Stamford, Connecticut, earmark record, from which all entries for the name Waterbury are given below, consists of the following:

A. One sheet containing entries from 1681 to 1702, being page 156 of volume 2 of the Town Meeting records. There are no Waterbury marks entered on this sheet.

B. Thirty-nine sheets bound at the back of volume 1 of the town vital records, without page numbers, mostly in no sort of order, and upside down to each other, covering the period 1699-1783. Drawings of the marks, with the "ears" horizontal, appear from 1774 on, although in the Rehoboth and Gloucester County records drawings, with the "ears" upright, appear much earlier.

C. Thirteen numbered sheets bound upside down at the end of volume 2 of the vital records, with index, in chronological order; pages 1 and 2 are inserted between letters S and T of the index. This part of the record begins in 1783, and the entries continue until 1824, after which there is none until 1830, when two are recorded, and one each in 1832, 1834, 1843, and 1849, the last.

On page 196, volume 3 of the Town Meeting records there is an order, dated 6 Oct. 1845, that no swine, geese, horses, neat cattle or sheep be permitted to run at large on the highways and commons of the town during the ensuing year.

For identification of the owners of the marks, I have followed the best account in print of the Waterburys (for the first five generations), "Notes on the Waterbury Family of Stamford, Connecticut" by Miss Marion G. Banker, based on the researches of the late Mr. D. L. Jacobus, in The American Genealogist, 27 (1951):241-253, and, particularly for the descendants of Lieutenant David[2] Waterbury (John[1]), who died in 1706, my own researches in the Stamford and Darien records.

The Waterbury entries in the record follow:

1. John Waterbery his ear marke is a halfpen. under ye off eare & a half pen. [?] on ye foreside ye neare eare entred ye 23d of Aprill 1703 [Crossed out; volume 1.]

5. Jonathan Waterbery his eare marke is a slit downe ye off eare and a halfpeny on ye foreside ye neare eare: Entred ye: 25 day of June 1707 [Volume 1.]
[Jonathan[3] (Jonathan[2], John[1]) b. 9. Feb. 1685/6, will dated 12 Feb. 1761, proved 27 June 1765, eldest son. W. A. D. Eardeley's Connecticut Cemeteries (1914-1918), 2:26, gives, among inscriptions in the Noroton Cemetery (actually in Darien, although here described as in Stamford) that of Jonathan Waterbery who died 30 May 1765, aged 80 years. The name, and the year 1765, were all that was legible on the stone in 1949.]

6. Widow [blank] Waterbery & her Son Joseph Waterbery their eare marke is a slitt down ye top off eare [sic] & two halfpenies [?] on ye foreside ye neare eare: entred ye: 25th. of June 1707: [Crossed out; volume 1.]

For full details of her parentage and marriages see Paul W. Prindle, "Sarah Weed Waterbury Ferris Pond", in The American Genealogist, 28 (1952):96-98. As the wife of Benjamin Ferris, she was executrix of the estate of "mr David Waterbery Decest" on 31 March 1709 (deed recorded 27 Jan. 1731: Stamford Land Records, hereafter SLR, C:296). She was step-mother of No. 3 and mother of No. 9.]

[David[3] (David[2], John[1]), second son (eldest by second wife, no. 7) of Lieutenant David Waterbury; b. 9 Nov. 1701, will dated 13 June 1781 and proved 22 Aug. 1785: Stamford Probate Records, hereafter SPR, 6:865. In later life he was known as Captain David Waterbury. His father is said in the Encyclopedia of American Biography, 2:382, to have been b. in 1655, but no evidence of this, or of the dates of birth of the latter's brothers, given in American Family Antiquity by Albert Welles (1880-1881), 3:168 et seq., has been found. See No. 34.]

10. David Waterbery son to David [the words " & Waitstill" have been inserted above the line] Waterbery his Earmark is ye same yt was his fathers viz a slitt d . . . [concealed by binding] the top of ye off Ear & two halfpenys under ye near Eare Entred July ye 17th Day 1721 [Volume 1.]

[David[4] (David[3], John[2], John[1]), eldest son, b. in late 1707 or early 1708, later settled in Salem, N. Y. Administration on the estate of a David Waterbury was granted on 15 March 1760 (New York Wills, Liber 21½, p. 301). His father mar. Waitstill Green on 10 April 1707. See No. 4.]

11. John Waterbery Senr makes Entrey of a Brown mayre Eare-marked with a Stepp under each eare and Branded with Norwalk Brand on ye fore Sholder ye 18th day of Aprill: 1735

[This is entered in the Stamford Land Records, volume C, p. 48. Probably the same person as No. 3, John[3] (David[2], John[1]), eldest son, who d. 20 Jan. 1735/6.]

12. John Waterbery Enters for his Ear Mark ye same which was his fathers viz a Crop on ye off Ear and a halfpeny under ye Same Entred ye 5th Day of March 1735/6 [Crossed out three times; volume 1.]

[John[4] (John[3], David[2], John[1]), eldest son of no. 3, b. 21 Dec. 1718; he d. apparently before 7 July 1804, when John, Jr., Mary, Rebecca and Isaac Waterbury executed four mutual quit-claims concerning the estate of their deceased father (not named), being land in Middlesex Society (that part of Stamford which later became Darien), and referring to "the house of John Waterbury late of Stamford Decd." (SLR, P: 1, 25, 27, 44).

In Miss Banker's article, p. 249, it is stated that John, son of the deceased John Waterbury, chose his mother Susannah as guardian on 7 April 1741, and it is suggested that since the recorded son John was born in 1718 and would not have needed a guardian in 1741, he must have d. y. and that there was another son named John, perhaps b. in 1724. S. P. Mead's Abstracts of Probate Records for the District of Stamford, County of Fairfield, 1:30, states that John chose a guardian on 5 May 1741. But in fact it was Peter, a brother of John, who chose a guardian on the latter date, while another brother, David, chose a guardian on 7 April 1741; see Stamford Probate Records, hereafter SPR, 1:152. No record of John's choosing a guardian has been found in SPR, neither in the record volumes nor in the original documents on file concerning the estate of John Waterbury who d. in 1735/6. SPR, 1:121, contains an order for distribution of the elder John's estate dated 9 June 1748, in which John is clearly designated eldest son of the deceased. See Nos. 3, 19, and 40.]

13. Epenetus How Enters for his Brother Ebenezer How for his Ear Mark a Crop on ye Nere Ear and a Swallowfork in ye off Ear & a halfpeny the foreside ye Nere Ear Entered April ye 24th 1741 [Crossed out, with these words added in another hand: "Entered to Frederick Waterbury Dec. 26th 1814". Volume 1.]

[See No. 42 for details of this Frederick.]

14. Novembr ye 29th 1742 then Thomas Waterbery Made Entry to his Son Thomas Waterb^{y}. for his Ear Mark the same that was his Brother Ebenezer Seelys Late of Stamford now of Goshon [?] by his sd. Seelys order as he saith: viz: a slit in ye off Ear & a halfpeny ye underside ye Near Ear. [Volume 1.]

[The elder Thomas was apparently Thomas^{3} (John^{2}, John^{1}), third son, b. 12 May 1687, d. 18 July 1758; his mother Mary (surname not known) mar. second, ca. 1689 Jonas Seeley, who d. in 1703. The birth date of the younger Thomas (who was the eldest son of his father) is given in Miss Banker's article as 4 Aug. 17—, the year being "gone from the record". W. A. D. Eardeley's American Church Records, 7:34, gives the date of his birth as 4 Aug. 1731 and his death as 15 April 1790. Land of the heirs of Thomas Waterbery, deceased, is mentioned in SLR I:113, 8 April 1774. See no. 27.]

15. John Waterbery Enters for his Ear Mark the same that was his fathers viz Lieut. John Waterberys viz: a hapenny [sic] on ye upperside ye Near Ear and a halfpeny ye underside ye off Ear Entered June ye 7th 1744 [Volume 1.]

[John^{4} (John^{3}, John^{2}, John^{1}) second but eldest surviving son of No. 1, b. "say 1712", d. between 10 March 1774 and 15 March 1780. His bond, 3 July 1744, as administrator of the estate of John Waterbery, deceased, bears two seals showing what appears to be a shield, and on the shield a bend charged with three crescents. This is the only instance I know of, apart from modern assumptions, of a Waterbury's possibly having used a coat of arms (SPR: estate of John Waterbury, 1744). See No. 1.]

16. Benjamin Waterbery Makes Entry for his Ear Mark "the" [a—a crossed out] a Crop on ye Near Ear and two halfpenny [sic] under the off Ear and a hole in ye Near Ear Entered on April ye 25th 1745 and Now Enters ye above sd. Mark to his Son Benjamin Waterbery [Volume 1.]

[The elder Benjamin was Benjamin^{3} (Jonathan^{2}, John^{1}) b. 12 Sept. 1694, d. in 1776, by 11 Sept., third son; his eldest son Benjamin was b. 26 Feb. 1729. According to Henry S. Gorham, Bates, Selleck and Allied Families (1938), p. 90, the younger Benjamin d. by 1810, perhaps on 2 April 1808. See No. 8.]

17. David B [blotted out] Nathaniel Waterbery Enters for his Ear Mark the same that was Entred to David Brow [sic] by his sd. Brows [?Brown's] allowance viz a Crop on the near Ear and a halfpeny the underside the off Ear Entered [blot] 20th day of May 1746 [Volume 1.]

[Nathaniel^{4} (John^{3}, John^{2}, John^{1}) b. 2 May 1717, d. by 24 Sept. 1778. In a cemetery near the southern end of Hoyt Street, Darien, on the east side of the road, near Edmond Street, there was in 1949 the tombstone of Nathaniel Waterbery, who d. 8 Dec. 1777, aged 61 years. See No. 33.]

18. Nathaniel Waterbery Enter [sic] for his daughter Abigail Waterbery for her Ear Mark 2 Crops one on Each Ear & a halfpeny ye foreside the Near Ear & a halfpenny under ye off Ear Entered May ye 16th 1746 [Volume 1.]

[Abigail^{5} (Nathaniel^{4}, John^{3}, John^{2}, John^{1}), eldest daughter, b. 15 April 1746, mar. 23 Nov. 1769 Ezra Seymour of New Canaan. Abigail Seymore, a daughter of the deceased, is mentioned in the distribution of the estate of Mr. Nathaniel Waterbury, 28 April 1780 (SPR, 6:285-6). See Nos. 32 and 38.]

19. Entered to John Waterbery of Noroton for his Ear Mark a Crop on the off Ear & a halfpeny the underside same Entered April ye 10th 1747 it Being the Same that was his fathers [Crossed out; volume 1.]

[This mark is the same as No. 12 (see also Nos. 3 and 40), entered 5 March 1735/6. There seems to be no explanation of why it was entered again at this time. The estate of John Waterbery deceased (who d. 20 Jan. 1735/6) was ordered distributed on 9 June 1748 (SPR, 1:121).]

20. Samuel Waterbery Enters for his Mark ye same that was his fathers vizt 2 halfpenys ye foreside ye Near Ear and a slit in ye off Ear Entered January ye 24th 1754. [Volume 1.]

[Samuel[4] (Joseph[3], Jonathan[2], John[1]) second but eldest surviving son, b. 31 Jan. 1724/5, d. apparently in 1772, by 6 Oct. Land of the heirs of Samuel Waterbery is mentioned on 1 April 1778 (SLR, I:333). See Nos. 6, 31, and 39.]

21. Jonathan Waterbery Jur. Enters for his Ear Mark a slit in ye Near [ear] and two slitts in ye off Ear Entered June ye 3d. 1754 [Volume 1.]

[Jonathan[4] (Jonathan[3], Jonathan[2], John[1]), eldest son, b. 5 Nov. 1714, d. by 27 Feb. 1787. SLR, S:561, is a conveyance to Sally widow of Jonathan Waterbury and to the children and heirs of Jonathan, viz., Sarah H. Waterbury, Abigail Lounsbury, Betsy, Nathaniel, Jonathan, Amos H., Nancy, Cornelia, Apolos, Sylvester and Charles Waterbury, 12 April 1784.]

22. Isaac Waterbery Enters for his Ear Mark a halfpenny on ye foreside ye off Ear & a hole in ye Near Ear Entered March the 21th [sic] 1757. [Volume 1.]

[Isaac[4] (John[3], David[2], John[1]), born "probably by 1728", mar. 4 Feb. 1750/51 Thankful Scofield, who d. on 27 May 1808, aged 76 years and three months (Scofieldtown cemetery, Stamford: information from Mr. H. R. Fletcher). The unnamed "son of the widow of Isaac Waterbury" was bapt. on 4 Sept. 1788 (S. P. Mead, Abstracts of Church Records of Stamford, p. 74, Congregational Church of Stamford).]

23. David Waterbery ye 4th Son to Captain David Waterbery Enters for his Ear Mark a hole in Each Ear and a Crop on ye near Ear Entered December ye 22nd 1757 [Volume 1.]

[Probably David[4] (Captain David[3], David[2], John[1]) b. 14 May 1728, second but eldest surviving son. He d. in 1812, by 18 May. Possibly the same person as No. 34, who recorded in 1785 the same mark as that recorded for David son of "Liett" David in the 1720's (No. 9).]

24. Samuel Waterbery Enters for his Ear Mark ye same that was his fathers vizt a hole in ye near Ear & a halfpeny ye underside the off Ear Entered March ye 13th 1759. [Crossed out; volume 1.]

[Samuel[4] (Thomas[3], John[2], John[1]), second son (eldest by second wife) b. 18 Nov. 1732, supposed to have d. by 18 May 1781. A deed dated 1 April 1778 mentions land of the heirs of the deceased Samuel Waterbury (SLR, I:333). See Nos. 2, 36.]

25. Nathaniel Waterbery Junr. Enters for his Ear Mark the Same that was his Decd. Father Jonth. Waterberys Vizt. a halfpenny the foreside of the Near Ear & Slit [sic] in ye off Ear Entred March 19th 1767. [Volume 1.]

[Nathaniel[4] (Jonathan[3], Jonathan[2], John[1]), b. 26 April 1724, married Susannah Brooker in 1766; fourth but second surviving son. His father d. between 12 Feb. 1761 and 27 June 1765. Nathaniel's will was dated 12 April 1784 and proved on 7 Oct. 1800 (SPR, 9:285). See No. 5.]

26. Majr. David Waterbery Jur. Enters for his Ear Mark the same that was Entred to Jonas [?altered from Jonathan] Maltbie ["Esq." has been erased here] Decd. Vizt a Crop on Each Ear & two Slits in the Near Ear & one Slit in ye off Ear. Entred Novr. 28th 1769 [Volume 1.]

[David[4] (John[3], David[2], John[1]), second son, b. 12 Feb. 1722 or 1722/3, d. on 29 June 1801. Major, 1759, Lieutenant-Colonel, 1775, Brigadier-General of Connecticut Militia, 1776. He mar., 15 May 1758, Mary, daughter of Jonathan Maltby. Their children were William, b. 10 Oct. 1766 (SVR, 1:161), whose descendants continue in Stamford, and Molly, b. 1 Jan. 1769 and died unmar. (E. B. Huntington's Stamford Registration of Births Deaths and Marriages, p. 118).]

[John[5] (Nathaniel[4], John[3], John[2], John[1]), eldest son, b. 10 March 1749/50. John Waterbury 4th was listed as a first lieutenant among the officers appointed by the Connecticut Assembly for battalions to be raised in the State, October 1776, but the Upper House did not concur and another name is substituted for his (Connecticut State Archives, Revolutionary War Series 1, vol. 4, document 349). On 27 Nov. 1778 he was described as an absentee and administration on his estate and on those of others was granted to Daniel Bouton (SPR, 6:138). On 28 April 1780 distribution was made of the estate of Mr. Nathaniel Waterbury, deceased, including that part (forfeited) which had belonged to John, eldest son of the deceased, he having joined the enemies of the United States (SPR, 6:285). He presented a claim for losses as a Loyalist at Halifax, N. S., on 1 April 1786 (Ms. Transcripts, at the New York Public Library, of the Ms. Books and Papers of the Commission of Enquiry into the Losses and Services of the American Loyalists, 33:162 et seq., no. 422). Described as a schoolmaster, he was a grantee of Parrtown (St. John, New Brunswick) (The Loyalists of New Brunswick, by Esther Clark Wright, 1955, p. 340). In 1795 he became a merchant (Lorenzo Sabine, Biographical Sketches of Loyalists of the American Revolution, 1864, p. 403). He d. at St. John in 1817, aged 68 (New York Genealogical and Biographical Record, 40:32). His right in the estate of his deceased father, which had been distributed to the widow for her lifetime, was sold to Nathaniel Waterbury on 3 May 1787 (Connecticut State Archives, Revolutionary War Series 1, vol. 34, document 104). See nos. 18, 38.]

33. Nathaniel Waterbury Junr. Enters for his Ear Mark the same that was formerly Entred to his Decd. Father Nathaniel Waterbury viz. a Crop on the near Ear, and a halfpeny the foreside the Same, and a halfpeny the underside the off Ear. Enter'd Febry 4th 1779. [This is the first Waterbury earmark for which a drawing appears. Volume 1.]

[Nathaniel[6] (Nathaniel[4], John[3], John[2], John[1]), b. 19 Dec. 1756, second son, brother of No. 32. He d. 26 Nov. 1838 (Revolutionary War Pension Claims, application S. 14796, which states that he was b. 19 Dec. 1757; tombstone in Waterbury cemetery on the east side of Hoyt Street, Darien, near the south end of the street near Edmond Street, which states that he was aged 82 at death). His funeral was held on 28 Nov. 1838 (W. A. D. Eardeley, American Church Records, 13:7, St. John's Episcopal Church, Stamford). His father had d. 8 Dec. 1777 (tombstone). See No. 17.]

34. David Waterbury Junr. Enters for his Ear Mark the same that was formerly Entred to his Father David Waterbury Viz. A Crop on the Off Ear, and two halfpeny's the upperside of the same. Entred Aug. 19, 1785. [Volume 2, p. 3.]

[David[4] (David[3], David[2], John[1]), second but eldest surviving son, b. 14 May 1728, will dated 25 May 1805, sworn to 18 May 1812, mentioning his only son Moses (SPR, 10:246) See No. 9. Possibly the same person as No. 23, now taking over his deceased father's mark.]

35. Enos Waterbury Enters for his Ear Mark the Same that was his father Josiah Waterbury's, Namely, a Crop on the End of the Off Ear & a Nick under the same, and a hole in the Near Ear. Entred April 13th 1790 [Vol. 2, p. 9.]

[Enos[5] (Josiah[4], Benjamin[3], Jonathan[2], John[1]), b. 19 June 1762, second son, d. 2 March 1846. His pension application for service in the Revolutionary War (W. 2280) states that he was b. 19 June 1761, but SVR, 1:198 gives the year as 1762. In the first census of the U. S., 1790, under Norwalk and Stamford towns, there appears Enos Waterbury, his household consisting of two males aged 16 or older, and four females over 16. There was also an Enos Waterbury in Stephentown, Albany County, N. Y.]

36. David Waterbury 3d Enters for his Ear Mark the same that was formerly entred to his decd. Father Samuel Waterbury Junr. Viz, A Hole in the Near Ear, and a halfpeny the underside of the Off Ear. Entred June 21st 1791. [Vol. 2, p. 11.]

[?David[5] (Samuel[4], Thomas[3], John[2], John[1]), only son mentioned, b. 23 Jan. 1758. He d. 4 Aug. 1834 (note in Eardeley's American Church Records, 9:5); he was buried on the following day (op. cit., vol. 12:49, St. John's Episcopal Church, Stamford). His will, dated 30 Dec. 1833, was proved on 25 Aug. 1834 (SPR, 15:164). However, a pedigree from Mr. David J. C. Waterbury, barrister, Kentville, N. S., states that David[5], b. 23 Jan. 1758 (Samuel[4], Thomas[3], John[2], John[1]) was the David who was a Loyalist in the Revolution and went to New Brunswick where he d. 28 Nov. 1833 (information from Mr. H. R. Fletcher). The David for whom the earmark was recorded might have been a son of Samuel[4] (Joseph[3], Jonathan[2], John[1]), whose children are given as "incomplete" in Miss Banker's article. See Nos. 2 and 24.]

37. Lt. John Waterbury Enters for his Ear Mark the same that was formerly Entred to Samuel Bishop Junr. Viz, a Swallowfork on the Near Ear, & a Slit in the end of the Off Ear. Entred April 2d 1792. [Vol. 2, p. 11.]

[? Lt. John[6] Waterbury (John[4], John[3], David[2], John[1]), eldest son, b. 20 Feb. 1752/3. See under No. 42.]

38. Nathaniel Waterbury Junr. Enters for his [?son] John's Earmark a Crop on the end of Each Ear, and a halfpeny the underside of the Off Ear, Entred Feby 21st 1794. [Vol. 2, p. 14.]

[?Nathaniel[5] (Nathaniel[4], John[3], John[2], John[1]), perhaps the same as No. 33. He mar. Hannah Webb on 1 Jan. 1784. Their children included John, eldest son, b. 26 Dec. 1785, d. 18 Feb. 1871 (SVR, 2:19; tombstone in Weed cemetery, south of Boston Post Road near Holly's Pond in Darien). See Nos. 18 and 32.]

39. William Waterbury Junr. Enters for his Ear Mark Two halfpennys the upperside of the near Ear, & a Slit in the End of the Off Ear. Entred July 8th 1794. [Volume 2, p. 14.]

[William[5] (Gideon[4], Joseph[3], Jonathan[2], John[1]), apparently eldest son, mar. in 1784. William Waterbury, shoemaker, aged 25, was a private in Captain Roger's 8th Connecticut company in 1777 (Collections of the Connecticut Historical Society, 8 (1901):102-4). See Nos. 6, 20, and 31. A William Waterbury d. 4 Nov. 1849, aged 81 years, 11 months and 10 days (tombstone in Noroton cemetery, Darien). Another William d. at Darien on 4 Nov. 1850, aged 82 (Darien Vital Records, hereafter DVR, 2:30).]

40. Isaac Waterbury Enters for his Ear Mark the Same that "John" [a—a crossed out] Was Entred to John Waterbury his Father Decd., ªVizª [a—a crossed out] which was Entred to him March 5 1755/6 [sic] (Viz) A Crop on the Off Ear And a haffpenny under the Same. Entered March 31st 1807 by perticular Desire of sd. Isaac Waterbury. [Crossed out, and another hand has written the words "forbid by John Waterbury his Brother". Volume 2, p. 20.]

[Isaac[5] (John[4], John[3], David[2], John[1]), fifth son, b. 4 Aug. 1764, d. 8 Oct. 1827 (tombstone in Slawson cemetery, Darien). His birth and those of three of his brothers and sisters are recorded in SVR, 1:163, where the father's name was first written as David, with the word John heavily written over it. The Arnold copy of the Connecticut State Library Index to the Stamford vital records gives the father's name as "Jabid". Isaac was father of five sons and five daughters, one of whom was Isaac Nelson Waterbury, shipbuilder, b. 28 Dec. 1816, d. 28 June 1889, father of John I. Waterbury, b. 29 Sept. 1850, d. 4 March 1929, a Pilgrim Tercentenary member of the Society. For John, Isaac's elder brother, see under No. 42. The earmark had been recorded for Isaac's father on 5 March 1735/6 and again on 10 April 1747. See Nos. 3, 12, and 19.]

41. Willm Waterbury 3d Enters for his Ear Mark the same that was his Fathers (Phinehas Waterbury entered to him May 17th 1771) Viz a Crop on each Ear, and a Spade the foreside the Near Ear. Entered April 12, 1812, by his Direction. [Volume 2, p. 22.]

[William[6] (Phineas[4], David[3], David[2], John[1]), second son, b. 6 Nov. 176–. A William Waterbury d. 4 Nov. 1850, aged 82 (DVR, 2:30). A William applied for a pension for services in the Revolutionary War on 7 Aug. 1832, stating that he was b. in that part of Stamford later called Darien on 2 July 1762, and he is described as deceased by 6 Feb. 1852 (Pension Applications, Revolutionary War, S 17177). Another William d. 4 Nov. 1849, aged 81 (Eardeley's Connecticut Cemeteries, 2 (1911):26, which states that he was a son of Phineas and Elizabeth Waterbury). See No. 29.]

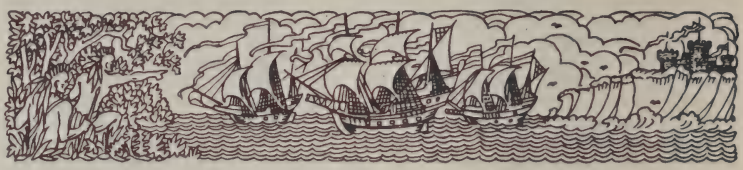
42. Frederik Waterbury Enters for his Ear Mark that [one word illegible] was Ebenezer How's (Viz) A Crop on the near Ear, & a Swallowfork in the of [sic] Ear, & a halfpenny the foreside the near Ear. Entered Decemr. 26th 1814. Per Sam. Hoyt Tow[n] Clerk. [Volume 2, p. 23.]

[Frederick Waterbury, d. 5 March 1855, aged 80; Betsey, his wife, d. 16 Dec. 1849, aged 64 (F. F. Spies, Collections of Darien Graveyard Inscriptions, 1924, p. 41, Slawson cemetery, Darien, which adds a note saying that Frederick was a son of John Waterbury and Mary Slawson (married over a hundred years before) i.e. John[4] (John[3], David[2], John[1]). The stone for Frederick's wife was not found in 1948. The Daughters of the American Revolution Lineage Book, 29 (1899):131, No. 28345, gives the descent of Mrs. Annis B. Noxon, born in Darien, daughter of William N. Brady and Cornelia Waterbury, granddaughter of Frederick Waterbury and Betsey Lockwood, great-granddaughter of John Waterbury who was put on the pension roll in 1818 (application no. W.6432) for service as lieutenant in the Revolution. Mrs. Noxon's application for membership states that John Waterbury was b. in Stamford 21 Feb. 1752 and d. in Darien on 6 Aug. "1 29" (apparently for 1829). The ancestry is given back to Lieut. David[2] (John[1]) and wives are shown for each generation except for that of Lieut. John. John was b. on 20 Feb. 1752 (SVR, 1:122) and d. on 6 Aug., aged 75 (tombstone in Slawson cemetery, Darien) or 10 Aug. (widow's application for pension), 1829.

On 12 April 1830 administration on John's estate was granted to William H. Holly, on the narrative that his widow had declined to take up administration and that his "nearest kindred" had neglected to do so (SPR, 14:190). There is no evidence that he had any children. His affairs were in a complicated state at his death and the report of commissioners on his estate, 14 April 1831, shows that he owed money to Peter, Widow Sally, Henry, and Frederick Waterbury among others (SPR, 14:374).

His application for pension, dated 2 April 1818, does not show the date of his birth or the names of his parents. It states that he mar. in Stamford (the part later called Darien), on 16 March 1817, Hannah Stevens, who herself successfully applied for a pension on 4 May 1853, and received a grant of bounty land on 9 Sept. 1856.

Frederick Waterbury mortgaged to Azariah Waterbury and Isaac Lockwood "the late homested of John Waterbury decd." on 21 Aug. 1813 (SLR, R:288). A John Waterbury d. in 1813 of "winter fever" (W. A. D. Eardeley, American Church Records, 8:15, Congregational Church of Stamford).]



JACOB WATERHOUSE OF WETHERSFIELD AND NEW LONDON, CONN., AND SOME OF HIS DESCENDANTS

Compiled for Charles Payson Blinn, Jr.

By Grace Pratt Bonsall, S.B., of Quincy, Mass.

The name "Waterhouse" is a place name, there being places by that name in Staffordshire, and in the County of Durham, England. It is an ancient family name in Lincolnshire, this family claiming their descent from Sir Gilbert Waterhouse, of Kirton, living in the reign of Henry III. DeWatenhou was a Notts family name in the 13th century (Hundred Rolls). Another ancient family of Waterhouse lived at Halifax in the West Riding. A branch, to which belonged the vicar of Bradford in the middle of the 17th century, was located at Tooting, Surrey, in the time of James I. (Homes of Family Names in Great Britain, by Guppy, 1890.)

The name Waterhouse in America appears in various spellings, such as Waterous, Watrous, Watriss, Watress, but all are derived from Waterhouse. Savage says: "Of this Connecticut tribe the name has been abbreviated to Watrous, sometimes Waterus."

1. Jacob[1] Waterhouse, the immigrant ancestor with whom this genealogy is concerned, whose English ancestry has not been traced, was in Wethersfield* by 1637, when he was one of eighteen men from Wethersfield who fought in the Pequot Indian Campaign 26 May 1637, under the command of Capt. John Mason of Windsor (Bodge, Indian Wars, pp. 11–16).

His holdings in Wethersfield consisted of a house and 2¼ acres of land, extending from Sandy Lane south to Fort Street (now Prison Street) north (Stiles' Ancient Wethersfield, 1:310). In 1640 his land abutted on Edward Mason in little West Field (Manwaring Digest, 1:24).

In 1645 he removed to New London, then called "Pequot". There are references to the fact that marshes and meadows in the vicinity were mowed that year "at Fog-plain by Cary Latham and Jacob Waterhouse" (Caulkins, History of New London, p. 44).

The Indians troubled the early settlers to such an extent that a petition was drawn up by the Inhabitants of New London to the Commissioners of the United Colonies of New Haven on 15 Sept. 1646, and presented to that body on the following day by William Norton, one of their number. They complained that they "were much Abused and Ronged by the Mohegge Indians" because of their molestations; that "Uncas came from Mohegen in a hostile way with 300 men into the English plantation". A memorandum of John Winthrop, Jr., stated that "they drove away divers of the English cattle almost to monhegen as Jacob waterhouses and william mortons cows which they kept a weeke before they brought them againe which they did by Jacobs urging them being his cattle". (Winthrop Papers, vol. v (1645–1649); Mass. Historical Society, 1947, pp. 111, 112.)

Jacob Waterhouse was chosen as overseer of the weirs in 1649. He is no. 7 on the list of first planters with the record of their house lots. "Jacob Waterhouse is granted by a general voate and joynt consent of the townsmen of Nameeug to have 6 ackers for an house lot next to John Stubens, be it more or less" (History of New London, pp. 59, 60). He also shared in another grant in January 1648/9 for "a division of lands on the E. side of the Great River of Pequot, north of Mr. Winthrop's lot". (Ibid, p. 61.)

Jacob Waterhouse witnessed a bill of sale of Robert Bartlett of New London to Mr. John Winthrop, also of New London, or "Nameag", on 6 June 1648, using a cross for his mark. Robert Bartlett sold "all my cattle both young and old, bulls cowes oxen steeres heyfers and calves that are upon his Iland called Fishers Iland for £30 in tame cattle and other good pay and John Winthrop is satisfied also for all the damages done to him by the cattle of Robert". (Winthrop Papers, vol. V, p. 228)

The Indians had their complaints, too, for on 25 May 1649, John Haynes, an Indian, sent the following to John Winthrop, Jr.: This Indian in behalf of others at Mohegan complains that a great company of Hoggs, thirty or thereabouts, have destroyed much of their corn, supposedly Jacob Waterhouse's swine —, but certainly from your towne — please tell J. W. and send two or three to view the harm and make restitution. Hartford — 25 May 1649. Jo: Haynes. (Winthrop Papers, V, 347.)

Jacob Waterhouse put in half a day's work in July 1651, according to a list of inhabitants "who wrought at the Mill Dam". (History of New London, p. 74.)

North of the town on the west bank of the river was a long array of grants, and among the most extensive were those of Waterhouse, which covered "the Neck at the Strait's Mouth". (Ibid, p. 95.)

Jacob Waterhouse was a beneficiary under the will of Peter Collins, also a first planter at Pequot (New London), whose will, dated 7 May 1655, mentioned "land on the Neck which Jacob Waterhouse is to have". (Manwaring's Digest, 1:110.)

As he was not liable for military duty in 1665, he must have been over sixty years of age. In 1673 he made the following sworn statement concerning his service in the Pequot War:

"The testimony of Aaron Starke, aged 65 years or thereabouts, testifyeth and sayeth: 'That we being soldiers under Capt. John Mason with many more when we went against the Pequot Indians, we being leaders in the Narragansett country, when many of the Narragansetts came armed and tendered themselves to go with us in that service against the Pequots: wherein they were readily accepted and marched with us through part of the Narragansett country until they came within four or five miles of the Pawcatuck River when we made a halt when the Ninecraft and Miantonomos with many others did declare unto our commander that we were come into the Pequot country and therefore did advise them to be very careful of themselves lest they should be destroyed".

"Aaron Starke and Jacob Waterhouse appeared this 11 day of June 1673 and made oath to what is above written. Before me, John Allen, Justice". (Parkhurst MS.)

One of the grants made to Jacob Waterhouse by the town of New London at Alewife Brook he deeded to his son Abraham on 13 Nov. 1674. (New London Deeds, 5:25.)

He died in 1676, and his nuncupative will was probated on 21 Sept. 1676. (New London County Court Records.) A copy follows of the original record now to be found at the State Library, Hartford, in the Probate Department, New London Probate District — 5540a.

"The last will and testament of Jacob Waterhouse, deceased, John Stebbins, Sen. and Alexander Pygan being at Jacob Waterhouse's Senr when he was sick, he being in perfect memory so far as we could perceive, he did desire us to bare in mind how he would have his estate disposed of, etc. And first, for my son Isaac, I wish I could give the rest of my children so good a portion as he hath had, but, however, I will him four shillings. And for Abraham, I have given him a peice of land already; for Jacob and John, I will my house and house lot I now live in, with a peice of salt medow at ffoxons and this they to have after my wives decease, and also all the rest of all my lands undisposed of I will to my four sons, namely, Jacob, and Joseph and John and Benjamin only that peice of land now improved for my wife to have the use of it during her life, and also I will to my daughter Elizabeth two cows and five pounds out of the land, if may be, and all the rest of my movables I will to my wife, etc.

"John Stebbings and Alexander Pygan made oath to what is above written. In Court Sept. 21, 1676. As Attest: John Allyn. Above Cogue: Attest: George Denison Clerk of ye Pro. Court N. London May 12th 1702".

Children, first three born in Wethersfield, the others in New London:

i. Rebecca,[2] m. about 1655 Thomas Williams, Sr., of Wethersfield, who d. there 5 Feb. 1692. Ten children, born between 1656 and 1680.

ii. Isaac, b. in 1641; d. 7 Oct. 1713, aged 72; m. in Lyme, 20 April 1670, Sarah[2] Pratt, b. 11 April 1652, d. 8 Dec. 1725, daughter of William and Elizabeth (Clark) Pratt. They settled in Lyme.

In the minutes of cases before the Court of Assistants 1664, '65, '66 is the following: "Isaac Waterhouse indicted for throwing the cart and stocks into the Cove". (Caulkins, p. 248.)

North of Black Hall "between the rivers", as it is locally called, that is, between Black Hall Creek and Duck Creek, both emptying into the Connecticut River, John Lay and Isaac Waterhouse were probably the earliest settlers. In 1667 Isaac Waterhouse purchased all the lands of Major Mason in Lyme. (Caulkins, p. 177.)

2. iii. ABRAHAM, b. in 1644.

iv. JACOB, d. 3 Jan. 1727/8; m. in 1690 ANN DOUGLAS, b. in 1669, d. 7 May 1713, daughter of Robert Douglas. The Diary of Joshua Hempstead (1711–1758) has this record under the date of 7 May 1713: "I made a coffin for Anne Waterous, wife of Jacob Waterous who died last night. I stayed to ye funeral".

Jacob Waters [sic] served in King Philip's War 24 Aug. 1676, serving under Capt. Joseph Sill with credits of 00.07.08. (Bodge, Indian Wars, p. 273.)

Jacob and Ann had sons John, William, Robert, Joseph, and Gideon; no daughters known. In 1734 John was of Groton; William, Robert, Joseph, and Gideon were all of New London. (New London Land Records, 10:151.)

v. JOHN, soldier in King Philip's War, and present at the Narragansett Fort Fight in December 1676, d. in 1687; m. MARY ———, and had a son Jacob, an infant in 1687. His widow m. (2) John Hayden of Saybrook.

New London Probate Court Record, 20 March 1704, Jacob Waterhouse, son of John, late of New London, dec'd, who about sixteen years ago chose Lieut. Abraham Waterhouse as guardian.

vi. JOSEPH, d. s.p. Estate divided in connection with estate of John Waterhouse and Benjamin Waterhouse.

vii. BENJAMIN, d. at sea, and according to tradition at the hands of pirates.

Administration 4 June 1702. Adm. bond of Oliver Mainwaring, with John Richards as surety, for £100. Account of Oliver Mainwaring, administrator of estate of Benjamin Waterhouse of New London; inventory of £16.05.00.

viii. ELIZABETH, bapt. an adult 17 Sept. 1693; m. (1) in New London JOHN BAKER; m. (2) in New London, 31 Aug. 1699, PETER HACKLEY, d. in Niantic 12 March 1736.

Abraham Watrous and Rebeckah his wife, of Saybrook, "received of our brother John Clarke, heir and executor of John Clarke, late of Saybrook, dec'd, £105 in lands, cattle and household stuff in full of what was due from the estate of the said Clarke unto the said Rebeckah, his daughter". Signed — Abraham Waterus, Rebeckah Waterus 19 Feb. 1686. Witnesses: John Chapman, John Tiley (or Tully), Saybrook Deeds, 1:183 (Town Hall, Deep River, Conn.)

*Parker should be Porter.

On the same page (1:183) Rebecca's sister Sarah, wife of Samuel Willard, signed a similar statement — also for £105.

Abraham had apparently been renting some land in Saybrook before this as evidenced by the following agreement. Saybrook Deeds, 1:184 An agreement between Abraham Waterus and James Fitzgerald in reference to an issue of accounts between them about rent of the lands of said Fitzgerald: "also ye rent and return of the cattle and tooles leased with the said lands; also in respect of the repare of fences belonging to the said lands".

Abraham Waterus agrees to erect a frame 17′ in length, heighth and breadth, the same as the dwelling house of Fitzgerald, Fitzgerald to accept the frame as full satisfaction for all the premises, remains of rent, cattle, tooles and fences — final issue. 1 Feb. 1686.

Rebecca (Clark) Waterhouse also was an heir of her brother, Joseph Clark, — Saybrook Deeds 1:215. Abraham and Rebeckah Watrous of Saybrook received of their brother John Clark £20, the deed reading "to the value of £20 of what was due that did belong to our late brother Joseph Clark, dec'd.", dated 1 Feb. 1692/3.

In Saybrook Deeds, 2:10, dated 3 March 1701/2, there is a list of the lands of Abraham Waterhous, Sr., which he received of Lieut. John Clark, as part of his wife's portion.

1. Twelve acres of land in the further planting field; bounds mention land of Zachariah Sanford. Also two acres, sixty rods.
2. Eight acres of meadow land "lieing between Tillie's poynt and Petapogue, not yet laid out, accounted to be an £100 right in said Boggs".
3. To a £100 right in the ox pasture.
4. To two acres of meadow, "Raged Rock meadow".
5. Twenty acres at Patapoque Quarter near Rocka Hill.

"All which Land abovesaid was payed to Rebecca Waterhouse, as part of her portion, by her honor'd mother Rebeckah Clark, and John Clark, admrs to the estate of Mr. John Clark, late of Saybrook".

By 1686 Abraham and Rebecca had moved to Saybrook where more land had been acquired by them from the estate of Rebecca's father. Abraham Watterus, Sr., of Saybrook, carpenter, deeded forty acres of upland at Black Hall as a gift to his son Isaac Watterus 11 Feb. 1706/7, and twenty acres at Black Hall with a dwelling house, on 25 March 1707/8. (Lyme Deeds, 2:367.)

Abraham Watrous of Saybrook, carpenter, for £15, deeded to his son Abraham, Jr., of Saybrook, husbandman, three acres of land at Ragged Rock which came to him from his father. Dated 11 Jan. 1714/15. Signed Abraham Watrous. (Saybrook Deeds, 2:438,439.)

Abraham Watterus of Saybrook, carpenter, deeded to his "well beloved and dutyfull son Isaac Waterus of Lyme, yeoman", all his lands in Lyme 10 Dec. 1718. (Lyme Deeds, 3:210.)

3. ABRAHAM[3] WATERHOUSE (Abraham,[2] Jacob[1]), born in Saybrook 23 Dec. 1674; died there before 28 June 1750 when his will was probated. He married first, in Saybrook, 12 Nov. 1697, HANNAH STARKIE (or Starke), born probably in Groton in 1678, died in Saybrook 27 April 1734, aged 56 yrs., daughter of Aaron[2] and Mehitable (Shaw) Starke. She was buried in the Saybrook Point Cemetery. He married secondly ABIGAIL[5] Wolcott, born in Wethersfield 3 June 1707, daughter of Samuel and Abigail (Collins) Wolcott. After the death of Abraham, her husband, she returned to Wethersfield to live.

When Abigail's grandmother, Judith (Appleton) Wolcott, died 19 Feb. 1741, aged 88 yrs., Abraham and Abigail Waterhouse were among those agreeing to the division of her estate and signing the agreement 12 March 1740/1, they being described as "of Saybrook".

Abraham Waterhouse, Jr., of Saybrook, merchant, made a large purchase of land on 17 Feb. 1701/2, when he bought of Robert Lay, of Saybrook, yeoman, a 1,000-acre right, which was a quarter part of the land left by his father, Robert Lay, late of Saybrook (purchased of Joshua Sachem), in his last will stated to be 4,000 acres. (Saybrook Deeds, 2:10.)

On 12 March 1724 Abraham Waterous bought from Maj. John Clarke of Saybrook 20 acres at Pataconke in Saybrook. (Saybrook Deeds, 3:348.)

On 10 Dec. 1737 Abraham Waterhouse of Saybrook, for £160 sold to his son Abraham Waterhouse of Saybrook four score acres of land at Pataconk in Saybrook with a dwelling house and barn, "the one half of which land I consider and grant to him as part of his portion out of my estate". (Saybrook Deeds, 5:266.)

*This line should be omitted.

Abraham Waterhouse of Saybrook, for £170, sold to his loving son Abraham Waterhouse of Saybrook all his meadow land, bought of Samuel Chapman, in East Haddam, containing fifty acres. 10 Dec. 1737. (Saybrook Deeds, 5:267.)

Abram Waterhouse, of Saybrook, for love, goodwill, and affection for his loving and dutifull son Abra'm Waterhouse of Saybrook, deeded all his land in the parish of Chester, in ye township of Saybrook, "to hold during term of my life, and after my decease the remainder in fee to be for the sole use of Abraham and his heirs, he to pay, or cause to be paid, all such legacies or sums as I have in my will and testament ordered, for fulfilment of my last will, but if he defaults, this deed shall cease, and the estate revert to the estate of my heirs". 9 April 1744. (Saybrook Deeds, 6:214.)

Abr'm Waterhouse of Saybrook, for valuable considerations, quitclaimed to his son Gideon Waterhouse, of Saybrook, five acres in Chester, in the township of Saybrook, 14 Nov. 1744. Witnesses: Saml Clark, John Tully. (Saybrook Deeds, 6:246.)

Abraham Waterhouse, of Saybrook, for natural love and affection for his loving and dutiful son Gideon Watrous of said Saybrook, deeded all his tract of land "where Gideon now dwells", with the dwelling house and barn thereon, standing in Saybrook, parish of Chester; bounds mentioned: land of Abraham Watrous, Jr., Shipman's Pond, land formerly belonging to James Baldwin, now Samuel Willard's land; also all my 130 5th 2-share right in the NW lot in the last division of Pataconk lands in Saybrook, with one acre in said lot conveyed to me by Samuel Willard; bounds: Killingworth township, Haddam, Middle lot; also all rights in Patentee land "for his use during my life, and after my decease, the remainder for his sole use". He was to pay legacies as directed, and in default of such payments, the deed was to be void, and the land to revert to Abraham's heirs. 17 Nov. 1747. (Saybrook Deeds, 6:432.)

Capt. Abraham Watrous from Mrs. Abigail Waterous. Abigail Watrous, late of Saybrook, now of Weathersfield, for £90 paid by Abraham Watrous, John, and Gideon, all of Saybrook, executors to the last will of Mr. Abraham Watrous, late of Saybrook, deceased, quitclaimed all her right of dower in the estate of her late husband, deceased. 13 Nov. 1752. (Saybrook Deeds, 7:260.)

Abraham Waterus made his will 12 May 1741; it was probated on 28 June 1750. (Guilford Probates, 4:591,592,634, 636.) He called himself Abraham Waterous of Saybrook, "being advanced in age and under decays of nature". The property was left "to wife — One good horse or mare able and suitable for her own rideing and improvement", etc. ——— "rest of moveable and personal estate to two daughters Hannah and Sarah", and "also £250 each in four years, which will make their portion, with what I have already given them , £310".

He left "to son Abraham Waterous, all my land in the parish of Chester in Saybrook on the East side of the road". And "to son John Waterous all my homestead on the East side of the country road", etc.

"I give and bequeath to my son Gideon Waterous, all my land in Chester on the West side of the road, and also all my right and interest in the newest lot in Pataconk in said Saybrook to be to him, his heirs and assigns forever, and ye fruit of the orchard calld Parker orchard for ten years next comeing".

His three sons, John, Abraham, and Gideon, were the executors of the will. Signed — Abraham Watroues. (Seal). The witnesses were Nathanll Parker, Samuel Pratt, Humphery Pratt.

On 28 June 1750 Samuel Pratt and Humphery Pratt testified that they witnessed the signing of the will by Abraham Watrous; Nathaniel Parker was deceased at this time.

The inventory of Abraham Waterous was taken 2 July 1750; John Watrous, executor of the estate, exhibited it at Court 29 Nov. 1750. It amounted to £421.8.4. The appraisers were Andrew Lord, John Tully, and Asa Harris. (Saybrook Deeds 4:634.) An addition to the inventory was made 26 July 1750, listing farm animals, supplies, etc., amounting to £306.12.6.

Children by first wife (Saybrook Records, 2:156):

4. Gideon[4] Waterhouse (Abraham,[3] Abraham,[2] Jacob,[1]), born in Saybrook 16 Sept. 1713, died in Lyme in 1773. He married in Lyme, 23 Sept. 1737, Rev. George Griswold officiating, Martha Beckwith of Lyme, daughter of Oliver and Martha (Beckwith) Beckwith. Oliver and Martha Beckwith were first cousins, he being the son of John[2] and Prudence (Mainwaring) Beckwith, and she being the daughter of Nathaniel[2] and Martha (———) Beckwith; John and Nathaniel being sons of Matthew[1] Beckwith, the immigrant.

Gideon Watrous served in the French and Indian Wars; he enlisted 6 April 1758, and was discharged 2 Sept. 1758. He was in the 12th Co., 2d Regiment, under the command of Capt. Henry Champion of Colchester. He was on a muster roll of a company of foot in his Majesty's service under the command of Capt. Henry Champion in a Reg[t] raised by the Colony of Connecticut for the Reduction of Canada, whereof Nathan Whiting, Esq., is Colonel. (Conn. Hist. Soc. Collections, vol. X, French and Indian War Rolls, 1758–1762, vol. II.)

The original will and inventory of Gideon Waterhouse may be found at the State Library in Hartford, Probate Department, and marked as recorded in Book I, page 256 (No. 5536), Lyme. The will mentions: "wife Marther, son Gurdin, son Richard, four sons Olover, Silvenas, Allen, and William, and two daughters Neomi and Rena; and granddaughter Didama, the daughter of my daughter Anna, deceased".

To his wife Martha he left "the improvement of my hole estat till my youngest son William comes within age, then the third part of the hol of my estate so long as she shall remane my widow". To sons Gurdin and Richard "20 acres on the north end of the farm, to be equally divided between them, and buildings except dwelling house that I now live in". Other specified property was left to the four sons Oliver, Silvanus, Allen, and William, "the remander to be equally divided to two sons Allen and William — my now dwelling house". "To two daughters Neomi and Rena £40 to be paid out of the estate that I gave to my four sons and what I have in my will gave to the widdow, Olover, and Silvenas, Allen, and William".

"To my granddaughter Didama, the daughter of my daughter Anna deceased, £2.10 shillings when eighteen years".

His wife Martha and son Richard were the executors. The witnesses were Amos Avery, Hanery Roland, and Eliphal Minor. The will, dated 4 Feb. 1773, was presented for probate and allowed 4 March 1773.

The inventory was taken 9 March 1773 by Jacob Tilletson and Amos Avery. Some of the things mentioned in the estate were:

5. Sylvanus[5] Watrous (Gideon,[4] Abraham,[3] Abraham,[2] Jacob[1]), born in Lyme 9 Oct. 1755, died in Windsor, Vt., 29 Jan. 1832. His gravestone in the Old South Burying Ground at Windsor says Sylvanus Waters died 1 Jan. 1832, ae 76 yrs., but the Church Manual and his obituary in the newspaper say Jan. 29th. He married in Northfield, Mass., 2 Aug. 1780, Rhoda Field (Rev. John Hubbard officiating), born in Northfield 21 Oct. 1757, daughter of Seth and Susanna (Doolittle) Field. Mrs. Rhoda Waters died in Windsor 13 June, 1823, in her 67th yr., "wife of Capt. Silvanus Waters".

Seth Field was a Yale graduate in 1732, Town Clerk of Northfield for many years, and a schoolmaster for forty years.

Sylvanus Watrous was a Revolutionary soldier; he is credited with the following service in Mass. Soldiers and Sailors of the Rev. War, vol. XVI, p. 649: SYLVANUS WARTRISS. List of men raised to serve in the Continental Army, as returned by Capt. Elisha Hunt, sworn to in Hampshire Co. 14 Apr. 1779, engaged for Town of Northfield; joined Col. Lamb's (Artillery) regt.; term, one year.

Also vol. XVI, p. 705: SYLVANUS WATRISS. Private, Capt. Elihu Lyman's co., Col. Elisha Porter's (Hampshire co.) regt.; enlisted July 25, 1779; discharged 31 Aug. 1779; service, one month, 13 days at New London, Conn., including six days (117 m.) travel home.

Also "Vermont Revolutionary Rolls" by John E. Goodrich, 1904, p. 352: Sylvanus Waters, 3 days, 42 miles, 18 shillings. From "A payroll of Capt. John Mercy's Co., of militia, that marched the 16th day of March last by orders from Gen. Bailey, Esq." Windsor, March 16, 1781. Windsor Co., Vermont.

Sylvanus Watriss and Rhoda Watriss were received into the church at Windsor (1st Cong.) on 2 April 1820, while the church was without a pastor.

There are several deeds in his name at Windsor. Windsor Land Records, 9:127: Silvanus Watriss deeded to Isaac Green and Jesse Lull one acre, "all the land I now own east of said River road". 28 Sept. 1807.

11:303 Silvanus Watriss of Windsor mortgaged to Jacob Choate some meadow land on lot #33 to Cornish Bridge, and one half acre of land "on which the said Watriss now lives". 4 April 1817.

15:290,291 Silvanus Watriss of Weathersfield deeded one half acre near the stone mill in Windsor to Thomas S. Fullerton, Justice of the Peace, in settlement of a suit. 2 Oct. 1829.

15:440,441 Silvanus Watriss of Weathersfield mortgaged three quarters of an acre, dwelling house and barn, to Thomas Emerson 7 July 1831.

The estate of Sylvanus Watriss was administered by his son Charles Watriss. (Windsor Probates, 12:512–515.) As the estate was insolvent, a committee was appointed 9 March 1832 to adjust the claims of fourteen creditors. An amount of $130.72 was allowed the claimants.

He seems to have been a blacksmith, his son Charles continuing the business after his death.

Children, born in Windsor (Windsor Births, Marriages, and Deaths, p. 157):

i. Asa,[6] b. 10 June 1781; m. Louise ———, who died 29 Nov. 1825, in her 45th yr.

6. Charles Frederick[6] Watriss (Sylvanus,[5] Gideon,[4] Abraham,[3] Abraham,[2] Jacob[1]), blacksmith, born in Windsor, Vt., 31 Dec. 1788, died in Windsor 21 March 1876, and was buried in the Old South Burying Ground, Windsor. He married first, in Windsor, 10 July 1810, Hannah McCollister, born in October 1787, died in Windsor 17 March 1860, aged 73 years, daughter of Reuben and Jennie (McBride) McCollister of West Windsor; and secondly MARY ———, who survived him.

The Vermont Journal of 25 March 1876 said: "Mr. Charles Watriss, one of our oldest and most respected citizens, died on Tuesday night at the age of 86 yrs." The death notice in the same paper said: "In Windsor, March 22d, Charles Watriss, 86". The Town Records and his gravestone say March 21st.

The Vermont Journal of 31 March 1860 said: "In Windsor, March 17th Mrs. Hannah, wife of Charles F. Watriss, and daughter of Reuben McCollister, late of West Windsor, aged 72 years and five months".

After the death of Hannah, Charles Watriss mortgaged his homestead to his son Luke W. Watriss of Windsor, with the agreement that Luke was "to take care of him and to supply to him such bodily comforts as are ordinarily paid and supplied by a dutiful child to a parent". This was dated 13 June 1861. The homestead "on which we now live and have lived for many years" was located near Cornish Bridge, adjacent to the Ascutney Mill Dam Company.

WATERHOUSE (WATROUS) CORRECTIONS

Contributed by DONALD LINES JACOBUS, of New Haven, Conn.

A certain line of descent from Jacob[1] Waterhouse of New London, Conn., was set forth in THE REGISTER, ante, volume CIV, pages 186–198, which contains several erroneous statements and conclusions.

In the family of Abraham[2] Waterhouse of Saybrook [top of page 191], it is stated that the third child, Isaac[3] of Lyme, married Susanna Pierson, daughter of Rev. Abraham Pierson, first President of Yale. There was such a Susanna Pierson, but in the distribution of her father's estate she was called Mrs. Susanna Bishop, and her marriage to Benjamin Bishop, son of Rev. John Bishop of Stamford, Conn., occurred 24 Aug. 1696. Actually, Isaac[3] Waterhouse married Elizabeth Lord, born in Lyme, Conn., 28 Oct. 1683, died there 17 Jan. 1734/5, in her 52d year (gravestone, THE REGISTER, vol. LVII, p. 213). The eight children of Isaac "Watterus" and Elizabeth his wife are entered as a group in the Lyme Land Records, vol. 2, p. 389. The will of Richard Lord, Sr., of Lyme, made 7 Feb. 1725/6, names his daughter "Elisabeth the wife of Isaac Waterus" (New London Probate, File 3276). However, this Isaac's first cousin, Isaac[3] (Isaac[2]) of Lyme, known there as "Jr." to avoid confusion, did marry Sarah, daughter of Samuel "Person", proved by a deed in 1722 by which they conveyed land inherited from her father (Lyme Deeds, vol. 4, p. 48).

There was no Sarah,[3] daughter of Abraham,[2] given in the article with an interrogation point; it was Sarah,[4] born in 1702 [see page 193], who in 1721 married Capt. Gershom Nott. She died in Wethersfield 1 March 1779; her gravestone calls her aged 77, but the year has been misread 1772.

Abraham[3] Waterhouse (Watrous) is stated in the article to have married, first, in 1697, Hannah Starkie or Starke, who died in 1734, and, secondly, Abigail Wolcott, born in 1707. The first wife is identified as daughter of Aaron[2] Starke. The Stark genealogy, published in 1927, also makes this identification. It may be correct, but as the name of Hannah was written "Starkie" in the marriage entry, and as there was a Starkie or Starkey family in Saybrook around that time, I should like to see the evidence before accepting the Stark statement.

The second marriage is wrong. Abigail Wolcott, born in 1707, was the wife of Capt. Abraham[4] Watrous, for whom she was suitable in age, as he was born in 1700, and was commissioned Captain in 1741. The second wife of Abraham[3] was indeed an Abigail, but she was Abigail (Filer) Deming, born in Suffield in 1683, but of Windsor when she married her first husband, Jonathan Deming of Wethersfield in 1708/9. Deming died in 1727 and she remained a widow for some years before marrying Watrous; after the latter's death she returned to a Deming son in Wethersfield and died there 24 Dec. 1754. These connections can be worked out from the printed histories of Wethersfield and Windsor, as well as from original sources.

Of the three sons of Abraham,[3] Abraham[4] and Gideon[4] were given land in Chester, then a parish in Saybrook, while John[4] received land in the First Parish of Saybrook. The compiler of the article cites Saybrook deeds by which Abraham[3] conveyed in 1744 and in 1747 to his son Gideon of Saybrook, in the latter deed giving him land in the Parish of Chester with a house, etc., "where Gideon now dwells". In the deed of 1752 from the widow of Abraham,[3] his son Gideon was still "of Saybrook". The same evidence is provided by the will of Abraham.[3] Despite all this evidence cited in the article itself proving that this Gideon was consistently of Saybrook and lived in the Parish of Chester, the compiler misidentifies him with a Gideon who through this same period was of Lyme, where his marriage to Martha Beckwith in 1737 and the births of their numerous children up to 1765 are recorded.

Gideon[4] of Saybrook actually died there in 1787, his will naming a wife Rebecca and five sons and six daughters, and the marriages of several of his children are found in the Chester Church records.

At Lyme in this generation there were two Gideon Watrouses, both distinct from the above Gideon[4] of Chester in Saybrook.

One Gideon of Lyme was Gideon[4] (Samuel,[3] Isaac,[2] Jacob[1]). Samuel Watrous married, 4 Oct. 1716, Frances Bronson and died in 1721, the probate mentioning his widow, elder son Jedediah, and a younger son, not named. In 1744/5 Frances Watrous of Lyme conveyed for love to her son Gideon "Waterouse", Jr. (Lyme Deeds, 8:86); he was still Gideon "Jr. of Lyme" in 1765 when he conveyed all right by heirship from his brother Jedediah (ibid., 12:411). These records and others prove that Samuel had a son Gideon, born probably not far from 1720, and the fact that for years he was known as "Jr." proves the existence of an older Gideon in the town of Lyme, and it was doubtless this older Gideon who married Martha Beckwith and had the family carried down in the previous article.

Who was he? I fail to find any place for him in the Lyme or Saybrook branches. However, Jacob[2] Waterhouse (Jacob[1]) of New London married Ann Douglass and had five sons. Of these, in 1734, John was of Groton, while the other four, William, Robert, Joseph, and Gideon, were still of New London. The first three of these had children baptized in the First Church, New London; Gideon did not. Nor is Gideon once mentioned in the New London Diary of Joshua Hempstead. The inference is that he removed. This Gideon[3] was the son of Jacob and Ann, and had a brother William; in 1737 a Gideon appears in Lyme, marries Martha Beckwith, and gives all three of these names, Jacob, Ann, and William, to children. Perhaps the identity can be proved by New London and Lyme deeds and other original sources, but it seems clear enough.

The article identifies Gideon of Lyme erroneously with Gideon of Saybrook, and also with a Gideon who served in the French War in 1758 under a Colchester captain, although the Saybrook Gideon was then 45, and the Lyme Gideon probably near the same age and already father of ten of his twelve children in 1758. The Gideon who served under a Colchester captain was probably son of Samuel and Anne Waters of Hebron, as that Gideon married in Hebron, in 1759, and died in Marlborough in 1813. Henry and Lazarus Watrous served in the same company; and these names also are found in the Colchester-Hebron-Chatham Waters family.

DESCENDANTS OF ROBERT WATERMAN, OF MARSHFIELD, MASS., IN THE LINE OF HIS SON THOMAS.

[Communicated by Mr. THOMAS WATERMAN, of Boston.]

THOMAS AND ROBERT WATERMAN, brothers, came to New-England in 1636. Thomas settled in Roxbury, Mass., and died there in 1676. His wife Ann died in 1641. He had a second wife, and one son, Thomas, who survived him.

I. ROBERT, settled in Marshfield, Mass.; married Elizabeth Bourne, 11 Dec., 1638, daughter of Thomas Bourne, and died 10 Dec., 1652. She died in 1663.

Children of Robert and Elizabeth (Bourne) Waterman:

1. Joseph, b. 1639; m. Sarah Snow. 2. John, b. 1642; m. Ann Sturtevant, 7 Dec., 1665. 3. Thomas, b. 1644; m. Miriam Tracy, ——, 1668. 4. Robert, b. 1652; m. first, Susanna Lincoln, 1 Oct., 1675; m. second, Sarah Lincoln, 20 Feb., 1699.

II. THOMAS emigrated to Saybrook, Conn., where he remained a few years; thence to Norwich, Conn., and was one of the first settlers of that ancient town.

Children of Thomas and Miriam (Tracy) Waterman:

III. 1. Thomas, b. Sept., 1670; m. Elizabeth Allen, of Groton, Conn. 2. John, b. March, 1672; m. Elizabeth Lothrop. 3. Joseph. 4. Elizabeth, m. John Fitch, 10 July, 1695; d. 25 June, 1751. There were three other daughters of this family.

Children of Thomas and Elizabeth (Allen) Waterman:

IV. 1. Thomas, m. Sarah Haskins. 2. John. 3. Elizabeth. 4. Ebenezer. 5. Daniel. 6. Elisha. 7. Asa. 8. Sarah. 9. Nehemiah.

Children of Thomas and Sarah (Haskins) Waterman:

V. 1. Silas, b. in Norwich; m. Silence Peck; d. at Lebanon, N. H., 2 May, 1814, aged 81 years, 10 months. He was one of the first settlers of Lebanon; a blacksmith by occupation, and a very useful man in the early settlement. He built and occupied the first two-story house in the town, which is still standing (1869). 2. Martha, m. Silas Hyde, of Norwich, Conn. 3. ——, m. —— Crane. 4. ——, m. —— Crocker. 5. ——, m. Thomas Wells.

Children of Silas and Silence (Peck) Waterman:

VI. 1. Thomas, b. 11 July, 1766; m. Susanna Cleveland, of Canterbury, Conn., 23 Sept., 1790; d. 19 Feb., 1838. His wife died at Montpelier, Vt., 28 Aug., 1846, aged 80 years, 7 months. He was the first male child born in the town; was a farmer by occupation. He inherited his father's estate and lived and died in Lebanon, N. H. Possessing an ordinary share of good common sense and sound judgment, he acquired the confidence of his fellow townsmen and was much respected by them. He represented the town in the legislature of New-Hampshire several years, was a member of the board of selectmen about thirty years, and a magistrate several years. He passed through all the grades of the militia from corporal to colonel, inclusive. At his funeral a large concourse of his friends and neighbors assembled to honor his memory. A sermon was preached on the occasion by the Rev. Phineas Cook, of the Congregational Church, which was printed. 2. Polly, b. ——, in Lebanon; m. Rev. Elijah Lyman, of Brookfield, Vt., in 1789; d. in 1851. 3. Silas, b. 1774; d. 11 Dec., 1853, unmarried. He graduated at Dartmouth College in 1792; studied law and commenced practice in Cambridge, Vt. After a few years he removed to St. Albans, where he continued to reside until 1819, when he returned to his native town (Lebanon, N. H.), and passed the remainder of his days at the old homestead of the family. He was attached to the staff of one of the officers of the U. S. army, during the last war with Great-Britain, and was slightly wounded while in the service.

Children of Thomas and Susanna (Cleveland) Waterman—all born in Lebanon, N. H.:

VII. 1. Thomas, b. 14 Sept., 1791; m. Joanna Towle, 12 Jan., 1832. She d. 22 April, 1864, aged 61 years, 12 days. 2. Mary, b. 3 Dec., 1792; m. John Wood, 1 Jan., 1815. 3. Susan, b. 17 June, 1794; d. 17 Oct., 1839, unmarried. 4. Harriet, b. 20 May, 1796; m. Rev. Geo. Storrs, 5 Jan., 1818. She d. 15 June, 1824. 5. Silas, b. 9 April, 1798; m. Sally Wood, 2 Feb., 1832. 6. Martha, b. 13 April, 1800; m. Rev. Geo. Storrs, 8 March, 1825—2d wife. 7. Harry, b. 15 Dec., 1802; m. Phebe Williams, 9 Oct., 1830. He d. in Illinois, Jan., 1857. 8. Emily, b. 15 July, 1805; m. Joel Demick, 11 Feb., 1831. 9. Louisa, b. 3 Feb., 1808; m. Oscar F. Fowler, 24 Sept. 1834.

Children of Thomas and Joanna (Towle) Waterman:

1. Harriet Elizabeth, b. 21 Oct., 1832. 2. Thomas, b. 12 Nov., 1835; d. 20 Nov., 1840. 3. Emily, b. 3 March, 1839; d. 13 Sept., 1840. 4. Emily, b. 1 May, 1841; d. 26 June, 1841.

VIII. 5. Thomas, b. 17 Dec., 1842. He fitted for college at the Public Latin school, in Boston; graduated at Harvard College in 1864; studied medicine, and is now a practising physician (1869) in Boston.

THE THREE WIVES OF DAVID WEBB, OF BOSTON, MASS., AND WETHERSFIELD, CONN.

By Mrs. W. Carroll Barnes, of Charleston, S. C.

John Adams Vinton in The Giles Memorial (1864), page 508, lists among the children of David[4] Webb and his wife Jane Snelling a son David[5], born about 1717, married in Boston 2 Nov. 1738, Mary Williams, possibly the daughter of Joshua and Mary Williams, born in Boston 14 May 1717, or of Benjamin and Elizabeth Williams, born there 26 Sept. 1719 (Report of the Record Commissioners: Boston Births, 24:126,141). We have been unable to positively identify her.

David Webb was the grandson of Peter[3] Webb (Christopher[2], Christopher[1]) of Braintree who married Ruth[3] Bass, daughter of Ruth (Alden) Bass and granddaughter of John and Priscilla Alden of the Mayflower.

David and Mary (Williams) Webb had a son born in Boston 16 Dec. 1739. Shortly thereafter David removed to Wethersfield, Conn. Perhaps Mary died in childbirth; there is no record or knowledge of her in Wethersfield.

Vinton calls David a cordwainer, but in Wethersfield he was a master mariner: "Webb, Capt. David, desc't of Christopher who settled at Braintree, Mass., 1645; d. 9 Oct. 1770, of small pox and at sea, which may account for the absence of a stone to his memory in the cemetery. Capt. Webb's second wife was Mary, the daughter of Hezekiah Grimes who operated the ferry at Rocky Hill from 1734 until his death in 1749" (Henry R. Stiles, History of Ancient Wethersfield (1904), vol. 1, pt. 1, p. 590). Actually, Mary Grimes was his third wife.

Capt. David Webb married secondly, at Weathersfield, 20 May 1750, Mary Bulkeley, daughter of Charles and Mary (Sage) Bulkeley, born at Wethersfield 9 June 1725, died there 2 Dec. 1762 (Donald Lines Jacobus, Rev. Peter Bulkeley (1933), p. 263; Edward Sweetser Tillotson, Wethersfield Inscriptions: Rocky Hill Cemetery (1899), p. 273). She is called "first wife of Capt. David Webb" on the gravestone.

He married thirdly, about 1763, Mary Grimes, daughter of Hezekiah and Abigail (Smith) Grimes, born about 1727, died in Rocky Hill, 6 Aug. 1808 "aged 81 years." She is called "2-d wife of Capt. David Webb" (Tillotson, op. cit.).

The will of William Webb of Boston, executed 22 Feb. 1760, proved the same year (Suffolk County Probate #12379) bequeaths to "my brother David Webb of Wethersfield . . . and to each of his children who shall be living at my decease."

David Webb's probate record at Hartford, Conn. (#5744), consists of one bond, one inventory, and one letter. Administration was granted to the widow, Mary Webb, and Edward Bulkeley, brother of his second wife. Silas Dean gave bond. The estate was distributed to wife Mary; eldest son David; Elizabeth, wife of Samuel Foster; Esther, Catherine, Mary, Mehitable, William, Abigail and Martha Webb. The widow was appointed guardian of her three children; Edward Bulkeley was made guardian of Catherine 14, Mary 11, and Mehitable 9, his sister's younger children (Microfilm 21:80, Hartford State Library).

Child by first wife, Mary Williams:

i. DAVID[6], b. Boston, Mass., 16 Dec. 1739; d. prob. unmar. before 13 Nov. 1781 when Samuel Foster was given administration of the estate of "David Webb the younger" (Hartford District Probate #5745). The account was accepted 24 June 1783. The estate was divided among Elizabeth, wife of Samuel Foster; Mary, wife of Joshua Williams; "the third sister" Mehitable Webb; and Joseph Neff, the heir of Esther Neff. Moses Williams and Jonathan Huntington distributed the estate. Aside from his birth, his father's distribution, and his own administration, we have found no records of this David[6] Webb.

Children by second wife, Mary Bulkeley (Jacobus, op. cit.):

ii. ELIZABETH, b. at Wethersfield about 1751; d. after 14 July 1800; mar. at Wethersfield 4 Sept. 1769, SAMUEL FOSTER. Her children by the name Foster are recorded in the Bulkeley genealogy on p. 646.

iii. ESTHER, b. at Wethersfield about 1753; d. there before 24 Nov. 1777; mar. at Rocky Hill 5 Nov. 1772, JOSEPH NEFF, d. 8 April 1774. He has not been identified. The widow Esther Neff was appointed executrix of her husband's estate but died before an accounting was made, and the administration passed to Joseph Grimes, Jr. Two inventories were taken, one in May 1774, another 17 Oct. 1777 at the decease of Esther: "A Trew acct or Inventory of the Reail & Personal Estate of Joseph Neff of Wethersfield Dec'd at the Decease of the widdow Esther Neff." The final accounting was not until 10 June 1793. A son Joseph[7], b. prob. posthumously in 1774, d. 4 Jan. 1829 "aged 54" (Tillotson, op. cit.: Rocky Hill Cemetery); mar. Abiah ——, d. 31 Jan. 1829 "aged 58" (ibid.). Joseph Neff was baptized "an adult," 15 Oct. 1797, and he and his wife were admitted to communion that same day. Children recorded in Rocky Hill: 1. Esther[8], bapt. 15 Oct. 1797; mar. 30 May 1816, Benjamin Robbins. 2. William, bapt. 14 Oct. 1798 [or 1799]. 3. Nancy, bapt. 11 May 1800; mar. 20 April 1820, Isaac Latham of Hebron. 4. Mary, bapt. 20 June 1804; mar. 17 April 1836, Isaac Ward of Pittsfield, Mass. 5. Eliza, bapt. 6 Oct. 1805; mar. 15 Feb. 1830, James S. Whitney of Pittsfield. 6. Lucy, bapt. 26 April 1807; d. unmar. 28 Sept. 1831 aged 25. 7. Joseph Henry, bapt. 25 June 1809; d. in New Jersey 20 [or 22] July 1831. 8. Cynthia Amelia, bapt. 2 June 1811; d. 23 Dec. 1829. 9. Edward [twin], bapt. 27 Sept. 1812; mar. 29 Oct. 1837, Florinda (Porter) Holmes, widow. 10. Edwin [twin], bapt. 27 Sept. 1812; d. Wilmington, N. C.

iv. JOHN, b. about 1756; d. 9 Sept. 1769 (Tillotson, op. cit.: Rocky Hill Cemetery).

v. CATHERINE, b. about 1758; d. 8 Oct. 1775 (ibid.).

vi. MARY, b. about 1760; mar. at Wethersfield 24 Oct. 1781, the Rev. Joshua Williams, b. at Wethersfield 3 Feb. 1761, d. at Middletown, Conn., 8 Feb. 1836. Charles Collard Adams, Middletown Upper Houses (1908), p. 767, misidentifies her as the child of the first wife, Mary Williams. Children, named Williams, are recorded in the Bulkeley genealogy.

vii. MEHITABLE, b. before 2 Dec. 1762; living 24 June 1783; no further record.

Children by third wife, Mary Grimes:

viii. WILLIAM, bapt. at Rocky Hill 17 Feb. 1765; d. 2 April 1843 aged 80 (Tillotson, op. cit.); mar. at Wethersfield 10 April 1791, CHARLOTTE GRISWOLD, dau. Capt. William Griswold, bapt. 29 Aug. 1773, d. 27 June 1855. William was not mentioned in the distribution of his brother David's estate, perhaps because he would inherit from his mother. His grandmother, Abigail (Smith) Grimes, held two-thirds of the Jonathan Smith property along the Rocky Hill waterfront. Since William was the only living child of Mary Grimes Webb, he inherited one quarter of his grandmother's estate. Hs was a shipbuilder, owner and master, and imported and exported goods (Stiles, op. cit.). He lived in his father's house which may have come to him in the distribution of the estate. Children recorded in Rocky Hill: 1. William[7], d. in infancy 22 Oct. 1793. 2. Abigail, bapt. 18 Sept. 1795; d. 19 Sept. 1795. 3. Polly, bapt. 9 April 1797; d. unmar. 1 Nov. 1865. 4. Charlotte, bapt. 11 May 1800; d. unmar. 23 April 1824. 5. William, bapt. 6 June 1802; d. Lake City, Fla., 29 March 1867. 6. Henry, bapt. 14 Nov. 1803; d.y. 7. Henry, bapt. 14 April 1805; d. 20 Sept. 1879. 8. Belinda, bapt. 30 Aug. 1807; mar. (1) 27 Feb. 1828, Thomas Goodrich; (2) 10 April 1837, Jason Goodrich. 9. Benjamin G., b. 1810; d. 22 March 1892. One Catherine Bryan, bapt. "an adult" 5 Nov. 1841; mar. in Brooklyn, N. Y., 26 Aug. 1848, Joel T. Green. We have been unable to identify her. She may have been a child of William and Charlotte.

ix. ABIGAIL, bapt. 21 Dec. 1766; d. 29 Sept. 1775 (Tillotson, op. cit.).

x. MARTHA, bapt. 5 March 1769; d. 14 Feb. 1776 (ibid.).

WELLS.—In the October number of the REGISTER there appeared some errors which should not be allowed to stand, and mislead future students in genealogy, who look upon your work as authority. In the valuable paper upon "Inscriptions in Colchester Burying Ground," the writer continues some mistakes from Savage, and incidentally makes some new slips. With your leave I will review his record of the children of Thomas[2] Welles, on page 359, make some corrections, and add notes to make the record more full and useful.

This Thomas Wells was son of Hugh Wells, who came from co. Essex, Eng., about 1635, with wife Frances and at least four children,—Thomas, Hugh, Mary and John. He settled in Wethersfield, where he died about 1645. Wid. Frances became second wife of Thomas Coleman. They removed to Hadley with her sons Thomas and John in 1660. John[2] settled on the Hatfield side, married Sarah ———, had nine children, and died Oct. 18, 1692. Thomas married, May, 1651, Mary, b. 1631, dau. of Wm. and Mary Beardsley of Stratford, Ct., and died in 1676, leaving good estate in Hadley and Wethersfield, and a house and lands in England. His widow m. June 25, 1678, Samuel Belding of Hatfield, and died Sept. 20, 1691. The children of Thomas and Mary are the family under consideration.

"i. THOMAS, b. 10 Jan. 1652; d. in Deerfield, 1691." He was a volunteer under Capt. Holyoke at the Falls Fight, May 19, 1676; settled in Deerfield, 1682; was commissioned ensign in the militia by Col. John Pynchon, July 5, 1686; made lieut. of the "Standing Forces" by Gov. Andros, Feb. 18, 1686–7—when he made up his own little private army—but Wells took sides against Andros in 1688, and was representative from Deerfield in the "People's Legislature" in 1689; was military commander in Deerfield from 1686 to his death in 1691. He m. Jan. 12, 1672–3, Hepzibah, dau. of William Buel of Windsor. They had eight children. June 6, 1693, wid. Wells and two children were tomahawked by Indians and the family was broken up. Widow Wells m. (2) Feb. 17, 1699, Daniel Belding of Deerfield; was taken prisoner when the town was sacked in 1704, and killed on the march to Canada.

"ii. MARY, b. 1 Oct. 1653." She died in childhood.

"iii. SARAH, d. young." She was b. May 5, 1655; m. April 3, 1673, David Hoyt, a Deerfield settler of 1682. Hoyt was captured in 1704, and perished by starvation on the march to Canada. His wife died before this event.

"iv. JOHN, d. young." He was b. Jan. 4, 1657.

"v. JONATHAN, of Springfield, d. 1739." He was born about 1659; was never of Springfield; was with his brother Thomas in the Falls Fight, and is known hereabouts as the "Boy Hero" of that affair. With Thomas he came to Deerfield and succeeded him as chief military officer; was in command Feb. 29, 1704. He was the first Justice of the Peace and was the leading man in town for many years; d. Jan. 3, 1738–9. He m. 1st, Dec. 3 or 13, 1682, Hepzibah, dau. of George Colton of Springfield; m. 2d, Sept. 23, 1698, Sarah, wid. of that Joseph Barnard of Deerfield who had been killed by Indians in 1695.

"vi. JOHN, b. 1660." He was a tailor; was drowned Jan. 20, 1679–80.

"vii. SAMUEL of Northampton." He was b. 1662; m. Dec. 11, 1684, Sarah, dau. of Nathaniel Clark of Northampton. He d. Aug. 9, 1690. His wid. and only son Samuel, settled in Hartford.

"viii. MARY." She was b. Sept. 8, 1664; m. 1st, Aug. 16, 1682, Stephen Belding of Hatfield, son of her step-father; she m. 2d, Jan. or May 2, 1723, Joseph Field, and d. in Northfield March 15, 1751.

"ix. NOAH, b. 26 July, 1666; m. Mary, prob. dau. of Daniel White of Hadley, &c." Daniel White was of Hatfield, and the question of this marriage is not yet settled. Noah was of New London 1691; of Deerfield 1694; of Colchester as early as 1709. The writer gives a fuller account of the line of Noah than I have before seen. I will only add that "David, b. 10 Sept. 1723," son of this second Noah, settled in Shelburne, Mass., in 1772; was a revolutionary Col. and ancestor of the Shelburne and Rowe Wells's, one of the latter being Judge John Wells of the Supreme Court, late of Brookline.

"x. HANNAH, b. 4 July, 1668." She m. July 7, 1687, John White of Hatfield, and d. Dec. 13, 1733.

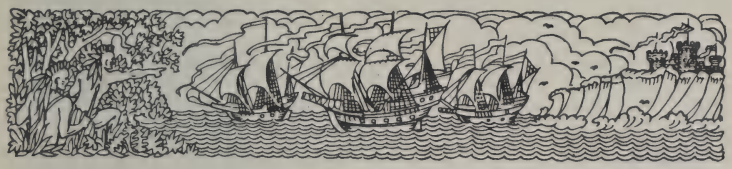
"xi. EBENEZER, b. July 20, 1669, &c." He followed his two brothers to Deerfield, but returned and d. in Hatfield. He m. 1st, Dec. 4, 1690, Mary, dau. of Sergt. Benjamin Waite of Hatfield, the "Hero of the Conn. Valley;" 2d, Aug. 15, 1705, Sarah, dau. of Samuel Smith, wid. of that John Lawrence who was killed at Brookfield in King William's War. Six of his seven children settled in Deerfield, and this region is full of his descendants.

"xii. DANIEL." The entries of the birth and death of Daniel are wholly in error, and doubtless recorded by mistake in the wrong register. There is no room for a Daniel here.

"xiii. EPHRAIM," &c. He was b. April, 1671; m. Jan. 23, 1696, Abigail, dau. of John Allis of Hatfield, a half-sister of his brother Samuel's wife; was of New London 1697, soon after of Colchester. I have no knowledge of his family beyond what is here found.

What I have here given is mostly from original sources.

Deerfield Mass. GEORGE SHELDON.



JOHN WHITEHEAD OF NEW HAVEN AND BRANFORD, CONN.

By James Shepard, Esq., of New Britain, Conn.

John Whitehead, with his brother Thomas, was brought to this country when a mere child, by Francis Hall of New Haven, at the request of Dea. George Alcocke of Roxbury, Mass., who was uncle to the Whitehead boys. According to the "Halls of New England," by Rev. David B. Hall, Francis Hall and his brother William came from Milford, County of Surrey, England, in the ship with Rev. Henry Whitefield and his party of emigrants from Kent and Surrey, who settled at Guilford, Conn. They arrived in New Haven in time for Francis Hall to attend the meeting in Mr. Newman's barn, June 4, 1639, where said Hall signed the fundamental agreement.

The first record found of the Whitehead boys is on page 60, of Hoadly's New Haven Colony Records, Vol. 1, when at a court held Dec. 1, 1641, "Itt is ordered that Goodm̄ Hall shall have liberty to dispose of the children wch. he brought ovr. till the court have light to dispose otherwise of them, provided thatt they be well looked vnto and well vsed. And Goodmā Hitchcock who is to have one of them is to pay to the Treasurer what is due for the boy and Goodm̄. Hall is to be payd out of itt whatt is due to him."

That this order relates to the Whitehead boys is shown by the next reference to them, on Feb. 1, 1647, on page 365 of the same book, as follows: "John Thompson atturney for Thomas Allcote in the Baye requirreth youthes of Francis Halle w^{ch} he brought from England long since, that is to saye John Whitehead & Thomas Whitehead, and saith he hath order to send them to the said Thomas Allcote whoe is ther vnkell.

"Francis Halle saith at the desire of their vnkell, Mr. Allcote of Roxberey, since deceased, hee brought these youthes ouer, and was at great charges with them for their passage and other occasions, w^{ch} he saith Mr. Allcote promised to paye to his satisfaction when he came heare, but when he came ther vnkell was deade, and knew not of whom to seeke his money, iff the boyes had dyed he should have lost it, for ought he knows, for he knew of no other vnkell they had, but he was blamed that he had not used that meanes to finde oute ther vnkell or send to ther mother as he might have done, (thoughe he saith he hath sent,) but he acquainted the courte then wth it, and wth ther approbation one of them was disposed to Mathias Hitchcoke, the other he kept himselfe till they might have further light to dispose of them.

"The court being dissierous that the chilldren might haue no wronge, and also that the ptyes w^{ch} have brought them vp heitherto, (seeing they were small,) might be justly satisfyed, did seriously consider and weighe the charges and hazards the several ptyes had bine at wth them, as also the advantages the boyes might be vnto them. And after a large debate concerning those accounts, in the issue agreed, that Thomas Whithead w^{ch} was with Mathias Hitchcocke, be at the end of 5 yeares and eight moneths from the time he had hime, sett free, at w^{ch} time the said Mathias put the said Thomas to Davide Atwatter for 4 years and 4 monethes, thoughe he had no right so to do, but now the said Thomas declaring himselfe willing to abide with his master David Atwatter, till he maye heare from his vnkell, so he maye have just satisfaction for the time to come, so longe as he stayeth with hime. They bothe agreed before the courte, that he should have 3£ a yeare, meate, drinke and clothes. And concerning John Whithead, it is ordered that Francis Halle sett hime free from this time, and paye vnto him 50. S." Pope's "Pioneers of Mass.," under Thomas Alcock, says: "His sister Elizabeth Whitehead of Lemington Priors wrote him 25 (8) 1647 concerning her sons, John and Thomas Whitehead then with Francis Hall of New Haven, who formerly lived in Buckintun parish where her uncle Darbie lived." The note book of William Aspinwall is Mr. Pope's authority. This letter explains how the Alcocks were uncle to the Whitehead boys, Mrs. Whitehead being Elizabeth Alcock, sister of said Alcocks, and also shows that she was living at Lemington Priors (now Lemington) in Warwickshire, Eng., in 1647. We find a Bulkington parish but no Buckintun in Warwickshire. This location for Francis Hall casts a doubt on the statement of his English home herein before given. The letter is dated the 8th month of 1647 and as under the old style Feb. would have been the 12th month of the same year, the appearance of Mr. Alcock's attorney in New Haven was evidently the result of the said letter. George Alcock of Roxbury, who died Dec. 30, 1640, was a brother of Thomas Alcock who resided at Boston, Mass., in 1647. Francis Hall's statement that when he arrived here Mr. George Alcock was dead, is contradicted by the record, which shows that Mr. Hall was in New Haven more than a year and a half before George Alcock died; but probably Mr. Hall was negligent, and perhaps Mr. Alcock's death was the first knowledge he had of him after coming to this conntry. He had, no doubt, learned of Mr. Alcock's death when "he acquainted the courte" with the matter in 1641, at which time Thomas Whitehead was given to Mr. Hitchcock, while John was held by Mr. Hall and probably lived with him until freed by the court in 1647. The five years and eight months when Thomas was to be set free had more than expired when the court order of 1647 was made, and although he was to stay for a time with Mr. Atwater he probably soon left him, for, on the 7th of the following March, "David Attwater entered action against Mathias Hitchcocke for 10 £ wch the said Mathias Hitchcocke receaved of David Atwater, for the servic of Thomas Whitehead for, 4 years and eight moneths wch Mathias Hitchcocke could not perform, he not haueing a full right to dispose of the said Thomas." (Hoadly's New Haven Colony Records, Vol. 1, p. 370.) What became of Thomas Whitehead is not known, and this is the last record so far found of him.

John Whitehead probably left Mr. Hall in 1647 and went to work for Mr. Jasper Crane, for, on July 4, 1648 (Hoadly, Vol. 1, page 391), we find that "John Whitehead servant to Mr. Crane was complained of for want of a pine in the locke of his pec. His master saith it was no other defect than hath passed this 8 years and could not be mended without a new stocke and the gunsmith said it was sufficient. The court for this time passed it without a fine but agreed that it should be mended." Although he left Mr. Hall he appears to have received only ten of the fifty shillings that the court ordered Mr. Hall to pay the said John Whitehead, for, on Feb. 6, 1648, Mr. Crane sued Francis Hall for sundry items, one of which was forty shillings "due Jno. Whitehead, his servant, wch was ordered by this court for Fran. Hall to paye" etc.

There was one Samuel Whitehead in New Haven when the first agreement was signed, Nov. 24, 1638, who remained in New Haven. There was also an Isaac Whitehead in New Haven in 1643, and a Sister Whitehead, when the meeting house was seated in 1646, but nothing is found to show any relationship between any of these Whiteheads and the Whitehead boys. The fact that they appear to have been utterly indifferent, leaving said boys to the tender mercies of Francis Hall and the Court, indicates that there was no near relationship.

John Whitehead settled in Branford, Conn., where he married Martha, daughter of Leslie Bradfield, March 9, 1661. (Branford Land Records.) According to the revised copy of the church records, John Whitehead and "Martha B. Whitehead" became members of the church in 1653, but of course her name must have been Martha Bradfield at that time, thus showing that the record has been changed since 1653. He was also one of the parties to the new church covenant in 1667, and in 1669 was nominated for freeman. On Jan. 19, 1669, the Recorders court at Branford did "sentence yt the said John Whitehead shall paye or cause to be payed unto William Hoadly the sum of 15S. for ye damiage that the said John Whitehead's hoges did m. William Hoadly's orcheat in eating of his apples." (Branford Land Records, Vol. 1, page 209.) John Whitehead deeds land to John Charles on May 18, 1678, to Samuel Frisbie on Jan. 19, 1669, and to Quitton Stockin on Dec. 27, 1680, but the records do not show how nor when he obtained said lands. In 1682 he, with others, made choice of their plow land in Branford. He died there before the second Monday of June, 1695, when his widow Martha exhibited the inventory of the estate to the County Court at New Haven, and was appointed administrator on his estate, and the names and ages of the eight surviving children were given as follows:

"John Whitehead,		oldest,	Hannah Whitehead,		31,
Samuel	"	23,	Mercy	"	27,
Eliphalet	"	21,	Damaris	"	25,
Thomas	"	14,	Elizabeth	"	18."

The said inventory is found in Vol. 2, of the New Haven Probate records, page 184, and amounts to £231. 14. 00. The eldest son, John, died before the estate was settled, as is shown from the following, dated the first Monday of March, 1707–8:

"Administration on the estate of John Whitehead late of Branford deceased granted to Mehitable widow relict of the decd. xxx ordered to make an inventory — by reason that her said husband, being eldest son, and Thomas Whitehead have not recd. their portions of their father's estate, John Whitehead Senr. formerly of said Branford decd. xxx The court being certified by receipts under ye hands of Peter Tiler, Benjamin Howd, William Luddington and Michael Pamer in right of their wives that they have received their full portions of the inventoried estate of their father said John Whitehead Senior, decd., and also their portion of their brother Eliphalet Whitehead since deceased, do order that all the residue of the real inventoried estate, (except the widow's dower sett off and lands allotted to said four daughters,) be divided by three freeholders of Branford, a double share thereof to the heirs of John Whitehead, decd. son of John Whitehead Senior, and one single share to said Thomas Whitehead, and for as much as Samuel Whitehead son to sd. John Whitehead, Senr. decd. hath been absent about 8 year and not known to be living or dead, if he happen to return must be considered by an equal portion with the rest" &c. (New Haven County Court Records, Vol. 2, page 342).

The final distribution of the estate of John Whitehead, Jr., is recorded on page 496, Vol. 3, New Haven Probate Records, under date of Oct. 29, 1714, John Russell, Uzall Wardwell and Edward Frisbie, dividers, when Thomas, Samuel, Elizabeth Howd, Hannah Tyler and Mercy Luddington are given their portions direct, the remainder being given to the legal representatives of John and Damaris.

On March 16, 1707, Martha Whitehead "widdow & admin. estate of my late husband John Whitehead of Branford deseceased," deeds to her "three sons-in-law, Peter Tyler Senr. of Branford, William Luddington of East Haven, and Benjamin Howd of Branford," two thirds of the homestead, signing the deed by her mark, M. W. (Branford Land Records, Vol. 2, p. 203.) On March 1, 1707–8, she deeds land to her son-in-law Micah Pamer "for part of his wife's portion." (Vol. 3, p. 34.) On Jan. 3, 1708, "John and Thomas Whitehead, Peter Tyler, Senr., in the right of Hannah his wife, Micah Pamer in right of Damaris his wife, and Benjamin Howd in right of Elizabeth his wife, all of Branford, and William Luddington of New Haven in right of Mary his wife, in consideration of our near Love, Good will and Dutifull affection to our Dear Mother Martha Whitehead," deed her their right in the house &c. (Vol. 3, p. 78). This deed, in connection with the Court order before noted, shows that John Whitehead, Jr., was living on Jan. 3, 1707–8, and died before March 7 of the same year.

On May 21, 1709, Martha Whitehead deeds land to Hannah Tyler, in "Consideration of the great care and relief which I have had from my Daughter Hannah In my long weak desolate condition" (Vol. 3, p. 100); and on Dec. 4, 1711, she deeds land to her son Thomas. Several other deeds appear of record from Martha Whitehead.

The names of the children appear both in the land and Church records of Branford, the date of the baptism, with one exception, being the same as the date of the birth.

Children of John Whitehead, Sen.:

i. Mary, b. May 6, 1662. Not included in the names of children appended to the inventory of her father's estate in 1695.

ii. Hannah, b. March 10, 1664; m. Peter Tyler, Senr., of Branford, Conn., Dec. 25, 1688, as second wife. Said Tyler m. 1st, Deborah Swain, Nov. 20, 1671.

iii. John, b. Feb. 20, 1665–6; m. Mehitable, dau. of Stephen and Tabitha (Wilkinson) Bishop, Aug. 9, 1704. He died before the first Monday in March, 1707–8, when his estate was probated at New Haven.

iv. Martha, b. Jan. 10, 1667–8; name afterwards changed to Mercy; m. William Luddington of Iron Works farms, East Haven, Conn., June, 1690, as second wife. His first wife was Martha Rose. He died in Feb. 1737, age 51. Widow Mercy Luddington died Nov. 23, 1743, age 75. (Dodd's History of East Haven.) This death record identifies her as the Martha born 1668, rather than the Mary born 1662.

v. Damaris, b. Jan. 20, 1669–70. m. Micah Pamer of Branford, Conn., Feb. 14, 1693; died before Oct. 29, 1714.

vi. Samuel, born Nov. 24, 1672. Had been absent about eight years in 1708, and "not known to be living," but was included in the distribution of his brother John's estate, in 1714.

vii. Eliphalet, b. Sep. 27, 1674; died after second Monday in June, [10th], 1695, and before first Monday in March [1st], 1707–8, leaving no issue.

viii. Elizabeth, b. Oct., 1677; m. Benjamin Howd of Branford, Conn., Oct. 1, 1705.

ix. Thomas, b. Feb. 27, 1680–1.

THE WILCOX FAMILY.

By W. H. Whitmore, A.M., Boston.

IT seems that William Wilcox, of Cambridge, who died Nov. 28, 1653, in his will dated two days before (Reg. xvi. 76), mentions his wife then sick. From the Rev. Lucius R. Paige I learn that William Wilcox m. Mary Powell, Jan. 22, 1650.

On our Boston records (Reg. xi. 200) I find "Jacob Elliot was marryed to Mary Wilcock, widow, 9 : 11 : 54 : by Capt. Humphrey Atherton."

Savage indeed writes: "Wilcox, John, Dorchester, whose young widow m. 9 Jan'y, 1654–5, Jacob Eliot." But in this he was clearly wrong. On the Dorchester records (MS. vol. i. pp. 135, 141) it seems indeed, that a John Wilcox was in the spring of 1661 and of 1662, twice appointed a fence viewer. He m. widow Mary Farnsworth, and deeds land in 1661 and 1665. But this proves too much, for this John did not have a widow six years before. I find no other John Wilcox in Dorchester, and this John was certainly the Middletown man. We must look elsewhere for Eliot's wife.

It seems therefore almost certain that Jacob Elliot's wife was Mary, widow of William Wilcox, of Cambridge; since she was a widow and the only one we know of.

Leaving out of sight some early settlers of the name in Rhode Island, we find that there was a John Wilcox, of Hartford (Hinman, first ed. 98), surveyor of highways 1642 and 1644, juror 1645, called senior in 1648 (Trumbull's Conn. Rec. i. 172), selectman in 1649. He must have died before Oct., 1666, when his widow makes her will.

His widow Mary's will was dated Oct. 4, 1666: she mentions dau. Ann Hall, cousin (i. e. grand-child) Sarah Long, son John Bidwell. An abstract of this and other papers will be found in Appendix A.

It is evident as the father is called John, Sen., in 1648, that he then had a son John, Jr., of adult age, and we identify this latter with John Wilcox, of Hartford, who m., first, Sarah, dau. of William Wadsworth, Sept. 17, 1646, and had:

i. Sarah, b. Oct. 3, 1648.

His wife dying, he m., second, January 18, 1650, Catherine Stoughton, moved to Middletown, and had several children, viz.

ii. John, b. Oct. 29, 1650; d. before his father.
iii. Thomas, d. before his father.
iv. Mary, b. Nov. 13, 1654; d. before her father.

v. Israel, b. June 19, 1656.
vi. Samuel, b. Nov. 9, 1658.

This wife dying, he m., third, Mary,[1] widow of Joseph Farnsworth, of Dorchester; before that, widow of —— Long, who died in 1671.

He m., fourth, Esther, dau. of William Cornwell, and had:

vii. Ephraim, b. July 9, 1672.
viii. Esther, b. Dec. 9, 1673.
ix. Mary, b. March 24, 1676.

He d. May 24, 1676. March 1, 1676–7 (Co. Court Rec. iii. 161), the court ordered distribution. On the inventory (409 L., ii. 4) it is noted: "The children of the deceased are, Sarah Long, near 28 years old; Israel, 20 year old; Samuel, Nov. 9, '76, 18 year old; Ephraim, 4 year old 9 July, 1676; Hester, 2 years old Dec. the last, 1675; Mary was born the 9, 1675–6."

These dates do not agree with the births as above recorded.

Ann (Wilcox) Hall. It is stated in the Wetmore genealogy, apparently from the Middletown records, that "Ann, wife of John Hall and daughter of John Wilcocke, died July 20, 1673, aged about 57." She was of course the daughter of John Wilcox, Sen. Her husband was John Hall, Jr., son of John of Hartford and Middletown, who had lived in New-England 40 years before his death in 1673.

Savage indeed doubts if she might not be a second wife of John Hall, Sen.; but this is impossible. First, as John Hall, Sen., died May 26, 1673, Anne would have been called his widow, not his wife, two months later.

Again, John Hall, Sen.'s will dated May 14, 1673, as copied by Mr. Trumbull, mentions son Richard Hall and his children, son John Hall, children of daughter Sarah Wetmer, deceased, son Thomas Wetmer; gives 10 shil. towards a school; and gives the remainder of his estate to son Samuel Hall and his heirs.

But he mentions no wife, and it is incredible that he should have had one living but unnoticed.

We do not doubt then that the "An Haul" mentioned by the widow of John Wilcox, Sen., as her daughter, was Anne, wife of John Hall, Jr., and sister-in-law of Sarah Hall, wife of Thomas Whitmore, of Hartford, ancestor of the Wetmores of this country.

It is a coincidence certainly that whilst John Wilcox, Sen., of Middletown, had a dau. Ann who m. John Hall, Jr., of that place (sister-in-law of Sarah, wife of Thomas Whitmore), the Cambridge William Wilcox mentions in his will a sister, the widow Hall, whose children were William and Susan. We identify her with the widow Mary Hall, of Cambridge, who had children John, Susanna, Stephen, William, Mary, Hannah and Lydia.

It is curious that John Wilcox, Sen., had a dau. Ann Hall, and

[1] The proofs of this marriage are amply set forth in Appendix B.

William Wilcox a sister Mary Hall; but this may point to some connection in England between John and William Wilcox, and between the Halls of Middletown and the Halls of Cambridge.

Francis Whitmore, of Cambridge, is mentioned by William Wilcox as one in his "family meeting." Now believing as we do that Jacob Eliot, Jr., m. the widow Wilcox, it is to be noted that Dea. John Whitmore (son of Francis) m. Rachel, dau. of Francis Eliot, own cousin to Jacob E., Jr., and Abigail Whitmore, sister of Dea. John, m. Samuel Wilcox, of Middletown, son of John W., Jr. Again, Mary Stoughton, niece of John Wilcox, Jr., and sister of the wife of Samuel Farnsworth, m. John Eliot, grandson of the Rev. John E., and cousin once-removed to Jacob, Jr., and to Rachel Eliot.

Although there was no known relation between Thomas Whitmore, of Middletown, and Francis Whitmore, of Cambridge, it is somewhat strange that Francis's oldest son, Francis, Jr., went to Middletown, as did two of his daughters, who m. respectively Daniel Markham and Samuel Wilcox. But if the Middletown Wilcoxes, Halls and Whitmores were relatives of the Cambridge Wilcoxes, Halls and Whitmores, then such a removal would be natural. These coincidences, added to the cross-marriages and the Eliot connections, seem to go far to render such relationships highly probable.

Leicestershire is bounded by the counties east by Lincoln and Rutland, south by Northampton, west by Warwick and Derby (Stafford almost touching it), north by Nottingham.

It is worthy of notice that the visitation of Leicestershire mentions the following families, giving pedigrees thereof, viz.: Wilcocks, Hastings, Fox, and Hall, rendering it desirable to examine the records of that county first, in order to find the origin of these colonists.

William Wilcox, of Cambridge, mentions particularly the son of the Rev. Thomas Shepard, "for whose father's sake I cannot forget him." This clergyman was born at Towcester, near Northampton, in the county of that name, Nov. 5, 1605; went to Emmanuel College, Cambridge, in 1620; was a lecturer of Earles-colne, co. Essex; then lived at Butterchrome, co. York, at Sir Richard Darley's house; then went to Northumberland; sailed from Harwich in 1634, was driven back by a storm, and lived at Bastwick, co. Norfolk; reembarked and arrived in New-England, Oct. 3, 1635. He was settled in Cambridge, Mass., till he died, Aug. 25, 1649. Wilcox may mean by his words only such acquaintance as he had had with Shepard in Cambridge here, or he may refer to some knowledge of him in England.

APPENDIX B.

John Wilcox, of Hartford and Middletown, had for his first wife Sarah Wadsworth, and her sister m. Thomas Stoughton, Jr. Wilcox m., second, Catherine Stoughton, sister of Thomas S. and dau. of the Thomas Stoughton, Sen., who went from Dorchester to Windsor. Catherine had many relatives living in Dorchester, and her last child was born in Nov., 1658. Probably she died soon after, and John Wilcox m. a third wife Mary, who died in 1671.

We find at Dorchester a John Wilcox, who was fence viewer in 1661, 1662 (Dorchester Rec. MS. vol. i. pp. 131, 141) ; and on Suff. Deeds vii. 296, April 24, 1661, a deed from John Wilcox, of D., and Mary his wife, executrix of the will of Joseph Farnsworth, to William Pond. Also (Suff. Deeds xi. 359), March 17, 1664–5, deed of same John and Mary Wilcox, to Samuel Rigbee.

In the REGISTER, ix. 140, is the will of Joseph Farnsworth above cited, made Jan. 2, 1659, speaking of his wife Mary, and her two children by a former husband, viz., Joseph Long and Thomas Long. Joseph Farnsworth seems to have had a son Samuel Farnsworth, by this wife Mary, though he had other children, doubtless by a former wife.

On file at Hartford is the will dated April 3, 1671, of Mary, wife of John Wilcox, of Middletown, "declared by word of mouth." Gives to her son, Samuel Fernsworth, £10 stg., out of her land in the great lot at Dorchester. Remainder of the lot to her husband, John Wilcox. To her son, Joseph Long, the bill she had of him for land bought of her. "White was coat and red tammy coat" to Mary Willcox. To Sarah Long, her feather bed and bolster which is at Hartford in her house already, her "cloath wascoat with the great silver lace, and a petty coate." Freely resigns to her husband, J. W., his estate which was mortgaged to her. Desires that £10 given her son, Samuel Fernsworth, should be paid to her friend, Capt. Hopestill Foster, of Dorchester, to be kept till he come of age. Witnessed by John Hall and Anne Hall.

John Willcox owned in court, Sept. 7, 1671, that he gave his wife liberty to make her will.

These documents of course prove that John Wilcox, of Middletown, was the Dorchester man, and that his third wife was the widow Long–Farnsworth. I think it also certain that his step-son, Thomas Long, married Sarah Wilcox, dau. of John W. by his first wife. Such intermarriages are common and natural. Sarah Long, born in 1648, is reckoned among John Wilcox's children, just where his oldest dau. Sarah would be ; no other step-children are so reckoned, and we may be sure Sarah Wilcox had married a Long. Savage records a Thomas Long, of Hartford, 1665, and we know not who he was, unless he was John Wilcox's step-son. We conclude therefore that Thomas Long married his step-sister Sarah Wilcox.

Again, Samuel Farnsworth, another step-son of John Wilcox, m. in 1677, Mary, dau. of Thomas Stoughton, Jr., a girl doubly a cousin to the children of Wilcox, with whom Farnsworth had been brought up. This may serve to indicate that the mixed households, of which John Wilcox was the head, lived in harmony and accord.

WILLIAMS FAMILY.—In the REGISTER for 1858, pp. 297, 298, was printed a brief account of two branches of the Williams family. Since that account was written, I have found proof that Henry Williams of Amesbury was the Henry born in 1699, son of Thomas of Newbury; but I have been unable to trace Thomas any further back than his appearance in Newbury, about 1696. I have, however, recently found an item which may be of interest to some branches of the Williams family, particularly to those who trace their ancestry to Norwich, Conn.

Joseph Williams, born in 1647, son of John of Newbury and Haverhill, Mass., removed from Haverhill to Norwich before 1722; for, in that year, Joseph Williams of Norwich, Ct., sold land inherited from his father, John Williams of Haverhill. Undoubtedly this is the Joseph Williams who was admitted to Norwich in 1702, and a vote passed that he be "entered as a whole share man respecting lands." See Caulkins's History of Norwich, edition of 1866, p. 252.

There was a John Williams who appeared in Norwich about the same time, and who became very wealthy and influential. The historian of Norwich states that he was "apparently an original emigrant." The Williams family genealogy, published in 1847, gives an account of his descendants, pp. 321–325, and states that he was born in 1680, that the family tradition was that he emigrated from Wales to Massachusetts, and that his first wife was Hannah Knowlton, from Massachusetts. Now the Joseph Williams who removed from Haverhill to Norwich had but one son, John, born in Haverhill, Feb. 1679-80, who probably removed with his father to Norwich, Ct., and must be the "Capt. John Williams" referred to in the books above named. DAVID W. HOYT.

Providence, R. I.

SAMUEL WILLIAMS OF GROTON, CONN., AND SOME OF HIS DESCENDANTS.

By JOHN OLIVER WILLIAMS, Esq., of New York City.

SAMUEL[1] WILLIAMS was one of the early settlers of Groton, Conn. He is supposed to have come direct from Wales to Groton, but this is family tradition only. Nothing further is yet known of him, or as to the date of his birth or death, or whom he married. He may have removed from Mass., or R. I., to Conn., and have belonged to the line of Robert Williams of Roxbury, 1637.

Children:

2. i. SAMUEL,[2] of Groton, Conn.
   ii. HENRY. No further record. There was a Henry who lived near New Salem, Conn.

2. SAMUEL[2] WILLIAMS (Samuel[1]), of Groton, Conn., the date of whose birth and death is unknown, married, May 28, 1758, at Groton, Conn., Mrs. Margaret (Huntington) Tracy, of Norwich, Conn. (Groton Town Records.) She was probably his second wife; his first wife is unknown.

Children by first wife:

   i. SAMUEL,[3] b. prob. about 1746.
3. ii. OLIVER, b. about 1748; d. Dec. 12, 1833, age about 85 years.
   iii. CHRISTOPHER, b. prob. about 1750.
   iv. LUCY, b. prob. about 1752.
   v. ESTHER, b. prob. about 1754.

Children by second wife, recorded in Groton:

   vi. JEREMIAH, b. May 28, 1759. Lost at sea.
4. vii. TEMPERANCE, b. Sept. 7, 1761; m. Gurdon Huntington.

viii. Cornelius, b. Mar. 20, 1763.
ix. Margaret Griswold, b. June 5, 1766.

3. Oliver[3] Williams (Samuel,[2] Samuel[1]), the exact date and place of whose birth is unknown, died Dec. 12, 1833, aged about 85 yrs. He was one of the early settlers of Sunderland, Franklin County, Mass., and married there, Nov. 19, 1775, Zariah, born July 17, 1754, died Aug. 31, 1830, daughter of Zebulon (born in Windham, Conn., 1718, died 1798) and Eunice (Field) Ballard, of Sunderland. Oliver Williams, about 1805, was accustomed to visit relatives in Norwich, Conn., and to take with him his son Oliver, Jr., who later told about the visits. As Zebulon Ballard emigrated from Windham to Sunderland, and Oliver Williams followed later, it is not unlikely they came from the same vicinity.

Children, born in Sunderland, Mass.:

The compiler can furnish all descendants, to date, of the foregoing children, and hopes to hear from descendants in other lines.

On Dec. 24, 1842, Ebenezer[3] Williams gave a statement to his son George, as follows:

"The Father of Ebenezer Williams, was Samuel Williams who had only one Brother, by the name of Henry Williams. Their Father's name was Samuel, who came to this country from Wales in England, and settled in New England opposite New London, Conn.

Jeremiah, Cornelius and Elisha were own Brothers to Ebenezer Williams; Temperance, Margaret and Mary, were own Sisters of Ebenezer Williams. Samuel, Oliver and Christopher, were half Brothers of Ebenezer Williams. Lucy and Esther, half Sisters of Ebenezer Williams. Margaret Huntington, who was own mother to Ebenezer Williams, m. for her first husband — Tracy — by whom she had one son Solomon.

For her second husband she m. Samuel Williams, by whom she had, Jeremiah, Cornelius, Ebenezer, Elisha, Temperance, Margaret, and Mary. Jeremiah was supposed to have been lost at sea."

A copy of the foregoing statement was received by the compiler from Henrietta Porter of New York City, a descendant, and another copy from Rufus L. Perkins of Erie, Pa., also a descendant.

SOME RECORDS OF THE WITTER FAMILY OF CONNECTICUT

Communicated by Mrs. Idah Meacham Strobridge of Los Angeles, Calif.

The following records have been copied verbatim from entries found in an old account book belonging to the Witter family of Ontario Co., N. Y. The writer evidently had no authority for the account of the immigrant's generation other than tradition, and of Josiah Witter, of the second generation, and his children he is not fully informed; but for the records which follow, up to about 1750, he probably obtained his information from old Bibles, although the writing in the book begins with 1750 or 1752. Various accounts of the early generations of this family have been printed; but the value of these manuscript records as a check on what has been published or as a source of more exact statements is self-evident.

THE WOLCOTT FAMILY.

INTRODUCTORY REMARKS.

Henry Wolcott was the first of the Wolcott Family who settled in New England. He owned a considerable landed property in his native country, which he held in capite, part of which he sold about the time he left England; the rest of the estate was sold at sundry times by himself and his descendants; the last remains were sold since the Declaration of Independence, by Henry Allen, Esq., of Windsor, who claimed it by female descent. From circumstances it seems probable that the family are of Saxon origin. Mr. Wolcott, to avoid the ecclesiastical hierarchy of the English Church, was induced to come into this country. He first settled at Dorchester, where he continued till 1636, when he came with the first settlers to the town of Windsor, and with four other gentlemen, namely, Mr. Ludlow, Mr. Newberry, Mr. Stoughton, and Major Mason, undertook the settlement of that town, to which they gave the name Dorchester. The towns of Hartford and Wethersfield were settled the same year, though the town which is now called Windsor was, upon the first emigration, by far the most considerable. Previous to this settlement on Connecticut River, one had been made at Springfield, under the patronage of Mr. Pynchon; and an earlier settlement, with commercial views, had been made at Saybrook, by Mr. Fenwick, agent to Lords Say and Seal and Brook. Those who settled on Connecticut River, in the year 1636, were united with the people of Massachusetts in religious and civil polity, and seem to have been much under their influence till 1638, when they adopted a civil constitution for themselves, and Mr. Ludlow was chosen their first Governor, and Mr. Wolcott a magistrate, then called an Assistant, to which office he was annually chosen till his death, in 1655. His eldest son Henry was one of the Patentees, whose name is inserted in the Charter granted by Charles II. Mr. Ludlow went to the West Indies, and left no posterity in this country. Major Mason, it is said, had no male posterity. The descendants of the others are well known in Windsor.

GENEALOGY.

Henry Wolcott, Esq., was born A. D. 1578; and on or about the year 1607, married Elisabeth Sanders, who was born in 1589. He lived in Tolland, near Taunton in Somersetshire, England, till the year 1630, and then to avoid persecution, came with his family into New England, and settled at Dorchester. In the year 1636, he went with his family to Windsor in Connecticut. Mr. Wolcott, Mr. Ludlow, Mr. Newberry, Mr. Stoughton, and Major Mason, were the five gentlemen that undertook the settling of the town. Mr. Wolcott was one of the first magistrates in the Colony of Connecticut; he lived in that post in Windsor, till he died, May 30, 1655. [The above Family Genealogy was found among the papers of the late Hon. Frederick Wolcott of Litchfield, Ct., and was transmitted to us for publication, by George C. Woodruff, Esq. We purpose to publish at some future time, a brief Memoir of the Wolcott Family, accompanied with an engraving of one of the Governor Wolcotts.]

We have received from Sylvester Judd, Esq., several corrections for the first volume of the Register, which should have had an earlier insertion.— 1. In the Introduction to the Wolcott Family, p. 251, "it is represented that Windsor, Hartford, and Wethersfield were * 'first' settled in 1636, and that Springfield and Saybrook were settled previously. Settlements commenced in the three towns first named, in 1635, before any thing was done at Saybrook, and six or eight months before any settlement was made at Springfield. Mr. Wolcott is said to have undertaken the settlement of Windsor 'with four other gentlemen; namely, Mr. Ludlow, Mr. Newbury, Mr. Stoughton, and Major Mason.' There were many others who undertook this settlement, several of whom were 'gentlemen.' Mr. Newbury did not settle in Windsor at all. He died in Massachusetts, in Dec., 1635, or early in 1636. His family removed to Windsor. The writer of this introduction says, 'Mr. Ludlow was chosen their first governor, and Mr. Wolcott a magistrate,' after they adopted the new constitution of 1638. This is incorrect. John Haynes was the first governor, and R. Ludlow, deputy governor. Mr. Ludlow was never governor of Connecticut. Mr. Wolcott was not elected magistrate until 1643. A magistrate was not called an assistant under this constitution, but was so called under the charter of 1662. It has always been said that he removed to Virginia. The writer says, 'Major Mason, it is said, had no male posterity.' Major M. certainly had three sons, who had families; namely, Samuel, b. 1644, John, 1646, and Daniel, 1652; and several daughters. Some of these errors originated with the late F. Wolcott of Litchfield. He says the wife of the third Henry Wolcott was Abigail Goss. Her name was Abiah Goffe, and she was dau. of Edward Goffe of Cambridge."

Notes.

Most of those above named as Governors and Judges, held, also, other high offices. All those mentioned as connected with Mrs. Griswold through her husband, were also related to her by Wolcott blood, her husband and herself having been second cousins.

Dr. Trumbull, in his History of Connecticut, i. 227, note, says: "Some of the [Wolcott] family have been Members of the Assembly, Judges of the Superior Court, or Magistrates, from the first settlement of the colony to this time—A.D. 1797—during the term of more than a century and a half." According to Mr. J. Hammond Trumbull, LL.D., Gov. William Pitkin "belonged to a family in which the honors of office seemed to have become hereditary. A Pitkin sat at the Council-board for three quarters of a century, six or seven years only excepted." A similar remark might be applied to the public life of the Griswolds and Trumbulls.

Among the connections of Mrs. Griswold, not mentioned, have been many eminent men in the learned professions, judges of other courts, members of both Houses of Congress, eminent merchants, military officers of high rank, etc.

Professor Simon Greenleaf, the distinguished professor of law in Harvard University, was her grandnephew through her husband. Mr. George Griffin, the eminent lawyer of New York, and the famous Rev. Dr. Edward Dorr Griffin, were of the same Wolcott and Griswold lineage as herself and her husband.

Lyman Trumbull, Justice of the Supreme Court, Illinois, also United States Senator, is of the same Drake descent as the Trumbulls named in the lists.

Gov. Roger Wolcott, Mrs. Griswold's father (I. 1), was Major-General in command of the Connecticut troops in the expedition to Cape Breton, and in the siege and capture of Louisburg, in 1745. Judge Erastus Wolcott (II. 3) and Gov. Oliver Wolcott (I. 2), her brother, were Brigadier-Generals in the Revolution. Judge Parsons (II. 12) was Major-General in the Revolution, and was a member of the Court Martial selected by Washington for the trial of Major André.

Major-General John Pope, U.S.A., son of Judge Pope (II. 23), was distinguished in the late civil war; as were many of her young descendants, one of whom, the heroic Captain John Griswold, gave his life at Antietam.

Her great-great-granddaughter, Eleanora Lorillard, daughter of Lorillard Spencer and her great-granddaughter Sarah Griswold, is the wife of Prince Virginio Cenci di Vicovaro, etc., Chamberlain to the reigning King of Italy.

GENEALOGY OF THE WOODBRIDGE FAMILY.

Communicated by Miss MARY K. TALCOTT, of Hartford, Ct.

THE compiler of the following genealogy is fully aware of its incompleteness; but as no account of this family has yet appeared in print, she hopes that these pages will supply a brief record of its earlier members until a fuller account is printed. More complete details of the families of John,[3] Benjamin[3] and Timothy,[3] are much desired by the compiler, and especially of the descendants of Timothy's sons, Timothy and Ashbel, and she will be much obliged by any further information.

1. Rev. JOHN[2] WOODBRIDGE was born at Stanton, near Highworth, Wilts, in 1613. His father, the Rev. JOHN[1] WOODBRIDGE, of Stanton, who married a daughter of the Rev. Robert Parker, an eminent nonconformist author and divine, is said to have died about 1637. The son was sent to Oxford, says Cotton Mather, but on requirement of the oath of uniformity, left the university. He came to New England with his uncle, the Rev. Thomas Parker, in 1634. He settled at Newbury, Mass., where he was the first town clerk, and held the office till Nov. 19, 1638, when Edward Woodman was chosen his successor. In 1637, 1640 and 1641, he was deputy from Newbury to the General Court. The Court appointed him, in 1637, "surveyer of the armes at Newberry;" and in 1638, and again in 1641, a commissioner to hear and determine small causes in that town. In 1643 he kept school in Boston. About 1639 he married Mercy, daughter of Gov. Thomas Dudley. He was ordained minister over the church at Andover, Oct. 24, 1645. In 1647 he went to England, where he was appointed chaplain to the Parliamentary Commissioners treating with the king at the Isle of Wight. He was afterwards minister at Andover, Hants, and Barford St. Martin's, Wilts, from which last parish he was ejected at the Restoration. In 1662 he was driven from a school in Newbury, by the Bartholomew Act, and in 1663 returned to New England, reaching Boston, says Savage, in the Society, July 27th. He became assistant to his uncle Parker at Newbury, Mass., but was dismissed from that charge Nov. 21, 1670, in consequence of church dissensions. He was an Assistant of the Massachusetts Colony in 1683 and 1684. He d. Sunday, March 17, 1694–5, at Newbury. His wife d. July 1, 1691. Their children were:

i. SARAH, b. June 7, 1640; was dead in 1691, leaving five children.
ii. LUCY, b. March 13, 1642; m. first, Oct. 2, 1667, the Rev. Simon Bradstreet, of New London, Ct., and was mother of the Rev. Simon[3] Bradstreet, H. C. 1693, minister of Charlestown, Mass.; m. second, Capt. Daniel Epps. [She was the ancestress of Rev. William Ellery Channing, D.D., Richard H. Dana, the poet, and many other distinguished personages. See REGISTER, viii. 316–20; ix. 117–20.—ED.]
3. iii. JOHN, b. about 1644.
4. iv. BENJAMIN.
5. v. THOMAS, b. about 1648.
vi. DOROTHY, m. Oct. 1679, Mr. Nathaniel Fryer.
vii. MARY, [m. Samuel Appleton, of Ipswich. He d. Aug. 16, 1693; she d. June 9, 1712.]*

* She is named in her father's will, as his daughter Mary Appleton. Coffin, in his "History of Newbury," gives the date of Mary's birth as 1652, but the Rev. Lucius R.

viii. Anne, d. at Roxbury, unm., Feb. 28, 1700–1.
6. ix. Timothy, b. 1656, at Barford St. Martin's, Wilts.
7. x. Joseph.
xi. Martha, m. Capt. Samuel Ruggles, of Roxbury. Three of their sons were ministers, viz.: Rev. Samuel[3] Ruggles, H. C. 1702, minister at Billerica; Rev. Timothy[3] Ruggles, H.C. 1707, minister at Rochester; and Rev. Benjamin[3] Ruggles, Y. C. 1721, minister at Middleboro', and afterwards at New Braintree.

2. Rev. Benjamin[2] Woodbridge, D.D., brother of John,[2] was born in Wilts, England, in 1622; was the first graduate of Harvard College. On his return to England, he succeeded the famous Dr. Twiss at Newbury; was ejected in 1662, but continued to preach privately; d. at Inglefield, Berks, Nov. 1, 1684. He published a number of works, and had a high reputation as a scholar.

3. Rev. John[3] Woodbridge (John,[2] John[1]) grad. H. C. 1664; began preaching at Killingworth, Ct., in 1666; ordained minister there April 7, 1669; married, Oct. 26, 1671, Abigail, daughter of Gov. William Leete; resigned his pastorate at Killingworth in 1679; in the same year was installed over the church at Wethersfield Ct., where he remained until his death about 1691. Children:

8. i. John, b. about 1678.
ii. Dudley, H. C. 1694; m. Dorothy, dau. of Joshua Lamb, of Roxbury; commenced preaching in Simsbury, Ct., in 1695; ord. there Nov. 10, 1697; d. Aug. 3, 1710.
9. iii. Ephraim, b. 1680.
iv. Mercy, m. Rev. Benjamin Ruggles, of Suffield, Ct.

4. Rev. Benjamin[3] Woodbridge (John,[2] John[1]) was invited to preach at Windsor, Ct., by a minority of the church, about the end of the year 1667; ordained over a church formed by the withdrawal of dissatisfied members from the old church, March 18, 1669–70. He remained there, in the midst of many dissensions, until May, 1681. Married, June 3, 1672, Mary, dau. of Rev. John Ward, of Haverhill. She died Oct. 11, 1685. He preached at Bristol, R. I., 1681–6; and at Kittery, Me., in 1688.* In 1691 he resided at Portsmouth, N. H., and in 1694 at Newcastle. He was called, in 1698, to Medford, where he was the minister for about ten years. Married second, at Hingham, Aug. 31, 1686, Deborah, widow of Henry Tarlton, and dau. of Daniel Cushing, who survived him. She was born Nov. 18, 1651. He d. at Medford, Jan. 15, 1709–10.† Children:

i. Elizabeth, b. at Windsor, Ct., April 30, 1673; d. at Exeter, N. H., Dec. 6, 1729; m. first, June 19, 1694, Rev. John Clark, H. C. 1690, of Exeter, N. H., by whom she had: 1. Benjamin, b. June, 1695; 2. Nathaniel, b. Dec. 10, 1697; 3. Deborah, b. Nov. 3, 1699, m. Oct. 2, 1718, Dr. Thomas Deane (see Register, ix. 93, for descendants); 4. Rev. Ward, H. C. 1723, b. Dec. 12, 1703, d. May 6, 1737, minister at Kingston, N. H. She m. second, Rev. John Odlin, Paige, D.D., in a record of the early generations of this family, compiled by himself, has 1662 as the date, and he has placed her as the youngest child; but he cannot readily refer to his authority. Perhaps a Mary was born in 1652 who died young, and another child was given that name. We learn from Mather's "Magnalia" (vol. i. p. 596, ed. 1853), that the Rev. John Woodbridge had twelve children, one of whom died young.—Ed.

* It seems from Backus's "History of the Baptists," i. 503, and Williamson's "History of Maine," i. 570, that a Mr. Woodbridge was minister at Kittery, about 1682. This could not have been the Rev. Benjamin, but possibly may have been his brother, the Rev. Timothy, who settled that year in Hartford.—Ed.

of Exeter, Oct. 21, 1709, by whom she had: 5. John; 6. Rev. Elisha, H. C. 1731, of Amesbury; 7. Dr. Dudley; 8. Rev. Woodbridge, H. C. 1738, of Exeter.

ii. Benjamin, who d. young.

iii. Hon. Dudley, b. Sept. 7, 1677; H. C. 1696; d. Feb. 11, 1710; of Barbadoes. Children: 1. Dudley; 2. Benjamin, b. 1709, killed in Boston, July 3, 1728, aged 19 yrs. 2 mos. (see Sargent's "Dealings with the Dead," i. 550); and perhaps others.

iv. Benjamin, b. Oct. 12, 1680.

10. v. Rev. Samuel, b. about 1683; having died June 9, 1746, aged 63.

5. Thomas[3] Woodbridge (John,[2] John[1]) m. June 12, 1671, Mary Jones, dau. of Ann, second wife of Capt. Paul White, of Newbury, Mass., by a former husband. He was a captain; d. March 30, 1681. His widow m., about 1695, Joseph Coker. Children:

i. Paul, b. Feb. 12, 1673.

ii. Mary, b. Feb. 20, 1675.

iii. Thomas, b. Jan. 28, 1677.

iv. John, } twins; b. Feb. 24, 1679.

v. Benjamin, }

6. Rev. Timothy[3] Woodbridge (John,[2] John[1]) grad. H. C. 1675; became minister over the first church in Hartford, in 1682, but was not ordained pastor until Nov. 18, 1685. He m. Mehitabel,* dau. of Hon. Samuel Wyllis, of Hartford, and widow of his predecessor, Rev. Isaac Foster, and also widow of Daniel Russell, of Charlestown. The time of her death is unknown, but he had probably a second wife, a Mrs. Howell, and he certainly married in 1716, for his last wife, Abigail, widow of Richard Lord, of Hartford, and dau. of John Warren, of Boston. He was one of the ten principal ministers of the colony named as trustees, and authorized by the General Assembly to found Yale College, in 1699; was Fellow of the College from 1700 to 1732, and was offered the rectorship, after the resignation of Rector Cutler, in 1722, but did not accept. He was also a prominent member of the Saybrook convention, in 1708. Died at Hartford, April 30, 1732. His widow died Jan. 1, 1754, æt. 77. Children by first wife:

11. i. Timothy, bapt. Oct. 3, 1686.

ii. Mary, bapt. June 19, 1692; m. May 7, 1724, Hon. William Pitkin, governor of Connecticut, 1766–69, and judge of the superior court thirteen years; d. in East Hartford, Feb. 17, 1766. Children: William,[5] member of the council of safety, during the Revolutionary war, judge of the superior court; Rev. Timothy,[5] Y. C. 1747, minister of Farmington, Ct., m. 1753, Temperance, dau. of Rev. Thomas Clap, D.D., president of Yale College; George,[5] colonel in the revolution, clerk of the superior court fifty years; Ashbel,[5] Y. C. 1755; Epaphras.[5]

iii. Ruth, bapt. Aug. 18, 1695; m. Rev. John Pierson, of Woodbridge, N. J.; d. 1734.

iv. John, bapt. Jan. 31, 1697; bur. Feb. 6, 1697.

v. Susanna (probably child of second wife), bapt. Feb. 6, 1703; m. Aug. 7, 1728, Richard Treat, son of Thomas Treat, of Glastonbury, who was b. May 14, 1694; probably the clergyman of that name who graduated Y. C. 1719.

12. vi. Ashbel, bapt. June 10, 1704.

vii. Theodore (son of third wife), bapt. June 23, 1717; d. young.

* The mother of Mehitabel Wyllis was Ruth Haynes, dau. of Gov. John Haynes and Mabel Harlakenden, his second wife, whose pedigree and descent from the English kings have often been referred to in the pages of the Register. See vol. xvii. p. 95.

7. Joseph[3] Woodbridge (John,[2] John[1]) m. May 20, 1680, Martha, dau. of Ezekiel Rogers, of Ipswich, Mass. Children:

i. Joseph, b. May 7, 1687.
ii. John, b. Feb. 13, 1690; H. C. 1710.
iii. Nathaniel, b. Jan. 28, 1696.
iv. Margaret, b. 1698.

8. Rev. John Woodbridge (John,[3] John,[2] John[1]) grad. H. C. 1694; became minister at West Springfield, Mass., June, 1698; m. Nov. 14, 1699, Jemima, dau. of Rev. Joseph Eliot, of Guilford; d. June 10, 1718. Children:

i. Abigail, b. Dec. 20, 1700; m. John Mixer, of West Springfield.
ii. John, b. Dec. 25, 1702; Y. C. 1726; minister at Poquonnoc, Ct., 1731; m. Tryphenia, dau. of Rev. Benjamin and Mercy (Woodbridge) Ruggles, Nov. 24, 1729; left Poquonnoc in 1736 and settled at South Hadley. His wife d. Jan. 10, 1749, and he m. in 1750, Mrs. Elizabeth Barnard.* Died Sept. 10, 1783. Rev. John[7] Woodbridge, D.D., of Hadley,† who d. in 1869, was his grandson.

William[8] Woodbridge, of Detroit, governor of Michigan and U. S. Senator, m. Julia, dau. of John Trumbull, author of McFingal. (See Walworth's Hyde Genealogy, page 922, for this family.)
ii. Paul, b. March 12, 1708; lived in South Kingston, R. I.
iii. Augustus, b. Oct. 29, 1710.
iv. Hannah, b. Feb. 9, 1714.
v. Mary, b. Oct. 27, 1719.
vi. Oliver, b. Dec. 3, 1723.

10. Rev. Samuel[4] Woodbridge (Benjamin,[3] John,[2] John[1]) grad. H. C. 1701; ordained first minister of the church in East Hartford, Ct., March 30, 1705; m. Dec. 9, 1707, Mabel, dau. of Daniel Russell, of Charlestown, step-daughter of his uncle, Rev. T. Woodbridge, and widow of Rev. John Hubbard, of Jamaica, L. I. She d. about 1722, and he m. second, Mrs. Content, widow of Benjamin Bull, Esq., of Newport, R. I. He d. June 9, 1746, and his widow d. July 28, 1758. Children:

* Miss Jones, in her "History of Stockbridge," p. 134, says, "His second wife was Miss Clark, of Belchertown."—Ed.

† A memoir of this clergyman, by the Rev. Sereno D. Clark, was published in 1877, by Lee & Shepard, of Boston, under the title, "The New England Ministry Sixty Years Ago."—Ed.

vii. Samuel (second wife's son), b. 1732; d. in East Hartford, July 4, 1794.

11. Rev. Timothy[4] Woodbridge (Timothy,[3] John,[2] John[1]) grad. Y. C. 1706; became minister at Simsbury, Ct., 1712; m. Dorothy, dau. of Joshua Lamb, and widow of Rev. Dudley Woodbridge. Both of the Messrs. Woodbridge, and also Rev. John W. of West Springfield, were engaged in an association for working a large copper-mine, in that part of Simsbury now Granby, and were by this business involved in vexatious law-suits and other complications. Mr. T. Woodbridge also had difficulties with his parish, but remained in Simsbury until his death in 1742. Children:

i. Timothy, Y. C. 1732; tutor at Yale, 1737–39; ordained colleague pastor with Rev. William Williams over the church in Hatfield, Mass., in 1740; d. June 3, 1770.

WOODBRIDGE AND PARKER.—Since the Woodbridge Genealogy in this number (ante, * p. 292) was printed, an article entitled "Parkers in America" has been handed us by Mr. Appleton, and will be found on page 337.

It will be seen by the abstract of the will of Dorothy, widow of the Rev. Robert Parker, that her daughter, who married the Rev. John[1] Woodbridge, was named Sarah, and that after the death of Mr. Woodbridge she married Thomas Bayley. Besides her sons, the Rev. John[2] and the Rev. Benjamin[2] Woodbridge, she had, it seems, two daughters, Sarah Kerridge and Lucy Sparhawk. In reply to the query of Mr. Appleton, Who was Lucy Sparhawk? I would suggest that she may have been the wife of the Rev. Edward Sparhawk, of Black Notley in Essex, who had a wife Lucy. (See Davids's Annals of Evangelical Nonconformity in Essex, p. 432.) He was ejected under the Bartholomew act. Sarah Kerridge, also, may have been the wife of an ejected minister, as there was a Rev. Mr. Kerridge ejected from Wooton Fitz-Pain in Dorset, who had a son Rev. John Kerridge, M.A., ejected as a schoolmaster at Lyme Regis in Dorset, afterwards a dissenting minister at Culleton in Devon. See Palmer's Nonconformist's Memorial, ed. 1778, vol. i. pp. 460 and 487. It is possible that the Rev. Thomas Baylie, B.D., ejected from Mildenhall in Wiltshire, who died in 1663, aged 81 (Ibid., vol. ii. p. 508), may have been their step-father.

Mrs. Parker's other daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Avery, we are informed by the late Hon. James Savage, LL.D. (Mass. Hist. Coll., 3d Ser. viii. 288), printed a book containing what her brother Thomas considered religious errors. A letter to her by him, touching her opinions, was written at Newbury in N. E., Nov., 1648, and printed in England the next year, with a preface by their nephew, the Rev. Benjamin Woodbridge.—ED.

WOODBRIDGE.—Many years ago, my kinswoman, Mrs. M. C. Caswall, then wife of Rev. Henry Caswall, D.D., of Figheldean Vicarage, near Amesbury, Wiltshire, England (now his widow, residing at Franklin, Pa.), procured for me the following extracts from the parish register of Stanton:

"John Kerridge & Sarah Woodbridge marryed y^e^ 27^th^ of Decemb. 1632."

"1637. John Woodbridge Rector of this parish buryed the 9^th^ of December, 1637."

One of these records confirms the supposition (ante, p. 342) concerning the —— Kerridge who married Sarah Woodbridge, and the other gives the date of the death of Rev. John Woodbridge (ante, p. 292) more nearly than it is generally known.

L. R. PAIGE.

In a volume of tracts formerly belonging to the late Joshua Green, M.D., loaned me by his son Samuel A. Green, M.D., acting librarian of the Boston Public Library, is a sermon preached at the marriage of the Rev. John Clark, of Exeter, and Elizabeth, daughter of the Rev. Benjamin Woodbridge, of Newcastle, N. H. (ante, 293). Its title is, "A Meet Help, or a Wedding Sermon, Preached at New Castle in New England, June 19, 1694. At the Marriage of Mr. John Clark and Mrs. Elizabeth Woodbridge. By Mr. John Cotton: Pastor of the Church at Hampton. Heb. 13, 4. Marriage ...Judge. Hos. 3, 3. Thou shalt....for thee. Cant. 2, 16. My....am his. [Texts printed in full.] Boston: Printed by B. Green and J. Allen. Sold by Michael Perry, at his Shop over against the Town house, 1699."

It is a foolscap 8vo. of 24 pages. Does any reader of the REGISTER know of a wedding-sermon printed in New England at an earlier date than this?

J. W. DEAN.

The Rev. Benjamin Woodbridge (Register, xxxii. 421).—We have been favored * by John S. H. Fogg, M.D., of South Boston, with the following extracts from the town records of Kittery, Me.:

"3 Dec. 1689. Voted that Benjamin Woodbridge shall have liberty to keep a gate between Capt. Hook's land and his at Kittery Point."

"5th July 1700. Benjamin Woodbridge requests a survey of five hundred acres at Kittery Point granted unto Maj. Nicholas Shapleigh, now most of it being the land of Maj. Nathaniel Thomas of Marshfield."

These are all the entries he finds on the Kittery records concerning Woodbridge, who was the minister there for a few years.

He purchased an estate at Kittery, June 24, 1688, being then "of Kittery," which he sold June 17, 1691, being then "of Portsmouth." See Register, v. 248.

Great Island, now Newcastle, at the latter date was a part of Portsmouth, and it is known that he resided here some years later. He probably removed from the main land to the island when the Indian troubles in 1690 forced the inhabitants to leave.

Woodward.—In Bronson's History of Waterbury, Conn., there is quite an extended genealogy of the Woodwards, who are descended from Henry of Dorchester, 1635. In it I discover he has left out an entire generation, and it may be well to correct the error, as many of the Woodwards regard his genealogy as authority in making up the earlier generations of the various branches.

Mr. Bronson gives the children of John,[2] son of Henry,[1] as follows:

i. Elizabeth,[3] b. March 17, 1672.
ii. John,[3] bapt. April 2, 1674.
iii. Samuel,[3] b. March 20, 1676; d. Oct. 20, 1676.
iv. Henry,[3] b. March 18, 1680.
v. Thomas,[3] b. April 22, 1682.
vi. Israel,[3] b. Feb. 6, 1685.

Thus far Mr. Bronson is right, but his error lies in continuing the descent of this family through Israel.[3] Israel[3] died unmarried, and the persons that Mr. B. has traced were descended from Capt. Israel,[4] a son of John.[3]

John,[3] son of John,[2] bapt. April 2, 1674, married June 2, 1703, Experience Baldwin, at Lebanon, Conn. She died April 9, 1741, and he died Sept. 19, 1743.

Children:

i. Experience,[4] b. Aug. 10, 1704.
ii. Israel,[4] b. June 5, 1707.
iii. John, b. March 28, 1719; d. Sept. 8, 1741. He was a graduate of Yale College, and on his way to New Haven to receive his second degree, the sail boat (ferry boat) at East Haddam upset and he was drowned. His father's residence at Lebanon is still known as "Woodward Hill."

Capt. Israel,[4] son of John,[3] married March 31, 1731, Abigail Bayard (or Beard), and their children are the ones whom Mr. B. attributes to Israel.[3]

In conclusion I will note that Mr. Orcutt (in his genealogy of the Woodwards given in his history of Torrington) has fallen into the same error above mentioned, and that the Woodwards of Torrington may add another generation to their family tree.

REV. JOHN WOODWARD OF NORWICH, CONN., AND HIS DESCENDANTS.

Compiled by Hon. RALPH D. SMYTH, and communicated by Dr. BERNARD C. STEINER.

1. REV. JOHN[1] WOODWARD, A.B., Harvard College, 1693, was settled at Norwich, Conn., in 1699. He was born in 1672, and died Feb. 14, 1746. On June 8, 1703, he married first, Sarah, daughter of Richard Rosewell, who died Oct. 20, 1720, aged 33; and married second, May 5, 1721, Mary Gaskill, who died Mar. 2, 1774, aged 82.

Children by first wife:

i. SARAH,[2] b. July 20, 1704; m. Samuel Miles.
ii. LYDIA, b. June 4, 1706; d. June 18, 1758; m. in 1730, Diodate Davenport, who d. Dec. 3, 1761.
iii. ROSEWELL, b. Apr. 22, 1708; d. Sept. 10, 1773; m. Mar. 26, 1747, Huldah, dau. of Hon. Samuel Hill, who d. Jan. 9, 1773, aged 60; no children.
iv. MARY, b. Aug. 10, 1710.
2. v. JOHN, b. July 11, 1712; d. May 25, 1791.
vi. ELIZABETH, b. Nov. 27, 1713; d. unmarried, Sept. 6, 1760.
3. vii. RICHARD, b. Apr. 4, 1716; d. July 28, 1795.
4. viii. WILLIAM, b. Oct. 18, 1718; d. Feb. 17, 1761.
ix. MARY, b. Oct., 1720; m. in 1740, Joseph Trowbridge of New Haven.

Child by second wife:

x. GASKILL, b. 1732; m. Anna Butler; no children.

2. JOHN[2] WOODWARD, JR. (John[1]) married, Sept. 3, 1741, Mary Denisen, who died Nov. 17, 1791.

THE FAMILY OF ABEL WOODWORTH.—The following record supplies data about the children of Abel Woodworth of Lebanon, Conn., and Columbia County, N. Y.

ABEL[6] WOODWORTH (Reuben,[5] Ichabod,[4] Benjamin,[3] Walter,[2] Walter[1]), born at Lebanon, Conn., 5 June 1758, died at Canaan, Columbia Co., N. Y., 4 Apr. 1838. He married first ESTHER STRONG, born 24 Apr. 1761, died 19 Feb. 1826, buried in the churchyard at Spencertown, N. Y., daughter of David and Deborah (Terry) Strong; and secondly HANNAH ———.

In the Revolution Abel Woodworth enlisted at Windham, Conn., served as a marine on the ship Oliver Cromwell, for one year and five months from August 1776, and as second sergeant for one year and seven and one-half months under Captains Coit, Seth Harding, and Timothy Parker. He was captured and held as a prisoner eight or nine weeks on the prison ships Jersey and Good Hope, and was exchanged 19 Aug. 1779.

He lived at Columbia, Conn., and, after his marriage, in Columbia County, N. Y.

Children by first wife:

vi. HARRIET, b. in 1802; d. in 1872; m. as his second wife, SHERMAN GRISWOLD.

vii. A SON.

Robertsdale, Ala. EFFA M. SWIFT.

WOOSTER (vol. xxix. p. 318).—The late Hon. Henry C. Deming, in his oration upon the life and services of Gen. David Wooster, delivered at Danbury, Ct., April 27, 1854, says, David Wooster was born at Stratford on the second of March, 1710–11, old style, the son of Abraham and Mary Wooster, and the youngest of six children. —Oration, p. 6.

Some inquiry has been made in the old town recently for the maiden name of Abraham's wife, but so far without success.

The dividing line between Stratford and Huntington (once a part of Stratford) runs through the farm once in possession of the Wooster family.

The following list of the children of Abraham and Mary Wooster, obtained from the late Edward C. Herrick, Esq., of New-Haven, and to whom Mr. Deming acknowledged himself indebted for much information concerning the General and his family, may be of interest: —

Ruth, b. Sept. 26, 1700. Sarah, b. April 2, 1705. Hannah, b. Feb. 23, 1709.
Joseph, b. Jan. 16, 1702. Mary, b. April 3, 1707. David, b. March 2, 1710–11.

QUINNIPIAC.

[Since the above was sent us, the following memorandum, from the same source, has been received: — "Abraham Wooster and Mary Walker were married on the 22d of November, 1697."]

EDWARD WOOSTER OF DERBY, CONN., AND SOME OF HIS DESCENDANTS

By Donald Lines Jacobus, M.A., of Mount Carmel, Conn.*

An account of Edward Wooster of Derby, Conn., with a fragmentary record of his family, appears in the "History of Derby," by Samuel Orcutt, published at Springfield, Mass., in 1880, pages 780–784. The "Genealogy of the Woosters in America," by David Wooster, M. D., San Francisco, Cal., 1885, although it presents valuable biographical material relative to certain members of the family, is genealogically very incomplete and inaccurate. An article entitled "The Wooster Family," by Holdridge Ozro Collins of Los Angeles, Cal., which appeared in the New York Genealogical and Biographical Record, vol. 30, pages 242–247, and vol. 31, pages 39–47, perpetuates all the errors made by Orcutt and, with the exception of the descendants of Walter Wooster (vide infra, 10, vii), adds little to the previous accounts. "Seymour Past and Present," by Messrs. Campbell, Sharpe, and Bassett, Seymour, Conn., 1902, pages 599–605, follows Orcutt's account for the earlier generations, but adds considerable material relative to Seymour branches of the family. An article entitled "The British House of Worcester in America," by Mary S. Austin, published in The Connecticut Magazine, vol. 12, pages 81 et seq., 337 et seq., gives a romantically colored account of Edward Wooster and early days in Derby, based on printed sources. Two pages (243, 244), containing no additional material, are devoted to this family in the "Descendants of Rev. William Worcester," by Sarah Alice Worcester, Boston, 1914.

Although the prominence of this family has caused so much to be written concerning it, it is apparent that, aside from the exceptions noted above, very little independent research has been made since Orcutt published his "History of Derby." The errors made by Orcutt have been followed by his successors. No one of these publications presents the material that is to be found in the church and land records of Derby, and their accounts of the branches of the family which did not reside at Derby are confused and conflicting. It is the purpose of the compiler of the following account to correct the inaccuracies of these publications and to set forth the lines omitted therein.

1. Edward[1] Wooster, whose origin is unknown,† was of Derby,

*The compiler acknowledges his indebtedness to George Clarke Bryant, B.A., LL.B., of Ansonia, Conn., for much valuable information relating to the Wooster family.

†It has been suggested in all seriousness that he sprang from the marquises of Worcester. The surname of this English house, which was of Plantagenet descent in the male (illegitimate) line, was Somerset; and, in accord with English custom, only the illegitimate offspring would assume Conn.,* and died there 8 July 1689. He married first ———;† and secondly TABITHA TOMLINSON, daughter of Henry and Alice of Stratford. She married secondly, about 1690, as his second wife, Dr. John Hull of Derby, and died in 1691.

In 1651 Edward Wooster obtained permission from the town of Milford to settle in the northern part of the township, then known as Paugasset. Within the next year or two he and his brother-in-law, Thomas Langdon,‡ built houses at Paugasset, thus founding what became in 1675 the town of Derby. The growing village at Paugasset was not viewed with favor by the authorities at Milford and New Haven, and occasional lawlessness on the part of some of the villagers intensified their disapproval. In this situation Edward Wooster conducted himself with prudence, for in 1669 the General Court appointed him constable of Paugasset. His social position is indicated by the fact that at least one record refers to him as "goodman."

Children by first wife:

i. ELIZABETH,[3] m. at Stratford 16 Nov. 1671 COL. EBENEZER[2] JOHNSON, who d. at Derby 18 Sept. 1726, aged 81, s. of Peter of Fairfield. He m. (2) at Derby, 23 Nov. 1676, Hannah ———,§ by whom he had eight children. Only child: 1. Elizabeth,[3] b. 20 Dec. 1672; d. in 1757; m. in 1692 Jeremiah[3] Johnson, b. at New Haven 25 Apr. 1664, d. at Derby 11 Dec. 1726, s. of Jeremiah[2] (Thomas[1]) and Sarah (Hotchkiss).

ii. MARY, b. 2 Nov. 1654; d. young.

2. iii. THOMAS, b. about 1656.

iv. EDWARD, bapt. at Milford 12 June 1670; d. young.

3. v. DAVID, bapt. at Milford 12 June 1670.

Children by second wife:‖

vi. HENRY, b. 18 Aug. 1666 and bapt., with Ruth, at Milford 4 July 1669; d. s.p., in her Majesty's service in the expedition to Canada, prior to an agreement of his heirs dated 9 Feb. 1709/10.

vii. RUTH, b. 8 Apr. 1668 and bapt., with Henry, at Milford 4 July 1669; m. in 1687 SAMUEL[3] BOWERS, bapt. at New Haven 5 Nov.

the title as a surname. The suggestion has also been made, but without proof, that he was related to Rev. William Worcester of Salisbury, Mass.

*All places mentioned in this article are situated within the present limits of the State of Connecticut, unless another State or region is indicated in the text or may be easily inferred from the context.

†Orcutt's suggestion that she was related to Francis French of Derby has been amplified in subsequent accounts, some of which state that she was Elizabeth French. It is more likely that she was sister of Thomas Langdon, for whom Edward's eldest son may have been named.

‡Thomas Langdon spoke of "his brother Woster" (New Haven Historical Society's Ancient Record Series, vol. 1, p. 173).

§The marriage record entirely omits the name of the bride. Her first name appears in subsequent records. Her surname has been given positively as Tomlinson (Seymour Past and Present, p. 489), an error which probably originated with Orcutt (History of Derby, p. 738). Inconclusive evidence indicates that she was daughter of Richard Holbrook of Milford.

‖Orcutt's History of Derby, followed by all subsequent accounts, states that Edward's second marriage occurred in 1669. The marriage has not been found on record in Derby, Milford, or Stratford. It would seem that Orcutt accepted the date of Tabitha Wooster's admission to the church as the date of her marriage. "Tabitha wife of Edward Wooster was added to the church" in Milford on 27 June 1669; and, since Henry and Ruth were baptized one week later as children of Sister Wooster, they were presumably her own children. "Edward Worcester" did not join the church until 27 Dec. 1669; and, since Edward and David were baptized thereafter as children of Brother Edward Worcester, they were presumably his children by his former wife. Since the eldest son, Thomas, married a sister of his stepmother's, he and his two elder sisters were certainly children of the first wife. Heretofore Timothy has always been given as the eldest child of the second wife, and Abraham has always been erroneously assigned to the first wife. Further evidence favoring the division made above is found in the name Henry, which was also the name of Tabitha's father.

1665, d. at Derby in 1744, s. of Rev. John[2] (George[1]) and Bridget (Thompson). He m. (2) 4 Nov. 1691 Lydia French, by whom he had six children. Child:* 1. John, who in 1714 had a wife Charity, recently married (New Haven County Court Records).

4. viii. TIMOTHY, b. 12 Nov. 1670 and bapt. at Milford 18 Dec. 1670.
5. ix. ABRAHAM, bapt. at Milford 16 Mar. 1672/3.
   x. HANNAH, bapt. at Milford 31 Oct. 1675; m. 20 Aug. 1696 WILLIAM[3] WASHBURN, b. at Stratford 16 Mar. 1668/9, d. at Derby 18 Jan. 1741, s. of Hope[2] (William[1]) and Mary (Stiles). Seven children.
6. xi. SYLVESTER.
   xii. TABITHA, m. (1) at Stratford, 15 Oct. 1705, JOHN WALKER; m. (2) at Stratford, 11 Oct. 1726, JOSEPH BIRDSEY.
7. xiii. JONAS.
8. xiv. EBENEZER, bapt. at Milford 5 Aug. 1688.

2. LIEUT. THOMAS[2] WOOSTER (Edward[1]), of Derby, born about 1656, died 9 Jan. 1712/13. He married PHEBE TOMLINSON, born at Stratford 14 Aug. 1656, died in Mar. 1739/40, daughter of Henry and Alice and sister of his stepmother.

In Oct. 1706, being then a sergeant, he was commissioned lieutenant of the trainband in Derby.

Children:

i. PHEBE,[3]† b. 6 Mar. 1678/9; d. after Feb. 1762; m. JOHN[3] LEAVENWORTH of Newtown, s. of Thomas[1] and Grace. For their children see REGISTER, vol. 72, p. 78.
ii. ALICE, b. 6 Sept. 1680; d. in Sept. 1682.
iii. ZERVIAH, b. 19 Aug. 1682; d. 20 Feb. 1697/8.‡
iv. ELIZABETH, b. 1 Sept. 1685; m. 27 Mar. 1712 JOHN[2] TOMLINSON, b. 19 Sept. 1686, d. 18 Nov. 1756, s. of William.[1] He m. (2) Hannah (Merwin) Collins, widow of John Collins, who m. (3) Samuel Sanford. By her John Tomlinson had two sons. Children: 1. Phebe, b. 27 Jan. 1712/13; d. young. 2. Bathsheba, b. 24 Dec. 1714; d. young. 3. Joseph, b. 27 Dec. 1716; m. (1) 24 May 1743 Sarah Beers, who d. 22 Feb. 1776, aged 56; m. (2) 14 Oct. 1776 Elizabeth (Clark) Hull, b. 24 Sept. 1732, d. 11 Feb. 1826, dau. of William and Hannah (Peck) Clark and widow of Joseph Hull. She m. (3) 13 Feb. 1793 Joseph Osborn and (4) James Masters. 4. Elizabeth, b. 29 Dec. 1720; d. 7 Feb. 1789; m. 14 May 1739 Joseph Twitchell. 5. Abigail, b. 18 June 1723; m. Elias Davis. 6. John, b. 23 Sept. 1725; d. 18 Nov. 1817; m. 28 Apr. 1748 Deborah Bassett.
v. ALICE,§ b. about 1687; d. s.p. 8 Aug. 1774; m. SAMUEL WOOSTER (6, iv).

9. vi. THOMAS, b. 18 Feb. 1691/2.
   vii. THANKFUL, b. 7 Nov. 1695; d. 18 Nov. 1706.
   viii. ZERVIAH,‖ b. about 1699; d. 15 Nov. 1753; m. 4 Apr. 1723 JONATHAN[4] MILES, b. about 1700, d. 21 Feb. 1784, s. of Theophilus[3] (Samuel,[2] Richard[1]) and Bethia (? Pettit). Children: 1. Bethia, b. 1 Feb. 1723/4; d. young. 2. Theophilus, b. 12 Feb. 1729/30; d. young. 3. Phebe, b. 3 Sept. 1732; m. Abraham Bassett of Oxford. 4.

*This child is omitted in Orcutt's History of Derby, p. 703. Probate records prove that he was son of Samuel Bowers, and a consideration of the dates shows that it is almost impossible for him to have been a child by the second wife. The New York Genealogical and Biographical Record, vol. 31, p. 42, followed therein by Seymour Past and Present, p. 603, gives Ruth a fictitious child, Sarah Bowers, who (it is alleged) married Timothy Wooster (10), q.v.

†Orcutt's History of Derby calls this child Phebe Leavenworth, and states that she died 26 Mar. 1696. No such entry has been found in the Derby records.

‡Orcutt's History of Derby erroneously states that she died 19 Aug. 1682.

§Omitted in History of Derby and subsequent accounts. Her marriage is proved by Derby Deeds, vol. 4, p. 350. Her estate was distributed to her brother Thomas Wooster, to the heirs of her eldest sister, Phebe Leavensworth, to the heirs of her second sister, Elisabeth Tomlinson, and to the heirs of her third sister, Zeruiah Miles.

‖Omitted in History of Derby and subsequent accounts.

Hannah, bapt. at Christ Church, Stratford, 27 Jan. 1735; d. young. 5. Theophilus, bapt. at Christ Church, Stratford, in 1740; d. 11 Dec. 1822; m. (1) Mary Meeker of Bethlehem, who d. 19 Oct. 1795, aged 44; m. (2) at East Haven, 29 Sept. 1802, Lucinda (Street) (Hickox) Alling, b. 17 July 1763, d. 7 Oct. 1843, dau. of Rev. Nicholas and Desire (Thompson) Street and widow of Darius Hickox and Titus Alling. 6. Bethia, bapt. at St. James's Church, Derby, 15 Aug. 1742; d. 20 Apr. 1821; m. 6 Sept. 1761 Samuel Tuttle of East Haven. 7. Zerviah, d. s.p. at North Haven in 1826; m. 30 May 1764 Stephen Mix. 8. Jonathan, b. about 1746; d. about 1830; m. 17 Feb. 1768 Lucy Smith of Glastonbury.

Micah Brooks of the War of 1812. 5. Tamar, b. 18 Apr. 1746; lived with her sister Mehitabel; d. unm. at New Haven 13 Oct. 1801.

*The first five and last two children are recorded at Derby, the sixth and seventh at Milford. The History of Derby and subsequent publications erroneously combine the twins David and Wooster into a single child, David Wooster. Derby records contain a second, and palpably incorrect, entry of the birth of the fifth child, Mary, on 10 Mar. 1726/7.

†He was licensed to preach in 1770, but was never ordained. He served in the Revolution, represented Wallingford in the Connecticut Assembly in Oct. 1777 and May 1780, and was a delegate to the Connecticut Convention in 1788 for ratifying the Federal Constitution.

4. TIMOTHY[2] WOOSTER (Edward[1]), of Derby, was born 12 Nov. 1670 and was baptized at Milford 18 Dec. 1670. He married, 23 May 1699, ANNA PERRY, born at Stratford 22 Jan. 1679/80, daughter of Arthur and Anna (Judson).

Children:

10. i. TIMOTHY,[3] b. 29 Dec. 1699.

*Roger Perkins had two children by his second wife, Mary, viz., Sarah (born in 1748) and Eunice (born in 1749). The diary of a grandson of Roger is said to contain the statement that Roger's first wife was Ann, daughter of Ithiel Russell. This is disproved by several records, including a deed from Timothy Wooster to his son-in-law Roger Perkins (Derby Deeds, vol. 5, p. 510).

†Nathan Wooster's estate (excepting dower) was distributed in 1810 to his surviving first cousins on both sides. Those mentioned on his father's side were: (1) Walter, son of Timothy Wooster; (2) Aner and Naomi, daughters of Eleazer Wooster; (3) Joseph, Anna, and Sarah, children of Samuel Wooster; (4) Henry, son of Henry Wooster; (5) Robert and Lois, children of Damaris Durand by her first marriage, she being then Damaris Hawkins, and Abigail, Mercy, and Noah, children of Damaris Durand by her second marriage; (6) children (unnamed) of Anne Perkins. (New Haven Probate Records, vol. 27, p. 167.)

Children, recorded at Oxford: 1. Lurana,[4] bapt. 24 [obliterated] 1747. 2. Naomi, bapt. 28 May 1749.

x. PETER, of Oxford, d. about 1760; m. 14 June 1754 MARTHA SMITH, who d. 1 Feb. 1804, having m. (2) 3 Sept. 1767 Ezekiel Perry. Peter Wooster served in the French and Indian War, being corporal of the Seventh Company, Fourth Connecticut Regiment, from 12 Sept. to 19 Oct. 1755, sergeant of the same company from 19 Oct. 1755, and ensign of the Fourth Company, Second Regiment, in 1758. He was wounded, scalped, and left for dead on 8 Aug. 1758.† He was second lieutenant of the Eleventh Company, Second Regiment, in 1759, and first lieutenant of the First Company, Third Regiment, in 1760. In his will, dated 6 July 1759 and proved in Jan. 1761, he names his wife Martha and his brothers Arthur and Eleazer. In 1767 Ezekiel Perry was appointed guardian to Peter Wooster's dau. Martha. Child: 1. Martha,[4] b. about 1760 and bapt. at Oxford 11 Dec. 1761; m. Abel Clark. On 11 Apr. 1780 Abel Clark and wife Martha, late of Stratford, now resident in Derby, conveyed land in Oxford inherited from their father, Peter Wooster, deceased (Derby Deeds, vol. 11, p. 235).

5. CAPT. ABRAHAM[2] WOOSTER (Edward[1]), of Stratford, baptized at Milford 16 Mar. 1672/3, died 1 Sept. 174[3], aged 70 (gravestone in Episcopal churchyard, Stratford). He married, 22 Nov. 1699, MARY WALKER.

In May 1717 he was appointed ensign and in May 1728 captain of the trainband in the parish of Ripton in Stratford. In his will, dated 31 Aug. 1739 and proved 29 Sept. 1743, he named his wife Mary, his sons Joseph and David, and his daughters Sarah Heminway, Mary Harrison, Hannah Wooster, and Ann Wooster.

Orcutt's "History of Derby" (p. 782) states that Abraham Wooster resided at Stratford until about 1719, that he was living at Derby as early as 1722, and that he was still resident in Derby in July 1743, when he conveyed land to Abraham Wooster, Jr. A careful consideration of all the facts makes it certain that the deed of July 1743 was drawn by Abraham[3] (16), q.v., to the latter's nephew Abraham[4] (24), and the evidence is adequate to prove that Capt. Abraham Wooster, from the time of his marriage until his death, resided continuously at Stratford. As a result of Orcutt's mistake the subsequent biographies of Gen. David Wooster, son of Capt. Abraham, erroneously state that David spent his boyhood in Derby, and Dexter's "Yale Biographies" calls David son of Abraham of Derby.

†He was granted £40 by the Connecticut Assembly as recompense for injuries received at the battle of Wood Creek, when six musket balls were shot through him, and, in addition to receiving nine blows on the head with a hatchet, he was scalped and stripped.

‡Orcutt's History of Derby, p. 782, gives the date of Abraham Wooster's marriage as 1697 instead of 1699, and inserts a fictitious Abraham (whom it identifies with No. 16 of this article) as the eldest child. The correct date of marriage (1699) is given in Cothren's History of Woodbury, vol. 3, p. 688, and the compiler of this article has personally verified it by reference to the

6. SYLVESTER[2] WOOSTER (Edward[1]), of Derby, died 16 Nov. 1712. He married SUSANNA ———, who married secondly, 30 Nov. 1713, Samuel Washburn,† born at Stratford 5 Mar. 1670/1, died at Derby in 1724, son of Hope and Mary (Stiles), and thirdly, in 1724, ——— Northrop.

The probate records give the names and ages of Sylvester's children, early in 1714, as Moses, 13, Tabitha, 11, Sam[ll], 8, Nath[ll], 5, Sylvester, 2, and Susanna, 7 months. In Feb. 1724 the widow was called Susanna Wooster alias Washborne, in Dec. 1724 Susanna Northrop, lately Washborne.

original record. The Wooster Genealogy, p. 27, erroneously states that the eldest son was Abraham, born in 1698, and that the latter was father of Edward, born in 1734 (whom it identifies with No. 11, iii, of this article).

*Dodd's East Haven Register, p. 145, erroneously calls the mother of Corpl. Thomas Robinson Anna Harrison, states that he married Anna Wooster, and assigns to him eight children who were actually the children of his uncle, Eliakim Robinson.

†Susanna had two children by Samuel Washburn, viz., Mary and Samuel. The latter was born 4 May 1717, married 19 May 1741 Sarah Beach, and died in the military service 24 Oct. 1760.

‡His name is omitted in the above-mentioned probate list, presumably through an oversight. His parentage, though not conclusively proved, is indicated by several deeds. On 16 Mar. 1731 Moses, Abraham, and Nathaniel Wooster of Derby conveyed undivided land, of which Moses owned a two-seventh share, Abraham a one-seventh share, and Nathaniel a one-seventh share (Derby Deeds, vol. 4, p. 36). On 16 July 1743 Abraham Wooster Sn[r] of Derby conveyed to Abraham Wooster Jun[r] of sd Derby now Resident in Stratford land at Quaker Farms [Oxford] "laid out on y[e] List of Silvester Wooster Late of sd Derby Deceast" (Derby Deeds, vol. 5, p. 52). On 18 Jan. 1748 Abraham Wooster of Waterbury conveyed land at Quaker Farms "Laid out in y[e] Right of Silvester Wooster Deceased and was Sam[ll] Woosters Deceased his part of sd Land and bought by me of sd Wooster" (Derby Deeds, vol. 5, p. 422).

7. LIEUT. JONAS[2] WOOSTER (Edward[1]), of Stratford, where he resided in the parish of Ripton (afterwards the town of Huntington), married JANE NICHOLS, probably daughter of Benjamin of Stratford, of whose estate Jonas was administrator in 1719. In 1773 her three sons, John Wooster of Stratford, Jonas Wooster of Milford, and Benjamin Wooster of Litchfield, joined a large number of other Nichols heirs in a suit before the Superior Court for the recovery of certain lands.

Jonas Wooster was confirmed as ensign of the trainband at Ripton in May 1728 and as lieutenant of the same company in Oct. 1740. He first bought land in Litchfield in 1731. His brother Timothy also acquired property there, which he conveyed in 1747 to his "sons Arthur and Peter," they in turn conveying it, in 1748, to their "uncle Lieut. Jonah Wooster of Ripton in Stratford." Jonas conveyed his Litchfield property, 7 Oct. 1752, to his "son Benja Wooster of Stratford," and Benjamin removed thither.*

He settled in Milford prior to 3 Jan. 1737/8, when he purchased property there. Child: 1. Abigail,[4] b. about 1735; d. 1 Aug. 1771, aged 36 (gravestone at Washington, which calls her "only child of Jonas and Abigail Wooster"); m. Capt. Jonathan Farrand,‡ who d. 19 Sept. 1812, aged 84, having m. (2) Rebecca Powell.

8. EBENEZER[2] WOOSTER (Edward[1]), of Stratford and Stamford, baptized at Milford 5 Aug. 1688, is possibly the Ebenezer who died at Stamford in Jan. 1765, the administratrix of whose estate was Mary Wooster. He married MARGARET SAWTELL, daughter of Zechariah of Groton.

He removed from Stratford to Stamford in 1717, conveying his property in Stratford to Jonas Wooster (Stratford Deeds, vol. 2, p. 431A).

*Litchfield Deeds, vol. 2, pp. 9, 160, 440, and vol. 4, pp. 237, 306, 446.

†Probably in 1795. Milford Deeds call Jonas of Milford in 1781 but of Washington in 1784 and 1785. The Washington records published in Cothren's History of Woodbury, vol. 3, give the death of a John Wooster in 1795. Jonas is the only Wooster known to have resided at Washington at that time, and it is likely that this "John" is a misprint or misreading of the name "Jonas."

‡Capt. Jonathan and Abigail (Wooster) Farrand had three children: 1. Abigail, died 28 Aug. 1805, aged 48; married 23 Nov. 1779 Hon. Daniel Nathaniel Brinsmade, B. A. (Yale, 1772), M. A. (ib., 1775); their son was Gen. Daniel B. Brinsmade, born 15 Oct. 1782, died 3 Nov. 1862, father-in-law of Frederick W. Gunn, the founder of The Gunnery, a boys' preparatory school at Washington. 2. Esther, died 16 Jan. 1846, aged 87; married 15 Nov. 1779 Simeon Mitchell. 3. John, married in 1781 Catherine Baldwin.

Huntington (Stamford, 1874), p. 137, gives the family of an Ebenezer Wooster who died 10 July 1802. He married 15 Nov. 1789 Elizabeth Waterbury, and had children born as follows: John W., 1 July 1790; James, 3 June 1792; Ebenezer, 29 Mar. 1794; Henry, 15 Jan. 1796; Mary, 14 Aug. 1798 (died 29 July 1799).

23. viii. HENRY, bapt. in the Congregational Church, Derby, 8 May 1737.

10. TIMOTHY[3] WOOSTER (Timothy,[2] Edward[1]), of Derby, was born 29 Dec. 1699. He married first, 18 Aug. 1727, ABIGAIL[3] HARGER, born 2 July 1706, died 23 Sept. 1736, daughter of Abraham[2] (Jabez[1]) and Hannah (Riggs); and secondly, 22 Mar. 1736/7, SARAH (CARRINGTON) BOWERS, born at New Haven 4 Dec. 1708, died 23 Oct. 1749, daughter of Peter and Anna (Wilmot) Carrington and widow of Samuel Bowers.*

Children by first wife:

i. JABEZ,[4] of Bridgewater,† b. 15 Oct. 1728; d. in 1794; m. (1) SUSANNA ———; m. (2) FREELOVE OVIATT, bapt. at Milford 9 Nov. 1735, dau. of John and Susanna (Hine). She survived her husband. He served in 1758 and 1759, in the French and Indian War, as a private in the Second Connecticut Regiment, and was appointed ensign of the Third Company in Woodbury in Oct. 1769. Child by first wife: 1. Susanna,[5] bapt. in the Congregational Church, Derby, 4 Apr. 1756; m. 18 July 1775 Daniel Bristol. Children, probably by second wife: 2. Peter, bapt. in the Congregational Church, Roxbury, 1 Aug. 1762; d. in 1798; m. 16 Jan. 1787 Betsey Canfield; his family is given in Orcutt's "History of New Milford," p. 801; cf. also p. 879. 3. Jabez, bapt. in the Congregational Church, Roxbury, 14 Apr. 1765; d. 23 Aug. 1771. 4. Isaac (twin), bapt. in the Congregational Church, Roxbury, 11 Feb. 1768; had two females in his family in the Census of 1790. 5. Abigail (twin), bapt. in the Congregational Church, Roxbury, 11 Feb. 1768; d. 18 Feb. 1849; m. 4 May 1787 Benjamin Mead.

ii. DORCAS, b. in Apr. 1731; d. in Apr. 1737.

iii. ABIGAIL, b. 18 Aug. 1736.

Children by second wife:

iv. DORCAS, b. 25 Mar. 1738.

v. EDWARD, b. 18 Feb. 1739/40; d. 15 Oct. 1746.

vi. JESSE, b. 4 May 1743. He served in the campaign of 1762, in the French and Indian War, as a private in the Third Company, Second Connecticut Regiment.

vii. WALTER, of Naugatuck, b. 7 July 1745; d. 21 July 1829; m. 15 Nov. 1780 URSULA BEEBE, b. 9 Jan. 1761, dau. of Ira and Jemima (Hickox). He served in the Revolutionary War, 1777–1780. His family is given in the New York Genealogical and Biographical Record, vol. 31, pp. 43–46.

viii. EDWARD, b. 28 Sept. 1747.

ix. JOSEPH, bapt. in the Congregational Church, Derby, 15 July 1750.

11. EDWARD[3] WOOSTER (Timothy,[2] Edward[1]), of Derby, born 17 Sept. 1702, died in 1732. He married at Stratford, 7 Feb. 1723/4, ELIZABETH WATKINS, born in Aug. 1702, died 2 Mar. 1738, daughter of Joseph.‡ She married secondly Thomas Harvey of Fairfield, and the births of her children Naomi

*Her only child by Samuel Bowers was Rebecca, born 8 July 1729, who married Robert Hawkins (4, vi, 2). The New York Genealogical and Biographical Record, vol. 31, p. 42, erroneously states that Timothy's second wife was Sarah Bowers, only child of Samuel and Ruth (Wooster). Cf. supra, 1, vii.

†Bridgewater, at that time a part of New Milford, lies midway between the latter town and Roxbury, where four children of Jabez were baptized.

‡On 29 Aug. 1727 Edward Wooster and his wife Elizabeth conveyed land inherited from "father Joseph Watkins Sr." (Stratford Deeds, vol. 4, p. 92.)

and Edward are entered in the register of the Greenfield Hill Parish.

Children:

i. NAOMI,[4] b. 31 Dec. 1724; d. at Oxford 17 May 1773, aged 48; m. 15 Dec. 1746 JOHN BASSETT, b. 15 Feb. 1721/2, d. 8 May 1801, who m. (2) Sarah (Gunn) (Thompson) Johnson, p. 15 Feb. 1731/2, d. 3 May 1804, dau. of Nathaniel and Sarah (Wheeler) Gunn and widow of Jabez Thompson and David Johnson.

ii. GRACE, b. at Derby 15 Feb. 1726/7; probably d. before the records of the births of her sister and brother were entered at Greenfield Hill.

iii. EDWARD,* b. in Apr. 1732; d. in Albany County, N. Y., 28 Nov. 1812; m. at Derby, 30 June 1760, SARAH JUDD, dau. of Rev. Reuben. On 20 Feb. 1750/1, described as "a minor of Stratford," he chose Capt. Joseph Wooster (13) as his guardian (Fairfield Probate Records, vol. 4, p. 179). He served in the French and Indian War, in 1755, as a private, in 1756, as sergeant of Colonel Wooster's company, in 1757 as sergeant in Captain Woodruff's militia, and in 1758 as sergeant major under Colonel Wooster. In Mar. 1760 he was appointed ensign. Children, bapt. at St. James's Church, Derby: 1. Edward,[5] bapt. 20 Dec. 1761; d. s.p. at York, Canada, 14 Aug. 1808. 2. Reuben Judd, of South Carolina, bapt. 19 Mar. 1766. 3. David, bapt. 31 May 1767; d. 8 Apr. 1813; m. Lydia Stuart. 4. Sarah, b. about 1769; d. 29 Oct. 1855; m. Samuel Gavett. 5. Hezekiah Calvin, a Methodist preacher, b. 20 May 1771; d. s.p. 2 Nov. 1798. 6. John, a Methodist preacher, b. 27 Jan. 1774; d. at Jasper, N. Y., 28 Aug. 1825; m. 27 Nov. 1806 Sally Wright. 7. William, b. about 1775; d. s.p. in Albany County, N. Y., 5 Mar. 1831. 8. Clarintha, probably the "dau." who was bapt. 19 Nov. 1777; m. John Hagaman.

12. SAMUEL[3] WOOSTER (Timothy,[2] Edward[1]), of Oxford, born 17 Apr. 1706, died 16 Sept. 1776, aged 70 (gravestone). He married, 28 Oct. 1731, ANN[4] Moss, who died 14 Sept. 1791,† aged 81 (gravestone), daughter of William[3] (Mercy,[2] John[1]).‡

Children:

i. ELISHA,[4] b. 5 July 1732; d. unm. 17 Apr. 1797. He served in the French and Indian War as a private in the Seventh Company, Fourth Connecticut Regiment, in 1755, as corporal in the same company in 1756, and for eighteen days in 1757 as a private in Captain Woodruff's militia. He bequeathed his entire estate by will to his "nephew Abel Waters," having previously (on 26 Apr. 1788) given two deeds of property at Quaker's Farm [Oxford] to "Abel Waters son of Hannah Oatman wife of Samuel Oatman" (Derby Deeds, vol. 11, p. 242, and vol. 12, p. 347).

ii. DEBORAH, d. at Oxford 3 Jan. 1786; m. DAVID FABRIQUE.

iii. ANN, b. about 1741; d. s.p. in 1815, aged 74; m. after 23 Nov. 1772, as his second wife, ELNATHAN LAKE of Oxford, who d. in 1814, aged 75.§

*The Wooster Genealogy makes this Edward the son of a fictitious Abraham and grandson of Abraham (5). Since this is the line of the compiler of that publication, the later descendants of Edward are probably correctly set forth therein (pp. 30–39).

†By church record 17 Sept. 1790. Administration on her estate was granted 29 Sept. 1790.

‡The Morse Genealogy, by J. Howard Morse and Emily W. Leavitt (New York, 1903), Part I, Section 5, p. 12, correctly places Ann as daughter of Sergt. William Moss, but gives her birth date as 28 Oct. 1731, this being actually the date of her marriage. Her age at death would place her birth four years prior to her father's marriage to Abigail (Nichols) Riggs, and it is practically certain that she was his child by a former wife, whose identity has not been discovered.

§On 3 May 1784 Elisha and Joseph Wooster conveyed land, to their "sisters Anne wife of Elnathan Lake and Sarah Wooster" (Derby Deeds, vol. 11, p. 144). Ann's marriage occurred after 23 Nov. 1772, the date of her father's will. Elnathan Lake's first wife was Amy Lum, born 7 Mar. 1734/5. The will of Ann Lake, dated 29 Apr. 1815, left her estate to Elisha Oatman of Oxford.

iv. JOSEPH, b. about 1743; d. 18 Dec. 1819, aged 76 (gravestone at Oxford); m. 22 Jan. 1772 HANNAH WOODRUFF, who d. 11 Dec. 1835, aged 80 (ib.). Children: 1. Polly,[5] b. about 1773; d. 7 Mar. 1777. 2. David, b. 1 Dec. 1774; d. 15 Jan. 1778. 3. Joseph, b. 11 Dec. 1776; d. 27 May 1856; m. Elizabeth A. ———. 4. David, bapt. 14 June 1778; m. 24 Dec. 1801 Joanna Stilson of Newtown. 5. Polly, m. Philo Sperry. 6. Lucy, b. about 1782; d. 3 Dec. 1782. 7. Susanna, m. 18 Jan. 1801 Jabez Prindle. 8. Sheldon, b. 25 Aug. 1785; d. 19 Feb. 1862; m. (1) 31 Dec. 1805 Sally Hull; m. (2) Lucy Ann ———. 9. Ruth Ann, bapt. 5 May 1787; m. Elijah Sherman. 10. Nathan, bapt. 27 July 1788. 11. Samuel, b. about 1789; d. 8 July 1872; m. Priscilla Williams. 12. Russell, bapt. 3 July 1791; m. 15 Nov. 1820 Avis Burr. 13. Sarah, bapt. 28 Oct. 1792; m. Stephen Turner. 14. Hannah, bapt. 8 Oct. 1794; m. Ira Sherman.

v. HANNAH, bapt. 26 Oct. 1746; d. 24 Sept. 1791; m. 12 Apr. 1769 SAMUEL OATMAN. Prior to her marriage she had a son by Abel Waters, viz., Abel Waters, of Oxford, b. in 1767, m. 25 Dec. 1788 Ruth Curtis of Stratford.

vi. MICAH, bapt. 28 [obliterated] 1749; d. s.p.

vii. EUNICE, bapt. 19 May 1751; m. 20 Apr. 1774 ALEXANDER SPERRY.

viii. SARAH, bapt. 7 July 1754; living unm. in 1784; d. after 1828; it was probably this Sarah who m. at Oxford, 8 Dec. 1796, as his second wife, DAVID[4] WOODING, b. about 1736, d. 10 June 1797, s. of Joseph[3] (Jeremiah,[2] William[1]) and Sarah (Dorman).

13. COL. JOSEPH[3] WOOSTER (Abraham,[2] Edward[1]), of Stratford, born at Stratford 16 Jan. 1702/3, died 30 Dec. 1791, aged 89 (gravestone in Episcopal churchyard). He married, in Dec. 1751, LUCY NICHOLS, who died 18 Oct. 1760, aged 32 (ib.), daughter of Theophilus and Sarah (Curtis).

He was appointed lieutenant of the troop of the Fourth Regiment in May 1743, captain in May 1744, served as captain of a company of foot in the expedition against Canada, in June 1746, was appointed major of the Third Regiment for the expedition against Crown Point, in Aug. 1755, and served as deputy for Stratford at two terms of the Connecticut Assembly, in 1756, being then called colonel.

Child:*

i. COL. JOSEPH LUCIUS,[4] of Huntington and New Haven, B. A. (Yale, 1781), b. 26 Oct. 1760; d. 20 July 1796, aged 35 (gravestone at New Haven); m. 28 Feb. 1794 ELIZABETH BEERS, who d. 24 July 1820, aged 53, dau. of Isaac and Mary (Mansfield). He was an attorney at law and a colonel in the militia. Child: 1. Elizabeth Lucia,[5] b. 24 May 1795; d. 30 Aug. 1821; m. 12 Nov. 1817 Rev. Eleazer Thompson Fitch, B. A. (Yale, 1810), M. A. (ib., 1817), D. D. (University of Pennsylvania, 1828), b. 1 Jan. 1791, d. 31 Jan. 1871, s. of Nathaniel and Mary (Thompson).†

14. GEN. DAVID[3] WOOSTER (Abraham,[2] Edward[1]), of New Haven, B. A. (Yale, 1738), M. A. (ib., 1741), born at Stratford 2 Mar. 1710/11, died at Danbury 2 May 1777, aged 66 (gravestone), of wounds received near Ridgefield. He married, 6 Mar. 1745/6, MARY CLAP, born at Windham 25 Apr. 1729,

*The Wooster Genealogy erroneously states (p. 40) that Joseph[3] Wooster had sons Abel, Isaac, Jabez, and David. The New York Genealogical and Biographical Record, vol. 31, p. 39, following an erroneous suggestion made in Orcutt's History of Stratford, states that Joseph by a former marriage had a son Benjamin, who married Anne Judson. This Benjamin (19) was in reality a son of Jonas Wooster (8), q.v.

†He was professor of divinity at Yale. See Dexter's Yale Biographies, vol. 6, p. 316.

died 6 June 1807, aged 78 (gravestone), daughter of Thomas Clap, A. B. (Harvard, 1722), A. M. (ib., 1725), President of Yale College, 1740–1766, and his wife Mary (Whiting).

In 1745 he was captain of a militia company that served at Cape Breton. Going to England with a batch of prisoners, he received a commission as captain in the British Regular Army. Having become imbued while abroad with the principles of Freemasonry, in 1750 he organized the first lodge of Freemasons in Connecticut. In 1756 he served as colonel of the Second Connecticut Regiment in the expedition against Crown Point, in 1757 as deputy to the Assembly, and from 1758 to 1760 with the militia again. Thereafter he occupied himself with mercantile pursuits, and was appointed collector of customs for the port of New Haven.

At the outbreak of the War of the Revolution he was commissioned major general of the Connecticut Militia, and in June 1775 ranked third among the eight brigadier generals appointed by the Continental Congress. After seeing active service in the campaign against Canada, he resigned his federal commission and was appointed, in Oct. 1776, major general and commander in chief of the Connecticut Militia. At the burning of Danbury he went to the relief of that town with inferior forces, and was mortally wounded on 27 Apr. 1777. He died insolvent, having paid his troops with his personal funds; and the destruction of his papers by the British in July 1779 made it impossible for his family to recover the sums which he had advanced.

Children:

i. Mary,[4] b. 21 Jan. 1746/7; d. 20 Oct. 1748.

ii. Thomas, B. A. (Yale, 1768), M. A. (Yale and Princeton, 1771), b. 30 July 1751; d. in 1792 on a voyage to New Orleans; m. in Feb. 1777 Lydia Sheldon of New York, N. Y. In Oct. 1776 he served as aid-de-camp to his father. He was commissioned captain 23 Feb. 1777, and retired 6 Apr. 1779. He was an original member of the Society of the Cincinnati. Seven children.*

iii. Mary, b. 2 June 1753; d. 16 Jan. 1754.

iv. Mary, b. 21 Oct. 1755; m. 6 Oct. 1774 Rev. John Cosins Ogden, A. B. (College of New Jersey, 1770), A. M. (ib.). Three children, all of whom d. s.p.

15. Moses[3] Wooster (Sylvester,[2] Edward[1]), of Derby, born about 1701, died prior to 5 Oct. 1741, when administration on his estate was granted to his widow Mary, who was appointed guardian to the six younger children. He married, 5 Apr. 1720, Mary[4] Hawkins, born 1 Apr. 1700, daughter of Joseph[3] (Joseph,[2] Robert[1]) and Elizabeth (Gunn). She married secondly, 28 Oct. 1744, Lieut. Samuel Knowles of Southbury, born 30 Apr. 1691, died 8 Mar. 1772.

Children:

24. i. Abraham.[4]

ii. Abigail, m. at Southbury 7 June 1749 Thomas Knowles.

*Some of his descendants are given in the New York Genealogical and Biographical Record, vol. 31, pp. 40, 41. One son, Charles Whiting[5] Wooster, was commissioned in 1829 rear admiral in the Chilean Navy.

iii. RACHEL, probably the Rachel Wooster who had a child Dorcas. bapt. at St. James's Church, Derby, 13 Oct. 1751.

iv. MIRIAM, m. at Southbury 20 June 1752 GIDEON[4] BRISTOL, b. at Newtown 2 Apr. 1725, d. at Sandgate, Vt., 3 Mar. 1795, s. of Joseph[3] (John,[2] Henry[1]) and Sarah (Smith).

v. MOSES, of New Concord, N. Y.,* in 1770, of Canaan, N. Y., in 1790, m. 20 June 1759 MINDWELL[4] CHATFIELD, b. 9 Sept. 1735, dau. of Ebenezer[3] (John,[2] George[1]) and Abigail (Prindle). He served in the French and Indian War as a private in the campaigns of 1755, 1757, 1758, and 1761. Children (record incomplete): 1. Lemuel,[5] b. at Derby 23 June 1760; of Canaan, N. Y., in 1790. 2. Ebenezer, bapt. at St. James's Church, Derby, 29 Sept. 1765. 3. Moses, of Canaan, N. Y., in 1790. 4. Mindwell, bapt. at St. James's Church, Great Barrington, Mass., 1 July 1770. 5. Charity, bapt. at St. James's Church, Great Barrington, Mass., 12 Jan. 1772.†

25. vi. HENRY.

26. vii. ELIJAH.

16. ABRAHAM[3] WOOSTER (Sylvester,[2] Edward[1]), of Derby, born about 1702, removed to Waterbury between 1743 and 1748. He married MARTHA[4] HULL,‡ born in 1698, daughter of John[3] (John,[2] Richard[1]) and Mary (Merwin).

Children, born at Derby:

i. WAIT,[4] b. 22 Apr. 1732; d. in 1770; m. 9 Mar. 1758 PHEBE[4] WARNER, b. 6 Feb. 1735/6, dau. of Samuel[3] (Thomas,[2] John[1]) and Sarah (Scott). He served in the French and Indian War as a private in the campaigns of 1755 and 1757. Children, born at Waterbury: 1. Moses[5] (twin), b. 21 Dec. 1758; served in Captain Dickinson's company, Continental Regiment, in 1776; enlisted in 1777 for three years; taken prisoner 16 Jan. 1780; discharged 19 Dec. 1780; detached from "Conn. Line" to serve in Armand's cavalry in Nov. 1781. 2. Hinman (twin), b. 21 Dec. 1758; enlisted in 1777 for the duration of the War; deserted 29 Jan. 1781. 3. Mary, b. 21 Dec. 1760. 4. Rev. Benjamin, B. A. (Yale, 1790), M. A. (ib., 1793), b. 29 Oct. 1762; d. at Fairfield, Vt., 18 Dec. 1840; m. (1) Sarah Harris, who d. 19 Oct. 1824, aged 51, dau. of Capt. Israel; m. (2) in Jan. 1825 Sally Cooper of Sheldon, Vt., who d. 8 Feb. 1866, aged 86; enlisted in 1777 for three years in the "Conn. Line"; licensed to preach in May 1792; ordained at Cornwall, Vt., 23 Feb. 1797, and installed at Fairfield, Vt., 24 July 1805; labored for many years as a missionary; in 1814 raised and led a company of Vermont volunteers to the battle of Plattsburgh.§ 5. Wait, b. 28 Oct. 1764; of Waterbury in 1790; removed to Cornwall, Vt. 6. Abraham, b. 28 July 1770.

ii. MARY, b. 10 May 1733.

iii. HINMAN, b. 26 Apr. 1735; served as a private in 1756, in the French and Indian War.

iv. MILES, b. 10 June 1738; of Waterbury in 1790.

v. ABRAHAM, b. 20 Sept. 1740; m. REBECCA ATKINS. He served in 1755 in the same company with his brother Wait. He settled near Chicopee River, Mass., whence he removed to New York

*He was chosen clerk of the parish at a vestry meeting 8 Apr. 1771, and clerk and one of the wardens on 19 Apr. 1772.

†Another child was probably Charity, bapt. at St. James's Church, Derby, 1 Mar. 1778, a record which would imply that Moses returned from New Concord to Derby before settling in Canaan, N. Y

‡Abraham and Martha Wooster of Waterbury joined with other Hull heirs in 1754 in conveying land "distributed to us from the estate of our brother John Hull of Derby deceased" (Derby Deeds, vol. 6, p. 305). The New York Genealogical and Biographical Record, vol. 31, p. 39, erroneously states that Abraham married (1) Sarah Marchant and (2) Martha Hull.

§Further details are given in the excellent biography in Hemenway's Vermont Historical Gazetteer, vol. 2, pp. 193–196.

State. Children:* 1. Hinman,[5] of Salisbury, N. Y., b. 10 Dec. 1767; d. 10 June 1844; m. Rosanna Cook. 2. Daniel, of Batavia, N. Y. 3. Rev. David, of Batavia, N. Y. 4. Judge Sherman, of Newport, N. Y. 5. Lyman Atkins, b. about 1778; d. 18 Feb. 1827; m. Lydia Hall.

17. NATHANIEL[3] WOOSTER (Sylvester,[2] Edward[1]), of Oxford, born about 1709, died in 1779. He married MARGARET KIRBY,† who died about 1780, daughter of Joseph and Mary (Plumb).

In his will, dated 13 Jan. 1779 and proved in May 1779, Nathaniel Wooster named his wife Margit, his sons Samuel and Abel, and his daughters Susannah Davis (and her child Susannah Pattah), Lois Perkins, and Ester Gordon. The estate was insolvent, Reuben Perkins, Wm. Gorden, and John Cornish being among the creditors. The estate of Margaret Wooster was distributed in 1780 to Sam[ll], Abel, and Sylvester Wooster, Hester Gorden, Susannah Cornish, and Lois Perkins.

In May 1747 he was convicted, with Samuel Weed and Daniel Tucker, of "counterfeiting the bills of publick credit in this Colony," the penalty being corporal punishment and the forfeiture of his entire estate.

Children:

i. SUSANNA,[4] bapt. in the Congregational Church, Derby, 28 Mar. 1736; m. (1) ——— DAVIS;‡ m. (2) at New Haven, 3 Sept. 1779, as his second wife, JOHN CORNISH, who removed from New Haven to Derby and d. in the autumn of 1794§.

27. ii. SAMUEL.

iii. ABEL, m. PHEBE‖ TWITCHELL, b. 19 May 1744, dau. of Joseph and Elizabeth (Tomlinson). He served in the French and Indian War as a private, in the campaign of 1760. Children (record incomplete): 1. Isaac,[5] bapt. at St. James's Church, Derby, 9 July 1767; m. at Oxford, 30 Mar. 1791, Mary Ann Perry, and had a son Enos,[6] b. at Oxford 17 Nov. 1794. 2. Josiah, bapt. 16 Oct. 1769. 3. Abel.¶ 4. Joel, bapt. 3 Aug. 1783.

iv. SYLVESTER, m. at Southbury, 4. Jan. 1770, MARY STRONG. The Census of 1790, which locates him at Southbury, indicates that he had a large family. A son, Amos,[5] was bapt. at St. James's Church, Derby, 23 Dec. 1770.

v. LOIS, bapt. at Derby in June 1747 (records of Christ Church, Stratford); m. REUBEN PERKINS.

vi. JERUSHA, bapt. at St. James's Church, Derby, in Jan. 1748/9; d. young.

vii. EPHRAIM, bapt. 27 Jan. 1750/1; d. young.

viii. ESTHER, bapt. 27 May 1753; m. WILLIAM GORDON of Bristol.

18. JOHN[3] WOOSTER (Jonas,[2] Edward[1]), of Huntington, born 27 Jan. 1721/2, died in 1797. He married, 9 Nov. 1752, ABIGAIL BLACKMAN, who died in 1811, aged 82.

*Some descendants are given in the Wooster Genealogy, p. 47, and in the New York Genealogical and Biographical Record, vol. 31, p. 39.

†Her identity is proved by probate records and by deeds to Plumb land in Milford. In Seymour Past and Present, p. 604, she is erroneously called Margaret Harger.

‡In Seymour Past and Present, p. 604, it is stated that she married Daniel Davis, a statement which is almost certainly incorrect. It is more probable that her husband was the John Davis who had a daughter (unnamed) baptized at St. James's Church in Apr. 1772.

§The first wife of John Cornish was Hannah (Alling) Brown, born 26 Apr. 1722, died 27 June 1773, daughter of Roger and Ruth Alling and widow of Timothy Brown.

‖Elizabeth, according to Seymour Past and Present, which omits Abel's children.

¶Perhaps the Abel Wooster who married Huldah Swezey and died in Boston in 1828 (Wooster Genealogy, p. 46).

Children,* recorded at Stratford:

i. JOSEPH,[4] b. 2 Oct. 1753; m. CHARITY ———. He served as sergeant in Captain Birdsey's company, Connecticut Militia, in 1777, and was a captain in the militia after the War. *This branch has not been traced further. The grandchildren of John[3] Wooster were baptized at the Congregational Church, Huntington. As the records of this church have not appeared in print, these baptisms, prior to 1800, are given in the text. The births of a few of the grandchildren were recorded at Stratford and may be found in Orcutt's history of that town.

†Dexter's Yale Biographies states that it was this Nathan Wooster who was graduated at Yale. An historical sketch of Oxford, however, written in 1876 and published in Sharpe's Oxford Sketches and Records, Part II, pp. 161 et seq., contains the following statement: "Nathan, a son of Arthur Wooster, was a graduate from Yale College. He was educated with the intention of being a clergyman of the Church of England. He lived and died on his farm at Quaker Farms [Oxford]." The same statement may also be found in Orcutt's History of Derby, p. 238. In view of these irreconcilable accounts, it is possible that the Yale graduate was No. 4, viii, 2, of this article.

‡A complete record of children is given in the Beard Genealogy, 1915.

24. ABRAHAM[4] WOOSTER (Moses,[3] Sylvester,[2] Edward[1]) is described in 1743 as "of Derby now Resident in Stratford," and settled in Oxford after his marriage. He married at Stratford, in Jan. 1754, RACHEL MARCHANT, baptized at Stratford 30 June 1728, daughter of Hallet and Sarah (Beardsley.)†

Children (record probably incomplete):

i. MOSES,[5] of Bethlehem, Mass., bapt. in the Congregational Church, Oxford, 6 Apr. 1757; m. OBEDIENCE[5] HITCHCOCK, b. at Wallingford 8 Oct. 1761, dau. of Titus[4] (John,[3] John,[2] Matthias[1]) and Hannah (Munson).

ii. MARCHANT, of Seymour, bapt. at St. James's Church, Derby, 29 Apr. 1759; m. ABIGAIL ———, who d. 18 Dec. 1832, aged 78 (gravestone at Seymour). He served as a private in one campaign under Colonel Webb in 1776, later joined the British and was imprisoned, but was released in 1778 and "allowed to return home to his father" upon taking the oath of fidelity. On 2 Jan. 1780 he enlisted for three years in the "Connecticut Line." Three children were baptized at St. James's Church, Derby, viz., William Duncan in Oct. 1782 and two others (unnamed) on 1 Feb. 1787.

iii. HULDAH, bapt. at St. James's Church, Derby, 30 Nov. 1766.

25. HENRY[4] WOOSTER (Moses,[3] Sylvester,[2] Edward[1]) died about

*In Seymour Past and Present it is stated (p. 602) that Henry[5] Wooster's wife was Sarah, probably daughter of Samuel and Abigail (Chatfield) Hazelton, and that she died 14 Oct. 1830. Derby records, at the birth of the first child of Henry,[5] call his wife Rebecca.

†Thomas Beardsley of Huntington, in his will dated in 1769, bequeathed to his grandchildren Rachel Wooster, Elisha Baldwin, and Sarah Baldwin. Sarah Beardsley, born 24 Mar. 1709/10, married (1) Hallet Marchant, who died in 1732; and (2) in 1738 Jacob Baldwin. Orcutt's History of Stratford, followed therein by the Beardsley Genealogy, erroneously states that this Sarah Beardsley married in 1741 Ichabod Lewis.

1820. He married first, at Woodbury, 30 May 1760, MARY (? ALLEN),* who died at Waterbury 29 Apr. 1772; and secondly, at Waterbury, 5 Jan. 1773, MERCY (COSHIER) GILLET, daughter of Thomas Coshier and widow of Shadrack Gillet (3, ii, 8).†

Henry Wooster settled early in Woodbury, and served in the French and Indian War in 1758 and 1759 in two Woodbury companies. About 1770 he removed to Watertown, then the parish of Westbury in Waterbury, and shortly after 1781 to Pawlet, Vt. In 1793 the Episcopal Convention met at his house and elected the first bishop of Vermont.

Children by first wife, recorded at Woodbury:

i. SARAH,[5] b. 8 May 1761.
ii. NED ALLEN, b. 10 Dec. 1762; d. at Waterbury 30 Oct. 1772.
iii. PHEBE, b. 4 Oct. 1764.

iv. MARY, b. 28 Dec. 1771.
v. SARAH, b. 9 May 1774.
Perhaps others.

*Her name is printed in Cothren's History of Woodbury as Cedin, which is very doubtful. Her son Ned Allen was probably named for Col. Edward Allen of South Britain, a parish in the town of Southbury, at that time a part of Woodbury.

†Mary Coshier had three children by her first husband, Shadrack Gillet: 1. Jerusha, born 1 Sept. 1767; baptized as 'Jerusha Wooster;" married Samuel Starke. On 20 Jan. 1788 Samuel and Jerusha Wooster Starke of Pawlet, Vt., conveyed land in Derby to Henry Wooster (25) of Pawlet, and on 15 Mar. 1788 Henry Wooster conveyed the same property to Abraham Wooster (24) of Derby (Derby Deeds, vol. 11, pp. 243, 244). 2. Mary, born 12 Nov. 1769; died 1 May 1770. 3. David, born 8 Aug. 1771.

‡Hollister's History of Pawlet (Albany, 1867), p. 266, gives their children.

27. SAMUEL[4] WOOSTER (Nathaniel,[3] Sylvester,[2] Edward[1]), of Oxford, married MARY DELAVAN, probably the "Widow Mary Wooster" who died 13 Feb. 1823, aged 84.

He served in the French and Indian War, in 1757 as a private in Captain Woodruff's militia and in 1760 in the First Company, Third Connecticut Regiment.

Children, baptized at St. James's Church, Derby:

i. ANNA,[5] bapt. 24 Feb. 1765.

ii. NATHANIEL, b. 25 Nov. 1766 (gravestone) and bapt. 2 Aug. 1767; d. 23 Nov. 1855 (gravestone); m. 5 Feb. 1788 CHARITY PLUMB, b. 26 July 1767, d. 25 Dec. 1857. Children: 1. Mamre,[6] b. 23 Sept. 1788;* d. 28 Jan. 1855, aged 67; m. Divine[6] Chatfield, bapt. 20 Aug. 1787, d. 24 Mar. 1860, aged 73, s. of Gideon[5] (John,[4] vide supra, 6, iv, 1) and Betsey (Jones). 2. Grace, b. 9 Jan. 1791; m. John Smith. 3. Anna Maria, b. 13 Nov. 1793; d. 29 Oct. 1794. 4. Bennett,† b. in Oct. 1795; d. 1 Oct. 1883. 5. Clarissa, b. 4 Mar. 1798; m. Lewis Buckingham. 6. Nathan Ransom, b. 18 Nov. 1809; m. Antoinette Bassett. 7. Marcus, b. 26 Jan. 1815; d. 2 July 1839.

iii. MARY, b. 10 Dec. 1770;‡ d. 23 Feb. 1813; m. JARED BARTHELME, s. of Claudius and Susanna (Plumb).

iv. MILTON, bapt. 18 July 1773.

v. A CHILD, bapt. in Apr. 1775.

vi. JOHN DELAVAN, of Watertown, bapt. 26 Oct. 1777; m. ANNE HITCHCOCK,§ who d. 23 May 1831, aged 56, daughter of Timothy of Woodbridge.

vii. PHILO, of Schoharie, N. Y., bapt. 31 Oct. 1781; m. 17 May 1806 SALLY HAWKINS.

viii. JOSIAH, bapt. 8 Aug. 1784; m. ELIZABETH TERRELL.

*1789 by Oxford records; but she is undoubtedly the Mamre who was baptized at St. James's Church 2 Nov. 1788.

†His two marriages and his descendants are given in Seymour Past and Present, p. 605.

‡1771 by Bible record; but she is probably the child who was baptized at St. James's Church 30 June 1771.

§In her will, dated 12 Apr. 1831 and proved 10 June 1831, Anne Wooster named her husband John D. Wooster, "my father's estate Timothy Hitchcock of Woodbridge deceased," and three daughters, viz., Sophia, wife of Calvin Leavenworth, Anne Matilda, wife of Hezekiah Buckingham, and Caroline Wooster (Waterbury Probate Records, vol. 8, p. 10).

GENEALOGY OF LIEUT. ABEL WRIGHT, OF SPRINGFIELD, MASS.

By Rev. Stephen Wright, of Glen's Falls, N. Y.

1. Lieut. Abel Wright[1] was found among the early settlers of Springfield, Massachusetts, in the Connecticut Valley, who spent a mature life of seventy years there, from 1655 to 1725, when he died at the advanced age of ninety-four years. Where he came from or who were his parents, I have been unable to ascertain. There were other Wright settlers in the colonies before him in Eastern Massachusetts,—as Capt. Richard Wright, at Lynn, in 1630; John Wright, at Woburn, in 1641; Robert Wright, at Boston, in 1643, according to Dr. Savage, in his Genealogical Dictionary, besides others in various places of a later date than the above named. And at Wethersfield, Conn., below Hartford, there was a Thomas Wright as early as 1639, who had quite a family. Also Dea. Samuel Wright was an early settler at Springfield about the same year, 1639–40, who had a family of eight children, all named; but no Abel among either of these families is given in their records.

It is possible, if not most probable, that these last two settlers, so near each other, were brothers, and from the date of their family records, uncles to Abel Wright, who might naturally have followed in the wake of his kinsman to Springfield, at the age of twenty-four years, where he is found in January, 1655. Hence I can safely begin his record at that date, and shall endeavor to follow his line of posterity for several generations, according to authentic information obtained by much labor, from both town and family records.

Although the town had been settled in 1636, it was still in its infancy when our Abel appeared on the stage, to claim a place among his fellow men. I give two or three extracts from the town records of Springfield, which I made in November, 1863, that read as follows: "Jan. 2, 1655,—There is granted to Abell Wright, a home lot containing three acres in the land next ye Round Hill." And Feb. 13, 1656, again: "It is granted to Abell Wright an amount of Twenty (20) acres which had formerly Come into the hand of Rowland Thomas, lying in ye great plain over ye great river, called Chickuppy plain, provided he continues five years in town." And it seems in the sequel that he came to stay, as he did for seventy years.

Again says the record: "March 13, 1660,—There is granted to Thomas Bancroft Abell Wright, John Lumbard and Richard Sikes, a parcel of land lying on the west side of y^e^ great river over against y^e^ long meadow below George Colton's, which land hereby granted, lyeth between two brooks, and it is to run westward from y^e^ river to a hill about 40 rods westward;—Thos. Bancroft to lie next to the Southermost brook, Abell Wright next toward the north, John Lumbard next to him, and Richard Sikes next to him:—They four sharing thereof equally in three-score acres of land, if there be so much there;—or if there be not so much they are to divide the piece equally amongst them, lying as above expressed."—See Record of Deeds, vol. i. p. 203. Various other grants of land, to the number of sixteen in all, from 1655 to 1695, as well as several to his sons Joseph and Abel, Jr., are on the town records also. In those primitive times the farming was on a smaller scale than we see now, and hence the few acres allotted to each settler in these grants. Contemporary with Abel Wright were such men as Col. John Pynchon, Samuel Terry, John Bliss, Thomas Root, Robert Ashley, Hugh Dudley, Thomas Sewall, Obadiah Miller, Eliezer Holyoke, John Holyoke, James Osborne, Nathaniel Pritchard and Thomas Gilbert; with Deacons Samuel Chapin, Samuel Wright (until 1657, when he removed to Northampton, and died there Oct. 17, 1665, when asleep in his chair), Jonathan Burt, Benjamin Parsons, John Hitchcock and James Warriner, and Rev. Pelatiah Glover from 1659 to 1692, and Rev. Samuel Brewer from 1694 to 1725, and onwards to 1733, when the last pastor died; all these in the First Congregational Church.

"Feb. 23, 1662. In the order of Seating persons in church, Abell Wright is put in the 'eighth seat' with Mr. —— Horton, John Bag, Joshua Riley and Lyman Beaman. And Samuel Terry in the 9th seat with four others." According to the Springfield Records that I saw and handled in 1863, the following facts are shown:

Abel[1] Wright married Dec. 1, 1659, Martha Kitcherel, daughter of Samuel K. of Hartford, Conn., and had a family of thirteen children, of whom ten married (see names below). He was a citizen of some note, both in the civil and military service of the town. In 1695 he was elected to the "General Court," and in May, 1696, Dea. Burt and Lieut. Abel Wright were chosen to answer a petition of the people on the west side of the river asking to become a separate parish and procure a minister of their own. In 1708, July 26th, Indians came upon the town and despoiled his family, scalping his wife, who died in consequence on the 19th of October following. They also killed an infant of his son Henry, and captured his wife, who died soon after. But this venerable ancestor lived until 1725, for his tombstone record says: "Lieut. Abel Wright died October 29th, 1725, aged 94 years." His children were as follows:

2. i. Joseph, b. Sept. 1, 1660, and m. Sarah Osborne.
   ii. Martha, b. Nov. 29, 1662; m. Thomas Marlow.
3. iii. Abel, b. Sept. 25, 1664; m. Rebecca Terry, Sept. 16, 1691, and had thirteen children.
4. iv. Benjamin, b. March 14, 1667; m. Mary Chapin in 1694; had three children.
   v. Hannah, b. July 28, 1669; m. Joseph Saxton, Nov. 20, 1690, and had seven children:—Gershom,[3] b. 1691; Hannah,[3] 1692; Joseph,[3] 1694; Mindwell,[3] 1696; David,[3] 1700; Ezekiel,[3] 1704; and Charles,[3] 1708, at Enfield.
   vi. Henry, b. May 23, 1671, and d. young.
   vii. Sarah, b. May 8, 1673; m. Thomas Chapin, Feb. 15, 1694, and had eleven children. She died July 26, 1770, aged nearly 98.
   viii. Mary, b. March 9, 1675; m. Nathaniel Bliss in 1698.
5. ix. Henry, 2d, b. June 8, 1677; m. Hannah Bliss, May 24, 1705.
6. x. Samuel, b. June 17, 1679; m. Mary Case, of Lebanon, Nov. 27, 1710.
   xi. Elizabeth, b. Aug. 18, 1682, and d. June 17, 1683.
   xii. John, b. April 21, 1685, and d. soon.
   xiii. Elizabeth, 2d, b. Aug. 22, 1687; m. Ebenezer Dewey, of Lebanon, Nov. 8, 1709, and had Elizabeth,[3] b. Oct. 7, 1710, and Ebenezer,[3] Jr., b. Jan. 24, 1712.

2. Joseph[2] Wright (Abel[1]), b. Sept. 1, 1660, at Springfield; m. Sarah Osborne, Dec. 29, 1687, and had eight children, born in S., as below. He must have followed his younger brother Abel to Lebanon, Conn., about 1708, as a petition of his to the town authorities is on record there, dated Dec. 13, 1708, asking for a grant of land near Abel Wright's first division, "because the enemy had spoiled and carried away much of his estate" at Springfield; which was granted him Dec. 17th, 1808. How long he continued at L. we are unable to say. His children, born at S., were:

i. Mindwell, b. Sept. 24, 1688, and d. young.
ii. Joseph, Jr., b. Oct. 14, 1690.
iii. Sarah, b. Nov. 20, 1692, and m. probably June 20, 1719, Hezekiah Porter, of Hartford, Conn.
iv. Benjamin, b. Nov. 11, 1694, and slain by the Indians in 1712.
v. Mindwell, 2d, b. March 4, 1697.
vi. Martha, b. June 16, 1699; m. probably, Jonathan Old, Feb. 18, 1720.
vii. Mary, b. Sept. 24, 1702.
viii. Rachel, b. Dec. 4, 1706. Can give no more of this family now.

3. Ensign Abel[2] Wright (Abel[1]), b. Sept. 25, 1664; m. Sept. 16, 1691, Rebecca Terry, b. Dec. 5, 1673, daughter of Samuel and Anna (Lobdell) Terry, of S., and had thirteen children, like his father before him, of whom nine married. Of these, four were born in Springfield, when he removed to Lebanon about 1700, where the other nine are on record. He spent forty-five years of his life there, and became quite a landholder and business man among his fellows. In 1702 he bought ninety acres of land of Josiah Dewey and William Clarke "for Seven Pounds, Silver, Current money of New England;" and January 24, 1703, twenty-one acres more of Philip Smith; and in 1711, June 6, nine acres more of Dewey and Clarke; making one hundred and twenty acres in all. But his greatest purchase was, May 30, 1717, of Rev. Samuel Whiting, minister of Windham, of eight hundred and twenty-nine acres, partly in W. and partly in Lebanon, for 250 pounds, as the deed on record at Windham says. From these lands he afterwards deeds one hundred and forty acres to his daughter Rebecca and her husband Jacob Ordway, in 1718 and 1720; to his son Abel, Jr., one hundred and eighty acres, Oct. 22, 1718; and to his loving son Ebenezer, one hundred and eighty acres, Aug. 24, 1722; being part of the tract bought of Rev. Samuel Whiting, and sold still to several others as late as the year 1739. His last will is dated Jan. 10, 1744, in which he names four sons and four daughters, making his "Beloved wife Rebecca and son Ebenezer Wright the Executrix and Executor of his last will and Testament," &c. This will was probated before Judge Jonathan Trumbull, at Windham, Sept. 18, 1747, and certified in due form on the records by Ichabod Robinson, clerk of said court. He had died June 2, 1745, and was buried in Lebanon near the graves of the Trumbull, Fitch and Terry families. The names of his thirteen children are as follows:

i. Rebecca, b. Sept. 7, 1692; m. Jacob Ordway, of L., about 1711, who had four children:—1. Mary,[4] b. Aug. 16, 1712. 2. Rebecca,[4] b. Jan. 16, 1714. 3. Jemima,[4] b. Dec. 11, 1715. 4. Rachel,[4] b. Nov. 28, 1717. (See Leb. Rec.)
ii. Samuel, b. July 4, 1694, and d. July 10, 1694.
iii. Abel, b. Aug. 22, 1695; m. Mary Calkins, at L., Nov. 7, 1717, and had:—1. Sarah,[4] b. Aug. 25, 1718. 2. Samuel,[4] b. May 14, 1720. 3. Abel, Jr.[4] b. Feb. 23, 1722. All at Windham.
iv. Samuel, 2d, b. Dec. 2, 1698, and no more of him.
7. v. Ebenezer, b. Feb. 22, 1701, at Lebanon; m. Elizabeth Newcomb.
vi. Mary, b. Nov. 22, 1702, and no more of her.
8. vii. Ephraim, b. Feb. 29, 1704; m. Hannah Wood, June 29, 1724.
viii. Martha, b. April 12, 1705; m. —— Holbrook, as named in her father's will.
ix. Jemima, b. Sept. 24, 1707; m. —— Hutchinson, as in the will.
x. Ann, b. June 4, 1709; m. —— Buell, as named in will.
xi. Miriam, b. Nov. 14, 1710, and no more of her.
xii. Benjamin, b. July 29, 1712, and d. Aug. 1712.
9. xiii. Benjamin, 2d, b. March 3, 1714; m. in 1734, Rachel ——.

4. Benjamin[2] Wright (Abel[1]), b. March 14, 1667; m. Mary Chapin in 1694, dau. of Henry C. of Springfield, likely, and had three children, and died Dec. 25, 1704, and his widow died Jan. 13, 1708. Their children are as follows:

i. Benjamin, b. May 22, 1697.
ii. Henry, b. May 19, 1700.
iii. Mary, b. May 1, 1705; posthumous.

5. Henry[2] Wright, 2d (Abel[1]), b. June 8, 1677; m. Hannah Bliss, dau. of John Bliss, May 24, 1705, and had two children. His wife was captured by the Indians July 26, 1708, and with her infant son was killed soon after, at the calamity already named. He then married, March 15, 1711, Sarah Root, daughter of Thomas Root, of Westfield, probably, who bore him six more children. He also must have followed his older brother Abel to Lebanon, and lived awhile, as it is there recorded that Henry Wright deeded thirty acres of land to his brother Abel, Nov. 23, 1705. And again May 5, 1707, Henry Wright and Hannah deeded a piece of land to Abel Wright, as Josiah Dewey had deeded twenty-one acres to Henry Wright, Feb. 1, 1703. The presumption is that he sold out his interest at Lebanon and returned to Springfield, where the great calamity mentioned above fell upon him in 1708; when he married second wife, Sarah Root, raised up his family, lost Sarah, and married a third wife Elizabeth ——, who, as the Springfield records say, died June, 1738. His own death is there recorded as transpiring in 1768, at the age of 91. His eight children are given as follows:

i. Hannah, b. May 18, 1706.
ii. Henry, Jr., b. Jan. 9, 1708, and killed July 26, 1708.
iii. Moses, by second wife, b. about 1713; date not given exactly.
iv. Stephen, b. 1716.
v. Caleb, b. 1719.
vi. Elisha, b. 1720.
vii. Sarah, b. 1723.
viii. Deborah, b. ——. No date at all.

6. Samuel[2] Wright (Abel[1]), b. June 17, 1679, at S.; m. Mary Case, of Lebanon. Nov. 27, 1710, and had three children recorded there, as given below. He must have followed his brother Abel to Lebanon, as the records show a deed of two hundred acres of land from Josiah Dewey and William Clarke to Samuel Wright, dated January 30, 1702. (See Old Records, pp. 84, 85.) Little more can be said of him than to give the names of his children, and that he married, Dec. 13, 1727, Anna Loomis, of L., and that he lived at Norwich awhile. His children were:

i. Aaron, b. March 29, 1713.
ii. John, b. Sept. 23, 1716.
iii. Mary, b. May 10, 1721.

By second wife:

iv. Rebecca, b. Sept. 24, 1728.
v. Elijah, b. Aug. 14, 1730.
vi. Anna, b. Oct. 7, 1732.
vii. Samuel, b. Feb. 17, 1735.
viii. Eleazer, born Aug. 3, 1739.

7. Ebenezer[3] Wright (Abel,[2] Abel[1]), b. Feb. 22, 1701, at Lebanon; m. April 20, 1721, Elizabeth, b. 1701–2, dau. of Simon and Deborah (——) Newcomb, of L., who bore him three children, and died Jan. 13, 1727. He married second, March 28, 1728, Sarah Huntington, b. May 25, 1705, dau. of Dea. Joseph and Rebecca (Adgate) Huntington, and sister to Gov. Samuel Huntington's father, by whom eight children, when she died Oct. 19, 1775. He married third, Feb. 15, 1776, Mrs. Mary (Mason) Huntington, the widow of David H., a brother of his wife Sarah, with whom he lived ten years, and died April 22, 1786, at Mansfield, aged 85. He was a farmer and quite a land owner, like his father Abel. He removed to Mansfield about 1740, where he became a baptist, as several of his children did also. His last will, dated Dec. 2, 1768, at M., names all his eleven children, and makes his wife Sarah, and his son Capt. Amaziah W., the executors of his estate. The following are his children:

i. Zerviah, b. March 12, 1722, at Windham; m. Jan. 8, 1741, John Upton, and had Sarah,[5] b. Oct. 17, 1741, and others we presume, as he mentions the heirs of his beloved daughter Zerviah Upton in his will.

ii. Deborah, b. Jan. 29, 1725; m. Paul Davison, May 7, 1747, and had Abial,[5] b. March 7, 1748, and Deborah,[5] b. May 11, 1750. Mr. D. died Aug. 20, 1751, at Newtown, N. J., when she married, second, Aaron Younglove, Jan. 17, 1753.

10. iii. Ebenezer, b. Jan. 2, 1727; m. Mercy Leach, who had ten children.

11. iv. Rev. Eliphalet, b. Feb. 27, 1729; m. Hannah Marsh.

v. Elizabeth, b. Nov. 30, 1730; m. Eleazer Baldwin, April 8, 1751, and had nine children, from whom a large posterity have come.

vi. Sarah, b. Sept. 22, 1732; m. Dea. Jeremiah Leffingwell, of Pomfret, Ct., about 1755; had nine children and a large posterity.

12. vii. Elisha, b. Sept. 18, 1734; m. Hannah Baldwin, Oct. 28, 1756.

viii. Mary, b. Jan. 15, 1737; m. John Turner about 1763, and had ten children, from whom a large posterity.

13. ix. Capt. Amaziah, b. Feb. 11, 1739; m. Zerviah Fitch, dau. of Capt. and Dea. Eleazer F., of Windham, and had ten children.

14. x. Eleazer, b. April 12, 1741; m. Anna Marsh, dau. of Joseph M., of Windham, April 25, 1765, and had twelve children.

xi. Rebecca, b. about 1744 or 45 (date wanting); m. —— Marsh, of Killingly, Ct., and as tradition in the family says, had one son, James,[5] who married and went into central New York, had four or five children, and was despoiled or killed by the Indians, and his family lost to the knowledge of their kindred.

8. Ephraim[3] Wright (Abel,[2] Abel[1]), b. Feb. 29, 1704, at Lebanon; m. June 29, 1724, Hannah Wood, and had six children at Lebanon. He was a farmer, and deeded lands to several persons from Sept. 30, 1737, to June 14, 1751, according to the records of L. and Windham. His wife died March 18, 1737, and he married again and raised a second family of several children, as an extant letter in my possession from his youngest son, Gen. Daniel Wright, testifies, dated May 2, 1809, at Westport, Essex Co., N. Y. He says he was born in Hebron, Conn., in 1756, and that he was the son of Ephraim W., and after the death of his brother, Lieut. Beriah W., and his father also in the French war, about 1758–9, his mother put him in the care of his uncle Ebenezer[3] W., at Mansfield, at the age of five, as she had several small children, so he was brought up among his kindred there. So far as known his children were:

i. John, b. March 18, 1726.

ii. Hannah, b. Feb. 24, 1731.

iii. Martha, b. Jan. 14, 1733.

iv. Ephraim, Jr. } twins; b. March 16, } Ann m. March 11, 1756, John

v. Ann, } 1735. } Huntington, of Windham, and had a daughter Wealthan,[5] b. Jan. 6, 1757, and the mother died May 6, 1758.

vi. Lieut. Beriah, b. Feb. 22, 1737, and died at Albany in 1759, returning from his military campaign, and his father Ephraim only reached his home at H. to die very soon.

vii.—ix. Several, whose names are wanting.

x. Gen. DANIEL, b. in 1756 at Hebron; m. Patience ——, and had several children—the oldest, Jerusha,[5] b. about 1778, m. Elias Sturtevant, b. 1769; had son Dea. George W. S., and died June 20, 1856, aged 87 years, as his son did Feb. 23, 1863, aged 61, at Westport, N. Y., leaving several children. Gen. Wright was in the war of the revolution some years after 1775, and afterwards removed to New Hampshire for a time, but in 1798 located at Westport, where he died, Oct. 1, 1822, and his wife Patience April 17, 1829, aged 71 years.

9. BENJAMIN[3] WRIGHT (Abel,[2] Abel[1]), b. March 3, 1714, at Lebanon; m. Rachel —— in 1734, and had nine children, as recorded in L. I have only an imperfect knowledge of him and his posterity, but can give the names and birth-dates of his children, as below. In 1865 Rev. Jehiel Kellogg Wright, an aged baptist minister at West Cornwall, Vt., gave me some account of this family in the line of his son Benjamin,[4] b. July 5, 1737, and his son Daniel,[5] b. Aug. 15, 1776, who died at Cornwall, Jan. 5, 1837. Rev. J. K.[6] Wright was b. Aug. 15, 1801, and d. Aug. 25, 1875. By him I learned there was a large posterity from his grandfather Benjamin[4] of 1737, of whom I hope to gather fuller records. About the same year I gathered from Mr. Elijah Wright, of Westport, N. Y., some account of ABEL,[4] born Aug. 8, 1742 (Benjamin,[3] Abel,[2] Abel[1]), who m. Elizabeth Baldwin, had three children at Hartford, Vt., where he died Feb. 1828, aged 85½ years. This Elijah,[6] b. Dec. 28, 1799, was at his grandfather's funeral, being a son of Abel[5] and Alice (Page) Wright, who had six children, and died July, 1827, at Hartford, Vt. He reports quite a posterity from Abel,[4] of 1742, more of whom I hope to reach in due time. The children of BENJAMIN and Rachel were:

i. LUCY, b. May 15, 1735.

15. ii. BENJAMIN, b. July 5, 1737; m. Ann Redington.

iii. MERCY, b. July 26, 1739.

v. MARY, b. Oct. 2, 1744.

vi. RACHEL, b. Feb. 13, 1747; m. Whiting Strong.

vii. Major DAVID, b. March 14, 1749; m. —— Bailey, as reported, and had five children in Hartford, Vt., viz.: David,[5] b. about 1775–6; Hannah,[5] b. 1778, m. Milo Marsh, and six children; Daniel,[5] M.D., b. about 1780; William,[5] b. about 1783–4; and Wealthy,[5] b. about 1786–7, and m. —— Pinneo.

viii. REBECCA, b. April 2, 1752; m. Christopher Pease, and had six children or more.

ix. JONATHAN, b. March 31, 1754; m. —— Ryder, as reported, and died in Lebanon, N. H., or in that vicinity. I have 175—200 of the posterity of BENJAMIN W.,[3] of 1714, more or less correctly named and dated.

10. EBENEZER[4] WRIGHT (Ebenezer,[3] Abel,[2] Abel[1]), b. Jan. 2, 1727, at Windham; m. March 11, 1751, Mercy, dau. of Amos and —— Leach, and had ten children, and has had a posterity of over twelve hundred to the tenth generation already attained. He was a farmer, lived in Mansfield a few years, then in New Fairfield, Conn., then in Newtown, Sussex Co., N. J., and about 1765–6 removed to Shaftsbury, Vt. The events of the war of the revolution sent him to Canada West, where he spent the evening of his life, with his companion and five children near him, at Cornwall and Johnstown, where he died July 18, 1809, as his wife had done May 13, 1801, aged 67½ years. Their children were:

16. i. Dea. Abraham, b. July 13, 1752 (N. Style); m. Sarah Babcock, and had nine children, and second, Phebe Burt, and three more.
17. ii. Capt. Asahel, b. Aug. 18, 1754; m. Eve Haynes, and nine children.
iii. Zerviah, b. Dec. 4, 1756; m. March 3, 1775, Charles Spencer (b. Mar. 10, 1749), of Shaftsbury, and had eight children, and died April 29, 1793. Mr. S. was a soldier in the revolutionary war, a farmer, and died Nov. 18, 1843, aged 94 years and eight months. A posterity of about 200 have come from Zerviah W. Spencer.
18. iv. Ebenezer, b. Oct. 15, 1758; m. about 1780-5 . Rachel Marsh.
19. v. Amos, b. June 22, 1761, at Newtown, N. J., and m. Sabra Wilcox, of ——, about 1785, and had four children. He died July 18, 1796.
20. vi. David, b. Nov. 16, 1763, at Newtown; m. Tamar Burritt about 1796; had eight children, and died Oct. 25, 1819, at Cornwall, a farmer.
vii. Mercy, b. March 26, 1766, at Shaftsbury, Vt.; m. Nov. 12, 1783, George McEwen, a farmer of Hinesburg, Vt.; had nine children, and died at H., Dec. 26, 1847, leaving a good posterity. Her children were—Dea. James,[6] b. Jan. 23, 1786, and five children; Charles,[6] b. July 19, 1787, four children; Augustus,[6] b. Dec. 17, 1788, had twelve children; Capt. Carlton,[6] b. March 25, 1791, and seven children; Ransom,[6] b. Dec. 26, 1792, m. but no children; Dea. George,[6] b. Dec. 19, 1794, and ten children; Caroline,[6] b. Jan 29, 1798, and one child; Rebecca,[6] b. July 11, 1800, m. and died soon; and Mercy Morinda,[6] b. May 31, 1802, and had six children. A large posterity came from Mercy W. McEwen.
viii. Sarah, b. Sept. 3, 1768; m. Peleg Spencer, a brother of Charles, above, and had seven children, and died Jan. 2, 1844, at Johnstown, C. W.
ix. Elizabeth, b. April 24, 1773, and d. Oct. 9, 1777.
x. Rebecca, b. April 24, 1776; m. —— Mace, and one child, Sybil,[6] born 1795; m. second, Henry Barnhart, Sept. 2, 1800, and had nine children and over fifty grandchildren. A farmer's wife, and d. Sept. 1, 1847, at Cornwall, C. West.

11. Rev. Eliphalet[4] Wright (Ebenezer,[3] Abel,[2] Abel[1]) was born Feb. 27, 1729, at Windham, Conn. He married, May 22, 1751, Hannah, dau. of Thomas Marsh, of W., and had nine children born at W. and South Killingly, Ct. He was a tanner and currier and shoemaker by trade in early life, but became pastor of the Congregational church at South Killingly in 1764, where he continued until his lamented death, Aug. 4, 1784. His widow lived to a great age, and died Jan. 2, 1815, at Hinsdale, Mass., at the home of her son, Capt. Samuel[5] Wright, who cared for her in the decline of life. Though not liberally educated, Rev. Eliphalet Wright was an acceptable preacher, and published a sermon preached on Thanksgiving Day, Dec. 5, 1776, of which I now possess a copy, that has the ring of true patriotism in it, for those "times that tried men's souls." It was printed by J. Trumbull, of Norwich, Conn. His children were:

i. Hannah, b. Jan. 9, 1752, at M.; d. April 6, 1753.
ii. Hannah, 2d, b. July 9, 1754; m. Jan. 1772, Barnabas Davis, and had seven children. She died at Killingly, Sept 24, 1844, aged 90.
iii. Eliphalet, Jr., b. Dec. 16, 1756; d. 1760.
iv. Eunice, b. May 3, 1759; d. Aug. 11, 1760.
21. v. Capt. Samuel, b. April 12, 1761; m. Keziah Stearns, had eight children; by second wife, Betsey Watkins, had four more.
vi. Eunice, 2d, b. March 1, 1764; m. —— Day.
vii. Sarah, b. March 7, 1766, at Killingly; m. Isaac Sprague and had seven children, among them Rev. Ezra Sprague,[6] of the M. E. order.
viii. Rebecca, b. Dec. 1, 1767; m. James Parkis, and had five children.
ix. Olive, b. Jan. 6, 1770; m. Capt. Abraham Washburn, of Hinsdale, Mass., in April, 1806, as second wife, and had three children—Abraham,[6] d. young; Mary Northrop,[6] b. May 9, 1808, m. Elijah H. Goodrich of H. (had seven sons, of whom two are college graduates, Rev. John E.[7] of the University of Vermont, class of 1853, and Rev. Chauncy,[7] of Wms. College, class of 1861) ; and Olive,[6] b. June 4, 1810. Mrs. Washburn died June 22, 1842, and her husband Aug. 23, 1851, aged nearly 98 years, having been born Dec. 20, 1753.

12. Elisha[4] Wright (Ebenezer,[3] Abel,[2] Abel[1]) was born in Windham, Sept. 18, 1734. He married, first, Hannah, daughter of John Baldwin, of Norwich, Oct. 28, 1756, and had ten children, when his wife died June 6, 1777, and five of his children also, of an epidemic, in five months of time. He married, second, Chloe Spafford, April 14, 1778, who bore him three more children. He was a tanner and small farmer at Mansfield, where he died, Oct. 23, 1785, being crushed under a cart wheel. His widow outlived him fifty-four years, dying April 10, 1844, aged 95. Their children were :

i. Araunah, b. Nov. 15, 1757 ; d. May 6, 1777.
22. ii. Elisha, b. Nov. 9, 1759 ; m. Asenath Brigham about 1792, and had four children.
iii. Hannah, } twins ; b. Feb. 4, { Hannah d. Aug. 27, 1777.
iv. Elizabeth, } 1762. { m. Paul Clark, a soldier of the revolution, and a farmer, in 1785, and had eight children, all born in Hartford, Vt., of whom seven married and had about fifty children in their families. Mrs. Clark died Sept. 24, 1843, at Williston, Vt.
v. Mary, b. Feb. 22, 1764 ; d. Aug. 10, 1777.

vii. Olive, b. March 7, 1769 ; d. Aug. 13, 1777.
23. viii. Abraham Spafford, b. Jan. 19, 1772 ; m. first, Hannah Dunham, and second, Polly Shaw, and had eleven children in all. He died March 4, 1826, at Royalton, Vt.
ix. Parthena, b. May 23, 1774 ; d. Aug. 6, 1777.
24. x. John Hyde, b. April 19, 1777 ; m. Lorinda Royce, of Mansfield, Oct. 7, 1802 ; had four children. He was a farmer, and d. in Willington, Ct., Feb. 1866, aged 89, as his wife did the same month.

By second wife :

xi. Hannah, 2d, b. Feb. 16, 1780 ; died at Lebanon, August 29, 1810.
xii. Olive, b. Jan. 1, 1782 ; m. Timothy Williams, of Lebanon, Sept. 28, 1809, and had eight children. Mr. Williams had been a school teacher in early life, and was a member of the Connecticut legislature several terms in his maturer years.
xiii. Parthena, 2d, b. July 23, 1784 ; m. 1805, Dea. Jesse Gurley, of Mansfield (b. May 1, 1785), and had three daughters who each became the second wife of Baptist ministers—Sophia Sybil,[6] m. Rev. Leonard Slater, missionary to the Indians ; Sophronia Spafford,[6] m. Rev. Bela Hicks ; Mary,[6] m. Rev. Miner G. Clarke, and has an only son, William Cary,[7] in business at Chicago. Mrs. Mary G. Clarke has done good work with her pen.

13. Capt. Amaziah[4] Wright (Ebenezer,[3] Abel,[2] Abel[1]) was born Feb. 11, 1739, at Windham. He married, April 1, 1762, Zerviah, dau. of Capt. and Dea. Eleazer Fitch, of W., and had five sons and five daughters. He served in the war, was a farmer in Mansfield, and the executor of his father's last will, dated Dec. 2, 1768, and probated in 1787–8. About 1793–4, he removed to Salisbury, in the north-west corner of Connecticut, where he and his wife (who were both baptists) died not long after. But definite information is lacking. Their children were :

i. Sarah, b. Tues. 2 o'clock P.M., March 29, 1763.
25. ii. Ebenezer, b. Wednes. 1 A.M., April 10, 1765 ; m. Anna Galusha, a sister of Gov. Jonas G., of Shaftsbury, Vt., about 1787–8, and had eight children and a large posterity widely scattered.

iii. Zerviah, b. Nov. 21, 1767; d. unmarried.
iv. Eleazer Fitch, b. March 22, 1770; m. but lost to kindred.
v. Deborah, b. Feb. 6, 1773; m. —— Nichols, in Salisbury, had three children, all dead, and she died Dec. 18, 1849, at Canfield, Ohio.
vi. Dr. Amaziah, b. Jan. 5, 1776; m. Maria A. Lane, of New Milford, Ct., Jan. 10, 1809; had a son George William,[6] b. March 22, 1813, and one daughter. He died at N. Milford, Dec. 11, 1838, after a successful practice in New York city.
vii. Eliphalet, b. Dec. 28, 1777, and d. at Salisbury, unm.
26. viii. Thomas, b. March 1, 1779; m. Clarissa Hollenbeck, and second, Eliza Pryor, and had ten children; was a farmer; d. August 21, 1854, at Hudson, O.

THOMAS WRIGHT AND BENJAMIN WRIGHT OF GUILFORD, CONN., AND SOME DESCENDANTS.

Compiled by Hon. RALPH D. SMYTH, and communicated by Dr. BERNARD C. STEINER.

These two early settlers do not seem to have been related.

1. THOMAS[1] WRIGHT came to Guilford about 1670. He was the shepherd to the town. He was not the Thomas Wright who married Elizabeth, daughter of Lieut. Thomas Chittenden. His "terrier" showed that his homelot contained two acres. He married, Dec. 9, 1673, Sarah, daughter of Edward Benton. He died Dec. 6, 1692; and she died Dec. 25, 1692.

Children:

i. MARY,[2] b. in 1674; m. in 1698, Gideon Allen of New Haven.
ii. DANIEL, b. in 1676; d. Feb. 20, 1698.
iii. MERCY, b. in 1680; d. June 26, 1747; m. Aug. 18, 1707, Thomas Burgis, who d. Oct. 23, 1736.
iv. MEHITABLE, b. in 1684; was single in 1730.
v. ABEL, b. in 1688; d. young.

---

1. BENJAMIN[1] WRIGHT came to Guilford as early as 1645, when he was granted leave to set up a "tan mill." He desired to purchase Mr. John Caffinch's homelot, which the latter had sold to Thomas Standish of Wethersfield. The magistrate, William Leete, told Wright that he was "no fit planter for such an accommodation," but he went ahead and bought it from Standish, and for this contempt of court, and other "grave miscarriages" of like nature, he was whipped at New Haven in 1648. He seems to have been of a quarrelsome temperament, and to have had unpleasant relations with many of the town's people. Removing to Killingworth when that town was settled, he died there March 29, 1677. His wife, Jane ———, died Oct. 26, 1684.

Children:

2. i. JAMES,[2] b. in 1643; d. Mch. 10, 1727.

ii. JANE, b. in 1644; d. Dec., 1724; m. in 1664, Joseph Hand of Guilford, who d. Jan., 1724.
iii. BENJAMIN, b. in 1645; d. single, in 1684.
3. iv. JOSEPH, b. in 1647; d. Feb. 19, 1704.
v. ANNA, b. in 1650; d. May 21, 1731; m. (1) Feb. 6, 1677, John Walstone of Guilford, who d. in 1680; m. (2) Nov. 7, 1683, Dr. Peter Talman of Guilford, who d. July 20, 1731.
vi. ELIZABETH, b. Oct. 15, 1653; d. in 1685; m. Nov. 7, 1676, Edward Lee of Guilford, who d. Apr., 1727. (See REGISTER, ante, Vol. 53, p. 53.)

2. JAMES[2] WRIGHT (Benjamin[1]) married first, Sarah Wise; and married second, Hannah ———, who died Nov. 1, 1719, aged 70.
Children:
4. i. JAMES.[3]
5. ii. BENJAMIN. His will, dated Oct. 24, 1739, was proved Aug. 19, 1751.
6. iii. EBENEZER.

3. JOSEPH[2] WRIGHT (Benjamin[1]) married Elizabeth ———, who died Nov. 2, 1702.
Children:
i. JOSEPH.[3]
ii. ELIZABETH, b. Aug. 8, 1696.
iii. JOHN.

4. JAMES[3] WRIGHT (James,[2] Benjamin[1]), of Durham, married, Dec. 14, 1707, Judith Bushnell. She was born Sept. 14, 1679, and died March 11, 1715–16.
Child:
i. JAMES,[4] m. Nov. 7, 1748, Submit, dau. of Benjamin Buel. Their children were: 1. Ambrose,[5] b. Apr. 14, 1749; d. Sept. 27, 1749. 2. Christopher, b. Sept. 29, 1752. 3. Submit, b. Dec. 4, 1754. 4. James, b. Feb. 6, 1757. 5. Benjamin, b. Aug. 23, 1760.

5. BENJAMIN[3] WRIGHT (James,[2] Benjamin[1]) married, April 5, 1705, Elizabeth, daughter of Joseph Hand. She had land laid out to her in Guilford, Dec. 14, 1730.
Children:
i. BENJAMIN,[4] b. Jan. 18, 1706.
ii. JOSIAH, b. Oct. 18, 1708; of Killingworth; m. about 1737, Rhoda, dau. of Cornelius Dowd.
iii. PRUDENCE, b. Jan. 21, 1710.
iv. JEREMIAH, b. Aug. 14, 1712; d. Apr. 9, 1727.
v. OBADIAH, b. Oct. 6, 1714; d. probably before 1739.
vi. DAVID, b. Aug. 27, 1716.
vii. ELIZABETH, b. July 6, 1719.

6. EBENEZER[3] WRIGHT (James,[2] Benjamin[1]) married Bethiah, daughter of Samuel Camp of Durham.
Child:
i. SAMUEL,[4] bapt. July 4, 1725.

7. JOHN[3] WRIGHT (Joseph,[2] Benjamin[1]), of Killingworth, married Mary ———.
Children:
i. DAVID,[4] b. Feb. 5, 1708.
ii. JOHN, b. Sept. 6, 1711.
iii. ABIGAIL, b. July 19, 1715.
iv. JOSHUA, b. Dec. 30, 1719.

Nathaniel Wyatt of Stamford, Conn.: — Recently in making a search of the early generations of the various Wyatt families of New England the writer came across erroneous published information concerning the Dorchester Wyatt family. Walter S. Finley, in a record of the Wyatt family which appears in "Americana" 31–352, states that the Benjamin Wyatt who married 11 Jan. 1719–20 Miriam Puffer at Dorchester was son of Nathaniel and Mary (Corbin) Wyatt, grandson of Nathaniel and Johanna (Spur) Wyatt and great grandson of Edward[1] Wyatt of Dorchester.

During the course of the above mentioned search it was discovered that Nathaniel[2] Wyatt, son of Edward[1] Wyatt, was twice married. He married 1st at Dorchester, 8th of 11 month 1668, Johanna, dau. of Robert[1] Spur. Johanna died 22 March 1687–8 at Dorchester and Nathaniel[2] Wyatt married 2nd, 13 Dec. 1688, Mary Corbin of New Cambridge. This latter marriage appears on the records of the Milton Church. Mary Corbin was probably the widow of John[2] (Clement[1]) Corbin who had evidently resided for a time at the new settlement of Woodstock sometime referred to as New Cambridge.

Evidence that it was Nathaniel[2] Wyatt and not his son Nathaniel[3], born 26th of 9th mo. 1669, who married Mary (———) Corbin, is found in the following caveat on file in the Suffolk County Registry of Probate:

"Memo. Peter Lyon who married the Daughter of Nathaniel Wyatt of Dorchester Housewright deceased desires that administration may not be granted to his brother-in-law Jonathan Wyat nor any other person till he and the rest of the Children have a hearing before his Honr. the Judge of Probate.

Boston December 22, 1718.

Peter Lyon (L. S.)"

The Jonathan Wyatt alluded to was the son born to Nathaniel[2] & Johanna (Spur) Wyatt at Dorchester, 27 May 1677. Peter[3] Lyon of Dorchester had married Waitstill, the dau. born to Nathaniel[2] and Mary (———) (Corbin) Wyatt at Dorchester 3 Jan. 1691–2. The relationships are thus immediately clarified.

Of the son Nathaniel[3] Wyatt (Nathaniel,[2] Edward[1]) there appears no trace other than his birth recorded at Dorchester in 1669 unless as seems most probable he was the Nathaniel Wyatt whose death was recorded at Dorchester, 20 Mar. 1702–3. Is it possible, however, that he was a few years prior thereto a resident for a time of Stamford, Conn. and the father there of a Nathaniel Wyatt, born 18th of 7th month 1697?

THE WYLLYS FAMILY OF CONNECTICUT.

By Miss Mary K. Talcott, of Hartford, Ct.

GEORGE WYLLYS, of Fenny Compton, co. Warwick,* came, in 1638, with his family to Hartford, having sent his steward two years before to prepare his residence for him. In 1639 he was an Assistant; in 1641, Deputy Governor; in 1642, Governor of the colony. He was once elected commissioner to the United Congress of the Colonies. He died in Hartford, March 9, 1645. From his will we know that his wife's name was Mary. Children:

i. George, left in England in possession of the estate of Fenny Compton. Dugdale says that George Willys, Esq., late of Fenny Compton, aliened the greater part of the estate in Napton, 16 Car. I.

ii. Hester, married Oct. 17, 1645, as his second wife, Capt. Robert Harding, who came with Winthrop in 1630, and afterwards removed to Rhode Island. In November, 1646, he sailed for England, and in 1651 he was a merchant in London.

iii. Amy, married Oct. 30, 1645, John Pynchon, only son of William Pynchon, of Springfield, born in England in 1625. He was Assistant, member of the council, colonel of the Hampshire regiment, and the chief man in that part of Massachusetts. Mrs. Amy Pynchon died Jan. 9, 1699. Col. Pynchon died Jan. 17, 1703. Children: 1. Joseph,[3] b. July 26, 1646; H. C. 1664; d. in Boston, Dec. 30, 1682. 2. John,[3] b. Oct. 15, 1647; m. Margaret, daughter of Rev. William Hubbard; d. in Springfield, April 25, 1721. 3. Mary,[3] b. Oct. 28, 1650; m. Oct. 5, 1669, Joseph Whiting, of Westfield, son of William Whiting, of Hartford. She died about 1675 or 6. 4. William,[3] b. Oct. 11, 1653; d. young. 5. Mehitabel,[4] b. Nov. 22, 1661; d. young.

2. iv. Samuel, born in England in 1632.

2. Samuel[2] Wyllys (George[1]), of Hartford, H. C. 1653; he was chosen Assistant the next year, and continued in office until 1685. He was extensively engaged in trade, and had an interest in several sugar plantations at Antigua. His speculations proved disastrous, and he became deeply involved in debt, so that pecuniary assistance was granted him by the General Assembly. He was for four years commissioner to the Congress of the New England colonies, and held other offices. He married Ruth, daughter of Gov. John Haynes, and his second wife, Mabel Harlakenden. The date of her death is unknown; but he married, secondly, at Berwick, Me., Nov. 28, 1688, Mrs. Mary Love. He died in Hartford, May 30, 1709. Children:

He married his cousin, Jerusha Talcott, who died in Hartford, Aug. 9, 1783. In 1785 he was appointed major of the troops raised for the defence of the frontier. He was killed in the attack on the Miami Towns, Sept. 30, 1790, while serving in Gen. Harmar's expedition against the Indians, s. p.

Note I.

In the pedigree of the Wyllys family, published in the Register for April, 1868, taken from Berry's Berkshire Pedigrees, George Wyllys, who came to Hartford in 1638, is described as born in 1611, the son of Richard Willis, born in 1590, and his wife Bridget, daughter of William Young, of Kingston Hall, and the grandson of Richard Willis, who married Hester Chambers. Now Camden's Visitation of Warwickshire, in 1619 (London, 1877), gives in his pedigree of Wyllys the name of Bridget Young's husband, as George, aged 29 in that year, 1619, and the epitaph of Richard Willis, who married Hester Chambers, given in Dugdale's Warwickshire, says he had five children—George, William, Richard, Judith and Mary—"all now living." This Richard died in 1597, and his wife Hester was the daughter of George Chambre, of Williamscourt, in the county of Oxford, according to Dugdale, and it seems probable that he was succeeded by his eldest son George. We know that George Wyllys, when he came into New England, left a son George in England, that his youngest son Samuel was born in 1632, when he was 21, according to Mr. Fowler's pedigree, and his two daughters were married in 1645, so were probably older than Samuel. The statement that George, born in 1611, came to New England, does not appear in Berry, being an addition by Mr. Fowler; but does it not seem probable that he was the son George left behind in possession of the estate of Fenny Compton, a man grown, for, according to the other theory, that son could not have been more than ten years old when his father came to America. George Wyllys brought a wife Mary with him to Hartford, as we know by his will; but she may have been his second wife and the mother of all his children, except George and Mary, whom Camden gives as the children of George and Bridget. Dugdale copies the epitaphs of three of the Willises—Richard, Ambrose, and Richard who married Hester Chambers, and says that George Wyllys, late of Fenni Compton, gent., aliened the greater part of his estate in Napton to Richard Shakburgh, Esq., 16 Car. I. Another point, though not a conclusive one, is that the names of George Wyllys's daughters, Amy and Hester, are those of the mother, and grandmother of the man born in 1590. In conclusion I would say that I think the name of Richard has been substituted for that of George in the genealogies, and I shall be very glad if any one can enlighten me in this matter. The Hartford Town Records do not give the age of George Wyllys, Esq., when he died in 1645.

Note II.

"Of your charite pray for the soul of Richard Willis, gentleman, lord of the Mannour of Fenny-Compton, and one of the King's Justices of the Peace in the County of Warwick. And Jone his wife. Which Richard deceased the VIII day of February in the year of our Lord MDXXXI. Of whose souls Jesu have mercy, Amen."

" Here lyeth buried the body of Ambrose Willis of Fenny Compton in the County of Warwick, Gentleman, the son of William Willis who lyeth buried at Prior's Marson, which William was the son of Richard Willis and Joane his wife, both lying buried under the stone adjoyning. Which Ambrose had by Amye his wife eight sonnes all deceased in their infancy, but one sonne named Richard, and one daughter named Anne, yet living. He deceased the tenth day of June Anno Domini Millesimo quingentesimo nonogesimo." [This Amye was the daughter of Richard Coller of Little Preston, in the County of Northampton, Esquire.]

" Here lyeth buried the body of Richard Willis of Fenny Compton, in the County of Warwick, gentilman, son of Ambrose Willis, deceased. Which said Richard had by Hester his wife, five children, that is to say, George, William, Richard, Judith and Mary, all now living, who deceased the tenth day of June, 1597." [This Hester was the daughter of George Chambre of Williamscote in the County of Oxford, Esquire.] From Dugdale's Warwickshire.

THE NEW ENGLAND ANCESTRY OF H.R.H. THE PRINCESS OF WALES

Gary Boyd Roberts

I

The marriage of the Prince of Wales and Lady Diana Frances Spencer has introduced a large slice of Americana into the genealogy of the British royal family. Their children, including a probable future sovereign, will be ancestrally one-sixteenth American. For the Princess's maternal grandfather, the 4th Baron Fermoy, was not only a graduate of St. Paul's School and Harvard who lived in the United States until his father's death in 1920 and served during World War I as an American army captain in France; he was also by a few minutes the eldest male offspring of an Irish lord's second son and the daughter of an American millionaire. This daughter, the Princess's American great-grandmother, twice divorced, known generally as Mrs. Frances Burke Roche, died at age eighty-nine in New York City in 1947. She and her sister, Mrs. Peter Cooper Hewitt, were in the 1890s two of Mrs. Astor's "400" and remained prominent in New York and Newport society thereafter. Their millionaire father, who loathed his daughter's "foreign" marriage, was Frank Work, half Scottish, raised in Chillicothe, Ohio, Wall Street speculator, horseowner, and protege of Commodore Vanderbilt. Worth $15,000,000 at his death in 1911, Work may well qualify as a tycoon and "robber baron." His mother, born near Baltimore, was largely of Philadelphia, Maryland, and New Jersey ancestry, but one of her almost certain great-great-grandfathers, Joseph Boude, was an innkeeper and distiller in seventeenth-century Marblehead, Massachusetts. Frank Work's wife, Ellen Wood, the Princess's American great-great-grandmother, was the daughter of a prosperous porkpacker and early settler of Chillicothe, born in what is now West Virginia, the ancestry of whose parents has not yet been determined. Ellen's mother was the daughter of Dr. Joseph Strong, 1770-1812, a Philadelphia surgeon born in Connecticut who graduated from Yale in 1788 and whose own wife was the daughter of a privateer, also of Philadelphia, born probably in Scotland.

Dr. Joseph Strong, the Princess's "gateway ancestor" to New England, was the son of a revolutionary soldier and patriot, a first cousin of the martyr spy Nathan Hale, a second cousin once removed of both Vermont hero Ethan Allen and the second wife of William Floyd, signer of the Declaration of Independence from New York, and a fourth cousin once removed of both Joseph Warren of Bunker Hill and William Williams, signer of the Declaration of Independence from Connecticut. Dr. Strong's father, grandfather, and great-grandfather were Coventry selectmen who represented their town in the Connecticut General Assembly. His ancestry, consisting totally of New Englanders and their Great Migration and English forebears, is fully known for five generations, and of the thirty-two possible sixth-generation ancestors, first names or more are known for twenty-eight. Geographically diffuse, this ancestry is nonetheless concentrated, before any move to Coventry or nearby Windham, in five areas—Northampton, Massachusetts; Hartford, Windsor, and Farmington, Connecticut; Boston, Dorchester, Roxbury, Charlestown, Lynn, Salem, Beverly, Wenham, and Ipswich, Massachusetts; Duxbury and Bridgewater, Massachusetts; and Norwich, New London, Preston, and Stonington, Connecticut. The migration pattern was generally from Massachusetts to Connecticut, or from Hartford or Windsor to Northampton. Dr. Strong's immigrant male ancestors (sons who came with their fathers are excluded) number nineteen—John Strong, Thomas Ford, William Holton, Samuel Allen, Thomas Woodford, Robert Blott, Henry Woodward, John Lee, Stephen Hart, Thomas Bishop, John Cogswell, Adam Hawkes, John Fobes, William Gager, Robert Hibbard, John Luff, Edward Walden, James Morgan, and Robert Parke. Most were farmers, but William Gager was a surgeon, Robert Hibbard a bricklayer, and John Luff a weaver. Two ancestresses, Elizabeth (Charde) Cooke and Alice (Freeman) Thompson, wives of Thomas Ford and Robert Parke respectively, were widows who brought children by their first husbands to New England; and two more, Elizabeth (Gore) Gager, daughter-in-law of William Gager, and Constant Mitchell, wife of John Fobes, seem to have had New England siblings. Dr. Strong had no Mayflower descent, but Constant Mitchell was probably a daughter of Thomas Mitchell and Margaret Williams of the Leyden company. The English place origins or parents of thirteen of the twenty-three immigrant forebears who left American progeny or kinsmen are known or have been suggested, and Dr. Strong's matrilineal immigrant ancestress, the above-named Alice (Freeman) (Thompson) Parke, was of gentry origin and noble and royal descent.

The twenty-three just-listed immigrant forebears of Dr. Joseph Strong, and their American descendants and kinsmen are numerically almost comparable (note, however, the absorption of Woodford's progeny into Blott's, of Lee's into Hart's, and of Hibbard's into Luff's) to the twenty-three Mayflower families now being covered, through the early eighteenth century, in Mayflower Families Through Five Generations. Assuming an average birth year of 1610 for Dr. Strong's twenty-three immigrant sires, assuming thirty years per generation and thirteen generations of descendants, the last three of which are living, assuming three children per family in each generation (a fair average, I think, when both village and urban, pre- and post-industrial revolution families are considered), deducting almost 50 percent for overlap and intermarriage, and perhaps adding the likely progeny of the Marblehead Boudes as well, the living descendants of the Princess of Wales's New England ancestors now number probably between twenty and thirty million Americans. Among these are 250—and no doubt many more—of the several thousand most notable individuals in American history, a fair sample of the Yankee, and especially Connecticut and Connecticut Valley Yankee, contribution, over 350 years, to the nation at large.

The purpose of this article is to detail and document the above summary. Additionally I wish to suggest that partially American ancestry for a Princess of Wales should not surprise us; nor should fully known ancestry well covered in printed works for a pioneer migrant from this region, millions of distant American relatives for any of his descendants, or kinships thereby to a large number of major historical figures. Considering these points one at a time we may first note that the number of marriages between American women, often heiresses, and Britishers—titled, noble, gentle, intellectually distinguished, or just rich—between roughly the Civil War and World War I, was probably over one thousand. Two hundred or more can be listed by simply examining Burke's Peerage in some detail. Some intermarriage, moreover, has continued. Not only were the stepmother of Neville Chamberlain and the mothers of Sir Winston Churchill and Harold Macmillan American (for Jennie Jerome's ancestry, and Churchill's kinships to Franklin D. Roosevelt, Douglas MacArthur, and Henry Wallace, see the New York Genealogical and Biographical Record, 73 [1942]:159-172, 219-221); so too were the mother of Erskine Hamilton Childers, Prime Minister of the Republic of Ireland, 1973-1974, the wife of Rudyard Kipling, the first wife of Sir Thomas Beecham, 2nd Baronet, and the first and fourth wives of Bertrand (3rd Earl) Russell. Some of the transatlantic marriages of the last century, of course, were childless, but grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren of others are now spread throughout much of the British upper classes, peerage families especially. And these marriages are in addition to various colonial unions which, although considerably fewer and involving much less American ancestry, have produced many British descendants. Robert Porteus, Jr. (ca. 1705-1754) of Virginia, a graduate of Peterhouse, Cambridge in 1730, and later rector of Cockayne Hadley, Bedfordshire, England, was a second cousin of George Washington, a second cousin once removed of Meriwether Lewis, and a third cousin of Thomas Nelson, signer of the Declaration of Independence. Porteus's British descendants include H.M. Queen Elizabeth the Queen Mother and the 6th Baron Carrington, the current foreign secretary (see articles by Sir A.R. Wagner in The New York Genealogical and Biographical Record, 70 [1939]:201-206, and Genealogists' Magazine, 8 [1939]:368-375, and my manuscript monograph, "Some Notable Kinsmen of Presidents Washington, Jefferson, Madison, the two Harrisons, Tyler, Taylor, and/or the second Mrs. Woodrow Wilson. . ." at the Virginia State Library in Richmond). John Singleton Copley, the American painter, and Susanna Farnum Clarke, his wife, the latter a descendant of New England Appletons, Winslows, Hutchinsons (including the noted Mrs. Anne [Marbury] Hutchinson) and John Chilton of the Mayflower, left a large British progeny through their son, the 1st Baron Lyndhurst. Included are the Honorable Lavinia Mary Strutt, wife of the late 16th Duke of Norfolk, and the Honorable Pamela Beryl Digby, wife successively of Randolph Churchill (Sir Winston's son, by whom she was the mother of the current Winston Churchill, M.P.), theatrical producer Leland Hayward, and Averill Harriman. The descendants, firstly on Antigua, then in the British peerage, baronetage, and gentry, of Samuel Winthrop, a son of Governor John Winthrop of Massachusetts Bay, are outlined by Ellery Kirke Taylor in The Lion and the Hare (Ann Arbor, 1939), charts Q-T. And New England migration to Canada has produced transatlantic kinships as well. Not only was Sir Robert Laird Borden, the only Canadian prime minister (1911-1920) from Nova Scotia, of New England ancestry; so also was Gladys Henderson Drury, a descendant of Governor Thomas Dudley of Massachusetts Bay and Reverend John Rogers, 6th president of Harvard College, and wife of William Maxwell Aitken, 1st Baron Beaverbrook, the financier, newspaper owner, and member of Churchill's war cabinet (see Burke's Genealogical and Heraldic History of the Landed Gentry, 18th ed. [London, 1969], 2:165, and Tracy Elliot Hazen, The Hazen Family in America [Thomaston, Conn., 1947], 93, 94, 185, 186). Beaverbrook's daughter married firstly Ian Douglas Campbell, later 11th Duke of Argyll, great-nephew of a son-in-law of Queen Victoria, and left a daughter who was the third wife of novelist Norman Mailer. Such examples are not endless, but the cumulative result is an Anglo-American kinship much reinforced since our seventeenth-century migration. As genealogies are compiled on the progeny of later, especially nineteenth-century British immigrants to the United States also, this reinforcement seems even stronger.

No more surprising than American ancestry for many members of the British upper class—into which the royal family is likely to marry—is almost completely traceable ancestry for a New England pioneer migrant. In "New Sources for Seventeenth-Century New England and the Pioneer Population of 1750 to 1850: A Review Essay," Register, 135 (1981): 57-68, I discussed the ease with which the best pre-1960 sources for seventeenth-century New Englanders can be gleaned from Clarence Almon Torrey's New England Marriages Prior to 1700. Footnote 2, page 58, moreover, mentioned the multi-ancestor genealogies by M. W. Ferris, Ernest Flagg, M. L. Holman, D. L. Jacobus and E. F. Waterman, E. B. Sumner, L. A. W. Underhill, and F. C. Warner. Of the thirteen major sources for the ancestry of Dr. Joseph Strong listed below, eight are multi-ancestor works by one of these authors. The remaining five are traditional agnate descendant single family genealogies, of which the 1871 Strong volume, a major source for many Connecticut Valley families (see The Connecticut Nutmegger, 12 [1979]: 375) and the 1980 Adam Hawkes volume are outstanding. A few errors or omissions in the 1901 Hibbard genealogy and The Parke Scrapbooks were corrected by use of Windham, Connecticut, deeds and probate district records, all Northampton marriage records were confirmed by examining the copy by Walter E. Corbin at the Society, and Coventry, Norwich, Windham and other Connecticut vital records were found (especially the birth and death dates for Caleb Bishop) or confirmed by using the microfilm copy, also at the Society, of the Barbour Collection (see the Register, 134 [1980]: 8, 9). A few other sources are noted in the ancestor table below, and Dr. Joseph Strong was admittedly a college graduate and member of one of his town's leading families. Nonetheless being able to trace the bulk of his New England ancestry and finding definitive accounts of almost all his immigrant ancestors in major multi-ancestor genealogies of the last few generations is not unusual. Not only does Torrey's work identify almost all pre-1960 material on probably 99 percent of seventeenth-century New Englanders; the multi-ancestor works listed and indexed by immigrant in Donald Lines Jacobus's "My Own Index" section of Index to Genealogical Periodicals, vol. 3, 1947-1952 (New Haven, 1953), and (listed only) the Register, 135 (1981): 196-198, cover probably over 2500 Great Migration immigrants. These works, 130 in all, range from good to excellent. Additionally, the considerable number of high quality New England single-family genealogies, the various town histories with nearly definitive genealogical sections (for a short list see the Register, 135 [1981]: 58, footnote 3, 60), the large New England periodical literature, and various compilations of primary sources, especially the above cited Barbour Collection for Connecticut and the printed vital records volumes for Massachusetts towns (an exhaustive list, prepared by Edward W. Hanson and Homer Vincent Rutherford, appears in the Register, 135 [1981]: 183-194) all contribute to an unparalleled regional excellence in printed genealogical sources. Once the origin of a migrant New Englander is found, sometimes admittedly a formidable task, much of his known ancestry is likely to be well covered in print. And since New England primary sources, on which printed ones are based, are superb until the mid-eighteenth century, if the migrant leaves New England before 1800, as did Dr. Joseph Strong, and his parents and grandparents are known through a good printed genealogy, vital or Bible record, wills, deeds or other sources, probably most of his remaining New England forebears are readily traceable also.

Almost all descendants of pioneers from New England who moved north, west or south in the century between 1750 and 1850 will have at least twenty known Pilgrim or Great Migration ancestors. Some will have fifty or more, and many contemporary New Englanders of largely Yankee ancestry will have well over two hundred. Many immigrants of the decades between 1620 and 1650 now doubtless have over a million living descendants—again assuming thirteen generations, three now living, three children and thirty years per generation, and considerable cousin intermarriage. Thus the number of distant American kinsmen of anyone with sizable New England ancestry is enormous. Probably never, however, has it equalled more than half of the national population—because of extensive intermarriage and overlapping, which grow exponentially as the progenies of more immigrants are considered; because New Englanders by no means migrated everywhere; and because many Americans are totally of mid-Atlantic, Southern, or nineteenth- or twentieth-century immigrant ancestry. Good statistical studies in genealogy are rare. As social historians explore these issues more exactly, many figures may change. However, as regards the probability of ancestry in common with the Princess of Wales for anyone with a considerable number of New England forebears, since the Princess has probably between twenty and thirty million New England-derived distant American relatives, as noted above, I should now estimate it as high as twenty or twenty-five percent.

However we attempt to calculate the likely total number of the Princess's New England-derived relatives, specific distant kinships to at least 250 of the several thousand most notable individuals in American history are clear. These 250, listed below with outlines of their descents from ancestors of Dr. Joseph Strong, include ten presidents or their wives (the two Adamses, Fillmore, Hayes, Cleveland, T. Roosevelt, Wilson, Coolidge, F. D. Roosevelt and Truman); various "tycoon" families (Armours, Colts, Marshall Fields, Firestones, Fords, H. L. Hunts, McCormicks, J. P. Morgans, Potter Palmers, Pillsburys, C. W. Posts, Rockefellers, Scribners, Strauses, Tiffanys, Vanderbilts, and Whitneys); a sizeable number of literary figures or their spouses, especially those leaders associated with Harvard, the mid-nineteenth-century "flowering of New England," abolition or reform (later Adamses, Alcotts, Beechers, Holmeses, Emerson, Longfellow, E. E. Hale, Bancroft, Prescott, Motley, T. D. Weld, Susan B. Anthony, and Elizabeth Cady Stanton); and numerous twentieth-century entertainment, media, or sports figures or their spouses (C. D. Gibson, Caruso, Valentino, Lillian and Dorothy Gish, John and Ethel Barrymore, Orson Welles, Humphrey Bogart, Spencer Tracy, Shirley Temple, Anthony Perkins, Julie Harris, Lee Remick, Dina Merrill, Sidney Lumet, Eddie Duchin, Henry Luce, Lowell Thomas, Edward R. Murrow, Ben Bradlee, George Gallup, the Alsops, Walter C. Camp and "Gene" Tunney). Also included are four U.S. vice presidents (Colfax, L. P. Morton, J. S. Sherman, and Dawes), seven secretaries of state (Root, Lansing, Stimson, Acheson, Dulles, Herter and Vance), two presidents of Harvard (Kirkland and Lowell), six presidents of Yale (Elisha Williams, the two Timothy Dwights, Woolsey, Hadley, and Brewster) and a wide variety of twentieth-century literary figures (among others Frank Norris, L. F. Baum, Clarence Day, Hart Crane, F. Scott Fitzgerald, J. P. Marquand, Robert Penn Warren, Archibald MacLeish, Barrett Wendell, Van Wyck Brooks, Samuel Eliot Morison, Arthur Schlesinger, Jr., and Erle Stanley Gardner, or their wives). So inclusive, these 250 seem a fair sample of the Yankee, and especially Connecticut and Connecticut Valley Yankee, contribution to American history. Involved in both the revolution and the formation of the Federalist mercantile elite of Salem and Boston, whose second generation was in large part responsible for "the flowering of New England," Unitarianism, abolitionism, and early feminism, these notable kinsmen of Dr. Joseph Strong and their immediate forebears also moved, as did he and his children and grandchildren, to New York City and/or the Midwest. There they helped to found both the industrial oligarchy of the immediate post-Civil War decades, and its own second generation offspring, inter-city turn-of-the-century "society," headed by the 400 in New York. A few less wealthy but locally notable kinsmen produced political leaders, especially in upstate New York and Ohio. In this century "society" settled into an "eastern establishment" much represented by these 250 (note the just-listed secretaries of state); literature, the arts and sciences have continued to expand and flower, both within and outside New England and its colleges; and much business opportunity has moved to the South or the West (note the California-based entertainment and media figures above). Unfortunately space considerations preclude documenting each generation in the descents of these 250 notable figures from various ancestors of Dr. Joseph Strong. One major source has been my own research, including various pamphlets and "The Mowbray Connection" (22 volumes, manuscript collection at the Society, for some discussion of which see The Connecticut Nutmegger, 10 [1977]: 3-12, and The Detroit Society for Genealogical Research Magazine, 41 [1978]: 141; 42 [1979]: 191), collected and compiled since 1966. All descents outlined below have been rechecked this year, however, and much additional research undertaken as well.

The remainder of this article consists of (1) a detailed genealogical summary of the seven generations between Dr. Joseph Strong and the Princess of Wales; (2) an ancestor table of Dr. Strong, again covering seven generations; and (3) the list of 250 notable figures who share part of his New England ancestry, together with an outline of the generations between each of the 250 and every nearest common forebear. Before proceeding to this specific data and documentation, however, I wish to acknowledge several colleagues, partial sponsors, and individuals or media who have encouraged this research into the American and New England ancestry of the Princess of Wales. First among my colleagues, who exhausted sources at the Library of Congress and the National Archives, and undertook research with me in Chillicothe, is William Addams Reitwiesner of Silver Spring, Maryland, whose monograph "The American Ancestors and Relatives of Lady Diana Frances Spencer" was sent to various scholars and libraries, including the Society, in the spring of 1981. Mr. Reitwiesner and I are also major contributors to the American section of a forthcoming book on the Princess's entire known ancestry for twelve or more generations, to be edited by David G. Williamson of Burke's Peerage and published by Charles Skilton, Ltd.

This last project I discussed in The Genealogist (New York), 2 (1981): 244-256; the work will be essentially a companion to Gerald Paget's The Lineage and Ancestry of H.R.H. Prince Charles, Prince of Wales, 2 volumes (London and Baltimore, 1977).

Secondly, I wish to acknowledge Neil D. Thompson, who undertook much research in New York City vital records and wills; Timothy Field Beard and Gunther Pohl, for additional work in New York; John R. Grabb, Mrs. Marie Taylor Clark, and Mrs. Carol Willsey Bell, for extensive Ohio research; Francis James Dallett and Roger D. Joslyn for research, now published, on the Boude family of Boston, Marblehead, Philadelphia, and Baltimore; Benjamin H. Gaylord and Wayne C. Hart, for partial underwriting of research into notable Holton and Hart descendants respectively; and the English Speaking Union, for sponsoring an Ohio lecture tour on the American ancestry of the Prince and Princess of Wales, a trip that allowed me to undertake research in Chillicothe and Columbus. Among media outlets whose articles or broadcasts during the past year generated much reader response and new information, I wish to acknowledge Time Magazine, The Washington Post, NBC, Reuters and UPI news agencies, and in London The Sunday Times Magazine. A seven-generation ancestor table of the Princess appeared in David G. Williamson's "The Ancestry of Lady Diana Spencer," Genealogists' Magazine, 20 (1981): 192-197, 281, 282. And among persons who encouraged this research and article I wish to acknowledge Lady Fermoy, the Princess's grandmother, who wrote to Mr. Reitwiesner; Abby Van Pelt of Philadelphia, the Princess's second cousin, with whom Mr. Reitwiesner and I have formed an ongoing friendship; and Drs. James B. Bell and Ralph J. Crandall of the Society.

II

The Descent from Dr. Joseph Strong to H.R.H. The Princess of Wales.

1. Dr. Joseph Strong, b. South Coventry, Conn., 10 Mar. 1770, d. Philadelphia, Penn., 24 Apr. 1812, a graduate of Yale College in 1788 who studied medicine under Dr. Lemuel Hopkins of Hartford, 1788-1790, and Dr. Benjamin Rush at the School of Medicine, University of Pennsylvania, 1791-1792. Strong first practiced at Middletown, Conn., was a surgeon's mate in the legion of General Anthony Wayne in the Ohio campaign against the Indians (appointed 4 May 1792, resigned 1 May 1796) and lived thereafter in Philadelphia. A leading local physician, he was also a major promoter of the Philadelphia Society for the Encouragement of Domestic Manufactures, invented the axle tourniquet for the control of bleeding during surgical operations (patent dated 29 Jan. 1801) and died intestate, aged 42 years, 1 month and 14 days, of yellow fever. See "Biography of Dr. Joseph Strong, 1770-1812, Philadelphia Physician," by Lockwood Anderson Barr (a great-great-grandson) (typescript, the Society [Pelham Manor, N.Y., 1940]; published, somewhat condensed, in Yale Journal of Biology and Medicine, 13 [1941]: 429-450); Franklin Bowditch

Dexter, Biographical Sketches of the Graduates of Yale College, vol. 4, 1778-1792 (New York, 1907), 620, 621; and pp. 414-416 of the Strong genealogy listed below. Dr. Strong m. in Philadelphia (at the First Baptist Church, according to Pennsylvania Archives, 2nd ser., vol. 8 [Harrisburg, 1880; reprinted as Record of Pennsylvania Marriages Prior to 1810, vol. 1, Baltimore, 1968], 771, where he is mistakenly called Dr. "John" Strong) 8 Sept. 1796 Rebecca Young, b. Philadelphia 5 May 1779, who m. (2) Peter Gardiner (by whom she had a son, Richard J. Gardiner, b. Philadelphia 15 Feb. 1818) and moved to Chillicothe, Ohio, between 1818 and 1823. Mrs. Gardiner d. Piqua, Ohio (to which her son, William Young Strong, had moved from Chillicothe) 8 June 1862, and is undoubtedly the "Mrs. Gardner" buried, without a stone, in the lot of her son-in-law, John Wood, in Grandview Cemetery, Chillicothe (Marie Taylor Clark. Tombstone Inscriptions of Grandview Cemetery, Chillicothe, Ohio, Ross County [Chillicothe, 1972], 2). Mrs. Rebecca Young Strong Gardiner was the daughter of Capt. Peter Young of Philadelphia, revolutionary privateer, of unknown origin, b. perhaps in Scotland ca. 1739 (described as aged 42 on 11 Dec. 1781), whose will was dated 13 Oct. 1776 and proved 12 Nov. 1784, and Eleanor ———, his wife, whose origin is also unknown but who died after 21 Oct. 1796. See L. A. Barr, "Captain Peter Young (1738-1784), Mariner of Philadelphia," (typescript, the Library of Congress and elsewhere [Pelham Manor, NY, 1945]).

2. Eleanor Strong, b. Philadelphia ca. 1802-3, d. New York City 9 July 1863, aged 60 (death records, Borough of Manhattan, City of New York, in custody of Municipal Archives, 31 Chambers Street, New York, NY, 10007, but said to be aged 61 at death in the obituary notice of Thursday, 9 July 1863 in the New York Evening Post—see Gertrude A. Barber, "Deaths Taken From the New York Evening Post [from July 1, 1863 to August 6, 1964]", vol. 40, 1941, p. 3 typescript), m. St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Chillicothe 13 Mar. 1823 (see vol. 1 of its parish register, now in the custody of Rev. William V. Brook, Jr., rector of said church, 33 E. Main Street, Chillicothe, 45601, and on microfilm at the Ross County Historical Society, Chillicothe, and several typescript copies of Ross County marriages) John Wood, b. Va., probably in or near Shepherdstown, Berkeley County (now Jefferson County, W. Va.) 29 July 1785, d. Chillicothe 29 Jan. 1848 (M.T. Clark, op. cit.). John Wood's tombstone mistakenly gives 1847 as his year of death, but his will (see Ross County will book E and F, 76) was dated 21 Jan. 1848 and proved 3 Feb. 1848, and an executor's notice, dated 9 Feb. 1848, appeared in the Scioto Gazette, a Chillicothe newspaper, on Wednesday, 23 Feb. 1848, p. 3, column 4. No baptism for Eleanor, usually called Ellen, is listed in the records of Old Christ Church, Philadelphia, where siblings were baptised 3 Nov. 1797 (Lucy), 6 Nov. 1801 (Joseph Jr. and Peter Young Strong) and 11 Mar. 1812 (William Young Strong, Rebecca Strong, and Lavinia Strong, this last undoubtedly the "child of Joseph Strong" buried the next day), and no orphan's court record in Philadelphia or other documentary source can be found that lists all children of Joseph Strong and Rebecca Young. There is, however, no doubt of Eleanor's parentage. She was very likely named for her maternal grandmother and aunt (an Eleanor Young b. 13 Nov. 1767) and two of her sons were named William Bond Wood (after William Key Bond, 1792-1864, noted judge and congressman, who married Lucy Strong, Eleanor's oldest sister) and Joseph Strong Wood (after his maternal grandfather). Two of Eleanor's children, Thomas James Wood and Ellen Wood (see below), were baptized at St. Paul's, Chillicothe, on the same day (22 July 1832) as Josephine Bond, their first cousin. The New York death record of Ellen Wood states that she was born in Pennsylvania, and that of her daughter Ellen Work, gives "mother's birth place" as Philadelphia. The Strong genealogy listed below, a printed work of very high quality in which I can find only one mistake regarding this family (there is no evidence that Dr. Joseph Strong ever lived in Chillicothe, but Dwight is here certainly following Dexter), lists (p. 415) Ellen as Joseph and Rebecca's fourth child, between Peter Young Strong and William Young Strong, whose births are given in the records of Old Christ Church, alongside their baptisms, as 28 Apr. 1801 and 26 June 1806 respectively (another brother, William Strong, b. 12 Dec. 1804, d. 8 Sept. 1805). L.A. Barr misread the burial date of the "child of Joseph Strong" and thought that Lavinia (b. 19 Aug. 1810) survived and was identical with Ellen, an obviously wrong inference. Lastly among evidence for Eleanor's parentage is the already mentioned burial of a "Mrs. Gardner," undoubtedly her mother, in the Grandview Cemetery lot of John Wood. Before Mrs. Gardiner died in 1862 she had probably expressed a wish to be buried in Chillicothe. All of her children except R.J. Gardiner had moved away, but Ellen Wood, then of New York City, doubtless saw to her mother's burial alongside the latter's son-in-law and at least one grandson.

John Wood and his bachelor brother George Wood (1792-1861, for whom see the obituary in the Scioto Gazette, Tuesday 29 Jan. 1861, p. 3, col. 2) were early Chillicothe merchants who made a sizable fortune as porkpackers. According to a Bible record partly confirmed by the research of a great-grandson of John and Ellen, the parents of the brothers, and of their sister, Susanna James Wood, 1798-1872, who as Susan J. Wood m. in Ross County 11 Mar. 1819 Joseph Hoffman, and had two children, were another George Wood, who died in Kentucky 23 Aug. 1802, and Elizabeth Conner (1766-13 Oct. 1818). These last were married "about 1784" probably in Berkeley Co., Va., although no such marriage is listed in Guy L. Keesecker, Marriage Records of Berkeley County, Virginia, for the Period of 1781-1854 (Martinsburg, W. Va., 1969), and after her husband's death Elizabeth Wood moved to Franklin County, Ohio, "six miles from Columbus." Siblings of the three Chillicothe pioneers were Thomas Wood (1788-1834, who married Elizabeth Ramsay and left five children), Charles Conner Wood (1790-1838), William Wood (b. 1796) and Anna Maria Wood (b. 1800). John Wood was in Chillicothe by 13 Nov. 1809, when an advertisement appeared in the Scioto Gazette for a new store owned by Wood and Thomas James. For further details of John Wood's career in Chillicothe, and of Frank Work's as well, see the Ross County Historical Society Newsletter, July, 1981, 1-4, 12. The Chillicothe home of John Wood still stands, at 95 West Fourth Street, as does the rather elegant house of his widow, at 85 South Paint Street. Eleanor Strong Wood built this last shortly after her husband's death, and sold it 2 June 1856, after which she and her daughter Ellen moved to New York City, where one of her sons was probably working for Frank Work. For further information on the Wood and Hoffman families see History of Franklin and Pickaway Counties, Ohio, with Illustrations and Biographical Sketches of Some of the Prominent Men and Pioneers (Cleveland, 1880), 293; Portrait and Biographical Record of Fayette, Pickaway, and Madison Counties, Ohio, Containing Biographical Sketches of Prominent and Reperesentative Citizens (Chicago, 1892), 237, 238, 830, 831; and Aaron R. Van Cleaf, History of Pickaway County, Ohio, and Representative Citizens (Chicago, 1906), 875.

3. Ellen Wood, b. Chillicothe 18 July 1831 (calculated from her age at death), baptized at St. Paul's 22 July 1832, d. New York City 22 Feb. 1877 (death certificate 258528, Ellen Work, Health Dept., Borough of Manhattan, City of New York), m. New York City 19 Feb. 1857 (marriage records, Borough of Manhattan, City of New York, also in custody of the Municipal Archives) Frank Wood, millionaire speculator, broker, banker, horseowner and protege of Commodore Vanderbilt, b. Chillicothe 10 Feb. 1819, d. New York City 16 Mar. 1911 (death certificate 8825, Frank Work, Health Dept., Borough of Manhattan, City of New York), son of John Work or Wark, an immigrant of Scottish parentage born in Plymouth, Devon, England, and Sarah Duncan Boude (ca. 1790-between 1860 and 17 Jan. 1868 or possibly later, called Sarah D. in Ohio deed and census records, and Sarah Duncan Boude in a Work genealogy prepared for James Henry Work, her grandson, and now owned by Mrs. Howard Slade of Essex, Connecticut) of Elkridge Landing, Maryland. For the ancestry of this last see Francis James Dallett, "The Inter-Colonial Grimstone Boude and His Family", in The Genealogist (New York), 2 (1981): 74-114, 257. Sarah Duncan Boude was a daughter of Joseph Boude (1740-post 1793/4) of Philadelphia and Baltimore, stated by a grandson to have been a revolutionary soldier, and Barbara Black; granddaughter of Thomas Boude (ca. 1700-1781) of Philadelphia, and Sarah Newbold (1700-1780); great-granddaughter of Grimstone Boude of Boston, Perth Amboy, and Philadelphia (d. 1716) and his second wife Mary ——— (d. post 1731, m. 2nd George Campion); and great-great-granddaughter almost certainly of Joseph Boude of Boston and Marblehead, Mass. (d. ante 1683) and Elizabeth ——— (d. 1670). So Frank Work too has some New England ancestry. His name was given as Frank "H" Work on his daughter's marriage record (see citation below) and he was called "Franklin" when his brother, John Clinton Work, was made his guardian 23 Apr. 1833 (Franklin Co. probate record 0895, now missing but abstracted in The Ohio Genealogical Quarterly, 5 [1941]: 447—"John Work chosen as guardian of Franklin, aged 14 yrs. and Elizabeth, aged 15 yrs., minor heirs of ——— Work." This entry was found by Mrs. Carol Willsey Bell. Elizabeth Work, who died childless in 1847, m. James Kooken, Jr., 1809-1872, of Columbus and New York City, for whom see the above cited 1880 History of Franklin and Pickaway Counties, Ohio, between 592 and 593). For Frank Work's rather colorful career as a speculator and horseowner see his obituary in the New York Times, 17 Mar. 1911, p. 9, col. 5, and Henry Hall, ed., America's Successful Men of Affairs, An Encyclopedia of Contemporaneous Biography, vol. 1 [New York 1895], 743. His equally colorful will, with 15 codicils, was dated 5 Jan. 1901, proved 29 Apr. 1911, is recorded in Liber 909 of New York County Wills, pp. 295-308, and is several times treated in the New York Times during the first half of 1911 (most notably on 29 Apr., p. 1, col. 3). Mrs. Burke Roche, below, was left no definite legacy, only an allowance as trustees saw fit and only so long as she remained separated from Aurel Batonyi; the Burke Roche grandsons to receive their share had to become American citizens, keep permanent legal U.S. residence, and take the surname Work; and his granddaughter, then Mrs. Cynthia Burke Roche Burden, to receive her share must not marry a foreigner or visit Great Britain during the lifetime of her father. Most of these stipulations were ignored, and Work's daughters and then his grandchildren divided the estate equitably among themselves and the other heirs.

4. Frances Eleanor (usually called Frances Ellen) Work, b. New York City 27 Oct. 1857, d. there 26 Jan. 1947 (death certificate 2372, Mrs. Frances Burke Roche, Health Dept., Borough of Manhattan, City of New York), known generally as Mrs. Burke Roche, socialite, one of Mrs. Astor's "400" (Cleveland Amory, Who Killed Society? [New York, 1960], 525) m. 1) Christ Church, New York City 22 Sept. 1880 (Christ Church marriage records, now in the custody of Father Joseph Zorawick, Rector of Christ and St. Stephen's Church, 120 W. 69th St., New York, NY 10023. No civil record can be found.) Hon. James Boothby Burke Roche, b. Twyford Abbey, Middlesex, England 28 July 1851, B.A. Trinity College, Cambridge, 1877 (see J. A. Venn, comp., Alumni Cantabrigienses, Part II [from 1752 to 1900], vol. 5 [Cambridge, 1953], 338), Member of Parliament for East Kerry 1896-1900, 3rd Baron Fermoy from 1 Sept. 1920 until his death two months later, at Artillery Mansions, Westminster, 30 Oct. 1920. Mrs. Burke Roche was granted an American divorce at Wilmington, Delaware 3 Mar. 1891 and m. 2) in New York City 4 Aug. 1905, as his second wife, Aurel Batonyi, a Hungarian-born groom and horse trainer from whom she was also divorced, on 5 Nov. 1909. For Mrs. Burke Roche's matrimonial career and fuller details on her sons, grandddaughter and great-granddaughter below, see various entries in The (London) Times and the New York Times, both indexed, recent editions of Burke's Genealogical and Heraldic History of the Peerage, Baronetage, and Knightage and Debrett's Peerage, Baronetage, Knightage and Companionage (the articles Fermoy and Spencer in both) and of the British Who's Who and Who Was Who, and the Genealogists' Magazine, 20 (1981): 192-197, 281.

5. Edmund Maurice Burke Roche, 4th Baron Fermoy, b. Chelsea, England 15 May 1885, d. King's Lynn 8 July 1955, British M.P. for King's Lynn 1924-35 and 1943-5, m. St. Devenick's, Bieldside, Aberdeenshire, Scotland 17 Sept. 1931 Ruth Sylvia Gill, b. Dalhebity, Bieldside, Aberdeenshire 2 Oct. 1908, still living, Woman of the Bedchamber to Queen Mother Elizabeth since 1960. Lord Fermoy and his twin bachelor brother, the Hon. Francis George Burke Roche (d. Newport, R.I. 30 Oct. 1958), both lived after their parents divorce with their mother in the U.S., prepared at St. Paul's School, Concord, N.H., 1899-1905, and graduated from Harvard College in 1909. Lord Fermoy worked in various departments of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad from the fall of 1909 until World War I, in which he served in France as a U.S. Army captain. After his father's death in 1920 he returned to England. For further details see Arthur Stanwood Pier, St. Paul's School, 1855-1934 (New York, 1934), 325, 327, 331, 332 and 342, the several twentieth-century alumni directories of St. Paul's, and the decennial (1919), 25th (1934), 30th (1939), 40th (1949), 45th (1954) and 50th (1959) anniversary reports of the 1909 class of Harvard College. The last two Harvard class reports mention Lord Fermoy's friendship with the royal family at Sandringham.

6. The Honorable Frances Ruth Burke Roche, b. Park House, Sandringham, 20 Jan. 1936, m. 1) at Westminster Abbey 1 June 1954 Edward John Spencer, Viscount Althorp, 8th Earl Spencer since 9 June 1975, b. Sussex Square, London 24 Jan. 1924, Royal Equerry 1950-4. Viscount Althorp and his wife obtained a divorce in 1969 and she m. 2) 2 May 1969, as his second wife, Peter Shand Kydd.

7. Lady Diana Frances Spencer, now H.R.H. The Princess of Wales, b. Park House, Sandringham 1 July 1961, m. at St. Paul's Cathedral 29 July 1981, H.R.H. Prince Charles Philip Arthur George, Prince of Wales, b. at Buckingham Palace 14 Nov. 1948.

In the following table Dr. Strong is given the number 1, his parents 2-3, grandparents 4-7, great-grandparents 8-15, great-great-grandparents 16-31, great-great-great-grandparents 32-63, and great-great-great-great-grandparents 64-127. For the parents of any given ancestor (say 10), refer to the individuals with double that number (the father) and double that number plus one (the mother) (i.e., 20 and 21); for the child of an ancestor, refer to the individual with half that number (5). If this last is female, her number will be odd, and to find her child divide by two and discard the remaining 1/2 (thus the child of 5 is 2).

1. Dr. Joseph Strong, 1770-1812.

2. Benjamin Strong, b. Coventry, Conn. 13 Oct. 1740, d. there 25 Nov. 1809, selectman of Coventry and member of the Connecticut General Assembly in 1781 who responded to the Lexington Alarm under Capt. Elias Buell of Coventry and served as private and corporal. He thus qualifies as a revolutionary soldier and patriot and is listed in the DAR Patriot Index (Washington, 1967), 657. Two descendants, the first through Dr. Joseph Strong, are treated in the Daughters of the American Revolution Lineage Books, 81 (1925):202 (Mrs. Elisa Anderson Hewett, #80532) and 109 (1929):146 (Mrs. Fannie States Babcock Leonard, #108485). Farmington between 16 and 31 Mar. 1682/3, immigrant probably in 1630/1, in Cambridge 1632, in Hartford 1636, in Farmington 1645. He is called "my cousin" in the will of Judith Morris, widow, of Dedham, Essex, England, dated 25 Jan. 1645 (see the Register, 48 [1894]: 118, 119). His first wife, #47, the mother of his children, is unknown.

48. THOMAS BISHOP, b. England ca. 1618, d. Ipswich 7 Feb. 1670/1, immigrant, in Ipswich by 1636, m.

49. MARGARET ———, d. Ipswich shortly before 29 Mar. 1681.

50. WILLIAM COGSWELL, bapt. Westbury Leigh, Wiltshire, England Mar. 1618/9, d. Ipswich 15 Dec. 1700, m. probably at Lynn, Mass. ca. 1649

51. SUSANNA HAWKES, twin, b. Charlestown, Mass. 13 Aug. 1633, d. Ipswich before 5 Aug. 1696.

52. JOHN FOBES, d. Bridgewater, Mass. 1660, immigrant, in Plymouth, Mass., 1636, later in Duxbury, in Bridgewater, 1656, m. as her first husband

53. CONSTANT MITCHELL, birth and death dates unknown, who m. 2) 1662 John Briggs of Portsmouth, R.I. Nahum Mitchell, in his History of the Early Settlers of Bridgewater, in Plymouth County, Massachusetts, including an Extensive Family Register (Boston, 1840, reprint Baltimore, 1970), 162, called Constant a sister of Experience Mitchell of Duxbury, an identification D. L. Jacobus was inclined to accept. If so, her parents were almost certainly Thomas Mitchell of Leyden, Holland (aged 56 on 15 Aug. 1622, from Cambridge, England) and Margaret Williams, his second wife, widow of Christopher Stocking, who were married in Amsterdam 9 May 1606. See The American Genealogist, 56 (1980): 97, 98.

63. Dorothy Thompson, bapt. Preston Capes, Northamptonshire, England 5 July 1624, d. after 5 Sept. 1707.

66. Thomas Ford, b. England ca. 1590, d. Northampton 28 Nov. 1676, immigrant in the Mary and John to Nantasket 1630, in Dorchester shortly thereafter, in Windsor 1636, in Hartford 1644, in Northampton 1672, m. (perhaps his second wife) Bridport, Dorset 19 June 1616, as her second husband

67. Elizabeth Charde, b. England, bur. Windsor 18 Apr. 1643. She had m. 1) at Thorncombe, Dorset 2 Sept. 1610 Aaron Cooke, bur. Bridport 29 Dec. 1615. See The American Genealogist, 11 (1934-1935): 179, 180; 16 (1939-1940): 41-43; 56 (1980): 233.

78. Robert Blott, b. England, d. Boston, Mass. between 27 Mar. and 22 Aug. 1665, immigrant, in Charlestown 1634, later perhaps in Concord, in Boston 1648. His first wife, #79, the mother of his children, is unknown.

82. Same as 66 above.

83. Same as 67 above.

100. John Cogswell, b. Westbury Leigh, Wiltshire, England ca. 1592, d. Ipswich 29 Nov. 1669, immigrant on the Angel Gabriel to Pemaquid, Maine in 1635, in Ipswich later that year. He was a son of Edward Cogswell of Westbury Leigh (will dated 23 June 1615, proved 12 Jan. 1615/6) and Alice ——— (will dated 25 June 1615, proved 11 May 1616), and grandson of Robert Cogswell, bur. Westbury Leigh 7 June 1581, whose widow, Alice Cogswell, was buried Dilton, Wiltshire 1 Aug. 1603. John m. at Westbury Leigh 10 Sept. 1615

101. Elizabeth Thompson, b. England, d. Ipswich 2 June 1676, daughter of Rev. William Thompson, vicar of Westbury from 1603 until his death in 1623, and his first wife, Phillis ———, who was buried there 19 July 1608.

103. Mrs. Ann Hutchinson, b. England ca. 1595, d. Lynn 4 Dec. 1669. She was perhaps Ann Brown, sister of Nicholas Brown of Reading and daughter of Edward Brown and Jane Lide (daughter of Thomas Lide) of Inkbarrow, Worcestershire (see the Register, 103 [1949]: 182). Her first husband was perhaps Thomas Hutchinson of Charlestown.

108. William Gager, b. County Suffolk, England, d. Charlestown 20 Sept. 1630, immigrant in the Winthrop Fleet. His wife, #109, is unknown.

110. Samuel Gore of London, England, see 55 above.

114. John Luff, d. Salem ca. 1667/8, immigrant on the Mary and John to Boston, 1633, in Salem 1636 m.

115. Bridget ——— living 1671, aged 84.

124. Robert Parke, bapt. Postingford, Suffolk, England 3 June 1580, d. Mystic (Stonington) Conn. 14 Mar. 1664/5, immigrant in the Winthrop Fleet, soon thereafter in Roxbury, in Wethersfield, Conn. 1639, in New London 1649, in Stonington 1658. He was a son of Robert Parke of Gestingthorpe (will dated 12 Feb. 1592/3, proved 3 Apr. 1593) and Alice Chaplin (married Sudbury, Suffolk 1579, daughter of William Chaplin of Long Melford, Suffolk, whose will is dated 1575, when his daughter Alice was still a minor), grandson of William Parke of Gestingthorpe (will dated 25 Mar. 1551, proved 13 May 1551), and great-grandson of another William Parke of Gestingthorpe, d. 1531. This last was likely a son of a third William Parke of Gestingthorpe, living 1484, probable son of John Parke of that place, heir of his father in 1455, son of another John Parke of Gestingthorpe, heir of his father in 1414, son of Robert Parke of Gestingthorpe, d. 1400, and Margaret ———, d. 22 Aug. 1408. The immigrant m. 1) Semer, Suffolk 9 Feb. 1601/2

125. Martha Chaplin, bapt. Semer, Suffolk, England 4 Feb. 1583/4, d. probably by 1643 (whether she came to New England is unknown), doubtless her husband's kinswoman, daughter of William Chaplin of Semer.

126. John Thompson, gent., of Little Preston, Northamptonshire, England, d. London 6 Nov. 1626 m. 2) before 1 May 1616, as her first husband

127. Alice Freeman, birth and death dates unknown, immigrant, m. 2) shortly after 30 May 1644 Robert Parke, #124 above. Alice was a daughter of Henry Freeman of Cranford, Northamptonshire, b. 1560, and Margaret Edwards (m. by 25 Dec. 1591), granddaughter of Thomas Freeman of Irchester, Northamptonshire (will dated 24 Mar. 1585, proved 11 May 1586) and of Edward Edwards of Alwalton, Huntingtonshire (will dated 25 Dec. 1591, proved 16 Sept. 1592) and Ursula Coles (bur. Alwalton 2 Feb. 1606), and great-granddaughter of Henry Freeman of Irchester (will dated 6 Aug. 1580, proved 29 Apr. 1585) and Joan Rudd, of Peter Edwards of Peterborough, Northamptonshire, and Alwalton (b. ca. 1490, d. ca. 1552) and his second wife, Susanna Samwell (m. ca. 1535), and of Richard Coles of Preston Capes (d. 11 Sept. 1575) and Jane Bond (m. 1527, living 1576). An ancestor table of Alice Freeman for 32 generations is outlined in Henry James Young, The Blackmans of Knight's Creek: Ancestors and Descendants of George and Maria (Smith) Blackman, rev. ed., (Carlisle, Pa., 1980), 55-134. Through Susanna Samwell, Alice Freeman and Dr. Joseph Strong have two royal descents. The first, carefully developed by Clarence Almon Torrey and George Andrews Moriarty, Jr., is from Ethelred II, King of England, d. 1016, and Malcolm II, King of Scots, d. 1034, via earls of Northumberland and Dunbar and the Merlay, Gobion, Morteyn and Giffard families. See The American Genealogist, 13 (1936-1937): 1-8; 14 (1937-1938): 145, 146; and 29 (1953): 215-218, and the Register, 75 (1921): 131-136 and 79 (1925): 358-378, and the 19-volume manuscript collection of G. A. Moriarty at the Society. The second royal descent, compiled by H. J. Young from F. N. MacNamara, Memorials of the Danvers Family (of Dauntsey & Culworth) (London, 1895), William F. Carter, The Quatremains of Oxfordshire (Oxford, 1936), volume 8 of the Moriarty manuscript collection, and a few other sources, is from Hugh Capet, King of France, d. 996, through counts of Hainault, Roucy, Montdidier, and Clermont, and the Clare, Wake, Duston, Grey of Rotherfield, Breton, Quatremain, Bruley, Danvers, Langston and Giffard families. The former of these royal descents is outlined in F. L. Weis and W. L. Sheppard Jr., Ancestral Roots of 60 Colonists Who Came to New England Between 1623 and 1650, 5th ed. (Baltimore, 1976), lines 34, 41-43, and 29A. The additional royal descent outlined in 29A, however, through the Corbet, Harley and Besford families, has been disproved; see The Genealogist (New York), 1 (1980): 27-39. Sir John Throckmorton (d. 1445) of Coughton, Warwickshire, and John Danvers (d. ca. 1448) of Colthorp, Oxfordshire, great-great-great and great-great-grandfathers respectively of Susanna Samwell, were each ancestors of several dozen immigrants to the American colonies. These kinships are explored in, "The Mowbray Connection," 7: 162-166, 174, 175. Among other New England colonists Alice Freeman's nearest kinsman was Rev. William Sargent (1602-1682) of Malden, Mass.; see Weis and Sheppard, Ancestral Roots, line 43.

250 Notable Distant Kinsmen of Dr. Joseph Strong & H.R.H. The Princess of Wales

The following alphabetically listed 250 distant kinsmen of Dr. Joseph Strong and the Princess of Wales all receive, or undoubtedly will receive, considerable coverage in the Dictionary of American Biography, Notable American Women, or Webster's Biographical Dictionary. Immediately after each name are the notable kinsman's birth and death years and a word or phrase that denotes his or her area of achievement. If the figure himself, not a spouse, shares ancestry with Dr. Strong an outline then follows, generation by generation, beginning with the figure's parents, then grandparents, then great-grandparents, etc. (names only as space considerations preclude dates or places), and using semicolons to separate generations, of the descent from the ancestor or ancestors shared with Dr. Strong (a pair unless the kinship is of the half blood). These last are identified by their numbers in the preceding ancestor table (see pages 98–103), and no mention is made of earlier or later marriages of any listed ancestors of the 250. Whenever a figure has two or more distant kinships to Dr. Strong, as is frequently the case, all lines are followed in every generation, with commas separating individual couples therein and the couples themselves listed in standard genealogical order, parents of husbands preceding those of wives. Whenever cousins marry, I state in parentheses or brackets following the names of parents, which child of that surname was theirs in the earlier listed (but chronologically next) generation. In the case of marriage between cousins of different generations, the common ancestors are generally mentioned only once, followed by all children in that figure's ancestry. See, for example, number 95. This format is much like that used in the Daughters of the American Revolution Lineage Books. Whenever a figure's spouse is the kinsman of Dr. Strong, the name of the husband or wife immediately follows, in parentheses, the designation of the figure's occupation or achievement. The spouse's ancestry is then treated exactly as a kinsman's, and following the final indication of shared ancestry with Dr. Strong the parentheses are closed. If both a notable figure and his or her spouse were distant kinsmen of Dr. Strong, only the former's kinship is treated.

Charted pamphlets outlining these and some other kinships between the Princess of Wales and notable Americans have been deposited in the Society's library. Deliberately excluded from this list, because there is no documentary proof of the parentage of Mrs. Constant Mitchell Fobes, are the notable descendants of her likely brother, Experience Mitchell of Bridgewater. One such figure was William Howard Taft, 27th U.S. President and 10th Chief Justice; see The American Genealogist, 22 (1945–1946): 205-210.

So far I have found only two major American figures linked to the Princess of Wales through Frank Work's Boude ancestors, originally of Boston and Marblehead. Both married descendants of Grimstone Boude (d. 1716) of Boston and Philadelphia, as follows:

1. Alfred Irénée duPont, 1864-1935, early 20th century head of E. I. duPont de Nemours (1st wife, Bessie Gardner; Dorsey Gardner & Margaretta Sherman Potts; Charles Cazenove Gardner & Maria Ridgely Dorsey; John Syng Dorsey & Maria Ralston; Robert Ralston & Sarah Clarkson; Matthew Clarkson III & Mary Boude; Thomas Boude & Sarah Newbold, great-grandparents of Frank Work).
2. Michael Hillegas, 1729–1804, revolutionary patriot & 1st Treasurer of the U.S. (wife, Henrietta Boude; Samuel Boude & Deborah Cox; Grimstone Boude & Mary ———, great-great-grandparents of Frank Work).

Page 88, line 13. Add: A second Nova Scotian of New England descent, Sir Charles Tupper, 1st Baronet, was prime minister of Canada from 27 April until 8 July 1896. He is also the first major Canadian figure for whom or for whose spouse I have found an American-derived kinship to the Princess of Wales. This connection may be outlined as follows and treated as an addition to the above 250:

Sir Charles Tupper, 1st Bt., 1821–1915, Canadian statesman (wife, Frances Amelia Morse; Silas Hibbert Morse & Elizabeth Stewart; Alpheus Morse & Theodory Crane; Silas Crane & Lucy Waterman; Jonathan Crane, Jr. & Mary Hibbard, [probably] Thomas Waterman III & Martha ———; 28-9, Thomas Waterman, Jr. & Elizabeth Allyn; John Allyn & Elizabeth Gager; 54-5).

Woodfords and Blotts are treated as well, however, in the also cited Stevens-Miller work (407-410, Woodford; 411-413, Blott), and in an older multi-ancestor work, Frank Farnsworth Starr, Various Ancestral Lines of James Goodwin and Lucy (Morgan) Goodwin of Hartford, Connecticut, 2 vols. (Hartford, 1915) (2:183-191, Woodford; 193-201, Blott). Blotts and Cogswells, moreover, are also treated in the cited Thomas Farr volume (32, 33, Blott; 68-71, Cogswell). A second older multi-ancestor work, not quite as good as those already listed, Louis Effingham DeForest, Our Colonial and Continental Ancestors: The Ancestry of Mr. and Mrs. Louis William Dommerich (New York, 1930) covers the Ford (99-101), Allen (40, 41), Woodford (217, 218), Blott (51), Hibbard (107-110), and Luff (129, 130) families.

Page 102, line 18. Add: Mrs. Martha Chaplin Parke, #125 in the ancestor table of Dr. Joseph Strong, was her husband's first cousin and a daughter of William Chaplin of Semer, Suffolk, who was buried there 15 Oct. 1629, and Agnes ———, his first wife, buried at Semer 26 Sept. 1602. William Chaplin and his sister Alice Chaplin, wife of Robert Parke of Gestingthorpe, were children of another William Chaplin, of Tarnes Farm, Long Melford, whose will was dated 15 Nov. 1575 & proved 25 Jan. 1577/8, and an unknown first wife. Robert Chaplin (1602–1643/4) of Bury St. Edmunds, Suffolk, a brother of Mrs. Martha Chaplin Parke, was the father of a lord mayor of London, the grandfather of a baronet, and an ancestor of all viscounts Chaplin and Canterbury, all barons Manners, and various other British peers. A SUPPLEMENT TO "THE NEW ENGLAND ANCESTRY OF H.R.H. THE PRINCES OF WALES"

by Gary Boyd Roberts[1]

Summarized below is all additional data gathered between July and December 1982 that pertains to the New England ancestry and various noted distant kinsmen of H.R.H. The Princess of Wales. These ancestors and kindred are shared, of course, by the Princess's son, H.R.H. Prince William Arthur Philip Louis of Wales, born at St. Mary's Hospital, Paddington, London 21 June 1982. Various of the following additional lines and kinsmen were first traced by Mr. William Addams Reitwiesner of Silver Spring, Maryland. Several others were developed from sources I found initially at the library of the Genealogical Society of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Salt Lake City. The line for Martha Graham, the narrative Work Genealogy, and the Mahon correction were submitted by correspondents, to whom I am most grateful. The "Additions and Corrections" follow the format used at the end of this article's second installment. The "Additional Lines and Kinsmen" section treats, firstly, further ancestry shared by Dr. Joseph Strong, the Princess of Wales, and seven of the already treated 250 notable distant kinsmen, including additional wives for two of them. This section covers, secondly, lines for Richard Morris Hunt and James Schoolcraft Sherman, #s 111 and 199 among the 250 but previously listed only as husbands of distant kinsmen, not as such kinsmen themselves. Sir Charles Tupper, 1st Bt., the Canadian statesman, is considered a 251st notable kinsman, and William Morris Hunt, R.M. Hunt's brother, is listed as #252.

The third part of the "Additional Lines and Kinsmen" section, the bulk of this initial supplement, treats 23 further notable distant kinsmen of Dr. Strong, for a total of 275. These 23 include members of various further "tycoon" families (Astor, DuPont, Flagler, Paley, and Woolworth), several more twentieth century figures active in entertainment, media, sports or the arts (Martha Graham, Cary Grant, Sonja Henie, and W. S. Paley), sixth and seventh U.S. vice presidents (Hobart and Wallace), a ninth secretary of state (Evarts), and a third president of Harvard (Eliot). The format for these 23 additional kinsmen is exactly that followed in this article's second installment. For those among the first 250 figures for whom the following outlines merely a single additional line I have, however, indicated only that figure's number and name, then the last already listed couple through one of whom the new line derives, and finally the line itself. Further correspondence concerning any section of this article is eagerly invited.

1. This third installment of the Princess of Wales monograph was prepared especially for Genealogies of Connecticut Families. It will probably be part of a later supplement that will be submitted to the Register.

ADDITIONS AND CORRECTIONS *

Volume 136, page 95, lines 9-14. Add: According to a narrative extension of the Work genealogy owned by Mrs. Howard Slade, an extension sent to Mr. Reitwiesner by Mrs. Nancy E. Swan of Littleton, Colorado, the immigrant John Work or Wark died in Chillicothe, Ohio 16 Apr. 1823, aged 40. His wife, Mrs. Sarah Duncan Boude Work, who was born 15 Dec. 1790, died in Columbus, Ohio 17 Dec. 1860.

Volume 136, page 101, last line. Add: Samuel Gore of London, England, #110 in the ancestor table of Dr. Joseph Strong, was probably the Samuel Goare who married Elizabeth Hill of Rotherhithe, a district of London, 18 Jan. 1625/6, as found in Boyd's Marriage Index at the Society of Genealogists in London. A grocer, Gore was probably also the "Samuel Goore" who "became free of the Grocer's Co. London 16 May 1622. Late apprentice to Henry Dodd." See the Register, 115 (1961): 252-253, 256.

Volume 136, page 308, line 16. For Jane Mahan substitute Jane Cornelia Mahon (Mrs. Louis Crandall Stanley, mother of Mrs. Dean Gooderham Acheson).

Volume 136, page 309, line 14. For Abigail Wheeler substitute Abigail Wheelock (Mrs. Benjamin Pomeroy).

Volume 136, page 315, line 17, and page 332, line 45. For Mary Cooke substitute Joan Denslow (second wife of Aaron Cooke, Jr., mother of Noah Cooke).

Volume 136, page 329, line 40. For Frances Eaton Spencer substitute Frances Spencer Eaton (Mrs. Charles Atwood White, mother of Mrs. Henry Lewis Stimson).
